Commissioners Buy Library Building

In a special called meeting Friday morning the Floyd County Commissioners voted to buy a building on the east side of the square for the county library.

The building was bought at a price of $7,500 and is located just south of the Floyd County Farm Bureau office.

All commissioners voted for the purchase of the building except Jack Lackey.

Lackey.

County Judge J. K. Holmes said the building would need some remodeling, but the commissioners felt that it would satisfy the people wanting the library moved from upstairs in the courthouse to a street level building.

He said the location also afforded plenty of parking space for library visitors.

Annual Football Banquet

The Annual Whirlwind Football Banquet, honoring all members of the Varsity, Jr. Varsity and Freshmen football players and cheerleaders will be Saturday, Jan. 25 at 7 p.m. in the Massie Activity Center.

The boys will receive their Athletic Awards. Guest speaker will be one of Texas Tech's new assistant coaches.

We will have his name in the next paper.

This banquet is sponsored by the Floydada Booster Club and is open to the public. Tickets are $4.00 each and can be purchased at the high school from Lahoma Matsler, or in town from Jack Stansell and Aldine Williams. We would like to see a capacity crowd for this event.

6,000 ACRES IN FLOYD COUNTY

No More Sunflower Seed Contracts

Over 200,000 acres of sunflower crop has been contracted by South Plains farmers and there are no more contracts available.

Some 225 farmers attended a sunflower meeting here last Friday night and a total of 6,000 acres were contracted for in Floyd County.

The hybrid seeds come from Rumania and it is thought that some planting will begin as early as the last of March.

The contracts quoted a market price of 15 cents a pound and farmers are hoping to make a production of 2,000 pounds per acre. Farming practice and herbicides are very similar to cotton. Sunflowers like cotton do not require a lot of water.

The signup in Floyd County was sponsored by Lockney Cooperatives and Producers Cooperative Elevators.

Living Costs Outpace Incomes In Floyd

NEW YORK — To what extent have rising living costs and bigger taxes offset or wiped out the income gains that Floyd County workers have obtained in the last few years?

Where does the average local family stand today in the nip and tuck race between mounting costs and rising wages?

For a while, most families in the area were able to keep ahead of the game because their incomes were going up more rapidly than their living costs.

In three of the last five years, however, the reverse has been the case. The erosion of income was most pronounced in the past year, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Nationally, it reports, although weekly earnings rose about 7 percent, on average, consumer prices surged by nearly 12 percent. As a result, there was a loss of close to 5 percent in net spendable income in the year.

A study by the Tax Foundation, a non-profit research organization, shows how inflation and higher taxes have been putting the squeeze on the family pocketbook.

In Floyd County, on the basis of its figures, pay increases of less than 34 percent in the last five years fell short of giving the average family the purchasing power it had with its smaller 1969 income.

As a result, local families that had an income of $7,500 in 1969, would have to be earning approximately $10,200 at this time to have the same purchasing power that they had then.

Those whose incomes were $10,000 previously would require close to $13,750 now to stay even. Families that were earning $12,500 five years ago would need about $17,300 to balance out.

For retired people in the local area who are living on fixed incomes and for the unemployed, the going is especially rough.

It is difficult, also, for working men who have to provide for their families alone. That situation is less common than it was at one time; however, because married women have been entering the labor force in growing number, producing second incomes.

Over 30 percent of the married women in Floyd County are now holding down jobs, the latest figures indicate.

Fire Department

Saves Harper House

The Floydada Volunteer Fire Department saved the home of Jim Harper about 11:45 Sunday morning. Although there was extensive smoke damage and the bedroom and bathroom down at the west end of the home was severely damaged, the firemen saved the rest of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper were treated and released at the hospital. Mrs. Harper said the house was insured, but the contents were not. She said the fire was caused by the hot water heater.

School Superintendent's Contract Extended

Floydada school superintendent A. E. Baker received a year's extension to his contract at the school board meeting Monday night.

The extension gives Baker two years' contract, and no raise in salary was given pending outcome of the state's plan of school financing.

Baker has been in the school system since 1946 and superintendent for the past 12 years.

Tom Farris And C.J. Payne Promoted

And Elected To Bank Board Of Directors

Clay Henry, President of The First National Bank of Floydada, has announced that on Tuesday, January 14, 1975, Tom Farris and C. J. Payne were elected to the Board of Directors. Other directors elected were Frank Barrow, Kinder Farris, Clay Henry, E. L. Norman and Fred Zimmerman Jr.

