WHIRLWIND BAND ALL REGION MEMBERS

Last Saturday 27 Floydada High School Band members went to Wayland Baptist College for the All-Region Band tryouts. Floydada placed more members than any other B. A. or AA class schools which included Olton, Littlefield, Dimmitt and Lockney.

Floydada placed 20 players and five alternates. Those making it and will be playing in the All-Region Concert which is to be presented January 25 are Tim Dyess, French Horn; Cary Grown, French Horn; Craig Hambright, French Horn; Roijon Adams, French Horn; Cheryl Bearden, French Horn; BraVada Garrett, Tenor Sax; Kelly Turner, Tenor Sax; Ray Foster, Tuba; Van Miller, Tuba; Grant Hambright, Euphonium; Billy Marquis, Trumpet; Russ Pratt, Trumpet; Kathy Hale, Clarinet; Elizabeth Farris, Clarinet; Melinda Morton, Clarinet; Kristi Kirk, Flute; Laura McCulley, Flute; Sherry Moss, Alto Sax; Billy Emert, Bass Clarinet; Lou Ann Watson, Percussion.

The five alternates are Dale Kincer, Trombone; Vickie Foster, Baritone Sax; J. Bradshaw, Alto Sax; Susan Pierce, Alto Sax; Derek Cheek, Electric Bass. Many for those making the All-Region Band this year have done so in the past and that includes Sherry Moss, 4 years; Elizabeth Farris, 2 years; Tim, Cary, BraVada, Ray, Grant, Kathy and Billy Emert all makes their second time.

City Council In Marathon Meeting

The Floydada city council worked some six hours Monday night on one of the longest agendas in months. The first three hours were pretty well devoted to taking bids, the second three hours for operational needs.

The biggest business transacted was the letting of a $56,525 contract to A. L. Inman Co. of Wichita Falls to move the new V-12 engine into the electric plant and properly install it in concrete and steel. There was only one other bid for this job. Inman was the lower bidder. Then the council granted a paving contract to High Plains Paver of Plainview for seal coating on city streets this summer and paving for the new farm housing complex to be built in northeast Floydada. There were two bidders on this job with High Plains the low bidder of $27,570.

Eight bidders bid on the water and sewage for the new farm housing complex with H. W. Taylor of Canyon submitting the low bid of $30,872.50. The bid stated it was a 30 day job.

Then the council opened three bids from Floydada auto dealers to supply a new police car. The council accepted the bid of Oden Chevrolet-Olds. for a new Chevy.

Then, of two bids submitted the council accepted a $12,755 bid from G. E. Jones of Amarillo to rewind the generator that will be attached to the new V-12 engine.

The council also agreed to advertise for bids: 1. Someone to remove the three old 1939 Worthington engines from the light plant.

2. Installation of electric, mechanical and other accessories to get the new engine hooked up on the service line. 3. Two new pickups for the light and water departments.

Discussion about the installation of the big V-12 engine and generator in the plant brought out these points:

1. It may be a year before the new engine is generating electricity.
2. The $200,000 bond to buy and install the engine may not be enough money.
3. The new engine should give the plant enough electric power to supply the city with an abundance of electricity for average growth the next 12 years.
4. The city will try to sell the three old Worthington diesel engines that are still in good running condition.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business the council: Told Naomi Marr (resident of West Crockett and Meneffe streets) if she would bring her house into the city limits, the city would furnish sewer connection;

Discussed commercial heating electric rate with Ed Hammonds; Agreed to get estimates to trim alley trees that are in the way of electricity poles;

Approved some $16,320 increase in city employees wages in the 1975-1976 budget;

Discussed purchasing a refrigerated air conditioner for the new council meeting room (where the fire department used to meet).

All councilmen were present except Wayne Russell and Leroy Burns.

Whirlettes Top Tulia; Whirlwinds

Downed By Dimmitt

By Wendell Tooley
It was a big crowd of Floydada fans in Graves gymnasium Monday night and they were treated to plenty of excitement. The Whirlettes played one of their best of the season as they handily defeated Tulia 79-61.

