7:30 Friday At Ralls

The Floydada Whirlwinds start district football competition Friday, traveling to Ralls to take on the Jackrabbits in a 7:30 p.m. game. The Whirlwinds enter conference play with non-district wins over Crosbyton and Littlefield and losses to Post, Olton and Levelland. Ralls won their last game before an open date last week and will probably be ready to go Friday after two good weeks of workouts. The pre-district open date may have given the Jackrabbits a chance to get over some early-season injuries, and they should be sound for the district opener. Whirlwind head coach L. G. Wilson expects a fired-up club to face his 'Winds at Ralls Friday. Most teams seem to play one of their better games against the Whirlwinds, and Wilson believes Ralls will be no exception. The Rabbits have several quality football players, including senior end Lonnie Swinford, 200-pound junior guard Tracy Evatt, senior quarterback Joe Flores, a 160-pounder, and Lyle Donathan, a 165-pound junior halfback. Offensively, they run the Houston Veer, and they did a fine job running in their last game, Wilson says Flores can throw the ball too. Defensively, the Jackrabbits "really come after you," Wilson says. They run from a stunting 5-3 defense. The 'Winds have had trouble picking up stunting linebackers all year, so the coach says, so they may look bad at times against the Ralls defense. If the offense can guess right against the stunting defense they may break for some long gainers, but they may get thrown for some losses too, if they guess wrong. The Whirlwinds will be "pretty sound" for the game. There are still some limping players, but overall the 'Winds are in better shape injury-wise than they've been since the season opener with Crosbyton. The FHS team has had some spirited workouts this week, Wilson says. "We think the boys realize that, with district play starting, the past should be forgotten. Our goal now is to win district and get in that playoff bracket," he declared this week. The Whirlwinds selected permanent tri-captains for the remainder of the season this week. They are John Cagle, Lynn Becker and Rance Young. Probable starters for the 'Winds Friday:

Offense
Ends — Lynn Becker and Marc Smitherman
Tackles — Bill Fulton and Mark Craig
Guards — Ruben DeLeon and Mike Hatley
Center — Ashley Wester
Quarterback — John Cagle
Fullback — Travis Johnson
Halfbacks — Rance Young and Rex Yeary

Defense
Ends — Danny Quisenberry and Lynn Becker
Tackles — Mark Craig and Mike Hatley
Inside Linebackers — Steve Moore and Mike Reves
Corner linebackers — Lyle Suggs and Danny Bradford
Halfbacks — Donzell Minner and Kelvin Ratliff
Safety — Mike Vickers

Fund Drive Begins For Whirlwind On Water Tower

The Floydada Quarterback Club has taken the sponsorship of raising some $475 in order that a 14-foot Whirlwind may be painted on the city water tower. The club is kicking off the drive by giving $100. At homecoming last year exes gave $90 to the Quarterback Club for some project.

Stansell also invited exes of FHS to contribute to the project.

The Whirlwind emblem will be painted in green. The lettering "Floydada Whirlwinds" will be painted in black and this cost paid by the city.

President of the club Jack Stansell said the club invites other organizations and individuals to contribute to the project and checks may be made out to the Floydada Quarterback Club.

Quarterback Club Meeting Monday

The Floydada Quarterback Club will meet at 7 p.m. Monday. Films of the Ralls game will be shown and refreshments will be served. The Quarterback Club meets in the Floydada High School cafeteria on Monday after each Whirlwind football game. Ladies are invited to attend, according to QB Club president Jack Stansell.

John Vega Wins Football Contest

John Vega, Box 262, Plainview, won first prize, $7.50, in last week's Hesperian football contest, missed four games — but he was the only one of the 13 who picked Levelland in the tie-breaker. Vega's misses included two ties, Shamrock-Canadian (6-6) and Wheeler-Wellington (0-0), and games won by Colorado City (over Brownfield, 15-7) and Dalhart (19-13 over Friona).

