Bids On Farm Labor Housing 'Way Too High

Although five building contractors were expected to bid on a 50 unit farm labor housing project for Floydada, only three bids were submitted at the bid opening Tuesday morning in the community room of the First National Bank.

The lowest bid was about $100,000 over the $460,000 available to build the housing unit. Bids were submitted by Belco Construction Company; Knox, Gailey & Meador; and White, Belk & Cook.

White, Belk & Cook of Plainview were low bidders. President of the Housing Authority of Floydada Dale Goen told a Hesperian reporter that FHA officials said the bids were much higher than buildings now being built in the valley and could understand why they were so high.

One building contractor said it was hard to get sub-contractors to commit themselves on firm bids as costs of materials and labor were climbing so fast.

"We're just sorta stalemated at this point, we have another meeting set for August 19, and perhaps we can figure out some way to get this project built", Goen said in conclusion.

The 50 unit housing project is to be built about a half block east of Della Plains school building and is basically concrete block construction with concrete floors.

Introducing Eddie Martin

Eddie Martin

EVANGELIST EDDIE MARTIN will lead a united crusade for Christ, under the sponsorship of the Floydada churches, starting Sunday night, August 4 and through August 11. The crusade will be housed at the Western Field Football Stadium in Floydada. The grandstands will seat 1600 people on one side. All programs will begin at 8 p.m., nightly.

Evangelist Martgin is one of the nation's most successful full time Evangelists. He has led over 800 crusades in his outstanding career. His crusades have set all-time religious attendance records in over 85 major cities. He has preached in many of the largest churches in America.

Martin's delivery is described as being filled with enthusiasm. His messages are geared to the times and anchored to the Rock Jesus Christ. He delivers his message with all the action of an athlete. Working with a lapel microphone, Eddie walks a mile across the platform every time he preaches.

While in the city, Martin will preach on such subjects as "They were Married and Lived Miserably Ever After", "The Second Coming of Jesus," "The End of the World," "The Unpardonable Sin," "Can A Saved Person Ever Be Lost?" "Seven Ducks In Muddy Water," and many other exciting subjects.

Hundreds of youth are expected to attend the crusade. Martin has a great youth appeal. He will be assisted by handsome Herb Reavis, eighteen year old Song Leader, Miss Lela Mayfield, nineteen year old Folk Singer-Ventriloquist, will be featured at each program.

Extensive preparations are being made by the area churches for the coming of this outstanding Team of Christian leaders.

Floydada Woman Charged With Murder

A Floydada woman has been charged with murder in the shooting death of Henry Lee Barnes. The 29-year-old man from Turkey was shot to death shortly after 9 p.m. Saturday in a northeast Floydada cafe.

Floyd County sheriff Bud Rainey said that Norantha Pates Warren, 37, was charged with murder, and about noon Tuesday released on a $2500 bond. She is operator of the cafe. Lubbock attorney Dudley Brummett accompanied Mrs. Warren when bond was made.

Justice of the Peace H. E. Porter, acting as coroner, pronounced Barnes dead at the scene. He was shot one time above the heart at close range, according to Porter.

Porter ordered an autopsy to determine the size and type bullet used in the shooting. No weapon has been recovered by law officials Tuesday.

Services for Barnes were Tuesday in Friendly Baptist Church in Abilene.

Officiating was the Rev. B. B. Barnes, pastor. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery at Abilene by Elliott Funeral Home.

Barnes had been a Turkey resident three years, moving there from Abilene.

He was a member of Mount Olive Baptist Church at Turkey.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, two daughters, four brothers and eight sisters.

Seigler Funeral Home of Turkey conducted local arrangements.

Floydada Tennis Club

Tournament Nets Over $500

At the Floydada Tennis Club meeting Tuesday night, tournament co-director Flo Davis reported a gross of around $900 and a net of around $550 from the recent open tournament.

She said over 150 persons participated from 25 area towns and the tournament was a huge success.

Flo and tennis coach Raymond Jones were presented trophies of appreciation for directing the tournament.

In other business Frank Barrow has agreed to work out some neighboring tournaments with the tennis club at Lockney or Plainview.

Maurice Goodwin, Barrow, Lon Davis and Wendell Tooley were appointed to serve on a committee to see about building two more tennis courts in Floydada.

