Caprock Chat

BY WENDELL TOOLEY
THERE'S SOMETHING that may sound like an April Fool's joke, but it's true. I knew the Girl Scouts did a good job this year, but didn't realize they sold TWO cakes. No doubt they sold many people more than one cake as they reported at the Girl Scout banquet a total of 100 cakes.
FLOYDADA PEOPLE learned a lot about the railroad Tuesday night as the Frisco people told their side of the story. Lon Davis did a good job of emceeing the meeting and the Frisco people were courteous. . . and I believe they were honest in their answers to the many questions asked.
It has been said that the railroads were here before the automobiles came here and I feel that they will be here for many years.
Four leading citizens were at the meeting, and one made a speech. "We owe our best efforts to keep rail service into the future especially for the men who worked so hard many years ago for rail service here in the first place."
PERCENT of Americans go to church. . . that means 100 percent.
AN INTERESTING weather observation: Mrs. J. C. reports that a year ago Friday the temperature here was 75 degrees!

Cary Brown of Floydada defeated Idalou's Wilma Langdon, 6-3, 7-5, in the girls' singles title match. Miss Brown beat Shelby James of Abernathy in the semis, 6-2, 6-1.
Abernathy took the girls' doubles title, Patterson and Vineyard beating Bryan and Galen of Tulia 6-2, 6-3 in the finals.
Two Floydada teams fought it out in the boys' doubles finals. Jimmy Parker and Danny Martin earned the right to represent the school in the regional tournament by defeating Mark Craig and Mike Ramsey 6-0, 6-2.
In the semis, Craig and Ramsey dropped Watts and Leonard of Idalou 7-6, 6-3, and Parker and Martin beat Overstreet and Hughes of Abernathy 7-5, 6-3.
Blair Davis lost out in the semifinal round to the eventual single champion, Rick Hart of Idalou. Hart beat Davis 6-0, 6-2, then went on to whip Lockney's David Brotherton 6-3, 6-4 in the title match.
Miss Brown, Martin and Parker make the trip to the regional tournament Thursday and Friday at Odessa.

Lockney Library To Observe Library Week

Lockney branch of Floyd County Library is observing National Library Week 1973 April 8-14, according to Mrs. R. B. Holt, librarian. "Get Ahead. Read" and "Widen Your World" are dual themes of the sixteenth annual National Library Week program.

Mrs. Holt shares this article, taken from an insurance company's newsletter:

"Some hundred years ago books were not nearly as plentiful as they are today. In the county of Allegheny in Pennsylvania, a Colonel Anderson enjoyed a personal library of some four hundred volumes. He was not a selfish man. He felt that his books were not doing all they should do for human welfare when read only by his family and a few close friends. He wanted them to serve other people, especially youths who ordinarily had no access to good books. So every Saturday the Colonel opened his library to boys and spent that day giving out and exchanging books.

How many boys learned enough through his generosity to rise in the business world of their day no one will ever know. But according to the legend one of his patrons was young Andrew Carnegie, who later became a great steel magnate. One day among Carnegie's papers someone found this notation: "I resolved if wealth ever came to me that it should be used to establish free libraries, that other poor boys might realize the opportunities similar to those for which we are indebted."

When wealth did come to Andrew Carnegie, he carried out that resolution. As long as there are Carnegie Libraries, he will be remembered.

That day when Colonel Anderson decided to open his private library to the boys of that area, he had no idea that his simple generous act would plant the seed for many libraries throughout the United States. Generous acts are like that. Their influence always spreads far beyond their original aims.

TRAIL DUST by Douglas Meador

A friend says he knew a cowboy wearing "clod-hopper" boots was trying to impress a group of listeners, when he said: "I've been around lots; mostly cowlots."

++ If you would manage the control in a conversation, try the silent treatment, then your listeners will decide you know too much to talk.