There was a three-way tie for second among contestants who missed four games and picked Floydada, guessing 21 points would be scored, in the tie-breaker. Those three will divide the rest of the week's prize money, $7.50, giving them $2.50 each. They are Randy Hale, 809 West Gover, Floydada; Glenda Wilson, 221 North First, Floydada; and Juanita Thompson, 104 South Crescent, Electra. The Floydada residents missed the ties, Colorado City-Brownfield, and Arkansas-Baylor (the Razorbacks won 13-7); Miss or Mrs. Thompson missed the ties, CC-Brownfield, and Littlefield-Roosevelt (27-0 the Wildcats). Finishing just out of the money with four misses and 20 points, Floydada in the tie-breaker were Jean Hale, and W. O. Baker of Floydada and Delores Vega of Plainview. Also missing four were Flora McNeill, Mike Estes, Royce Chadwick, Jack Fuqua, Don Warren and Shannon Paty of Floydada, and Domingo DeLeon of Lubbock. In the Lockney Beacon contest, Jon LaBaume of Floydada won the $7.50 first prize, Homer Ragland Jr. of Lockney won $5 for second, and Vega, who won the Hesperian contest, picked up an additional $2.50 for a third-place entry.

Church buses will be at Lockney to pick up the walkathoners and bring them back to Floydada. The walkathon is organized through Floydada church youth groups and anyone wanting to contribute can do so through a church office or make contributions to the youth on the walk.

"CROP keeps reminding you that two out of three people end their day in hunger. That's more than two billion people. And some of those people don't survive the day. More than 10,000 persons a day die from hunger or diseases connected with malnutrition.

So how can we cope with so big a problem? CROP says it's got to be solved by attacking root causes of hunger — not just hunger itself. Help grow more food. Reclaim unused land.

Develop new water sources. Provide higher yielding seed. Help people to help themselves. Build farm-to-market roads and flood retention dams. Teach them about responsible family planning. Attack root causes of hunger! CROP is giving hungry people overseas a chance for a change... doing this in more than 30 countries.

CROP is the community hunger appeal of Church World Service. Very soon you'll have a chance to help change someone's life when someone from CROP visits you. Let's share our abundance."

Rites Pending For Mrs. Becerra

Funeral rites were pending yesterday at Moore-Rose Funeral Home for Mrs. George Becerra, 22, the former Juanita Duran, an expectant mother, who died about 6 p.m. Tuesday in Caprock Hospital. Cause of death was unknown at this time but attendants said they thought the woman's blood pressure was a factor. Mrs. Becerra was born in Ralls April 28, 1951 and had lived in Floydada since the age of two. She was married here and was well known for her work for a number of Floydada families. Her husband works for Weldon Hammonds. Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Gloria Ann of the home; her mother, Mrs. Porfiria Duran of Floydada; three sisters, Ester and Mary Duran of the maternal home and Teresa Rodriguez of Turkey, Tex.; three brothers, Chele and Frankie Duran of the maternal home and Lupe Duran of Floydada.

Blast off! Friday marks the beginning of district play, and let's show those Whirlwinds we're behind them all the way. Everybody boogie on down to the pep rally at 3:30 and we'll let Ralls know we're out for victory. See you there!

I VISITED OUR FIVE tractor dealers this week and the tractor, combine and cotton harvester shortage is mighty real. Fact is, some of our dealers have been experiencing a shortage of tractors for the past three years.

Not only have our farmers been wanting to buy more and better tractors, but the factories seem to be having problems getting component parts, there have been labor strikes, and smaller factory suppliers have in some instances gone out of business.

Think there is a total of three new tractors in Floydada for sale, and no used ones. The new ones are not the big diesel types that are in such big demand.

Clem McDonald said he was fortunate to get some cotton harvesters in, Carlton Fawver said that he was also having a problem getting all the spare parts he needed, Johnny Collins said that he was unable to get all the tractors he needed for the past three years, Mark Martin said there were 2100 different parts companies that were important to manufacture of his tractors. I didn't get to talk with Frank Milby, who was in Racine, Wisconsin at his tractor headquarters, but his wife reported they had really sold a lot of tractors the past two years.

Most of the dealers figured it would be next spring before supply might catch up with demand... another said it was probably two years away.

The farmer threw him a contemptuous look, and countered: "What's time to a pig?"

Commenting on the Food Stamp program, the agent noted that prior to a year ago, some Texas counties did not have the Food Stamp program.

"Efforts to convert all remaining counties from a commodity food distribution program to the Food Stamp program were begun in Texas more than a year ago and will be completed during the last part of this year.

"Extension and the other agencies are cooperating in this program to avoid duplicating efforts between various government agencies at both state and national levels," the agent added.

requirements for obtaining food stamps," she added. Foods and nutrition specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, detailed food buying principles and demonstrated preparation of nutritious, low-cost foods, Mrs. McMorris said.

