Floyd County Wheat Harvest Hits Peak

HARVEST PATTERNS . . . Partially cut wheat field south of Floydada reveals interesting patterns in aerial photograph. (Staff Photo by Jim Huggins)

Rail Car, Fuel Shortages Noted

Wheat harvest in Floyd County hit a peak last week, as elevator men estimated about 70 per cent of the grain was harvested in the Floydada area and the harvest was nearly 85 per cent complete in the area surrounding Lockney.

50-Bushel Dryland
Dryland yields are averaging 20 to 40 bushels per acre, with some reports of 50 bushels-per-acre yields. Price Friday morning was $2.35/bushel, according to elevator managers.

Biggest problem facing the elevators is a shortage of rail cars, one elevator man said.

Fuel Shortage Felt
The fuel crisis hit the local harvest Thursday morning as Consumers Fuel in Floydada was completely out of gasoline from about 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. Consumers manager Bert Mankins said it was the second time in recent weeks that the co-op had run out of gasoline. Last Saturday, Consumers' tanks were dry for six hours. Mankins said he bought some of what he termed "bootleg" gas (at a premium price) out of Borger in order to "keep the combines going."

Some other Floydada service stations have experienced temporary effects of the fuel shortage. James Lee Nichols of Nichols Fina told this newspaper his station ran out of gasoline near the end of May and possibly would run short this month. The fuel shortage has forced Nichols to close on Sundays.

Kinard Gulf in Floydada was out of Gulfane (a low-lead gasoline) the last two weeks in May. The Gulfane shortage was believed to be due to more new cars using the low-lead fuels.

Lockney service stations and oil wholesalers reported no "run-outs."

COMMUNITY lost a very fine citizen this week with the death of Louise Johnston. She was a Christian who spent her time to her church and her fellow man. She was felt for all people of the community in that she served on the Day Care Center. Her family has always been one of my favorites, and I hope this community in mourning the loss of Emma Johnston will bless and sustain the family in this time of grief.

SOLVE THE DRUG PROBLEM? . . . this Digest tells how Japan has solved their drug problem.

As a heroin epidemic threatened Japan. An addict provided a market for the growing drugs, and users brazenly mainlined on street corners. Dr. Yoshio Ishikawa, of the Serigayaen Hospital, says heroin addiction "has become a subject without a cure, like smallpox," and medical students are educated without seeing an actual addict. Police have triumphed over scarcity.

Japan has been virtually eliminated by a 1963 law for harsh handling of both pushers and addicts. It is meted out for selling butsu (heroin). Mere possession several years in jail. Meanwhile, to cut off demand requires that every user caught be hospitalized 30 days of treatment. And this treatment is with "cold turkey" withdrawal, unassisted by medicine.

Members of the City Council

Members of the City Council: . . . evening while passing through your city we saw a trailer hitch on my car to the extent that we were unable to pull our travel trailer.

For the assistance of Mr. Tom Word of your office we would have had an almost impossible and potentially dangerous problem. Mr. Word's personal pickup and solicited the assistance of the city to drive it (to tow the trailer) to the City Garage where the trailer would be safe and could be left until you could come to pick it up. Mr. Word and I are grateful to him for his help.

Also for having such a fine employee as Mr. Max C. Tomlinson, Director of Finance.

Sincerely,

'On The Job Training' Planned For Select Jr. & Sr. Students

A select group of Floydada High School juniors and seniors are to receive "on the job experience" from a new program to be instigated into the local school system for the '73-'74 term. Principal Charles Tyer says the home economics cooperative education program will allow girls and boys an opportunity to acquire business training by working a minimum of 15 hours weekly or longer in Floydada homes and businesses. In addition to normal classwork, the students will be involved in a one hour class. Then they will work two hours each school day under the unique new program, or more hours if both the student and employer so desire. The participants will be "top class students who will be competent employees," Tyer says and cooperation from the home community is vital for the program to prove successful. Mrs. Mary Alice Craig, home economic coordinator at Floydada High School will conduct the home economics cooperative program. She is to attend a workshop in Austin during July, and will spend two hours daily "in the field" working with the students and their employers.

