More Rain Improves Outlook

By Wendell Tooley
After going on the Floyd County farm tour Thursday, I'm mighty glad to be living and in business in this county. The irrigated. . . or even partially irrigated crops look good and the rains we've received this week have really put the "icing on the cake".

The rains have solved the problem in many Floyd County farmer's mind about whether to keep watering cotton. The rains also mean moisture for the dryland or near-dryland farmer who is ready to plant wheat.

On the farm tour we saw many many acres of irrigated grain sorghum that will make 6 to 7 thousand pounds to the acre. With the current price of $5.50 per hundred, it appears that there will be a good profit for our grain sorghum farmers.

The cotton is loading up with good sized speckled bolls. . . and there are many fine crops of soybeans. Although cotton prices haven't come up to expectations, soybean prices are plenty good.

After traveling through some of the dryland counties recently where there are literally no row crops growing, we can all be thankful that we live in an area of underground irrigation water.

The rains will also allow the grassland in east Floyd County to get in good shape before winter. The northeast area of the county and on into north Motley and Briscoe have received a lot of rain in the last two weeks.

Cattle and hog prices are something else. While the grain farmer is in good position for profit, the feedlot operator just can't make a profit feeding the high priced feed to not high priced enough cattle.

RAINFALL REPORTS

Rainfall in the Lockney area Thursday night/Friday morning measured like this: 1.1" in Lockney at the Marvin Cox residence; .5" at Sterley Gin; .75" at the Herman King residence, Lone Star; .70" at Muncy Elevator; 1.1" at Acce Seed, Aiken; 1" at the Eddie Teeter residence, Pleasant Valley; 1.6" at Ronnie Thornton's residence, 2 1/2 miles east of Providence, 2 1/2" at the Raymond Rucker residence, 3 miles south of Lockney.

The official rainfall report on the Thursday night rain in Floydada was .98. There were other reports of over an inch.

THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL is an exciting day for first and second graders. Floydada schools open Monday; first grader Deedee Williams and second grader Roger Alldredge practice printing their names in a notebook. Deedee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toby Williams, Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alldredge. (Photo by Brad)

Watermelon Feast For Band Students And Parents

Whirlwind Band members and their parents are invited to a watermelon party on Tuesday, August 27, according to Willie Bradshaw, Band Booster president. The party is set for 8 p.m. at the Junior High School band hall. "We urge all band parents to be present on Tuesday, meet our new Band Director Dennis Teasdale, and eat watermelon", Bradshaw said.

Plans for the party were made on Wednesday this week when the Band Booster Board of Directors met for the first time for the new school year. The board also made their first plans for the operation of the concession stand at all varsity home football games this season. A work day at the concession stand was scheduled for September 9 at 7 p.m. "It takes a lot of work by every band parent to keep the concessions operating through the football season," Bradshaw pointed out. "In fact, the band's concession stand is big business."

In a report to the board, Band Director Teasdale said that he expects to have a ninety member band when school opens and he is looking forward to an outstanding year. He also reported that the band uniforms which have been ordered should arrive the last of September. Fifty additional uniforms were authorized by the School Board earlier this year.

Labor Day Weekend Accidents Will Claim 34

AUSTIN — Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents in Texas over the Labor Day Weekend will claim 34 lives.

Speir noted that traffic deaths in Texas, which earlier were running up to 30% under the 1973 toll, have been rising throughout the summer months. He said the upward trend is related to heavier traffic and an alarming disregard for the 55 mile speed limit.

The DPS director said every effort would be made to prevent accidents and deaths by placing all available DPS troopers on duty during the holiday period which extends from 6 p.m. Friday, August 30, through midnight Monday, September 2.

Speir noted that many local law enforcement agencies will be cooperating in the all out effort to make the streets and highways safe.

In addition, he said the DPS would be working with the news media in a special public education program called "Operation Motorcide". A concerted effort will be made to focus public attention on where and why fatal accidents are occurring during the holiday.

Tractor Pulling Contest Saturday

One of the first tractor pull contests on the South Plains will be held Saturday at the Petersburg football stadium sponsored by the West Texas Tractor Pullers Association rules.

Tractor owners will compete for cash prizes in four classes. An entry fee of $25 will be charged.

In the super stock and open class, prizes range from $125 for first place to $25 for fifth.