Whirlwinds, playing state Dimmitt, lost 77-52. Dimmitt had an impressive 20-2 record, having won at Morton and Levelland. The Whirlwinds stand 16-4 and two of the games they have lost were to Dimmitt. Whirllette Donette Marble made the most points she has ever made in a game with some 52 of the 79 points. Whirllette coach Sally Miller also praised forwards Debby Johnson, Karen West and Tracy Puckett for their good ball handling and tip-top performance.

Coach Miller mentioned guards: Kathy Hinsley, Verna Newton, Christy Stringer, Nancy Anderson, Nanette Burk, Jodie Eastham, Karen Alldredge and Carol Cozby for outstanding defense work.

"I was just real pleased with the entire performance of our team in the Tulia game," coach Miller said Wednesday morning.

The Whirlettes led the entire game; 23-14 first quarter, 33-25 at halftime, 59-39 third quarter.

In looking ahead to the Abernathy game Friday night, Coach Miller said that Abernathy is probably the biggest team in the district with an outstanding 6 feet tall post forward. Abernathy has four starters back from last year.

WHIRLWIND GAME

A lot of excitement in this game, including a referee who went lame after spraining an ankle. The Whirlwinds were really in the game the first half staying on the average within seven points of the Hornets, with Tulia leading 36-26 at halftime.

Kelvin Ratliff was high pointer for the Winds with 13 points. Michael Curry made 12 points.

Coach Derrith Welch said that the Whirlwinds made only 30% of their shots and Tulia was 'way ahead in free points, 29 to Floydada's eight points.

"I was pleased with the hustle and effort of the Whirlwinds, and they are really in good physical condition. They play hard from start to finish... and they don't give up if they get behind," coach Welch said Wednesday morning.

"Tulia is playing some 12 seniors, while our team is considerably younger in age and experience," he continued.

Coach Welch said that his team was in good condition to meet Abernathy there Friday night for the first district game of the season.

Bloodmobile Friday

The Floydada Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the Bloodmobile here Friday from 3 to 7 p.m. and urges everyone to give a pint of blood.

The unit and personnel from the Blood Services Center in Lubbock will be set up at the MAC.

Kiwanis president Ricky Burns reports a goal of 30 pints for Floydada and adds that anyone who gives a pint of blood has credit for free blood if needed by the donor or his immediate family for the next six months.

Burns said refreshments would be served.

Dr. Norton Interim

Pastor At First

Christian Church

Members of the First Christian Church will welcome Dr. Bill Norton this Sunday, January 19, as he begins his work as Interim Pastor for the church.

Norton, a graduate of Brite College at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth and an ordained minister, holds a PhD in Psychology and is working with the Central Plains MHMR Center in Plainview. He preached two Sundays in December at the First Christian Church here and is looking forward to serving the membership in any way that he can wherever he is needed while here.

An all-church dinner will follow the morning service Sunday, at which time members will have the opportunity to visit with Dr. Norton, his wife, Maria, and their two small children, Aimee and Kirk. The Christian Women's Fellowship will act as hostesses for the meal, providing the bread, tea, and coffee. Church families will bring vegetables, salads, meats, etc. enough for their families.

In January the Christian Church observes the Week of the Laity, a time when church members work together to emphasize the mission and outreach programs. The theme of the dinner Sunday will center around the Week of the Laity and table decorations will emphasize "The Church in Our Time".

Members of the First Christian Church and friends are urged to be present for the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday, and the dinner following.

PRICE FAMEZ... I'm in a dilemma. My employees have decided they might nominate me for the "Year" honors if I will give salary raise.

I'd just go ahead and give employees that raise and get the nomination, but the sponsors of the (Women's Division of the State of Commerce) would probably out my nomination on a charge of "bribery."

TIME TO GET EXCITED Basketball as our Whirlettes played two district games and the district play Friday night at Abernathy.

WHIRLETTES are 1-1 in district play. Losing a heartbreaker and not having no trouble beating Tulia Tuesday night. The Whirlwinds hit one of those "terrible" games... they defeated powerful Dimmitt defeated Lockney, but Lockney beat us.