Mrs. Craig said the following programs for the local high school has been approved: Child care aid, companion to the elderly, dietitian aide, bridal consultant, floral designer, clothing assistant, food service employee, house keeping management assistant, food caterer and tester of foods.

Principal Tyer says the program is in its infancy in Texas. He hopes to enlarge the scope in future years "as the demand increases." At the present Mrs. Craig said there are seven students pre-enrolled.

The principal said he believes the program will "make better citizens of the participants because of their experiences." He also sees the plan as "possibly an enticement to keep young people in Floydada as permanent residents and fulltime employees following their graduation. Those interested in employing one of the students are asked to contact Tyer or Mrs. Craig. Students receive three credits toward graduation upon completion of 175 classroom hours of instruction and 525 hours of supervised work.

Rites Pend For Mrs. Johnston

MRS. JOHNSTON

Mrs. Johnston was a graduate of Floydada High School, attended Wayland Baptist College and received a bachelors degree from Baylor University in 1939. She worked as county clerk of Floyd County at one time filling an unexpired term. She worked at Reese AF Base during World War II where she met and married Ralph Johnston July 12, 1945.

Mrs. Johnston was an active worker and member of First Baptist Church where she has taught Sunday School classes a number of years. She was also a member of the Women's Missionary Society and Caprock Assoc., and was interested in working with youth. She was a member of the 1934 Study Club, named Woman of the Year in 1961, and was secretary-treasurer of the Day Care Center in Floydada at the time of her death. Mrs. Johnston had worked at one time for Newell Burk, accountant.

Survivors include her husband and three sons, Ralph Jr., of Louisville, Ky., Lon of Denver, Colo., and George of the family home.

Funeral rites were pending at Moore-Rose Funeral Home at press time Friday for Mrs. Ralph Johnston, 54, who died in Central Plains Hospital in Plainview about 1 p.m. Thursday. Smith, pioneer Floyd County physician, and Mrs. Barbara Smith, one time postmistress in Floydada.

Softball Girls Lose To Slaton

Girls' softball teams from Slaton defeated Floydada teams in three games played here Thursday.

The visitors took the 9-10 year-olds' game by a score of 14-5. LaQuita Davis and Jan Pleasant were the pitchers for Floydada.

The Floydada girls dropped a 17-15 decision in the 11-12 year-olds' contest with Jaine Guest doing the pitching for Floydada.

In the 13-14 year-olds' contest, Slaton defeated the local girls 5-4, although Floydada pitcher Carlan Young struck out 12 Slaton batters and allowed only one hit and six walks.

Slaton won a make-up game Friday, beating the 11-12 Floydada girls 24-17. Jaine Guest and Beverly Vickers pitched for the locals.

The Floydada Tennis Club will meet Tuesday night, June 26, at 7:30 in the community room of the First National Bank. Lon Davis, president of the club, urges all members to be present as this meeting will be the last before the Floydada Open Tournament.

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS
By Billie McMorris
Floyd Co. Extension Agent

"Fourth" are fun — and so are the "Fourth's" special foods. Grandpa, leaving his horse at home so it wouldn't be scared by a firecracker, often walked to the local bandstand to hear the independence Day speech. And at home he feasted on watermelon or ice cream — maybe both.

Bandstands and speeches have faded from the Fourth of July scene, but the seasonal treats of watermelon and ice cream — topped with luscious fresh strawberries — are still going strong.

For your own celebration, the U.S. Department of Agriculture says to look for strawberries that are a full red color and that have a bright luster and firm flesh. They should be dry and clean and the cap stem should be attached to the berries. Usually, medium to small strawberries have better eating quality than large ones.

