For Blood Gas Machine

By Peggy Medley

Another achievement has been accomplished by the Caprock Hospital Auxiliary through memorials. The Auxiliary presented a check this week in the amount of $4,390.00 to hospital administrator, Troy Patton, for payment of a Blood Gas Analysis Machine.

The Auxiliary started the memorial fund for the Blood Gas Machine June 21, 1974, on the request of Mrs. Conner Oden, in lieu of flowers in memory of her daughter, the late Marjorie Oden. Since that date memorials have been given in memory of many others, making it possible to purchase the machine.

A hospital spokesman said the machine had already been used on a number of occasions, averaging two persons each day, and also said the machine placed the hospital ahead of many others.

Members of the Hospital Auxiliary expresses their gratitude to all who have given memorials. Since the start of memorials by members earlier last year, it has enabled them to place in the hospital a Bennett Respirometer which cost nearly $500; a Survival Stretcher which cost $1,089.11 and the Blood Gas Machine.

The Auxiliary has $1,000 left in memorials which will go toward their next project, that of purchasing an Ohio Respirometer. This machine, which will cost approximately $1,500, will assist or breath for critically ill patients. It can also be used in surgery along with the Blood Gas Analysis Machine. In order to continue projects by the Auxiliary, additional memorials are needed.

Those wishing to give memorials for a loved one may mail them to Mrs. Ben Whitaker in Floydada or give to any other Auxiliary member.

Memorials given previously have been in memory of: Noel Troutman, Kristi Simpson, Jerry Bourland, B. V. Carver, Sidney Simmons, Mrs. Annie J. Gary, Mrs. J. C. Wester, Flynn Thagard, L. A. Williams, Mrs. Lillie Colston, L. P. Lawlis, Mrs. Mary Lawlis;

What Does City Owe Mackenzie

Water Authority?

By Wendell Tooley

Last week we talked about the city's budget for another year of operation and outlined the indebtedness. We came up with a total indebtedness of around $700,000.

Now, let's look at our indebtedness to the Mackenzie Water Authority. The total amount of bonds that have been sold to buy the over 2,000 acres of land for the lake, the cost of the dam, legal fees and other costs is around three million dollars.

Floydada's share of this is around $800,000. The rest of the debt is shared by Tulia, Silvertown and Lockney.

Floydada taxpayers have been and are now paying taxes on this debt. Hopefully, the lake will soon fill and the recreation money will begin to pour in. White River Lake makes some $60,000 to $100,000 recreation money each year for the four cities that own it: Ralls, Crosbyton, Spur and Post.

COST OF PIPE

Of course the cost of piping the water to Floydada is yet to come. . . when the water is needed here. We have an agreement with Lockney to put in the pipeline when one or both cities need the water. Tulia is responsible for its pipeline from the lake and so in Silvertown.

Payment of the pipeline will not be by taxation as it will be a revenue bond...to be paid from with the profits of selling water.

SELLING WATER

Owner cities of the White River Lake no longer pay taxes because oil companies at Post buy water at a nice profit to the lake authority. It is quite possible that Mackenzie water will be sold to some smaller towns in this area when the underground water plays out.

We can already see that "dam water" is much more expensive than underground water. But what price water when you need a drink?

Adult Tennis Players Swamp Tennis Courts

This past beautiful Sunday afternoon some 70 adults and student tennis players swarmed all over the few courts Floydada has available. Needless to say there were not nearly enough courts.

To solve the court problem the following message from tennis coach Raymond Jones:

I have made up some master schedules for use in planning tennis court use through the week. There will be times, even during weekdays that the High School or Jr. High Courts will not be in use. If people will contact me I will be happy to reserve, on the schedule, a court for the match. For example, this Thursday, Friday and Saturday there will be very few school kids on the courts, because of out-of-town matches. This would be a good time to schedule a match.

thus avoiding a log jam on a Sunday afternoon.

There are approximately 125 school students in the Tennis program. For this reason the schedule has become necessary to get all of these people on the court. It is not uncommon for Varsity players to be unable to get a court on a given day. If by making an effort to schedule matches we can solve some problems I feel it will be worth while.

/s/ Raymond Jones
 P. S. I can be contacted at either the Jr. High or High School at most times.