Following his graduation from Texas Tech in 1973 Farris joined the staff of The First National Bank as an Assistant Vice President in August, 1973. Farris was born in Floydada and graduated from Floydada High School before attending Texas Christian University and Texas Tech.

Payne, a former Floyd County Tax Assessor-Collector, resigned that office in 1971 to join the staff of the bank on December 15, 1971. Payne, a native of Floyd County, also graduated from Floydada High School.

Henry stated that he and the other members of the Board of Directors are extremely happy to have these young men and Frank Barrow, Senior Vice President, also a Floydada native, to become Senior Officers and Members of the Board.

Lockney Man Charged With Assault On Officer

Arturo Martinez of Lockney was charged in Justice of Peace office in Floydada last week with aggravated assault on an officer and driving while intoxicated.

Martinez remains in the Floyd County jail with $750 bond set on the

It was incorrectly stated in this newspaper that Floyd County deputy Ronnie Ballew made the arrest of Martinez. It should have said Donnie Ballew, Lockney policeman. Ronnie and Donnie are brothers.

A series of crippling factors during the 1974 cotton season have combined with a severely short crop yield to cast shadows over hopeful prospects for next year, according to an area economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Marvin Sartin, area specialist here, says that cottonseed products and cotton planting seed definitely will be affected by the problems that befell the 1974 season.

"Farmers are becoming increasingly aware of the adverse effects of cool, wet weather this past fall," says Sartin. "Yield and quality of all crops deteriorated as a result."

"Cotton producers know these conditions dictate relative immaturity of the fiber, and probably expected lower than normal micronaire readings."

"Because the plants were not killed by a freeze until after the normal frost date, some of the late-set bolls matured enough to go into the stripper basket. The fiber in these late bolls was made during unseasonably cool and cloudy conditions, and were very low in micronaire. Mixing this immature cotton with the better quality that matured earlier in the year resulted in low micronaire classification," Sartin explains.

An additional problem for the cotton industry resulting from this situation is poor seed quality, he adds. Immature bolls caught in the stripper contained small, light seed which will not be fit for planting and not worth much for processing. The more mature bolls, especially those that have been open during much of the rain, may have seed that have deteriorated in ability to germinate.

"Combining these factors with the very small cotton crop on the Plains this year means a definite reduction in cottonseed products and in cotton planting seed for 1975," the economist reports. "Additionally, the seed that is bagged could well be lower than normal quality. Reduced supply and high prices for cottonseed products indicate rising planting seed prices for next year."

Sartin says that grain suffered less than cotton during the prolonged wet weather.

"Some milo shattered, and some sprouting in the head was reported. However, overall the grain crop withstood the situation."

Corn producers probably incurred the worst problems, he adds. Much of the corn fell that was not harvested before the wet conditions set in. Reports indicated this fallen corn was effectively picked up with combine attachments, and yield losses were held to a minimum.

"Most area seed producers did not harvest before the rains, and production of hybrid grain sorghum seed may suffer proportionally more than grain production," Sartin predicts. "Problems of seed swelling with the moisture, shrinking as they dry, and subsequently shattering were reported from certain areas. Reduced total production and probable lower quality in those seed produced will provide substance for price increases for grain sorghum seed. Also, some particular hybrids may be in fairly short supply."

He adds that although little corn seed is produced in this area, the adverse season in the corn belt will likely have about the same effect on the availability of corn seed. Producers can expect price increases and possibly less choice than usual.

"Potential repercussions of these problems for 1975 suggest that seed prices, along with most farm inputs, will be going up. Even more serious may be the shortage of particular varieties and the quality of the seed produced this year," the economist warns.

"A possible alternative for Marlene Odle, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Consumers are beginning to look for new properties in clothes performance that only the natural fibers — such as cotton — can provide."

To enhance the properties of cotton, manufacturers blend it with other fibers such as polyester, in different percentages.

"The most popular percentages seen on the market now are 65 per cent polyester, 35 per cent cotton, and 50 per cent polyester, 50 per cent cotton. Special finishes like permanent press are applied to make the blended fabric easy to care for," Miss Odle said.

She reminded consumers that sewing with cotton doesn't require special techniques. But homesevers should remember not to use patterns designed for knits because cotton doesn't have the natural elasticity of knits. The ease necessary for cotton has been eliminated in these patterns.

