Archaeological Field School Finding Ancient Artifacts In White River Canyon

WENDELL TOOLEY
A group of archeologists and their families have camped in White River Canyon South of Floydada for a week of exploring, camping out, study. They come from all over Texas, and one or two from Arkansas and Louisiana.

The group is made up of people of all professions . . . they have come with their families for a week of exploring, camping out, study. They come from all over Texas, and one or two from Arkansas and Louisiana. Floydada's Jim and Dot Word are sorta hosts for the group . . . they have arranged running water, bath rooms, rest rooms, and comfortable camping facilities for the field group. There is a program for the children of the "diggers" . . . there is a trailer home for the cook, and one tent houses the laboratory where the flint, bones, Indian artifacts are labeled and processed. It appears now that the excavation work will continue through Saturday. Each group works an area about three feet square. Some have gone as deep as six feet . . . some are shallow and spread out in surveyed assignments. Floydada Optometrist Dr. Tommy McIntosh is enjoying working on the field project also. At the Wednesday night lecture session Tech professors Charles and Eilene Johnson shared their explorations of the Lubbock lakes area. Tonight Dr. Jack T. Hughes, West Texas State University will speak on "The Rex Rogers Bison Kill and Excavations At Mackenzie Reservoir." His talk begins around 7:30. Visitors should bring their own chairs . . . or sit on the grass.

labelled will go to SMU for further study, then returned to the Floyd County Museum.

The archeologist in charge is Dr. S. Alan Skinner of Southern Methodist University assisted by Joe T. Bagot and Barbara Burger also of Southern Methodist University and Roberta Speer of the Killgore Research Center of West Texas State University.

The field school is designed to meet a twofold need. Training of amateur archeologists in proper field techniques and preservation of historic and prehistoric sites is the primary function. Probing the unknown past is of secondary importance.

The Floydada Country Club Site presents an interesting research problem since there is concrete evidence of various Indian groups occupying the site at the same time or at approximately the same time from about 1000 AD to 1874 when Col. Mackenzie drove the Comanches from the area. Excavations will probably expose Indian occupation predating the time of Christ. It is hoped that the life styles and patterns of activity will reveal secrets of the little known prehistoric people of our area.

... The Renaissance Singers will be at the Floydada Church tonight at 8 o'clock. The public is invited, and admission charge.

Floydada's Festival Of Values Coming

Some thirty Floydada merchants will be sponsoring a big sales extravaganza July 10, 11, 12 and giving away a free trip for a family to Six Flags of Texas. Highlight of the big sales event will come on Saturday, the 12th when the Lions Club big sidewalk Bazaar opens. Chamber of Commerce officials are busy getting the merchants lined up and pre-publicity ready on the big event.

WITH THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE'S BEAUTIFICATION AND IMPROVEMENT Women's Division has chosen the "most improved yard of the week." Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas Mississippi have improved and beautified every corner of their neat little yard. Bright flowers, shrubs, trees are planted by the street that will in time make shade. Mr. Thomas has shared with his neighbor, Reuben DeLeon, helping to improve that yard also. Honorable Mention awarded yards go to the Reuben DeLeons, the Alfred Medranos, 422 W. Mississippi St., and to Huerta of West Lee St.

THE PRICE OF WHEAT came on up to $3.00 per bushel in Floydada Tuesday after hanging around $2.85 for a week or two. There was a report of a farmer east of Floydada making 80 bushels per acre on irrigated wheat. This may be some kind of record for Floyd County.

Some of the dryland wheat is making over 30 bushels to the acre. It will be interesting . . . and gratifying, to get a total report of the county's wheat production when the harvest is over . . . no doubt this is one of our big years. There still seems to be a shortage of combines, but the harvest may be half over at this point.

WE NOW HAVE an ambassador in our family. Brad took off for 35 days in Europe Tuesday. He is touring Europe on the "People To People" program started by President Dwight Eisenhower.

Brad is to be an ambassador of good will from the United States and will be living in European homes. He will have three "home stays" and visit some nine countries.

Last year seven from Floyd County were ambassadors to Europe: Mrs. Charles Craig, Mark Craig, Blake Hickerson, Jo Ann King, Darla Milton, Kathy Hale, and John Willson.

YOU BASEBALL COACHES are forgetting to call in your scores to the Hesperian. Perhaps you could assign a player the job of calling in scores . . . or one of the mothers of a player might call us?