The school students have been asked to allow adults to have park courts at all times.

Son Of FHS Graduate Wins $10,000 Scholarship

(Editor's note: Marcus Webb is the son of the former Janee Lloyd who graduated from FHS and the grandson of John Lloyd).

An Alexandria, Va., high school junior is the first place national winner in the annual Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, it was announced tonight by John J. Stang, Commander-in-Chief of the 1,800,000-member organization of overseas veterans.

Winning the first place prize of a $10,000 scholarship to the college of his choice was Marcus Webb, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne T. Webb, of 6330 Beryl Rd., Alexandria.

He said that Americans believe in freedom, democracy and equality and as "good citizens have always worked to make those ideals into realities."

He has garnered a number of honors during his high school career, including the 1972 Outstanding Student Award at Holmes Intermediate School; winners awards in local Forensic League and similar competition; has been a member of the National Honor Society the past two years and on the Dean's List for 1974-75. He also was a member of the Spirit of '76 Marching Band which appeared in the 1973 Presidential inaugural parade.

On the lighter side, his hobbies are playing the flute and producing tape-recorded comedies and satires.

The national winner and the state winners from the 50 states are the guests of the V.F.W. during that organization's annual mid-winter conference now underway at the Sheraton Park Hotel.

During their stay in Washington they meet their senators and representatives, visit national shrines and observe the workings of the national government.

All of them will be the guests of honor at the annual Congressional Dinner Tuesday evening when the runner-up national winners will be announced.

The winner's entry was introduced into the Congressional Record February 27, 1975.

Autograph Party Set For Charlene

March 20, 21, 22

An autograph party to introduce the hymn publication by Charlene Finkner will be held Thursday through Saturday at Charlene's of Monterey. Dates and hours are March 20, 21, 22 from 2:30 until 5 p.m. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited.

Charlene's hymn, "I Am Persuaded He Loves Me" was written nine days following the Lubbock tornado of May 11, 1970. Charlene said "the hymn came as an inspiration from God, and because of the awareness of the great protection of God."

The hymn has been published in a beautiful folder that presents the words and music together with explanation of its creation, with dedication and a short autobiography of its author, and a color

LOCKNEYITES AT SPEBSQSA FUN NIGHT

A number of Lockney people attended a fun night Monday for families of members of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. The event was held in the Fine Arts Center in Plainview. The SPEBSQSA chorus, directed by Luther Mann, sang several numbers, as did three novice quartets. Refreshments were served to about 60 people.

$10,000.00, long needed, Starkey school building. The little three room wooden school house was being replaced by the beautiful four room, two story, brick edifice with the second story being the auditorium where community "sing songs" were held, as well as Revivals of different Faiths, and lectures by noted speakers and candidates seeking offices, state as well as county were held there.

Tension ran high as we, the children of the large families, anxiously awaited the all important day. We surprised the teachers by marching so quietly upstairs to the auditorium, and all but burst with pride when our principal, Mr. R. T. Miller told us that building was ours and each had a stake in its future.

The all important day, Friday, March 28, 1924, finally arrived. From all directions: North, South, East and West, could be seen Model T Fords and Chevrolet touring cars with curtains "flapping". Horse drawn carriages and wagons descending on Starkey in all its newness and splendor. Each vehicle had one thing in common-a huge box, basket or maybe a wash tub filled with delicious food to be "spread" at noon.

Across the West, a sickly, reddish gray color appeared over the horizon. The westerly wind, a nice cool breeze at 7 o'clock in the morning, had now risen to a brisk 40 or 45 miles per hour by 9 o'clock when the visitors began arriving. The old timers stood admiring the beautiful building and casting wistful eyes westward, fearing another sandstorm might hamper the presentation of the program which had been so carefully and thoroughly planned.

On the rostrum at the opening exercises were J. L. Elmore, W. F. Ferguson and J. C. Garrett, trustees of the school district, under whose plans and directions the fine new building was constructed. J. J. Day, pioneer settler of the community, Rev. J. L. Henson, Pastor of the Methodist Church in Floydada; E. C. Nelson, Jr., County Judge of Floyd County, T. R. Webb, Floydada business man; R. T. Miller, principal of Starkey School, and Mrs. Tom Collum of Floydada.