Whirlwinds, like the Whirlettes, have a real good chance to win district. They are fast, aerobic, and in very good physical condition. They play at a fast pace from start to finish. They have a good 16-4 record. Two of the games were to state ranked talk has been all season that they will be the teams to beat. Friday night, we really need those games. Let's back our teams all the way!

GRATULATIONS TO seventh grade Zettae Jonna West on making 51 points in a basketball game at last week. She may have set a new Junior High school record. Congratulations to Donette who made 52 points in the Tulia game Tuesday night. De'Ann made 51 points back on Friday 4, 1965. Looks like Donette is a record holder.

IT'S GOING IN ACROSS the street from Buddy's Super Market? Information I have is that a man in a white van is going to put in a "Mr. Drive-in" there.

OIL REPORTER wrote in of "thousands" instead of "hundreds" in the story about the oil on the Billy Staniforth place in the Friday's edition.

Finally, it should have read planned to be 4700 feet or granite and not 2,604 feet from the surface and 1,908 feet from the west section 81 in Floyd County.

It looks like this is understandable we don't get to write an oil well once every two or three years, should this wildcatter be wet, we'll get on to make oil wells.

M★A★S★H Premieres At FHS Tonight

Two unpredictable madcap surgeons... A sergeant who sells anything from a gambling casino to band aid concessions... three idiotic sisters who think they can dance... the recreation of an old monster movie.

Sound Peculiar? These are just some of the happenings that occur during the performance of the two-act play M★A★S★H.

Tonight the play will make its premiere in the FHS auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The play is directed by Weldon Melton and will show again Saturday night at the same time.

M★A★S★H stands for Mobile Army Surgical Hospital and was first written as a book by Richard Hooker then later made into a movie, and of course now is a regular television series. The play, which was written by Tim Kelly is unlike the T.V. series or movie, yet has a unique way of getting a message across. It's all here including a little romance mixed with a few dramatic moments and genuine love of life.

1974 Safest Year On Texas Streets And Highways

AUSTIN — Though final figures won't be available until late March, it appears that 1974 was the safest year on Texas streets and highways in a decade. And if the traffic death rate per 100-million miles is compared with prior years, 1974 was the safest year on record.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said he believes the 1974 traffic toll will reach 3,042 when all reports are received. If so, this will be a saving of 650 lives from the record 3,692 lives lost in 1973. The latest comparable death toll was 1964 when 3,006 persons were killed in Texas traffic.

Of the 3,042 deaths, it is estimated that the final rural total will be 1,817, with 1,225 traffic fatalities estimated to have occurred in incorporated cities. Rural deaths decreased about 19.2 per cent from 1973 totals, while those in cities were down approximately 15.1 per cent.

Speir said the death rate per 100-million vehicle miles, which is the nationally accepted criteria of traffic safety effectiveness, is forecast to be 3.9. Last year it was 4.6, with these numbers comparing to 14.6 when the DPS first began tabulating traffic statistics in 1937.

The DPS director said total vehicle traffic accidents during 1974 were down more than six per cent from 1973. The latter year saw 464,226 collisions compared to an estimated 432,100 in 1974.

"In normal times, we might have expected increases in both accidents and deaths during 1974," Speir said. He noted that both licensed drivers and registered vehicles rose last year — the drivers reaching almost 7.5 million and vehicles about 8.3 million.

The question, then, is what actually happened to cause the dramatic reduction and Speir believes the answer lies in factors associated with the energy crisis.

"It appears that vehicle miles driven declined from 80.6 billion in 1973 to just over 78 billion in 1974. This reduction in driving, coupled with the reduced speed limit, especially on rural highways, seems to have made most of the difference," Speir said.

But he also attributed credit to improvements in vehicles and highways, beefed-up enforcement, and increased public awareness generated by both governmental and private efforts.

On the subject of enforcement, the DPS chief pointed out that Highway Patrol troopers last year issued a record 678,664 speeding citations — an increase of 121 per cent from the 306,668 in 1973. Moreover, the 1974 speeding arrests alone exceeded total Highway Patrol arrests for all violations in 1973.