THERE IS A LOT OF EXCITEMENT in the Country Club area as the 14th Texas Archeological Society field school engages in its archeological research project. As many as 250 have been down there, digging up pieces of flint, arrowheads, buffalo bones.

I suggest you visit them . . . all sightseers are welcome to observe the digging, the lab work and the speakers at the night sessions.

I thought I would eat breakfast with the "diggers" Sunday morning. I got down there at what I considered an early hour (7 a.m.). Well, I missed breakfast, which was served at 6 a.m. . . . and the diggers were already at work.

Woodrow Badgett was raised on a farm near the canyon, and I understand he is keeping tabs on the diggers, making sure they don't hurt the looks of the canyon. I imagine Woodrow has found a lot of Indian artifacts in years past.

Hester Moore has enjoyed visiting with a retired Presbyterian minister and missionary . . . a fellow by the name of Bransford Eubank. He's around 78 years of age, enjoys his archeological hobby very much.

There is an abundance of Indian culture from the Mackenzie days in the canyon, it is a beautiful setting, there's a nice swimming pool nearby, camp out facilities are good . . . these folk are enjoying a week's vacation and pursuing their hobby at the same time.

We welcome them to the Floydada area.

THESE 1975 LICENSE plates are supposed to go some four or five years. However, the plate I have on the front of my car will never make it. It is situated so that it gets beat up on the curb everytime I park. I may have to relocate it higher.

FOR YEARS WE HAVE pictured the mayor proclaiming "clean-up, fix-up, paint-up week" and nothing happened. However, this week, we actually see improvement and clean-up all over our community.

Thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for sponsoring a clean-up week that is working.

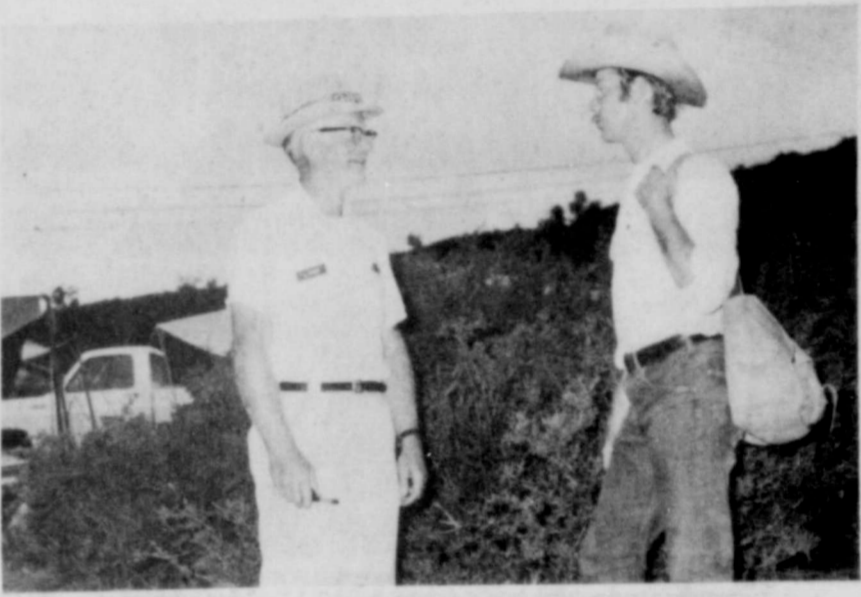

If you haven't done your clean-up thing . . . now's a good time.

LATER ON TUESDAY, I found out more about that 80 bushel per acre wheat crop. Mrs. C. O. Lyles said it actually figured out 73 bushels per acre. Do you elevator operators know of any better wheat than this?

The Lyles live about 9 1/2 miles southeast of Floydada and this production came off a 20 acre field that had been summer tilled, irrigated three times and grazed just a little.

It was Centurk variety. This may be a record for Floyd County . . . anyone know of a better yield ever produced?

A LOT OF people are going to be sorry to hear this. Middle age is now 27.2 years old because half of the population of this country is older than this and half are younger.

Property Taxes Yield 64% Of Revenue

NEW YORK, June 7— Are property taxes higher or lower in Floyd County than in most other sections of the United States?

How much of the revenue collected locally comes from property taxes? The subject of taxes and operating costs has become a matter of major importance in cities and counties all over the country. Many of them are in financial difficulties and are going all out in their search for new ways of raising money.

In some communities, reconsideration is being given to various new forms of taxation that were proposed in previous years and were rejected at the time. As for the taxes that are currently on the books, they are being progressively increased.