Too many balls were purchased for the tournament and they are on sale at the Floydada Sears store.

Twelve club members attended the meeting, president Totch Upshaw presiding, Jackie Eubanks, Nina Copeland, Eleanor Hendrix and Lon Davis were appointed to serve on the new officer nominating committee.

BULLETIN...at the end of two innings, it was 1-1 in the regional game at Midland between Floydada Number 1 and Big Spring.

Yankees And Mets In Tournament

The Yankees are representing the Floydada T-Shirt League in a tournament which began Monday night in Abernathy. The Yankees played New Deal and lost 10 to 1 the first night. Tuesday night was a different story with the Yankees stomping Roosevelt 15 to 1. Donnell Weaks hit a homer in the Roosevelt game. Winning pitcher for the Yankees Tuesday night was Steve Weaver. Losing pitchers against New Deal were Tommy Holcomb, Steve Weaver, and Donnell Weaks.

Playing in the Freshman league tournament for Floydada are the Mets. They played their first game Tuesday evening against Idalou and lost a close one 13 to 10.

Troy Marquis was losing pitcher in that game. The Freshman league tournament is being held in New Deal. The Mets will play Abernathy this evening at 6:00, and the Yankees will play Abernathy or New Deal tonight.

Dear Abby

Should she keep seeing "indecent exposé"?

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I recently heard that the boy I have been going steady with for about two months has been arrested several times for indecent exposure. He's on probation now. He is a very shy and gentle person and I can't imagine him doing anything like that, but the person who told me is an old friend of his who said he thought I should know for my own good.

Now I wonder what I should do. Is this fellow dangerous? Do you think he might attack me sexually? Will he outgrow it?

I am the first girl he has ever dated. Should I let him know that I know? Should I quit seeing him even though I like him a lot?

I am 19 and he is 20.

SCARED

DEAR SCARED: Tell him what you've heard and ask him if it's true. If he denies it and you still have doubts, all arrests are a matter of public record and can be easily checked out. If he admits it, ask him if he's had treatment. (Exhibitionism is an illness as well as a crime.) If he says he's had treatment, ask to talk to his therapist. If he says he hasn't, tell him you won't date him unless he goes for treatment. Don't continue seeing him unless you have all the answers.

DEAR ABBY: My brother is always too busy (or too lazy) to shop for gifts, so when Mother's Day or Father's Day approaches, he says: "Buy something, and put my name on the card, and I'll pay you later."

Well, I do, but "later" always turns out to be "never." This has happened so many times it's not even funny. What should I say next time this deadbeat asks me to put his name on the card?

SIS

DEAR SIS: Why look for a fancy way to convey a plain message? Say: "No!"

DEAR ABBY: I am a newly wed woman, 28, and employed, but my husband and I are saving for a home so I'm not able to spend much on clothes. I have an aunt who has a lot of money and nobody to spend it on but herself. She buys clothes like they are going out of style. (That's funny!) Anyway, three years ago Aunt Ruth gave me four dresses and three pairs of shoes, which I am still wearing.

The problem: Aunt Ruth has called me about a dozen times since, and asked me to come over to try on some things because she is cleaning her closets. I drive over (and it's no short drive) and try on stuff for hours, but she doesn't give me anything. She looks at me in her clothes, and says: "I'd better hang on to that—I may wear it again." And into the closet it goes!

After being invited over to "try things on," I've gone home empty-handed time after time, and I am hurt. She doesn't owe me anything, but why does she do this? What should I do about it?

DISAPPOINTED

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: She does it because, after seeing her wearing apparel on you, she has a change of heart. Tell her that you will gladly come over to pick up anything she wants to give away. But not to call until AFTER she has made the decisions.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "PUBLIC SPEAKER IN PORTLAND": Sorry, but I don't have a collection of "jokes and funny stories." Why not take George B. Shaw's suggestion? He said: "My way of joking is to tell the truth. It's the funniest joke in the world."

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Vows Pledged In Lockney Church

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Randell Collis are at home at 2119-Rear Apartment on 8th Street in Lubbock following their marriage Tuesday, July 23, in First United Methodist Church of Lockney.

