South Plains Shares In Homeowners, Extended Coverage Insurance Rate Cut

The State Insurance Board ordered sizeable rate cuts Tuesday in the cost of homeowners and extended coverage policies for most Texans.

Homeowners policies include fire coverage, as well as the protection afforded by extended coverage policies, plus liability and theft coverage. These rate changes were ordered, effective for policies written or renewed on or after Jan. 1:

Seacoast territory—4 per cent reduction for the 14 counties on the Gulf Coast and 18 per cent reduction for the 14 counties on the "second tier" back from the Gulf of Mexico.

Homeowners: Seacoast—4 per cent increase for the 14 counties on the coast, and a 10 per cent cut for the 14 counties on the "second tier."

while receiving a cut in extended coverage because of a difference in the way losses were projected. Extended coverage rates are based on loss experience for the past 25 years, while a 10-year period is used in projecting homeowners losses.

The North Northwest Territory includes Amarillo, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, Abilene and San Angelo.

These rate changes are the result of certain changes in the formula applicable to rate making and to the last two years of experience which have been relatively free of major storm losses. These changes are in keeping with the board's policy of keeping rates as low as possible, commensurate with the experience and factors which have to be taken into account by law.

cent extended coverage rate increases for the 28-county Seacoast Territory. The reductions were considerably smaller than those ordered Tuesday.

South Plains Cotton Harvest

Passes One Million Bales

The South Plains cotton harvest passed the one million bale mark during the last week in December, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the USDA Classing Office in Lubbock.

Samples from 1,013,000 bales had been classed at the Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa and Levelland offices through Friday, December 29.

Personnel at the four offices tested and classed samples from 208,000 bales during the week ending the 29th.

Estimates indicate that approximately two-thirds of this season's crop is now out of the fields.

Cotton quality was lower as the harvest entered its final phase. Grade, staple and micronaire continued to decline. Strict Low Middling (41) was the predominant grade at Lubbock during the week, making up eighteen percent of all cotton classed. Low Middling (51) made up 17 percent, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) 16 percent and Strict Low Middling Spotted (43) 12 percent.

Average staple length was lower than the previous week. Staples continued to be predominantly 30 to 33. Twenty-one percent had a staple length of 30, 25 percent stapled 31, 25 percent was 32 and 16 percent was 33.

Micronaire readings were considerably lower. Only fourteen percent of all cotton classed at Lubbock during the week had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 through 4.9. Twelve percent "miked" 3.3 through 3.4, 34 percent was 3.0 through 3.2, 31 percent 2.7 through 2.9 and 9 percent was 2.6 and below.

The Agricultural Marketing Service of the USDA reported brisk trading on the Lubbock market during the week. Prices changed daily but ended the week at about the same level. Prices ranged from $2.50 per bale over the loan for cotton with micronaire of 2.9 and lower to $37.50 per bale over the loan for high grade.

premium micronaire cotton. Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 premium micronaire range were: Strict Low Middling (41) staple 31 - 24.05 cents per pound, Strict Low Middling (41) staple 32 - 24.75, Low Middling (51) staple 31 - 22.00, Low Middling (51) staple 32 - 22.95, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 31 - 22.75 and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42) staple 32 - 22.95. Cottonseed prices were steady and farmers received $45 to $56 per ton for their cottonseed at gins. HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

SOCIAL SECURITY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Last year, after 25 years of marriage, my husband and I were divorced. He became entitled to social security this year. Does the new law help me?

A. Yes, the amendments end the support or contributions requirement. Effective January, 1973, benefits can be paid to a divorced wife if she was married to the worker at least 20 years. She must be 62 years old, or have in her care a child under age 18 who is entitled to child's benefits on the ex-husband's record. Divorced wives or surviving divorced wives whose claims were previously disallowed because there was no support or alimony should get in touch with the nearest social security office to file a new claim.

For more information, contact your social security office at 1401-B West 5th Street, Plainview. If more convenient, meet with your social security representative. He is in Floydada at the courthouse on Wednesday morning, in Matarador in the lobby of the First State Bank on the first

FLOYDADA NURSING HOME VISITORS

By Faye Walters

What a lovely Christmas party we had for our residents Monday, Dec. 18. There were over 100 people in the lobby where the tree was placed, and so many presents, fruit, candy and cookies for everyone.

We even had old Santa make an appearance. I think everyone had a real good time.

Brother Melton from the United Methodist Church brought a good Christmas message. David Cameron played the piano and Doris Drysdale led the singing of Christmas carols.