In most containers of strawberries you are likely to find a few berries that are less desirable than others. Look at the strawberries at the sides and bottoms of the container to be sure they are reasonably free from defects or decay. If they look moldy, beware, because mold can spread rapidly from one berry to another.

Avoid strawberries with large uncolored areas or with large seedy areas. They will be poor in flavor and in texture. Also avoid berries with a dull shrunken appearance of softness. These are signs of decay or overripeness.

Selecting watermelons isn't so easy, unless they have been cut. Look for a melon that has full rounded sides and a rind with a slightly dull finish. The underside should be a cream or yellow color, not white or pale green. When a watermelon is cut, or "plugged," check for firm, red flesh with no white streaks. Some watermelons will have white seeds, although in most varieties seeds will be dark brown or black.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Stennett
Among those recently listed on Wayland College's honor roll were Mrs. Debbie Bybee Stennett and Mrs. Marilyn Ford, both of Plainview.

Debbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bybee of Lockney, earned a 3.52 average during the spring semester. She is now a senior, and is attending summer school at Wayland, majoring in elementary education. Her husband is Gary Stennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stennett, also of Lockney.

Mrs. Marilyn Ford is daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ford. Her grade point for the spring semester was 4.00. Marilyn and daughters Kimberly, 8, and Keila, 6, will continue to live in Plainview although Marilyn will transfer this fall to Texas Tech in Lubbock to continue working on her degree. She is majoring in English, minoring in French.

Both Mrs. Stennett and Mrs. Ford were inducted into Alpha Chi, national honor fraternity for juniors and seniors, this past spring at Wayland.

James Morren

Services for James A. V. Morren, 63 year old groomer, were held Friday morning in the City Park Church of Christ. Morren, a resident of Floydada for the past 30 years, was stricken Thursday shortly before noon of an apparent heart attack. He was taken to Caprock Hospital, then transferred to a Lubbock hospital where death occurred around 8 p.m.

Born April 10, 1910 in O'Brian, Texas, Morren and the former Verna Pack were married October 11, 1937 in Eastland. The family moved to Floyd County in 1943 from Knox City, Texas.

Morren was a member of the City Park Church of Christ, and employed at Scott Gin. Survivors include his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Joel (Elizabeth) Hill of El Paso and Mrs. Charles (Joyce) Stoner of Kingsville; four sons, Freddie Morren of Floydada, Sam Morren, Dimmitt, Billy Morren, Snyder, and Tex Morren of Lake Jackson.

Also surviving are 11 grandchildren, four sisters, Mrs. Nola Harden of Houston, Mrs. Loraine McMillan, Cross Plains, Mrs. Margaret Edwards, San Angelo and Mrs. Odell DeShazo of Lubbock, and four brothers, Chris of Gainesville, Otto, Emmitt and Johnny, all of Eastland.

Ernest West, minister of the church, conducted rites. Interment was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Dub Ferguson, Derel Mayo, Stan Killian, Levis Gilliland, John McKinney and Hubert Davis.

The lack of morals among the youngsters, if it exists, is a reflection of a greater lack of morals among their elders.

Mrs. Kemper

Services for Mrs. Mary Ursula Kemper, 77, of Plainview will be at 4 p.m. Saturday in Lemons Memorial Chapel. Mrs. Kemper was the mother of Mrs. Clyde Gallagher of Plainview, formerly of Providence.

In charge of the services will be Robert Hawkins, Church of Christ minister from Clovis, N.M. Burial will be in Plainview Memorial Park.

Mrs. Kemper died Thursday night in Hillcrest Nursing Home in Plainview. She was born in Leonard, and had lived in Hale County since 1928 except for 1968-72 when she was a resident of Fannin County. Mrs. Kemper was a member of 9th and Columbia Streets Church of Christ, Plainview.

