Whirlwinds Vs. Littlefield In Bi-District Game

District Game Tickets Sale In Floydada

Tickets to the Littlefield bi-district game on sale at Floydada Mayor Preston Watson's office at high school. For the general-ad tickets are $2.50 for adults, $1.00 for students. Reserved-seat tickets will be on sale until 2:30 p.m. today (Wednesday), Thursday (Thanksgiving) morning, and Friday until 3:45 p.m. and will be available at Watson's office, or, if no one is there, by calling 983-2490 during those hours Thursday or Friday.

Tickets will be on sale at the gate at Bulldog Stadium in Plainview Friday night.

...on the 'Wind Cheerleaders...

Search has started — our limit is the sky. The 'Winds' don't know exactly what kind of team they have — they never give up on, every game is important. They will need cheers, stomps, and words of encouragement to keep us going. We want YOUR help in promoting spirit for this game. Join us in helping capture this Bi-District spirit to wear a bow tie and put one at your business all day to keep this Whirlwind spirit on fire.

7:30 Friday at the FHS gym and on to Plainview at Bulldog Stadium — 7:30, for that "one step closer."

Eva Hambright Wins Last Contest

Anyone could do on the Hesperian football contest. The full upset was a six misses, and Hambright managed to win.

Joey Davis of 706 E. Thornton won $2.50 for his third-place entry. Davis' tie-breaker estimate was 30, and he missed these six games: Roosevelt-DC, Slaton-Frenship, Perryton-Crosbyton-Lorenzo, and Rice-Aggies.

Joy Allen of Floydada also missed six games, but showed 21 in the tie-breaker box. Sixteen contestants had seven misses: Jack Waggoner, Stella Samuels, Greg Pruitt, Russ Pratt, Jimmy Jackson, Christine Wilson, Mrs. Bud

CHURCH CHOIRS TO SING

'Battle Hymn Of The Republic'

A community-wide Thanksgiving service is being planned by churches in Floydada to be held in the First Baptist Church Wednesday night.

Goen, Mike Estes, Fred Thaxton, Royce Chadwick, Shannon Rose Paty, and Rosemary Paty, all of Floydada; Conley Bradford of Big Spring, Mrs. Charles McDonough of Petersburg, Jerry Gentry of Crosbyton, and Mrs. Andy Selman of Plainview.

Area high-school upsets brought the contestants' average down last week. Most missed were Denver City's 19-16 loss to Frenship, Slaton's 21-14 victory over Frenship, Morton's 14-6 surprise win over Friona, Lubbock's 16-13 upset of Hereford, and Crosbyton's 7-6 squeaker over Lorenzo.

Among the college games, the Hesperian contest entrants mis-guessed most often on the A&M and SMU-Arkansas games.

No Injuries In Wreck Monday

A wreck on Houston Street about 5:05 p.m. Monday resulted in damages to both vehicles involved but no injuries reported to the drivers, Bob Reeves and Rex Harrison.

Investigating officers said poor visibility and wet streets attributed partly to the mishap, however citations were issued to each driver, one for failing to yield right of way and the other for unsafe speed on wet pavement.

Reeves, operator of Bob's Shamrock Station, was driving a 64 Buick and Harrison, a 68 Pontiac.

Officers stressed the importance in checking vehicle speed on wet pavement, but said the Monday accident was the only one investigated during Floydada's icy conditions.

Elizabeth Farris Receives City's First God And Community Award

During the morning worship service at the First Christian Church Sunday, the minister, Dwayne Grimes, presented Elizabeth Farris the God And Community Award. This award, made available to a Girl Scout who is active in a registered troop and an active participant in her church, was the first to be presented by a minister in the Floydada area, and represented two and one half years of planning, study, and effort.

For the morning service, Brent Wester played the trumpet accompanied at the organ for the opening hymn. The Colors were presented by Renee Grimes, Elizabeth Farris, Reyna Baker, and Teresa Weaver. A Girl Scout Chorus, composed of Cadette and Senior scouts sang "Hymn For Our Time" as the anthem, and "Everything is Beautiful" for the Postlude. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Andrew McCulley. The leader of Cadette Troop 283 to which Elizabeth belongs, and members, were guests for the ceremony. Leaders and members of other Floydada troops were also present.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kinder Farris, Elizabeth is a member of the First Christian Church, and has earned a 10-year attendance award in Sunday School activity. She is a member of the CYF, has attended conventions and youth camps for the church, and has taken part in area and local projects.

A freshman student in Floydada High School, Elizabeth joined the Girl Scout organization at the Brownie level in the third grade, continued through three years of Junior scouting, and is now in her third year of Cadette scouting. She is working with other Cadettes toward the special numbers. Cameron will also lead congregational music. Other special numbers will be presented by Hollis Payne, minister of the Calvary Baptist Church, and Mrs. Payne. Mrs. Bob Copeland will accompany at the organ.

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving message. Rev. C. B. Melton, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, will be in charge of witnessing and Rev. W. L. Hopkins, minister of the Assembly of God Church, will lead prayer. Responsive reading will be led by Dwayne Grimes, minister of the First Christian Church.

All choir members are to be at the Baptist Church to practice at 6:15 p.m. before the services start at 7 p.m.

GOD AND COMMUNITY AWARD . . . Dwayne Grimes congratulates Elizabeth Farris as the Floydada Girl Scout receives the God and Community Award Sunday. (Staff Photo by Jim Huggins)

7:30 p.m. Friday, Plainview Stadium

Barring injuries in workouts this week, the Floydada Whirlwinds will be at full strength for their Friday night bi-district battle with the Littlefield Wildcats. Coach L. G. Wilson reported no injuries in the Whirlwind camp early this week.

The game is set for 7:30 p.m. Friday in Plainview's Bulldog Stadium and Floydada has been designated the home team. Whirlwind fans will occupy the west side stands.

And — "We're ready" — was the word from Wilson. His 'Winds own a 3-0 victory over the Wildcats this year, in a non-conference contest, but this one counts — and the Whirlwinds may still be revenge-minded about last year, when Littlefield knocked them out of the playoffs by the margin of four first downs. The scoreless tie was even in penetrations, 1-1, but the 'Cats had 13 firsts to the 'Winds' nine, and went into post-season play even though they had earlier lost to Olton and Floydada hadn't lost another district game.

The Wildcats will come into the Friday-night clash after two weeks of rest, having clinched the 3-AA title outright November 10.

Floydada had to come from behind in the last quarter Friday to tie Tulia 21-21. The tie gave the 'Winds a co-champs' share of the 4-AA crown, and a 5-3 edge in penetrations gave the Green and White the playoff nod.

"Littlefield has come a long way, both offensively and defensively, since we played them," Wilson said this week, "and we've come on offensively, but we don't know about our defense." The 21 points the 'Winds gave up Friday was the most this year, and the most scored against a Floydada defense since the 1969 regional playoff, when eventual state champion Iowa Park beat the Whirlwinds 36-6 in Plainview. "We're trying to get the defense 'back in the groove' this week," Wilson said Monday.

The Whirlwind head coach was still praising the offense Monday for their sensational comeback against Tulia, when the Hornets thought they had it in the bag. Wilson said end Mike Hale's clutch catches and quarterback John Cagle's pass completions under pressure had to be the offensive highlights of the Whirlwinds' game.

The Floydada defense will be contending with the likes of tailback J. E. Johnson, second-leading scorer in 3-AA with 54 points, when they tangle with the Wildcats Friday, halfback Pat Henderson, who has accounted for 50 Wildcat points, and Leneral Lewis, who scored 42 during the regular season. Kicker Larry Hobraschek has put 33 points on the board for the 'Cats.

Number 45, Johnson, a senior, is the "big man" in the Littlefield backfield, at 6-2 and 185. Henderson, number 20, is a 5-9, 150-pound junior, and Lewis, who wears number 33, is a 155-pound senior. Quarterback Terry Bryson is credited with five TD's and 620 yards passing, and picked up another 435 yards rushing.

Looking back to the Whirlwinds' game with Tulia — why didn't the 'Winds go for the field goal when they got the ball back deep in Tulia territory with 14 seconds left in the game, in an effort to win the district title outright?