++ The road to success has more courtesies, and is smoother and shorter if you happen to be born wealthy. The satisfaction of reaching the objective may be doubtful.

++ A magazine article deals with "Pills that make you feel good." It says certain harmful effects may result. Grog shops have long had an antidote for that tired, run down feeling and they have treated many patients through the centuries. The result has been exactly the same as that of the pills. The cure, however, is more damaging than the condition.

Club Members Meet In Home Of Mrs. McNeill

Mrs. Floyd Lawson, president, presided over the regular meeting of the 1934 Study Club when members met Tuesday night in the M. J. McNeill home. Mrs. J. P. Moss gave the thought for the day. "Personally, I have yet to find a book as interesting as a dictionary. It is the soil from all spoken and written thought must secure their growth. It's all that ink has shaped or tongues have uttered unsoiled, by youth." From Trail Dust by Douglas Meador.

Mrs. Lawson welcomed a new club member, Mrs. Floyd Bradley, and also read a letter of resignation from Mrs. Clyde Hodges, which members accepted with regret.

Mrs. Flora McNeil read the roll call and members were to give the title of a book they had read recently. Some of the books were Reader's Digest, Bless This House, Two In Galilee, New Song, Sea Gull, Poseidon Adventure, The Ledgeon of the Green Man, There is an Answer, Christy, Bury me at Wounded Knee, Power of Maturity.

The evening's program, "Volumes of Knowledge" was introduced by Mrs. Orval Newberry. The quotation used was "Why women read what they do is a thing no man can explain." Mrs. Newberry introduced Mrs. Thelma Hoffman who gave a book review on Golda Meir, Pioneer to Prime Minister, by Iris Noble.

Mrs. Hoffman related how Golda and her family had many hardships and struggles but finally settled in a Jewish community in Mulwaukee. Golda at the age of 13 years, had a dream to build a home for Jewish people in Palestine. Throughout the book Golda showed determination, zeal, hardwork, desire, wit and humor to make her dream come true.

She was a pioneer in the struggle to give the Jewish people a home land. She is now Prime Minister for her people and a great leader.

She believes that men and women should have equal rights and thought her book she tells how she put this to practice many times. She is a person who believes in justice for all and believes in talking to the people on their level so they may understand.

Mrs. Hoffman gave an excellent review in telling just enough of the book to make each want to read it.

Mrs. McNeill served refreshments to Mmes. William Bertrand, Wilson Bond, Floyd Bradley, Everett Collier, Dennis Dempsey, R. G. Dunlap, Kyle Glover, Thelma Hoffman, Floyd Lawson, C. B. Melton, J. P. Moss, W. O. Newberry, J. M. Willson Jr., and Mrs. A. L. Wylie Jr.

The Outstanding Club Program which was presented by Mrs. Williams in March of 1972 was voted the winner in its category. ## "Americanism" Club Program "To be an American is a proud possession, something beyond price". This quote was in keeping of the theme on "Americanism" for members of the 1929 Study Club when they met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Clement McDonald.

Mrs. Clay Henry introduced the program on "Patriotism and Americanism" and also introduced Mrs. Eugene Owens of Lockney, Americanism chairman for the Athena Study Club.

Mrs. Owens, dressed in red, white and blue, first gave members a quiz on the history of the flag. Following discussion on the questions small silk flags were pinned by members to the one to her left while telling of her thought when "the American flag goes by". Each member thus felt personally involved and meaningful ideas were given.

Using pictures, cleverly framed in patriotic paper, Mrs. Owens then told of the many flags that have represented America or parts of the American government and while telling these, she mentioned many historical events.

In conclusion Mrs. Owens told members how to display the flag correctly and holidays when the flag should be flown. During the brief business meeting, Mrs. Clay Henry, president, presided.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. Henry, C. M. Meredith, C. W. Denison, Lee Rushing, W. A. Ross, J. A. Arwine, Q. D. Williams, the hostess and guests, Mrs. Ray McDonald and Mrs. Owens.