We would like to thank them for coming out, and also the ones who brought goodies and gifts. May the Lord bless all of you.

Tuesday afternoon the Girl Scouts came and put on a play for the residents. It was such a cute skit and I know they must have spent several hours learning all their parts. We appreciate this so much.

The staff had their party Monday, Dec. 18 and a great one. Thanks to our administrator and his lovely wife. We really appreciate them.

They have done a great job and have been a blessing to all at the home.

We wish all a very Happy New Year.

Lockney Scouts Plan Banquet

The Boy Scouts of Troop 206 in Lockney are planning a Code of Honor Banquet for Sunday, January 21.

The banquet is set for 3 p.m. that afternoon at the Community Center.

During the banquet, guests will be treated to all the Mexican food they can eat, and presentations of honor will be awarded.

One Eagle Scout presentation will be made, along with two Life presentations.

One of the speakers at the banquet will be Boy Scout Joe Charles Jr., who will talk about scouting.

Tickets are on sale by the Scouts of Troop 206 for 50 cents each.

The public is invited to attend this banquet.

CENTER NEWS by Mrs. J.E. Green

CENTER, Jan. 1 — New Year's Day, and a cloudy, windy one! But for the most part we had a clear Christmas.

Mrs. A. W. Anderson had all her children with her for dinner New Years Eve. There are Floyd and wife, Louis and family, Otis and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Leatherman, and three children, also, Dorothy and Odell Thompson of Petersburg, and Mrs. Nita Castener and four daughters of Elgin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Welborn had all their children and families at home Christmas Day. These are James David and family and Clarmon and Donna Booth, Ft. Worth, and Mrs. Eunice Lewis and son, Steve of Ft. Stockton. The local children are Bobby Welborn and family and Roger and Jo Anne Gooch and boys.

Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Battey visited friends in Caprock Hospital Sunday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Battey had all their children at dinner with them Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas spent New Years eve in Post visiting Hal's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hester.

The Dale Millers were in Lubbock Sunday visiting a brother, James Miller and wife.

Today the Carpenter brother and sisters and husbands are having a get-together with Mrs. Ava Jackson. These are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzell, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Frizzell, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Carpenter, all of Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Cone of Wichita Falls.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Jackson's were Mrs. Flora Warren and Mrs. Lois Durham.

Bro. Payne and children dined Sunday with the Greens. Mrs. Payne is still in the hospital.

Mrs. Dub Hartline and children of Roswell, N.M. arrived at the W. L. Hartlines

Thursday and visited until Saturday when Mrs. Hartline accompanied them to Plainview where they visited the Bob Landrys. After the return to Floydada, the daughter-in-law and children went on to Lubbock to visit other relatives.

Mrs. C. E. Finley spent Christmas eve in Lockney with her daughter and family, Mr.

and Mrs. Earl Cooper. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Finley of Plainview and Mrs. Tom Jernigan of Heritage Home, Plainview. Mrs. Jernigan was scheduled to spend Christmas Day with her son, Jack Jernigan and family at Lubbock.

Eighteen were present at the New Years Eve get-together at the Thomas Warren home. A covered dish supper was served.

A houseguest of Mrs. Frank Dunn during the holidays was a cousin, Mrs. Minnie Manning of Pineville, Missouri. They and Floyd and Florence Montgomery of Plainview spent Christmas eve with Patsy and Jimmy Dunn and children. Also present were Margaret and Tony Balios and family. Christmas day they all spent in the Balios home.

Thursday the Montgomerys and Mrs. Dunn took Mrs. Manning to Amarillo where she boarded a plane for home.

While in Plainview Mrs. Dunn talked to Mrs. R. C. Hodges by phone and learned that Bro. Hodges is scheduled for heart surgery Thursday, Jan. 4, at Methodist Hospital, Lubbock. Let us remember them, and others as well.

While in Amarillo Mrs. Dunn visited old friends — formerly of Floydada and Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCarty.

Mrs. R. C. Ross is hostess today for her brothers and wives — Mr. and Mrs. Bob Guffee of Hale Center, Joe Guffee and wife of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Guffee of Floydada.

Thursday the J. E. Greens and children got together at the parental home. The children are the Clyde Greens and three children of Peralta, N.M.; the Don Clark Greens and son of Big Spring; the Victor Greens and two sons of Plainview; and Margaret and Doc Ryman and six children of Hubbard. Also present were Evelyn and Anthony Latta and two of their children of Mt. Blanco.

We all enjoyed these get-togethers.