As the hymn "America", led by Mrs. Collum was sung, the faces of our dads became more grave and solemn because the intensity of the wind was rising at an alarming rate. The sickening gray color of the sky had now turned to a deep brown, and the sand was so thick in the air one could not see far in the distance. The men took turns at going outside and climbing a ladder to the top of the building to check the newly laid asphalt roofing. The reports were not spoken audibly, but we knew from the way they shook their heads and motioned for other men to join the discussion, that all was not well.

The storm intensified and as Mr. Miller welcomed the visitors on behalf of the school, we felt the building quiver as though an earthquake was taking place. He paid tribute to the trustees and patrons of the district, and said to the visitors from other communities, "We see in you the spirit of friendship and cooperation and we are glad you have come."

J. L. Elmore, president of the board of trustees, introduced E. C. Nelson, Jr. County Judge, who expressed his pleasure at the event, which he said meant so much in the life of the community. "Starkey people have just cause to be proud of their new building," he said. "It is one of the best in the county and gives evidence of the fact that the citizens have built for growth and have their faces turned forward." An interesting feature of his talk was given over to a flag drill conducted with the boys and girls of the Starkey School.

Mrs. Collum read "The Prodigal Son" very effectively, and was heartily applauded.

T. R. Webb declared in the opening of his address, "The Wealth of America is not in its rich valleys, fertile plains, forests, mines and factories, but in the boys and girls of our Country." And he argued, it is well we should expend our time and money in the education of the children of the land, seeing that all have the opportunity to develop the inherent ability in themselves while learning to subdue or restrain the bad things in themselves. To this end, he declared that home, church and school must lead in the same direction. Lack of cooperation leads to bad results, and he declared that one of the best ways to cooperate with school officials is to send the children regularly to school. He heartily endorsed the idea of parent teachers associations, he said, and sees in them great possibilities for co-ordinating the efforts of a community to better school and conditions. Stressing the fact that cramming with facts is not an education, he declared in closing his address, that education consists also in inculcating into the pupils' lives four great principles - loyalty to flag, loyalty to fellow man, loyalty to self and reverence to God.

Rev. J. L. Henson took for the text of his dedication sermon a portion of the 25th and 26th verses of the 25th Chapter of Matthew: "Whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and he who would be chief, let him be your bond slave." "Means or ability are not our own, but are the gift of God and should be used as such rather than as predatory privileges," the Floydada pastor declared.

Elder J. J. Day closed the morning's exercises with a prayer that jars and schisms might not prevail in the community, but that the strength and power of cooperation might continually be theirs.

In the intermission while dinner was being prepared, the assembly enjoyed the first public concert given since its organization by the Floydada Concert Band. Also, the men who had been so carefully watching the progress of the electrical sandstorm reported to the trustees on the gravity of the situation. The gravel, they said, had blown off the top, leaving the layers of asphalt roofing exposed to the mercy of the elements.

Their hopes were dim that the roofing could hold indefinitely under the ferocity of the wind.

About one thousand persons enjoyed the very generous spread of dinner prepared by the ladies of the community, which was augmented by barbecue prepared by the men of the community.

In the afternoon Elder J. J. Day talked for 25 minutes in reminiscent mood telling of his great pride in the forward steps being taken by the community of Starkey, in which he made his home for more than 30 years, and in which he still had much financial and sentimental interest. Elder Day spoke among other things, of the hardships of the early days of his purchase on the land on which the school house stands, for $1.00 per acre, of the rapid development of the country and the immeasurable possibilities which yet lie out in the future.

The afternoon athletic program was abandoned when the winds arose to such fierceness as to forego any outdoor program.

The crowd was dismissed but everyone was reluctant to leave the building. There was no wind gauge available, but the patrons best qualified to judge, estimated the wind velocity at hurricane force, or 75 to 85 miles per hour, with so much electricity content it was almost impossible to even open the car doors, especially the older models. A few visitors, including the members of the concert band managed to get their cars started, but reported later they reached their homes, which were only a few miles distance, after hours of literally creeping along the highway at a snail's pace.