The next meeting will be the last one of the club year, May 3, in the home of Mrs. Lee Rushing.

She encouraged each district departmental chairman to decorate a table using her own ideas to carry out the theme of her department. Juniors in attendance sat at such tables as those decorated with International cookbooks, silhouettes of women in Public Affairs, and the red, white and blue theme of Americanism. Mrs. Fry presented each of her board members with hand decorated gifts. She presented a short program on leadership and gave each club president a notebook to show organization, a plan to show growth and a key ring to represent "Love," the key to a good leader. Each of these gifts were made by Mrs. Fry.

The Junior Director then allotted each club president two minutes to summarize her club's activities for the year. Following these presentations, each departmental chairman gave a three minute report on the activities of her department for the past year. At the noon luncheon entitled "Fashions of Love," Mrs. Fry was in charge of the program. She stated that Juniors are "Sweet and Innocent" and then presented 15 Juniors in a skit accompanied by a record of that tune. Following that lively opening Mrs. Fry narrated a "Fashion Show of Ideas" using departmental chairmen as models. Lockneyites participating were Mrs. Eddie Teeter, Mrs. Kenneth Holt, Mrs. Ted Carthel and Mrs. Cliff Hardy. The Hospitality Hour held in Mrs. Fry's room following the banquet Friday night hosted over 100 women. Refreshments were provided by the Athena Junior Study Club and door prizes were provided by the Il Penseroso Junior Study Club. Each visitor at the party was presented a name tag and a copy of a poem entitled "Time." A record in attendance was set at this convention with more Juniors represented than at any other time. Mrs. Fry was assisted in her activities by Mrs. Kenneth Holt, secretary-treasurer of Caprock Juniors. These two women belong to the Athena Junior Study Club and the Il Penseroso Junior Study Club respectively.

Each first, second, or third place winner received a money award, and the school also was awarded a total of $90.00 in prize money.

VETERANS HONOR SAM RAYBURN MEMORY

VA employees and veterans at Sam Rayburn Memorial Veterans Administration Center in Bonham, Texas, honored the memory of "Mr. Sam" in a special April 7, 1973, plaque unveiling. The date marked the 60th anniversary of Congressman Rayburn's arrival in Washington to take a seat in Congress. Money for the 36" by 46" bronze plaque came from a project started by the Rayburn VA Center employees, according to Ira J. Carter, center director. Of the over $1200 donated to purchase the plaque a good share came from veterans who are domiciliary members of the center, he said.

Sam Rayburn Memorial VA Center is a 401-bed VA facility located on the edge of Bonham, Texas. It was formerly called the Bonham VA Center. The center has 271 employees to administer 71 general medical and surgical beds, 100 nursing home care beds and 150 domiciliary beds. The facility was named in honor of "Mr. Sam" as a result of congressional legislation signed into law by the President.

Farmers Union President Criticizes President's Ceiling On Meat Prices

Texas Farmers Union president, Jay Naman, charged that President Nixon's decision to put a ceiling on meat prices is characteristic of the lack of understanding that this Administration has of the problems of farmers and ranchers. In a statement released from the statewide farm organization's office in Waco, Naman said:

"It is shocking that President Nixon would point an accusing finger at the livestock producer in his frenzied effort to find a scapegoat for mounting inflation, when the facts show that many consumer prices have gone up faster than meat and with less justification. For instance, if cattle prices had gone up as fast as hourly wages since 1950, cattle would now be bringing over 80c per pound; or if they had gone up at the same rate as hospital care costs, cattle would now be bringing $1.80 per pound. Instead, cattle are still only averaging 42c per pound. The same formula can be applied to other livestock and it is obvious that livestock prices have not gone up as fast as other consumer goods, nor are livestock producers' profits excessive. In fact, after twenty-five years of little or no profit, livestock producers are beginning to make a meager return in a very high risk business.

