Whirlwinds In Waiting Game This Friday

By Wendell Tooley
The Floydada Whirlwinds have played their ten game schedule and Friday night will be playing the "waiting game". The Whirlwinds and their coaches will be anxiously awaiting the final scores of the Lockney-Idalou, Tulia-Abernathy games to see what their destiny is for continuing play to state or completely out of the running. Most likely the coaches and Whirlwinds will be in the Idalou to watch the most important game. Should the Wildcats upset the Longhorns, the Winds would go to bi-district. Should Lockney win the game and Tulia defeats Abernathy, there will be a three-way tie for the district championship. If this is the way it turns out, Tulia, Lockney and Floydada school officials will meet at Abernathy after the games Friday night and draw lots to see who shall represent this district in bi-district against the winner of the Olton-Dimmitt game.

If Abernathy should upset Tulia and Lockney beat Idalou, Lockney would represent the district. DIFFERENT BALL GAME It's really a different ball game for the Whirlwinds in comparison with this time last year. Last year the Winds had no top ten rating, they finished the season 7-3, but had the district crown sewed up. This year they have been in the top ten listing in state, one week as high as second place, and hold a 9-1 season record. However, the Lockney loss has put them in the present situation. WINDS STAYING IN SHAPE Coach L. G. Wilson is keeping the Whirlwinds in good physical shape in the meantime with light workouts this week and of course will have scouts at the Olton game at Dimmitt Friday night. Coach Wilson said Tuesday, "the other coaches, the Whirlwinds and I remain optimistic that whatever comes this Friday night, we'll get to represent this district."

With Breezers Net Champions!

Breezers coach Mike... end sweep but it was called back due to a penalty. On the next play with about three seconds left in the game the Breezers tried their reverse play and Henry Gonzales made a fine 40 yard run for another TD. The Abernathy team left the field before try for extra points so the referees gave the points to Floydada, making the final score 26-0.

Coach Cocanougher praised his entire team for a good game and a good season. In the Abernathy game he was pleased with the defensive work of Robert Armstrong who plays defensive cornerback, Tracy Womack and Troy Marquis who intercepted passes, defensive linebacker Henry Gonzales, Jay Griggs, Keith Nison, Ray Marcado, Neal Becker, Danny Nutt and Larry Westbrook. The team now begins basketball practice with the first game here against Idalou a week from Monday night.

Turkey Shoot Saturday Sunday

The public is invited to participate in a Turkey Shoot this Saturday and Sunday, sponsored by the Floydada Quarterback Club. The Shoot will be held at the Floydada Gun Club range on the Lockney highway at the north edge of Floydada. Time is 1 to 6 p.m. each day and there will be prizes, turkeys and hams.

Eighth Breezers Second In District

With a 22-8 victory over Abernathy Tuesday night and a 6-3 season the Eighth Grade Breezers came out second in district to Tulia. Coach Gary Jones said his team worked hard and deserved a lot of praise for a good year. Scoring in the Abernathy game went like this: in the first quarter Ricky Luna scored from the 15, and extra point was no good. Then in the second quarter Ricky Day scored on a 55 yard run off a double reverse play. A pass from Todd Vickers to Jimmy Jackson was good for two extra points. Luna was back to score again before halftime, this time from the ten yard line. Vickers made the two extra on an end sweep. Floydada led 22-0 at halftime. Coach Jones let most of his second and third string play the last half and the Abernathy score came about two minutes before the game was over on a long pass. Breezer touchdowns were called back and he praised Luna who made 104 yards in 11 carries, Day with 87 yards in nine carries and Vickers 61 yards on five carries. He said Kary Helms caught a 35 yard pass from Vickers, Brad Feuerbacher ran the ball for good gain, and although the team received 100 yards in penalties managed to make 287 yards rushing and 35 yards passing. Coach Jones praised Robert Soliz with 13 tackles, Luna with 12, Paul Radloff with ten and Michael Sales on good defensive showing. Now it's basketball season ahead.