In the Texas turbo (12,000, 15,000 and 18,000 lbs.), stock (7,000 and 12,000 lb.) and super stock novi (12,000 lb.) classes, the prize will range from $75 for first place to $50 for second and $25 for third.

James Hale reports that the "pull" will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday unless it is rained out.

Rev. McQuire, New First Baptist Staff Member

It was announced this week that Rev. Jimmy McQuire will assume duties as assistant pastor at First Baptist Church on September 1. He comes to this position from Arnett Benson Baptist Church in Lubbock. He served there as pastor the past seven years.

His responsibilities will include three areas of work: education, bus ministry and outreach. McQuire comes to this position after fourteen years in the pastorate. His first full time work was at Sandhill a few years ago.

He and his wife, Joyce and one son, Jerry, who is a junior student in high school, will move to Floydada within a few days.

It was also revealed that Ric Hunt, Music/Youth Director of the church, has resigned and will enter Southwestern Seminary this fall. He and Mrs. Hunt are now in the process of moving. August 25 will be their last day at the church.

NO CITY SCHOOL BUS

According to a report from the superintendent of Floydada schools, A. E. Baker Friday morning there will be no city school bus running Monday.

The bus that ordinarily moves school children from school to school in the city will not run because no bus driver is available.

"We will get this bus to running, just as soon as we can get a bus driver", Baker told the Hesperian Friday.

Tennis Clubs

In Tournament

The Floydada and Lockney tennis clubs will be in a tournament in Floydada Saturday and Sunday. Floydada tennis club member Frank Barrow matched the tournament this week and he urges all Floydada tennis club members who want to play to be at the FHS tennis courts at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

The tournament will include both men's and women's doubles and if you don't have a partner, be at the courts Saturday when partners will be matched.

All Floydada Tennis Club members are reminded about the club meeting at Lighthouse Electric Cooperative Tuesday night at 7:30.

Mental Health Office

May Be Located In Floyd

A joint meeting of the Health and Mental Health Advisory committees was held in the Floydada First National Bank Tuesday night to discuss the possibility of opening an extended office of the Central Plains Mental Health-Mental Retardation Center in Floyd County.

Under the plan, Floyd County would have to furnish offices for the center and the center would afford the cost of personnel and telephone.

Executive director of the center Bill Dillard made the proposal to the group and Floyd board member R. L. Knox suggested after the discussion that everyone present see if a location for the extended office could be located.

Dillard said some 70 residents of Floyd County used the center last year and Emily Potts expressed the opinion that a local office would be a big advantage.

Attending the meeting were Roy Alexander of the Plainview center, Woody Allen board member from Plainview, county judge J. K. Holmes, Billie Jordan, Wendell Tooley, Edell Moore, Alton Rose, Mrs. Clay Henry, Gertrude Carr, Knox, Potts, Dillard and Mrs. Douglas Degge.

Cone Cemetery Assoc., Meets August 29

Those interested are reminded of the annual meeting of the Cone Cemetery Association to be held Thursday, August 29, at the old Cone School building at 8:30 p.m. Joe Jackson, president, urges everyone interested in the Cone Cemetery to attend. Two directors will be elected at this time.

Fawver, Willis, Johnson Reunion Held August 11

The Fawver, Willis, Johnson reunion met for its 22nd reunion, Sunday, Aug. 11, at the Vernon Boys Club. The business meeting was called to order by president, Kenneth Russell. Minutes of the 1972 reunion were read by secretary Mary Ann Russell. There wasn't a reunion in 1973 due to illness and a death in the family. Family count was taken as follows: George Fawver 9+ (6 that came later); Lynn Fawver, two; Lillie Fawver Johnson, 12 (this was the most present for one family; Nora Fawver Willis, four; With eight visitors, making a total of 42 present.

The president then asked for the youngest and oldest present. Tammy Wilcox, 4 years old was the youngest, and Lillie Johnson, 92 years old, was the oldest. Gifts were given to them by gift chairman, Naomi Fawver. Election of officers followed. Named as president was Edwin Wilcox; vice president, Edgar Willis; Doris Wilcox, secretary treasurer; Annie Jewel Willis, gift chairman. Appreciation was expressed to Naomi Fawver, who had served as gift chairman since 1967. Motion was made and passed to meet again at the same place and same time in 1975.