"It is clear that although the ceiling is on meat at the retail level, the highly organized and integrated meat distribution industry will maintain its profits and use the price controls to depress the price of livestock to the producer. Farmers and ranchers still must sell on the competitive market while the large chain stores set prices. They must now exact their profits by driving livestock prices down.

"The American consumer should be wary of government imposed ceilings on meat. They could result in artificial shortages and blackmarketing. Nothing but time, a good fee grain crop and a price incentive will produce more livestock. Only competition at the processing and distribution levels will keep the retail price of meat within reason.

"Consumer boycotts and producer withholdings provide no long-range solutions to the problems of inflation and spread of price between the farm gate and the consumer. Rather, it is time for the Administration to deal with the persistent problems facing farmers and consumers by developing a national agricultural and food policy that will assure farmers an adequate price and consumers abundant food supplies at stable prices. This is preferable to 'caving in' to political pressures from those who don't understand the problem.

"It is clear that the Administration 'shot from the hip' in announcing meat price ceilings. It is unfortunate that no one with an understanding of the problems of farmers and ranchers has the ear of President Nixon."

MANY CANCER CASES SAVED

Though the conquest of cancer has become a national goal more than 650,000 new cancer cases will be diagnosed this year. Many of these will be saved. Indeed, there are at least 1,500,000 Americans, alive and well, who have been cured of cancer.

Most people know the pioneering role of the American Cancer Society in cancer research. We think most folks have also heard the educational messages of the Society — certainly the dramatic TV spots on the health hazards of cigarette smoking made a tremendous impact on the national scene.

But we don't think enough people know about the work of the American Cancer Society in helping to rehabilitate cancer patients. Tens of thousands of American women get breast cancer and most of them are saved by surgery.

Of inestimable value is the Reach to Recovery Program of the American Cancer Society. This helps women who have threefold program — research, education and service — not only seeks to wipe out cancer in your lifetime but helps improve the quality of survival. Your contribution is vital.

Dad In The Twenties... Heating

retiring — either from a job or in going to bed until many years later), usually Dad would put in a large chunk of coal, close down the dampers to the proper level thereby insuring a good bed of coals which could be revived the next morning by putting in another chunk of coal, stirring up the coals and opening the dampers. Soon a roaring fire would reward you by roasting you on one side while you froze on the other.

Unless you were ill, you never slept in a heated bedroom. The featherbeds and patchwork quilts piled on until you could hardly turn were quite enough.

The steam heated buildings of the town were few — the schools, the courthouse, perhaps the post office and a few homes — but mostly it was the old coal stove.

Gas had been discovered in the Texas Panhandle in the 1920's and to those who had lived in larger cities such as Dallas and Wichita Falls, getting gas to the towns of the plains was a must. Dad had the vision of what it would mean so made a trip to the gas fields where he made arrangements for all the gas he would need for his "pipeline-to-be". The only trouble was — that day another enterprising promoter got the franchise of the key town to the area — Plainview — so Dad's plans died. But gas was on the way.

Since the last streets had been paved, we had never seen so much construction — well, maybe when the sewerage system went in — but it was exciting to the small fry of the town. Sales of gas heaters — some with asbestos backing and others with a fancier clay "Radiance" backing — boomed and those houses with bathrooms in the house purchased hot water heaters.

No more ashes to haul out — no more messy coal — no more having to call Mr. Boothe to deliver a ton during a snow storm. The convenience was unbelievable and we so overheated our houses with unvented heaters that it is a wonder we weren't all killed. In fact if the houses had been as tight as they are built today, many would have perished.

Uncle Ira, who was about as cosmopolitan as any man in town, took great delight when

FLOYDADA Care Center Happenings

(By Faye Walters)

So often we pray for showers of blessings and the Lord has sure been sending showers lately.

Everything is better at the nursing home for all of our residents are back from the hospital. We hope their good health continues and they won't have to be returning.