But to so many this year, Christmas days were anxious for loved ones in hospitals. Mrs. Payne didn't get home for Christmas, but hope she will soon.

And our sympathy is with the family of Mrs. Burns, who has lived east of Center many years. She passed away Sunday with a heart attack.

New Rules Mean Better Protection For Veterans

New rules designed to provide better protection for Veterans and dependents taking correspondence courses under the GI Bill will become effective on January 1, 1973, Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Office Director, pointed out today.

The 301,000 Veterans already enrolled in correspondence courses will not be affected, he reported.

The new legislation protects Veterans from costly payments should they terminate a course before completing half of the lessons.

Another change that becomes effective the first of the year will give the Veteran or eligible dependent a "cooling off" period of 10 days from the time he signs an application for a correspondence course. After the ten days, he must affirm in writing to VA that he is going to take the course. Should he decide not to pursue the course before completing the affirmation notice, the Veteran or dependent must notify the school which, under the new law, must make a prompt refund of the total amount paid in advance.

By the same token, the new legislation, the correspondence school must furnish a fully completed copy of the Enrollment Agreement. This must incorporate a full disclosure of the obligations, a clear explanation of the provisions for affirmation, termination and refund, and state the conditions under which payments of allowance are made by VA.

If a Veteran completes less than 50 percent of a course and decides to quit, the institution may retain only the registration fee (not to exceed $50.00) plus payment of that part of the course completed. When 50 percent or more of the lessons are completed no refund is required by the school.

The new legislation requires the eligible Veteran or dependent to pay out of his own pocket 10 percent of the tuition cost.

Jacksboro Stars Pace 2A All-State Grid Team

By JIM REEVES
Star-Telegram Sports Writer

Jacksboro, perennial 2A football powerhouse, dominates this year's Star-Telegram all-state team with three first-teamers and two second-team players.

Quarterback Roy Leach who led last year's 2A state champions back into the state playoffs again this season, headlines the Tiger entries on offense. Joining him on the offensive eleven is center Rolf Boster.

Linebacker Richard Milton is a repeat performer on defense for Jacksboro, also to race one of his vehicles on a straight track after modifying it to racing specifications.

Mike, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Noe, Jr. of Pearland, is looking forward to a career in sales.

Danny Sena, the Texas winner in the 4-H dog care and training program is the recipient of a transistor radio for his efforts. The radio was presented by the Ralston Purina Company, donor of awards in this program.

His first dog, a registered white German Shepherd, responded so well to training that Danny then acquired a Chihuahua, and two English Springer Spaniels. Wanting to pass on his knowledge of training, he became training director for the junior members, an effort which gave him great satisfaction. His many trophies and ribbons attest to his success.

Danny, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Sena of El Paso, plans to study for a career in veterinary medicine.

Hayden Haby, Jr. has captured the state award in the 4-H sheep program, and for his efforts has received a $50 U.S. Savings Bond donated by Wilson & Co., Inc. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Hayden G. Haby, he has been involved in the program seven years.

making the Star-Telegram's first-team last season. Running back Ricky Perritt and defensive lineman Rusty Said both gain second team berths.

Besides Milton, there's only one other first-team repeater and that's Rosebud-Lott junior Kevin Scott, who made earned first-team honors last year as a running back. This season he garners defensive honors at linebacker.

First-teamers this year who made second-team last season are Refugio lineman Dennis Claybrook and Boster.

Claybrook and Rockwall's Joe Poindexter are two-way first-teamers. Claybrook and Poindexter both earn first-team tackle spots as well as a defensive line spot post (Claybrook) and a linebacker slot (Poindexter).

Leach spearheads an impressive first-team backfield. The Jacksboro senior rushed for 1,201 yards, passed for 650 more and scored 18 touchdowns.

Leach is backed by three powerful running backs in Rockwall's Zach Fry—son of new North Texas coach Hayden Fry—James Stevenson of Alvarado and Coldspring's James Sykes.

Fry averaged seven yards per carry while gaining more than 800 yards this season. Stevenson gained over 1,500 yards and scored 17 touchdowns and Sykes rushed for 1,948 yards, scored 22 touchdowns and 11 two-point conversions.

FARM BUSINESS ROUNDUP

By Kenneth Hood and W. E. Hamilton

U.S. FARM EXPORTS are expected to hit $10 billion during the fiscal year ending next June 30—up 25% from record $8 billion total reached during previous fiscal year.

Big reason for upsurge—added sales to Russia. July-September exports were up 11% from year ago. Sharply higher grain exports and bigger shipments of animals and animal products more than offset lower oilseed shipments.