Total arrests for all violations in 1974 exceeded 950,000.

Speir cautioned that an increasing disregard for the 55 mile speed limit, as evidenced by the arrest figures, may cause deaths to rise once more in 1975. He pointed out that the largest reductions in total fatal accidents during 1974 came early in the year when there was better voluntary compliance with the speed law.

He noted that Department of Public Safety statisticians are conducting an in-depth study of the 1974 traffic accident reports and said this information would be used to "fine tune" enforcement activities in the year ahead.

Floyd Philosopher Figures Out A Way To Keep All That Arab Oil Money From Piling Up Too High

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm offers some financial suggestions this week on a world problem.

Dear editor:

According to the deep-thinking newspaper columnists I've been reading lately one of the major problems facing the world today is what to do about all that money the Arab nations are piling up from that $12-a-barrel oil. Oil that costs them about two-bits a barrel.

They call them petro-dollars and declare that a way must be found to re-cycle them, get them back into circulation, or else the Arabs will wind up with all the cash and the rest of us will go broke. The trouble with those columnists is that while they're good at stating the problem, they fall down when it comes to solving it. They wring their hands and move on to something else. They act like Congressmen.

Now I've been thinking about this Arab money problem and have come up with some suggestions but I don't know how far I'll get because I don't know how much this newspaper has among the Arabs. Anyway, to keep all that stacking up and to get it back into circulation here are a few ways the Arabs can do it:

- (1) Go into the ranching business.
- (2) Start a new football league.
- (3) Bring out a new car getting 40 miles per gallon.
- (4) Buy gold at $200 an ounce.
- (5) Explore outer space.
- (6) Finance South Vietnam.
- (7) Buy out the Post Office.
- (8) Send their kids to college.
- (9) Manufacture 50 million tons of steel.
- (10) Feed my cows this winter.

You get them to do just half of that and I guarantee most of them will evaporate. Get them to do all that and they'll be trying to borrow money.

Are Seed Prices Too High

LUBBOCK — Can you afford to buy cheap seed? That's the question, says an agricultural economist, that farmers will have to answer as they gear up for next season's crop planting. And the answer may pose far greater risks than is first apparent, he warns.

"Last year, and again this year, prices for seed have been significantly increased. Each rise in seed prices causes a flood of farmer inquiries for alternative 'cheaper' sources of planting seed.

"Certainly, it is economically rational to obtain any product for the least cash outlay as long as the quality of the product is maintained."

So says Marvin Sartin, area specialist in farm management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock.

Too often, bargain prices are associated with lower quality products, he explains. Quality in seed relates to considerations other than ability to germinate. For example, the variety or hybrid may not be ideal for a particular situation, some lots may contain significant quantities of other seeds or "off-types," and some seeds may be introduced with bargain seed.

In Sartin's opinion, a farmer needs to first consider all of the costs that will go into producing the crop besides seed. He should write these down on paper and add them up. He is risking this amount if he cuts corners in buying the seed which will be planted. The production of a crop depends first on the potential of the seed which is used.

Almost invariably, high quality, strong, clean seed of the best variety will produce a greater yield than will inferior quality seed. To economically justify the great outlay for purchasing the better seed requires only that the income from the yield increase pay the additional cost of seed, the economist figures. Also, in years of adverse weather at planting time, better seed is more likely to withstand less than ideal conditions and still produce a vigorous stand. Thus, the risk of losing a stand and having to replant is reduced when the best seed available is planted.

The yield increase necessary to pay the difference in seed cost is quite small, notes the specialist. At the current prices of farm products, a one or two percent increase in yield will justify buying seed at prices from 50 to 100 percent higher than last year's prices. Thus, only a 10-pound increase per acre on one bale of cotton will justify paying 50 percent more for cottonseed; or a 60-pound increase on 6,000 pounds milo will warrant doubling the cost for hybrid grain sorghum seed. Risking anything for such small quantities of product (small increase in total production costs) does not seem practical.

