Floydada Youth Baseball Program Begins

You've been watching baseball on TV, and now this exciting game comes to Floydada! The Floydada Youth Baseball committee has been working for the past month getting coaches lined up and schedules worked out.

The Tri-County Hi-Junior league begins its play here Monday night at 8 o'clock with New Deal playing the local team. Abernathy has a bye that night and Idalou plays at Lockney. Tuesday night in the Tri-County Sophomore league Floydada number 1 will play Abernathy number 2 there at 8 o'clock. Abernathy number 1 will be playing Floydada number 2 here, also at 8 o'clock.

Paul Westbrook is vice president in charge of these leagues.

All Hi-Junior games will be played on Monday and Thursday nights. Sophomore games Tuesday and Friday nights. Idalou and Roosevelt home games will start at 8:30 in both leagues.

FRESHMAN LEAGUE

John Cagle is vice president in charge of the Freshman league. Play begins in this league Thursday night and the complete schedule is published on page six of this edition of The Hesperian.

Freshman coaches are: Harvey Allen, Red Sox; Allen Cochran, Mets; Clarence Denton, Dodgers; Mark Craig and Mike Ramsey, Giants. There are approximately 13 boys on each team.

T-SHIRT LEAGUE

Bill Wagoner is vice president in charge of the T-shirters. When called by a Hesperian reporter Friday, he said his schedule of play would have to be announced later.

Toby Williams is president of the baseball program, Denton is secretary-treasurer.

Rains Brighten Wheat Prospects

The first load of wheat came to market last year on May 30th, but most grain elevator operators think now that it will be later this year, due to the recent rains. One elevator operator estimates a first load by June 5.

With .73 of rain reported last weekend and 1.10 Wednesday night and Thursday in Floydada, prospects for a bumper wheat crop in Floyd county look good.

The south part of the county, especially, has received a lot of rainfall...as much as four inches across the canyon. The Dougherty area has received around two inches.

The South Plains area has received only a half inch over the four day period, and some hail was reported.

CORN CROP GREAT

The Floyd corn crop is knee high in many fields and the rains have caused it to really take off. Much of the cotton is yet to be planted, most of the grain sorghum crop is up and growing.

This brings the year's total rainfall to 4.28 inches at Floydada. Last year at this time 5.60 inches had been received.

Last year's wheat crop was one of the poorest in years, due to a drought the preceeding fall and spring.

Senior Citizens Plan Meeting

Senior Citizens of Floydada are sponsoring a meeting at Lighthouse Electric May 28th at 3 p.m. for the purpose of planning monthly socials.

All persons interested are urged to attend. If you need a ride to the meeting the mini bus will be available. Call 983-3134 or 983-3265.

The Senior Citizen's group hope to hold programs each month on phases of living in retirement years, to receive information on the latest aids, hold discussions on health, safety and home improvements and enjoy a fellowship.

Your presence at the meeting and interest in this monthly affair will be appreciated.

Gatewood Rites Re-Scheduled

The time, place and date for the funeral of George Gatewood were re-scheduled. Rites were changed from Friday until Saturday morning, May 24, at 10:30 and were conducted in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Floydada. Dr. Floyd C. Bradley officiated.

Graveside rites were held at 3 p.m. the same day at Meadow Cemetery in Meadow. Moore-Rose Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial Day Services Set For Sunday

There will be a joint Memorial Day Program conducted by JAMES W. HARRISON POST NO. 5616, VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, and McDERMETT POST NO. 118, AMERICAN LEGION, both of Floydada, beginning at 8:00 o'clock A.M., SUNDAY, MAY 25, at Floydada Cemetery in Floydada.

During this program, the Gold Star Mothers will be presented with a corsage.

The Memorial Day Message will be delivered by Rev. Tom Brown, Pastor of Church of the Nazarene of Floydada.

In case of inclement weather, the program will be conducted in the Church of the Nazarene, Floydada, Texas.

Laurie Hays

Laurie Hays Methodist Youth Director

Laurie will also be working with the church's Mother's Day Out program, worship services, camps, trips... sharing and growing in the Love of Jesus.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Hays of Lubbock.

Memorial Day Holiday Monday

Memorial Day will be observed nationally this year on Monday, May 26. This is one of the official holidays for Floydada merchants and most will be closed.

It would first appear that this would be a long weekend and a good time to take a trip out of town. However, many Floydada folk will be in town Saturday for the big Pioneer Reunion...and school children will be taking examinations Monday and Tuesday.