"Polyester threads or cotton-coated polyester threads provide elasticity to prevent puckering when sewing on cottons and cotton blends."

"Washable trims also help keep the cotton from puckering. Seam finishes may be necessary if the fabric ravel — but simple zig-zagging often provides enough finish," the specialist noted.

farmers is to obtain 1973 seed where possible. This seed was generally high quality, and insuring your supply of the preferred varieties or hybrids could be a very positive step for next year. Farmers who normally catch their own cottonseed and who did not carry over seed from last year might investigate purchasing seed of determinable quality as their own production may not be very good this year.

"Above all else," Sartin concludes, "remember that strong vigorous seed are important in establishing a good early stand. The yield potential of your crop is determined by the seed that are planted. Do not sacrifice on seed. Plant the best that you can get."

Ag Cash Receipts To Be Down In Texas For 1974

COLLEGE STATION — The record books will show 1974 as a "not so good" agricultural year in Texas but there were some bright spots, according to current estimates of agricultural cash receipts by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Our estimates show that cash receipts from agriculture will be down about $900 million to $5.6 billion in 1974 compared to the record $6.5 billion in 1973," points out Charles Baker, Extension Service economist.

"The big drop, to nobody's surprise, is in total cash receipts from livestock. Here our estimated cash receipts total about $2.5 billion, down more than $1.1 billion from 1973. The drop in cash receipts from beef accounts for almost all of this decrease."

Cash receipts from poultry products are estimated down more than $100 million.

Baker's figures show more than $3 billion in total cash receipts from all crops, an increase of more than $200 million over 1973 totals. Feed grains — corn and sorghum — account for most of this increase. Higher receipts are also estimated for rice, soybeans, peanuts, pecans, flax, sugarcane, sugar beets and hay while cotton took the sharpest plunge as far as crop receipts are concerned. Cash receipts from wheat are also down.

Agriculturally related income is estimated up more than $75 million over 1973. This includes cash receipts from timber, fish farming, hunting and fishing, horses and other types of farm-based recreational activities, points out Baker.

"As everybody knows by now, the plunge in cattle prices is the main reason for the big drop in cash receipts from livestock," explains Baker. "On the crop side, cotton was hammered by both low prices and terrible weather conditions."

What does 1975 hold in store for Texas agriculture? "Much depends on the overall economy of this country and the market situation for agricultural commodities," says Baker. "Crop production should be up except for cotton. Livestock production should also continue at high levels although pork and poultry production may be down some."

Eight Rural Accidents In December

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated eight accidents on rural highways in Floyd County during the month of December, 1974, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

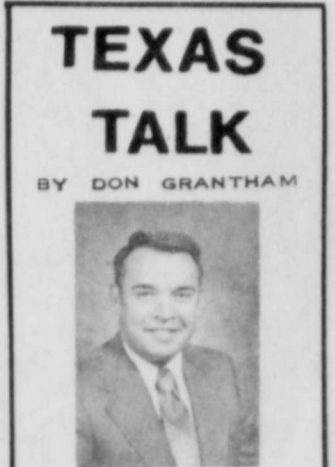

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and one person injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the year of 1974 shows a total of 54 accidents resulting in five persons killed and 18 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for December, 1974, shows a total of 598 accidents resulting in 11 persons killed and 340 persons injured as compared to December, 1973, with 499 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 277 persons injured. This was 99 more accidents, six less killed, and 63 more injured in 1974 at the same period of time.

The 11 traffic deaths for the month of December, 1974, occurred in the following counties: three in Potter; two in Haskell; and one each in Clay, Garza, Lamb, Moore, Randall, and Wheeler.

TEXAS TALK BY DON GRANTHAM

CATTLE TYPES... There are three types of cattle: dairy type, beef type and dual purpose cattle. The beef type dominates the Southwest with more than 15 distinct breeds now being raised.

TEXAS BREEDS... A breed is a selected group of animals with readily distinguished characteristics and a common origin. Of the 15 common beef breeds, five originated in the United States. Four of those five, the Charbray, Beefmaster, Santa Gertrudis and Brangus had their origins in Texas. The fifth, Barzona, originated in Arizona. The Charbray began in the Rio Grande Valley area and is a mixture of approximately three-quarters Charolais and one-quarter Brahman. Beefmaster started near Fallfurrias, Texas, representing a crossing of Hereford, Shorthorn and Brahman. Santa Gertrudis, developed on the King Ranch, is a cross of Brahman and Shorthorn. A single bull, Monkey, is credited as foundation sire for the entire breed.