Our administrator, Dartha Westbrook is about to get settled. Her husband, Paul, will be taking over his new job here as district manager for Challenger Homes Inc. We hope both will be happy in their new jobs.

We give thanks to the people who still care about spiritual food for our senior citizens. They always enjoy the wonderful devotionals and the time they spend in worship.

We have been making lots of new things in the activity room, and everyone seems to be pleased we are busy again.

Several visitors have been to the home with several from out of state. Minnie Wood's daughter and granddaughter from Oklahoma City visited her and it always pleases Mrs. Woods as this is her only child and she doesn't get to see her very often due to the distance for travel.

Bessie Pierce was the big winner in Bingo Thursday with four games. Bessie Lanier, Bessie Palmer and Lillie Luttrell each won two games, and all but two persons won a game each. Better luck to those two next week. All enjoy playing even if all can't win. It is so nice to see those who win sharing their prize with those who don't.

County Manager Bill Filed

AUSTIN — Any county commissioners court in Texas would be permitted to set up a "county manager" and hand him any duties over which the commissioners court has control, under a bill by Rep. E. L. Short of Tahoka.

Short said a court might want to hire an expert in governmental economy, or it might want to hire an engineer, to run all the county's road work. His bill is so broad and vague that a court could give the "county manager" any sort of duties it wants to.

Short suggested that there might be cases where there were rains in one commissioner's precinct and the others were dry. Machinery and personnel could be moved into the flooded precinct by the county manager.

He stressed that it is completely optional, saying that two or three counties in his West Texas district were interested in considering such a system. Short also stressed that the commissioners court could abolish the county manager system any time it wants to, under his bill.

Tommy Mojica Will Conduct Area Retreat

Tommy Mojica, ex-youth director of the First Baptist Church in Floydada, will lead a retreat at White River Lake April 20, 21 and 22 for the Morantha Coffee House in Lubbock.

According to Roxanne Lloyd, this is a beautiful way to celebrate the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Activities will include Bible studies, prayer, fellowship, Hootnanny Saturday night and a Sunrise Easter Service Sunday morning.

The public is invited to attend.

For additional information on the retreat you may call Miss Lloyd at 983-2671.

Johnston Speaks To Floydada Rotarians

A graduate of Floydada High School, and now highway construction engineer from Lubbock, James L. Johnston, spoke to the Floydada Rotarians at their noon luncheon last Wednesday.

Johnston talked about the state highway system and was introduced by resident engineer and Rotarian Sam Fowler. Fowler gave each Rotarian a new Texas road map.

TRAIL DUST

A rancher who studies the weather and its effect on his business, believes the grass is going to get better in the "Foothill Country." His reasoning works like this: The Plains farmers are using more and more potent fertilizer on their fields. When the westerly winds blow, they will pick up more plant food and spread it on the ranch land in the Foothills, and when the rains come they will produce more grass than ever before.

A "cash crop" worth nearly $3 billion in 1972

A dependable supply of long-term credit for farm and ranch loans is vital as agriculture's need for new money expands. Isn't it reassuring to know the Federal Land Bank has loan money available? You can count on your Land Bank going to the money market every 90 days or so — buying financing for you on the best terms it can. You also can count on us here at the local Association to do everything possible to turn this low-cost money into sound loans. Let's talk about it.

Says Meat Boycotting Housewives
Aren't Going Nearly Far Enough

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may have some housewives mad at him this week, but that's his outlook, not ours.

Dear editor:
Excusing the New York woman who wants to control the price of meat by freezing the price of cattle on the hoof, a job ranchers will be glad to turn over to her, considering the fact that on any given day at any cattle auction prices range from maybe 15 cents a pound to 80 cents, depending on the various classes of animals, their size, age, condition, and the shrewdness of the buyers and the willingness of the sellers with or without the prodding of the banker who holds the mortgage, as I say, to pick up this sentence again, excusing that woman, the rest of the housewives who are demanding a boycott on meat till the prices comes down are on the right track but they don't go far enough.