"Looking at the problem from another viewpoint," Sartin adds, "total production costs per acre for irrigated cotton and grain sorghum will be in the neighborhood of $175 to $225. Costs for the best seed last year should not have exceeded $3 per acre for cotton. Thus, seed accounted for only 1.5 to 3.0 percent of the total costs of growing and harvesting the crop. Because most of the other 97 percent of the production costs will be incurred regardless of the quality of the seed and the resultant production of the crop, seed seems to be a poor place to pinch pennies."

He suggests that similar analysis may be applied to farmers who catch their own cotton planting seed. Research has shown that in the majority of cases certified seed will yield higher than farmer-saved seed.

"Three different research tests conducted by Dr. Levon Ray at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock showed average yield advantages for certified seed to be 15, 16, and 76 pounds of lint per acre." Sartin reports. "Using the low end, 15 pounds per acre, with cotton priced at $.30 per pound, this increase is worth $4.50 acre.

"If you plant 20 pounds of seed per acre, you can afford to pay nearly $.22 per pound more for certified seed. Thus, if the value of your seed plus delinting, treatment, cleanout, transportation, and storage costs $.14 per pound, you can afford to pay $.36 for certified seed expecting only a 15-pound-per-acre yield increase."

Seed costs are a small part of the total costs of growing a crop, he emphasizes. Strong, vigorous seed are more able to withstand adverse weather conditions and may save the costs of replanting. Selection of the proper variety of hybrid is important in getting the best yield, and genetic purity can best be assured by purchasing certified cottonseed or sorghum hybrids from an established, reputable source. Weeds, undesirable strains, and other pests are sometimes included in bargain seed. The costs of eliminating such problems often far overshadow the yield reduction that occurs in a particular year.

"You are gambling all of your input costs on the ability of your seed to produce," he concludes. "Don't cut corners and save a few dollars by purchasing seed that is of questionable quality. The best seed available is usually the cheapest in the long run."

Cotton Score 1 To 2 Million

The one millionth sample of High Plains cotton was classed on Friday according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the USDA's Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock.

"About 5,000 samples a day are coming in," he added.

The USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service reported Lubbock and Brownfield classed 62,000 samples during the week ending Friday, January 10. This brought the season's total to 1,004,000. On this same date last year the total was 2,179,000, Dickson said.

At Lubbock predominant grades this week were 42 and 52. Grade 42 accounted for 31 percent while grade 52 was assigned to 24 percent of the cotton samples. Thirtyeight percent of these samples were reduced one grade because of bark. This is up from 34 percent the previous week.

The predominant staples were 31 and 32. Staple 31 amounted to 35 percent and staple 32 was 24 percent of the samples.

Micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 to 4.9 accounted for 13 percent of the samples. This compares to 8 percent the week before. Micronaire readings below 3.5 accounted for the other 87 percent this week.

Prices quoted by the Lubbock Cotton Exchange for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire range were: grade 42, staple 31 - 28.65, staple 32 - 28.90 cents per pound. For grade 52, staple 31 - 25.60, staple 32 - 25.95 cents per pound. Mixed lots of cotton brought 21.00 to 28.65 cents per pound.

Prices paid to farmers for their cottonseed ranged from $105 to $145 per ton.

books in order that Floyd County spellers would learn to spell them correctly. Now the funny! In the Amarillo Daily story in reference to the spelling of the two words, "pollinate" was printed "pollenate" so they even misspelled the word... So mistakes do happen to one and all once in a while.

AND... speaking of mistakes, how many women realized in reading the oil well story in Sunday's Hesperian, that the drillers are going nine miles deep... see... a wrong of a hundred feet to a thousand feet, which I wrote unintentionally of course, can really sound outlandish. Of course most men, who are smart in figures... the letter kind, that is... would definitely know that's nearly nine miles, like from Floydada to near Lockney. Now that's a long way to drill for oil... even in Texas!

WE plan to do a few feature stories in the Hesperian for the anniversary this year of VE Day and need to contact a few women who were still in service at that time, 1945. We have a list of men we plan to contact but if you know of a woman who was in service at that time and still lives in Floyd County, give me a call at the Hesperian, 983-3737.