Wilson's answer — "We'd had to gamble so much — and come through — on fourth-down efforts, that when we got the ball back, we didn't want to gamble again. A blocked field-goal attempt CAN be advanced. Tulia was probably hoping we'd try the field goal — it was their only chance to win the game. We were playing it safe. We knew we had the playoff spot... and people don't remember co-champions who don't make the playoffs..."

Probable starting lineup for the 'Winds:

- OFFENSE
- Ends — Mike Hale and Marc Smitherman
- Tackles — Drew Lloyd and Steve Hale
- Guards — Steve Holmes and Ruben DeLeon or Mike Hatley
- Center — Jay Jones
- Quarterback — John Cagle

IL Penseroso Junior Study Club Meets

Il Penseroso Junior Study Club met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Holt in the Lone Star Community for a program entitled "Happiness Is... Counting Your Blessings". The meeting was opened with prayer by Linda Terrell and club members answered roll call by counting one of their blessings. The program was in observance of Americanism Day and co-chairmen for the evening were Carolyn Whittington and Barbara McCormick. The program was in the form of a narration by the program chairman and presented a detailed, vivid description of the Mayflower voyage and of the pilgrims as individuals. Following the story of the Mayflower and the first Thanksgiving, interesting photographs and descriptions of Plymouth Rock and surrounding country was given by Mrs. Whittington who has visited there. Early American customs and traditions were discussed and each member was given small decorative pilgrims in observance of our traditional Thanksgiving and American heritage.

During a business meeting, members volunteered to donate items for the Thanksgiving Bake Sale to benefit the Lockney Satellite School. A thank-you note was read, thanking the club for the Halloween party which was given for the Satellite School. Refreshments of cherry cream pie, coffee and soft drinks were served from a gaily-decorated Thanksgiving table to the following members:

Athena Junior Study Club Meets

Mrs. Melba Wood, owner of the "Talent Hut" in Claude, gave the Athena Junior Study Club a preview of Christmas creations Thursday, November 16 in the home of Mrs. Jerry Cannon. Mrs. Bobby Hise acted as co-hostess.

The meeting was opened by the president, Kay Williams, calling the meeting to order. In observance of the coming Thanksgiving holiday, each member gave a sentence prayer. "I am thankful for..." The Pledge to the American Flag was performed, then members answer roll call by donating an item to a Thanksgiving basket which is to be given to a needy family. Mrs. Cannon then introduced Mrs. Wood, a hobby and crafts instructor, who showed Christmas decorations and gift items that could be made before the holiday season. She displayed crafts of glass painting, decoupage, toile painting and gold leaf on such items as purses, pictures and wall hangings. These items ranged in cost from inexpensive to very elaborate and she explained how to make each one. To demonstrate how easy it is to make hand crafted gifts and decorations, Mrs. Wood then cleverly constructed a paper foilage while the club members watched.

Following this demonstration, club members displayed their own hand made gifts or decorations. Among the variety of clever and unusual items were miniature flower arrangements, snowflakes, felt decorations and toile paintings with a seasonal motif. Refreshments of sandwiches, chips, eclairs and coffee were served to Mrs. Wood, two visitors, Lucille Frizzell and Willie Mae Taylor and club members. Mrs. Paul Hrbach and Mrs. Lloyd Lee Widener were welcomed into the club.

and its cultural heritage then gave an assignment for the next club meeting.

A letter from Mrs. Bob Glover was read. She is asking members to write Senator John Tower and President Nixon urging the passage of Bill #3659 which will release funds for research work for MS.

Peggy Wiley, International Affairs chairman, reported that club members by collecting labels and packages of specific brands, which will be donated to UNICEF, will furnish enough money to vaccinate 32 children against smallpox, antibiotic for one child to guard against trachoma, provide 40 glasses of liquid milk, TB vaccine for one child, and 14 DPT shots.

Emma Lou Fry was named to replace Jan Mize on the Park committee. Members were reminded to start preparing for the "Fashions For Fun" contest in January and the reporting deadlines in February.

The next club meeting is "Christmas with my Sweetheart" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mathis. A game committee was appointed and food arrangements were made for the traditional holiday menu. Members were reminded to bring "white" gifts to exchange.

The beneficiaries of the meeting was advised by club members.

FLOYDADA SCHOOLS WILL DISMISS WED., NOVEMBER 22 AT 2:30 FOR THANKSGIVING. CLASSES RESUME AT THE USUAL HOUR MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27

Engagement Of Miss Towler, David Brewer Jr Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Towler of Floydada announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Deborah Anne, to David Brewer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Brewer Sr., also of Floydada. Miss Towler is a recent graduate of Floydada High School. Her fiance attended Floydada schools and is presently employed at Johnson Manufacturing Co. in Lubbock. The couple plans a late January, 1973 wedding.

MRS. DEBORAH ANNE TOWLER

Double Ring Wedding Vows Read Saturday For Miss Deborah Lawson And David Sewell

Double ring wedding vows were read in the City Park Church of Christ Saturday, November 18 for Miss Deborah Jean Lawson and David Lee Sewell. Ernest West, minister of the church, performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock p.m.

A recorded wedding chorus provided background music for Jean Parks of Lubbock and Jack Flippin of Floydada, soloists.

A brass tiered candelabra accented by arrangements of glads and large white mums formed the wedding scene, which was flanked by graduated sizes of jade palms in brass containers. The altar setting was marked with gold ropes and a brass three-candle wedding vow candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lawson and the groom is the son of Mrs. Sue Sewell, all of Floydada.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza fashioned with scalloped chantilly lace. The bodice was styled with a Victorian neckline, empire waist and long Bishop sleeves. The lace accented the bodice front and sleeves, which were also touched with seed pearls. Lace appliques adorned the A-line skirt edged at the hem with matching lace. Her chapel length mantilla fell from a raised crown, encircled with chantilly lace.

The bride carried a white prayer book holding a garland of baby's breath, white and red sweetheart rose buds and streamers. For something old and borrowed she wore her maternal grandmother's engagement ring and diamond earrings, a gift from the groom. A blue lace and satin wedding garter completed the traditional apparel.

Miss Allison Stanley of Lubbock was bridal attendant and Jana Lawson, Floydada, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. The bridesmaid wore a ruby red velvet gown designed with empire lines. A braid of velvet combined with pink taffeta encircled the high waist and a folded band of the velvet was set in at the high old-fashioned neckline. The gown also featured long tapered sleeves and a slight A-line skirt. A Juliet cap of matching red held a tiny veil of deep red. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white mums.

The flower girl wore a gown fashioned to that of the bridesmaid and wore a miniature wristlet of red sweetheart rose buds.

Greg Lawson, Floydada, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer and Doug Sewell, Canyon, brother of the groom, was best man. Serving as ushers were Rex Lawson, Amarillo, brother of the bride, and Johnny Bill Sue, Floydada, uncle of the groom.

The bridesmaid registered wedding guests and Mrs. Dale Lawson, and Mrs. Johnny Bill Sue presided at the serving table for the reception which followed.

The table was laid with a white cloth fashioned with a deep ruffled edge and held a centerpiece formed with pink tinted spider mums and red roses and white lighted tapers. For travel the bride changed to a purple velvet suit with black accessories and wore the rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is residing in Canyon. Both attended Floydada schools and Mrs. Sewell is a junior at West Texas State University where she is a member of Delta Zeta.

Cathy Stoerner Bridal Shower

A Saturday afternoon bridal shower was a courtesy to Miss Cathy Stoerner, bride-elect of Mike Stroope of Smyer.

The event was held in the Providence community home of Mrs. Royce Carthel.

Receiving guests were Mrs. O. A. Mauldin of Plainview, Miss Stoerner, her mother, Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner, and her prospective mother-in-law, Mrs. Marvin Stroope.

Guests were registered at a small table covered with purple net over purple satin. A crystal and silver bud vase, filled with purple and pink flowers, accented the table.

Miss Rhea Williams, Miss Janet McCormick, Miss Linda Howard, and Mrs. Merlin Boedeker served fruit punch and cake squares iced with purple flowers. Purple crysanthemums and pink daisies were arranged with purple tapers to form the centerpiece for the table, which was laid with an ivory-colored cloth.

