COGITATIONS and APHORISMS of Jodok

"How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood. When fond recollection presents them to view, the orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wild-wood and every loved spot that my infancy knew."

—Quoted from "Old Oaken Bucket."

It so happened that a few weeks ago, I had the pleasure of visiting those scenes, referred to in the above quotation, and it was a rare pleasure for me to behold them, yet fraught with a certain weight of sadness, as I thought of the faces and voices of my boyhood school mates, who will never more view, as I did then, the scenes of those happy care-free days.

As I walked across the little playground that surrounded the little old gray school house that then stood on the top of the ridge, and, in fancy, I saw again some of the homely but happy games we there played together, one of these games came vividly to my memory.

It was the game we called "hat ball," and was a game in which almost any number could engage at the same time, and it was usually played mostly during the first few, or last few weeks of the term, before some of the larger pupils had started, or after they had taken out in the spring to help with the spring work on the farms. During these periods it was a practice on account of the diminished number, for the boys and girls to play all together, and "hat-ball" was a game in which all could take part.

The game consisted in each boy placing his hat or cap top downward on the ground so that each touched those nearest to it, and the girls did their sunbonnets or other headgear the same. One boy was then chosen as "IT" and the others must stand back ten feet from the group of hats while he dropped the ball into one of the hats or bonnets. Then all broke and ran as fast as they could while the owner of the hat must run forward, grasp the ball and hurl it at one of the runners. In the event he hits his mark, he then becomes "it." But if he misses his mark, a small chip or pebble or other small object is dropped in his hat, which is called a "pig." And the one he threw at becomes "it." When one of the players had accumulated as many as six "pigs" he must go through the "slapping machine," and that was where the fun came in for all the other players.

But that feature of the game was likely to cause some particular boy to become the but of the game or the joke for the group. I, during my growing years, was much too tall for my age and much too light for my height, and though my legs were quite long they were not muscular and, therefore, I was

West Texas Calves Defeat Chiefs 53-0 in Grid Game Last Friday

The Friona Chiefs lost their second game in as many starts Friday afternoon when they were swamped by the West Texas High School Calves by the score of 53 to 0. Outweighed fifteen pounds to a man, the Chiefs could never get their offense going, while the Calves scored almost at will. The Calves only had to punt three times during the whole game and showed their superiority in every department while the Chiefs plainly showed their inexperience in every phase of the game.

In practice this week several changes have been made in the line-ups which seems to have added much needed strength to the line and the boys have been working over time to improve their blocking and tackling so that they will be ready to entertain Lockney there this Friday night.

Unless further injuries occur in practice this week the Chiefs will be in top shape for the Lockney game this week-end. Joe Farewell, who has been out with a broken leg, and Wayne Womack, who received two fractured ribs and a fractured scapula in the Morton game, probably will not be ready for duty, but all others are in first class shape.

Approximately thirty boys are working out daily for the Chiefs. Of these thirty boys only seven have had previous football experience, but some of the beginners and Freshmen are learning fast and should be able to give a good account of themselves before the season is over.

See chart of games for the remaining games of the season. All of these games listed are conference games with the exception of the game with Lockney this week-end. November the 8th is open.

Verna Miller and Bertram Jack Are Married Sunday

In a beautiful and impressive candlelight ceremony, read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Miller at Floydada, Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, Miss Verna Miller became the bride of Bertram Jack Kline Nall, of Lubbock, officiated.

The couple stood in front of a background of fern and gladioli, flanked with candelabra. The traditional wedding march was played by Miss Mary A. Nall, of Amarillo, and "Because" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Arlon Miller, preceding the ceremony. Mrs. L. D. Chiles, sister of the bride was given in marriage groom, lighted the tapers. The by her father.

Mrs. Jack wore a street length dress of blue sheer virgin wool with a sweetheart neck line, and a white fingertip veil. For something old she wore a necklace belonging to a cousin. Something borrowed was a linen handkerchief, brought from India. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Veri Miller, sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor. She wore a two-piece dress of aqua wool, and Orba Miller, assisted by Lynn, served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Miller chose a navy crepe and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a gray crepe with pink roses for a

Pentecostal Church

The revival that is being conducted by Rev. Ruth Facemire and Rev. Gladys Dick, and is being held in the open air tabernacle, will close, Sunday night.