Commenting on the Food Stamp program, the agent noted that prior to a year ago, some Texas counties did not have the Food Stamp program.

"Efforts to convert all remaining counties from a commodity food distribution program to the Food Stamp program were begun in Texas more than a year ago and will be completed during the last part of this year.

"Extension and the other agencies are cooperating in this program to avoid duplicating efforts between various government agencies at both state and national levels," the agent added.

"The educational phase — subject of the two-day meeting — is designed to help limited-income people utilize resources, Mrs. McMorris explained.

Club Meets In Smith Home

Il Penseroso Junior Study Club met Thursday night, October 11, at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Charles Smith with Mrs. Jack Whittington as co-hostess. The theme of the event was "Watch Me Grow... As I Listen To A Nation Speaking." Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Soap Opera."

Education Chairman, Mrs. Buster Terrell, presented a very impressive program on IN-DEPTH VIEW OF RADIO-TV. She stressed that there were over 50 to 60 billion TVs in the world. People are affected by TV politically... the Nixon-Kennedy debates for instance; and economically... the income in 1965 was $20 billion, KDKA in Pittsburgh was the first radio station; Proctor & Gamble, Colgate-Palmolive spend the most money on radio and TV; enlightenment... for reporting news and representing in-depth documentaries, and weather reports; culturally... 79% of Americans regularly seek radio/TV as a spare-time activity; and socially... How many of us have rearranged our living room or den around a TV set? Mrs. Terrell concluded her interesting program with the group discussing their favorite and least favorite commercials.

International Affairs the parts dully for a moment, puts his imaginary mind to working and in a brief time has the contraption working in good order. Fathers have assembled some very interesting Christmas presents through the years, and doubtless we women wouldn't want that chore.

We all, I think, are among average women. Get married after 20; quarrels on an average of twice a month with her husband; spends nearly four years of her life putting dishes in the dishwasher; attends movies, watches soap operas, puts in three years or more on the phone; threatens a few times (in early married life) to go home to mother; knows that her child is better behaved than her neighbors; ruins a fender or two on the car; wishes her husband was home when it storms; can't drive a nail in the wall straight, but still makes a good wife after all.

chairman, Mrs. Joe Frank Hawkins, gave a report on the upcoming social event of the year in London... the marriage of Princess Anne and Lt. Mark Phillips, which is to take place November 14.

Following the program, the business meeting went into session, with Mrs. Keith Jackson, president, presiding. The minutes were read by Mrs. Linda Terrell, secretary. Officers' reports were heard and departmental reports were entered into. Conservation chairman, Mrs. Cliff Hardy, talked on conserving our energies. Mrs. Buster Terrell, Education Chairman, reminded everyone to bring their children's books for the kindergarten children. Mrs. Tom Taylor, Fine Arts Chairman, reminded everyone to turn in their points on the art contest. Under unfinished business, the club voted to order new paper for the float next year. The meeting was adjourned by all club members joining in to repeat the club call.

Refreshments of ice cream pie, coffee and soft drinks were served to the members from a table decorated with blue and red accessories using a "Columbus Day" theme. The table was centered with an arrangement of white flowers in a red vase. Those members present were: Mmes. Buster Terrell, Jack Whittington, Joe Frank Hawkins, Omar Burleson, Tom Taylor, Keith Jackson, Cliff Hardy, Bill Race, David Bloys, Kenneth Holt, Delvin Bybee, Billy Joe Turner, Jerry Perry, Jerry Johnson, Van Bradley, Roy Kidd, Bill Bigham, Audry McCormick, Jerry Cawley, Eddie Teeter, Bill Evans, Ronnie Thornton, Byron Brock, and Charles Smith.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, October 25, in the home of Mrs. Bill Race, with Mrs. Byron Brock as co-hostess. The program will be "Around the World with Food and Fashion" with a Foreign Dish Dinner the highlight of the evening. Mrs. Joe Frank Hawkins, International Affairs chairman, will be in charge of the program. Each member is to bring a foreign dish and dress in costume of the country they represent. Roll call will be answered with "Origin of My Recipe." The meeting will begin at 7:30 and each member is urged to attend.

FHS Team Makes Good Showing At Forensics Tournament

Floydada High School's team placed fourth overall in the Panhandle Forensics Tournament October 13, behind two class 4-A schools, Amarillo Tascosa and Hereford, and one double-A school, Dimmitt, whose team finished just four points ahead of the FHS group. Floydada had the smallest team at the Panhandle tournament.