Miss Stoerner was given a lamp by the hostesses. Assisting Mrs. Mauldin, Mrs. Carthel and Mrs. Boedeker with hostess duties were Mrs. Juanita Gilbreath of Plainview and from Lockney, Mmes. Cecil Boedeker, Donnie Bybee, L. B. Titus, Jr., Ewald Quebe, Jim Fitzgerald, Helmuth Quebe, Paul Hrbacek, Harley Howard, K. E. Morphis, and Melvin Kelm.

Amarillo; Mrs. Don Mc Nicol, Greg and Scott of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hickerson, Blake and Tolya of Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Deanie Henderson, Ginger and Mona; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kellison, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kellison, Mrs.

Wanda Collis, Monty and Mitzi; Mrs. Annie Lee Kellison and the hosts; Mr. and Mrs. Buck Kellison, all of Lockney. Mrs. T. B. Mitchell called in the afternoon.

Mrs. Kellison has 14 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren.

Floyd County Council

Floyd County Council met in the council room in regular session November 17 with four new members.

County Extension agent, Mrs. Billie McMorris, reported a new 4-H Club organized at Dougherty which is showing a great deal of enthusiasm. This brings a total of 203 members in county 4-H clubs in comparison to 160 last year.

Clubs all reported interesting meetings. It was also reported that club survey reports were to be in the agent's office by the 14th. At present club drives for new members are invited to join.

Council president G. Mayfield, presiding meeting, Mrs. Mayfield gave the 4-H Club report. The Council Chamber is planned for December. The council room is also being installed.

Mrs. Mary Patton Observes 96th Birthday Last Sunday

Having been born during the administration of President Ulysses S. Grant on November 19, 1876, Mrs. Mary A. Patton of Plainview, celebrated her 96th birthday last Sunday. She received a letter of congratulations and well wishes from Governor and Mrs. Preston Smith, plus additional letters, cards, and gifts from her family in observance of this great milestone in her life. The family gathered for the celebration in the home of the honoree's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Rice in Plainview on Sunday, November 19, and enjoyed a bountiful turkey dinner with all the trimmings at the noon hour.

Mrs. Patton was born Mary Allie Carter on Goliad County, Texas, one of eleven children to the late William E. and Susan Bushares Carter and George W. Patton in holy da.

A BOUQUET of roses through my column is being extended Norvell Willis this week after 12 years of distributing the Lubbock Avalanche Journal to many homes in Floydada. A number of his subscribers have commented to me of his faithful service and the delivery of the paper in all types of weather. Norvell is presently confined to home due to illness. The Donnie Holladay family is now delivering the Journal.

WE have had a lot written about parents understanding their teenagers. Here is one for the teenagers in understanding their parents:

—Try to understand your parents' music; play Glenn Miller's "Moonlight Serenade" on the stereo until you are accustomed to the strange sound.

—Be patient with the under-achiever.

—When you find your dieting mother sneaking salted cashews, don't show your disapproval; reason with her.

—Encourage parents to talk about their problems. Remember that things like earning a living and paying off the mortgage seem important to them.

—Be tolerant of their appearance — they want to look like their peers.

—If they do something you consider wrong, make it clear that it is their behavior you dislike, not themselves.

—Parents need to be loved!

WE of today expect the material things in life and seldom give thanks for them. Seldom do we pray for a harvest to see us through the winter months as our ancestors did. We have far and away more for which to be thankful than the pioneers of yesterday. As our Thanksgiving season approaches, let us be hopeful for a good and lasting peace in the near future and prayerful for the return of our servicemen.

BLUE JEANS DIPLOMACY

The jeans trend is going great all over the world, according to the National Cotton Council.

Denims make up an estimated 80 per cent of the fabric exported by the United States into Japan. In Western Europe it is predicted that the jeans market will soon be about three-fourths the size of the U.S. market.

A recent study in France indicates we may be entering an era of "blue jeans diplomacy." It seems that young people over there think of blue jeans as a way of life, and identify with other people wearing jeans whether they're in the same age group or older.

Eastern Stars In Celebration

Several Lockney Order of Eastern Star members were among guests helping to celebrate the 75th anniversary of Plainview OES, Chapter 37.

The Friday night celebration in Plainview included a dinner, regular meeting, special program, and a reception.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Roach Perry, Mrs. Olive Myers, Mrs. T. B. Mitchell and Mrs. Dimple McGavock.

Shower Held At Mercer Home

Mrs. Doyle Poole Jr. was a surprise honoree at a recent layette shower in the home of Mrs. Dub Mercer in Lockney.

An arrangement of pink carnations tied with blue ribbon was a focal point on the serving table. Punch and cake squares decorated with confectionary green booties were served.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mes. Richard Wiley, Tommy Nance, David Frizzell, Donice Casey, Tom Marr, Jeff Terrell, Glen Cooper, Raymond Watson, and Mrs. Mercer. Their gift to Mrs. Poole was a housecoat and pajama set.

RIGHT now football is much on the minds of the people in our immediate area. Little did we think at the beginning of the season that "Our Whirlwinds" would be where they are today, getting ready to play another Bi-District game. There will be many a follower of the green and white to watch the 'Winds battle Littlefield again. Fans have carried on through the years following their team good or bad. All the fans ask for Friday night is a good game in the manner the 'Winds always play, win or lose, and when the cheerleaders ask for the fans cooperation, stomp those feet, the 'Winds love it.

WHILE we are on the subject of football Floydada was just about in the same situation in 1952 as they are now. The 'Winds were on a winning streak, beating Tulla at a Homecoming, beating the Canyon Eagles, then Phillips in Bi-District, then taking on Childress in Regional play. If the 'Winds take Littlefield Friday night and Childress beats Panhandle in their play-off then the 'Winds will do a repeat of 1952, play Childress, but as the coach says the 'Winds have to beat Littlefield first.

The '52 team was the first football team of the local school to ever get a shot at quarterfinals in Texas Inter-scholastic records. They didn't win against the mighty AAA school but played a good game and made history for Floydada.

paternal grandparents. Christopher Wayne's great-grandparents living at Lockney are Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Henderson and Mrs. W. D. Nance.

Clarence Foster Reminisces About Early Floyd County

PART I

Hi there, this is Clarence Foster. I had been to Floyd and Motley County a couple of times.

It was 1898, my first trip to the Plains, and it was the most beautiful country for a person to look upon.

It had rained a lot, thus the lakes were all full of water, and the grass was four inches or so high.

In 1898 and 1899 my Dad moved his cattle to Motley County, so they might get acclimated to the country before moving them on the Plains. Now this is what a lot of people thought, so the first winter would not be so hard on the stock.

I came out with some of the boys in December 1899. This was during the Christmas season. On Christmas night the boys left camp and went into Matador, to see how west Texans would spend Christmas. They lost me right off, and I was on my own. First I went looking for candy. I found it, jelly beans, and boy were they good. I found out there was a Christmas at the Methodist Church. This was a very small one - room building. I found a seat on the back row, and watched the people enjoy themselves. I was very happy because I had found the right kind of candy.

Sixty-One Years Ago
Yes this is January 24, 1962. Sixty-one years ago to this day we landed on the Plains, in Floyd County.

It was a very beautiful clear day, the nights were very cold. I will go back and start from the first. My Dad, Mother, two sisters and one brother.

My brother-in-law came down from the Plains, with his wagon and team to help us, we had two wagons. We loaded the three wagons with food, clothes, household furniture, corn for our stock, and a few farming tools. Dad bought a new surry with fringe all around the top. This was something outstanding for those days. Now we were really ready to start for the Plains, Floyd County which would be our new home.

It was January the second or third, 1901 before we got started from Jack County. We were living ten miles west of Jackboro.

We are on our way getting a long just fine, making from one town to the next town in a day.

Olney was the first day stop for the night, Seymour the second night, and we should have by-passed Benjamin, but not knowing what we were driving into, we spent the night, near the house of a distant relative of my mother.

Quarantined Fifteen Days

We were on our way early the next morning, looking forward to spending the night in Guthrie. Well to our great surprise, here drove up beside us a man in a two-horse buggy, seemed so nice, like he wanted to help us, and sure enough he did. Told us his business, stating he was Sheriff of Knox County, and he would have to quarantine us.

There was quite a smallpox scare in Benjamin. We were out about fifteen miles from Benjamin in what is called the little Arizona Cedar Brakes. As I said before he was very nice and considerate of our welfare. He said there is a stock tank about three miles from the road and we would be welcome to stop there, plenty of wood and water. Now the water was the same color of the ground, a nice rich red.