National publicity... has sorta taken the importance away from our November 11 Armistice observance. OUR NEIGHBORS DOWN at Spur have two new industries that are really going good... they employ over 50 women. One of the big needs at Spur is a Day Care Center for the working women's children. Here, at Floydada, we have one of the most successful Day Care Centers in the state and very little industry. Our Day Care Center at present remains full the year around with the approved number of 35 children for our size center. Be thinking about what you can give the Day Care Center... they need strong toys, and really need a new washing machine at this time. WELL... OFFICIALLY... the first 32 degree weather this fall was the morning of November 11. I think some vegetation may have been killed earlier than this in some spots. I'LL TELL YOU ABOUT the City Council... I didn't write a story about its regular meeting Monday night because it was over by 9:30 with just routine items covered. The council has been in so many called meetings lately, I think they had about run out of other business in the meantime. AND THE SCHOOL board meeting didn't take long... they raised the insurance coverage on our schools 25% to allow for inflation, appointed a textbook committee and decided to sell the old Ag pickup. FROM THE GAZETTE (Brazil, Indiana): "These computers that work on who should wed whom might just as well realize at the start that, computers or not, the man who puts the cap back on the toothpaste tube will marry the girl who does not."

VA REMINDS... BE SURE THE RIGHT PERSON IS BENEFICIARY

Make certain the right person is beneficiary on your GI insurance policy, is the Veterans Administration reminder to five million veterans covered under its government life insurance.

In such cases, VA is obligated by law to pay insurance proceeds to the beneficiary of record. Most of the agency's insureds are World War II veterans who carry National Service Life Insurance.

The problem of insurance benefits going to an unintended recipient arises in most instances because the veteran simply never gets around to changing his beneficiary, Coker said.

Cotton Around 35¢

The South Plains cotton harvest slowly gained momentum during the past week as stripping and picking operations increased, according to Paul R. Dickson in charge of the USDA's Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock. "Harvest of the current crop is at least two weeks later than normal due to the unusual amount of moisture in October," he added. The USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service reported 751 samples of cotton had been classed through Friday, November 8, 1974. On this same date last season the total was 174,000.

"Quality of this early cotton varied widely depending on conditions of the fields at time of harvest," Dickson said. The predominant grades so far are 41, 51 and 42. Grade 42 was assigned to 28 percent while Grade 41 was assigned amounting to 24 percent.

Predominant Staples were 31 and 32, each to 20 percent of the samples classed this week. Forty-six percent of the samples were reduced one grade because of bark content.

premium range of 3.5 to 4.9 accounted for 84 percent of the samples. Pressley Strength tests for the area served by the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office averaged 84,000 pounds per square inch. Prices quoted by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire range were: Grade 41, Staple 31 - 36.25 cents per pound and Grade 42, Staple 32 - 35.20 cents.

BY PEGGY MEDLEY

THE OLD PRO... is quitting. After 20 years as gateman at Wester Field Hubert Davis is calling it quits. He may consider going into writing. No, not really, it was my suggestion to him after he brought in the following poem:

THE OLD PRO
For 20 years I have worked this gate. Just missed four games and was never late.
I've fought mosquitoes, rain and cold, gin smoke and dust and things untold.
Regular customers, we've had quite a few, Cager and Ethel, Bill and Lou, Buck and Willie, Orville and Lynn and countless hundreds at this gate came in.

To my successor, I wish him well. The things he will suffer no tongue can tell.

I have worked with Henry, Gene and Jess and I have forgotten some I guess. In all kinds of weather, bad and fair, I guess they will be happy when I am not there.

For at the gate there is no praise. A lot of work but seldom a raise.

There is just one thing that would get me to stay, the boss man to promise that he would double my pay. On and on I guess I could go, but fare-u-well from the Old Pro. He goes on to say "Thanks a lot, folks for putting up with me for 20 years at the gate. I'm a Whirlwind Booster always".

Miss Sharon Reves, Steve Patridge Wed In Lockney

Wedding promises were said Monday night by Sharon Rose Reves and Steve Calvin Patridge. Frank Duckworth directed the 7:30 o'clock double ring service in the West College and Third Street Church of Christ in Lockney.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reves of Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Patridge of Plainview.

A candle arch, entwined with greenery and tied with a large pink bow, centered the nuptial area. In flanking positions were baskets of white gladiolas and pink carnations, also tied with pink bows.

Reeda Lawson sang "Sometimes" and "The Wedding Song" preceding the wedding. At the close of the service, she also sang "The Lords Prayer".

