16 Apartments

Floydada men met with Monday night and for the building of 16 in Floydada. The land on which the building is to be built has been approved. The building of Duncan Elementary will be built with money and should be finished by the end of the year. It is thought that the rent per month will be $125 to $175 according to size of apartment. The construction money will come through an FHA program and Al Harrison representing the local FHA office was present to help work out details. Also present were Bill Hale, Gene Ehler, David Kirk, O. M. Watson Jr. and Doug Frazier. The government program was agreed upon after it was evident that private enterprise wouldn't build rent houses for Floydada.

Rev. Warren To Hold Revival

Rev. Tom Warren, pastor of the Lakeview Baptist Church in Fort Worth, a former Floyd County resident, will be in revival at the Victory Baptist Church in Floydada each evening at 7:30 from July 7-13. There will also be special singing during the revival. Those wishing to attend and become re-acquainted with Rev. Warren and those wishing to hear this fine evangelistic speaker are invited to any portion or all of the revival. The public is welcome to attend.

Rock Chat By Wendell Tooley

Man who just ran up to me: "Excuse me, sir, the palefaced gentleman who appeared in your wife got tired of taking a taxi."

Dear Mr. Tooley, I am the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Noland of Floydada and was raised in the Center community, graduating from Floydada High School in 1953. As I was going through some of my parents papers the other day I found this clipping from the Floyd Co. Hesperian. I do not know the date but my mother graduated from FHS in 1925. Coach Wester was the father of Ed Wester and one of them might be able to tell you the year this article appeared. I thought it might be of interest to re-run in the paper or you might place it in the museum if they have a section for newspaper clippings. Sincerely, Ima Jean Powell

SERVICE WITH PRIDE... is the theme for Post Office workers and it worked for Freddie Morren. Freddie was awarded the coveted "Employee of the Month" trophy this week by Post Master Ed Wester (right). WHIRLWIND SQUAD HOME FROM EARLY TRAINING
"Slightly lame from exercise of unused muscles and with a few proudly exhibited skinned arms and legs, the twenty Whirlwind huskies who have been encamped for the past week at Silver Falls Lake returned home Friday at noon. Acting Coach Wester said that he was well pleased with the showing made by the boys in the pre-season training. He said that the new material showed to advantage and that with hard scrimmage the boys could be developed into a fighting machine characteristic of Floydada High School.

Phone Book Has 'Bicentennial' Cover

The Bell System's Bicentennial telephone directory cover makes one of its first West Texas appearances on the new-delivered directory for Floydada. "It's a Happy Birthday, America, present from the Bell System and Southwestern Bell," said Jim West, manager for Southwestern Bell.

United States through the Bicentennial celebration. A complete identification of each of the 32 characters and a description of the phones they use is printed on the inside back cover of each directory. The artist is Stanley Meltzoff of New Jersey, who did the artwork under commission of AT&T. His art has appeared in most of the nation's major magazines.

Coach Ike Jay will have two of the most important positions on the team to fill when he begins forming his first string eleven. Both wing men of last season, Kenneth Henry and Bill Daily, went out by graduation. A team's main defense and center of attack lies in its end positions and it was by developing these sections that Coach Wester has made the remarkable success that he has made during the past several years of his coaching here. None of the positions are definitely filled and Coach Wester said that with two teams fighting on the field it would take considerable time to select the men who will play in the opening game. A strong reserve is being planned, so that substitutions may be made at any time during play and the strength of the team remain intact. Real scrimmage practice is to be opened in a few days, it has been announced, and all students who have not signified their intention of trying for the team and wish to do so are asked to see Coach Ike Jay some time Monday or as early in the week as is possible. The equipment of eighteen complete suits is expected to arrive soon.

FIRST COTTON BLOOMS LATE

LUBBOCK — Those little white blooms on the High Plains' chief crop — cotton — will be appearing much later than usual, says a USDA Agricultural Research Service agronomist here.
Dr. J.D. Bilbro, who is based at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock, cites a recently completed three-year study measuring the relationship of maximum and minimum air temperatures and first bloom dates for High Plains cotton for his conclusions.