Most of the Starkey people and hundreds from the nearby communities spent the night in the newly dedicated schoolhouse; the howling winds continued throughout the night; by morning the wind had abated somewhat, and everyone was able to return to their homes. The condition of some of our homes defied description, ours for one.

The west door, from whence the wind had come, had blown open during the storm and the carpet had blown up over the piano. Everything inside was covered with the sickening gray silt; the wall "paper hung in shreds on the walls giving the appearance of an old abandoned ghost town. The wailing winds still sent chills up our spines as we attempted to restore the house to order.

The roof of the school building was badly damaged and had to be repaired, as did many of our homes. The memories of March 28, 1924, will always live in the hearts of the old time friends and neighbors of Starkey, Texas, U.S.A..

Physically speaking, Starkey School is extinct, but to those of us who were born, reared and educated there, Starkey is very real and will always be a symbol of happiness, of life, love and peace of mind and a fulfillment of our childhood dreams.

Care Center Receives Gifts From Club

Fruitful results came from the Holiday Home Show held in Lockney last December, organized by the Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club.

The money that was earned has been used to purchase two items for the Care Center here, a cassette tape recorder and three pieces of outdoor furniture. These will broaden the world for the folks confined at the Lockney Care Center.

Many thanks go out to Mrs. James Poole, Mrs. Jerry Cannon, Mrs. Dale Widener, Mrs. John David Turner, and Mrs. Pat Frizzell who made this all possible by showing their homes.

Our residents and staff want to thank Il Penseroso Jr. Study Club for their concern and love also. May the Lord Bless each of you. The residents honored club members with a St. Patrick Party in token of appreciation. Cookies, mints, and lime punch were served to everyone present.

er Marion, and Clyde and I were at Cone making arrangements for reserving the school house for our starkey reunion, we as usual, drove by our old home site, only to reminisce of yesteryears. Our old house has long since gone. Even the four trees which had stood so stately for so many years had been cut down to make way for more cotton rows or wheat seeds. Even the tree roots had been pulled up and turned over.

Marion asked if I would like to take the big roots home with me, and I assured him they would be an asset to my rock garden.

Now to the real reason for this dissertation. To all one and all surrounding area residents, we extend a special invitation to join us at Cone, Sunday, June 29. Bring a lunch and spread with us.

...ing the "olden days" as our grand children like to always go "way back": I graduated from Floydada and for some reason I have no bad memories. Seemingly there was no dissention or rebelliousness between teachers and pupils. We loved our teachers and Mr. Webster. They and many others, specialized in their chosen field, and did a marvelous job on the student body. I feel nothing but love and respect for each and every one of them. And of course "olden days" were at the top of the list.

Cates Against People Working On Sunday

State Representative Phil Cates announced that he plans to vote against House Bill 163 which, if passed, would repeal the Saturday-Sunday closing law and allow a seven-day work week.

"My office has been receiving a constant flow of mail from throughout my ten county district from persons supporting the continuance of the law as it is now stated," Rep. Cates said from the Capitol. "I feel that it would be unwise to contribute further to the problems of rising inflation rates and the shortage of energy resources that are facing Texas today," Cates stated in calling for the defeat of HB 163.

"A seven-day work week would cause a definite increase in the useage of electricity with more and more buildings being kept open, as well as an increase of fuel useage by shoppers traveling from place to place," Cates pointed out.

"In addition, there is a possibility that self-employed store owners might feel forced to work 7 days a week. And, this could put an additional burden on the small town businessman whose regular customers tend to shop the big city on weekends."

"My main objection, however, is that some of the working people-in particular those on a set weekly or monthly wage scale-might not receive pay to fully commensurate with the actual time spent working," Cates said.

In summation, Cates stated that he thought that "working people need every second of free time they get to spend with their families and in recreational pursuits of their choosing."

The present law allows stores to either be open on Saturday or Sunday and prohibits the selling of certain items deemed non-necessities such as clothing, jewelry, luggage, motor vehicles and novelties.

The current law does not apply to any sale for charitable purposes, items for funerals, and in addition does not include occasional sales of any item sold by persons not engaged in the business of selling.