So over to the tank we went, and pitched camp, for fifteen days. We did have a good tent, about eight by ten. We did have something to be thankful for, it did not rain or snow the days we were tied up. At last we were released, and we were on our way again, and spent that night in Guthrie. Out early the next morning, on our way to Matador, we did not reach Matador that day, for this was sure enough ranching country and was very slow traveling.

On this road I saw the largest herd of antelope some eighty-five head, it was very exciting to see them. Before we reached Matador we had to cross Tongue River and this was quite a job, as the sand was so deep. The next day we reached Matador but did not spend the night there. We went on to White Flat.

My brother, George, was teaching school at that place, the winter of '899 and 1901. The weather was still very nice in the day time, at night it was sure frosty and cold. The next day we reached the Plains about three p.m., January 24, 1901.

One Room And A Dugout

We are now about five miles from our destination. The place that was waiting for our arrival, was a one room house sixteen by six feet, and a dug out. You can't get very much in a one room house and a dugout. Well we didn't have too much. We set the tent up beside the house and dugout. What we couldn't get in the dugout and house we placed in the tent. There was one thing we had to put in the tent - Mother's steel range cook stove.

It was just a little hard for us to adjust ourselves to all the conveniences we had and didn't have, so mother had to adjust herself to a two-eye batchler stove with the oven on the first joint of stove pipe above the top of the stove. This was not much for looks, but we had something to eat. I will tell you just a little more about the dugout. We used it for a kitchen, dining room and bedroom. The most of the time brother Kent and I had our bed on the dining table, because we didn't like too many in the bed at the same time - Waterdogs were very plentiful and friendly like.

February was a bad month, quite a lot of snow. I would get out in the snow and look until I found a rabbit track and it wouldn't be too long before I would catch a jack rabbit. We would dress them, throw them out on top of a building and let them freeze over night, so this helped keep us in fresh meat the rest of the winter.

March soon came and then the high winds, my, how bad they were. One morning fairly early the wind was at its worst. We looked in the west, and it looked like all the west was on fire. Dad and I caught a couple of horses, and did not take time to saddle them. If we did it would be too late. So we started out bare back and it was about eight miles west to our closest neighbor Mr. and Mrs. Rushing.

We got there, knocked on the door and Mrs. Rushing came to the door. We asked her about the fire in the west. She looked and smiled, saying it was dust blowing up in New Mexico. This was our first experience with march winds. We lost most everything we had in the tent except the heavy cook stove.

The Tradition of Freedom... Our Cherished Legacy

Freedom is a tradition in our great nation. From the earliest beginnings, the courage of our Pilgrim forefathers made it possible. The will and faith of our people have kept it alive. It will remain ours with vigilance and dedication. So—the past, the present and the future are inextricably woven together. Through freedom. Today we give thanks for this precious legacy. We remember and cherish our tradition. We pray that freedom will become the inalienable right of all nations.

time to have a pretty in early morn or evening late. Mr. Reed is one we know . . . You see he's still quite debonaire. . . His eyes atwinkle, his smile just right. . . He keeps the ladies all "affair". Mrs. Jarnagin is one we love Her name? It's Ollivette. . .

She'll always be a friend in deed On that you'd win your bet! To greet these three let's sing a song. . . You surely know the tune. . . The good ole Happy Birthday one. . . So, a one, a two and ZOOM!

With the reading of the poem and the singing of the birthday song the November birthday celebration got under way, Thursday, November 16, 2:30 p.m. Honorees, who were seated at the "honor table", with the exception of Mrs. Mary Kate Daniel who was unable to attend, were Mrs. Ollivette Jarnagin and Mr. Ray Reed. Prior to the beginning of the party Mr. Tooley came up and made pictures of them, which you may see elsewhere in the paper. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a lovely blue, artificial floral arrangement. Places were marked with blue cards. A beautifully decorated birthday cake and a delicious fruit punch were served to honorees, other residents of the home, employees and guests. The next party will be Thursday, December 14, 2:30 p.m. You are invited to attend.

Well, spring is here and it is time for us to get our farming tools out and get them all greased up. There was a Georgia stock, a double shovel, a braking plow, and a one row planter. There was no place for seats on these tools, so we just walked.

This place we moved to was not my Dad's, it belonged to my brother. We had about thirty acres in farm. I don't remember but I am sure I flat broke it. Our crop was crooked neck maize, corn and cane. This was the finest I ever saw grow. The only use we had for this feed was for our stock, there was no market for it.

We brought our cattle up from Motley County. We had plenty of range for them. We were located in the Matador Land and Cattle Company, eighteen section pasture on the plains.

There were two sections in the place we were on and Dad had two sections. Lee Montague had one section, Frank and Fannie Montague had two sections. There was twenty-five or more sections in this pasture.

Hauled Lumber From Childress

I can't recall whether we stayed on or two years on this place. I really think it was two years. In 1903 Dad built on his place. We hauled the lumber from Childress, Texas. Canyon and Childress were the only two railroad towns close to us. It would take us a week to make a round trip. We had to make several trips for the lumber. We built three rooms with upstairs over the kitchen.

It was on one of these trips that a Mr. Walls was loaded with supplies to build a telephone system in Floydada.

Dad got a Mr. Kropp to build our house. While this was being built we fenced about thirty or forty acres for field.

Mrs. Ollivette Jarnagin, 91, Ray Reed, 86, observe Nov. birthdays. Not pictured is Kate Daniel, 76. (Staff Photo)

Dad looked around and found a second hand sod braking plow. Now you got to get this gentlemen set just right or you won't get any sod broke. If this plow is right you can do a nice job, the sod will lay over flat on the ground.

So we planted our maize, kaffir corn and cane. This was planted while I was braking the sod, in the third furrow or the third round. At first some one had to follow me and drop the seed.

Later on some one told us how to fix this thing that we could fasten on the plow down in the furrow. This was made with wash pan and lumber. Don't ask me how to build one or how it works because I don't remember.

How To Harvest Maize

Before I forget I want to tell you how we would harvest our crop. We built about a six foot slide. About half the length we would add on another width. Now go to the blacksmith and get him to cut you a two-foot piece of steel over two or three inches wide, hammer out one side, and sharpen it, then build this to your slide, giving it slight slope back.

Now ready to start to harvest get one mule, hitch him to your slide, get a driver, sit flat down on the slide by the side of the knife and catch the feed in your lap.

Yes, it was loose, shocked loose, and hauled out of the field loose and put in a stack.

New School District

I will tell you about our school. There was a new school district organized. The name is Hillcrest. I think it was organized in 1902. The first teacher was my brother George and the second teacher was Miss Emmie Garrison, now Mrs. Bourland of Flomot.

We lived about seven miles from school. Dad got hold of the running gear of an old buggy. We built the bed and two seats on it. It did not have a top, so all we had to do was sit up and face the cold northeast wind for seven miles. Quite often we would go horseback, and still there was nothing to break that north wind.

The Hillcrest School didn't last too long. There were not enough pupils. So then we went to Fairview, and it was about the same distance, the same old buckboard or horseback whichever we liked.

We had church once a month at Hillcrest. Bro. R.E.L. Muncy preached often for us. Then Bro. G. I. Britain preached. We went some to church at Fairview. We went to Cedar Hill quite a lot. There was a number of young people there. Few of them are left yet. There is Fortenberry, Lackey, and I believe Callie Randolph Wilson, and her sister, Mrs. Mize are all that are left out there. The girls and boys went horseback most everywhere, had quite a lot of parties, had good times, plenty of good horses and saddles to ride. From ten to twenty miles we would go to a party, and think nothing of the miles. After we got our house built and moved in it was quite a lot better for the family. Fuel was a problem for everyone. It was too far to haul coal, so there were only two fuels for us to burn.

Delegates From Floyd Attend FB Meet

Floyd County Farm delegates attended the annual Texas Farm Bureau convention held at the Marriott Hotel in Houston Nov. 19-21.

Official voting was held Nov. 20, with 1,500 delegates representing most of the organized county farm groups. The delegates adopted state resolutions and recommendations on farm issues. Total delegates at the convention was more than 1,500.

Activities began Monday, Nov. 19, with a luncheon. Highlights of the convention included a Discussion Panel on "The Farm of Tomorrow" featuring young people and a panel on "The Farm of Tomorrow."