Margwyne Giles placed first in girls' poetry at Panhandle and was awarded a trophy. Third place medals went to these FHS students: John Willson, boys' prose;

Ray Foster, boys' poetry; and Lezlie Simmons, girls' informative.

Other schools competing were Dalhart, Dumas and Phillips. The FHS forensics group needs weekly news magazines — Time, Newsweek, and U.S. News and World Report. If anyone has copies of the news magazines to donate to the school debaters and speakers, he should contact someone in Floydada Forensics, bring the magazines to Floydada High School, or call the teacher, Weldon Melton.

AM Radio Fire Alarm System Is Installed

A new solid-state coded-radio fire alarm system is replacing a conventionally wired system in New Castle, Pa., manufactured by Game-well, a division of Gulf and Western Manufacturing Co.

Each new fire box contains an individual radio transmitter with no wire between the box and the Communications Center.

A tone-encoded signal is amplitude modulated (comparable to normal radio stations) assuring greater range and clearer signals from weak and remote areas. Each fire alarm box will be powered by rechargeable, maintenance-free, lead acid batteries which will operate for a minimum of six months before recharging is needed.

Twenty-two of the 69 radio call boxes will be master units which, in addition to functioning as street alarm boxes, will permit automatic operation from fire alarm systems installed in buildings. The building alarm systems can be zoned within a single building, or a single radio box can serve as many as four separate buildings.

Jack Brown Speaks In Lockney Today

Jack Brown, an ex-convict will be in Lockney for two speaking engagements on Thursday, October 18.

Mr. Brown will make a talk at Lockney High School on Thursday morning, October 18, at 9 a.m. Brown will again speak on Thursday night, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Jack was gloriously saved nine years ago after 30 years of drug addiction and seventeen years in prison at Alcatraz, McAlister, San Quentin and Lexington. He is a most exciting figure and has a fantastic story to tell. Both young and old who hear him sit spellbound as he relates his prison experiences with such personalities as Al Capone, (he was Al's barber) Machine Gun Kelly, C. Chessman, the Birdman of Alcatraz, Bonne and Clyde, and others.

Jack "Magnificent Obsession" is to share through his personal testimony the story of the marvelous change in his heart and life through the saving grace of God. "Completely Rehabilitated" describes this man, and since his experiences with God, he has not stopped living it or talking about it. He has shared this testimony in more than 2000 churches and with more than 4,000,000 young people in Junior High Schools, high schools and colleges. The figures run high in the number of decisions that have been registered in his services. Both young people and adults have found a happy relationship with the Lord, and multitudes have turned from drugs and other sinful, degrading and destructive habits.

He is the author of one of the "best sellers" in America entitled Monkey Off My Back. It has now been printed in England, the Scandinavian countries, and also in Germany. Zondervan Publishing Company says, "We are happy to have his book on our list. We predict great sales abroad."

Don't miss this man. You will appreciate his sense of humor as well as his method of presentation. You will never forget him or his timely, intriguing story.

Lockney Band Boosters Meet

The Lockney Band Boosters held their regular meeting Tuesday night, October 16, 1973, at the band hall.

The meeting was presided over by president of the Band Boosters, Bill McCarter.

The Band Boosters decided not to have the concession stand this Thursday night, October 17, at the Junior Varsity football game in Lockney. This will be the only time the concession stand will not be open for a game this season, according to the Band Boosters.

The Band Boosters would like to say thank you to all the Lockney fans who have patronized the concession stands at the games, and they hope the fans will continue to support the efforts of the concession stand workers.

The next meeting for the Band Boosters will be Tuesday night, November 20, at 7:30 in the Lockney Band Hall.

The Renaissance Plan Concert Here Monday

The Renaissance (formerly the New Californians) is scheduled to appear at the Floydada High School Auditorium, at 7:30 Monday, October 22. This is an exciting singing group of college age young people who were selected from six states. The Renaissance began four years ago as a select group from the youth choir of the First Baptist Church of Lemon Grove, Calif. Now the group is touring coast to coast for ten months each year.

While the group was still called the New Californians, they were chosen from over 2000 professional acts auditioned by CBS to appear on the CBS Newcomers Show, a summer replacement for the Carol Burnett Show in 1971. They spent the summer singing with Nelson Riddle's Orchestra and being hosted by Dave Garroway on the CBS Network. In 1972 the group made many television appearances in several cities throughout the United States. While in our Nation's Capitol they performed a special concert in the Pentagon's auditorium for the military personnel.