It won't be long until homeowners in Floyd County will begin putting in spring gardens in their backyards or wherever they can find space. To have a successful home garden, a number of important factors enter into the picture, reports Doyle G. Warren, county agent.

First of all, select a site that is well drained and has fertile soil. Of course, many homeowners have little choice regarding the location of their garden. If possible, the site should receive plenty of sunlight although most leafy crops can be grown in areas receiving partial shade.

Selecting of the proper vegetable variety is a key item to a successful garden, adds Warren. Many home gardeners start off by planting varieties not adapted to this area. The county Extension office has a list of recommended varieties for Floyd County and Floyd County 4-Hers have seed packets for home owners.

Proper soil preparation is another important key for a good garden. A tight, heavy clay soil can be improved by adding from one to two inches of sand and two to three inches of organic matter. Till these items into the garden area prior to planting.

In absence of a soil test, apply a complete fertilizer such as 10-10-10 at the rate of two to three pounds per hundred square feet of garden area. Work the fertilizer into the soil and then form the beds for planting.

Once the crops are up, water sufficiently and regularly so that the water penetrates the soil to a depth of at least six inches.

County Agent's Corner

Water in the morning, or at least not later than mid-afternoon so that plants can dry out before night. This will help prevent many diseases.

Weeds are a problem in most gardens and a long handled hoe is still the best means of controlling them. However adding a mulch of straw, leaves grass, bark, gin trash, sawdust, peat-moss or other organic material around the growing plants will help reduce weeds and will conserve moisture.

Keep a close check on crops once they begin to approach maturity. Harvest vegetables only at full maturity because that is when they have their best flavor and nutritional content.

Growing your own vegetables can be a lot of fun and it helps reduce the grocery bill. Many different types of vegetables can be grown in a small area for variety on the table.

Floyd County 4-Hers have small seed packets, available, just right for home gardens. There are 5 packets per card, $1.25 value that sell for $1.00. Contact any 4-H member or the County Agent's office 983-2806.

The Jimmy Uptons also have a four year old son Jason Scott, and a six year old girl, Shanna Joy. While in Bartlesville, they toured the Frank Phillips Mansion, which is just now being opened for the public. It was very interesting, 3 stories high, with 9 bedrooms, and each one has a bath. They found the weather fine while there, and they returned home last Monday.

Mrs. Herman Thornton is staying in Abilene at an apartment where she can be with their son, Rusty, who is attending Abilene Christian College. He has to have special food preparation, and Mrs. Thornton sees that he has the proper food.

Pioneer Says No Gas

Problems For Farmers

HEREFORD, TEXAS .... March 14, 1975.... "Pioneer Natural Gas Company irrigation customers should have no gas supply problems this year," K. B. "Tex" Watson, Pioneer president, told a group of irrigation farmers meeting here today. "The Federal Power Commission ruling, changing the priority on natural gas for irrigation from Category 2 to Category 3, should not effect our customers. However, it is a dangerous precedent and all effort should be made by citizens of West Texas to try to have the ruling reversed. The change in classification should be of concern to all citizens, because the agricultural activities of this area are important to every citizen, not just the farmer," Watson said. In his discussion with the farmers, Watson said that last year Pioneer provided a record amount of gas for irrigation during July and August. He pointed out that since new gas acquisitions by the company during 1974 exceeded gas sales for the year should assure the irrigation farmer in Pioneer's service area that he can plan for adequate watering this year.

Watson went on to say that he anticipated that the cost of gas to the customer will continue to rise because of the higher cost in the field. Pioneer is paying more for new gas than the average it receives from any class of customer. He said that the latest forecast indicated that the increases would amount to approximately one and one-half to two cents per MCF a month during 1975. Watson concluded his discussion with the farmers by saying that Pioneer Natural Gas Company is in an excellent position with regards to gas supply for the farmer, as well as for the domestic consumer and industrial use. "Without additional intervention and regulation, we feel that Pioneer will have the gas energy we need for the future. The club will sponsor a tent on March 31. Bros. Cirrus. There will be mances, at the Kiwanis. advance the cheaper the bought at the under 14 lbs. $1.25, and as Ticket sales are at City National Bank Natural Gas.

HOW'S The Electric Company DOING?

Let's ask Sharon McDuffee, meter reader . . .