SPANISH STYLE YARD OF LEROY BURNS' SELE

Yard Of The Week

This week's selection is that of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Burns, 610 W. Georgia. The Burns' have lived in this new Spanish style home about a year so this would be considered a new yard. The front yard carries out well the Spanish theme. A low hedge is on the east side of the lot and around the house. Next to the curb and in other sections of the yard, volcanic rock of red and black colors have been used. In the center, amid the rocks are two large yuccas, unusual cacti and cow skulls. A Spanish burro and cart are placed nearby. Across the front of the lot next to the curb are some unusual and pretty low cactus, driftwood and petrified cactus. Pines and mimosas are used for a pretty contrast. A cluster of three maples are on the west side of the walk along with another pretty pine. Several rows of Popcorn at the back of this lawn

Gift Coffee Honors Miss Lynn Fowler

Miss Lynn Fowler of Arlington, bride-elect of Tom Rourke of Dallas, was honored with a gift coffee Saturday morning, August 17 in the Pete Hickerson home. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Hickerson and presented to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Wilson Mack Fowler of Floydada, and the mother of the prospective groom, Mrs. T. J. Rourke of Dallas. Also in the receiving line were Mrs. C. A. Dennin of Wichita Falls, Texas, grandmother of the bride-elect and Jean Bartle of Amarillo. Each wore a corsage of white carnations, baby breath, greenery and ribbon. Miss Arline Hamm was at the bride's book and Gail Howard and Allison Campbell presided at the silver service. Guests were served from a table laid with an off-white cut work tablecloth made in Germany, with triple silver candelabra holding avocado candles. The table arrangement carried out the bride's colors. The arrangement of rose colored carnations with baby's breath greenery in antique ruby red bowl, and china with floral design the same color of the bride's colors completed the setting with avocado napkins. Assisting Mrs. Hickerson with the gift coffee were Mmes. David Battey, Jr., W. L. Davis, Maurice Campbell, Bill Feuerbacher, A. L. Fields, Herman Graham, Milton Harrison, George Miller, and Claude Weath-

Vote On Yard Of The Week

Marie Hammonds Graduates Magna Cum Laude

SAN ANTONIO — Miss Marie Hope Hammonds, granddaughter of Mrs. Hope E. Hammonds of Floydada, received the bachelor of arts degree in biology Magna Cum Laude August 11 from Incarnate Word College here. Miss Hammonds, an honor student, was for two years named to the Alpha Chi National Honor Society which is limited to the top ten percent of college upperclassmen in the U.S. She was also named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. As an undergraduate she was the senior representative on the Academic Affairs Committee of the college, and the student representative on the Project Review Committee for Minority Biomedical Support Program, a federally funded project involving the four Realizing that such a very few of the beautiful yards in Floydada can be chosen as "Yard of the Week" the Women's Division of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce are asking that you call or write Floydada Chamber of Commerce and vote your choice of the yards. Next week the WDCC will have published their final "Yard of the Week" which will be selected by you, the public, made by your votes. The yard receiving the most votes will be selected. On August 24 in the IWC Chapel Marie will become the wife of Anthony R. Henry, a medical student at the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Henry received his Bachelor of arts in biology, also Magna Cum Laude, with Miss Hammonds on August 11. Also an honor student, Henry was part of a new IWC Program which allows superior students to count their first year in medical school as their senior year in college.

FLOYDADA Band Boosters Meet

Floydada Band Boosters met Tuesday night with Willie Bradshaw, president, presiding over the meeting. Plans for the year were discussed and dates of upcoming events scheduled. The group designated September 9 as clean-up hours at the concession stands. All band parents and others willing to help are asked to be at Wester football field at 7 p.m. All help will be appreciated. Band Boosters planned a watermelon feast for the night of August 29 at 8 o'clock at Junior High School. All band students and their families are invited. Band director Dennis Teasdale and his wife also attended the Band Boosters meeting.

Talk is cheap

Especially between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m., seven days a week. That's when our one-minute rate is in effect on Long Distance calls you dial direct the One-Plus way. If you talk one minute, you pay for one minute. Not the usual three-minute rate. And each additional minute costs less. Phone someone who lives in a city. Rates can be even less.

Rates above do not include tax. One-Plus rates do not apply on calls made from coin telephones.

Double Ring Vows Unite Miss Gilly, Steve C. Steger

The First United Methodist Church was the setting Friday evening, August 23, for the 7 o'clock wedding of Miss Cathy Gilly and Steve Carroll Steger. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gilly of Floydada and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Neiland C. Steger of Borger.