The VFW will sponsor a Memorial Day service Sunday morning at 8 o'clock in the Floydada cemetery. They will also raise flags for a three day period in all area cemeteries.

Pastor of the Floydada Church of the Nazarene, Tom Brown, will speak at the Memorial service.

Talent Show Ready To Go

Several musicians have entered the talent contest which begins at 8 p.m. Saturday night on the south side of the square in Floydada.

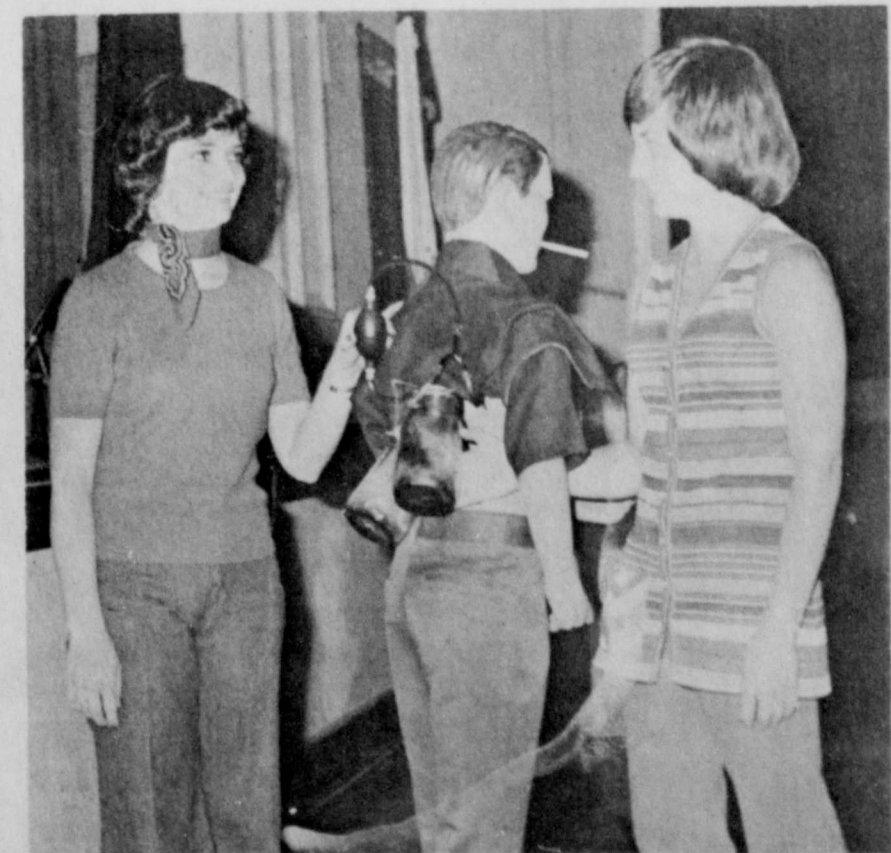

Also to entertain the crowd will be the Floydada sixth grade square dancers sponsored by Carolyn Cheek. With a 5 p.m. deadline Friday, the following contestants had signed up at noon Friday:

The Brio musical group; Joe Covington playing guitar and singing, Rose and Doug Walding sing and play guitar, FHS brass ensemble, Lola Thacker and Ann Langston gospel singing and guitar from Tulia, Charles Bradford singing, accompanied by the piano, and Donnie Kincer singing and playing the guitar.

Harvey Allen, Dwayne Wilson, Wendell Tooley and Ed Pollan will play some musical numbers while the crowd is gathering.

If over ten groups enter the contest the prize money will be $50. If not, $25.00 for the first three places. Judges are from the Floydada Lions Club.

The fruit jars have filters that catch the smoke contamination which is taken into the lungs. Sam is available from the Lubbock Lung Association for programs all over this community. (Staff Photo).

Business Men to Be Contacted In

City Clean-Up Campaign

On May 29th and 30th, all Floydada business men will be contacted by a committee headed by the Chamber of Commerce. The purpose of the clean-up campaign is to have ready access to all streets in the city. The campaign is being conducted in 15 blocks in the city area and 30 blocks in the rural area. Businessmen are asked to write up plans pertaining to the clean-up campaign.

They will also be contacted by a committee headed by the Chamber of Commerce.

Clean-Up Week is being sponsored by the Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Civic Improvement committee headed by Claude Weathersbee.