The group has recently released their fourth record album on the TEMPO label. The albums are frequently played on radio stations coast to coast and are already judged as "hits" in the sacred field. Billboard Magazine awarded one of the albums a "Special Merit Award."

The Renaissance will appear October 22 in a special youth concert sponsored by the Caprock Baptist Association. The public is invited.

SOME OCTOBER VET CHECKS WILL BE LATE

October checks for some Veterans enrolled in schools will be delayed because confirmation of their enrollment was not received at the Veterans Administration in time for payment to be processed by October 1. Students involved are among those who received advance G.I. Bill payment where enrollment began in August 1973.

Veterans Administration officials in Waco explained that an individual's October check cannot be mailed until confirmation of his enrollment has been received from the school. October checks were held up for those whose enrollment confirmation card was not received by September 28.

Anyone who has not received his check by October 5, should make sure he is properly registered in the school and that the school has forwarded the necessary confirmation card

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M.C. 17th District, Texas WASHINGTON, D.C. — On the one hand the Food and Drug Administration intends to prohibit the use of certain vitamins and food supplements. On the other the National Institutes of Health finds a low level of several vitamins in elderly people who need supplements furnished by organic foods. Statistics show that there are at least 20 million Americans over the age of 65. Scientists and specialists report that vast numbers of these are suffering from mental and physical sickness that simple nutritional solutions might cure. Thousands of the nation's elderly are poor, sick and confused. A study conducted at Duke University in North Carolina found that half or more of all mentally confused patients over 65 had "borderline" or worse nutritional problems. It was concluded that if they ate better, with food supplements, if necessary, their health would be normal for that age.

The findings show that the nutritional problem exists in the disadvantaged as well as the disadvantaged and that vitamin supplements may be the reasonable means of overcoming the deficiencies common to older people.

Dr. Alan Whanger of Duke University's Medical Center, a practicing psychiatrist, said he "almost routinely" treats patients with vitamin-mineral supplements. Up to 40 percent of his patients show deficiency and many respond to nutritional therapy.

The doctor admits he is unable to submit positive proof but believes that "many of our aged need vitamin supplements and is worried that by reason of the Food and Drug Administration's new regulations, vitamins will get more expensive and less available for those who need them most."

Specialists say that the life-style of many of the nation's elderly lead to poor food balance.

They often live alone and as we all know it is not particularly fun to eat alone — it's just easier to do what seems necessary — cheese and crackers — sandwiches — a boiled egg — whatever — and let it go at that.

Dr. Leonard Lubby of New York Medical College pointed out to the Council on Aging that a simple fact, like the loss of teeth, discourages the eating of meat, even when it could be easily afforded.

He said this gradual degeneration in vitamin-mineral intake could lead to "a mild degree of confusion" or worse, mental problems usually associated with senility.

"In many cases", the doctor said, "simply giving these older people a proper diet can often correct their physical and mental problem."

In the Duke University study of 80 chronically ill elderly patients over a two year period, 95 percent showed signs of significant improvement after a year's treatment of proper diet with supplements found needed.

Doctors would certainly rather keep their patients well than have to treat them after they are sick. Obviously, it is not possible for them to prescribe over the eating habits of everybody or to know their patients' mineral deficiencies at all times. It's true that some may be needlessly taking vitamins but to deny those organic foods and supplements which are not toxic and which can be thrown off if not needed is not justified by the evidence now available. This, of course, is applicable to both young and old but many elderly need help in the situation in which so many find themselves.

Hearings on federal control of vitamins and food supplements may soon be held by a subcommittee of the Congress. Legislation should really not be necessary but it may be in order for people to exercise their own wishes and judgments. Misleading advertising and poisonous materials are already controlled and it seems this should be enough if sensibly applied.