"Even if there were no other complicating factors the sub-normal temperatures we have had this spring have delayed the blooming of May-planted cotton by at least six days," Bilbro reports.
"Add to that the delaying effects of diseases and about 10 weeks." A majority of cotton planted by July 7 according to search data will probably be harvested before July 15.

fully ripe peaches; 1/4 cup lemon juice; one package of jam and jelly pectin; two sticks cinnamon; one teaspoon whole cloves; 1/2 teaspoon whole allspice; 4 cups sugar and 2 cups light corn syrup.

After rinsing, peeling and pitting, I find that crushing the peaches one at a time, allows more juice to flow. You should have about 4 cups peaches. Place in large kettle, add lemon juice and pectin; stir well. Tie spices together in cheese cloth and add to mixture. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Add sugar and corn syrup. Continue stirring and bring to a hard boil for about 4 minutes. Remove from heat and remove spice bag. Stir and skim about five minutes. Ladle into clean hot jars and process in boiling water five minutes. Makes 9 (8 oz.) containers.

FLOYDADA sure looked pretty and clean when we reached home. Everyone must have joined in the clean up campaign, however I still noticed some junk cars around.

A carpenter has saws and hammers and planes. An artist his oils and canvas; a writer has his typewriter and his imagination, but somehow I don't have one today, so I'll stay with my memories of a great vacation and get with you next week.

BY the way, you youngsters who are calling people at random in the wee hours of the night just to make smart-alec remarks, if you have nothing better to do, come over to my house and I'll give you some work to do, even if it is 2 o'clock in the morning. Hoe hands are needed, try that several hours a day and you will be too tired to call the working people and wake them up with your un-reasonable phone calls. What are you doing up at 2 a.m. anyway and don't your parents have a curfew for you????

The Annual Grubbs & Neal Reunion will be held Sunday, July 6th at the Massie Activity Center in Floydada.

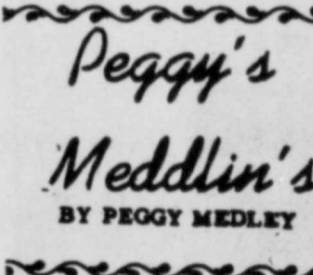

Everyone is invited to attend and bring a basket lunch, according to R. H. Grubbs.

HISTORIC DATES THIS MONTH

July 4. In 1836, on the 60th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, two of its principal signers, Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, both died.

July 4. The Statue of Liberty

WELL we have returned to the modern conveniences in Floydada after a mountain vacation for some ten days in New Mexico. It's been many a year since I have hauled water to heat for bath and dishes (separately of course) and somehow out of habit you automatically reach around for the handle but it isn't there. I wondered too about the sack of cement stored in the little wooden building until I was informed it was lime! Well, like I say, it's been a many a year!

The peace and quietness of a cabin home, along with a good book can certainly make one lazy, plus burning wood in the fireplace which we kept going all one day. If this popping fire crackers keep up, I may just return to the mountains too. By the way there is a city ordinance against fireworks inside the city limits, so you may want to warn the youngsters.

Some safety rules for July 4th, or other times concerning fire works include: always use a cleared area, away from structures or plant life, fireworks will ignite; have adult supervision; do not throw fireworks at or in cars; and do not explode such in cans or bottles. And remember do not shoot fireworks inside the city limits.

WE drove to Dallas over the weekend and noticed their peach crop is being harvested. I think most around here was killed off by frost, but if you happen to be lucky enough to acquire any, you might enjoy this recipe for Spiced Peach Jam. The recipe calls for 3 pounds of members." Several Texas counties conduct two-year interstate exchange programs, notes Garcia. These involve traveling one year to a selected county in the United States and then hosting the out-of-state 4-H group the next year.

The young people with the help of their county Extension agents and volunteer leaders select a 4-H group similar to their own. For example, a 4-H ecology project group in Texas may visit a similar group in Tennessee to study their educational activities, materials and programs. The following year, the 4-H group from Tennessee will visit the Texas group to see how they conduct their ecology activities. Both groups share ideas and make appropriate changes or additions for the future.

"Families at home can also play an important role in 4-H exchange programs by hosting 4-H'ers in their homes for one to three weeks," adds Herber.