The convention agenda was headed by Executive Director J. T. Woodson of Waco, Texas. Woodson brought the presidential address. The convention's main address was given by Dolph Briscoe Jr.,

Memorial Books Placed In Memory Of Robert Overstreet

The class of '62 of Floydada High School held a class meeting during homecoming and at this reunion a donation of $28.00 was given in order to purchase memorial books for Robert Overstreet, a member of this class, who was killed in a car accident some time ago.

The money was given to Mrs. Helen Patterson, high school librarian, and she has ordered and catalogued the following books with appropriate plaques in the front of each book:

"Moon Rocks", S. F. Cooper Jr.; "Larousse Encyclopedia of World Geography", Paul Hamlyn ed.; and "A Heritage Restored; America's Wildlife Refuges," Robert Murphy.

These are expensive and well illustrated books and are most appreciated by the student body and faculty of the Floydada High School and we wish to thank this Class of '62 for their generous gift and their remembrance of their former classmate.

CENTER NEWS by Mrs. J.E. Green

CENTER, Nov. 20 — What a dreary, foggy day! But wasn't the snow beautiful? Some of us didn't get to church — those whose cars were in a mud hole like ours. But we don't blame the street — we are proud of our pavement. It was our driveway that hindered. (More graveling to do).

Mrs. A. W. Anderson accompanied Louis and family to church and then had lunch with the family. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson visited her in the late p.m.

Mrs. Frank Dunn got home from Lubbock before the snow set in.

Mrs. Pierce visited the Claud Carpenters Wednesday p.m., as did Mrs. Grady Hall of Plainview.

The Morris Carrolls plan a Thanksgiving with relatives down state.

Sunday p.m. visitors in the Frizzell home were their daughter, Mrs. Garvin Beedy and girls, Tonia and Mitzi of South Plains.

The Claud Carpenters came one day last week.

Mrs. Lucille Sisson visited Mrs. C. E. Finley Tuesday. Mrs. Finley's children, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Finley of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooper of Lockney visited her Sunday p.m.

Mrs. Williams visited Mrs. Plumlee late Sunday. The Plumlees expect some of their children home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denison and her sister, Mrs. W. B. Parrack left Tuesday for North

Platte, Neb. where they visited the women's mother, Mrs. Ada Eaves, and a brother, Buford Eaves and family. From Garden City, Kansas, they drove through snow covered country, and coming home Friday and Saturday drove through snow all the way to Floydada. They found relatives doing well and all had a good visit.

Mrs. Butcher of Lubbock spent the Nov. 12 weekend visiting her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hartline.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas spent Tuesday in Lubbock Methodist Hospital with a brother, Albert Thomas of Haskell, who had surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams of Plainview visited the Thomases one day last week.

A niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Parks and girls from California, spent over the weekend visiting the Hal Thomases and other area relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stout and baby, who are moving to Archer City from Seymour, visited over the weekend with her parents, the Thomas Warrens. Friday evening Mrs. Ola Warren "baby sat" with Mychelle while the other adults attended the football game.

Mrs. Ola Warren visited Mrs. Hal Thomas Sunday p.m.

Quite a few of our people are expecting out of town relatives for the holiday. More good news of these and others next week, we hope.

Let us remember in prayer our dear pastor and family,

Bob Bartlett, Dist. Atty. of Van Zandt County; Roy Reynolds, manager of the Lighthouse Canyon Ranch; Bob Costley of northeast of Canyon; and C. B. Wiley of Wills Point, with three aoudad sheep taken along the Palo Duro Canyon rim during the current open season. The trophies were bagged by Bartlett, Wiley, and a hunter not pictured. The sheep on the right, shot by Wiley, measured 31 1/2 inches, possibly the third largest ever taken in Texas.

Aoudad Sheep Hunters Have Moderate Success

The 1972 aoudad season, at the three-quarter point, has provided hunters in Randall County at least moderate success, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department figures.

Reports from the three checking stations early Wednesday indicated that 35 of the trophy animals had been taken during the first five days of the season. At Palo Duro Canyon State Park, officials said seven aoudad had been brought in. At Quitaque, 22 kills were reported and at Claude, officials had checked 6.

Because animals killed in the four-county area could have been checked at any of the three stations, it was impossible to get an exact success figure for Randall County, a game management spokesman said.

By mid-afternoon Tuesday four hunters, working out of the Lighthouse Canyon Ranch managed by Roy Reynolds, had bagged their animal.

They were Bob Bartlett, District Attorney of Van Zandt County near Dallas; C. B. Wiley of Wills Point; B. C. Schaefer of Canton; and Scott Smith of Earth.

Wiley, owner of an exotic game and gun ranch, said he had been on many big-game hunts throughout the country. "This one has been the best," he told The News. "The people here at the ranch have been wonderful...

the guide service is tremendous."

According to Wiley, he and the other hunters had come on the hunt through contact between their county judge and Randall County Judge Woody Pond.

The animal killed by Wiley measured 31 1/2 inches, considered extremely large when compared with the world record, including the aoudad's native Africa being just over 34 inches. It weighed 208 pounds after dressing.

The largest animal ever taken on the Lighthouse Canyon Ranch was killed by Reynolds in 1966. It measured 32 inches and is believed the second largest ever measured in Texas.

The aoudad, described as more goat than sheep, was introduced into the Palo Duro area in 1957 when the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department stocked 42 of the imported animals. Since that time, the herd number has grown to about 600, as estimated by Reynolds. And according to Wiley, "Reynolds should know more about how many there are

THANKSGIVING

LET US GIVE THANKS FOR THE BOUNTY OF THIS GREAT LAND

Our Pilgrim forefathers conceived Thanksgiving as a day to stop and take stock of all the good things in life.

They had, as we do today, a constant threat of upheaval. They too were beset by problems-economic, political-big and small-but they found time, once a year to thank God and thank each other for all the good things they enjoyed.

We are thankful for the opportunity we have of being part of a thriving community and for the people we are privileged to serve. We pledge our continued efforts to be worthy of your patronage.

Farm Bureau Offers New Protection Plan

The Floyd County Farm Bureau has adopted the new Property Protection Plan offered by the Texas Farm Bureau.

Effective Nov. 1, 1972, all members who have the official "No Trespassing" signs posted on their property are protected against trespass and other offenses. This reward program is provided by the Texas Farm Bureau and affiliated companies.

Action was taken by the county board of directors to adopt the program.

The new service-to-member program provides for the posting of property according to the new anti-trespass law passed during the last regular session of the Legislature.

A reward of $200 is offered by the Texas Farm Bureau and Insurance Companies for information leading to the arrest and final conviction of persons committing trespass, felony theft, arson, or malicious mischief as defined by Article 1350 on property of a current Farm Bureau member.

Each member will automatically have the protection on the effective date provided he has properly posted his property. Signs will be available from the county Farm Bureau at a cost of 50¢ each.

In addition to the sign, the member may elect to purchase name plates that may be attached to the sign. These cost an additional 25¢ each. Decals for automobiles, trucks and other vehicles will be provided at no cost to the member.

The county Farm Bureau will be responsible for completing a form furnished to them for the purpose of reporting information leading to the arrest and final conviction under the program.

The Texas Farm Bureau insurance adjuster will investigate and send the report with further information to the state office. The $200 check will be sent from the Texas Farm Bureau to the county Farm Bureau president who will deliver it to the property extended for another year. He now adds insult to injury by depriving cotton farmers of 13% of their pay acres. This will be a knock-out blow to many Texas cotton farmers."

Naman pointed out that the Department of Agriculture encouraged more cotton production and created the low price condition that now plagues the Cotton Belt. He said that USDA seems intent on putting soybeans and feed grain producers next year in the same predicament as cotton farmers this year.