THOSE cassette tape players so highly prized by teen-agers have been known to drive adults out of their homes.

Now they're being used to rout red-winged blackbirds out of rice fields in Arkansas.

Hordes of blackbirds annually invade the fields as the crop matures, inflicting heavy damages and losses. It's estimated that a thousand of the birds can eat or damage as much as 3,000 pounds of rice by harvest-time.

Taped recordings of the blackbird's distress call are played on an amplifier-speaker system mounted on a pickup truck.

As the vehicle moves around the fields, the amplified sounds excite the birds and keep them from eating the rice.

Used in combination with other methods, the new tool is proving to be an economical and effective way to reduce grain losses.

FLOYDADA Rebekahs are making preparations for their annual chili supper. If you have never had the opportunity to eat with them and enjoy the delicious dish along with other treats, plan your night out with the family January 24 with the Rebekahs. Those who have attended prior chili feeds at the lodge, I know will be there this time too.

SURPRISING the number of 1919 calendars that will be in American offices and homes this year. And while this may seem to be carrying nostalgia a bit far, truth of the matter is these calendars will be quite appropriate, for the dates of 1975 will coincide exactly with those of the year after the Great War.

For this reason, one popular line is a "Golden Girl" calendar that reproduces themes and events of 1919. Next year, the same calendar will feature Betsy Ross, for 1784, the year America's flag-making seamstress made history, matching the days and dates of 1976.

Although nostalgia is in vogue nowadays, it has always been a favorite theme in calendars. Norman Rockwell vignettes and four-color drawings of antique automobiles are long-established calendar subjects. The emphasis on yesteryear is even more pronounced now, however, what with attention being given to America's Bicentennial observance. "People are ordering more and more calendars with shots of the Liberty Bell, the Declaration of Independence, and Washington crossing the Delaware," says Bill Bloedel, whose St. Paul-based firm, Brown & Bigelow, sold 100 million calendars last year.

A FISHERMAN told me the other day it's a crime to catch fish in some lakes, and a miracle in others.

I HAD the pleasure of interviewing Mrs. Donie Hanson's houseguest from Honduras yesterday and hope to have a readable story in the Hesperian Sunday of Tina Swanquist Danjoi. If we all could hear Tina speak of beautiful Texas I think we would appreciate our state a little more. I enjoyed sipping tea and visiting with Tina and Mrs. Hanson before a table which still held Mrs. Hanson's small Christmas tree so she and Tina could enjoy it together. Tina arrived in Floydada after Christmas and will depart for Honduras and home Friday.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., January 8 took actions which the organization on a 1975 course of legislative work aimed at putting producer income protection back into the government cotton program, maintaining agriculture's high priority in the allocation of natural gas and other fuel supplies, and seeking handling techniques that will make "barky" cotton more usable on the open-end spinning system.

Larry Combest, Agricultural Assistant to Senator John Tower, a guest at the meeting, expressed the temper of the board when he said that if Government continues to ask farmers to expand production, the producer must be given some assurance of acceptable prices that is not in the present law "which has become obsolete very quickly."

The only protection available to producers on 1974-crop cotton under current law is a 25.26-cent Commodity Credit Corporation loan, basis middling lint cotton, which is far below 1974 production costs, noted Donald A. Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President.

A much misunderstood 38-cent "target price" in the law will be of no help at all on the 1974 crop, Johnson continued, even though current market prices are well below 38 cents.

The law specifies that producer payments under the target price system will be equal to the difference between 38 cents and the average price received by all farmers for all cotton. That average, because of 1973 crop cotton sold in 1974 prior to the price break, and 1974-crop cotton being delivered on contracts written in 1973 and early 1974, according to USDA calculations, is around 50 cents per pound.