Projected farm exports for 1972-73 will give U.S. a $3.5 billion balance of trade surplus in the agricultural area. If industry could do as well, we would not have our big problem of a very unfavorable U.S. trade balance.

SOVIET GRAIN IMPORTS may signal shift in consumer policy according to a recent analysis of USDA. In previous short crop years, Russian grain usage was cut back. This year, however, higher priority is being placed upon meeting consumer needs and expanding livestock output.

ILLINOIS WAS TOP EXPORTER of agricultural products during the 1971-72 fiscal year. Almost 10% of U.S. total comes from Illinois. Iowa was in second place, followed by California, Texas, North Carolina, Indiana, Kansas, Arkansas, Minnesota and Missouri.

Some State Farm Bureaus are taking the bit in their teeth and are moving out to do some exporting themselves. Michigan is an example. Here's the story:

Farm Bureau promotes cherry exports. A German importer has sold in Europe approximately 130,000 cases of 6/10-pack Michigan red, tart, pitted cherries during the past several months. The cherries were supplied by several Michigan packers and valued at more than $1 million.

The German firm was one of over 30 European importers contacted prior to this year's harvest in the course of a small export sales promotion program. The program was conducted by MACMA, a business affiliate of the Michigan Farm Bureau Federation, with the technical assistance of AFBF's Research Division.

BUSINESS STATISTICS LOOK GOOD. Business activity continues to expand as gross national product increased almost $25 billion in third quarter. New factory orders are up. Store sales are rising as consumers are buying more and making plans for big Christmas purchases. And even inflation has slowed for the moment as the annual rate of wholesale price increases slowed in October to a modest 1.2%—the slimmest gain since March.

Yet, many wonder if all is well. Perhaps they are worried about the uncertainties of war, inflation, wage-price regulations, threats of strikes with inflationary settlements and the economic and political course that will be charted by the new Administration and the considerably changed Congress.

Despite uncertainties, 1973 looks like good year for sale of farm commodities in the domestic market.

EGG PRICES are picking up for fall and winter. Output will continue to dip below last year reflecting reductions in flock size.

HATCHINGS during the first three quarters of year show divergent trends with broilers up 4%, turkeys up 8% and egg-type chicks down 10%.

With increases for all three categories October showed this picture: broiler-type chick hatch, 14 straight months of increase; poults, 8 months of increase; and egg-type chicks the first increase in 13 months.

RISING MILK PRICES, a good supply of replacement heifers and a slowdown in the decline of cow numbers favor another gain in milk production in 1973. Higher ration prices and poor roughage quality in some areas may limit rise in output next year to about 1 billion pounds. This prospective increase in production may exceed sales and increase government purchases.

September output was 1.4% ahead of year ago. This increase marked 27th consecutive month that production has been above comparable month a year earlier.

TURNAROUND IN HOG PRODUCTION is under way and will show up in expanded pork supplies by next spring. Beef output will be larger than year earlier this fall and in first half of 1973.

Farmers in big 10 Corn Belt feeding states are having 1% more sows farrow during June-November this year than in these months last year, and expect to have 7% more sows farrow during December-February. This reverses production downtrend that began in early 1971. Favorable relationship between hog prices and corn prices this year encouraged producers to expand output.

Hog slaughter will continue smaller than year ago until early 1973.

With more cattle on feed this fall, October-December marketings likely will run 5 to 8% larger than a year ago. Even so, fourth quarter fed cattle marketings will be smaller than summer levels.

NUMBER OF CATTLE AND CALVES on feed on farms in Iowa, Nebraska, Texas, Kansas, Colorado, Arizona and California on November 1 increased 13% from year earlier levels. All but Iowa registered increases—ranging from 7% in Nebraska to 30% in Texas.

October marketings from these states were 13% greater than last year.

CORN AND SOYBEAN CROP PROSPECTS for 1972 were boosted substantially in latest crop report. As of November 1, corn production was estimated at 5.4 billion bushels—3% more than the earlier October estimate but still less than record 5.54 billion bushels harvested last year. Soybean production was also revised upward by 3% from October to an estimated 1.35 billion bushels—the largest ever, and 15% greater than in 1971.

If estimates hold, corn supplies will be 5% over record large supplies of last year and soybean supplies up 12% over year ago. Bad harvest weather could alter estimates somewhat.

Vietnam Disappointment

The resumption of the heavy bombing of northerly targets in Vietnam and the breakdown of negotiations so hopefully conducted by Henry Kissinger, plus Mr. Kissinger's striking change of tone in describing Hanoi's attitude, is a disappointment.