"Sharon, that looks like a complex piece of equipment there..."

"Yes, it is. It's accurate and dependable, but it costs money."

"Seven years ago, it cost $15.18 and now it costs $18.30, over 20% more. And that meter is just one of the things we use to serve a home."

That's part of the reason your electric bill may be higher these days . . . our equipment costs more, and to give you good service, we have to buy new things to replace the old . . . to keep your electric service dependable.

The Future IS Electric!

Mexico Buying More Soybeans

MEXICO CITY—Mexican soybean consumption will double by 1980, opening vast new markets for U.S. soybeans, the presidents of state soybean producer groups were told here. Berwin Tilson of Plainview, president of the American Soybean Association (ASA), is participating in the two-week soybean presidents' mission to Latin America sponsored by Elanco Products Co., producer of Treflan soybean herbicide.

Key factors in the Mexican soybean boom are gains in use of soybean meal in poultry and livestock rations. Also, on-the-bottle identification of soy oil in grocery stores has boosted consumer demand. And efforts to add soy flour and textured soy proteins to such low protein foods as corn, rice and wheat are beginning to get results.

Farm production experts believe that Mexico can grow only about half of the 60 million bushels of soybeans it will need by 1980, with the balance coming from the U.S.

The group was told by Mexican government and industry officials that they were looking to the U.S. for a dependable soybean supply, some increase in bean quality and continued assistance in building Mexican soybean markets.

Tilson visited a factory producing a soy flour which is used widely to raise the protein content of bread rolls, tortillas and reconstituted milk. Factory representatives said they could not keep up with demand for their products, as both government and private industry expanded their uses of soy protein in schools and hospitals, as well as in retail food products.

A comprehensive report was made to Tilson and the other presidents on the three-year-old soybean market development program in Mexico sponsored by ASA.

Improving livestock production by upgrading the protein content of feeds with soybean meal was detailed by Gil Harrison, director of ASA programs in Latin America. He also reviewed a long list of projects concentrating on soybeans in human nutrition.

Even President Luis Echeverria Alvarez of Mexico is joining the effort by frequently mentioning "proteida," a meat dish made with 30 per cent textured soy protein.

Tilson will also study factors affecting U.S. soybean sales in Columbia and Brazil before returning home.

A handy gadget to look for is one which quickly pulls unsightly snags in knitted or woven fabrics to the underside. Several brands are available on the market, according to Beverly Rhoades, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University

CHILD ABUSE IN TEXAS

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE

LIFT a FINGER report CHILD ABUSE

TOLL FREE STATEWIDE CHILD ABUSE HOT LINE 1-800-292-5400

It doesn't take much—just a phone call. Lift a finger, report child abuse. You may save a child.

HOW PREVALENT IS CHILD ABUSE?

In 1973 more than 4,000 cases of child abuse were reported to the Texas Department of Public Welfare, and 2,509 of them were confirmed.

At least 104 Texas children died as a result of abuse in 1973.

But maybe the most frightening statistic of all is the one that is unavailable: the number of abused children who were NOT reported.

WHAT IS CHILD ABUSE?

Child abuse takes three forms: physical, sexual, and emotional abuse. It is the non-accidental injury of a child by a parent.

WHICH CHILDREN ARE ABUSED?

Child abuse is no respecter of kinds of children are abused—rich and poor, infants and adolescents; black, brown, boys and girls.

WHO ABUSES CHILDREN?

All kinds of parents abuse children. Most are the victims of abuse in their own homes. Some have special worries. Each has a problem, each is troubled.

If we can find out who they are, we can help. And by helping them, we'll help the children.

WHAT DOES THE LAW SAY?

There is a new law in Texas: It MUST report child abuse. Not to be a misdemeanor. This is not to threaten to save the children.

The law provides immunity from prosecution for those who report, unless the report is made in malice. You don't even have to give your name.

WHY REPORT?

The goal is to help. Hopefully, the child will be helped to become more adequate. If they do, it may be necessary to remove the child to the safety of a foster home.

YOU can help.

Please, lift a finger. To report child abuse, toll-free, 1-800-292-5400.