Sisters of the groom, Mrs. Richard Dillbeck and Miss Shelia Patridge, both of Plainview, were matron of honor and bridesmaid. They were gowned in deep pink crepe dresses, styled with full, floor-length skirts and long sleeves. The necklines were v-shaped above the Empire waistlines which were accented by sashes. Their headpieces were pale pink straw hats accented with deep pink streamers. Each attendant carried a colonial nosegay of pixie pink carnations. The bride's cousin, Loretta Turner of Providence was flower girl, and wore a long dress of pink crepe.

Greg Patridge of Lockney served his brother as best man. Another brother, Doyle Patridge of Plainview was groomsmen. Wedding guests were ushered to their seats in the church by the bride and groom's brothers, Stanley Reves of Lockney and Jerry Dale Patridge of Plainview. Miss Lesa Wilson registered wedding gifts.

Presented for marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of French-designed, scalloped chantilace. The ruffled splendor gown featured a high ruffled neckline with satin trim. The long, fitted sleeves ended over the wrists with ruffled cuffs and satin trim. The skirt was a panel ruffled front trimmed in sequins, with the back of the skirt forming a beruffled godet chapel train. The bride's elbow-length veil was adorned with chantilace and made of pearl-trimmed illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses atop a white Bible, which was loaned her by her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Nigh. Her dress was new, she wore a blue garter, and in her shoe was a sixpence given her by the groom's brother.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, was held in the church fellowship hall. Misses Teresa Strickland and Melinda Wilson were reception attendants.

The serving table was laid with a white cloth, and featured the bridal bouquet as centerpiece, flanked by the tiered wedding cake and punch bowl.

Miss Jeanna Duncan, niece of the groom from Plainview, distributed rice bags. Assisting with hospitality were Mmes. Boyce Mosley, Arlon Miller, L. R. Stapp, Durward Jack, John Lee Carthel, Sam Jones, Arthur Nigh, John David Turner and Newell Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Patridge are at home at Fisher Street in Plainview. She is a graduate of Lockney High School and is employed at The Lockney Beacon. Patridge is a graduate of Plainview High School and an employee of the Tye Company in Lockney.

Western Art Is Program For 1934 Club Members

Members of the 1934 Study Club had an informative program on Western Art at their regular meeting Tuesday night in the Kyle Glover home.

Roll call was answered by each naming a western artist which included two former Floydada residents, Dane Clark and Betty McNeill. Several of Floyd County's capable artists were also mentioned. Several have had their works on display in the Floyd County Museum as Artist of the Month.

Mrs. A. L. Wylie Jr., introduced the program and also Mrs. George Springer, who spoke on Charles Russell, painter of Cowboys and Indians. His artistic talent appeared early and at the age of 15 spent most of his time painting and molding. Being associated with the Indians, Russell was called Picture Writer. He struggled 10 years before his works brought in cash, beginning at $25, and before long priced at $1,000. He died in 1926 leaving 2500 of his paintings, several hundred in pen and inks.

Mrs. Wilson Bond spoke of Fredrick Remington, the last important artist to see the old west. His paintings were of Cavalry men and horses as well as Indians. He was a New Yorker, but bought and lived on a ranch for some time in Kansas. In 1895 he was recognized as a great artist as well as a sculptor. Remington went from a one room flat to an estate during his short but famed painting career, dying in the prime of his life at the age of 48.

Mrs. Floyd Bradley presented the background of Peter Hurd, an honest and unaffected western artist of New Mexico. He was a private student of the famous painter, N. C. Wyeth in Pennsylvania, later marrying his teacher's daughter, Henrietta. He found for himself a sudden new style of painting upon his return to New Mexico. After his marriage the couple lived in Pennsylvania, but Hurd dreamed of his native land, seeing this image in paint. To do this he must return, so the family moved back to New Mexico, settling in San Patricio on the Sentinel Ranch. Mrs. Bradley said much of Hurd's work is of the area where he lives, making it possible for people in this area to enjoy his great western art. Hurd's wife, son-in-law and children are all talented artists. Mrs. Bradley related.

Mrs. Allen Bingham spoke on one of the southwest's most outstanding art collections, this being in Snyder, Texas. Because of one man's love of art, his willingness to share that love with the public, and his financial means to do so, Snyder has become the home of the Diamond M. Foundation Museum.

C. T. McLaughlin, a Scurry County oilman and rancher, established the Diamond M. Foundation in 1950. The Foundation's purpose is to contribute to the education of worthy students and to further the field of art by collecting the better works of American artists.