Critics are claiming intentional election-time deception by the President and Mr. Kissinger but the truth is the President and Kissinger at one time were very close to an agreement with North Vietnam.

Unfortunately, they must plead guilty to some degree, in allowing President Thieu of South Vietnam to sabotage an agreement tentatively worked out with Hanoi. Thieu accomplished this by objecting to any ceasefire agreement which failed to specify that Saigon's was the rightful authority in areas in South Vietnam controlled by the enemy.

Though one can sympathize with Thieu's position, his desire to have Saigon's authority reestablished in enemy-held areas of his country, the military and political facts of today do not fit this hope. And one can hardly expect the enemy to grant in a ceasefire agreement what has not been won on the field.

Perhaps the renewed heavy bombing and continuing squeeze caused by the U.S. naval blockade will bring Hanoi to these terms in the end, but this is questionable. Meanwhile Washington must share the blame for the breakdown in negotiations.

1973

Economic experts are almost unanimously agreed 1973 will be a good year for the U.S. economy. Interest rates, however, are likely to rise slightly as the Federal Reserve slows the increase in the money supply.

Auto makers plan to produce more cars in the first quarter of the new year than ever before in the nation's history and new housing starts are expected to continue at a high rate.

Some forecasters feel the second half of the new year will not be as robust as the first half but virtually all agree 1973 will be a mini-boom year. This forecast, as the new year begins, provides most of us something extra to be thankful for in 1973.

Electric Cars

Next June the state-owned electric company of France will take delivery of eighty electric cars in the city of Dijon. Service men will use them to make regular business calls.

The car, built by Renault, is the R-4. Electricite de France, the State electric monopoly, admits the cars are costly but feels it is pioneering in electric automotive transportation, which may some day comprise a major part of the automotive picture.

The R-4 moves off with a disarming realization of motion without noise and even at good speed sounds more like an electric razor than an automobile engine. The R-4 can attain 40 miles an hour and travel about 48 miles in the city without battery recharging, which requires ten hours.

Company cars are not used at night and recharging is no problem but obviously a shorter recharge time and greater range is required if the car is to be marketed for city use by individuals. An electric company official in Dijon says much research is now going on to obtain a greater yield from batteries. Those interested in ecology and economy earnestly hope for a breakthrough in this direction. The R-4 produces no pollution and the cost of the electricity per mile is estimated at two cents!

Unions & Food Prices

An expert on food prices recently warned that chains' profits were down to a point where they could no longer absorb increased costs, as has sometimes been possible in the past.

The primary cause of many hikes in food prices, he said, was not inefficiency in management but inefficiency in work methods demanded by unions. He cited examples of trucking, loading, butchering, stocking and other processes where unions force slowdowns, which understandably increase stores' costs.

One shouldn't leap to the conclusion, however, that unions are always the cause of high food prices. Excessive middle-man profits, management failures and other reasons are often to blame. But union practices, sometimes tied in with racketeering, are a contributing cause and it is in the interest of union members to keep food costs down.

Truck drivers in some areas have managed to obtain commissions on deliveries of such things as bread (sometimes the commissions run thousands of dollars more than salaries); unions have forbidden store personnel to unload foodstuffs; they have set a maximum number of trucks to be unloaded in a set period of time; they have refused to stagger working hours to enable stores to cope with rush hours. Etc.

It is not asking too much to appeal to all Americans, including union leaders, to do everything possible to hold down the costs of food—for higher costs hurt the poor most, and first.

The Attack On Families

One of the far-out trends which threatens to bring about the decline and fall of the United States as a great nation is the attack on the family by modern-day students and the far-out element of college faculties, an element entrenched at most institutions of higher learning.

In an interesting series of articles on the subject, beginning in the January Reader's Digest, Lester Velie interviews various professors who teach courses on the new way of life—commune living, free love style living, wife-swapping, etc.

In most countries of the world, where standards are generally accepted by the vast majority because of tradition, long practice in living and a solid cultural base, such courses would not be allowed to be taught impressionable youngsters. But in America, with its vast space, diversity, lack of any single family standard or culture, a population not homogenous, practically anything goes. Any nut can teach almost anything at many universities. Nor can the far-outs be fired—the teachers have what amounts to a teachers' union to frustrate college authority and protect their jobs.

As a result, weird professors continue to erode the basic strength of the nation, the family unit, by teaching it is outdated, obsolete and inadequate.