Diane Fry And Danny Bradford Married Saturday In Lockney

MRS. DANNY BRADFORD

Letha Diane Fry and Danny Walker Bradford were married January 11 in the Main Street Church of Christ in Lockney.

Bob Glover, minister of the Arlington Heights Church of Christ in Corpus Christi, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Pam Jones of Albuquerque, N.M., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Donna Davis, Becky Smith and Robin Smith, all of Lockney. Paige Bradford of Floydada, the groom's niece, was flower girl.

Best man was the groom's brother, Captain Conley Bradford of Floydada, now stationed in Taiwan in the Air Force. Groomsmen were Lynn Becker and Jimmy Parker of Floydada and the bride's brother, Danny Fry of Lockney. Ushers were Steve McPherson of Lockney and John Cagle and Rance Young, Floydada.

Candlelighters Cindy Jones and Joni Jones, the bride's cousins from Clovis, N.M., were escorted by Ricky Hrbacek and Ronnie Cunyus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Louis Fry, wore a gown of hand-applied, re-embroidered Chantilly lace on sheer illusion over ivory peau de soie, with rose motifs centered with pearl beads.

The wedding gown had a high neckline collar of lace and pearl beads, sheer upper bodice with lace motifs and empire waistline, all with pearls, as well as the sheer fitted sleeves. The skirt was appliqued with the rose motifs forming a panel illusion in front and continued around the train.

The bride's bouquet was of gardenias surrounded by tiny pink rosebuds, baby's breath and ivory ribbon cascading from her Bible, a gift at birth, trailing love knots. Her finger-tip-length mantilla was of bridal illusion, hand-applied with rose motifs of re-embroidered Chantilly lace.

The bride's "something old" was a lace handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. A. W. Jones. Something new was the wedding gown and attire, hand-made by her mother, and a pearl pendant from the groom. Something borrowed was a pair of ivory rose earrings from Mrs. Paul Hrbacek. Something blue was her lace and satin garter, a gift from the maid of honor. For good luck the bride carried two pennies depicting the year of the birth of both the bride and groom.

The bridesmaids wore full length pink crepe dresses featuring draped turtle necks and empire waistlines with burgundy velvet jackets. The flower arrangements featured candles in glass goblets with pink lace and burgundy velvet flowers amid cedar trailing into pink and burgundy velvet streamers with love knots.

The background of the podium featured candelabras holding 28 pink candles covered with cedar and large pink velvet bows. The brick surrounding the podium was covered with cedar featuring pink candles under glass globes with pink lace and burgundy velvet flowers.

Pews were decorated with hurricane lamps, pink lace and burgundy velvet flowers with pink velvet bows.

An a cappella choir of 15 directed by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Degge provided music. Soloist Miss Darleta Floyd of Pandle sang "A Time For Us" after the exchange of vows. A special arrangement of "For All We Know" featured solo parts by Van Bradley, Kyle and Sara Lisa Degge.

Presiding over the registration of guests at both the wedding and reception was Miss Nesa Jackson, Floydada. The registration table was covered with ivory satin centered with a candle arrangement of pink lace and burgundy velvet. Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Tommy Montandon, Mrs. Paul Hrbacek and Mrs. Lloyd Jones, the bride's aunt, of Albuquerque, N.M.

The bride's table, covered with white satin cloth draped with bridal illusion tied with pink bows, featured the traditional three-tier wedding cake in pale pink with pink and burgundy rose cascades falling from a top of cupids under a lace arbor to the bottom layer which featured another cupid holding doves. The centerpiece featured the bridal bouquet surrounded with the bridesmaids arrangement and backed with a silver candelabra. Punch was served from crystal and silver punch bowl. Serving the bride's cake was Mary Quisenberry, Lockney. Ginger Henderson of Lockney served punch at the bride's table.

