Floyd Receives Multi - Million Dollar Rain!

One of the best acts in the Ringling Bros. and Sircus that came to Lubbock recently was the name of Gunther Gebel-Williams. He gets in with the tigers and puts them through their tricks, and after getting his leg bandaged Williams was the next day.

Floydada FFA Members To Get Awards At State Convention

Ten members of the Floydada Future Farmers of America Chapter will attend the State FFA Convention in Dallas, Texas, July 12-14, 1972, according to Larry Guffee, President of the FFA Chapter and O. L. Harris, T. G. Harris and Larry Smith, Chapter Advisors.

Tom Assiter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Assiter; Blake Hickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hickerson; and Gary Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Sanders, have been elected by Chapter members as voting delegates of the Floydada Chapter to the State Convention.

No Hail Reports! Row Crops Beautiful

By Wendell Tooley
The timing was almost perfect as a mountain cool front blew into Floyd County bringing with it welcome moisture. Farmers had worked out their crops, had just begun irrigating grain sorghum and really there's no knowing how many millions of $ the rainfall was worth. Cotton is growing off nicely, some farmers did not get the cotton chopping done and will have to get after some weeds in a hurry. It appears there is a shortage of cotton chopping labor. The Texas Employment Commission office reported a need for some 30 to 40 cotton choppers Wednesday.

Rainfall in Floydada totaled .58" but most points in Floyd County measured considerably more. At the McCoy community in the southwest part of the county, a total of two inches were recorded, half an inch Sunday night/Monday morning and another inch and a half Monday night and early Tuesday morning. Nearby at Harmony, Roy Hale measured .40" Sunday night and 1.50" Monday night.

Choir To Hold Car Wash

The Senior High Choir of the Floydada First Baptist Church is sponsoring a car wash Saturday, July 8, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Money earned from the project will go toward financing the choir's three-day Ministries Tour August 11-13. The cost will be $1.50 for an "exterior" wash job and $2.00 for a complete wash and interior cleaning. Car-wash customers may bring their cars to the parking lot behind the church or call the church office, 983-3755, to have their auto picked up, washed, and delivered. The choir is also planning a bake sale on July 15 and a garage sale July 22. Proceeds from those projects also to go towards financing the August tour. The group will perform the musical "Purpose" at the First Baptist Church, White Settlement, in Fort Worth on August 11, tour Fort Worth on August 23 for Easter. (See CAR WASH page 6)

Jim Jordan In Poor Condition

Jim Jordan, 16 year old son of Wendell Jordan of Floydada, is reported to be in poor condition in the intensive care unit of Lubbock Methodist Hospital. The youth sustained a severe brain injury Tuesday night about 8:20 when he fell from a moving pickup on the Sandhill Highway some 1.2 miles west of Floydada.

Investigating highway patrolman Bill Dawson, said Mark Probasco was driving the pickup toward Floydada and was accompanied in the cab by Ashley Wester, Floydada, and Robin Cockran of Lubbock. The Jordan youth was in the back of the pickup. Dawson said companions of Jordan stated the youth had picked up a clod of dirt from the bed of the pickup and as he threw it toward a sign, he lost his balance and tumbled from the vehicle. His friends rushed him to Caprock Hospital where he was transferred to Lubbock Methodist Hospital by Moore-Rose ambulance. Jim's mother resides in Abilene.

School Starts August 21

According to a revised school calendar issued by the Floydada Independent School District, school starts in Floydada on August 21 this year. Registration will be conducted on that day at all Floydada schools. School will be out September 4, Labor Day; November 23 and 24 for Thanksgiving; December 23-January 3 for Christmas and semester break; and April 19-23 for Easter. (See SCHOOL page 6)

Jake Watson Retires From Federal Land Bank Association

Jake Watson, retiring manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Floydada, was honored with a dinner in King's Restaurant Wednesday night of last week. Board of directors served as hosts for the occasion. Board members and their wives include Mr. and Mrs. Tate Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Mal Jarboe, Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rucker, Lockney; Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Garrison of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin, Matador; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lee of Matador; and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lane of Turkey.

Mrs. Allen White, district manager, Lubbock; and the Watsons and their daughter, Mrs. Jim Williams of Abilene. Watson officially retired June 30 after serving as manager of Federal Land Bank in Floydada since July 1, 1949. Jackie Eubanks has been elected new manager and Irvin Fancher Upshaw of Levelland will serve as assistant manager.