As the collection of paintings, bronzes and other art objects grew, the need for a permanent display of them became evident. The Diamond M. Museum was opened in 1964. The Foundation has gone to considerable effort to accumulate 13 original oils of N. C. Wyeth, one of the nation's most prominent artists of the past century.

In 1967 the Diamond M Museum presented for viewing Peter Hurd's much publicized portrait of former President Lyndon Johnson. The Museum now houses more than 20 paintings, 80 bronzes, and many art objects of jade, ivory and fine china.

The museum is open to the public for special showings. Visitors have come from every state in the union and many foreign countries.

By presenting noted artists and their works; by sponsoring, securing judges and donating awards for amateur art shows; and by giving financial support to other museums and educational institutions, the Foundation has contributed to a growing appreciation of art by the people of Scurry County and the surrounding area and has encouraged amateur artists in their endeavors.

During business club members voted to furnish quilting frames to the women of the Floydada Care Center.

union and many foreign countries.

Tips For Bathing Beauty

The moments a woman spends alone are rare but all important for her ritual of beauty. So when a tranquil interlude presents itself, take advantage of it. And take a bath.

Let the warm waters refresh your skin, but also let them refresh your mind. Think, fantasize, plan out your future. Use your bath as a kind of private therapy—a time to unwind, delve deeply into your own mind, sense a oneness with your own body.

National Bank

The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. Josie Williams. Miss Janet Townsend brought the devotional on "Blessings". Closing prayer was voiced by Mrs. David Hale.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Clampitt to Mmes. Allen Cochran, Alton Rose, George Quisenberry, Joe Green, Wayne Fuller, David Hale, Josie Williams and Misses Kathy Clampitt and Janet Townsend.

"IT IS ENOUGH" #1

There is a great temptation that poses a danger to ones eternal soul... that dangerous temptation is: AFTER DISCOVERING SOME BIBLE TRUTH TO SAY TO ONES SELF "IT IS ENOUGH," AND SEARCH NO FURTHER FOR ALL THE TRUTH. To become satisfied with only part of the truth. For example, sometimes this is done in reference to God, such as I John 4:8... "God is love"... and the person is satisfied with that knowledge and never go on to discover the truth in reference to God, such as Romans 11:22 "Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God:..." "Thus they say: "How could God, who is love, send anyone to Hell?" And anytime a person becomes satisfied with their Bible knowledge and therefore the knowledge of truth, we make a serious error. Jesus stated, recorded in Matthew 4:4, that man is to "live by EVERY WORD that proceeds out of the mouth of God."

This same error is often made in reference to Bible truth in regards to salvation and the church Jesus "built" (Matt. 16:18) that is revealed in the New Testament. If we are to discover all the truth in reference to any Bible truth, every verse in any subject must be explained, analyzed, compared and accepted. The Bible does not contradict itself anywhere and does not teach different doctrines which conflict and therefore what is required of one person to be saved is the same identical rule or requirement for all other people to have the same salvation. There is no such thing as a PLURALITY of ways for a person to have forgiveness of sin and be saved eternally. The same is true in reference to church membership, and to which church we should belong.

In John 16:13 we read the record where Jesus told his apostles that they would be guided into ALL TRUTH. For us to discover that truth we must: Love the truth (II Thess. 2:10 - 12); Be willing to search for the truth in a diligent fashion (II Tim. 2:15; Phil. 2:12); Be willing to search out all that the Bible teaches on every given subject (Matt. 4:4); and use honesty, wisdom, and right motives (see what it really says, not to prove your point or prove what is already believed) in the use of sound principles of reasoning in order to draw the right conclusion. John 8:31, 32; II John 9 - 11.

DECA Completing Bowling Survey

R.W. Overstreet Injured Sunday

R. W. Overstreet, 62 year old Floyd County rancher, remained in critical condition yesterday in the intensive care unit of Lubbock Methodist Hospital with injuries sustained in a mishap in Floydada about 3:30 Sunday afternoon. A member of the family said although Overstreet was critical, he was doing well and in good spirits.

The mishap occurred in front of the office of Dr. Tommy McIntosh as Overstreet was attempting to disengage a stuck accelerator on his 1974 three-quarter ton pickup. A son, Charles, said as his father disengaged the accelerator rod it threw the vehicle in gear, knocking his father down. The front tire of the vehicle passed over his chest, continued traveling across the street, striking a sign, and coming to a halt against a tree in the yard of the First Baptist Church.