The bride, the former Pamela Hope Reves, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Doug Reves. Mr. and Mrs. Randell Collis are parents of the groom.

Delvin Bybee, Baptist minister, directed the recitation of double ring vows as the couple stood before a kneeling bench flanked by cathedral candelabra garlanded with tropical foliage and cushion mums. Following the singing of "Our Wedding Prayer" by Miss Sharon Reves, the couple lighted the vow candle that was set on the wrought iron kneeling bench. A formal altar arrangement of white glads, cushion mums, blue lace carnations and tropical foliage, accented with aquamarine satin, was the background setting.

Mrs. Bobby McCormick was organist for traditional marches, and accompanied Miss Reves, cousin of the bride, who also sang "The Wedding Song".

Bridesmatron was Mrs. Jack O'Dell of Lubbock. She and bridesmaid Miss Willa Reves, the bride's cousin, were gowned in floor length dresses of floral dotted swiss over blue. The dresses featured V-necklines, short sleeves, and Empire waistlines. The attendants carried nosegays of white cushion poms accented with blue gypsophila and showered with white satin ribbon.

The former Miss Reves, given in marriage by her grandfather, Elmo Reves, wore a floor-length dress of lace over organza. The A-line skirt had an organza panel in front. Long sleeves of lace came to a point over the wrists the neckline was square. A lace bow held the tiered lace train. The bride's veil of illusion was attached by a comb. The veil was edged in lace. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white sweetheart roses centered with a white orchid, which she used for a going-away corsage.

Lloyd Collis of Amarillo served his brother as best man. Jack O'Dell of Lubbock was groomsmen. Guests were seated by Mike Griggs of Floydada and Mike Reves of South Plains, the bride's brother.

BY PEGGY MEDLEY

KEEP us 'oh God' from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed. Let us take time for all things; Make us to grow calm, serene, and gentle. Such describes a wonderful Floydada woman whose work on earth is done. Mrs. E. F. Stovall was a great inspiration to me in my early days at the Hesperian. I remember when she was reporter for her club, I always looked forward to a visit at her home every two weeks. She was one to drive a car, so I always went to her home for the write-up. The phone of course was always handy but I had a sneaking hunch that she enjoyed my little coffee visits as much as I always did with her. She loved to entertain friends, one or many and her table was always as pretty for one friend or for an entire club meeting. She was a mother very proud of her children and had great pride for her grandchildren as well. Certainly this fine Christian woman will be missed by many.

THE town of Floydada must have a knack for drawing former residents back into its folds. When time permits I hope to do a feature on people returning to Floydada, their former stomping grounds, and their reasons for doing so. Off hand I can count some 20

The baby is a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frizzell and Mr. and Mrs. R.V. Webster, all of Lockney. Grandparents are Mrs. W.B. Mullins of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Frizzell of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Fletcher of Petersburg. Mrs. Jack Frizzell and Joy left Monday for Kansas to be the Websters and their daughter.

First child of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Montandon of Lockney was born Friday morning in Caprock Hospital at Floydada. The 6 pounds, 10 1/2 ounce boy was named Cody Clint.

Mrs. Montandon is the former Wendy Bertrand. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bertrand of Floydada. Maternal great grandparents are Mrs. Hallie Bertrand of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. P.F. White of Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Montandon of Aiken are the paternal grandparents, and great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Montandon of Tulia, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Booker of Lubbock.

ANDY HALE ON HONOR LIST AT STATE COLLEGE

Andy Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Hale of Floydada, was on the President's Honor List for the summer semester at Southwestern State College School in Weatherford, Okla.

To be on the President's List a student must have a 4.0 average, which Hale maintained during the summer semester while carrying a ten hour load. Hale's overall grade point average while in college is a 3.77.

What One Person Can Do

When Helen Keller died on June 1, 1968, the New York Times summed up her life as "an example of unquenchable will." Things must have seemed very different to her parents in 1881, when sickness left the 18-month-old girl blind and deaf, reducing her to the status of a pitied and spoiled household pet.

But in 1887, the Kellers brought Anne Sullivan to the family farm in Tusculumbia, Alabama, as Helen's teacher. Miss Sullivan was not about to let a human being remain a pet. Her unquenchable will was a match for Helen's. And in the clash of the two was forged the woman of dignity and courage who revolutionized the world's attitude toward blindness and deafness.