Rev. Stan Cozby, friend of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony before a mass arrangement of tiered candelabra, blue and mint green glads and mums. The scene was flanked at either side by Cathedral candles and mint green and palms of emerald foliage.

Music selections were presented on the organ by Miss Gay Clough of Borger, who also accompanied soloist, Miss JoAnn Wright of Lubbock as she sang, "It Seems I've Always Loved You", "Holy, Holy", and "Freely, Freely".

A scripture reading was presented by Scot Andress of Borger.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silken organza designed in Victorian fashion featuring Venise lace. Ruffles of Venise lace outlined the high neckline, sheer yoke and cuffs of the long full sheer sleeves. The lace was repeated at the hemline above a deep flounce. Pearled motifs of the lace were sprinkled over the A-line skirt which had a detachable Chapel length train.

She wore a matching mantilla Chapel length veil bordered in Venise lace and carried a cascade type bouquet of white Marguerite daisies and baby's breath. Centered was a detachable corsage of white daisies and stephanotis carried atop a white Bible, borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Charles Christian. She wore the traditional blue garter, and a necklace for something new, which was a gift from the groom. Something old was a wedding band belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. O. R. Beard.

Mrs. Charles Christian, Floydada, was matron of honor, and Miss Rita Doss of Crosbyton was bridesmaid. Mrs. Christian wore a floor length gown of royal blue jersey knit fashioned Victorian style, and featuring a yoke with softly gathered bodice and self covered buttons. The long full sleeves were caught to tight cuffs. She completed her ensemble by wearing a picture hat, and carried a wicker basket bouquet in royal blue and mint green with yellow daisy pom poms.

The bridesmaid was dressed identical to the matron of honor only in mint green. She carried an identical bouquet arrangement.

Randy Robbins of Lubbock was best man and Doug Wheeler, also of Lubbock, was groomsman. Serving as ushers were brothers of the groom, Dr. Douglas Steger and Brad Steger, both of Borger.

Following the wedding a reception honoring the couple and hosted by the bride's parents, was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Randy Robbins of Lubbock registered guests and background music was furnished by Miss Gay Clough at the piano.

The serving table was covered with a white silk cloth overlaid with white net. A four tiered cake, decorated with blue and green flowers, topped with white lace bells, was served from crystal appointments by Miss Reagan Cagle of Floydada and Mrs. Doug Wheeler of Lubbock. The table setting was highlighted by a brass candelabra with royal blue and mint green tapers with the bride's bouquet at the base.

David Christian, nephew of the bride, handed out blue and green flowers with rice centers.

For a wedding trip to Eagle Nest, N.M., the bride changed to a blue and white checked knit pantsuit with white accessories. Upon the couple's return, they will reside at 124 Temple, #3, in Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and a December candidate for graduation from Texas Tech University. Her husband, a graduate of Borger High School, received his BA Degree from Tech, where he plans to continue his studies.

lace covered Bible belonging to her mother. Mrs. Lilette Beutten of Colorado Springs, Colo., was maid of honor. She wore a dress of blue and white dotted Swiss designed to that of the bride's, only with short sleeves. She wore a white picture hat and carried a long stem rose with streamers.

Joe Bob Underwood of Amarillo served as best man.

The reception which followed was held in the Alumni Room on the campus of Bethany College. Assisting in serving were Mmes. Ron Hutcheson, John Mullenax, and John Hanes, Jr. A tiered wedding cake in blue and white with a bride and groom encaised in a white lace heart, was served with fruit punch.

For travel, the couple changed to matching ensembles they fashioned themselves of blue and white. They are now residing at 6705 NW 38th Street, #4, Bethany, Okla.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and attends Bethany Nazarene College where she will be a senior English major this fall. She is presently employed at the Children's Convalescent Home in Bethany as a receptionist.

The groom, a graduate of Hobbs, New Mexico High School, attended New Mexico Junior College and is also a student at Bethany College where he will be a Junior Religious Education major. He is currently employed by Hoerner-Waldorf Box Factory, and plans to go into the ministry.

has been used under the new Farm Bill.

One direct result of this exchange of ideas has been the computation where a substitution of crop is involved.

Agriculture officials, consisting of Under Secretary J. Phil Campbell, ASCS Assistant Deputy Administrator Programs Victor Senechal, ASCS Associate

Director Glenn Weir, and George Melvin with ASCS Programs, also advised that there would be a change made in the sign-up or certification date from July 15 to September 1 to sign up for cotton, as to how much cotton had been planted. With regard to grains, farmers can now wait to certify until they come in for a payment.