For example, the price of lumber has shot up and I'd like to see the women picketing lumber yards and urging everybody to go without

Or take gasoline and oil. You know they've gone up and the only answer is to walk to your next boycott assignment, or if you do drive to refuse to change your oil.

And of course with some of the big city banks raising interest rates, everybody ought to stop borrowing money. Farmers aren't the only one who ought to be taught a lesson. This will put a burden on some people because, with the price of meat as high as it is, it's all they can do to keep up the payments on their campers and speed boats.

In fact, if you think about it, there's nothing whose price hasn't gone up recently, from hospitals to colleges to tractors to cow feed to eggs to bread to cars to telephone to taxes, and if the housewives of this nation really want to whip inflation they ought to form a line around the entire outer boundaries of the country and declare a national boycott of everything.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

...ing in the discus at Marchant Stadium explained why.

"It will keep us in the game. When their legs get tired, good hitters can keep around. It's closer games, it helps the club build up; it will prevent injuries, because it's no easy-out game."

"I think the pinch hitter will run, that it will be a number of 1-0 ball. It'll help Detroit, Minnesota, Boston, with Cooper season we could see Murcer on days couldn't have played field."

"It'll mean the pitcher in the line-up better pitches. In other words, it'll be runs and more runs and fewer dead runs and that's the good."

Accentuate The Positive Topic Of Rotary Program

Floydada Rotarians received a good pep talk regarding industry at their noon luncheon Wednesday as Doyle Moore of Amarillo spoke on "Accentuating the Positive."

Moore is an industrial specialist for Southwestern Public Service and was introduced by Clarence Denton, local Public Service manager.

"People have negative or positive personalities...and so do towns, and industry comes to towns that work and expect growth through industry," Moore said.

He quoted from Norman

Vinceni Peale's "Power of Positive Thinking" in the statement, "expect the best and you'll receive the best... expect the worst and you'll receive the worst."

"I know Floydada is suffering a real blow in the loss of United Transports...but Floydada must not look back... Floydada must have a positive attitude and work for other industry," Moore said.

"You don't judge a person by how many times he is knocked down...but how many times he gets up," Moore added.

Moore also said that no community stands still... it is either growing or dying. Every citizen in the Floydada community must work to see that it grows.

In citing the difficulty of getting new industry Moore said 20,000 towns seek some 700 new industries each year in the USA. "It's a hard job to get new industry for your town, but that is what I am working for...and my company has many specialists who will help Floydada find new industry," Moore added.

"Since 1930 there have been 200 towns close up in Texas. It is expected that another 200 will go by the end of the century, and most of them in West Texas," Moore told the Rotarians.

Moore also said that 85% industry growth comes from present industries becoming larger. "Do you have small Floydada industries you can help to grow?" Moore asked.

Floyd Farm Bureau Enters Cattle Purchasing Business

Goals have been reached for beginning operation of a Livestock Purchasing Division by the marketing affiliate of the Texas Farm Bureau, according to Boyce Mosley of Lockney, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau.

Floyd County Farm Bureau is one of 18 counties in this area participating in the purchasing program, Pres. Mosley said. The Livestock Purchasing Division will be operated by the Texas Agricultural Marketing and Development Association (TAMDA), the marketing affiliate of the Texas Farm Bureau. In order to participate in the marketing program, producers must pay a one-time membership fee in TAMDA.

The TAMDA members in the 18 Panhandle and South Plains counties which comprise the Livestock Purchasing Division have committed the 30,000 head of cattle and subscribed the $50,000 needed to underwrite the program, according to an announcement this week by J. T. (Red) Woodson, TFB president. The Purchasing Division will become operational after a manager has been employed, Woodson said.