Badgered, prodded — and loved — by Anne Sullivan, Helen learned to spell and to read Braille. She graduated, with honors, from Radcliffe College in 1904. It wasn't easy. "I slip back many times," she wrote, "I fall, I stand still. I ran against the edge of hidden obstacles. I lose my temper and find it again, and keep it better. I trudge on, I gain a little."

Miss Keller supported herself by writing. When book sales flagged, she and her teacher put together a vaudeville act. Friends were shocked. But the twosome loved every minute of their stage career and made lasting friends, Helen Keller spent her life campaigning for better understanding

DO-IT-YOURSELFERS FIND MANY USES FOR VINYL FABRIC

For "do-it-yourselfers" with more imagination than money, today's vinyl fabrics are a decorating delight.

The "new" vinyls are lighter weight; easier to cut and work with. Sewing them by machine is no problem, but for many projects, you can simply use glue. And vinyl still has its traditional "plus" over woven fabric of being easy to clean and incredibly durable.

The popular "leather-look" vinyls are more beautiful and convincing than ever. But today you can buy vinyls in whatever kind of look suits your fancy—bright florals, plaids, textured tweeds, wild geometrics, and sophisticated embossed patterns.

Vinyl fabrics can quickly and treatment of blind and deaf persons — the start of an ongoing revolution. "I believe that all throughout these dark and silent years," she wrote, "God has been using my life for a purpose I do not know. But one day I shall understand..."

Helen Keller's faith enabled her to face her own handicaps. Faith enriched her life. It can do the same for us — if we give God a chance.

and easily brighten up a window shade, coordinate kitchen canisters and cookbooks, give new life to an old wastebasket. And many of the same Masland Duran vinyls that cover your upholstered furniture can also be purchased by the yard at department stores and decorator and upholstery fabric stores; so, the possibilities of coordination and contrast are endless.

For a beginner's project, try a vinyl tablecloth, perhaps in a bright solid or an Early American print like Duran's Brandywine. Then coordinate the tablecloth with your dining room window by covering the window shade in the same pattern. Here's how:

Versatile Round Tablecloth
1. Measure the width of your table top. Measure length from the top to the floor, and double this measurement. Add it to the top measurement. (For example, a 48" wide table with a 30" drop measures 48 + 30 + 30 = 108".)

2. Cut two widths of Masland Duran vinyl to the desired length (108" long each). Cut one of these 108" long pieces in half lengthwise. Sew the split width pieces to the full-width piece, one on each side, allowing 1/2" seams. Use your heaviest machine needle and a long sewing stitch.

3. Spread vinyl out on floor wrong side up and glue seams open. Divide your total measurement in half (108 ÷ 2 = 54"). Tie a string to a pencil and cut the string to this measurement (54"). Find the exact center of the fabric and use a thumbtack to hold the end of the string in place. Draw a circle as shown. Cut out the circle. No hem is necessary.

4. Turn fabric to right side and glue on desired trim—ball fringe, ribbon, rick-rack, cut outs.

Perky Window Shade
1. Measure your window from the frame for width; from top to sill for length. Add 12" to length measurement for slat channel, hem, and safety margin. Cut the length of Duran vinyl needed.

2. Square the fabric. Place shade roller end against top left hand edge of vinyl. Make pencil mark on fabric at opposite end of barrel at top, center, and bottom of fabric. Use a ruler or slat stick to draw a line connecting the marks. Cut the vinyl along the line.

3. Place fabric face down. Measure up about 2" from the bottom and draw a line across the width of the fabric. Fold to this line and sew or glue fabric across width to make slat pocket. Glue or sew on trimming on right side and attach pull. Insert slat in pocket.

4. Align upper edge of fabric with roller center. Staple or tape top of material to roller, using center roller guide line. Be certain your fabric is absolutely straight on the roller.

Planned by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the annual and sequential program of personal development and advancement offers voluntary organization executives the knowledge and skills needed for success. Tractor Pulling Contest Interest Growing PETERSBURG — A farm sport of the 1970s pre-empted the age old contest between a farmer's plow horses, tied back to back until a muscular steed budged its opponent.