To encourage more relaxation and fun for Watson, a fishing rod and reel set plus a gift certificate for additional sporting equipment was presented him by the board and personnel. Mr. and Mrs. Watson are planning a tour of the northwestern states and Canada shortly. Earlier in June the board of directors of the Federal Land Bank of Houston flew the Watsons to that city for a recognition service. Watson met with the Bank's board of directors and officers at their June meeting and visited with other Bank personnel. The Watsons have also been feted with a dinner in Houston at the International Petroleum Club by Herbert H. Decker, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston and George W. Cunningham, vice-president and their wives. The Farm Credit Board presented Watson with a personal plaque of appreciation in recognition of his 23 years of service and dedication to the Land Bank system. The Floydada Association, comprised of Floyd, Motley and Briscoe counties, has become, through the efforts of Watson and the board, one of the top associations in the state, according to officials. Managers from the association offices in Plainview, Spur, Dimmitt, Tulia, and Lubbock joined Watson on his last official day for a surprise luncheon.

Jackie Eubanks Promoted

Jackie Eubanks, 30, was promoted to manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Floydada July 1 upon the retirement of Jake Watson, who had been FLBA manager here for 23 years.

Eubanks had been assistant manager of the Floydada office (See EUBANKS page 6)

CONTEE'S CONTACTS

By Robert Contee

Well at last, Donald Ray's Revue finally made it to town Tuesday. The group gave an outstanding performance. If you don't believe it, ask someone who was there. The Revue was really and truly smoking and the action center was too. The 250 or so spectators were having a swinging time. The audience reeled and rocked to all different types of music.

They threw out songs from hard rock to jazz music to the screaming and hollering fans.

I'll have to give this to them, they played way above my imagination. The ones that stayed at home, boy howdy! If you want I mean, D. R. told me he wasn't trying to make any money out of his performance here. He was just trying to get the youth and grownups of this community together, where they can see eyeball to eyeball. There was room enough for a few more grownups. I understand from a source I will not mention, there is a possibility they might just be invited back to play at a more important or popular location. It all depends on you. You'll have to let me know if you'd like a return engagement. My sources of information want to stay clean until the course is clear. The record "Strut Your Stuff" is in the top 20 down in the southwestern part of Texas. By the way, they played to two full houses both Monday and Tuesday night at Plainview. So you see the Community Action Center was the only place the Revues had smoking.

And now for the gossip most of us look for weekly.

Mrs. Walter Johnson from Oklahoma is visiting her mother, Mrs. Katherine Hearon and family. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Della Plains High here in Big F. She was known as Kathie Mae Hearon then. She left Wednesday for Oklahoma City, Okla. where she now resides.

Rev. Polk from Denver, Colo. was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Minnitt the past weekend.

Elisa and Bravada Garrett caught a plane for Denver, Colo. They left last week and are visiting their brother, Sgt. Austin Garrett Jr. and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tins Manning of Corsicana, Tex. was here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Troy Brooks. Mrs. Manning is the daughter of Troy Brooks and stepdaughter of Mrs. Brooks.

Melvin Minnitt from Lubbock and his family visited Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Minnitt last week. Minnitt is the cousin of Rufus Minnitt of Floydada.

Norman Ray Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Garrett were all here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Austin Garrett Sr. for the 4th of July. Mrs. Garrett said they had a most joyous time.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Coleman Jr.'s relatives and friends had a swinging time. I understood Mr. Coleman to say. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman were the hosts for that big gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Garrett Sr. are planning on attending the family reunion of the Hiblowes at Waco, Texas this weekend. They are planning to visit relatives and friends in Abilene, before journeying on to Waco. Mrs. Garrett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hiblow of Waco.

Harry Samuels, a former big F citizen who now lives in Denver, Colo., is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Samuels.

Irrigation Practices Can Increase Cotton Yields

Since cotton blooms set in the first four weeks of blooming produce 90 percent of the total lint yield, it makes sense to try to set as many blooms as possible. Jim Valliant, research director of the High Plains Research Foundation, said today.

Valliant said farmers with cotton planted after May 10 can look for squares to be set within the next two weeks. "Research data for the past four years indicates that maximum cotton yields were obtained when cotton was irrigated at the pre-square stage rather than waiting until first bloom," he said. He explained that an irrigation at bud initiation or when first buds are sighted is moisture sustaining and helps prevent stress throughout the squaring stage.

This irrigation should be light and applied every other row to help cotton plants set a "full load" of squares without developing unnecessary vegetative growth. "Our results show that an irrigation during bud initiation period produces maximum cotton yield potential," he said.

