Directors Make Museum Plans

A tour of the second floor of the Floyd County Historical Museum was the highlight of the museum directors' called meeting Monday, June 19.

President Robert Lee Smith and board member Eli Neff showed the workshop and storage walls on the upstairs area, created from wooden showcases bought from the old Woolworth store in Plainview recently. The all-wood cabinets with sliding doors have been stacked three cases high to form two walls of workshop area. The cabinets were bought at an average of $6.50 each, and over two dozen were purchased, Museum material will be stored in the cases until rotated for display. At a recent museum workshop at Texas Tech, the board members were advised to have at least a twoto-one ratio of storage to display space.

Mrs. Alma Holmes reported that 21 more plaques are on the way here from the stone cutter. These will be displayed on the Pioneer Memorial Wall.

Mrs. Reba Henry and Duncan Hollums were appointed to the nominating committee.

During the meeting, nine outof-town people appeared, asked to tour the museum, and were allowed to do so. This pointed up the need for calling on volunteer museum guides. Mrs. Porter Finley has accepted the job of museum hostess three days a week when the Green Thumb workers are there.

Secretary, Mrs. Nancy Marble, was asked to contact museum members - all who have paid dues - to set up a volunteer guide program for the last three days of the week. Inere gister book revealed a steady stream of local, out-of-town, and out-of-state visitors since the museum held open house SEE MUSEUM, PAGE 7

Rural Housing Eligibility Better

Many additional familes in Texas are now eligible for rural housing loans from the Farmers Home Administration, FHA State Director J. Lynn Futch announced today.

"In families where both husband and wife are employed," Futch explained, "the new policy permits half of the wife's gross income to be excluded in determining whether the total family income is within the maximum limit for loan eligibi-lity."

For example, the husband is the principal source of income with $6,000. His wife earns $4,000. His entire income, plus half of his wife's, or $2,000, total $8,000. This is within Texas' moderate income level of $8,000 so the family may be eligible for a Farmers Home Administration loan planted and 125,000 acres of grain sorghum in the county.

There is a lot of early grain sorghum almost heading, and there is much of it ankle high. Most of the cotton crop is beginning to grow as the rainy weather has subsided and hot weather has set in. It seems that some 15,000 acres of cotton in the county received wind and electrical storm damage last Wednesday night and possibly another 15,-000 acres have in the last two or three weeks received some hail damage. The "#$%-&"()" green bugis beginning to hit the grain sorghum and both insecticide and wasps are being used to kill him out. There is one report of midgein some Johnson grass in the Sandhill area and farmers who have late grain sorghum crops will have to be on the alert for midgeinfestation.

Late rains are just now greening up pasture grass, and the overall moisture situation is good in the county at this time, County Agent Doyle Warren is concerned about livestock screwworm danger and will report more on this next

The onion crops look like about half the size in acreage in comparison with last year's crop. . .possibly five or six hundred acres to be harvested in a week or two.

So, if our Floyd County farmer can overcome wind, hail, electrical storms, green bugs, midge, screw worm and hard luck, it should be a good year agriculture-wise.

Road To Delano Film To Be Shown On T.V.

The workers' side of the issue of farm labor unionization will be depicted in a special showing of the film "Road to Delano" on local television soon, according to Boyce Mosley, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau.

The film will be shown on KCBD, Channel 11, Lubbock, on Wednesday, June 28, at 9:30 p.m. County Farm Bureaus in the viewing area of the stations are purchasing the timeforthe showings.

The film, produced by the American Farm Bureau Federation, is built around interviews with some of the grape vineyard workers in the Delano, California, area who were forced to join the farm workers union led by Cesar Chavez without the privilege of secret ballot elections to determine which union, if any, they wanted to represent them.

The tactic used by the Chavez forces was the secondary boycott which effectively closed markets for grapes. Unable to sell their produce, the grow-SEE FILM, PAGE 2

She works in several art media - watercolor, acrylics, charcoal, crayons, embroidery, crewel and batik, but her favorite is oil, and her favorite subjects are horses. She has some formal art training but very few lessons in oil painting, and is for the most part a 'self-taught" artist. She did her first oil work when she was about 16 years old.

Mrs. Wheeler usually starts with a pencil sketch of her subjects and later transfers the art to canvas. She may have as many as seven or eight paintings going at one time she was working on four canvases when interviewed by the Hesperian last week, and many of her paintings hang on the

I was out walking along a country road resterday and just to be doing started counting the empty cans and bottles people had thrown out of their cars. In fifty yards on one side of the road only I found 36.

No use figuring up how many that'd come to, multiplied by the thousands and thousands of miles of roads in the country, but everybody knows it's up in the billions.

And I got to thinking, regardless of the efforts being made to put a stop to this, by everybody from the environmentalists to the newspapers to television to Boy Scouts, Congress and probably the pulpit, apparently people just aren't going to stop doing it. Empty a can or bottle and fling it out the winder. Just one won't matter.

Therefore, a way has got to be figured out to stop it. First, I thought I had a good idea: require cans or bottles to have a ring attached and chain them to the wrist of any

Then it hit me, Makeita $200 fine from one end of the country to the other to throw a can or bottle out of a car. You say, lots of states already have such a fine and the throwing continues? Keep following me. Next, fingerprint everybody in the U.S., from one-year-olds on up, and put the prints on file in a giant computer. Then when highway workers pick up the cans and bottles, all they'd have to do is lift the fingerprints, send them to the computer, and in a few seconds have the name and address of the can-or-bottle-thrower. At $200 a can, with say five billion cans being thrown a year, that'd come to $1,-000,000,000,000, which I think is a trillion. In one fell swoop we'd do one of two things: either clean up the can-throwing habit, or clean up the national debt and have some left over to go into debt with again next year. Any man shows up in a place wearing gloves, follow him.