Former 4-H'ers interested in international understanding can spend three to six months in one of 35 cooperating countries as an International 4-H Youth Exchange delegate. During their stay, delegates live with host families, studying 4-H programs abroad and sharing customs and traditions.

"As a 4-H exchangee or a host family, 4-H can open doors to understanding," contends Herber.

Floyd County will begin an exchange program with Nashville, Ind., starting July 6 and ending July 13. The youth will be staying with host families in Floyd County.

Many activities are planned including a night of folk games, a trip to Palo Duro Canyon to see "Texas," and County Camp.

"If anyone would like more information about the exchange program please contact the extension office," adds Herber.

best for most camping purposes, but cotton knit shirts and blouses are cooler for hot spells.

DO pack for convenience. Pack so that when you reach a campsite, first things come out first—the tent and sleeping gear, then the camping equipment, then clothing, etc.

DON'T forget to observe camping etiquette. Open fires should be kept low to avoid sending sparks all over. When you leave the campsite, the fire should be doused with water and every spark extinguished.

DO let someone of authority in the area, like the police or forest ranger, know where you'll be camping out. And know where the nearest physician is in case of an emergency.

DON'T carry clothes in the airtight and potentially dangerous thin film bags that dry cleaners use, especially if you have playful and curious small children. Instead, use heavy transparent plastic zipper bags, which you can see through at a glance.

Do end your vacation on the same note it began—a note pitched for family fun! Complete first-aid kit, and know how to use it. One good item to include is a can of Rhuil Spray, a highly effective treatment for poison ivy and poison oak as well as insect bites, mild sunburn and other minor skin irritations.

DON'T take your complete wardrobe with you. Make a list—then leave half the items behind. Drip-dry synthetic fabrics perform is responsible for a child-care facility, has to obtain a license to operate from the State Department of Public Welfare. This law applies to home child-care facilities as well as larger day care operations — with separate minimum requirements for each. The primary purpose of such a licensing law is to insure optimum physical, mental, intellectual, and emotional development for children who are away from home during portions of the day. Licensing procedures are relatively simple and require, among other things, fire and sanitation inspections of the facility, health inspections for all persons who will be associated with the children, and in some cases, gas leakage inspec-

Bollmans Attend Duff Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollman of Lockney attended the Duff family reunion this past weekend at Lake Whitney. At the reunion were descendants of Robert and Mary Jane Farnsworth Duff. Robert Duff was born in Henderson County, Tennessee on January 25, 1833 and Mary Duff was born on March 2, 1832 in McNair County, Tennessee. Mrs. Bollman has traced her family history and Mary Duff was a half-sister to her grandfather's family.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Bollman and former Lockney resident Bill Bollman now of Houston; also Frank and Mary Bobbitt, Sylacauga, Alabama; John W. Bobbitt of Washington, D.C.; Billie Bobbitt and Tate Dairymple of McAllen; Mattie McGreggor, Charles and Peggy McGreggor; Ellen McGreggor of Waco; Grace Bobbitt Evans of Effingham; Mildred Bobbitt Hamilton of Bryan; Joel I McGreggor and Mary Emily McGreggor of Marlin, Texas; Martha, Mike and Matt Boyle of Bonham, Brenda and Bobbitt McGregor of West, Texas; Charles and Goldie Duff of Laguna Park, Texas; Charles Lee Duncan of Collinsville, Oklahoma; Joe Allen, Joan, Michael and Lori of Kruegerville; Roy and Paula Duff of Sherman; June and Howard Duff of Deer Park; Irene Duff, Stephen and Tanya of Houston; Jim and Bonnie Purdon of Fort Smith, Arkansas; Walter and Aleta Duff of Eldhart; Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Duff of Huntsville.

Also attending were Ronald and Libby Duff, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Duff, Don Duff of Dallas; Bill and Helen Selby of Ballinger; Tommy Selby and Gerald Battles of Lubbock; Sam and Eula Duff of Ft. Worth; James Murphy and Dorothy Jeanne, Bill and Ray of Santa Rosa; Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Middleton of Waxahachie; Gordon and Helen Hand of Wichita Falls; Frank Duff Hand and Edith, Nancy, Frank Jr. of San Antonio; Willetta Hand Peek of Austin; Betty Duff Mitchell, Roland and Max of San Antonio; Jo Anne Gage, Lee Middleton, Frank Middleton, W. G. and Marth Middleton, Blair and Erin Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cypert, Ora Maye Bobbitt, Lorraine Bobbitt and LaVerna Edens, Doris and Frank McGreggor, Matt and Maud Duff all of Hillsboro; and Joel McGreggor and Mary Emily McGreggor of Marlin, Texas.