Long range forecasts maintain the first three weeks of July will be hot and dry. A pre-square irrigation will carry the cotton through the hot, dry period until time for the next irrigation at late first bloom.

A third and last irrigation, still every other row, is recommended to be completed between August 10-15, Valliant said. "This should provide the maximum cotton yields with maximum benefit from irrigation water," he said.

Floyd County Canneries Open July 1

The canneries in Floydada and Lockney will open July 1 for the vegetable and fruit harvest. This date was set in the regular meeting of Floyd County Commissioners June 12.

Other business matters on the agenda included a $50 per month raise for E. T. Rodriguez and the hiring of Wayne Smith as an employee for Precinct 4.

Water Import Study Fund Bill Approved

The House of Representatives in Washington last week (June 26) approved the big annual Public Works appropriation bill which includes funds to complete the West Texas - Eastern New Mexico Water Import Study. House action was based upon the recommendations of the Appropriations Committee, headed by George Mahon.

The $691,000 appropriated this year will bring the amount spent on the seven-year study to a total of $6.1 million.

The bill also includes $481,000 to complete the three-year comprehensive water resource study of the Lower Mississippi Valley, which is closely associated with the Import Study. This $2.4 million water resource study is essential to supplement the information being developed as part of the import study concerning the nature and extent of the availability of surplus water for export from the Lower Mississippi region.

The next step to be taken will be largely dependent on the findings of the present reconnaissance study, scheduled for completion by June 30, 1973. Authorization must then be obtained to proceed with the follow-on feasibility study.

Mahon said, "We do not know what the recommendations will be, but we are, of course, hoping for the best because our needs are very great and time is running out."

Veterans Can Use Dividends To Buy Paid Up Insurance

How to use GI Insurance Dividends to buy additional paid-up Life Insurance is explained in Veterans Administration pamphlets and forms now being mailed to four million eligible veterans.

Jack Coker, VA Regional Office Director, said Veterans who have Insurance Dividends on deposit with VA will be first to receive the information. Mailers to this group of 650,000 started going out in May and will continue through June.

For the additional 3.3 million holders of policies eligible for the extended coverage, VA mailing will start July 1, and continue for 15 weeks. Most of the policies are for $10,000 before extended coverage is added.

Each eligible policy-holder will receive a pamphlet on the new insurance and a form on which he can indicate whether he wants the added coverage.

Those who do not want the extended coverage should return the forms also, Coker stressed, because the Agency will use all the replies to verify File Numbers and Social Security Numbers on its records.

The amount of the "Paid-up Addition" a Veteran can buy depends on the amount of his dividend and his age at the time the Dividend is paid. For example, a 51-year-old Veteran who receives a $70,000 dividend can buy $153,000 in added paid up protection. This is additional insurance coverage, above the face amount of the policy, that will continue through the life of the Policy without an increase in premium.

Primary Votes Cost Up To $4.83 Each

AUSTIN — It costs anywhere from $4.83 to 36¢, depending on where you lived, to cast a vote in the two recent primary elections, Secretary of State Bob Bullock said Thursday.

"Some county chairman organized election," Bullock said, "while others spent the maximum amount authorized."

"In many of the latter instances, a county may have been allowed 400 voting machines, for example, but looking at the situation more realistically, half as many machines probably would have done the job."

Bullock said that the per voter cost was higher for Republicans than for Democrats. "That's only logical, though, since there are fewer Republicans."

Average costs per voter were figured on the basis of the largest vote-getting race. That was the gubernatorial race in both parties.

The $4.83 total was what it cost Texans to pay for the Republican primary elections in El Paso County, El Paso County Democrats' per voter cost ran 50¢.

In Travis County (Austin), on the other hand, it cost 36¢ per Democratic voter while the Republican individual vote tallied out at $2.50.

"The wide variations indicate that some county chairmen were simply better organized, I compliment those county chairmen who recognized the need for frugality in conducting our primaries."

"These figures have reaffirmed our belief that single polling places (for both parties), with the primaries financed through the county clerk's office, would be a positive step

Some school officials feel that elementary grades may remain in the smaller towns, but any definite action will remain with the trustees.

Hog Cholera Confirmed In Area

With the confirmed cases of hog cholera in Dawson and Terry counties, swine producers are urged to use all precautions to curb the disease.