This revival has been a success from the start under the leadership of these two spirit-filled evangelists. The messages have been soul-stirring the kind that gets down to the roots of sin and causes souls to want to quit sinning. Sister Ruth's songs and manner of singing lifts the soul out of despondency to a place in the faith a d hope of the saviour's love. To be in a divine healing service, when the body of the sick is slain under the mighty power of God, there to be operated on by the hand of Him who heals all manner of diseases, is truly food for the souls of those who are privileged to witness it. Another divine healing service will be conducted on this coming Saturday night. To those who are sick—either saved or unsaved—this will really be a privilege that should not be overlooked. We will be looking for you there and ask that you take advantage of this opportunity.

FRIONA WEATHER

The weather, during the past two weeks, has been much more to the liking of our people than it had been for several months.

For several weeks good rains have fallen in spots over practically all of Parmer County, while other portions of the county, and especially that portion within a few miles radius of Friona, had received only showers and most of them very light, and while it yet has received no heavy down-pours, it did receive last week, two really good soaking rains, which our people really appreciate more than the heavy, beating rains that have visited other portions of the Panhandle.

There is still time for the late sowing and planting of feed crops to yield a large supply of stock feed, though not much matured grain can be expected, and the wheat that was already planted is taking on a vigorous growth, and the soil is in excellent condition seeding the yet unplanted acreage, and those farmers who had not completed their seeding operations are now quite busy at that work.

Taylor and Son Buys Sylvester Machine Shops

A deal has recently been made whereby one of Friona's modern machine shops has changed hands.

The deal was the purchase by Taylor and Son, of the new machine shop and equipment recently built and installed by M. H. Sylvester, on Eighth Street, just across the street from their former location.

The new owners have already taken charge of the property and the business and are doing blacksmithing, welding and general repair and construction work. It is reported that the former owner, Mr. Sylvester, has gone back to the operation of his farm west of Friona.

At a reception, which followed, Mrs. Lynn Miller and Veri Miller served a tiered wedding cake and punch. The table was set with pink carnations and candles. Mrs. Arlon Miller presided over the bride's book. More than thirty guests registered. The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and has been living with her parents graduated from Friona High School and Texas Technological College and is now engaged in wheat farming at Friona where the couple will live.

Wildcat In
 er County Drilling

Wildcat, located four miles northeast of Farmer county, was
 st week by the Oil
 g Company.

st!

 ASSIFIED

The location of the new wildcat, which is listed as Oil Well Drilling Co. No. 1 Tharp, is 1980 feet from the north and west lines of Section 40, Block A, CSS Survey.

The Farmer wildcat is one of 11 new starts in the field, but all of the others were in producing counties; three in Sherman, two in Carson and Wheeler, and one in Hutchinson, Hansford, and Gray.

It is the fourth or fifth well started in Farmer county, the first in the southwest section of the county, and the only one now drilling.

Humble's No. 1 Northcutt,
 which is just across the Deaf Smith county line in Curry county, New Mexico, is reported drilling below 5905 feet this week, with tests showing oil traces at 4282 feet Monday.

To the northwest in Quay
 county, on the same structure, Jensen Oil Co. No. 1 First National Bank was reported drilling at 2570 feet at the weekend.

Fall Gardeners Are Warned To Plant More Seed

COLLEGE STATION, September 22.—Since germination in the fall is usually poor, fall gardeners should plant about one-fourth more seed now than in the spring in order to obtain a good stand of vegetables.

This is the opinion of J. F.
 Rosborough and C. R. Heaton, horticulturists of the Texas A.
 and M. College Extension Service, who also points out that seed with a hard coat, such as spinach, beets, and swiss chard,
 should be soaked in warm water over night before planting. These soaked seed should not be planted in dry soil. Gardeners should irrigate before planting or plant immediately following a rain. To bring the seed in direct contact with soil moisture
 so that growth will start at once,
 the soil may be pressed around
 the seed by tamping with a hoe.
 Walking along the row and pressing the dirt down will also help start germination quickly.

Due to high temperatures during the late summer and early fall, soil moisture is quickly lost through evaporation. It is important to stir the soil frequently to conserve moisture and prevent packing. Generally, say the horticulturists, it is safe to stir
 the soil about two inches deep.
 Deeper cultivation damages the roots of growing vegetables.

In irrigation, a shallow furrow between the rows should be made, so the water may run slowly and penetrate to the plant roots. This system is better than a rapid irrigation or sprinkling on the surface of the soil.

Farm Prices Drop
 In Texas During
 August Says BAE

COLLEGE STATION, September 23.—Prices received by Texas farmers and ranchers for a number of products dropped
 during the month ending August 15.