The cooperation of everyone will be appreciated in this endeavor to help the looks of Floydada. It is suggested that property owners start the campaign early by eliminating weeds and other debris from their lots.

Provide Rural Doctors

Bill Passed By Texas House

State Representative... To provide doctors for small cities and rural areas, a bill passed final reading in the House of Representatives.

communities lack the services of a qualified doctor. Head stressed, "That means there is no one to take care of the child whose flu takes a serious turn for the worse in the middle of the night; or to set a broken limb; or even to deliver a baby who arrives a couple of weeks early."

The bill allows for medical students to receive a $100.00 monthly stipend after they sign a contract to serve in a rural area for at least four years after their graduation and residency.

In order to insure an adequate number of rural doctors in the future, the bill stipulates that at least 20% of each Texas medical school's new class must participate in the program.

HOW'S The Electric Company DOING?

Let's ask Bert Ballengee — Reddy's financial man.

"It takes money to build for the future so that you'll have a dependable supply of electric power. We'll need $345 million over the next five years. Of this amount, we'll have to borrow $200 million. And, at today's interest rates, it's easy to see why electricity may cost more. But, it's all part of creating the good electric service you've come to expect from The Electric Company."

VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE

Bert regularly visits the financial centers of the nation keeping in touch with the financial market and arranging for the millions of dollars it takes to assure your electric future.

Wedding Vows Read For Connie Anderson And David McCulley

Wedding vows for Connie Lea Anderson and David Alan McCulley were read Thursday evening, May 22, in the First Baptist Church in Floydada. The pastor, Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, performed the double ring vows at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis C. Anderson, Route 2, Floydada, and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew McCulley, 816 West Kentucky, Floydada.

Vows were repeated before an altar decorated with spiral twin chandelier candelabrams, accented with pink lighted tapers covered in palms. An elevated single candelabrum also holding pink tapers, centered the arrangement. The focal point of pedestals, with large white chrysanthemums, killian daisies and carnations, completed the altar setting.

Mrs. Bob Copeland was organist, and accompanied Miss Janan Purkale of San Angelo, as she sang, "Entreat Me Not To Leave

Memorial Day, Monday, May 26

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of organza over taffeta, which was fashioned by her mother. The sheer bodice was graced with lace roses which also complimented the long full sleeves caught at the wrists to form short cuffs. The Victorian neckline was bordered with matching lace, as was the chapel length train and hemline of the bouffant skirt. Her circular waist length veil of illusion fell from a capulet of organza and taffeta, and was also edged with lace.

Her bridal bouquet was a colonial cascade of pink roses, white carnations and gypsophelia. An heirloom brooch belonging to the bride's mother, was interlaced into the bouquet. The brooch was used as something old. It had been worn in all the weddings of the Jones' family, beginning with the bride's mother.

For something borrowed, she wore a diamond pendant necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Jim Jones of Floydada. The bride also carried out the tradition of something new and something blue, and had pennies in her shoes bearing the birthdates of she and the groom.

Mrs. Larry Guffee of Lubbock and Mrs. Doug Galloway of Floydada, sister of the bride, were honor attendants. The groom's sisters, Misses Nan McCulley, Lubbock and Laura McCulley, Floydada were bridesmaids.

They wore floor length gowns of hand screened floral print in hot pink, rose, Nile green and white over an underskirt of pink crepe. The ensembles were fashioned with long sleeves and Victorian necklines, styled as the brides. The fitted waistlines were accented with tiny rolled velvet belts. Each carried colonial nosegays of pink roses, pink, and white daisies with greenery and gypsophelia.

Ludustria Leatherman of Floydada was flower girl.

How to Save Energy In Your Kitchen

Kitchens are prime areas for energy savings. For instance, when practical, use a steamer or pressure cooker to prepare several foods at the same time. Many such utensils have partitioned inserts to allow cooking several vegetables simultaneously.

When water used in cooking begins to boil, reduce the heat immediately. Foods will continue to steam or boil properly on low or medium heat, especially if the cooking pot is covered.

TOM BROWN

Guilty Or Not Guilty?

You have probably heard the phrase "If you were charged with being a Christian would there be enough evidence to convict you." There would not be unless it could be said that you had a deep love for Christ.

You may say that would only be my word against other peoples. Who could say that I do not love him.

Here are some things to check your love for God by: The Bible states in several places that you are to love your neighbor as you do yourself. In no way does this imply that you are to love him only if he is rich or if he is a certain color.