Other survivors include two more daughters, a brother, two sisters, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Hart

Funeral rites for Mrs. Iva Othello Hart of Cone were conducted Friday morning in the Moore-Rose Funeral Home Chapel in Floydada. Mrs. Hart, a resident of Floyd County for the past two months, died Thursday at 4 p.m. in Caprock Hospital. She was a native of Oklahoma, born July 30, 1903 and was married to William B. Hart in 1925 at Post Oak, Texas. The family had lived in Brownfield for the past 35 years until moving to Cone.

Survivors include her husband, two sons, Jack Hart of Cone and Merle Hart of Lubbock; 11 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Linnie Scott of Post Oak.

Clifford Johnson, Baptist minister of Lubbock, officiated at the rites. Interment was in Silver Hill, Texas under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

No business ever became great without a program of progressive expansion.

Floydada Woman Breath Of Life Campaign Chairman

Mrs. Paul Hurley has been named chairman of the Breath of Life Campaign to fight children's lung diseases, according to Frank Scott, president of the North Texas

Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation. Mrs. Hurley of 102 Hallie, will lead Floydada volunteers in raising funds to support research and care programs for children affected by lung-damaging diseases like cystic fibrosis, severe asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, and a condition called "childhood emphysema."

Cystic fibrosis, an incurable genetic disease, is inherited when both parents carry the recessive gene for C/F. It is believed that one in twenty person or 10 million Americans may carry the C/F gene.

MR. AND MRS. DENNY RAY FLETCHER

Former Lockney Resident Wed June 8

Former Lockney resident, Miss Judy Mae Smith pledged wedding vows June 8 in Rogers, Arkansas, with Denny Ray Fletcher of Washburn, Missouri. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Smith, Jr., of Rogers, formerly of Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. Dow E. Fletcher of Washburn.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Roy H. Galyean as the couple stood before a bridal arch in Sunnyside Baptist Church. The arch was trimmed with greenery and yellow satin bows, and was flanked by two baskets of white gladiolas.

Sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Russell Smith of Rogers, was organist for the wedding.

A floor-length, country-style, white eyelet gown was worn by Miss Smith as she was escorted to the altar by her father. The dress was trimmed with satin bows and streamers, and featured old-fashioned puffed sleeves, buttoned at the wrists with wide cuffs. A self-ruffle encircled the neckline and the hem of the dress. The bride's shoulder-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a cluster of ribbons and daisies. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and yellow rises with satin streamers tied in lovers' knots.

Honoring tradition, Miss Smith wore her grandmother's pin for something old, carried a new white Bible under her bouquet, wore a blue lace garter, and borrowed her mother's handkerchief to carry

Maid of honor was Miss Gwen Howard of Lockney. She and bridesmaid Miss Brenda Fletcher, the groom's sister from Washburn, wore old-fashioned, floor-length gowns of yellow gingham. The dresses featured empire waistlines, and were trimmed with embroidered daisies. Three different sizes of yellow checks were used to create the dresses. Their headpieces were candlelight illusion veils attached to wide gingham bows. They carried yellow daisies bouquets, edged in lace.

Niece and nephew of the groom, Marsha and Jay Fletcher, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Serving his brother as best man was Gary Fletcher of Pea Ridge, Arkansas. Groomsman was Russell D. Smith of Rogers, brother of the bride. Ushers were Lynn Fletcher of Rogers, brother of the groom, and Howard Smith of Rogers, uncle of the bride.

A reception in fellowship hall of the church followed the ceremony. Reception assistants were Misses Norma, Linda and Judy Fletcher, all sisters of the groom. Another sister, Miss Sally Fletcher, registered guests. Mrs. Howard Smith, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the reception.

The couple are at home in Rogers, Arkansas, following a wedding trip to Branson, Missouri. The bride attended Lockney schools and is a 1973 graduate of Rogers High School. Her husband was graduated in 1968 from Southwest High School in

and's counseling

I am jealous of my husband's secretary. It's so ironic because I was once in her shoes. I'll explain. I was once a church youth director started engaged, a church youth director started engaged. He was trying to help me with some things. Before I knew it, he was getting serious. I had children. I don't think I consciously realized I must have contributed to it or he never knew.

years later, my husband's secretary has said he is trying to help her solve them. However, he's not very convincing to me. He even explains HER needs to me. He even explains HER needs to me. He even explains HER needs to me. He even explains HER needs to me.