The new version is called tractor pulling, an event that has become popular almost overnight since its inception two years ago at the Southwest Farm Show in Fort Worth.

In an effort to bring the tractor pull to West Texas, a meeting of interested tractor owners was called at 8:30 p.m. Friday at The Buff restaurant here.

One of the organizers of a group to be known as the West Texas Tractor Pullers Association, James Hale of Floydada, said the group is eyeing a contest among owners of at least 30 tractors next month.

Hale said he viewed his first tractor pull at a July 4th gathering in Snyder.

The Floyd County farmer believes the sport "kind of gets in your blood" after seeing the farm tractor's pulling ability matched with that of other farmers.

"It's all built around seeing who's got the best tractor," explained Hale.

The event apparently has been a big crowd attraction in recent events. Lamesa held its first tractor pull in June before 2,000 to 3,000 onlookers.

Besides its sport value, Hale said farmers are finding that tractor pulls are paying off when they take the tractor back to the field.

"If you can make your tractor pull better for the tractor pull, it's just going to pull better in the field, use less fuel, work more efficiently," he said.

All it takes to compete, says Hale, is a tractor right out of the field. The actual pulling is done by attaching the tractor to a specially built sled, letting the driver go and measuring his "pull distance" on a 300 foot track.

Any farmer can enter simply by tuning up his machine and reporting to the tractor pull in time for weighing-in.

Big South Plains tractors Bailey Henderson

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon in First United Methodist Church of Lockney for Bailey Powell Henderson, 74, who died Sunday night in Central Plains Hospital in Plainview.

Henderson had been in ill health for several years and had been hospitalized five days. He was preceded in death by his wife, Clara Emma who died Aug. 7, 1973. The couple was married in 1921.

Officiating at the services was Rev. Hugh Daniel, church pastor. Burial was in Lockney Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home.

A native of Hamilton, Mr. Henderson lived in Briscoe County from 1922 to 1945 when he moved northwest of Lone Star.

Surviving are two sons, Conrad and Deanie, both of Lockney; two daughters, Mrs. Sidney Rodgers of Plainview and Mrs. Larry McCormick of Dumas; twelve grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Hammonds.

Attending rites from Floydada other than the Hammonds family were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pyle, Rev. James Tidwell and William Bertrand.

in any horsepower class compete in the stock division according to weight. In a given class, tractors able to pull heavy sleds the longest distance are declared the winners.

At the Friday organizational meeting, Hale will show a film distributed by the Texas Tractor Pullers Association. It shows the methods of tractor pulling and some of the leading tractor pull contestants in the country, including owners of modified machines that carry motors from aircraft, turbo-jets and even army tanks.

Hale said anyone interested in the new sport, whether they own a tractor or not, is invited to the meeting. For further information, farmers may contact Steve Trowbridge of Floydada or R. B. Looney Jr. of Petersburg.

The organization will encompass farmers in Hale, Lubbock, Floyd and Crosby Counties, according to Hale.

4-H's At State Horse Show

DALLAS — It will be a week-long affair for 4-H and other youth horsemen from Texas and about 20 other states as they compete in the fifth annual National Youth Horse Congress and Texas 4-H Horse Show at the State Fair Grounds here July 29-Aug. 3.

Featured will be an open youth all-breed horse show, an American Quarter Horse Association approved all-youth Quarter Horse show, championship 4-H contests,

According to Yeates and Potter, the week-long affair will feature more than 3,000 class entries, making it the largest all-youth horse show in the nation.

Those attending from Floyd County are Mona and Ginger Henderson, Ronee Thornton and Denise Johnson.

MRS. E. F. STOVALL

Mrs. Stovall

Funeral rites for Mrs. E. F. (Lula Mae) Stovall, 92 year old Floydada resident, were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Floydada. Mrs. Stovall died about 1:30 p.m. Monday, July 29 in the Lockney Nursing Home where she had been a patient the past month.

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of the church, returned to Floydada from a trip to El Paso, to officiate the rites for Mrs. Stovall. She had been a member of the church since the early 20s and a Sunday School teacher until failing health. Moore-Rose Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements and burial held in the Floydada Cemetery.