After the reunion, Mr. and Mrs. Bollman came by Peoria and visited with Allie Huddleston and in Hamilton with Mrs. Pwyche Burton and on to Lampassas with the V. E. Spears family.

There is no charge for the license.

The benefits licensing can bring to the community are many. First, it is a protective service for children in that it sets minimum standards for care. Second, it is an aid to parents who seek information on available facilities. Third, it provides information and resources for the operator of a day care facility. Consultation and printed materials are available free of charge for use by day care providers. In addition, the day care operator is provided with free advertisement by means of a list of licensed facilities which is distributed to the general public.

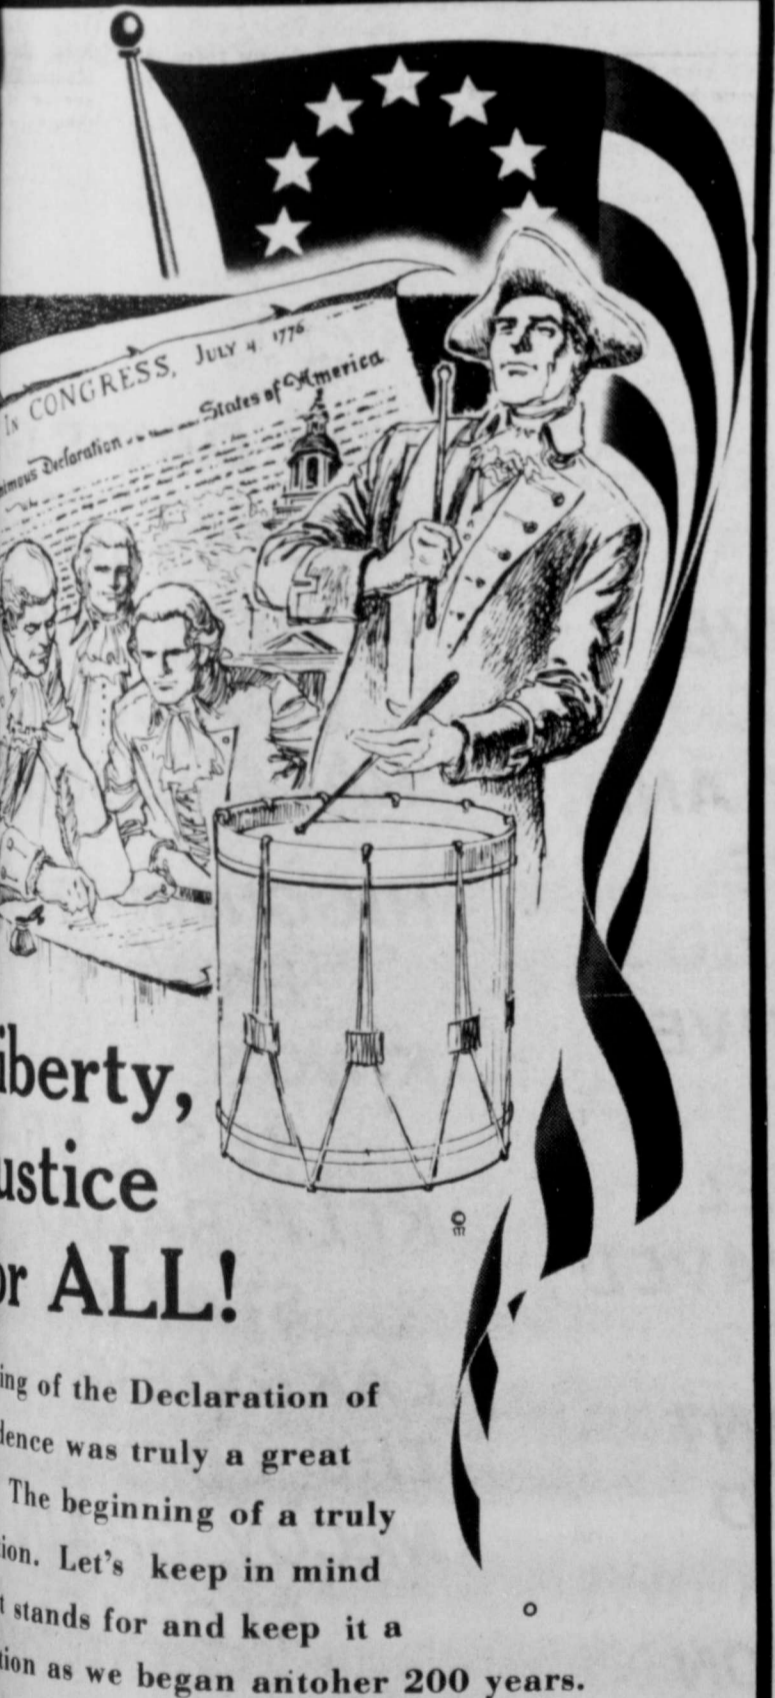

Often times parents must find a place to leave their children in an emergency situation. Frequently, they do not have time to visit the facility and observe its operation before placing their child in it. Therefore, they may be unaware of health, sanitation, fire, and psychological dangers which could be present in the facility. By leaving the child in a licensed facility, they can be assured that it has passed recent fire, sanitation, and health inspections, and that the child rearing techniques practiced are not detrimental to the child's well being.

How To Leave Your Lawn Mower

If you're one of the approximately seven million Americans who have bought themselves riding mowers or lawn and garden tractors this year, you should be sure before you put it away that you know how to take care of that task, and yourself. These four tips might help keep you from getting all cut up over your lawn mower.

1. Never reach into the blade to clean it unless you're sure the mower is off and the power is turned off. Stop the engine and disconnect or remove the spark plug before making any repairs. Wait, listen and look.
2. Be sure to drain all gasoline out of the mower before putting it away. Store that gas in a strong, metal, clearly marked, safety-type can with a self-closing cap and keep it away from children, and combustible materials.
3. Read once more the owner's manual that all riding and power mowers made by members of the Outdoor Power Equipment Institute come equipped with, before you use your machine again.
4. Put the mower away in a safe place, where children and pets can't get at it—and it can't get at them.

If you follow these suggestions, now, both you and your lawn mower are more likely to be around to cut the grass next year!