Declaring that the low loan and target price system "have proven totally inadequate in the protection of cotton producers against financial ruin . . ." the PCG board adopted a five-point resolution calling for:

1. A Commodity Credit Corporation loan level realistically related to the inflated cost of production, and a CCC interest rate no greater than six per cent, in order that the loan program can be used effectively by producers as an orderly marketing tool;
2. CCC loan regulations which guarantee producers the opportunity to hold cotton under the loan for a minimum of 28 months;
3. CCC resale prices which under no circumstances will permit government-owned cotton to compete in the marketplace with grower-owned cotton;
4. A target price for cotton high enough to reflect the tremendous increase in production costs since 1973 and a method of computing the average price paid to farmers for cotton which will reflect actual on-the-spot cotton purchases during a given year without the influence of contract purchases reflecting market conditions a year or more removed; and
5. The defeat of any and all proposals which will in any way restrict or depress markets for U.S. cotton either here or abroad.

This resolution will be mailed to all PCG board members with a request that they discuss with farmers in their respective counties and convey to PCG other suggestions which may need to be included in a more specific legislative policy for subsequent board approval.

PCG President Don Marble of South Plains leveled a "gross misadministration" charge at USDA in connection with procedures being used to determine producer eligibility for payments under the law's disaster provisions.

Marble cited, as one of many, an example in which a farmer who inadvertently underplanted his 108-acre grain sorghum allotment by less than 2 acres was being denied over $4,000 in payments on a 66-acre cotton allotment which was destroyed by hail too late in the season for replanting. He referred to the procedure which resulted in the payment denial as USDA's "mandatory substitution rule."

Marble, Johnson and others met with USDA officials in early December seeking a correction of these inequities, but were unable to report any significant success.

In this connection, the board adopted the following resolution:

"That the Board of Directors of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. commend its officers and staff for actions taken in an attempt to remedy the obvious injustices that have resulted from arbitrary rulings and procedures in the administration of the law's disaster provisions, and "Further instructs the officers and staff to continue exploring all practical avenues of relief for 1974 and of preventing similar injustices in connection with the 1975, 1976 and 1977 crops."

Methods for handling cotton containing bark in such a manner as to make it acceptable to yarn spinners using the open-end system will be sought in a study now in the planning stages at Texas Tech's Textile Research Center.

'74 AG RECEIPTS DOWN

Cash receipts from agriculture in 1974 are expected to total about $5.6 billion, according to an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This would be a drop of about $900 million from the record $6.5 billion recorded in 1973. Cash receipts from livestock are estimated to be down about $1.1 billion while receipts from crops should show an increase of more than $200 million.

WBC To Start FM Broadcasts

PLAINVIEW — Wayland College has been granted a permit by the Federal Communications Commission for construction of a 250-watt stereo FM radio station on the campus, according to Dr. Jack Gibson, director of radio and television. The non-commercial, educational facility will be operating on 91.5 megahertz and will be located in the Home Life Building.

A $25,000 donation by R. C. Johnson of Lubbock enabled Wayland to request the new facility and to purchase the new equipment now being installed. The new station will have increased power and broader coverage than Wayland's first station, KHBL-FM, which was on the air from 1951 to 1971.

A permanent broadcasting schedule will be initiated as soon as all of the equipment is received and necessary field tests are completed.

Programming will cover a broad spectrum, according to Dr. Gibson, with programs being informational, educational and entertaining. Musical programs will include the Top 40, classical, and specialty programs such as jazz.

Special non-musical offerings will include instructional and religious programs, public affairs, news and sports. "We plan to carry all home basketball games," Dr. Gibson said. Auditions will be held for radio personnel who may come from broadcasting classes or may be volunteers. Some personnel will be employed part time.

All air personnel must hold a valid third-class FCC radio-telephone operator's permit with broadcast endorsement. Wayland will

TEXAS CROPLAND SHIFTS

Texas farmers are breaking with traditional cropping patterns in 1975 due to relative profit potentials, points out an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A considerable amount of cotton acreage will be planted to sorghum due to the depressed cotton market and better sorghum prices. Sorghum acreage should be up 12 per cent over 1974 while cotton acreage is expected to be down 7 per cent. The 1975 wheat acreage should be 16 per cent above last year's plantings while plantings of oats and hay crops are expected to be down 17 per cent each. Total acreage planted to crops should total about 27.1 million acres, about 1.1 million more than in 1974.