Major objective of the program, which has been in the organizational and development phases for about 18 months, is to establish a purchasing service for members that will provide the kind of livestock desired at the lowest possible net cost to the buyer, Dale West, Livestock Committee chairman, explained. "This means more direct movement of livestock from the original producer to provide the buyer producer with fresh cattle," he said.

Cattle will be drawn from all marketing associations affiliated with the various state Farm Bureaus, as well as from individual producers in other parts of Texas and the nation. It will deal primarily in stocker feeder cattle.

President Mosley said the local county Farm Bureau will set up a Livestock Purchasing Advisory Committee and will nominate two persons from the county to serve on the Advisory Committee to the State Livestock Purchasing Division. Woodson will appoint members to the state committee from nominees among the 18 counties, he said.

"The initiative to develop this program has been on the part of local Farm Bureau leaders all along in getting it established, and the reaching of these goals as to number of livestock and funds needed to start the program is a real milestone in farm organization progress in this area," the local farm leader declared. The 18 counties participating include: Armstrong, Bailey, Carson,

Castro, Collingsworth, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Gray, Hale, Hansford, Hartley, Lamb Moore, Ochiltree, Parmer, Randall, Swisher, and Wheeler.

Efforts are being made at this time to hire a manager for this program and within the next 30 to 45 days, the purchasing program will be in force. You will be informed in the next few weeks just how to order your cattle. Order forms and purchasing agreements are now available at the Farm Bureau Office.

The complete Livestock Purchasing committee includes: chairman, Dale West; and Jerry Williams, Travis Jones and Paul Hrbacek.

WORKING WET SOIL PRODUCES CLOUDS...AND...

Soil that's too wet will prevent proper incorporation of preplant herbicides which later results in poor weed control. This warning is sounded by Dr. Robert B.

Metzer, area agronomist-cotton with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock.

Working wet soil produces clods that cannot be mixed properly with the herbicide, Metzer explains. As a result, weed seed germinate in these soil clods after a rain and cause weed problems after cotton emerges.

Proper application rate and good incorporation is the key to getting good weed control with preplant herbicides, he says. Growers should follow the label, applying rates according to soil type.

"Heavy textured soils," Metzer emphasizes, "will require higher rates than lighter, sandy type soil. Excessive crop residue or more cloddy conditions may require slightly higher rates to get effective weed control. Heavy crop residue should be worked into the soil before spraying."

The best incorporation is obtained when the soil is slightly on the dry side, the agronomist points out, but any time the soil works well with tillage equipment is a good sign that the herbicide will mix properly with the soil.

The Extension specialist added that under certain conditions, a producer might obtain higher return for his herbicide dollar if he considers banding herbicides at planting, using a drag behind his planter for slight incorporation.

"Banding herbicides at planting helps insure against weed growth if conditions such as cloddy soil, high crop residues, and excessively wet soil prevents good incorporation of preplant herbicides," he explains. "Producers should check the guarantee label concerning the use of Treflan and Planavin at planting. Applying herbicides at this time will result in substantial control of pigweed and other annual weeds, but will not effectively control Johnson grass, volunteer grain sorghum and other deeper germinating weed seed."

Other preemergence herbicides applied at planting and approved for cotton, Metzer reports, are Caparol, Sancap, Dacthal, Karmex and Lasso.

The specialist who has worked on the herbicide problem with producers for years says that cotton growers should attack weeds early.

USDA Takes Cattle Scabies Quarantine Actions in Texas New

Quarantines for psoroptic cattle scabies were lifted Tuesday, April 3, from eight Texas counties and imposed on one New Mexico county by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The eight Texas counties released from quarantine restrictions on moving cattle were Briscoe, Childress, Cottle, Floyd, Foard, Hall, Hardeman and Motley.

Chaves County, N.M., was quarantined after cattle scabies mites were discovered by a federal livestock inspector when 63 animals from the Roswell area were presented for sale at Clovis, N.M.