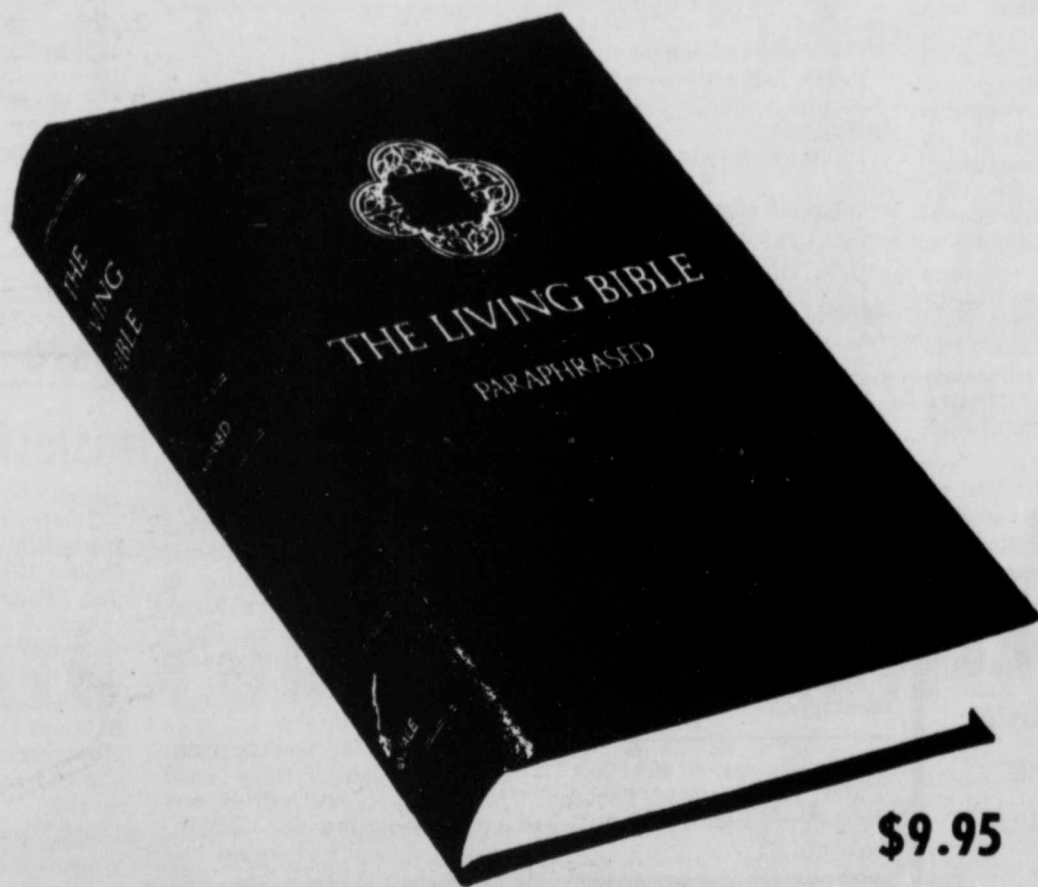

Though the family system may not be perfect, it nevertheless represents the best solution man has found in thousands of years for successful living and the rearing of children. The various experimental systems now being offered are untried, oversimplified and too often lead to tragedy and ruined lives.

Nevertheless, the assault on the family as an institution continues and poll percentages show more and more students are beginning to believe the newly-taught, immoral hokum about free sex and male-female relationships (natural enough, in that it is taught them at college). Today about one third of those in college accept this nonsense. Nothing can lead to the demise of this great country quicker than a continuation of this inexcusable, reckless folly.

Harvest Moon Sets On Drenched Crops

WASHINGTON — The next time the price of vegetable oil goes up or the man says there isn't enough gas to feed the furnace, think of the rain.

Farmers don't need to be reminded. Heavy rains have left them wandering around the machine shed kicking tires on their combines for weeks, just itching to bring their crops in. But the harvest moon is long gone, and much of the corn, cotton, soybeans and sorghum is still soaking wet in soggy fields.

"There's been no other year as adverse as this one in anyone's memory," said Dr. Don Paarlberg, chief economist for the Department of Agriculture. "We had in sight an all-time record crop in feed grains and soybeans, and if we can get them harvested, we'll have that record yet."

"It's not only the delay but the loss and damage. We don't know how great that will be."

The year 1972 was unusual not only because there have been heavy rains but because they have been almost nationwide and have continued for weeks or even months. They not only delayed the harvest but prevented farmers in many areas from sowing winter crops.