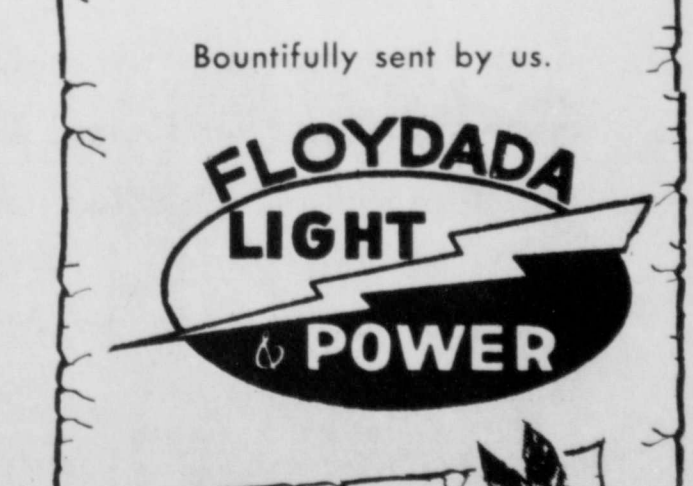

"By removing the 20% set-aside, Secretary Butz is opening the door to the expansion in production of possibly two million more acres in soybeans on cotton acres that have been out of production. This will provide the incentive for southern and southwestern cotton producers to substantially increase their acreage in grain sorghum and corn next year," Naman said.

"Texas cotton farmers stand to lose in excess of thirty-seven (37) million dollars in reduced pay acres on cotton next year because of a decision by the Secretary of Agriculture."

"It is time for Congress to remove some of the discretionary power which Mr. Butz now has and uses so irresponsibly," the state farm organization leader said.

All Across the Land— Farmers Spreading Security Blanket

Farmers across the land are beginning to lay down a giant 'security blanket' that should warm the hearts of environmentalists everywhere.

The 'blanket' is actually a thick layer of foam applied to crops from a ground rig or an airplane. It provides two-fold security: (1) it protects the environment from drifting pesticides that might cause air or water pollution, and (2) it protects crops from adverse weather, insects, weeds, and disease.

According to the National Cotton Council, scientists have been experimenting earnestly with the idea of agricultural foams since the mid-60's. But it was only last year that the first big commercial tests were made.

This year, "foam fever" is beginning to spread across the country and at least a dozen firms are making foaming agents or equipment.

Eventually, some farm experts say, foam will be used on most of the nation's major crops. Already, it's in use in some areas on cotton, corn, soybeans, rice, milo, fruits, and vegetables. And as many as 25 different uses of agricultural foams are projected for the future.

Hailed by many as one of the most promising developments to come along in this field in recent years, the agricultural foams have numerous advantages over conventional chemical sprays. Foam droplets are much larger than the fine particles of spray which are subject to drift. They hit precisely on target and tend to stay where they're put.

Because the foam allows herbicides and other pesticides to be held in suspension longer and with greater plant-area coverage, smaller amounts of chemicals can be used with more effectiveness. This lessens the risk of chemical residue in food crops, and also lowers farmers' chemical costs.

In Iowa, tests showed the use of foam for corn borer control cut chemical costs in half. And in Texas, a cotton farmer who first used the foam two years ago found he was able to make only one application of foam as compared to the three normally required with conventional sprays.

Non-chemical foams are being used in Florida to insulate lettuce plants while a flamer burns off weeds. They're also in service to guard vegetable seedlings from wind and sand abrasion, to provide moisture for newly transplanted seedlings, and to keep frost off flower crops, strawberries, and fruit trees.

In biological insect control programs, experimenters are combining sex attractants with foam to disrupt insects' mating cycles. Another mixture lures pests into the foam where they suffocate.

Researchers also are working on a foam that draws predators or beneficial insects to the control area to wage war against pests.

Foams currently being used or tested vary both in consistency and stability. Some have the consistency of shaving cream and are used chiefly as a soil cover to destroy weeds, prevent erosion, or protect against wind, frost, and sand.

Other foams are milky, sloshy solutions used in pesticide applications to release chemicals to plant surfaces quickly. Stability of the foams ranges from 10 to 15 minutes up to several days.

One surprising side-effect of the new foams is their aesthetic appeal. In a rainbow of pastel colorings—caused by the chemical mix—or in pure white, they add an unexpected touch of beauty to the rural landscape.

As far as the farmer is concerned, however, the beauty of agricultural foam is more than just leaf-deep. It provides him with an effective new weapon in his continued effort to protect the environment while increasing his efficiency in meeting the nation's food and fiber needs.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Bill Bingham of El Paso, and three grandchildren, three granddaughters, three grandsons.

Over $2 billion in social security benefits. They get in their own work as disabled or retired workers. They also collect as mothers, daughters, widows, and retired workers.

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

By Billie McMorris
Floyd County H.D. Agent

Thanksgiving is here, and you know what that means — good food, good times, and goodbye good garments if cranberry stains aren't treated right. For best results treat the stains as soon as possible.

Many stains can be removed easily when fresh, but they're difficult — or next to impossible — to remove later. Always remove stains before subjecting them to tumble drying or pressing — heat tends to set or fix stains.

If the stain remains, make a solution of two tablespoons of hydrogen peroxide to each gallon of water. Test the solution on a hidden section of the garment. Then soak stains one-half hour or longer, if necessary. Rinse twice.

On dry cleanable fabrics, first sponge stain with cool water. Immediately work a liquid laundry detergent into stain. Let stand several hours. Then test a drop or two of white vinegar on a hidden section of the garment to be sure it won't affect the color. If no color change, apply a few drops of vinegar and let stand a minute or two. Sponge with cool water. Cranberry stains are some of the hardest to remove, but if the garment is worth saving it's worth a little extra time and effort to follow stain removal procedure.

After the fabulous Thanksgiving feast is over, there is almost sure to be a lot of leftovers. Turkey leftovers can be turned into countless dishes — from appetizers to main courses, from sandwiches to glamorous dishes.

The first point to consider is proper storage of what's left of the roast turkey. As soon as the meal is finished, scoop the stuffing out of the neck and body cavities of the turkey. Cool the stuffing quickly by immediate refrigeration. Later, cover the cooled stuffing. The turkey should be treated much the same way — cool and then wrap loosely to prevent drying.

If desired meat can be cut from the bone and stored. Some people prefer to wrap white and dark meat separately.

Plan to use frozen leftover turkey within 4 to 6 weeks. One way to prepare these leftovers is to make them into a turkey-club sandwich supreme. It's top for a luncheon, supper or late-evening snacks. To make turkey club-supreme sandwiches, first cover pumpernickle rye bread slices with crisp lettuce leaves. Then add layers of sliced swiss cheese, tomato slivers and sliced roast turkey — both white and dark meat. Top with crisp bacon and serve with Thousand Island dressing.

For a gourmet-style appetizer, try a turkey cube and a piece of dill pickle or preserved watermelon rind on a toothpick. Serve these with a bowl of Russian dressing. A rich well-seasoned cream sauce containing bite-size chunks of turkey is glamorous served over biscuits, split and toasted cornbread, or crisp fried noodles. To make a dish elegant, add pineapple tidbits to the sauce.

Edible Package New For Meats

"Acetoglyceride" is a long word but you may be hearing it more, says the National Cotton Council. It is made from cottonseed. It is colorless, transparent, and—as a packaging medium—has the dual distinction of being both disposable and edible. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Southern Marketing and Research Division

Scouts Aid Pest Fight

There's a new kind of scout. He's looking for insects in the cotton fields.

Usually, according to the National Cotton Council, he's a college student or former student with a farm background. And he has been trained to identify insects. Principal advantages of scouting, according to the Council, are a reduction (1) in the cost of producing cotton and (2) in the amount of insecticides introduced into the environment.

A scout can tell by the insect count how long the grower can wait before starting chemical control. He provides the grower an index of beneficial insects which might be useful in holding a pest like the bollworm in check.

Cost of the scouting service is from $1-1.50 per acre per developed acetoglyceride. They point up the possibility of packaging meat at the packing house and shipping it direct to retailers.

season. In 1971, it is estimated that more than 600 scouts checked about 877,000 acres of cotton.

Insect control costs were reduced from four cents per pound of lint to a cent and a half per pound in Pecos and Reeves counties in Texas.

Scouted farms in Alabama averaged about 200 pounds more cotton yield than farms in the same area that were not scouted.

In the lower Rio Grande Valley, it is estimated that scouting resulted in a savings of $2.7 million in insect control costs on 220,000 acres.

This summer, more than 3 million acres of cotton are being checked by scouts in 14 major cotton-producing states. This amounts to 25% of the total cotton acreage planted.

American workers build four kinds of protection with their social security contributions — retirement, survivors, disability, and Medicare hospital insurance.