Cotton Market News

(Arizona, California, New Mexico, Oklahoma & Texas) Market activity increased in Western cotton markets, this week, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA. Harvesting increased in Central Texas, Arizona, and California. Supplies of uncommitted cotton were larger, particularly in Central Texas. Foreign and domestic mill demand was good although both seemed inclined to await larger supplies before making large purchases. Merchants were active bidders on available supplies. In Central Texas, mixed quality lots of grades 42, 41 and 32, staples 31 and longer, 3.5 to 4.9 mike, brought around 60.00 to 65.00 cents per pound. Selected lots of grades 41 and 32, staples 32 and 33, 3.5 to 4.9 mike, brought up to 70.00 cents per pound. Around Abilene, Texas, mixed lots of grades 40 and 31, staples 32 and 33, 3.5 to 4.9 mike brought around 60.00 cents per pound. Below grade lots sold for 30.00 to 32.00 cents per pound in South Texas. Elsewhere in Western cotton markets most activity centered around contracting. On the Texas Plains, growers contracted at up to 40.00 cents per pound above loan rates for better quality cotton. San Joaquin Valley growers asked 70.00 cents per pound, basis grade 31 staple 35 for 1974-crop cotton. In Central Arizona, growers asked 85.00 cents per pound for 1973-crop acreage and 60.00 cents per pound for 1974-crop, basis grade 31, staple 34. In Southeastern New Mexico growers were asking 60.00 cents per pound for 1974-crop Acala 1517, basis grade 31, staple 37. Volume of contracting slowed throughout the West. The crop made good progress over most of the Western Region. Harvesting was again getting underway in Central and South Texas after the rains of last week. Harvesting was slowly expanding in most other areas of the Region.

Prices quoted for selected qualities, 3.5 to 4.9 mike, in the six Western Region spot markets are as follows: Dallas: cents per lb. this week — 64.25; last week — 64.25; Grade: Middling Light Spotted (32); 32 Staple. Houston: cents per pound this week — 76.00; last week — 79.00; Grade: Strict Low Middling (41); 34 staple.

Lubbock: cents per pound this week — 61.95; last week — 58.95; Grade: Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42); 32 staple. El Paso: cents per pound this week — 81.00; last week — 84.50; Grade: Middling (31); 37 staple. Fresno: cents per pound this week — 81.00; last week — 84.50; Grade: Middling (31) 35 staple. Phoenix: cents per pound this week — 76.00; last week — 81.00; Grade: Middling (31); 34 staple.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER Ponders Fate Of U.S. Senator Who Quits Job To Try His Hand At Farming

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnsongrass farm discusses farming this week, or government, one or the other.

Dear editor: According to an item I read in a newspaper last night a United States Senator — I forget his name, he's just been there one term and hadn't had time to get on Face the Nation or Meet the Press — has announced he won't run for a second term because the job wasn't what he's expected, too many hide-bound customs, too much power in the hands of people whose main assets are they've been there longer than the others.

But what interested me was what he's now going to do. Said he was going to farm.

I hope he knows what he's doing. You reckon this new job's going to suit him? I mean, will he be happy when he pushes a button and nobody shows up to be told where to plow that day?

You know, there's a difference in looking out the window and seeing it rain when you're in a Senator's office contemplating getting your car, and in looking out the window and seeing it rain. On the other hand, the possibility here for the Senator of electing a Senator and two on a farm. I don't think it would hurt government. The trouble with a lot of people is they don't remember who they're not working for, but it's not I'm not calling any names of several Senators and it might do good if they were a while. I can't think of any Senators. Of course...

Experiment Station Soil Fertility Program Adds Dimensions

LUBBOCK — Want to know how well your soil fertility program is working?

Investigations currently underway by two soil scientists of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station here are designed to provide the answers with plant tissue analysis.

"PTA (for plant tissue analysis) is being studied for use on South Plains cotton but will be expanded to other crops," says Dr. Art Onken, soil chemist based at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock.

"Including PTA in a soil testing program could mean greater fertilizer use efficiency and increased yields for many area producers," he says.

Two basic purposes would be served by the PTA system, explains Herb Sunderman, Onken's co-researcher who is primarily responsible for the PTA work. First, if a deficiency can be detected early in the growing season, it could be corrected by a sidedress application that year. Second, PTA conducted over several years could uncover deficiencies in the soil fertility program which could be corrected before yield reductions actually occur.

The two Experiment Station researchers point out that the PTA system does not replace the conventional soil testing method used to determine nutrient levels in soils, but it complements in aiding the planning of fertilizer use programs. "This system can be considered a second step to the soil testing techniques," says Onken. "After a soil sample is taken and fertilizer needs determined, the plant tissue test can then be used to refine the soil fertility program, based on what the plant is using certain samples... PTA is under a... the PTA... began to... sufficient... collected... service... "Our... to obtain... required... fertilizer... greater...