In the East, city dwellers as well as farmers trace their troubles to the floods caused by Hurricane Agnes, which devastated broad areas in June. That same month South Dakota was hit by terrific floods.

Although the floodwater subsided and the aberrations that caused those storms disappeared, the soil didn't have a chance to dry out before a new weather pattern brought more rain.

Those areas "are still pretty much above normal in soil moisture," said climatologist Layle Denny of the U.S. Environmental Data Service. "There is a tendency toward runoff into streams and reservoirs, and more flooding."

Long after the floods, homeowners and contractors discovered foundations sinking and cracking in the still-soggy soil.

In tiny Rhode Island, which has only 700 dairy and produce farmers, officials say fully 600 of them are expected to apply for disaster relief following record rains that destroyed 45 per cent of the state's agricultural product.

Chain Reaction Results
Paarlberg said the main problem, from the standpoint of the national economy, has been in the Corn Belt and southern Great Plains, where the rains have touched off an important chain reaction that eventually will hit American consumers in the pocketbook.

When the ground is muddy, farmers can't get their heavy harvesting machinery into the fields to pick the crop. And when the ground is hard enough to work, the corn and feed grains are still too wet to store and have to be dried by machine to prevent them from rotting.

The driers run on propane or natural gas, which are in short supply and rationed in many areas.

The longer the crops stay in the fields, the greater the loss will be due to falling stalks or declining quality—and the higher the price for top-quality grains and cotton.

With nearly one-fifth of the nation's soybeans and substantial amounts of corn, cotton and sorghum still in the fields, concern is rising as fast as the rain tables.

"The uncertainty has resulted in sharp price increases, particularly for soybeans, corn and sorghum," Paarlberg said. "This has created a problem for farmers who have to buy feed for poultry and dairy cattle."

The effect so far has been very uneven, the economist added. The fortunate farmers who got their crops in early can sell at a good price, but others are experiencing great hardship.

Ice Storm Follows
In Illinois the rains of October and November were followed by an ice storm, and the cold weather has created a demand for natural gas that earlier would have been available to operate driers.

Leonard Gardner, secretary of the Illinois Agricultural Association, said there are already 70 or 80 million bushels of corn and soybeans waiting to be dried, and the driers are on interruptible gas service. If the situation doesn't improve, the crops in storage now will rot.

It is probably too early to put much stock in damage estimates, but officials in Ohio are projecting a $300 million loss of the anticipated corn and soybean crops, and the Indiana Grain Dealers Association has estimated a potential loss of $100 million.

Market Very Nervous
"The market is very nervous, and our analysts are not sure," Paarlberg said. "The rising crop price boosts the price of food to some extent—not immediately but in time—and this also makes problems for the President's Economic Stabilization Program."

In the South, the cotton crop has suffered most, primarily because continuing rains not only prevent harvesting but damage and discolor the cotton, thus depressing the value of the crop that is finally brought in.

Tennessee Agriculture Commissioner Gil Thornton said more than 20 West Tennessee counties have applied for designation as disaster areas. Damage estimates there originally were set at $2 million to $4 million per county, but Thornton said that now appears conservative.

Al Moreau of the Louisiana State University agriculture department said the rains have hurt not only crop farmers but cattlemen, too.

"The farmers have had to do a lot of supplemental feeding because of the rain," he said. "It's costing the farmer more, so in the long run it will hurt the retail price, too."

But cattle growers in Arizona

Letters To The Editor

Dear Wendell
A few days ago, I was told of an opportunity that had been offered to one of Floydada's young people. After checking on the matter further, I found that this young lady would not be able to take advantage of this opportunity because of financial difficulties. Let me briefly explain the details.

Recently, out of 50,000 Texas F.F.A. members, Penny Bertrand was chosen by the National F.F.A. to be one of three outstanding Texas members to perform in the National F.F.A. Band during the National Convention. Penny must have performed extremely well for the Texas Association, for recently, I received a letter from Mr. Roger Heath, Director of the National F.F.A. Band. In it he stated that Penny had been chosen as one of the most outstanding Young Musicians in the United States, and had been chosen for Membership in the American Musical Ambassadors Band.

On July 30, this group of young musicians will leave New York for a 22 day International Good Will Concert Tour. The cost of Penny's share of the tour is $860. We have already acquired about $400, almost half of the tour fare. However, the remainder hasn't come so easily.

I know from experience, how much the city of Floydada, and the people of Floyd County work to help the youth of your area. I also feel that the only reason Penny hasn't received encouragement and financial help is because the people don't know her situation and problem.