"This costly disease is easily transmitted and if producers notice any sign of sickness among hogs, they should suspect hog cholera first," says Dr. Gene Cope, area veterinarian and Dr. Gilbert Hollis, area swine specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The animals should be checked immediately by a local veterinarian or state or federal animal health official. Farrowing problems, abortions, still-born pigs and weak or "shaker" pigs may be due to cholera.

If a swine owner has the disease confirmed in his herd, federal and state law require that the entire herd be destroyed and buried under governmental supervision, the specialists report. Indemnities can be collected on any hog that dies or is destroyed after the herd has been inspected.

To protect pigs from cholera, the specialists list the following precautions:

1. Buy pigs from reputable sources — bargain pigs may not be bargains after all.
2. Isolate newly purchased pigs for 30 days.
3. Don't mix pigs with those of your neighbor.
4. Keep visitors out of the hog lots. Cholera can be spread by either direct contact from animal to animal; or indirectly on boots, shoes, clothing, vehicles or contaminated feed, water or handling equipment.
5. Haul hogs only in trucks and trailers that have previously been cleaned and disinfected.
6. Do not feed garbage or table scraps to swine unless it is properly cooked (30 minutes at 212 degrees F.). To be absolutely safe, avoid feeding garbage altogether.
7. Turn in any hog cholera vaccine that you may still have on your farm to a local, state or federal animal health official.
8. Eradicate all rodents on the farm to prevent the spread of any of the cholera virus that might be present.

Cope and Hollis reminds producers that there are no specific symptoms of hog cholera. At first the pigs are dull, listless, show a decrease in feed consumption, usually a diarrhea, weakness and temperature of 106 degrees F. to 107 degrees F.

Plumlee . . . desk work at home.

Floyd County Commissioner Recalls Government Changes

By ROGER WHITE
Staff Writer
AMARILLO GLOBE NEWS

FLOYDADA — An almost daily schedule for W. C. Plumlee during his 32 years as a county commissioner here is to climb into his pickup truck and inspect roads and road work in Precinct 3. This will end Jan. 1 when he leaves office after losing a runoff election earlier this year by 30 votes.

"It's a full-time job. I've enjoyed all of it . . . things don't always go exactly like you'd want them to, but I've enjoyed it," he said. Sitting in the living room of his home in a quiet residential area, Plumlee reminisced about the years on the Floyd County Commissioners Court. "Things haven't changed much over the years," he said.

State government "has taken over in some areas and that creates problems."

Among the changes are handling of a surplus commodities program for the needy and paying for elections instead of having them financed locally by candidate's fees.

"But they (the state government) tell you what to do in more and more areas as the years go by," Plumlee said.

Costs are rising, Plumlee said, and a road maintainer which 30 years ago cost $10,000 now costs $37,000 to $38,000.

Rising costs present a problem to county commissioners who must operate county projects with limited funds.

"What we have to do is try to get by as economically as possible," Plumlee said.

"People don't want more taxes, but they want more services . . . there is a greater demand for services now." Plumlee is most proud of the paving of 45 miles of Farm-to-Market roads during the more than three decades he has been a county commissioner.

The commissioner spends a lot of time on the road in Precinct 3, which includes Northwest and Northeast Floydada, Cedar Hill, South Plains and Edgin.

"Usually I get started early in the morning. I look over the road work that is going on and talk to the people," he said.

The roads have improved, and Plumlee said having each of the four commissioners responsible for road work in his precinct "keeps it closer to the people."

Plumlee also is proud of rebuilding of the county courthouse after it burned in the late 1940s.

"We tore off the second floor and extended it north and south . . . built the whole upstairs completely new."

Defeat in the runoff election has not kept the commissioner from his schedule. He lost to Grigsley "Doodle" Milton of South Plains and feels that the public sweep from state offices as the result of the stock scandal in Austin reached even to county offices.

"In many counties, voters turned out commissioners, sheriffs and the tax assessors-collectors . . . they turned out several elected officials in counties all over the state," Plumlee said.

"It was a trend that started with a sweep of elected officials in Austin."

Plumlee said public distrust of elected officials is greater at the state and federal level than at city and county levels.

"Officials must get results" at the local level, too, he said. "I think you always have to be honest and square with the people."

"One of the biggest problems is staying in contact with the people."

The public is more educated than it was a few years ago. "They want results . . . not just promises," he said.

At 74, Plumlee is considering retirement when he leaves office.

As to missing the commission work, he said, "I don't know. I'll just have to wait and see."

"I have plenty to keep me busy," he said. Two large lots behind the house and a variety of flowers that he is growing will keep him busy.