Say Goodbye to Your Money

CHICAGO — Bill McDonald of the Columbia (S.C.) State newspaper is distressed to discover in the Congressional Record that Congress has appropriated:

- $375,000 for the Pentagon to study the frisbee.
- $121,000 to find out why people say "ain't."
- $37,314 for a potato chip machine for the Moroccans.

for the space program.

- $23,000 for environmental testing of the same.
- $6,000 to study Polish bisexual frogs.

- $2,458 to train 18 Good Humor peddlers.

What One Person Can Do

JOSEPH PANZARELLA, PHYSICIAN

A six-day week is no longer routine for most doctors. It is usual for Dr. Joseph Panzarella of Amityville, New York. But this physician is not a usual man. He can't move his arms or legs and has worked from a wheelchair ever since multiple sclerosis crippled him in 1954.

Dr. Panzarella, a cheerful six-footer, is director of a rehabilitation hospital at the Brunswick Hospital Center in Amityville. He also teaches physical medicine and rehabilitation at New York University's Postgraduate Medical School and the arts of physical therapy at Nassau and Suffolk Community Colleges. A consultant on rehabilitation to a major insurance company, he also works in the outpatient department of NYU's Medical Center.

Dealing with patients who face rehabilitation after injuries, Dr. Panzarella is often a powerful inspiration.

Patients trust him not just as a physician, but as one disabled person talking to another.

"By the time the physical exam is over they're not unhappy," he says. "They ask me how it all happened, how I live with it." He doesn't preach or lecture patients, or try to convey to them all the suffering he has experienced. (Recently his son Jeffrey, 24, was killed in an auto crash.) He tells patients only that he has learned to live with his disability and that they can do the same.

Using our abilities, to serve others is something that any of us can do. Some, like Joseph Panzarella, give much more.

For a free copy of the Christopher News Notes, "Ability is What Counts", send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to The Christophers, 12 E. 48th St., New York, NY 10017.

A young child may misbehave because he wants attention, is bored, or curious. His behavior could also indicate that he is growing more independent and wants to do things on his own. Mrs. Ilene Miller, family life education specialist with the Texas Ag.

CENTER NEWS - March 17

Here comes another dust storm, but Sunday was a beautiful spring day. Some fruit trees, like apricots and plums, are trying to bloom. Oh, how we hope there will be a good fruit crop this year, it has been so long since we had one. If Jack Frost doesn't get it a hail does.

The great Revival at First Baptist Church closed Sunday evening.

Our children are trying to find what day they can all come home during Easter Vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson and some of their descendants visited his mother, Mrs. A. W. Anderson, in the Nursing home Sunday P.M. Also, she received a long distant phone visit from her son, William from Washington, State.

Last Monday the Cloud Carpenters had a good visit from Mrs. Tony Marshall of Altus, Oklahoma, their former home.

Mrs. Leo Frizzell is home from Plainview where for several days she baby sat for the 2 year old while the child's mother, Mrs. Recca Jeffries was awaiting the arrival of a new grand daughter of Mrs. Frizzell.

The Dale Millers visited in Silverton Sunday with her sister and family, the H. E. Paynes, Centerites awhile back.

James and Addie Hartline and boys of Levelland visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hartline.

Mr. and Mrs. Plumlee visited in Plainview Friday, and Mrs. Plumlee visited Mrs. Harve Thomas Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spence and small grand daughter, Leslie Self, visited Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Spence. Other visitors earlier were Mr. and Mrs. Ratzliff.

Mrs. Spence reports that her sister, Mrs. A. B. Caldwell of near Petersburg is doing fine after an eye operation one day last week.

Mrs. Ava Jackson spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Leo Frizzell. Mrs. Elmer Warren also dined with them Sunday.

Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Elmer Warren, and Mrs. Lois Durham spent Wednesday P.M. with Mrs. Flora Warren.

Mrs. Thelma Jones and Mrs. Flora Warren visited Mrs. Viola Brown Sunday.

Johnny Lynn Warren visited briefly Friday with his mother, Mr. Elmer Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch of Lubbock visited from Friday evening to Saturday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas. Sunday the Thomases visited relatives in Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

Warren and Mrs. Ola Warren were in Lubbock Thursday for Thomas' date with his doctor. He is reported to be slowly improving.