Without commenting on the legal, moral, or ethical aspects of the situation, here are the facts: I had a girl friend, who are living together, and they are going to have a baby. They are going to have a baby. They are going to have a baby. They are going to have a baby.

I hope you won't think I am off my rocker. I hope you won't think I am off my rocker. I hope you won't think I am off my rocker. I hope you won't think I am off my rocker.

I wish someone would turn me over their back and spank me. I have tried spanking with a wooden spoon but it wasn't very effective.

Mental Health Center Gets Grant
PLAINVIEW (Special) — State Representative, Phil Cates announced today that a State-in-Aid Grant in the amount of $153,623.00 will be awarded the Central Plains Comprehensive Community MH-MR Center.

The Center is headquartered in Plainview and services nine counties. These are Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Motley, Parmer and Swisher counties. The State-in-Aid Grant through the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, is an increase of some 44 percent over last year's State-in-Aid Grant of $107,111.00, according to Center officials.

W. W. Allen, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Central Plains MH-MR Center said, "We are most appreciative of all of the hard work and many hours spent by Rep. Cates. Without the help of our State Representatives and our State Senators, support of our area county officials and area city officials, it would have been most difficult to serve such an increase."

FLOYDADA Care Center Happenings

By Faye Walters
Vacation is over and we are back home again. We enjoyed a nice trip to California, but it is wonderful to be home and be at work again and to be welcomed back by all the residents of the home.

We are already getting back in the swing of things in the activity room, making several new items.
Thursday Gloria Alcalá came out with David and brought the devotion. She had expressed her feeling in a poem and I want to share it with you.

I would rather have this life that the Lord has given me
He gave me a wonderful husband with such love I will always adore
He gave my parents which I would never take anything for
He gave me people who care what I say

And to share this time with them I will not delay
And he has brought us together to sing and pray
For His life he did give so freely to save us today.
Let us pray for those people who would rather be rich
Than to help a poor brother who is hungry and sick.
Dear Lord, you've given us our health, lives and our cares.
You've given us love, freedom and joy without compare.
You've given us things that money can't buy
And this is why I would rather have Jesus than riches on high.
This was the first devotion she had ever attended and we are happy she chose to let it be with us.
She also sang three beautiful songs.
Our heartfelt thanks to her and all the other fine people who take time to bring the devotions to our residents. It means so much to them.
Thursday Bingo was fun as usual, but with a touch of sadness as it is the first time we have played that Pearl Britton was unable to. She was too ill to play and everyone missed her. We hope by next week she will be back in her special place, with her own special smile shining so bright.

Bert King, one of our oldest employees, has resigned. We will all miss her very much.
We have a new employee, Mary Lee Warren, and hope she will like it here.
We are ahead with our fix-up, paint and clean-up, as we have just finished painting our home and it looks beautiful.

Susan Bobbitt Makes Dean's List

Susan Bobbitt, who will be a junior at Texas Tech this fall, has been informed that she has made the Dean's List for the spring semester, with a 3.0 grade average.

 I believe that the highlight performance of all the plays that I ever saw at Harley Sadler's was "Smiling Through". It drew a three handkerchief rating because it was a tear-jerker deluxe. It had a theme song "Smiling Through" that was played by a small combo. The heroine died and you would have thought every family attending had lost a member of the family. Make Church - Going a Habit

HOW SMALL, YET HOW BIG

How small a man seems—walking down a lonely road on a rainy day, with gaunt trees towering over him.

How small man is, and how frail in body. The trees in the picture and even the chimneys on the old house will probably long outlive the man.