Floyd Weed Control District Applying Herbicides

Floyd County Noxious Weed Control District has caught up with the treating of bindweed, and at the present time the District is applying herbicides on fence rows, around farm buildings and irrigation wells. If fence rows are free of all old weeds these herbicides will give from three to four year control. One mile of fence row will cost approximately $40.00 to $50.00. All farmers that are interested in this type of weed control should contact the District office and leave their request. Wayne Lipham, supervisor of the District, stated that he would like to complete this type work by March 15, if possible.

Floydada Care Center Happenings

By Faye Walters This has been another good week with all our residents staying well.

Our devotions were inspiring and so were all the good gospel singing. It makes the days go so much better for our residents to attend these devotions.

We were happy for all the visitors who came by to see their friends or relatives. They enjoy seeing and talking to someone that doesn't live at the center for they always have some news that they haven't heard yet.

Plans and work for our Fair October 27 at 5 p.m. are well underway. The activity group has sure been working hard, and has made many pretty things the last few days.

Our kickoff for the Fair parade at 5 p.m. sharp. Then we will have some talent. We will have some talent. We will give everyone a chance to buy some of the things our residents have made, then while the votes are being counted for our king and queen contest, everyone may buy cake, pie, coffee or cokes and relax.

The last event for the day will be the crowning of our new 1974 king and queen. This will be done by the 1973 king and queen, C. A. Breeding and Lillie Luttrell.

WARNING! Before having your CARPETING CLEANED on the premises know this:

So-called "steam" cleaning methods can be injurious to your fine carpeting. If steam (212°F) were used it would be ruinous! Actually, what is used is just hot water, sometimes with added detergent, and water left in carpeting is often harmful—causing mildew, shrinkage and browning. Injuring carpet fibers, backing, under pad and flooring. Tests show up to 5 gallons of liquid left in a 9' x 12' area. That's a whole lot of liquid! Such soggy carpeting can take as much as 9 hours for even the surface to dry! And that still leaves the backing, under pad and floor damp! So, you would be well advised to play it safe by using the method recommended by leading carpet manufacturers— THE VON SCHRADER SHAMPOO METHOD In serving you we use the Von Schrader Carpet Detergent proven by almost 40 CARPETS CLEANED THE SAFE WAY, WORK GUARANTEED. Mack after ground construction... WATCH... PUBLIC... CHARLES GC... TULIA.

Mackenzie Dam Needs Now Is....RAIN!

after ground construction Mackenzie Dam and miles east of Tule Creek 100 feet above the canyon floor. The 80-foot-long 300-foot-long dam will be the highest such earthen structure funded without federal aid in Texas, Keller said. There are 188 square miles in the drainage area.

The authority, which borrowed $300,000 to buy 2,343 acres of land on which to locate the project, expects substantial revenue from lease of sites for lakeshore residences. Keller said sites will be available when areas are platted and roads constructed, and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will build a boat ramp and stock the lake with fish.

A hard surface road will be constructed on the 20-foot-wide top of the dam, and a bridge will be built over the service spillway.

Capacity of the reservoir at the service spillway level will be 46,500 acre feet. The capacity at the emergency spillway level will be 56,600 acre feet. Water surfaces will cover 896 and 1,144 acres at the service and emergency spillway levels, respectively.

The upstream side of the dam will be surfaced with soil cement. A sprinkler system will be installed on the downstream surface of the dam, which will be planted in bermuda grass.

The Mackenzie dam construction illustrates engineering ingenuity in use of materials on the site. A core of Tule clay, which is impervious to water rising from a depth of 25 feet below the canyon floor will extend through the center to the top of the dam across its full length.

The 35 foot wide core is designed to prevent any possible leaks from penetrating the full width of the dam. On the downstream side of the core, there will be a seven foot wide chimney drain of sand.

The sand fill is designed to function as a chimney in reverse. Should the upstream half of the dam be breached, and drain which is based on the canyon floor would release water under the downstream half of the dam.

The reservoir site vibrates with activity. Forty cubic yard capacity earth moving units and myriad other equipment road and scampers along the maze of temporary roads feeding bites of the 3,657,000 cubic yards of earth into the huge embankment.

Gilvin-Terrell, Inc., of Amarillo has the construction contract and Freese and Nichols is the engineering firm. Bob Thompson III is the resident engineer.

Reed Named TGSPB Chairman

LUBBOCK, Oct. 9 — C. C. (Pap) Reed of Kress was named chairman of the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board in a meeting here today.