In Floyd County, according to the latest figures from the Department of Commerce, property taxes account for about 64.0 percent of all locally-raised revenue.

By way of comparison, in other areas of the country the amount collected through property taxes averages 63.5 percent of the total. In the State of Texas it is 60.0 percent.

The figures show that the property tax continues to be the mainstay of most local governments, producing a large part of their revenue.

The Tax Foundation estimates that $51 billion was so-generated during the past year. That was $3.8 billion more than was collected in the previous year.

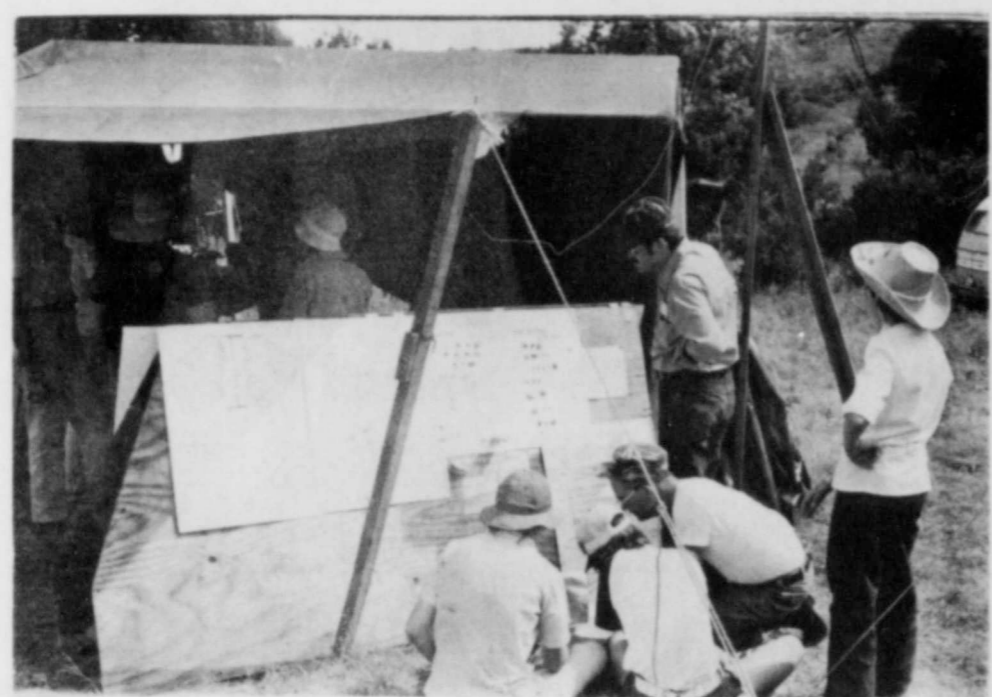

According to the latest nationwide survey, there is a wide variation throughout the country in property tax revenue.

In Floyd County it amounts to $146 per capita per year. Elsewhere in Texas it averages $153 per resident. The United States average is $205.

Although the property tax has been getting bigger in terms of total yield, it has been declining in importance in recent years as many communities have turned to sales taxes and local income taxes for additional operating funds.

DON'T QUIT NOW!
Just in case you don't get all the clean-up, fix-up, paint-up finished that you need this week, feel free to continue even after this official week is over.

The word from the Floydada Chamber of Commerce is "Don't Quit Now!"

Beautify Texas

FORT WORTH — Tom H. Taylor, director of the Texas Highway Department's Travel and Information Division, received the Beautify Texas Council President's Award here today during the eighth annual Beautify Texas Council Conference.

Taylor, who was recognized for his active participation in the Council, was one of its organizers in 1967. In accepting the award, a handsome engraved silver bowl, Taylor said, "It means even more to me to look out over this group and realize how much the Council has grown in numbers and influence since a handful of us set about organizing statewide beautification efforts back in 1967."

Taylor emphasized, "In the effort of promoting Texas to out-of-state visitors, we've learned that a clean, well-kept city or recreational area is an invitation to visitors to stay a while or to come back again. It's an invitation that's going to be accepted."

He also said that neat city streets and roads, well-kept homes and business areas are important selling points to the business man who's looking for a new plant location.