Yet how big man is—in the things that are not of the body, but are of the mind and soul. God has not made man mammoth. But He has made him potentially great—if he will but accept the blessings given him, and use the tools of Christian teachings.

Man finds in the Church, the encouragement and the instruction to enable him to make from his God-given divine spark something great and enduring—and of benefit to all human-kind.

TONY GROSS NOW EAGLE SCOUT

Tony Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Veraon Gross, was recently presented his Eagle Scout badge at a Court of Honor in Lockney.
 Tony began his scouting career in the fall of 1964 as a Cub Scout, and has progressed steadily to achieve the highest rank in scouting. He is presently serving as assistant patrol leader and junior assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 259.
 The troop now has four Eagle Scouts—Tony's brother Ricky who became Eagle Scout last year, Brad Blenden, Lonny Hooten and Tony Gross—and has four more just a few requirements away from receiving the honor.

Lockney Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lusk and four-month-old daughter Keri Dee arrived early this month in Lockney to make their home. Lusk is band director here, a position he held until leaving four years ago to enter the army. He served one year with the 4th Army Band in San Antonio, and another year with the 266th Army Band in Vietnam.
 After his discharge from the army, Lusk accepted a teaching assistantship at Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas, and completed work on his master's degree there.
 Martha Sue Lusk was a teacher in Lockney High School before they moved. The couple attend West College and 3rd Street Church of Christ.
 They are living in a house owned by Chick Calloway near the south end of SW 1st Street.

Pee Wee Baseball Opens Monday

Pee Wee baseball action opens Monday night at 6:30, as the Braves of Bill Matthews and Gene Owens take on the Red Sox coached by Jack Thompson.
 Other games scheduled next week are Indians, coached by Ike Gonzales and Margarito Arrellano, versus the Rangers of Joe Cunyus playing Tuesday night; the Braves against the Rangers on Thursday night and Friday's night game will be the Indians and Red Sox.
 Boys on the teams who have not contacted their coach are urged to do so immediately.
 All games will begin at 6 p.m., and will be of 4 innings duration. The league will observe the rule that any team that gets 10 runs in one inning will be retired the same as if they had gotten 3 outs. This will help to keep down the number of run-away games with the inexperienced players of ages 7 and 8.
 Dads of players will serve as unpaid umpires.

Crop Reports Needed From Farmers

In early July, over 23,000 Texas farmers will receive an acreage and production questionnaire from Charles E. Caudill, Agricultural Statistician for the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Austin, Texas.
 Information from this survey will be used to determine harvested acreage and production of early harvested crops for the State of Texas and for each county. There are 254 counties in Texas, and reports are needed from many farmers so that each county will be well represented. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketings and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.
 The Texas Legislature has provided a program of estimates for each county. Texas covers such a wide area that State totals alone do not provide adequate information on Texas' most basic industry—agriculture. This is a cooperative effort of USDA's Statistical Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

 First group activity will be attendance of the All-America football game Saturday night at Texas Tech.
 Darr Lee McPherson, Cynthia Stoerner, Vicki Boedecker, Janis Marr, Sandra Dorman and Kim McCarter are Lockney's cheerleaders.

Little Leaguers Will Eat Supper At Stadium

Lockney Little League baseball players will attend the Coaches All-America football game Saturday night in Lubbock, courtesy of local Lions Club members who bought 90 tickets for the players and their managers.
 The boys should wear their baseball caps, bring a sack lunch and 25 cents and meet at 4:30 Saturday, June 23, at Main Street Church of Christ. The group is to leave at 5 o'clock promptly.
 The group will eat sack lunches at the stadium prior to taking seats in the south end zone.
 Parents of the boys should expect the bus to return from Lubbock between 11:30 p.m. and 12 midnight, and be there to pick up their children.