The groom's table, covered with pink lace over ivory, featured the log cakes with pink and burgundy marzipan fruit, copper coffee service and a centerpiece of burgundy candle surrounded with cedar, pink lace and burgundy velvet flowers. Melanie Frizzell and Lana Smith, both of Lockney, served the groom's cake and coffee.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the bride wore a burgundy suit with print collar and cuffs, a fur cape and bag, and carried the gardenia corsage from the bridal bouquet. The couple will be at home at Canyon Manor Apartments.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fry of Lockney, is a graduate of Lockney High School. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bradford of Route 2, Floydada and is a Floydada High School graduate. Both are freshman students at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Williams' Shot Spells Lights Out For Knights

By DANNY ANDREWS
Herald Sports Editor

When three burly Wayland players lined up shoulder-to-shoulder at the free throw line with seven seconds to play Monday night, it looked like they were getting ready to lead interference for 5-10 Langston Williams.

The game was not football, though, and Williams, a junior from Floydada, calmly popped in a 20-foot set shot to give Wayland a pulsating 56-55 victory over College of Santa Fe at Hutcherson Center.

The hard-earned win broke a three-game losing streak and brought the Pioneers to a 3-13 mark before Texoma Conference games here Friday (Bethany Nazarene) and Oklahoma Christian (Saturday) at 8:30.

The Blazers (2-8) set the scene for the victory by dumping WTSU's jayvees, 61-37 behind 14 points from 6-8 Tim Powers 12 from David Mathews and 11 from Plainview's Doug Berry. The Blazers led 22-21 at the half in a game that saw 52 fouls called, 27 on the home team.

Santa Fe, committing only five turnovers for the game (WBC had just 10), trailed 46-34 at 11:42 but outscored Wayland 12-0 in the next three minutes to tie the score at 46-46. Wayland led four more times including 54-53 on Joe Lombard's shot from the corner at 3:55.

Each team missed a shot as they tried to slow the tempo down and look for the easy two. Finally, Robin White dropped in a layup after the ball was stolen away from guard Daryl Cox at 1:32. That put the Knights ahead 53-54.

Jasper Young, who led Wayland with 11 points, was fouled with 28 seconds to play but missed the front of a one-and-one situation. Eric Smith rebounded but had his shot blocked at :22. Santa Fe called two straight timeouts, then was called for walking with the ball after the subsequent throw-in.

Only 18 seconds remained and Williams went for the money on an 18-footer off the left wing at :07 and missed but the ball went out of bounds off a Santa Fe player. Given a second chance, Williams connected after taking a high in-bounds pass behind his forward wall.