"The Texas Highway Department has been a true believer in beautification for more than 40 years and has actively supported the Council since its inception. The Department has a great interest in promoting Texas to out-of-state visitors and in providing safe, convenient access for industrial plants and for transporting goods

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Floyd County during the month of May, 1975, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and four persons injured.

selections from "Share" and other Cam Floria musicals, and a stirring American Bi-centennial production.

Selected by audition from thousands of high school and college age young people across the nation and around the world, the members of the Continental Singers are highly trained and talented musicians. Consisting of 25 vocalists and a 15-piece orchestra, they are completely equipped with sound and lighting for the staging of their performance. Rather than being paid, each member raises approximately one-half of what it costs to send him on tour. The remainder of the cost is raised as a result of the concert appearances.

The Continental Singers have been on tour each summer since 1963. In addition to performing in all fifty of the United States, they have toured throughout Europe, South America, Australia, New Zealand, the Orient and the Caribbean Islands. In 1970, for the first time, they went entirely around the world, appearing in such places as India, Israel and Greece. This summer the Continental Singers will perform in every section of the United States, as well as in ten European countries, Canada, Bermuda, South Africa and the Iron Curtain countries of Poland and East Germany. They will also be appearing at the Christian Artists' Music Seminar and Camp in Estes Park, Colorado.

Their exciting, but exhausting, summer tour begins with an intensive ten day rehearsal in the Los Angeles area. Traveling

Karen Marr, Tony Ford Married In Lockney

Dr. Neil Record of Plainview directed the wedding ceremony Saturday evening which united in marriage Miss Karen Jean Marr and Tony Clay Ford.

Nuptial area of Lockney First Baptist Church was centered with a formal basket of gladiola, carnations and gypsophila. In flanking positions were two 15-branch brass candelabras which held blue tapers and which were trimmed with tropical palms. Blue satin bows marked the pews for the couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marr and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ford, all of Lockney.

Mrs. Cliff Hardy presented pre-ceremony music on the organ and accompanied Mrs. Ray Ford as she sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Janis Marr, sister of the bride, and Bernie Ford, brother of the groom, served as honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Tony Bybee and Brenda Cooper, cousin of the bride from Lubbock. Mrs. Carlton Johnson, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Gary Marr of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride, were bridesmatrons. Cousins of the bride, Rhonda and Randy Catlett of Plainview were flower girl and ring bearer.

Groomsmen were Richard Brock, Bobby Owen of Denton, Ronnie Marr of Lubbock and Gary Marr of Amarillo, the bride's brothers. Larry Cunyus and the groomsmen were ushers.

Feminine attendants in the wedding party were dressed in floor-length creations of sheer, blue material. The dresses were designed with A-line skirts and the sleeves and the capelets were edged in lace trim. White sashes encircled the Empire waistlines and hung to the hemlines. Each carried a white nosegay fashioned from white sparkle mums.

The flower girl's outfit was made of material matching the other attendants and featured a triple-tiered skirt of lace-edged ruffles.

Thomas Marr escorted his daughter to the altar area. She chose formal-length gown of white organza for her wedding. A pleated ruffle outlined the high Victorian neckline and the lace insert yoke, which was accented with sequins and pearls. Long, sheer bishop sleeves with lace cuffs edged in the same pleated ruffling were trimmed with a band of lace around the fullness of the sleeve. The A-line skirt fell from an empire bodice and had a wide, pleated ruffle at the hemline. The same ruffling also edged a bouffant back skirt which extended into a chapel-length train. The shoulder-length veil was edged with lace matching that on the dress and was secured with a caplet of pearl-encrusted petals.

The bride's bouquet was a colonial arrangement of white rosebuds around a going-away corsage of phalaenopsis orchids, carried on a white Bible presented to her by the maid of honor. She wore a penny in her shoe and a blue garter borrowed from her cousin Mrs. Roy Roberts. She also wore pearls, a gift of the groom. A reception in the church fellowship hall was hosted by the bride's parents following the wedding ceremony. Miss Linda Glasscock of San Angelo registered the guests.

A white lace cloth over blue covered the serving table. An arrangement of multi-colored flowers and blue votive candles centered the table. Serving wedding cake and punch were Kay Terrell, Rhonda Lyles and Mrs. Bobby Owen of Denton. In the houseparty were Mmes. Jeff Terrell, Tom Duvall, Dub Mercer, Royce Hillman, Bill Glasscock, Harley Howard and Glen Cooper.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hall of Abernathy and Mrs. R. E. Marr; and the groom's grandparents, Mrs. Clara Jeffcoat and Henry Ford Sr.