Besides the bruised chest area, Overstreet also sustained broken ribs and a mangled hand, according to a spokesman from Moore-Rose ambulance service, who conveyed the injured man to the hospital.

Reddy Adds Kilowatts At Jones Station

CLIFFORD B. JONES STATION is Southwestern Public Service Company's largest generating plant. It is located southeast of Lubbock on Farm Road 3020, just west of the Buffalo Springs Lake Road and has a generating capability of 512,000 kilowatts. The public is invited to visit the station during open house Saturday and Sunday, November 16 and 17, from 12 to 6 p.m.

Southwestern Public Service Company's largest generating plant is Clifford B. Jones Station, located southeast of Lubbock on Farm Road 3020, just west of the Buffalo Springs Lake Road.

The second 256,000 kilowatt unit was completed and put on the line in July of this year and the plant now has a total generating capability of 512,000 kilowatts.

Southwestern will hold an open house Saturday and Sunday, November 16 and 17, and the public is invited to visit the plant from 12 to 6 p.m. each day.

There are 6-million pounds of structural steel and 30-thousands tons of concrete in the plant building and the cooling towers weigh 2-million pounds each and have a million board feet of redwood lumber in them. The piping and tubing in Jones Station would reach from Lubbock to Abilene and back if you could get it all in a straight line.

Primary fuel for the boilers at Jones Station is natural gas. The number 2 unit was designed to also use number 2 fuel oil as standby fuel and the first unit has been retrofitted to also burn fuel oil.

The huge boilers can boil over 10-million gallons of water per day into steam at 2,300 pounds pressure. This would be enough water to supply a city of about 50-thousand people, but it is used over and over again with only a small loss — approximately 6 gallons a minute. The steam produced by each boiler passes through 23 miles of tubing and comes out at a temperature of one-thousand degrees — that's hot enough to make steel pipe glow a dull red. On its return trip to the boiler in the form of water, the steam must pass through another 31 miles of piping and tubing.

The high pressure steam produced by the boiler passes through the turbine blades and causes the massive rotor on which the blades are mounted to revolve at 3600 times each minute. If it were free to roll down the highway, it could cover the distance between Lubbock and Midland in about six minutes. The generator rotor is directly connected to the turbine so that it also rotates at 3600 RPM and while turning, generates electricity at 22-thousand volts. The voltage is increased to 230-thousand volts in the transformers at the substation outside the plant, which improves the economics of power transmission over long distances.

The turbine control system at Jones Station was the first of its kind to be installed anywhere in the world. The turbines — and in fact all the major equipment in the plant — are controlled by a computer which is programmed to perform all the functions of starting, operating and shutting down. It also responds to equipment faults by notifying the operators of the malfunction and in the event of a serious abnormality, it initiates the removal of equipment from service.

This ultra-modern power plant is a viable example that the environment and electricity are not enemies. You can have power generation without pollution and nothing that is harmful is discharged into the atmosphere at Jones Station. On cold days you'll see a big white cloud over the cooling towers, but that's nothing more than water vapor. Actually, the vapor is washing the part of the atmosphere that passes over it, but that's not its purpose. Another important aspect of the operation of Clifford B. Jones Station is that it makes a major contribution to the water conservation efforts of this area. Sewage effluent is used for all purposes at the plant except for drinking and washroom use. Southwestern buys 4 to 6 million gallons of sewage effluent per day from the city of Lubbock.

In addition to water used for the boilers and for human consumption, there is a third water system in the plant. This is the water used in the cooling system that converts the spent steam back into a liquid form. After the steam passes through the turbines, which takes about one second, it loses its pressure and high temperature and enters the condensers under a high vacuum. The condensers each contain about 105-miles of stainless steel tubing through which 146-thousand gallons of cool water per minute are pumped. The cool tubes cause the steam to condense into water. This same water is returned to the boiler for reuse, but on its return trip it must pass through some 31 miles of tubing where it is heated to 500 degrees before entering the boiler.