USDA Proposes New

Food Stamp Regulations

Under a proposed regulation announced today by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, an individual who wants to retain eligibility for food stamp program benefits would have to accept a job which requires joining a bonafide labor organization recognized by the National Labor Relations Act. The regulation would not require the recipient to join a company union.

In order to participate in the food stamp program all recipients, with certain exceptions, must register for and accept employment. Current regulations, however, permit a recipient to refuse a job in which he is required to join, resign from, or refrain from joining any legitimate labor organization. The proposed amendment is in line with regulations for the Work Incentive Program of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Public comments are invited on the proposed regulation which is scheduled for publication in the Federal Register on Wednesday, August 21. Written comments may be mailed or delivered to Royal Shipp, Acting Director, Food Stamp Division, Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, so as to be received not later than September 20, 1974. Comments received will be open to public inspection.

Announcement of the upcoming field day activities was made by Dr. George McBee, resident director of TAES at Lubbock, and Dr. Darrell Rosenow, field day committee chairman and TAES associate professor in grain sorghum breeding.

FIELD DAY

LUBBOCK — The 65th Annual Field Day and Open House of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station north of Lubbock has been set for Tuesday, Sept. 10. Highlighting the occasion will be a comprehensive review of recent developments in agricultural research.

Announcement of the upcoming field day activities was made by Dr. George McBee, resident director of TAES at Lubbock, and Dr. Darrell Rosenow, field day committee chairman and TAES associate professor in grain sorghum breeding.

SOUND JUDGMENT NEEDED IN IRRIGATING LATE COTTON

LUBBOCK — Because of erratic weather conditions over the South Plains this year, the cotton crop varies as much as six weeks in planting dates. This means farmers will need to look carefully at soil and plant conditions and stages of growth as they determine when to irrigate, says Dr. Bob Metzger, area agronomist.

"Hot, sunny weather has promoted heavy fruiting with less vegetative growth in most of our irrigated early-planted cotton, says the Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialist.

"Irrigation in many fields of early cotton has been behind schedule all season. Early cotton can utilize considerably more water due to the heavy fruit load with less than normal vegetative growth.

"But we face a different picture on late cotton planted after the June hail storm," he cautions. "This cotton is making good progress and fruiting rapidly. Full size bolls should be reached by the third or fourth week in August.

"Although the fiber of late planted cotton is expected to reach its full staple length by the last of August, the bolls will still be immature. Fibers must fill out (increase in micronaire) during September and October if these bolls are to reach the desired yield potential.

"Temperature may actually become more important than moisture for this crop," he emphasizes. "It also becomes imperative that this cotton remain in a fruiting phase and allowed to continue fruiting at a rapid pace. One way to do this is by careful use of irrigation water."

The agronomist explains that it may not be necessary or profitable to irrigate late cotton that is currently not wilting and has sufficient soil moisture. However, if some wilting is occurring and soil moisture is low, a light or alternate row irrigation around Aug. 10-15 should provide adequate moisture for the remainder of the season.

"It is much better to stress late-planted cotton a little than to have luxuriant growth," he adds. "Observations and studies have shown that late cotton is

Meet With Congressmen About Crop Conditions

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman Omar Burleson recently reported on the meeting held in Washington involving three West Texas Congressmen, several farmers from West Texas and much more sensitive to excess water, which usually results in rank, immature bolly cotton.

"You don't have to have a large stalk to obtain profitable yield," Metzger adds. "I realize that growthy cotton certainly looks attractive during the season, but if you end up with a plant having 1/3 white cotton at the bottom with 2/3 bolly cotton at the top, it can be costly with present-day quality discounts and premium, to say nothing of irrigation costs."