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ford, parents of the groom, was held Friday evening in the fellowship hall of the church.

For the wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the bride chose a white pantsuit worn with a blue blouse that was accented with ruffling on the bodice and on the sleeve cuffs.

The couple will live in Denton, where they will be seniors at North Texas State university. Both are graduates of Lockney High School.

Shower Honors Mrs. McCain

The home of Mrs. Jeff Terrell in the Lone Star community was the setting Saturday afternoon of a post-nuptial shower honoring the former Debbie Diver and her husband, Larry McCain. The couple was married May 23 in California.

Mrs. Terrell greeted guests and presented them to the honoree and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Larnce McCain.

Bridal attendants, Miss Karen Seely of Dimmitt, maid of honor, and Miss Bonnie Jack, the bride's sister wore sheer cotton blend dresses in light blue. They were fashioned with empire bodices with V-necklines and ruffling on the lower part of the floor-length skirts. Off-white cotton lace covered the bodice to form a V-shaped yoke and flounce sleeves. They carried nosegays of blue carnations and white cushion mums showered with white satin ribbon.

7 YEARS OLD AND RESTLESS

Children facing the summer after their first grade year often find the summertime boring. They may miss the social life of many friends and fun that outdoor equipment of school provides. When all the busy activities of school stop, children search for something to do. At 7, children are beginning to settle down. They are better listeners now and appear shy and pensive at times. Nevertheless, they

Celebrating 75th Anniversary

The First Baptist Church of Claytonville (formerly Whitfield Baptist Church) is observing its 75th anniversary July 26 and 27th. Former pastors, music directors, and members are invited to join in this celebration. Registration begins at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 26th with services at 3:30 and 7:00 p.m. A meal will be served at the church at 6:00 p.m. Sunday morning services will be at the regular times with an afternoon service at 2:00 p.m. For additional information contact Lavon Stark, Rt. are pretty steady talkers and are increasingly aware of others. They are at a stage when collections and sharing them are fun.

Airplains, space travel, prehistoric times — especially dinosaurs — are favorite topics for reading and discussing. Their sharp little minds store exact terms, sizes and records. Alas for the parent who calls a brontosaurus a tyrannosaurus!

Young children look for quick action and mounting suspense in what they read or have read to them. They welcome information presented straight without watering down the drama.

When your 7-year-old child gets restless this summer, check out a few of these books from the library. H.A. Rey's "Curious George" books present a monkey with a fascinating personality. Each book is full of Monkeyshines.

Horse lovers will enjoy C. W. Anderson's "Billy and Blaze" and other "Blaze" books. A wild pony book is "A Pony Called Lightening" by Miriam E. Mason.

Exaggerated humor fascinates 7 year olds in "Why Cowboys Sing in Texas", "Captain Dow" and "The Hole in the Doughnut" by Le Grand. Fantasy appeals to boys and girls in "My Father's Dragon" by R. S. Garrett or "Alphonse that Bearded One" by N.S. Carlson.

Stories of children like themselves include "Lentil" by Robert McCloskey and "Little Eddie" (and other "Eddie" books) by Carolyn Haywood.

4-H Photographers Get Shot At National Exhibit

4-H'ers who can best capture the image of 4-H with pictures will be recognized at the National 4-H Photo Exhibition November 29 - December 4 in Chicago during the National 4-H Congress.

Any 4-H member 9-19 years old is eligible to enter the contest, points out Doyle G. Warren, Floyd County Extension agent.

Interested 4-H'ers should submit photographs to the county Extension office by August 1, 1975. All entries for state competition must be submitted to the state 4-H office by August 11. There is no limit on the number of entries from each county.

The top four state entries will be selected at Texas A&M University September 4 during a three-day exhibit. These will then be submitted for national competition.

Entries can be black and white or color photos made from negatives or slides. If a slide is submitted, prints are not necessary, but negatives must be submitted with all prints, notes Warren.

Contestants are urged to capture the image of 4-H in pictures to try to improve the public's understanding of the youth organization, says Warren. An entry may be a single photo or a series of photos that tell the story of 4-H.

The National 4-H Photo Exhibition is being sponsored by the Eastman Kodak Co. which also sponsors the 4-H Photography Program. The company provides county medals, expense-paid trips to National 4-H Congress on a state basis, and six $1,000 scholarships on a regional basis for 4-H photography project winners each fall.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

Rain here last Monday night left some good amounts in the southern part of South Plains, but less to the eastern farms. Tuesday night again we had more rain, but most of our area got about half an inch in the rains.