$11,247 refunding grant to the Community Action Council of Floyd, Crosby, Dickens and Kent Counties had been approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity. The grant is effective January 1, 1975, to enable the Community Action Council to continue the administration and services currently provided by its programs.

Commissioners Working On Moving

Library From Courthouse

Several interested citizens met with the Floyd County commissioners Court Monday asking that the library be moved to a ground floor location.

The commissioners were cooperative with the request and said they would try to find a good location, convenient to the people, and the group looked at one available building. The decision was later made and approved to purchase the building formerly occupied by City Trim Shop if the price and details could be worked out.

Mrs. J. H. Barnard was speaker for the library group. Bill Hendrix represented the Floydada Lions Club, and Mrs. Clay Henry and Mrs. Charles Denton represented the Women's Chamber of Commerce.

Other business by commissioners included the acceptance of a bid from Rex Steel Building of Plainview for the construction of a steel maintenance barn to be erected at the site of the old barn at 303 E. Mississippi Street at a cost of $19,950. Commissioners also approved the purchase of additional land for the structure adjacent to the site to be purchased at a cost of $2,500 from M. S. Robertson.

The commissioners accepted the resolution for an increase in pensions of county retirees before adjourning. All commissioners were present for the meeting.

School Classes To Start For Four Year Old

Beginning Thursday, January 16, there will be a school for four year old migrant children whose fathers work on farms or in farm related occupations.

The children will be eligible to ride the school bus if they live on a farm. Lunches will be served at Duncan Elementary School Cafeteria.

If you have a child eligible for this school bring him or her to Duncan Elementary School Thursday morning at 9 o'clock for registration. Bring your child's birth certificate and health record.

If you know a child who may be available for the schooling, call 983-5341.

Tips For Two Home Owners

If your vacation home is second rate safetywise, correct the situation when you open it for the spring, cautions the Texas Safety Association.

For safe, enjoyable vacations and weekends furnish the vacation home with the same care used for the primary home. It doesn't have to be fancy to be safe.

TSA suggests that you measure up your vacation home against this checklist of some of the major hazards that afflict second homes:

- Are wells, cisterns and similar fixtures protected with sturdy covers?
- Are wooden stairs and porches in good shape and free of rotting lumber and protruding nails?
- Is interior paint lead-lead or lead free?
- Is mechanical equipment in safe working condition?
- Are roofs fire resistant and in good condition?
- Are there sufficient electrical outlets to avoid overuse of extension cords?
- Has wiring been safety checked by an expert?

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q. The union I belong to just went on strike. I'm receiving unemployment payments from a fund to which I contributed. Are these payments taxable?

A. Unemployment benefit payments you receive from a fund to which you voluntarily contribute, whether union established or established as a private, nonunion fund, are income only to the extent that they exceed your payments to the fund.

Q. My sister and I just started a joint savings account. Who pays the tax on the interest on our savings?

A. If two or more persons hold a savings account, bonds or other interest-producing property as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety, or tenants in common, the interest is considered received by each person to the extent that person is entitled under local law to a share of such interest. Each owner will report his or her share of such interest under the same method, whether cash or accrual, that he or she uses to report income.

Q. Can I exclude the first $100 of dividends I received as a result of shares I bought in a real estate investment trust?

A. No. Ordinary dividends received by shareholders of a real estate investment trust are nonqualifying dividends.

Q. What does an IRS service center do?

A. The functions of IRS service centers are to process tax returns and related documents and to maintain accountability records for Internal Revenue taxes collected within their respective regions. Typical activities include the processing, analysis, and accounting control of income tax returns, estimated tax returns, wage and excise tax returns, corporation tax returns, income information documents,

ADVISE TO MARRIED COUPLES

Many spouses operate in a tit-for-tat system whereby if the wife performs and behaves in a manner desired by her husband, then the husband behaves to please the wife. This system implies a revengeful motivation and is detrimental to good relations. Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, points out.