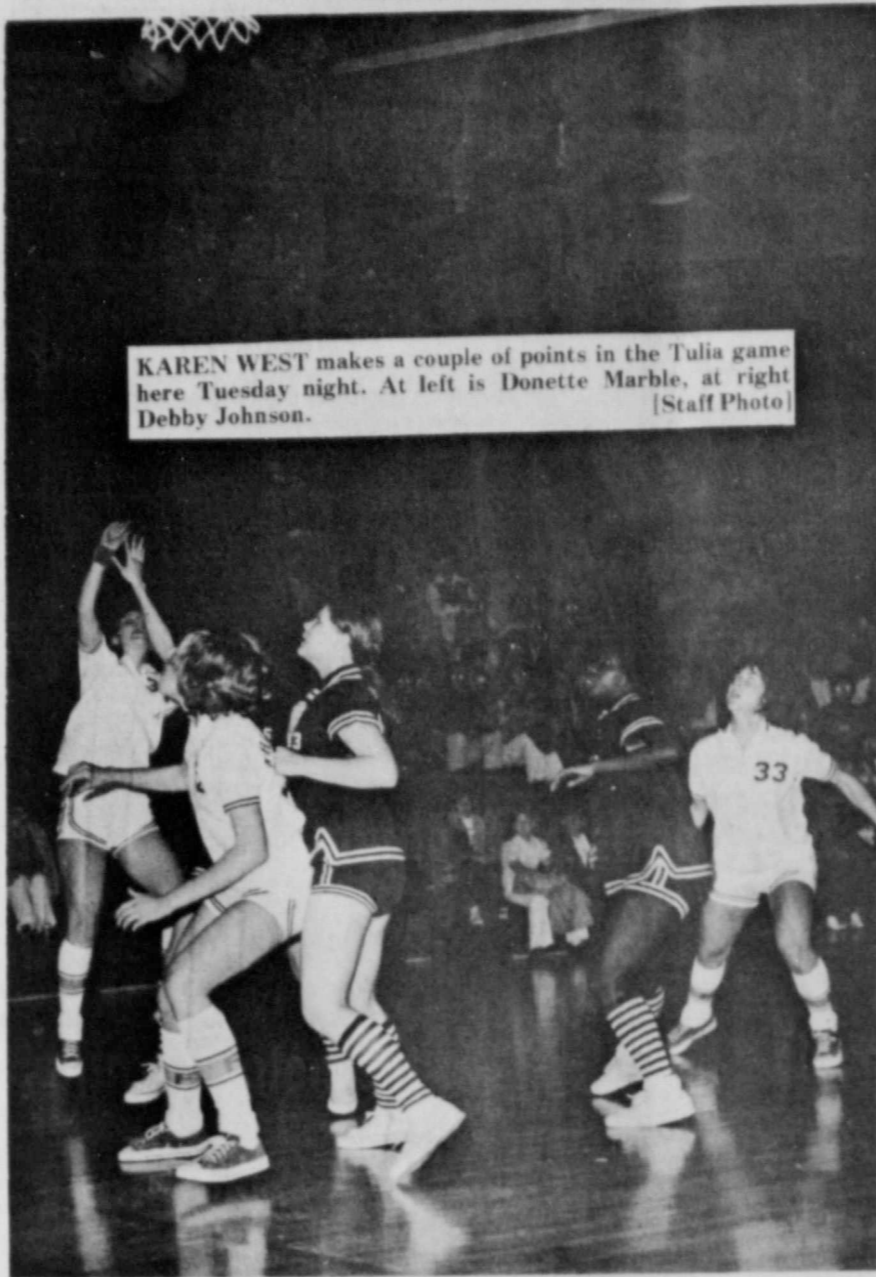

Santa Fe's Al Herbert threw up a 40-foot shot that went far to the left of the basket at the buzzer.

Santa Fe hit only two of its first 13 shots in the second half and went 8-12 without scoring at all while Wayland moved to a 40-30 lead.

The Knights used an impressive zone defense the entire game but Wayland hit a respectable 24 of 53 while the visitors could make only 21 of 57. The game was tied five times in the first half when the Knights once led 17-9. Berry tied the game at 24-24 at 6:17 with 6-8 Russ Frances and Williams following up to make it 28-24. The half ended with Wayland on top, 33-28.

Julius Armstrong had 17 points and 13 rebounds and Herman Carter, averaging about 18, got only 10 for Santa Fe, now 4-6 before playing LCC tonight. WBC hit half of its 30 shots in the first half while Santa Fe made only nine of 23. Between the last 10 minutes of the first half and the first 10 minutes of the second half, Santa Fe sank only eight of 33 shots while Wayland was making 12 of 27.

TAXPAYERS NEWS

PLAINVIEW — Taxpayers preparing their 1974 federal income tax returns can again take part in the

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Tooley,

I was reading the Caprock Chat in the newspaper of January 12 and came across a paragraph with a comment which I thought needed some clarification, concerning the TSTA bid for a $12,000 base salary for teachers "...for nine months work!" It seems as though some opinions have been decided against us teachers, and from the comment in 1976 Presidential Election Campaign Fund by checking a box on the front of their Form 1040 or 1040 A, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said today.

Walter Perry, Director's Representative of the IRS for the Plainview area, said that more than 11 million of the approximately 81 million returns filed last year contained a campaign fund designation for 1973. Another 6 million of the returns had a retroactive designation for 1972.

The total amount designated on 1973 returns was about $26 million, Perry said. With approximately $4 million checked off in 1972, the campaign fund now totals about $30 million.

Under legislation enacted by Congress in 1971, every taxpayer with a tax liability of $1 or more may designate $1 of his or her tax ($2 on a joint return) the paper it sounds as though you had responsibilities involved. To give you a graduated from college in three years, taking per semester as 21... and NEVER during work as hard as I am doing now! Point: The with are some of the hardest working, most in the work force. Each person in my department to visit in the home of every student. Half class hours are spent at home in preparation education. If analyzed from this angle it is wage to below $3.00. It's tremendously beneficially with 150 students day in and what they may or may not desire to leave.

Now, let me make an important point. Unqualified personnel in our schools across one reason is salary scales. Without sufficient we attract top notch quality into a demanding mentally and spiritually. How best minds when pay is insufficient to support comfortable manner. Before you publish the TSTA pay raise, ask yourself, Mr. Tooley, your wife and your four children on $2.00.

Very few people have the ability as instructors, and we are letting a great few slip into other, more lucrative fields, conscientious individuals, allow this to our schools?

Moral to this story: "...for nine months pack a lot of punch!