This means that you love him regardless of his color, nationality or religion. The Bible even goes farther than this in that it also states that you are to love your enemies. You are to love those who despitefully use you and say all manner of evils about you.

Jesus tells us that if someone compels us to go a mile that we are to go two miles.

Peter asked our Lord how many times he should forgive his brother who sinned against him. Seven times? But Jesus answered and said seven times seventy. This tells me there is no end to our forgiving our fellow man.

There is a song that goes "What the world needs now is love sweet love," and this is very true. The love it needs though is that great love that God had for mankind when He sent His Son to die for you and me.

Read the love chapter, I Corinthians 13. If you have the type of love the Apostle Paul is describing in this chapter, people will be able to testify against you.

Then and only then will there be no doubt of what the verdict will be.

It will be GUILTY AS CHARGED!

GSPA Urges Farmers To Take Alternatives Over Farm Bill Veto

LUBBOCK--Grain Sorghum Producers Association officials have expressed regret over the failure of Congress to override the farm bill veto, but are urging farmers to continue working toward the alternatives which are open to them.

GSPA officials point out that the farmer could still make production cutbacks in order to keep grain supplies stable, should continue to push for domestic and export sales and should use a program of orderly marketing.

The Lubbock based national organization has worked continuously toward passage of the farm bill, testifying frequently before agricultural subcommittees. Immediately following the veto, GSPA Service Director Y. F. Snodgrass spent several days in Washington urging congressmen to override the veto. The House vote on Tuesday (May 19) fell 39 votes short of the necessary margin to override a presidential veto.

GSPA executive director Elbert Harp, in expressing his regrets over the farm bill veto, said it would have helped to stabilize the market for both consumers and producers. He continued to stress that farmers should use production cutbacks and orderly marketing wherever possible to help stabilize the market.

Capitol Hill observers had predicted that the president would enact loan price increases if he vetoed the bill, but the veto message did not indicate such intent. The message stated that if farm prices were to drop sharply during the months ahead, the administration will review the possibility of raising the loan rate.

GSPA has continually emphasized that farmers, like any other businessmen, cannot afford to produce at a loss. Harp, in a letter to the president, pointed out that unless some provision is made to stabilize agricultural markets, many producers will be forced to shut down their farming operations at a time when they are expected to feed the world.

Rollover Protection Required For Tractors

AUSTIN, May 14, 1975 - Modern jet combat aircraft have rocket ejection seats to save the pilot from almost certain death in a crash. So far, no one has proposed rocket seats for tractor drivers, but starting in 1976 all new tractors will afford the operator increased protection in a rollover.

Noting that tractor rollovers have accounted for some 125 deaths among Texas farm workers during the past five years, the Texas Safety Association today issued a reminder that the Occupational Safety and Health Administration has now officially adopted rollover protection standards for agricultural tractors.

The standard applies to all agricultural tractors manufactured after October 25, 1976. After that date tractors of over 20 engine horsepower used in agriculture must be equipped with a seat belt and rollover protective structures which meet government performance requirements.

Herbicide Application Requires Precautions

AUSTIN--North Texas farmers and ranchers have been urged to apply 2,4-D and other hormone-type herbicides this spring with additional care because of possible danger to certain crops.

"Hormone-type herbicides are essential to production of some crops," said Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. "But broad-leaf plants such as cotton are highly susceptible to herbicides."

"In addition, more people are growing home gardens now. Vegetables can be severely damaged or killed by drifting herbicides."

White also mentioned thousands of acres of sunflowers being grown for commercial production which can be harmed by these chemicals.

In Texas, 85 counties are regulated in the use of herbicides and permits are required to use them.

"If a farmer is in doubt about the regulated status of his fields, he can check with local herbicide dealers or with the nearest Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) office," White said.

TDA herbicide specialists recommend spray pressure of 20-30 pounds be used. Proper pressure for ground rigs is one of the best ways to assure safe application.

Red Meat Abundant; Hog Outlook Bright

AUSTIN--Total red meat production during the first two months of 1975 was 458.1 million pounds, compared with 361.9 million a year ago. Commercial slaughter houses produced 214.3 million pounds in February alone.

According to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, the increase was due to the "overabundant supply of Texas cattle."

At the same time, hog, sheep and lamb slaughter were down. The 108,000 head hog slaughter was down 12,000 from January and 6,000 below a year ago. The sheep and lamb kill was 97,000, 2,500 less than the previous month and 1,500 below February 1974.