What harvest is well under way, around 30 to 40 percent of the wheat acreage is cut. Dry land wheat has been averaging around 20 bushels to the acre and the irrigated wheat has been averaging about 30 to 45 bushels to the acre, according to reports from the Lockney Coop Gin here at South Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvian

Kinnibrugh had their children home with them for the Father's Day weekend, with Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Horne and Melissa coming Sunday from Plainview and Mrs. Beth Gregory coming Friday night by plane from Dallas. They took her back to Lubbock to catch the plane home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Oden of Lubbock were visitors at the South Plains Baptist Church Sunday, and were here visiting their son Rev. and Mrs. Mike Oden. This Monday they all left for Red River, New Mexico, to stay a few days on a brief vacation. They spent Father's Day here at the parsonage with the Odens.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Higginbotham and children from Floydada were here for Sunday dinner and to spend Father's Day with his mother, Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham.

Members of the South Plains Hobby club with their guests met at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 11, in the home of Mrs. Mamie Wood for a backyard breakfast, and even the rain of the night before and the cold temperature of 50 degrees could not dampen the spirits of those who attended. Mrs. Hamm and Mrs. Mulder assisted with hostess duties in the absence of Mrs. Kinnibrugh. Mrs. Julian as well as Mrs. Myers, who was in Hubbard. A bountiful breakfast of ham, eggs, toast, jelly and coffee were served, and later Mrs. Dunlap led the group in games. Mrs. Joyce Harper is a new member of the Hobby club, and those present at the gathering were Mrs. J.K. West, Gertrude Smitherman, Kendall Cummings, Leighton Teeple, Clay Henry, Sterling Cummings, Joyce Harper, R. G. Dunlap, J.P. Taylor, Arby Mulder, Harold Hamm, E. P. Pritchett, Shelvy Calahan, Ruby Higginbotham, Fred Fortenberry, Owen Thornton, and hostess Mrs. Wood.

Mrs. Don Marble helped serve at the Vacation Bible School Wednesday morning instead of Mrs. Reese Hightower as reported. Donette took her mother's place as they served cookies and drinks for the teachers and children.

Mrs. Melvin Myers has been back in Hubbard the past two weeks staying with her father, James Baker, who has been in failing health. Mrs. Myers became ill and underwent surgery at Hillsboro on Tuesday of last week, but is getting along well, and is expected home the early part of this week.

Mrs. Kendis Julian is down at the Baptist Encampment this Monday with the Girls in Action of the Baptist Church as they enjoy their camping trip Monday through Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Edwards and Rusty flew to Tracy, California last week-end and were there for the wedding of Mrs. Milton's niece, on Sunday June 8. The wedding took place at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Tracy, Calif., at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 8, when Miss Toni Lynne Bentley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bentley, and Charles Douglas McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCormick, were united in marriage. The reception followed the wedding and was held in the church Social Hall of St. Paul Lutheran Church. Mrs. Milton and the Edwards visited Mr. and Mrs. George Bentley and Mrs. Milton's mother, Mrs. Dona Williford. They were to come home Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian left Saturday morning for Perryton by way of Amarillo where they had lunch, and they went by Fritch, and Lake Meredith where the recent rains have made this spot so beautiful with wild flowers and lush green grass everywhere. Much of the wheat up that way is still too green for harvesting, but in some of the vast wheat fields around Spearman and Perryton, there were as many as five combines in fields. The Julians visited with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Julian and Clay, enjoying Father's Day with them, and attending church at the Frist Baptist Church over the weekend.

Miss Shari Johnson will be honored at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham on Friday, June 20, from 3-5 in the afternoon at a Come and Go party. Miss Johnson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Johnson, is the bride-elect of Brad Smith of Ralls. They plan to wed in the South Plains Baptist Church on August 11.

There will be no Hobby Club meetings in South Plains during the summer months of July and August.

G. H. Robertson of Plainview, father of Mrs. Keith Marble of our vicinity, has been in the Central Plains Hospital at Plainview, then this last Tuesday he was taken to Lubbock to the Methodist Hospital and surgeons have scheduled open heart surgery for him this coming Tuesday. Mrs. Marble spent Father's Day in the hospital with her father, and will be with him during the surgery. Robertson has a valve in his heart that is leaking, and the surgery will repair this.