Sunday dinner guests at the Thomas Warrens were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stout and Mychelle of Quitaque, Joyce and Jimmy Owen, and Mother Ola Warren, City. The Stouts were guests over the weekend.

Miss Mary Pearl Coward, Miss Vera Meredith and Mrs. Green were at Lockney Hospital Saturday P.M. seeing the Clay Muncys. Mrs. Muncy is a patient there, the after-math of a severe case of flu. We also visited Mrs. Goen, and hope both these and others will soon be able to come home.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery of Plainview visited Mrs. Frank Dunn, Monday.

Mrs. Gordon Mayfield is back from a W.M.U. Board Meeting at Dallas.

Mrs. Hollis Payne and children spent over the weekend in Plainview with her mother, Mrs. Boyd, who fell Friday evening and sustained a bump on her head. She was reported better Sunday evening.

LYDA WALDING REPORTS ON EASTER SEALS

Floyd County's Easter Seal Representative reported today that the 1975 Easter Seal Appeal of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults is going well but urged all citizens who have not responded to the Appeal to do so.

Mrs. Lyda Walding, of Floydada, serves as Easter Seal Appeal Treasurer for the County.

FHS Graduate Funeral Home Owner

Millard Carter, owner of Carter Funeral Home in Ralls for the past 25 years, has announced that effective January 1, 1975, Allan and Gail Adams are co-owners of the funeral home, having purchased one-half interest in the business.

Adams, associated with the Carter's since September 7, 1964, is a graduate of Floydada High School and Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science.

A licensed funeral director and embalmer since 1966, Adams is presently co-owner and manager of King Funeral Home in Crosbyton.

Adams is the son of Mrs. R. H. Adams and the late Mr. Adams, who resided in the South Plains community for many years.

Mrs. Adams, a native of Idalou, is a graduate of Idalou High School and attended Texas Tech University. They have one daughter, Kandace, age two.

Carter will remain as manager of the Carter Funeral Home.

The 1975 Easter Seal Appeal will finance the Easter Seal Society's rehabilitation program for crippled children and adults in Texas.

The Easter Seal Representative is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society. He can be contacted at First National Bank for the request form to be sent to the Texas Easter Seal Society to determine the needs of the disabled person. The Society will provide the services or will direct the handicapped person to the best resources available to him.

Contributions to the Easter Seal Appeal should be sent as soon as possible. The Annual Spring Appeal continues through Easter Sunday, March 30.

Cates Takes Extra Job

State Representative Phil Cates joins with the Chamber of Commerce of Shamrock, Texas in making the formal announcement of a contract signing making Cates Chamber Manager.

Cates will be employed on a retainer basis during the months that the Legislature is in session and a full-time employee the rest of the year.

"I am extremely pleased to have been offered this position, for it will allow me to work in a public relations capacity and promote the continued development of small towns and rural areas on a full-time basis," Cates stated.

"I hope that all of our friends throughout the district and especially those in my present hometown of Pampa, will understand that I am committed to my family obligations as well as serving the part of Texas that I love."

"I feel that I can effectively continue to work for the common good from my post as Manager of the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce and I look forward to working closely with the citizens of this fine community for the public good," Cates stated.

He has and will continue to have certain public obligations as a member of the State Legislature.

The contract further states to the Chamber, its board, and the members that "such dual capacities shall always be kept separated by the manager so that he may morally and legally carry out his respective duties."

"I do not plan to leave my post as this district's State Representative. My district office will be maintained as well as the one at the Capitol in Austin to aid my constituents with any problems they have," Cates stated.

Financial compensation as Chamber Manager will be $800 per month, reduced to $400 per month during the Legislative Session.

Cates is married to the former Nancy Kay Holt of Pampa and the couple have one son, Andy.

The Legislature affiliated with the organization work with Dimes, Aid Children, and Board of Baptist General of the Texas Commission, member of the Directors of Plains History

ECOLOGY?

WE'RE PART OF IT.

Sure we want an unpolluted environment. But we also want electricity at a price we can afford. So when you talk about zero emissions from smoke stacks and unrealistic anti-pollution measures please remember one thing. Water and air are a part of ecology but people are a part of it too.