In the spirit of Thanksgiving
we pause to say Thank You for your patronage.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS by Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, Nov. 20 services were held in Lockney Baptist Church with a welcome Thanksgiving Community Sunday night at the First Baptist Church with a welcome by the pastor, Rev. Neil

A HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ONE AND ALL

As the years roll by we cherish the happy memories of good friends and customers who have given us the opportunity of servicing them

Lockney

Record and prayer by Rev. Troy Cartmill of the South Plains Baptist Church. The First United Methodist Church of Lockney, the Trinity Lutheran Church of Providence, and the Aiken Baptist Church all had parts in the program. Mrs. Horton Howell of Sterley gave the organ prelude. The message was presented by L. J. Durkop from the Providence Church. South Plains members dismissed Sunday evening services so all could attend.

The Caprock Associational Mission Conference will be held at the South Plains Baptist Church Tuesday night, Nov. 21. Dr. Strauss Atkinson will be speaking, and James Hatley, State Missions Dept. of B.G.C.T. will be the main speaker. South Plains Church will host the evening meals.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Higginbotham and small son from Amarillo visited from Saturday through Sunday afternoon with his mother, Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham in South Plains.

Thirteen members of the sixth grade at the South Plains Elementary School went to Plainview after school last Friday for skating party and supper. Their teacher, Claude Jarrett and other class sponsors, Mrs. Eugene Beedy and Mrs. Claude Jarrett attended the skating party with the children.

Members of Mrs. Lillian Marble's family, including the Fred Marbles, the Keith Marbles, and the Don Marbles and children, and the Marvin Wells and girls from Bryan, where they have recently moved, will be here for Thanksgiving holidays, and will be together in Floydada Thursday for their dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Lubbock and her mother, Mrs. B. F. Harper of McAllen were Sunday afternoon visitors here in the home of Mrs. Harper's brother, Murray Julian and family. Mrs. Harper has been with the Jacksons since last May when she sustained injuries in a car wreck near Post. She will soon be going home and hopes to be in Bandera for the Thanksgiving season. Her son, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harper of Haydn, Arizona, hope to be with them Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marble, Mr. and Mrs. Don Marble, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marble attended the funeral of L. H. Dorrell Thursday.

Only 52 were in attendance at South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning. Many families found it hard to get out of their own yards after the four inch snowfall which hit our area Friday night.

This is Thanksgiving week, and we can't begin to count our blessings. For a wonderful country, and for good crops and a wonderful community in which to live, we all give thanks.

We congratulate our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Dale West, who are parents of a daughter, Christa Dawn, born November 11, at the University Hospital in Lubbock. The Wests, who farm in our area, have an older daughter, Sonja Renee, who is 2 1/2.

Joe Trimble, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Trimble of South Plains, is attending the fall trimester at the Texas State Technical Institute in Waco in aviation maintenance.

Mrs. Don Marble attended Homecoming at Lockney High School November 10.

South Plains School students and teachers will be out for Thanksgiving holidays. Claude Jarrett's 6th, Miss Beccie Helms 5th, Mrs. Dan Kingston's 3rd and 4th, and Miss Barbara Selman's 1st and 2nd grades will all have parties in their rooms Wednesday afternoon. School will begin again Monday, November 27.

Mrs. Bill Clymer, Cindy and Tonya, from Amarillo came Friday evening to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelms.

Mrs. Kendis Julian and Mrs. Buck Ford taught the Baptist Girls in Action Mission Books, Saturday afternoon at the church. Despite snow and mud on rural roads, there were eight girls present, Renee and Regina Sanders, D'Lee Marble, Dana and Diane Cartmill, Kristi and Mitzi Julian and Shawnda Young. Mrs. Ford taught the book, "A Day With Carla", and Mrs. Julian taught the book, "Higher Than Montgo." Pizzas and Bocadillos, a Spanish sandwich of ham and cheese, cold drinks and sunflower seeds, were enjoyed by the girls.

Jerry Calahan is in Plainview this weekend attending a week of army reserve.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian and children will go to Floydada Thursday to have Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Poyner Roberts, and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Roberts, Pam and Mike of Irving.

I am sorry we left the name of Mrs. Tillman Powell out of the attendance list last week at the Lighthouse Electric Christmas gathering of the Hobby Club.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sanders, Shawnda and Brian, who had their lovely new home shown in the recent issue of a magazine.

The Thanksgiving and Christmas supper of the South Plains Baptist Church will be held December 13 at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder were hosts to a family Thanksgiving dinner Saturday in their home. Children and grandchildren present for the day were their son, Rev. and Mrs. Nathan Mulder and their four children and a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Taylor and their four children from Floydada.

Mrs. Lillian Marble arrived home from Bryan last Wednesday after visiting her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells and girls.

Mrs. Keith Marble attended the funeral of a relative, Luther Hamm, 81, of Plainview, Nov. 14. Interment was in Floydada. Hamm lived in Floydada and Dougherty during his lifetime.

We are indeed proud of the Whirlwinds of Floydada who will be meeting the Littlefield football boys in the bi-district game in Plainview Friday night, November 24. We have several boys from our area who play, including Marc Smitherman, a junior, Gary Sanders, a senior, and Rance Young, junior, who formerly lived here. We wish them the best of luck.

BRONSON AS 'CHATO' - The title "Chato in 'Chato's Land'" a United release is showing Sunday at the Drive In at Floydada. One of Charles son's most challenging and unusual a long and distinguished theatre career, son's brutal good looks and virile figure made him a natural choice for of the Apache Indian who is forced to from a peaceful half-breed to a savage warrior. Don't miss it Sunday at the RICHARD CASTELLANO (left) as Cleo and Al Pacino as Michael in a scene from Paramount Pictures' "The Godfather, Part II" in Technicolor Thursday through at the Seale Drive In at Lockney. The stars Marlon Brando in the pivotal Don Corleone.

Hughey. Refreshments of different cheeses, crackers, fruit, fruit punch, and home made cookies were served. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Troy Cartmill and Mmes. Kendis Julian, Tillman Powell, L. T. Wood, Murray Julian, Carl Boteler, Curtis Sanders, Buck Ford, Bletcher Powell and Mrs. Reese Hightower. The Foreign Mission offering goal has been set for $400.00.

People Underestimate Social Security Payment

People tend to underestimate the monthly benefits social security can pay. According to a recent survey, only one person in 25 gave the correct answer to this question:

"Let's take a man 35 years old, with a wife and two young children and average earnings of about $500 a month. If he became disabled and couldn't work any more, about how much do you think he and his family would get from social security? Or if he died, how much do you think his wife and children would get? (Just a rough guess.)"

The question was put to a sampling of people 18 and over across the Nation. The correct answer is about $500 a month, according to social security officials here.

"But three out of four people guessed the social security payments would be $350 a month or less," a spokesman said. "More than half guessed $250 or less. One out of four guessed $150 or less."

Social security pays monthly disability benefits to eligible workers and their families if the worker is severely disabled and cannot work for a year or more. Survivors benefits are payable to certain family members if the worker dies. A worker's benefit amount is based on his average earnings covered by social security over a period of years.

"If a 35-year-old worker becomes disabled in 1972," the spokesman said, "he and his family could be eligible for disability payments if he had worked in jobs covered by social security for 5 of the 10 years before he became disabled."

If the worker died, the spokesman said, his wife and children could start getting payments from social security if he had worked 1 1/2 years during the 3 years before he died in work covered by social security.

"A woman who works is building similar protection for herself and her family," he said.

THANKSGIVING!

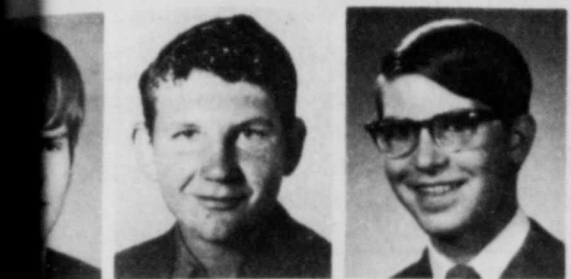

If is a time for quiet rejoicing over our blessings and a time for expressing our thanks for the many good things that we have. We thank you for your patronage and friendship.