The heat absorbed by the cooling water in the process of condensing the steam into water in the condensers is dissipated into the atmosphere by the cooling towers. This device operates something like the evaporative coolers used by many to cool the air in their homes. In this case the towers are cooling water instead of air and to do the job properly for Jones Station, they had to be 462 feet long, about 50 feet wide and 61 feet in overall height. As was said in the beginning, they weigh nearly 2-million pounds each and contain almost a million board feet of redwood lumber. It also horsepowers to huge fans in each tower. More than 100-gallons of water pass through the towers, but it is and over with the complete trip do the towers every 7 minutes. So, the evaporated and drained into a sealed lake near where it is held further use as water.

The 512,000 kilowatt generating capacity is working customer-orient- at electricity th

That's why we plan ahead . . . we want you to be secure in the knowledge that you'll have enough electricity to fill your needs in the future. This weekend we'll be opening our Jones Station to the public so you can see how we do it. We have a new unit at the largest electric generating station in West Texas, with a turbine control system that's the first of its kind in the world. This unit brings our total system capability to 2,255,100 kilowatts!

We're also concerned about the environment . . . that's why we use reclaimed water at Jones Station . . . and we're experimenting with various crops using the reclaimed water after it's used in the power plant.

At Southwestern, we don't want you to waste electricity but we want to make sure that you have it when you

What's Colorless, Tasteless And Odorless, And Can Kill You Before You Know You're Being Poisoned?

What's odorless, tasteless and colorless and can kill you before you know you're being poisoned?

The lethal answer to this State Health Department riddle is carbon monoxide, a product of all combustible substances — from gas used in your kitchen gas range to the gasoline in your automobile or gasoline-powered lawn mower.

Carbon monoxide poisoning is preventable, but a lot of people are unaware of its danger.

It is a threat year-round, but the most hazardous time is during the cold months of the year when homes and businesses are closed up tightly against the weather.

But, even summer air conditioning can add to the threat, say State Health Department engineers from the Occupational Health and Radiation Control Division.

In some air conditioned warehouses where forklifts are used to move heavy materials, carbon monoxide has been found at serious levels. This same problem has been found in garages, where automobile motors are often left running for tests. Enclosed parking garages and drive-in banks also have proved to be sources of trouble.

"You can't depend on leaks around doors or windows to bring in fresh air," says a Health Department engineer. "In places with a source of carbon monoxide, you've got to bring in fresh air constantly to keep up a positive pressure so stale air will be pushed out through ventilators."

The autumn chill in the air has brought heating units and gas stoves into play. Hopefully, each home owner had his heating system checked before turning it on for keeps.

This might've prevented a tragedy occurring at Killbuck, where a contractor, Inc., of Amarillo, was the mechanical and structural contractor and Budwine Service Electric Company, Carlsbad, New Mexico, was the electrical contractor.

J. B. Bottomas was resident engineer for Southwestern Public Service Company during construction of the plant, and Floyd Starks is the plant manager.

leen, where a family of four went to bed one night and three were dead the next morning. A little girl survived. An inspection later showed a faulty burner and faulty duct work in the home.

With Texas in the midst of its fall and winter hunting season, hunters should check ventilation in their stoves and should examine smokestacks and chimneys to be certain they aren't clogged.

Of particular concern are the use of catalytic heaters and other unvented heaters in tents and campers.

In the home, make sure the damper is open before lighting the fireplace. Have your gas refrigerator service-checked annually even though newer models have improved control systems.

All furnaces, regardless of fuel type, should be checked and properly vented to the outside. Combustion-Chamber leakage is a serious hazard, particularly if the heating unit is old. All individual room-type gas heating equipment should be vented. And, say safety experts, don't use your gas cooking range for heating.

Automobiles and trucks, as well as other gasoline engines, shouldn't be run indoors for long periods — even with the garage door open. A charcoal grill or hibachi should be used only outdoors.

While carbon monoxide poisoning is sneaky, there are recognizable symptoms — if you are alert.

Early symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning include yawning, headache, nausea, dizziness, ringing in the ears, and abdominal pain. Difficult breathing and unconsciousness quickly follow. The victim should get fresh air immediately and should be kept lying down and warm. A physician should be called promptly, and inhalations of oxygen or an oxygen-carbon dioxide mixture should be administered.

Once carbon monoxide is inhaled, it invades the blood stream through the lungs. It unites with the hemoglobin in the red blood cells so they cannot carry oxygen to the cells of the body. Asphyxiation results.