FARM REVIEW

Six Korean Millers Study Texas Wheat

It is with more than passing interest that six flour millers from Korea view the harvest and handling of Texas' 83.2 million bushel wheat harvest now underway. Korea expects to buy almost exactly that amount of wheat in the world markets for import into Korea this year — 82.8 million bushels, according to Bill Nelson, Executive Vice President of Texas Wheat Producers Board, headquartered in Amarillo. The Wheat Board is host in Texas for the six flour millers that are on a nation wide tour studying U.S. wheats and their production and marketing, under auspices of Western Wheat Associates, a regional wheat market development producer-supported organization of Portland, Oregon, which conducts U.S. wheat promotion in Asia.

visitors will tour grain handling, harvesting and shipping facilities in the Perryton area and along the route to Amarillo. TWPB director, Delbert Timmons, will act as host. Grain terminal operations and quality maintenance will be studied in the Amarillo area on Thursday morning before the departure for Houston and a look at Texas grain export facilities there on Friday and in Galveston on Saturday. Ken Kendrick, Stratford, chairman of Texas Wheat Producers Board said that the Korean visitors tour is not a "One shot deal" at export market development but is part of a continuing program of hunting new markets around the world for Texas wheat in order to stabilize prices, and farmer. Wheat program will be financed by the Texas Wheat Producers Board. The Board includes wheat insect control, food and nutrition, wheat feeding, development, and services.

HPRF Concerned With Cotton Problems

In realizing the importance of cotton as one of our major crops in West Texas, the High Plains Research Foundation is concerned with new problems that continually seem to plague area farmers.

A new cotton systemic insecticide is being studied at the High Plains Research Foundation in cooperation with Texas Tech University and the project is under the sponsorship of Diamond Shamrock Chemical Co.

The research foundation is furnishing land and equipment for the study, and their personnel will evaluate the test to determine the actual effect of insects on crop yields and quality. Entomologists from Texas Tech University will be keeping insect populations under close observation throughout the growing season.

Under test guidelines, one testing method compares three rates of the insecticides as a seed treatment. Another method compares three rates in furrow application on untreated seed and two rates of sidedress applications. Comparisons with three rates of Temik and one with Di-Syston also were established for the test.

One major purpose of the study is to determine the best source of early season insect control in cotton.

Of course, testing which has been underway for many years, will be continued in 1973.

In cotton variety testing, 49 varieties from 11 seed companies and private breeders are entered in the 1973 cotton variety test on standard 40-inch single rows. Included in the varieties are 24 experimental strains that show promise in the area. This variety test has been underway at the Foundation since its beginning in 1956.

In the double-rowed cotton varieties tested in 1971, 96 varieties were entered. This study is the best variety test ever conducted. Eleven of the experimental Texas Bats .333... Egg Production Below Earlier Levels... Cattle and Calves Marketed Show Declines.

Of nine selected categories of vegetable production, Texas is first in three of them, giving the state a .333 batting average. Texas is first in the nation in production of cabbage, spinach, and watermelons for the year 1972, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

In production of fresh market vegetables, Texas is third in the nation outranked by California and Florida. In total vegetable production, Texas is in fourth place; California, Wisconsin and Florida are ahead of the state in that category.

Watermelon production in Texas last year totaled 70,000 acres; spinach production totaled 5,500; and cabbage production totaled 19,000 acres.

On a county basis, Hidalgo County is Texas' leading vegetable producer with a total of 60,000 acres. Other counties in the top 10 in total vegetable production are Frio, Zavala, Cameron, Deaf Smith, Starr, Castro, La Salle, Willacy, and Duval.

Hidalgo County is the state's leader in production of cabbage, cantaloupes, carrots, onions. Frio County is the state's leader in production of watermelons.

Other rankings of the state show the importance of Texas to vegetable production for the nation.

Texas is second in cantaloupe production, second in carrot production, fourth in green peppers, second in onions.

Total vegetable acreage in Texas during 1972 amounted to 213,100 acres. Complete details on the vegetable industry in the state are included in the 1972 Texas Vegetable Statistics. A copy may be obtained by writing the Texas Department of Agriculture, Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

SALES of cattle, calves, sheep, goats and hogs showed moderate declines in Texas.