The road paving and maintenance, budget problems and other projects by the commissioners "have had their ups-and-downs," he said.

"But I've enjoyed all of it," Plumlee said.

Plumlee came to the Floyd County area in the depression years from the Fort Worth area, and operated a road maintainer for six years before he was elected a county commissioner.

"Those were rough years," he said. "We don't have sandstorms now like we did then. There wasn't much money, but what you had would go a long way."

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Wants One More Use Of Electricity If It Won't Induce Energy Crisis

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm seems to be adding to the energy crisis this week.

Dear editor: Although the country is said to be facing an energy crisis - this doesn't worry me, I've feared lots of them and the cure is to lie down till they pass, if you aren't alert enough to lie down before they get there - people keep on figuring out more and more uses for electricity.

For example, one outfit says it can break the cigarette habit with electricity. It hooks you up with a wire that sends a shock to your wrist every time you reach for a cigarette. If an electric prod works on cattle, why won't it work on people? You don't see cattle smoking, do you?

Another outfit has rigged up an electric fork for people who over-eat. When you pass a certain number of forks it pulls you to a stop, although I doubt this by picking up a fork by hand.

I don't know how serious this is, but if it won't throw you into darkness there ought to be use of this electric shock treatment.

It's a natural, Hook Cooper's electrical gadget that sends a shock to every member's arm when it increases, even if it means new generating plants in the area.

Have you ever stopped to think like to have a non-smoking, no tax voting Congress? It might be extra tax to pay for the electricity. Yours truly, J.A.

Trial Of Petesy Timmons Moved To Floyd County

The trial of Eddie D. "Petesy" Timmons charged with murder with malice in the February 13 death of James Legg, of Afton, has been moved from Motley to Floyd County.

The Tribune was advised Monday by District Attorney George Miller of Floydada that the change in venue had become official.

It was asked June 19 by District Judge L. D. Ratliff of Spur. There was no objection from either the state or the defense when Judge Ratliff said that he felt it would be impossible to secure a jury in Motley County because of the sparse population of the county and the wide-spread publicity of the shooting.

Timmons, 28, employed by the Texas Highway Department, was arrested in Childress February 14, where he was attending THD meeting. The body of James Peyton Legg, 34, employed as a livestock inspector for the Texas Animal Commission, was found in his pickup on the morning of February 13. Officers said he had been shot by a highpowered rifle. There was a hole in the back of the pickup seat.

District Attorney Moore (110th Dist.) said that Timmons would stand trial as soon as the docket in Floyd County would permit, but that the date could not be announced at present.

He said the original order for a change in venue was oral at the time, but was reduced to writing last week.

Is now the time to refinance loans?

Additional capital for expansion, more money from your equity, debt consolidation, smaller payments - these might be important reasons for adjusting your loan structure. The Federal Land Bank often can provide refinancing at lower cost and greater convenience than you'll find at other sources of credit.

With a Land Bank loan, your debt will be easier to manage. You'll have just one place to make payments, and a schedule that best fits your income. Repayment ahead of schedule is permitted without penalty.

It's sound business to analyze credit obligations at least once each year to make sure you're using borrowed money to maximum advantage. We would be glad to help you compare loan terms, make financial projections, and determine the amount of credit you should be carrying. Should you decide to rearrange your debt structure now, let us work with you on a plan tailored to your needs.

How To Be Blessed In Your Work

It is right for us to seek the blessings of God. It is not wrong to request the prayers of Christ's followers in that regard. James, the New Testament writer, tells us in a few words how to obtain God's blessing. But just because he was able to summarize the requirements and results in a few verses that does not make the realization of them easy. A man might tell us how to get to Dallas with a few words. His instructions and information might be accurate but even if we understood him perfectly that would not make the trip easy or effortless. Knowing how to get there and going there are two related but different matters. On a much larger scale the same is true about knowing how to receive the blessing of God and actually receiving it, so it is worth our time to think about it.

James advises us in chapter two, verses twenty one through twenty five, on how to have God's blessing on our work. First, we are to receive God's word with meekness. The Bible is to become so much a part of us that it can be described as grafted into us. God's Word has never been surpassed or equaled as a practical guide for daily living. Any man who has access to it has a priceless treasure available. But he will not harvest its benefits unless he discovers and applies its principals to his life. That is what James means when he says "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves." A man might own a well stocked grocery store and starve to death in it because he didn't eat. A man might hear and have the Bible but until he actually used its advice in his life he would only scratch the surface of the possible benefits. "But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed." James 2:25