Carbon monoxide is so poisonous that when combined with red cells in the blood the bond between the two is 200 times stronger than the normal bond between oxygen and red cells. When oxygen and sizable amounts of carbon monoxide are breathed in together, the carbon monoxide muscles the oxygen aside, causing illness. If oxygen is depleted sufficiently, death follows. Many deaths occur from faulty appliances even though a window may be slightly open, says the Health Department.

At least 1,400 deaths are attributed in the United States each year to carbon monoxide poisoning. Texas had 141 deaths in 1973. More than 10,000 persons nationwide are poisoned by carbon monoxide. Those not killed may suffer temporary or permanent damage to the brain, with serious disturbances of vision, hearing, speech and memory.

Carbon monoxide is dangerous, but it doesn't have to be fatal, repeats the State Health Department. Be aware of the dangers, observe caution in the use of appliances, have them checked regularly, and you may never suffer from carbon monoxide poisoning.

DENTAL FACTS

Adults may need as much calcium as children. According to Dr. Herta Spencer of the Veterans Administration Hospital, Hines, Illinois, when the body receives too little calcium, the element will be removed from its storage depots in the bones to meet calcium needs throughout the body. Years of calcium depletion can lead to osteoporosis.

Dental disease affects 97% of the population, and is more common than the common cold, according to an article for pharmacists published in American Druggist. However, it also states, "with effective oral hygiene, teeth should last a lifetime."

Youth Revival Friday, Saturday, Sunday At Salem Baptist Temple

There will be a youth revival at the Salem Baptist Temple in Lockney November 15, 16 and 17. Pastor Frank Ramos invites everyone to come to the revival services, which start at 7:30 each evening.
Tommy Garza is the evangelist for the revival. Salome Guzman, a puppeteer, will assist with the services. Both are students at Howard Payne University.
There will be a covered-dish luncheon at the church Sunday noon.

VETERAN GUNFIGHTER Henry Fonda mounts his horse and prepares to face 150 riders of the gang known as the Wild Bunch in Universal's release "My Name Is Nobody." Filmed in Technicolor and showing Sunday at the Capada Drive-In.

CATHERINE BACH and JEFF BRIDGES notice the consternation of Clint Eastwood, as they take a breather between bank heists. "Thunderbolt and Lightfoot," in which Eastwood and Bridges play the title roles, is showing Friday and Saturday at the Seale Drive-In.

"Extension home economists estimate that 80 percent of all household repair and maintenance jobs are done by women," the agent said.
"In 1972, more than $18 billion was spent on home repairs, expansion and maintenance in the United States. The do-it-yourself market saw 20 million Americans spend $9 billion the same year."
"The 'You Can Do It!' series of half-hour programs was designed to give homeowners the opportunity to learn skills for effective household repair and maintenance jobs," she added.
Next week's program will concern carpet care.

Water Incorporated Launches Membership Drive

LUBBOCK — "Action Today for Water Tomorrow" is the theme of the annual Water, Inc., Membership Drive launched at a Leadership Rally in Lubbock last Saturday. Attending the session at the First National-Pioneer building was Gene Collins, Jr., chairman of the Floyd County drive.

Between now and Dec. 10 area residents will be joining their counterparts from throughout West Texas and Eastern New Mexico in an intensive campaign for new members for the regional organization.

Water, Inc., is a non-profit corporation working to assure adequate future water supplies for all segments of the economy. Mainly through its efforts, importation of water into West Texas and Eastern New Mexico was included in the Texas Water Plan and the focus point of extensive federal studies.

At the Lubbock session, Water, Inc., officials told the campaign workers that a strong membership is vital to success in the quest for supplemental water. The organization is financed entirely through membership dues, consequently, the limiting factor on its activities is membership, according to Lloyd Calhoun of Hobbs, N.M., membership drive chairman.

Campaign participants have accepted a 1,200 new member goal for the drive.

NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS

from Billie McMorris

Care of wood finishes will be the subject of this week's "You Can Do It!" television program set for Saturday at 3 p.m. in KLBK-TV, Ch. 13. Sponsored locally by the Floyd County Family Living Committee and KLBK-TV, the 13-part educational series features hostess Cindy Kidwell.

Created and produced by home economists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, through a United States Department of Agriculture grant, the series is aimed at homeowners and homemakers, according to Mrs. McMorris, Floyd County Extension agent.