The action was taken by USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) in its continuing battle against the infectious cattle skin disease. Since October, 1971, APHIS and state livestock health officials have found 142 outbreaks of cattle and scabies nationwide.

After 17 months of quarantine and inspection with no disclosure of scabies on the latest round of inspections, APHIS officials said the Texas counties were ready to be released from quarantine. There are still 26 Texas counties, three Oklahoma counties and eight New Mexico counties in addition — under quarantine scabies. Other breaks, subsequent quarantined occurred in Nebraska, and APHIS officials scabies is caused by white mites which leads to formation of scabs. Turn leads to high meat quality, but can cause production scratching in feeding.

Spring Planting Behind Schedule... Texas on Quarterly Report... Summer Potato Plantings Increase... Early Lamb Crop Outlook... Egg Production Cracks...

Planting schedules throughout Texas are behind schedule from as much as two to four weeks in many areas. All of the state-with perhaps exceptions in some sections-have adequate moisture for 1973 spring growing.

Cotton planting in the Lower Rio Grande Valley has been hampered by a long siege of wet, cold weather. Seedbed preparation is considerably behind schedule from the Blacklands to the Valley.

Wheat continues to make excellent growth on the High and Low Plains, Edwards Plateau, East Texas and Central Texas. Oats are also providing good grazing in most areas.

Grain sorghum planting is underway in the southern half of the state but has been slowed due to wet weather.

HOG numbers are down nine percent in Texas as of March 1. On that date there were 1,150,000 head of hogs and pigs in the state. Texas recently has been added to a quarterly hog report, which shows the increased importance of the swine industry in Texas in relation to the rest of the nation.

Texas hog producers intend to farrow 62,000 sows during March to May, which is nine percent more than a year ago.

June-August intended farrowings are estimated at 68,000 head, the same as a year ago.

Of the March 1 inventory of hogs and pigs in Texas, 16 percent were reported as being kept for breeding purposes.

Nationwide, hogs and pigs in the 10 corn belt states are up two percent from a year ago. The December 1972-February 1973 pig crop is six percent above last year. A nine percent increase in sows farrowing was partially offset by a three percent decrease in average litter rate.

EGG production in Texas showed a big decline during February. The production was 20 percent below a year ago and seven percent under a month ago. Nationwide, egg production was down nine percent a year ago and a month ago.

Construction To Begin On Highway 70

Approximately 17.7 miles of the old north lane of Highway US 70 is to be reconstructed to modern safety standards. This old lane was built as a two way road back in 1934. This project will not complete the reconstruction of US Highway 70 across Floyd County as another layer of base with an asphaltic pavement is proposed for both lanes as soon as construction money is available.

The contract to do the reconstruction was awarded by the Texas Highway Department to Henry L. Stafford of Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Stafford's bid of $1,268,386.89 was the lowest of the seven bids submitted. He advised Mr. Sam Fowler, Sr. Res. Engr. of the Texas Highway Department that he would start work within two weeks.

A preconstruction meeting will be held at the office of the resident engineer, Sam A. Fowler on Thursday April 12, beginning at 10:30 a.m., with the meeting open to the public.

Citizens over 65 are urged to meet with persons attempting to form a Floydada club, April 10 at 3 p.m. in the Massie Activity Center.

Those over 65 are encouraged to meet with the group for an afternoon of pleasure and to get acquainted.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I am seeking information about Art Names. During the 1930's and 1940's he operated a traveling tent show which I think played in this area. I am searching for information about him and his show with the ultimate hope of writing his biography. I would like to hear from anyone who knew him who would be willing to correspond with me about their memories. I would also like to hear from anyone who might have pictures, letters, poems, or other memorabilia about Art Names or his troupe.

Sincerely,
/s/ Donald W. Whisenant

The person who smiles throughout the day doesn't have sense enough to know what's going on, or else too much to care.

The trouble with many individuals is that they worry too much about the sins of mankind and too little about their own.