Other officers are Larry Witten of Olton, vice chairman, and Gerald McCathern of Hereford, secretary-treasurer.

K. B. Parish of Springlake, outgoing chairman, was named to serve on the executive committee with Reed, Witten and McCathern.

Reed had served the board as vice chairman and Witten is the board's former secretary-treasurer.

The board okayed expansion of research projects including studies toward improved insect control, utilization of grain sorghum and better use of chemicals.

Additional foreign market promotion for grain sorghum was approved by the board and TGSPB executive director Elbert Harp and others are expected to make some overseas trips for the board in the future.

Ministers need women counselors

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1973 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: This is a plea for churches to consider women counselors. Your statement: "When a secretary starts crying on her boss's shoulder, she frequently winds up in his arms," was very, very true. The same could apply to ministers.

There have been more heartaches caused by women crying on their ministers' shoulders than anyone can imagine. Ask any minister's wife, and she will tell you [if she is honest] that many women have taken their problems to their clergymen and after several sessions of unburdening themselves they tell the minister they are in love with HIM!

Ministers are only human, and some are flattered, and some even try to console the troubled women in some very unethical ways.

This problem could be eliminated if the minister consulted with his female parishioners a time or two, and then turned them over to a woman for further counseling.

ONE WHO HAS SEEN MUCH

DEAR ONE: Your suggestion is an excellent one. It would lighten the burden of many an overworked clergyman. And his wife would appreciate it, too.

DEAR ABBY: I manage a large furniture store, and my problem is how to handle wild kids whose parents bring them along when they come to shop. These roughnecks tear off our price tags, pull out drawers, leaving them on the floor, and they actually jump from one sofa to the next. Most of the time the parents look the other way. When I ask the child not to do these things, many of the parents get insulted and leave.

Should I put up a sign stating that we welcome children, however, we run a furniture store not a recreational park, and parents will be charged for any damage done by their children?

How would you handle this situation? HARRIED IN HOUSTON

DEAR HARRIED: Forget the sign. If a child proceeds to abuse your merchandise, advise the parents that they will be held responsible for damage by their children. And if damage is done, sock it to 'em!

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the man who was seriously injured in an automobile accident and had the local funeral home people "call on him" while he was still in bad shape in the hospital, reminded me of my own experience.

Six months ago I suddenly lost my husband. That was bad enough, but before he was even buried I got a "sympathy card" from a man who sells real estate. I hardly knew this man. He had written on the card: "If you want to sell your house, let me know."

I reported him to the real estate company he worked for, and now I notice he is trying to sell cars. ANGRY

CONFIDENTIAL TO "B AND F" IN SAN DIEGO: Show me a married couple who boast that they have never had an argument, and I'll show you a pair of lovebirds—complete with birdbrains. It's not humanly possible for two thinking people to always be in complete agreement on everything, but how they handle their differences can make or break a marriage.

Natural Gas Shortages Will Hit Texans Hard This Winter

AUSTIN, TEX. — The chairman of the State Railroad Commission has issued a grim new warning that natural gas shortages will hit Texans hard this winter.

In a speech to Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association at Dallas, Chairman Jim Langdon said: "Propane already is in short supply due to stockpiling to offset the natural gas shortage."

* As much as 500,000 barrels daily of distillate fuel oil will be needed from November to March.

* If distillate use is as high as predicted in the state, three to five times above normal, shipments to out-of-state consumers may have to be cut 50 per cent.

* Out-of-state commitments, mandatory federal allocations and other factors may require that Texans share proportionally in shortages.

"This means that Texas might not only be denied access to its total distillate needs, but that access to its normal requirements could be cut," said Langdon. "The gasoline supply-demand situation, as well as every other petroleum product, will experience shortages this winter. As in the case of natural gas, a shortage in any type of fuel which results in an unsatisfied demand will exert pressure on available supplies of other fuels, setting up a domino-like effect."

Langdon recommended early construction of offshore deep-water ports to accommodate super-tankers from foreign countries and stepped-up development of domestic reserves of oil and gas (including shale oil) and increased use of coal.

Meanwhile, only one major customer of Lo-Vaca Gathering Company, Lone Star Gas Company of Dallas, rejected a Railroad Commission temporary rate increase — to 29.55 cents per 1,000 cubic feet — on natural gas delivered by the big Houston-based company to its customers around the state.