For "something old" the bride carried a handkerchief which belonged to her maternal grandmother. "New" was the wedding attire. Something "borrowed" was a white Bible from her sister-in-law. She wore a blue garter made by Mrs. Albert Duncan of Floydada, and two pennies in her shoe bearing the birth dates of both the bride and groom.

Miss Sandy Riley, Lock-ney, served as maid of honor and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bennie Sue was matron of honor.

The attendants wore yellow daisy flocked voil gowns fashioned with Empire waist, square neckline and puffed sleeves. Their slightly gathered floor length skirts featured long yellow sashes accending the high waistline. They wore yellow picture hats, yellow velvet chokers decorated with a single daisy. Reception

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Lee Atwood, sister of the groom, registered guests.

The serving table was covered with white lace over yellow. It was highlighted with a traditional three tiered wedding cake decorated with yellow daisies and crystal appointments. Forming the centerpiece were the brides and attendants bouquets. Miss Peggy Jarrett and Cathy Crader presided at the table.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso the bride changed to a two-piece navy and white suit and added white accessories.

Teenagers like to be natural and they go for cotton, the natural fiber. They like cotton in two of its plainest, most rugged forms - denim and corduroy. Names of these fabrics came from France but today's denim and corduroy fashions are definitely American and definitely "in," translated into colorful mod apparel ranging from bellbottoms to hot pants.

What U. S. Spending Costs Floyd County

(Special to the Hesperian) NEW YORK - What portion of the government's new multibillion spending program will be financed by taxpayers in

Floyd County? How much will local residents be contributing, via direct and indirect taxes, to meet their share of the outlays that are budgeted for national defense, education, health, interest on the national debt, social welfare and the multitude of other programs?

The budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 calls for the expenditure of a record $246 billion. It will be felt in one way or another by nearly everyone in the country.

The figure $246 billion, nearly a quarter of a trillion, is too enormous an amount for most people to comprehend. It becomes somewhat more understandable when it is shown that it is equivalent to a spending rate of $7,800 a second. Floyd County's share of the cost is estimated at $47,000 a day, based upon the proportion of the national revenue that the government normally receives from the local regional area.

From a per capita standpoint, it comes to $4.42 per day per local resident.

haved like that of cotton, few people would be complaining about inflation. That's the opin-ion of Dabney Wellford, director of economic and market research for the National Cotton Council.

'Cotton not only has not contributed to the general inflation but to the contrary has been a restraining force." the economist Inflation hit hardest during the four years 1967-71. The price of Middling 1-1/16-inch cotton quality and quotation used in the Wholesale Price Index) was up 4.8 per cent over these four years while the Wholesale Price Index itself rose 12.3 per cent. Influence on Competitors Furthermore, the price of cotton had considerable influence or the price of competing fibers. It's by far the single most important fiber used by the textile industry About four billion pounds of cotton were consumed in 1970, com pared with about 1.5 billion for polyester, its closest competitor."

He said cotton is one of the few industrial raw materials pro-duced and sold under conditions of almost pure competition. Some 300,000 individual producers grow and market it and no single producer or group of producers con-trol enough to influence the price in a material way.

Prices Publicized Cotton prices in various mar-kets are collected by the government and quoted almost every day in government publications and the news media. Every buyer knows what his competitors are paying.

Mr. Wellford contrasted this with the production of synthetic fibers which he said is dominated by just a few corporations. To a great extent, they can determine what the price will be. Eight com-panies now control 80 per cent of the U.S. man-made fiber produc-

"Unlike cotton, it's difficult to find out the real price of most synthetic fibers. It's a well-known fact that the smaller "a textile company the weaker its bargaining position and the higher the price it must pay for most of its fiber — especially polyester and rayon. This tends to reduce com-petition since it puts the small firm at a disadvantage.

"Ability of a few synthetic fiper manufacturers to administer their prices upward, however, is limited by cotton's presence in the market."

The White River lake project is one of the most successful I know. It was built some ten years ago before high prices. Now an oil company is paying for it by purchasing water, and the people of Ralls, Crosbyton, Spur and Post no longer pay water taxes. Recreation brings in some $50,000 per year to the lake authority.

By the way, if you have been fishing at White River and you can't get your fish pulled in on account of the moss, I understand the lake board is considering importing some fish that live on moss. They'll put enough in there to eat it out.

Adults will pay rent on the building. This rent money will be used for janitorial costs, insurance, upkeep of the building. THE REDDY KILOWATT bunch has just released the "cattle on feed" report for the Panhandle. . . and Floyd County has a pretty good bunch of cattle in feedlots. However, we're behind several counties in the report.

FOR SALE: feeder heifers and steers, $36, buys equity in per head. We can finance any deal.

I buy these cattle and deliver them to Mayfield Feed Lots. There must be some of the cowboy romance in our cattlemen, although they have their feet planted solidly in the city. Our ranchers include legal secretaries, airline pilots, attorneys, doctors, car salesmen, farmers, housewives, school teachers and even honest-togoodness cattlemen.