Jean Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reeves left June 1 for Glorieta, New Mexico, where she is working until September 1, at the Glorieta Baptist Assembly in the dormitories, and Jean is located in "Hall of State".

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Don Scott and two children of East Prairie, Missouri, arrived here Monday to spend that day and night with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kinslow. Supper guests with the Scotts at the Kinslow home Monday night were Mrs. Kinslow's sister, Mrs. Eula Ellison, and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Mabry all of Petersburg. Guests coming Tuesday to stay until Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Kinslow was their son Phil from Bryan, and his friend, Miss Dee L'Roy of Bryan, and E. J.'s father, D. E. Kinslow of Lubbock who also stayed from Tuesday to Thursday in the Kinslow home.

Miss Shari Johnson, bride-elect of Brad Smith was honored with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. R. V. Webster in Lockney June 7, from 3-5 p.m. The bride-to-be received her cookware at this bridal shower.

On Friday the South Plains Baptist Vacation Bible School completed a week of Bible Study, Mission Book study, bible stories, and interesting things made for the church and different rooms of the church. Many of the children had perfect records for the week, and at noon Friday Mrs. Kendis Julian, teachers, children and Rev. Oden along with parents enjoyed a picnic lunch at the South Plains School Grounds. It was a wonderful, rewarding week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Chappell of Duncan, Oklahoma, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr., over the past weekend, and were visitors at the Baptist Church for Sunday morning services.

Boys from South Plains who are members of Floydada Future Farmers of America are Mike Reves and Randy Calahan. They will receive the State Farmer

Degree in Houston, on July 9, 10, at the National FFA Convention, and we offer our congratulations to them. Mike is working at Parks Oil Station this summer and is preparing to enter college in the fall. Both Mike and Randy are planning to enroll at West Texas State University at Canyon this fall.

The Floyd Philosopher

A Drive Started To Save The Cities

So Countryside Won't Be Overrun

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm seems a little worried this week, whether it's justified or not.

Dear editor:

A week or so ago in this space I was joking about New York City, how it had so much brains and talent and yet couldn't pay its bills and was facing bankruptcy if Washington didn't lend it a billion dollars immediately. Washington declined, and I have now decided this is no laughing matter.

For example, what if New York goes under, the banks foreclose, and everybody has to move out, like the people of that Cambodian city I can't pronounce, Pnom Penh? (On the other hand, how many Cambodians can pronounce Philadelphia or Schenectady?)

All right. Here we'll have 8 million displaced people, all swarming out across the United States seeking food, shelter and jobs. How many New York refugees do you figure Floyd County can handle? Can you find a place say for 15 taxicab drivers and 20 subway conductors? How many of those high-priced refugee editors can you place on the Beacon or Hesperian? You many dogs and cats those refugees with them?

I know the Statue of Liberty should welcome these huddled the more you think about it frightening it gets. I mean, domino theory was right and start falling too? San Francisco, Chicago, Baltimore, Lubbock?

You spill that many population and the countryside of towns will be ruined. We'd like but we just can't handle that. Couldn't start to find that many jobs, it's hopeless. Probably no tractor drivers in the whole

No sir. If we're smart we'll drive right now to save the cities. Here we've spent years herding into cities and trying to make happy there, and to let them over-run us now would be disaster. I'm warning you, we'd better take us years to get them all. I'm warning you, we'd better something about it.

Dada Man Writes Of Early Days In Hackberry School

Grease, the closer you got to the old stove the worse you would smell. "Wasn't alone that year. We had a game we played called "you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours".

If that didn't work we always had the old Hackberry Tree to back up to.

We had a turnover of teachers. They were all good considering what they had to work with. Wasn't easy to teach a bunch of kids who didn't want to learn.

About that time pro-Ledgerwood came along. Looking back now, I would put him in the class with Judge Roy Bean. "Made his own rules and Brother, you'd better not break them. Along came a holiday and I thought I would take a half day off, along with ten others. We skipped at recess and Ledgerwood caught us down by the Cemetery. About thirty willow switches later he marched us right back to the dear old Hackberry School House.

I remember about how all my teachers got to school. Some rode the Inter-Urbaan, some walked, some drove a T-Model and some by horse and buggy. One rode horse back. How I wanted to ride that horse! What a treat it would be, why, I'd have given my eye teeth just to ride him one time, the ones I wear now I'd better keep!