The specialist who is based at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, says that each year he cautions producers about over-watering cotton, especially late cotton. It is even more critical this year, he adds, because most late cotton is located in the short season area north of Lubbock.

officials of the Department of Agriculture. Because of the great amount of difficulty being experienced by those in disaster areas because of crop losses due to weather conditions, the specific problems were discussed in efforts to reach some better understanding. Congressman Burleson, Con-

Summer Trip To Russia

(by Frances Mitchell)
 This summer I experienced a most interesting and unusual trip to Moscow, Leningrad, Kherson, Escandya Nova (on the northern shores of the Black Sea) and Kiev, the capital city of the Ukraine. We flew from New York to Shannon, Ireland where we refueled in order to complete a 14 hour flight. We were given a briefing of important things to see during the hours ride from the airport to the Ukraine Hotel where we had a wonderful view of the city from the 19th floor. Everything in this huge city of 7,000,000 people seemed to be endless miles of apartment complexes and elevators, and it took endless hours to get things done their way. The architecture is "Stalinist Gothic".

Going with the International Theoretical Congress of Sciences was a unique experience in itself. It provided tours with transportation from our hotel and the University, and also furnished us with tickets and English speaking guides for four major tours, and several minor ones. There were 80 scientists from the west and midwest represented in our group of 140 with whom we flew from New York in a chartered 707 jet. Most major U.S. Universities were represented. Since our tour was set up through science conferences, the University was the first thing we saw. It was very impressive, with a present enrollment of some 26,000. It stands on the famous Lenin Hills where Napoleon once stood when his troops burned the city. Also such personages as Peter the Great, Alexander the Great and Catharine II. Their history is bloody.

Our first impression of this vast city with its teeming throngs of people, mostly on foot, was one of suppression. The women work very hard, at manual labor; in fact, we saw few men in fields or outside activities. There is no freedom of religion or the press. A Russian citizen is told what to read — which is the classics. To make a purchase is arduous labor — one stands in 3 different lines. In the first line the article is chosen; in the second line the payment is made, and the last line a receipt is presented for delivery of the article. Clothing is considered as luxury; a pair of ladies hose was marked $10. In a three story department store there were four pair, thick, coarse and ugly. As Russian women passed by they only touched them lightly, or merely looked. There was a very meager selection of anything to buy. Only one item was in abundance at that time, women's coats of very heavy coarse cotton. They wear drab colors, navy, grey, black, brown with a drab overcoat on much of the time. In most instances cars are used only for vacation times. Apparently most of the men work in factories or on communal farms which are government owned and controlled. The underground Metro system is fantastic, and spectacular with marble columns, mosaics, and statuary. After descending three broad escalator flights of stairs we made a circular ride. It is a must in Moscow, but once is enough.

When most tourists think of Moscow they think of the Kremlin which is the Russian word for "citadel". It refers to the most ancient and strategic part of the city, which is walled in by fortifications. It contains old royal palaces, governmental bureaus, and golden onion domed churches where the tsars were crowned and buried. The armory contains a museum of tsarist treasures. In glass cases are jeweled crowns, ivory and gold thrones, robes, golden dishes, carriages, etc. belonging to various tsars and their families.

There is only one Baptist Church in Moscow with three services daily. After Stalin's death, 10,000 Bibles were printed in Russia, but we could not learn whether any had been printed since.

The free tour of the Economic Achievement of Sciences pavilion is a small world's fair ground. In one building we were guided through and shown each stage of their space development, including equipment used for their walk on the moon. Fountains are used in the beautification of the grounds and precious and semi-precious stones, inlaid with gold.

On a Saturday night we took a train to Leningrad which was built by Peter the Great. We had a city bus tour, an afternoon tour through the Heritage which is the elaborate palace he built for Catherine II. She was an avid collector of art treasures, so as the collection grew, the building was made larger, and now is a huge museum.

The hydrofoil ride across the bay to Peter the Great's summer palace is also a must. The grounds are superb, with the fountains playing in and around the lagoons as one walks to the mansion. Most of them are inlaid in gold and semi-precious stones. Also, it is interesting to note that the largest of the fountains represents Sampson and Delilah. The grounds are indeed fairy land.

The Post Congress tours went north, east, and south. Ours was the latter. We were flown to Kherson near the Black Sea where we toured the city, the open Zoological Museum and the famous virgin Russian Steppes.

From Kherson we flew to Kiev, the capital and bread basket of the Ukraine.

Outstanding in this city was a visit to St. Sophia's Church, built in 1039 and decorated in blue, white and much gold inlay on the inside. It has frescoes inside and golden onion domes glistening in the sun. Near the church we descended beneath the flying buttresses and into the catacombs far below the surface of the earth where monks were buried in the XI century and lay mummified in wooden coffins. Religion in this city was begun when the missionary Vladimir traveled north and practiced his impressions of religion in Constantinople from which city he had just come.