Rain showers which fell here Monday night, June 23rd, gave much needed moisture to the eastern part of our community, with about an inch or more, and the western part which had had big rains several times received another two inches. There was not enough hail to damage crops, for which we are so thankful. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian left Friday for Roscoe to visit in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Julian, Dee and Dickie. Dee returned Sunday from a week of Band meeting in Waco, at Baylor College. Terry and his father brought her home. The Julians also visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder went to Silverton Sunday afternoon where services were held for the infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Durham at the Silverton Cemetery. Mrs. Durham is Mrs. Mulder's niece, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Fitzgerald.

Beverly Kinnibrugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnibrugh, finished her college classes last Thursday, June 26, in Fort Worth, and on July 7th she will be entering Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene where she will be a laboratory technician.

Mrs. Beth Norrell of Liberal, Kansas was visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Calahan and Randy on Wednesday of last week, and attended funeral services with her family for Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wood and Ky Ray, at the First Baptist Church in Silverton.

Father of Mrs. Keith Marble, G. H. Robertson of Plainview was brought home from the Methodist Hospital last Friday, after he had undergone heart surgery there in Lubbock ten days ago. We are so glad to know he is doing just fine.

Kay Lynn Smitherman of Austin has been here the past week visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smitherman in Floydada. She will be with them another week. Her parents, are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smitherman of Austin.

The next regular Baptist Church Conference will be at the South Plains Baptist Church Wednesday night, July 10th, at 8 p.m. Please make plans to attend this business meeting.

The grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nichols, David Allen, stationed in the Navy with home base in Moyock, North Carolina, is now aboard the S.S. Kennedy, and will be stationed on this ship for the coming seven months. His family are in Moyock, N. Dak.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Marble went to Idalou Wednesday to visit the family of Mrs. J. E. Franklin, who resided between Idalou and Lubbock. She had undergone heart surgery on Tuesday, and died during the surgery. Mrs. Franklin has farms here in Floyd County in the Harmony Community.