This letter is only for the purpose of letting you see some of the facts. I will leave the rest of the task to the people of a very good community.

Your Friend,
/s/ Homer Jones, Jr.

Eight Hour Defensive Driving Course Being Offered

An eight hour Defensive Driving Course is being offered to persons living in Floydada and the surrounding area under the supervision of Mr. Burt Sinclair of the Safety Education Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety on the nights of February 5, 6 and 7, 1973 at the Lighthouse Meeting Room. The course is being sponsored by the 1950 Study Club with Mrs. Dallas Ramsey as chairman.

Through chalk board, flannel board, film and question and answer periods, this course will provide the motorist with information about specific things he can do to avoid accidents as well as to introduce him to concepts from the world of professional accident prevention as they apply to traffic safety.

The purpose of the course is to teach the driver how to drive to stay alive—in short, accident prevention. The Department of Public Safety stated, "Upon completion of this course, a certificate will be issued entitling the person to a 10% discount on their automobile liability and collision of the car. It is stressed that this discount can not be doubled on any one car. Details will be given during the course. Each person must attend all three sessions to receive this certificate."

Any licensed person may take this course. The cost of the course will be $1.72 which is $1.60 for the certificate and .12 for the text. This course is being presented here in Floydada as a community service project by the 1950 Study Club. This same course has been offered in Lubbock at $8.00 per person.

The meeting time will be from 7-10 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, February 5 and 6 and from 7-9 p.m. on Wednesday, February 7. There will be a coffee break at the end of each hour.

This class will be limited to the first 40 applicants and you may sign up by calling Mrs.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Comes Up With A New Idea To Head Off Over-Dose Holiday Football

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has been watching too much television his letter this week indicates. Dear editor:

Televised football is too good a thing to lose and after working my way through all the post-season and play-off games last week I'm getting concerned.

Like the fruit-starved kid found out Christmas after he ate 14 oranges in a row, you can get too much of a good thing, and if the football promoters keep pouring games at us in one way the same thing is going to happen to us.

So I got to thinking. As you know, the Reader's Digest found out years ago that nobody could read all the magazines published and most articles are too long anyway, so it started picking out the most interesting pieces and condensing them to manageable form, with tremendous success.

Now in the average football game I'd say there's only about 15 minutes of exciting play, regardless of how loud the announcers raise their voice. The rest is a half-yard plunge into the line, times-out while the quarterback trots over to consult with his coach, incomplete passes, long huddles, interrupting commercials, boring half-time shows. The thing to do is play all the games in the morning, cut the film down to the best parts, and run say two hours that afternoon.

This way a man could see maybe games over the weekend un-bored, now it's all he can do to crowd in for and he comes out pretty groggy because of commercials, that's another part but I suppose you could switch the change to newspapers, inserting ads in the sports writer's account of the game would go like this: "Catching a down pass on his own 30, Bob Hayes headed the sideline, then out back (For a shave you can feel the difference, try triple blades made from British swords) daylight between him and the goal line (Quiet is the sound of an empty billfold at Joe's Hamburger Palace. There's you, or will be soon) he dropped it."

We've got to save televised football. Writers will have to look out for the Yours faithfully

Electronic Calculators With Printing Tape

TOTAL PERFORMANCE FEATURES

- Working registers clear automatically. Just flip the "on" switch, and UniCom 1000P and 1010P are ready to go, with all working registers clear and "C" printed on the tape.
- Grand Totals. You can work individual problems and accumulate them in a grand total memory register.
- Automatic retention of last item. This means you always have instant access to it for any mathematical function. In addition/subtraction, you can immediately correct an entry merely by touching the minus or plus keys!
- Automatic Constants. Second factors in multiplication and division are automatically established as constants, eliminating manual re-entries and chances for error.
- Buffered Keyboard. Enables UniCom 1000P and 1010P to keep pace with even the fastest operator.
- Overflow Safety. UniCom 1000P and 1010P actually tell you, in writing, when capacity is exceeded! "OVERFLOW" prints on the tape. Keyboard locks and red light is turned on.
- "Non-Add" Key. Lets you date, number or otherwise code figurework on the tape without affecting the accumulator.
- Automatic Decimal System. 10-column capacity, coupled with advanced float in/fixed out decimal system, gives you plenty of capacity for practically any problem—in some problems as much as 20-column mechanical printers or rotary calculators.
- Automatic Tape Feed. Touch a button and the tape feeds itself.
- Automatic Chaining. Lets you work mixed calculations (2 x 3 + 4) in one continuous flow, without necessity of obtaining intermediate answers.