Mrs. Stovall was a native of Hillsboro, born May 24, 1882. She moved to Floyd County in November of 1920 with her husband, whom she married September 7, 1902. He died here in 1937. She was also preceded in death by two children, who died in infancy.

Mrs. Stovall joined the 1922 Study Club when it was organized and was one of the five Floydada Pioneer Clubwomen, honored in 1972 for their 50 years work in the club. She served numerous offices including the president before the club disbanded last year. She also served on various committees of the state TFWC.

A graduate of a junior college, Mrs. Stovall taught school in Hillsboro prior to her marriage.

Survivors include a son, Richard F. Stovall of Plainview; five daughters, Mrs. J. P. (Aileen) Williams of Roswell, N.M.; Mrs. Marvin (Pauline) Gilbert of Lockney, Mrs. H. C. (Genell) Sullivan of Wichita Falls; Mrs. Tucker (Virginia) Teutsch of Dumas, and Mrs. Hart C. (Dorothy Dell) Shoemaker of Abilene.

Also surviving are 16 grandchildren, 29 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

Grandsons were pallbearers.

Ed Gafford

Funeral rites for Ed Gafford, 53 year old foreman for Kincaid Ranch at Crowell, and brother of Mrs. Weldon Hammonds of Floydada, were conducted Tuesday in the First Baptist Church at Crowell.

Gafford was critically injured shortly after noon Sunday when he was dragged by his horse in a pasture on the ranch. He was taken to the Crowell Hospital then air lifted by emergency helicopter from Lawton, Okla., to the Wichita Falls Hospital where he died about 8:30 Sunday night.

Mrs. Hammonds said she was told her brother and other men were roping calves on the ranch when the mishap occurred. Gafford was working alone at the time and it was surmised that while attempting to rope a calf his horse stepped in a hole, tossing the rider off. Gafford's arm became entangled in the rope, and the horse dragged him some three-quarters of a mile before it was stopped, apparently by Gafford's dog. Mrs. Hammonds said when other ranch personnel reached the scene, the dog was standing in front of the horse.

Gafford's survivors include two daughters and two grandchildren of Fort Worth; two brothers and two sisters, including Mrs.

BASIC LEADERSHIP TRAINING COURSE

Layton Koch, Soil Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service at Floydada recently attended a training conference at Fort Worth, Texas. The purpose of the conference was to acquaint employees with the basic principles of leadership. There were nine states throughout the South represented: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas.

The week-long conference dealt with communication, speaking, writing and listening. The group learned how to conduct conferences, meetings, telephone conversations and speeches. A tour was conducted through the cartographic unit located at the training center. This unit is where maps are made of soils, engineering for land development (rural and urban), land use planning, and district newsletters-information booklets are printed.

Layton will be attending a one-day training session at Lubbock next month. This session will be on Biology.

Barbara Fouch isn't at all why in approaching businessmen. "You have a responsibility," she tells them, "to help us to help these young ladies become more employable." Since NYC's start in 1969, they have met that challenge.

But Barbara Fouch wants more than jobs for black youngsters. She wants self-esteem. "If the person doesn't feel good about himself," she maintains, "he can't be very effective in whatever it is he's doing."

How do you change the world for the better? Start where you are, with what you have been given. And reach out — just like Barbara Fouch.

WHAT ONE PERSON CAN DO

BARBARA FOUCH.

Barbara Fouch is one of the South's leading black models. But she's not just "another pretty face." Ms. Fouch is an outspoken community leader, sharing the skills acquired in haute couture with young black women in Atlanta. Most of her students come from poor families and are unfamiliar with basic grooming habits that employers take for granted.

"We start at the very beginning," she says, "doing things that people assume have been done by somebody else that are actually not being done by anybody."

Instruction includes daily personal hygiene, use of makeup, how to dress, poise, diction and basic etiquette. But the goal isn't just looks. It's jobs. Ms. Fouch tells students: "You have a choice — either to be part of the system or to hang loose from the system." If they want "in", she helps them get there.

Courses are sponsored by the Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC), with headquarters in Ms. Fouch's agency, Peachtree Center Models, Inc. Classes are held in prisons for juvenile

NEW COTTON TRADE RULES

LUBBOCK — The Texas Cotton Association (TCA) has adopted new trade rules that will be effective for the 1974 ginning season.