We did not have hot and cold running water, electricity nor flush type toilets. The boy's toilet was a twelve foot ditch running down hill west of the school house. The only running water we had was after a big rain, and we needed it! Later on, don't know what year it was, we got a brand new Boy's Three Holer. I can still smell that new lumber! But that smell didn't last long. We were proud of that new toilet! I'd get excused just to go sit in it. "Study my Arithmetic, roll me a Bull Durham cigarette and blow smoke through the knot holes."

I remember our dogs would follow us to school and we would go hunting and the teacher would send us home for smelling like a pole cat. And how the woodpeckers would try to peck their way into the school house. Teacher would go to the door to see if someone was there. Once the wind blew the girls outhouse over and everything stopped until we sat it up again. When it came my turn to build fires in the old stove I would throw in a few twenty-two shells to help wake them up.

I remember the fun we had, the games we played and once a year we would have our pictures made. That summer me and Robert Bray hitchhiked to Runnels County and worked for the Gas Company. A Spanish speaking foreman asked me if I had finished school and I said yes. He asked "what school", I said "Hackberry". I got a nickle more an hour than Robert did. I carried water, he dug ditches.

I remember the flowers that grew around the school (Sun Flowers). The girls would pull the tops and tell their fortune by pulling one yellow petal at a time, saying "Richman, Poorman, Beggaman, Thief, Doctor, Lawyer, Indian Chief" and then say "this year, next year, now or never, if I do get married it will be forever". Some did, some did not.

I remember the old well south of the school house and the crawfish I used to carry back to the school house in the bottom of the water bucket. And the drinking cups. My cup was a large snuff can. I remember the tacher would ring the bell, the kids would form a line and I would run like the devil to get there just in time to say "good morning teacher, I am glad to see you". Then we would sing "My School House 'tis of Thee, Good old Hackberry, of The I sing". If I could see all my teachers I would thank them for getting me to the seventh grade and putting up with me for the eight or nine years I was there. The last winter me and B. O. sold our pet chickens, caught the inter-urban to McKinney; we were going hunting... I can still hear the clickity clack of the wheels as it swayed to and fro. We started humming a tune. "Clickity clack, going hunting, not going back". Went hunting in the wrong woods. John Law caught us. "Where you boys from" he asked. "Hackberry", we answered. "Just where the hell is Hackberry?" We told him. "You can get right back on that car", said John Law. Different car going back but it was playing the same tune. Clickity Clack, been hunting, we are going back. Been hunting, we are going back."

I remember one heap big rain. The creek west of the schoolhouse got a quarter of a mile wide. As I watched our old cow and her calf bobbing up and down in that muddy water I said to myself, there goes the last of our fresh milk.

I made a couple of dollars that last winter. I sold my possum hides. Saw a Tom Mix movie, bought a Bill Bailey hair cut and a burger down at Hamburger Bills'. Stopped and wrestled with Barrett a spell and walked on down the hill.

The last teacher taught us a little of what they teach a lot of now. She told us there was catfish in the brook, showed us how to catch them, how to bait our hook. She told us why the birds build their nest in the trees and how they went to sleep at night with their heads under their wings, lots of other things; that honey was made by the bees.

The old concrete cellar is still there, the old Hackberry tree long gone. I remember it still, the one room school and the pot belly stove that sat on the side of the hill.

I hear my dogs barking so I will take them hunting.

They are growing old, I am growing old. This might be our last hung together. It is later than we think. Signed: The Old Bald Headed Man, 706 Ross St. Floydada, Texas, 79235.

Lockney And Floydada Receive Sales Tax Check

Austin — Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks worth $28.8 million Friday to more than 800 towns and cities in the third round of monthly city sales tax rebates.

Bullock said the June payments were considerably higher than the previous two months because of big end-of-the-quarter tax payments made by merchants following the April 30 deadline for reporting taxes they collected from the public in January, February and March.

Bullock converted the city sales tax payments to a monthly system in April to get away from the old quarterly rebate system which had been in use since the start of the city sales tax and which forced cities to wait 60 to 90 days for their money.

"The interest alone — at six per cent — on the $16 million we paid in April and the $19.9 million we paid in May was worth a good quarter of a million dollars to the cities just by not having to wait until now for a quarterly payment," Bullock said.

Every city which has adopted the one per cent local tax received payments this month regardless of the size of the rebate. Payments in the first and second month of each three-month cycle are not made on rebates of less than $500.

Floydada has received $5,917.21 since April. Lockney $3,075.16.