According to a report from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in Austin, received by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, this decline in prices offset to some extent the general farm price advances recorded in July. The report showed slight to sharp drops in prices received for hogs, peas, peanuts, milk cows, chickens and all meat animals except hogs.
 The most significant declines were in prices of corn, grain
 sorghum, beef cattle, calves, sheep and lambs.

Sharp advances continued on cotton, cotton seed and hogs.
 Cotton at 33.6 cents per pound
 was the highest since July 1920,
 but was still 2.6 cents per pound
 below the peak of 36.2 cents reached in March, 1920. During the month, hog prices were at a record high of $20.30 per hundred pounds. The previous record was $18.60 in August 1919.

Only slightly higher prices were received by farmers during the month for turkeys, dairy products and alfalfa hay. Other farm prices did not change significantly during the period.

Soil Poisons To Kill Termites
 Recommended

Sprays, fumigants, or paints,
 will not kill wood termites that are attacking house timbers, but using a soil poison to cut off the mud gallery from the house will do the job.

Take a Closer Look at SEED

Here is the germ of a red clover seed sending out a soil-anchoring rootlet which in a short time will have the power to fix nitrogen from the air.

Simultaneously, it will improve soil fertility, grow a high-protein crop for livestock and pass on to humans the healthful carotene and vitamins of milk, butter, eggs and meat.

The world needs more of such crops. The price per bushel is excellent for almost every kind of legume and grass seed, soybeans and vegetable seeds. It will pay you well to set aside several acres this fall and arrange for a nearby All-Crop Harvester to save every possible bushel.

The All-Crop Harvester is recognized for its ability to cut close and glean low-hanging pods. Its wide, rubber-cushioned bar cylinder protects the delicate germ and minimizes crackage.

The All-Crop Harvester
 makes it possible to harvest
 over 100 seeds which can end
 human suffering from malnutrition and bring new prosperity to farms everywhere.

Here Is the Latest News
 about Chevrolet Deliveries

Everybody from factory to dealer is doing everything that can be done to speed deliveries to you

We have been informed by the Chevrolet Motor Division that the past month has witnessed only a slight improvement in the rate of production of new Chevrolet passenger cars. As a result, shipments of new cars to dealers for delivery are still far below the level we and the factory had hoped to attain by this time. In fact, through August, Chevrolet's output of cars in 1946 was only 22.6% of the number turned out during the corresponding period of 1941.

We know that Chevrolet is doing everything possible to step up its production totals—to ship more and more cars to us and to its thousands of other dealers throughout America
 ... and we know, too, that we are assured of getting our full proportionate share of the current output and of future production gains.

Disappointing as the total figures have been—and despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of the year—it is nevertheless true that Chevrolet led all other manufacturers in production of passenger cars during June 1946, and has continued to maintain its lead in total production from that day to this.

We shall continue to make deliveries of new Chevrolets to our customers just as fast as we receive them; we regret delays as deeply as you do; we thank you for your friendly patience and understanding; and we promise you a new high motoring experience when you take delivery of your new Chevrolet, giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

Lubbock Veterans Office Is Snowed Under by GI Requests, Says Sisson

The great number of West Texas veterans who are taking advantage of the G. I. Bill and other benefits offered by the Veterans administration, has overwhelmed the VA regional office at Lubbock, Robert W. Sisson, regional manager said today.

"With our present personnel ceilings, we are doing our very best, by working a 48 hour week and overtime nights, to render service to the veterans of our 81 county area.

Our regional office receives on an average of 5,000 pieces of correspondence daily. There are 58,000 veterans' case files on record here.

Approximately 15,000 new case folders have been added to our records in the last three months," Sisson explained.

"We are not offering excuses, we do not believe in excuses, but by way of explanation, we want the veterans who have recently enrolled in college and on-the-job training to know the reasons for the delay in their VA subsistence checks.

There are 3,019 reasons at present to be exact. Of this, 1,908 applications for training are pending issuance of a certificate of eligibility and entitlement, and 2, 111 are pending return of this signed certificate and further certification to the finance officer for payment.

I want to emphasize that these figures do not include the avalanche of requests for subsistence payments which we expect to receive as soon as the colleges and schools have processed the veterans enrollment for the Fall term.

Veterans who applied for schooling under the G. I. Bill just prior to the opening of the Fall term will be delayed for weeks and possibly months in receiving their VA subsistence checks.