Cattle and calves marketed through auctions numbered 427,000 head, 33 per cent below a month ago. Sheep sales at 79,000 head were 38 per cent below a year ago. Goat sales at 30,000 were 25 per cent below a year ago.

Hogs sold at 34,000 head were 32 per cent below a year and a month ago.

EGG production in Texas during April showed a 10 per cent reduction from a year ago and one per cent less than the previous month.

Texas hens are still not quite up to the national average on a laying basis. Texas eggs laid daily per 100 hens averaged 62.6 during April. Nationwide, the average was 63.8 eggs laid daily per 100 hens.

Egg-type chicks hatched in Texas during April increased two per cent from last year. The national total was virtually the same as a year ago.

FUEL shortages are being reported from various parts of Texas by agriculture producers. Farmers who run short of fuel are requested to report it to the Texas Department of Agriculture or to their county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office.

Agricultural industries have first priority in the use of fuel, according to federal guidelines on a voluntary compliance basis. More stringent regulations are to be enforced if necessary.

Texas Wheat Chairman Reports On Market Tour

"The European grain industry is more worried that the U. S. and world wheat supplies may not meet their projected needs for imports than they are about the higher and erratic prices," according to Ken Kendrick, chairman of the Texas Wheat Producers Board who returned this week from a three week study of European market areas for U. S. wheat. Kendrick was a member of a three-man team to study the marketing, pricing, duty, and tariff situation for U.S. wheat under the auspices of Great Plains Wheat, Inc. Other team members were Larry Bennan, secretary of the Kansas Wheat Commission, and Micheal Hall, GPW administrative officer of Washington, D.C.

"Many representatives of the European grain industry point to the erratic price movements of the U.S. grain markets, a reduction in the projected corn crop, low grain reserves and an appreciably higher world import demand for wheat as indications of a possible grain shortage," the team says.

They also found "genuine apprehension" in the European grain circles over rumors of possible controls on U.S. grain exports. Most Europeans were convinced, even before the President's message, that some measures would be taken to isolate and consequently stabilize the U.S. grain markets.

In meetings with officials of the European grain industry, the team attempted to alleviate their fears about supplies by emphasizing that the USDA is forecasting a record wheat crop of just under 1.8 billion bushels. This factor, along with favorable growing weather in Europe, and a substantial increase in Canadian wheat acreage, and expectations for a normal harvest in Australia should provide some relief for the current tight supply situation.

The team indicated that these facts, along with an expected reduction in the Soviet Union's purchases this year, along with no indicated increase in purchases from China at this time or any real commitment an expanded needs in India, could actually result in an increase in U.S. carry-over stocks during this marketing year.

Even with higher wheat prices in the U.S. this year and higher ocean freight to deliver it to Europe, U.S. wheat is STILL so much cheaper than European grown wheat that a tax or "variable levy" is placed on it to keep it from undercutting the local wheat prices, and this levy goes up or down as the U.S. price may fluctuate, so it will always be a little higher than local grown grain, according to Kendrick. As an example of the variable levy system he gave this example: French wheat can be delivered to Duisburg, Germany, at about $157.00 cif per metric ton at current prices. No. 2 Northern Spring 14% protein for July shipment can be delivered to Rotterdam at $125.00 cif per metric ton, and moved to Duisburg for an additional $4.00 freight for a cif price of $129.00. But there is, as of June 1, a variable import levy for July of about $30.00 that must be paid by the importer. When that is paid, the price of the American wheat becomes about $159.99 a metric ton, which in effect equalizes the cost of the U.S. wheat to that of the French wheat, or that from any other EEC member country. The variable import levy has, therefore, "skimmed off" the price advantage the American wheat would otherwise have in relation to the French wheat.

Great Plains Wheat, Inc. is a wheat market development organization supported by the wheat producers of Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, and Texas.