Despite the drop-off in hog production, White had some optimistic words for the industry.

"The price outlook for hog producers is on the upswing, creating one bright spot in the generally dim livestock picture," he said.

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

"Bitterly disappointed" were the words used by W.B. Criswell of Idalou, President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., to describe his reaction to news that the last ditch effort to enact new farm legislation for 1975 had failed.

PCG supported a one-year emergency bill which would have provided a 38-cent loan and 45-cent target price on 1975 crop cotton. The bill's chances died May 13 when the House of Representatives proved unable to override President Ford's veto. The vote was 285 for overriding and 182 against, 40 votes short of the needed two-thirds majority.

This leaves the 1975 loan for middling one inch cotton at 34.27 cents per pound as previously announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the target price at 38 cents per pound as stipulated in existing law.

"The higher levels of price protection in 1975 were entirely justified in view of inflated production costs," Criswell contended, "but the emergency bill fell victim to the President's passion for convincing the nation he is 'economy minded'."

"The most disheartening aspect of the whole thing is that the President's veto of the measure was unmistakably guided by Agriculture Secretary Butz' exaggerated estimates of potential costs and his predictions that the bill would cause over production of cotton, under production of food crops, disrupted markets and a return to government controls - predictions we consider ill-advised, to say the least."

"PCG will, of course, continue its efforts to get a better farm program into law before 1976," Criswell commented, "but for 1975 we now have no alternative but to do the best possible job of producing and marketing our crops under the existing program."

Witnesses from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. joined other organizations and individuals May 15 and 16 in Lubbock in an effort to show the Federal Power Commission that an uninterrupted supply of natural gas to power irrigation motors on the High Plains is an absolute necessity.

The FPC last December ruled that natural gas delivered by El Paso Natural Gas Co. for irrigation purposes was for an "industrial use" and the supply should be regulated under Priority No. 3. The Company previously had carried irrigation natural gas in a No. 2 position, second only to gas for domestic uses, and the prospective change evoked strong protests from irrigation belt farmers.

Hearings on the issue were first held in Washington, D.C., followed by regional hearings which began in Phoenix, moved to Albuquerque, and culminated May 15 and 16 in Lubbock.

Ray Joe Riley, of Hart, past PCG president and member of the organization's Executive Committee, told hearings Judge Curtis L. Wagner, Jr., that it was neither physically nor economically feasible to convert irrigation motors to an alternative fuel, and that curtailment of the natural gas supply "would mean reverting to dryland farming, which in turn means cutting the yields on area crops by 80 or 85 per cent."

By mid-morning of the first day's hearings in Lubbock over 300 farmers and other concerned individuals had registered in protest of the FPC action.

Current PCG President W.B. Criswell of Idalou, another witness, said this impressive turnout, plus the logic and volume of evidence presented at the hearings, "should greatly improve our chances for a continuous natural gas supply."

Floyd Pioneers Describe Early Days

To conclude a unit of study of the history of Floyd County, several seventh grade history students of Mrs. Carol Bell have interviewed Floyd County residents, using cassette tape recorders. Some of the students who have placed tapes in the school library are:

Kelly Marble interviewed his grandmother, Betty McCleskey Tye; Raymond Upton, Fess Whitfill; Jonna West interviewed Mrs. Hester Moore; Robby Thrasher interviewed his father, Leo Thrasher; Tracy Reddy interviewed Mrs. Pearl Reddy, her grandmother; Kristi Julian interviewed her great uncle, Clifford Julian and her grandfather, Murray Julian;

Dwayne Marble interviewed Mr. and Mrs. George Weast; Troy Marquis and Debbie Harrison interviewed "Humpty" Briggs; Larry Westbrook interviewed Henry Love; Becky Crabtree interviewed her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Crabtree and Charlie Spence;

Debbie Williams interviewed her great-grandmother, Mrs. Della Maude Smith; Noe Martinez interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edwards; David Sessums interviewed Mark Martin; Jimmy Jones interviewed Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Wright.

Many other students turned in written interviews. The taped interviews will be placed in a permanent collection in the Floyd County Museum.

JOHN STAPLETON Interviewed by Kelly Higginbotham, May 17, 1975

John Stapleton was born August 14, 1908, at Dimmitt, Texas. As a young boy he lived in a large two story house, where his father was a doctor. The house was used as a hospital for the people who lived a long way out in the country. He came to Lockney, Floyd County, in August, 1915. He was seven years old at the time. Although John has lived with his wife in Lubbock for the past two years, Floyd County was his home for sixty years.