It's the old story that so many people can only do so much work. We hope that our situation will be understood and that the veteran will be patient with us until we can overcome this reservoir of work," Sisson said.

"Vocational Rehabilitation and Education division has received more than 18,000 applications for training in the last three months, of these 4,200 have been entered in training. It is expected that the total number of applications will reach 30,000 by December 1.

There are 916 businesses, shops, etc awaiting survey, and subsequent approval by the State Approving Committee, to conduct on-the-job training. With the seven facility survey officers allocated to this region, we are getting the job done just as fast as it is humanly possible.

For the month of August our finance division had on its payroll 14,499 veterans receiving disability compensation in the total amount of $640,160; while 8,443 veterans were receiving $882,240 as subsistence for schooling or on-the-job-training.

We are diligently working at the job, and striving at all times to render the best service, fairly and equally to all," Sisson concluded.

Hereford Chapter of Reserve Officers Association Formed

The Hereford Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association was organized and activated at a meeting of reservists at the county courtroom in Hereford Tuesday night.

O. P. (Pete) Cowart was elected president of the chapter; Earl Stagner vice-president; and Ben R. Ezzell, secretary-treasurer.

Twelve reserve officers, representing Hereford, Summerfield, and Friona, were present at the meeting.

A charter for the Hereford Chapter was issued two weeks ago by the National Reserve Officers Association after an application, signed by ten officers, had been filed.

Purpose of the organization will be to keep local reservists informed regarding new legislation affecting the reserve corps, and various phases of the reserve training program which may be set up.

Membership in the chapter is open to all U. S. Army Reserve officers in the area including Hereford, Vega, Friona, Bovina, and Dimmitt.

Bill Phillips was appointed by the president to head a membership committee and attempt to contact all reservists in the area in regard to the local chapter.

The nearest organized reserve chapter, prior to this time, has been in Amarillo.

Meeting dates for the Hereford chapter will be on the fourth Tuesday of every month. Local chapter dues will be $2 annually, to be collected semi-annually. Dues to the National association are $5 annually.

District I-A Grid Teams Are Heavy Losers in Openers

District 1A football got off to an unimpressive start this season, with teams from this district on the short end of a big majority of the scores.

Most teams in the district have two games under their belt now. In last week's play, only the Canyon Eagles turned up in the winner column, and their victory was over an already down-trodden Spearman team which had taken a 40-6 shellacking from Dumas the week before. Canyon's margin was 39-6, which doesn't prove anything except that Canyon and Dumas are probably on a par.

The Dalhart Wolves, after tying a Clayton, N. M., team 7-7 in the opener, went down 28-6 before the perennially powerful Phillips Black-hawks, who

The next meeting of the chapter will be held on October 22, the place to be announced later.

Reservists present at the initial meeting were O. P. Cowart (Captain); G. T. Higgins (1st Lt.); Dr. Millard Nobles (Capt.); Bill Phillips (Major); Clyde Posey (1st Lt.); James McGuire (1st Lt.); George Jones (1st Lt.); Earl V. Stagner (Major); and Ben R. Ezzell (Capt.); all of Hereford; and Roy V. Miller (Capt.) of Friona and Kenneth W. Neill (1st Lt.) of Summerfield.

are definitely the class of District 2-A.

The Friona Chiefs have yet to score after two games, losing their opener to Morton 25-0 and last week to West Texas High School 52-0.

Dumas, after opening strong against the weak Spearman eleven, dropped a 26-0 shut-out to Perryton last week.

Dimmitt lost their opening game to West Texas High 13-0, and tied Morton 13-13 last week, which makes them several "ouchdowns" better than the Chiefs but doesn't spell much in the way of power.

Tulia opened the season with a 6-0 win over Canadian, and lost last Friday to the Floydada Whirlwinds from District 4-A.

The Hereford Whitefaces, top dog in the district for several weeks, started strong but looked bad against Panhandle last week—and the Panthers aren't rated an even chance in their own district.

Daily Rodeo To Be Feature Of State Fair

A rip-snortin' rodeo reminiscent of the hard-riding, broncbusting days when the Texas cowboy was unchallenged king of the range will recreate one of the most colorful chapters of Southwestern history for those who visit the State Fair of Texas from October 5 to 20.

This fact was assured when W. H. Hitzelberger, executive vice president and general manager of the Fair association, announced that the Pat Half Acre contingent have been signed as a featured Fair attraction, to present two action-packed rodeos a day on the Fair grounds.