According to Dr. Calvin B. Parnell, Jr., cotton ginning and mechanization specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, penalties will be levied for lightweight and heavyweight flat bales (net weight).

Originally, a penalty was included of $5.00 per bale for every bale that came off a gin flat press that had not been modified to produce 24-inch bales, Parnell said. This modification is referred to as "shimming" the press. However, the "Modified Press Penalty" was delayed by a meeting of the TCA board of directors on June 1,

 Mr. Wendell Tooley, Editor
 111 E. Missouri
 Floydada, Texas 79235

Dear Mr. Tooley,
 The problems facing the Hospital many and we all are trying to find and give more care to more people. It is one problem that we alone cannot solve by ourselves. This is one of our Human Blood.

All of the Hospitals in this area are Blood Services, Incorporated of Lubbock of blood for our medical needs. At this time there is a very critical shortage of blood in this area.

We are doing more major surgery sometimes requires Blood to be given hand to use if necessary. It has become difficult for us to get blood when because the Blood Banks just do not have voluntary donors.

It is a very noble and generous act to donate a unit of Blood for the needy person.

Medical science has performed many but has not been able to substitute a real thing, Whole Human Blood.

We, the Hospital Staff, are willing anyway to support a blood drive with Blood Services of Lubbock, Blood Service Clubs, and any other organization that can help us help ourselves.

I believe the Blood Services have August 15 to be able to come to Floyd the Blood.

Sincerely,
 /s/ Robert A. Williams, CRNA

1974, for one year. This means that gins will not be penalized for not "shimming" their press this ginning season, but will be required to shim their presses prior to 1975-76 ginning season or be subject to a penalty.

County Extension Agent Doyle G. Warren added that the objective of the rules is to produce a more uniform bale that will have the end result of making U.S. cotton

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Figures Out How To Become A Successful Writer, But You'd Better Hurry

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm thinks he has detected another trend, his letter this week indicates.....

Dear editor:

I don't know if you've noticed it but a pattern seems to be forming by lawyers associated with the Washington mess when they get caught, convicted and disbarred. They all take up writing.

It's a fact, Agnew, McGruder, Colson, Dean, and numerous others, having lost their law licenses, have now taken up writing and you get the impression that a first requirement for pursuing this literary profession is disbarment. First you get a law license, then you get a government job, get convicted of perjury, then get disbarred, and you're all set, with publishers standing by offering you a contract. For beginning writers however I'd like to point out there are certain details you have to respect and pitfalls to avoid if you want to become a full-fledged writer.

For example, take the third step mentioned above, perjury. You can't lose your license and get disbarred just for lying. You've got to get caught lying. Becoming a writer is not as easy as falling off a log, you know. Furthermore, you can't be just anything and get caught lying and become a writer. Congressmen have proved that over and over. Editors of some of the biggest newspapers in the country have tried it for years and they've never become writers. Avoid such pitfalls.

My advice to young people wanting to become writers and have their books published is to forget them English courses, get into law school, pass the bar exam even if you have to hire somebody to do it for you, and head for Washington. Better hurry, though. At the rate the convictions and the books are piling up the fad may die out and another book by another Washington felon will be a glut on the market and you might have to just stay in jail reading Pilgrim's Progress.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

VETS GI BILL EXTENDED

Some 55,000 school-going Veterans whose GI bill eligibility was extended by two years under a law signed by the President on July 10, will receive educational assistance checks by the end of July, according to Jack Coker, VA Regional Office Director.

The former eight year deadline on using school benefits expired June 30 for Veterans separated from military service between January 31, 1955 and July 1, 1966, VA explained. Those Veterans who happened to be in summer school at the time the new Public Law 93-337 was enacted can now be legally paid for training beyond the former expiration date of June 30.

Normally, checks are delivered in advance of each month of training, Coker explained, so the Waco Regional Office prepared in advance of the new Bill's enactment to process payments for summer school students as soon as legal authority to make the payments was received.

Veterans in school who were discharged less than eight years ago continued to receive their monthly checks without interruption, and they will have continuing eligibility under the new law for up to 10 years after separation from service. Eligibility had expired for some four million Veterans discharged between January 31, 1955 and July 1, 1966. Of these, some 55,000 were in summer schools and