John and his family came to Lockney because his brother-in-law was in the drug business there, and John's father decided that would be a good place to live and practice medicine. They came to Floyd County in a Model T Ford, but the furniture came on two horse drawn wagons. The trip took two days - a distance of 65 miles.

In Lockney the Stapletons lived in a five room wooden house. John remembers two fires that destroyed all of the wooden buildings in Lockney on both sides of the main downtown street. John's first train ride was in 1914, from Plainview to Lockney - a fifteen mile trip which took two hours to make.

The flu epidemic of 1918 stands out vividly in John Stapleton's memory because of the many people who were afflicted with flu and often developed pneumonia, many dying from it. His father was one of the casualties of that epidemic.

Basketball was included in the curriculum of Lockney schools, which John attended from 1915 to 1925, when he was in the fourth grade, but there were no indoor courts until 1925.

One interesting trip John remembers was made by his mother, father, sister and himself. They were riding in an open touring car and he was dressed in a straw sailor hat. As they rode through the country his hat kept blowing off. Each time it blew off they would stop, get out of the car and all chase the hat as the wind continued to blow it away from them, across the fields. John remembers that winters were cold and their house was heated by two coal stoves - one the kitchen range and the other one in the living room. The rest of the house would be freezing cold and heavy covers were piled on the beds in order for everyone to sleep warmly.

Death was as constant in the early 1900's as it is now, but the burial customs were different. Many coffins were hand made and coins were often placed over the eyes of the deceased in order to hold the eyelids closed until they had "set."

John married Bernice Patton Christmas Day, 1941. He served his country for four years during the second World War.

CAREY LEE "HUMPY" BRIGGS Interviewed by Troy Marquis May 10, 1975

Carey Lee "Humpty" Briggs was born in 1888 in Limestone County, Texas. He came to the Plains in 1903 and grew up with cattle, horses, and mules. One of his first jobs was driving a freight wagon from Childress, Quanah, Stamford and Amarillo. He would be gone 1 or 2 weeks at a time hauling wire, post, groceries and many other things for the ranch.

"Humpty" worked on the Seenson's Ranch for 14 years. Then the 6666's gave him a five dollar raise, so he "jumped the fence," and stayed there 8 years. The Matador Ranch gave him a ten dollar raise to work for them and he stayed there 5 years. After the Matador he worked 7 years for A. B. Echols at Matador. When Mr. Echols died "Humpty" went to work for The Triangle Ranch, then he went to the Pitchfork Ranch for a fifteen dollar raise. From 1903 until 1927 "Humpty" worked cattle for the "big" ranches and continued to work for the "little" ranches for a while longer.

During these early years of ranching the cowboys got one week off at Christmas and 4 days for the Fourth of July. They worked the rest of the year. Their hair was so long that they would be called "hippies" in this day and time. In August the boss would hire a man as a barber and he'd charge 25 cents a head to cut the cowboy's hair, as long as the hair lasted.

Cowboys had 12 horses issued to them at a time - a horse for every occasion - a morning, evening, and round-up horse. After rounding up the cattle, the branding would start. They would rope a calf and drag him out of the corral, tie him up and brand him. As they were branding the cattle they would take a break about half way through and to the "Hoodlum" wagon. All of them wore a vest to keep their matches and tobacco dry.

When they bedded the herd down, they had to watch them. "Humpty" went on guard at 2 o'clock every night - the last guard was the best. At day break he would start the herd moving in the right direction. Some of the men went with the herd, the rest ate breakfast, then went up to relieve someone else. "Humpty" would come back to the chuck wagon and eat breakfast, then go back to the herd to relieve someone else, so that person could eat dinner. That way, the wagon was only moved once a day, after dinner.

Each November they would cut the bulls out of the herd and put them back in June. This would prevent the cows from having any calves born during the cold months when there was a possibility of them freezing.

"Humpty" got paid $25.00 a month and board. Later he was paid up to $30.00. When he had social security held out, it was one cent on $35.00 a month. Boots had to be handmade to your order, and when the cowboys were certain Today "Humpty" Texas, with his wife is "86 years young."

"...THAT THIS NATION MIGHT LIVE
With deepest gratitude...we set aside this day in memory of all the men throughout our nation's history...who came to the aid of their country ever it was in danger, and put their lives on the line to defend the way of life that America stands for.