All of the robust stunts the early, untamed West will be re-staged in this fast-moving show, presenting in a modern setting such a holiday celebration as might have been enjoyed a half century ago by the pioneers of the new frontier. Mr. Hitzelberger said. Among the outstanding attractions to be held are wild bronc riding, both with saddle and on bareback; calf roping, wild mare milking, steer riding, clown's performances, bull fighting and other special rodeo acts.

Prize money to winners of these various events will total close to $16,000, rodeo officials have announced. A Grand Champion Cowboy of the rodeo will be crowned and will be presented a silver-mounted saddle as a token of his supremacy. To be eligible for the title, cowhands must compete in at least three events, which must include one roping and one riding contest.

The award will be on a point system, high man over the duration of the rodeo to be crowned champion.

Special attractions planned for the exhibition of wild west events include a tee-pee village of full-blooded Cherokee Indians and a herd of buffalo.

Arrangements have been made to house all contestants on the Fair grounds and stalls are available for competitor's horses.

Signing of the Fargo, Oklahoma outfit to stage the wild west show gives the State Fair a well-rounded program with events to please every taste, declared Mr. Hitzelberger.

The Hell's Half Acre outfit is made up of cowpunchers who ride for the love of thrills and danger, full-blooded Indians, untamed broncs, wild steers and other performers who might have stepped right out of the pages of a gripping Western novel.

Going Fishing? Here's How!

To hear Willie Wells and Basil Strube arguing about trout fishing, you'd think it was more important than the atom bomb.

Willie favors dry flies, Basil pool-poos anything but wet flies. Willie swears by a Royal Coachman; Basil won't hear of anything but a Silver Doctor. And by the time it comes to steel rods versus bamboo rods... #IX&**!?!?

But on Saturday, each got back from Seward's creek with a catch that couldn't have differed by more than several ounces!

Each had used his favorite kind of fly, his favorite rod and his favorite place to cast. So over a friendly glass of beer, they allowed as how maybe they were both right... which is how so many arguments should end.

From where I sit, if we all represented another's different opinions—whether about trout flies, or drinking beer, or voting, life would be a whole lot pleasanter.

SET YOUR SIGHTS

It takes planning to achieve a goal

Some young men know what they want and plan for it. Others are still looking for their niche. The new Regular Army can help both.

Honorably discharged after a three-year enlistment, you are eligible for 48 months of education at any college, trade, or business school for which you can qualify. The Government will pay your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year, plus $65 a month living allowance—$90 a month if you have dependents.

If you haven't found your spot, an Army enlistment offers you training in any of 200 trades and skills. You leave the service eligible for further training at the best civilian schools.

You can assure yourself of the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights if you enter the Army on or before October 5, 1946. See your nearest Army Recruiting Station for details.

HIGHLIGHTS OF REGULAR ARMY ENLISTMENT

- Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)
- Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
- A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
- A furlough for men who reenlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Offices.
- Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to enlist or reenlist.
- Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
- Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

war could be seen in the removal of steel rails across numerous Japanese bridges. The Japanese people are living in any kind of shelter they can find. General MacArthur stated there is not an inch of tillable soil in any part of Japan which is not being cultivated and in spite of these efforts a relatively large number of Japanese are still starving to death daily.

The attitude of the Japanese people themselves is hard to evaluate. We were told that during the war and due to the propaganda of the war lords the whole populace was united practically 100% behind the war effort. Since the government controlled all means of information, the Japanese thought they were winning the war even when they were being defeated on every hand. Today, however, they seem to have learned just how badly they were fooled and are very bitter toward their former leaders. General MacArthur gave the Committee a detailed report on the success of the current occupation but it was significant to note that again a rather large number of Russians were trying to incite dissatisfaction among the great masses of Japanese laborers. It might also be interesting to point out that Russia has at least a million Japanese prisoners of war for which they have never accounted to anyone. It is assumed, of course, that these prisoners have been taken into the interior of Russia as slave labor and will never come back.

A good part of downtown Tokyo is largely untouched by the war. The Emperor's Palace surrounded by a moat was not damaged and most buildings in that area are being used by the American occupation forces. The buildings are very modern. However, the area between Tokyo and Yokohama is about as near wiped out as it can be. Hundreds of thousands of Japanese civilians met death when the war lords told them not to build bomb shelters because there was no danger of Tokyo ever being bombed by our forces. When our air raids began, it was too late for them to build any defenses and now the Japanese people are living in anything they can throw together for shelter.