FRANK and LENA HAWKINS

THANKSGIVING AT DUNCAN SCHOOL . . . Mrs. Hardy's 3-A class members (left to right) Kirk, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kirk; Jay Elza, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Elza; Dorcas, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Baker; and Susan Turner, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner, put the finishing touches on the class Thanksgiving bulletin board. (Staff Photo)

County Youths Win 4-H Honors

County 4-Hers from Chicago for 4-H Congress has won a $50 bond. Mark Schumacher, the son of Carl J. Marshall, member for six years, was awarded his trip by the American Oil Museum power program which Mark was state winner. He, 16, has worked on the program for three years. A younger group of youths discussed tire signals, and bike accessories. . . .

er, a doctor of the California Athletic Commission saying it appeared brain concussion. The crowd loved it, of course, watching Ramos get his brains scrambled, being knocked down four times before the fight was stopped in the eighth. The brain is suspended by many small tissues and when these are damaged or broken, in a bad enough beating or too many beuts, the boxer becomes punch-drunk. Often these victims die quite young or a few days after taken from the ring, always suffer permanent damage. Mandatory headgear would prevent much of this. But then beatings like that absorbed by Ramos wouldn't be so exciting.

LEGAL NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: Isidoro Muniz Gonzales
GREETING:
You are commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the plaintiff's First Amended Original petition at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 11th day of December, A.D., 1972, at or before 10 o'clock A.M., before the Honorable District Court of Floyd County, at the Court House in Floydada, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 23 day of October, 1972. The file number of said suit being No. 5798

The names of the parties in said suit are: Loyd Carl Hamilton as Plaintiff, and Isidoro Muniz Gonzales and Ambrocio Lazo as Defendants.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: Plaintiff alleges that on or about August 23, 1971, he was operating a truck tractor on Farm Road 54 in Floyd County, Texas, when he approached two vehicles, operated by Defendants herein, which were parked on the roadway, and several pedestrians were in the middle of the road. Plaintiff applied his brakes in order to avoid colliding with the two vehicles and pedestrians and as he did so, his truck "jack knifed" and skidded off the road, causing personal injury and damage to Plaintiff in the amount of not less than Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars, and that such personal injury and damage was due to the carelessness and negligence of the Defendants. Plaintiff alleges Defendants, jointly and severally, were negligent (1) in failing to keep a proper lookout; (2) In failing to yield the right-of-way; (3) In stopping on the paved portion of a public highway in violation of the law; (4) In failing to pull off the paved portion of a public highway prior to the collision in question; (5) In failing to adequately warn Plaintiff of their presence on the highway.

If this Citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

Issued this 27th day of October A. D., 1972.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Floydada, Texas, this 27th day of October A. D., 1972.

/s/ Mary L. McPherson, Clerk
Court Floyd County, Texas.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Thinks He Has Discovered A Way

To Get The Whole Country Out Of Debt

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm gets into international finance and maybe over his head this week. Dear editor:

Now that the election is over by a landslide (the day after it was over an intellectual-type neighbor of mine went into town and told his barber "Give me a haircut quick that'll make me look like a Republican") we can get down to normal discussions, and I got interested in an article I read on the celebrated grain deal with Russia, which I can discuss objectively as I don't grow any grain. I usually lose money on wheat.

According to it, while it's true the Russians caught without enough grain to feed themselves, bought one billion dollars worth from us, they borrowed half the purchase price, 500 million dollars, from us to buy it with. At the same time, seeing as how they still owed us two billion dollars for material we let them have during World War II, they agreed to settle that debt, I guess to keep their credit rating up, and the terms we agreed on were seven cents on the dollar, to be paid back before the year 2,000.

I have been thinking this over, sort of letting it sink in, and have come to two conclusions: (1) American farmers unquestionably can out-produce Russian farmers and (2) Russian financiers unquestionably can out-think American financiers.

I'll tell you, if I could just locate a banker that operates on the international level there's no telling how far I could expand my operations. If he'd lend me say $50,000 and then 25 years later come around, clear his throat, and say the note really ought to be settled and how about paying it off at seven cents on the dollar some time in the next 25 years, and in order not to offend me how about another loan of $10,000 to buy groceries with, I'd say that's the banker I've been looking for all my life.

You know, as I understand it, practically every unit of government in this country and every other one on earth is in debt, along with millions of private citizens, and I was just thinking, why don't we all settle for seven cents on the dollar and get everybody out of debt and back on his feet?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

FAIRVIEW NEWS
by Mrs. Clyde Bagwell

FAIRVIEW, Nov. 20 — Looks like our winter is really here; the first snow of the season fell early Saturday morning, and this Monday morning is still cold and damp and more snow forecasted. Farmers got a few days last week to harvest cotton, then everything came to a standstill again.

Wednesday night, Nov. 15, several of Mrs. W. B. Wilson's children and grandchildren met at her home to help her celebrate her 85th birthday. Those there were Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson, Mr. and Mrs.

Bill Tye, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen, Mike and Norman; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt, Greg, Karen and Christy; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Mize, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. W. B. Wilson, and Mrs. Anna Mae Childress, who stays with Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schenk of Dallas were here over the weekend and visited in the homes of Mrs. W. O. Tye and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wise and Charles visited Sunday night with Mrs. J. L. Day and Wayne.

Mrs. Ray Cook went to Wellington Friday to attend funeral services for her uncle, R. N. Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls were Thursday night dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate in Lockney, along with a number of other relatives of this area. Special guests were O. J. Percy of Wichita, Kan., brother of Mmes. Tate and Walls. Percy was on his way to El Paso on a deer hunt and came by to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fawver visited Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Perry.

18 YEAR OLDS MUST STILL REGISTER

AUSTIN — Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, the State Director of Selective Service for Texas, has again reminded young men of their obligation to register with Selective Service within 30 days of their 18th birthday.

Glantz stressed that the requirement to register will continue in full effect whether the all-voluntary military force becomes a reality or not. Every native born and resident-alien young man is required to present himself for registration from 30 days before to 30 days after his 18th birthday. If, for any reason, a young man has failed to register he should do so immediately to escape the penalty of Federal law.

Failure to register may result in a fine, imprisonment, or both, under provisions of the Military Selective Service Act.

Young men may register at the office of the local board near their home or place of residence, or may be registered by volunteer registrars who are located in most high schools or other similarly convenient locations. Registrar in the Floydada area is Sue Lovell at Floydada High School. In Lockney, the registrar is J. D. Copeland at Farmers Union Insurance Office.

WITNESS MEETINGS ARE RESUMED

Presiding minister Eugene B. Sipe announced that meetings for the Plainview Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses were resumed this week with the regular schedule of Bible study activity being conducted at the Kingdom Hall, 321 Vermont St.

Area members returned home from having attended a two-day Bible seminar staged in the Marshall Junior High School auditorium in Clovis, New Mexico this past weekend where by peak time 2 p.m. Sunday, 1,557 assembled to hear the main Bible lecture, "Is This Life All There Is?"

J. P. Sutherland, district supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses and featured speaker on the program, pointed out "those who profess to believe in the theory of evolution have a bleak future. Although the evolutionist argues that man evolved to his present state of development all by himself, he well knows that as he grows older his health and strength fail, and in time, death will claim him. The belief to which he holds offers no hope of future life."

Contrasting this stand with the teachings of God's Word the Bible, Sutherland said, "Those who believe in the Bible's account of creation know that God made our first parents and he assigned the human family a permanent place in his purpose." Mr. Sutherland drew attention to many scripture texts supporting the idea of a completely new administration in the hands of Jesus Christ to oversee the affairs of mankind and lead them to the fulfillment of God's purpose for man.

In commenting about the assembly Sipe said, "It was encouraging for us to see the fruits of our labor as 38 new ministers symbolized their dedication to Jehovah by water baptism on Sunday morning. Sipe stated, "Over 680,000 people worldwide have made a like response to the Bible educational activities of Jehovah's Witnesses and have joined in their global preaching and teaching program in the last 5 years. This certainly gives encouragement to us as we continue to preach from door-to-door in search for honest hearted individuals who have a love for God's Word, and who desire help in understanding the Bible."

Sipe concluded "If there are any individuals or families in the area who would like to take advantage of the free home Bible study course offered by Jehovah's Witnesses they can contact me by telephone at 293-5744 or drop a note addressed to me at 322 SE Alpine, Plainview.