The War Crimes trial was still dragging on while we were there and when I say dragging, I mean the procedure was very, very slow and tedious, largely because each statement had to be translated into several different languages. For example, the American prosecutor would read a short statement and then be compelled to wait until his statement had been translated from English into several other languages. All of those charged with war crimes were arranged in boxes similar to our jury boxes and among those present was Tojo who sat unmoved throughout the proceedings.

There are eleven judges holding the trials with a representative from each of the following:—India, Netherlands, Canada, Great Britain, United States, Australia, China, Russia, France, New Zealand, and the Philippines. The proceedings had been going on for months and it looks as though they will keep on for months to come before a verdict is arrived at.

Our own GIs seem to be getting along very well, as they generally do most anywhere. A good many new soldiers are in the occupation forces. The Japanese people, being usually small in stature, build their houses in proportion with beds a little too short for a six footer and doors too low to walk under without stooping, and the average Jap looks dwarfed when standing alongside one of our average sized Texans.

JODOK

not a swift runner, and my feet being long in proportion to my legs, I was obliged to buy boots far too wide for me in order to have them long enough, and this made another handicap to my speed. All my playmates, of course knew this, and I was frequently given a chance to do the throwing as the ball was often dropped in my cap, and by the time I ran ten steps forward and grasped the ball, the other players were well beyond my reach, so, of course I missed and was rewarded with another pig; thus it is easy to see that I was soon ready for the "slapping machine."

This part of the game was played by all the other players arranging themselves in a line, one behind the other about two feet apart, and all facing the same way, standing with their feet spread well a part, and the "joke" must get down on hands and knees and crawl through the entire line between their feet, while each took a crack at the part of him that went through last, either with their open hands or a piece of board or shingle.

When I had secured my six pigs one of the boys ventured the assertion that I could get pigs faster than any boy in the crowd, at which all the boys shouted with laughter and the girls giggled, like he had said something funny, and I felt embarrassed.

As I went through the mill, most of the boys let down on me as hard as they could, but it did not hurt much, for owing to being so skinny, there was not much there to hurt. But I had a little fuss for a while going under some of the shorter legged boys I humped my back up, lifting them from the ground so that they fell forward on their faces. But the girls, in those days wore dresses long enough to reach their high topped shoes, and when they bent over to get a good lick at me with their paddles their dress tails nearly reached the ground, and the first one I came to, her dress caught on my head and looped up around my face and she fell downward on my back with her feet still astride my neck. Of course that stopped the machine, but when she got herself kicked loose and fell off on the ground, the boys were all howling and the girls giggling, and she was fighting mad.

She said I did not have any sense. I said I could not well help that and I hated it, but she needn't be so mad for her dress was wrapped over my eyes so I could not see, and the boys whooped louder and the girls screamed a little and she got madder. (and I hated it for she was a pretty girl) and she snapped back at me, saying "Jodok, you are the 'piggiest' boy in school. I told her that was just what she thought and that she did not know what she was talking about, and the boys whooped louder still and I was so plagued that I was about to cry—but just then the school bell rang.

I am wondering just why, of all the games and ups and downs we had on that old playground, the one above related should stand out in the foreground, apparently ahead of all others, as I viewed the very spot where the incident happened. However, by the time of the next recess, the girl had evidently forgotten about the little affair and showed no sign of her displeasure toward me, for which I was truly grateful, and for long afterward she apparently showed a friendly rather than a defiant attitude toward me, and she never did rail at me again.

And thus I have found it through life, one must frequently suffer innocently, the railings and indignities of another, as in the case of this girl, who, when her embarrassment and mortification had time to pass away, her anger passed with it and her attitude toward me was changed. It is also true in almost any game, the one who is less able, either physically or mentally, to hold his own with his fellows, is usually the one that is imposed upon.

This is also true in the Game

Who Will Benefit?

That's the 12 Million Dollar Question of your Public Service Co.

A PIONEER IN BUILDING AHEAD FOR THE FUTURE

There are just about as many answers to that question as there are people in the Panhandle Plains Pecos Valley area.

Your Public Service Company's 12 million dollar expansion program will benefit everyone.

There'll be many new industries using low cost, reliable electric power, more homes with the advantages of electrical living, more farmers taking on Reddy Kilowatt as their new "hired hand".

We're happy that in our 22nd year, we're a pioneer in building ahead for the future. Our expansion program will bring better living, electrically, to everyone in the years to come.