Comptroller Going After State Taxes

AUSTIN — Comptroller Bob Bullock said Wednesday that some 1,800 delinquent taxpayers in the Lubbock area owe more than $1 million in state sales taxes and almost $250,000 in city sales taxes.

The back taxes owed in the Lubbock area are part of $59 million owed by an estimated 70,000 delinquent sales tax accounts statewide. Bullock has assigned a special task force in his office to set up an aggressive collection system.

The Lubbock area delinquents are those under the jurisdiction of the Lubbock district field office which covers the counties of Bailey, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Dickens, Garza, Lynn, Borden, Dawson and Gaines.

Also Terry, Yoakum, Cochran, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Crosby, Cottle, King and Kent.

The Lubbock office is in Suite 400 of the Terrace Shopping Center (4902 34th Street); the telephone number is (Area Code 806) 795-0691.

The Lubbock area delinquents date back to 1962 and range from a few dollars to one case owing $27,088 in state sales taxes, Bullock said, and $8,855 in city sales taxes.

Bullock said the Lubbock area delinquents, just like the rest of the state, "show no pattern and certainly no reason why these accounts were permitted to go delinquent in the first place or why they have been permitted to stay that way.

Area-by-area reports on delinquents will be released for the rest of the state as soon as they are prepared, Bullock said. His special task force includes personnel from the Comptroller's legal, sales tax and field operations divisions as well as from Bullock's personal office.

Bullock has warned that many of the delinquencies "may be so old that we'll never get the money."

JOE ROY BAXTER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kerwin Baxter, formerly of Floydada has recently signed a scholarship to play basketball at Lon Morris Jr. College at Jacksonville, Texas. Joe, an all-district player in 8-AAAA set three new records at JJ Pearce High School in Richardson, Texas: the highest number of rebounds in an individual game of 27, the most rebounds in one season of 480, and the highest rebound average for one year of 15 per game. Joe was the leading scorer for the Mustangs this year with a total of 584 points. The 6-8 senior averaged 18.5 points per game while pulling down 15 rebounds a contest. Joe is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Baxter and the great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lyles of Floydada.

Industry Going Rural

NEW YORK (UPI) — Americans are migrating from the nation's cities back to rural areas where a recent influx of industry has created job opportunities twice as fast as urban employers.

"This is the age of rural vindication," said William Erwin, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

In fiscal 1975, the Department of Agriculture has guaranteed $3.2 billion in incentive loans for housing and community facilities and $350 million in business and industrial loans encouraging the renaissance in non-metropolitan America.

The turnaround came in the early 1970's after decades of rural depletion during which millions of Americans left the nation's farms to seek greener pastures in the cities, Erwin said.

Between 1970 and 1973, rural areas had a net immigration of 1,146,000 people following a net population loss of 2,996,000 in the decade 1960-1970. In the years after World War II through 1970, 28 million Americans deserted non-metro regions for urban centers.

"A key force behind the population shift was the decision of the manufacturing sector to move into rural areas in the early Sixties," said Dr. William Motes, director of economic development and economic research for USDA. "In rural areas, manufacturing employment began to grow more rapidly than in the cities."

In 1970, the service industries built plants in non-urban communities, opening still further job opportunities for rural residents and disenfranchised city dwellers.

"Between 1970 and 1973, the rate of increase in jobs was twice as high in rural areas as in urban areas," Erwin said.

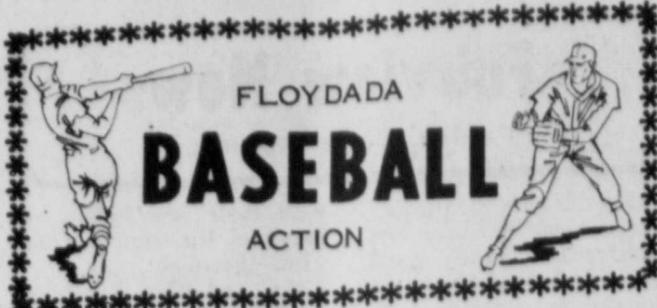

According to USDA estimates for the three-year period, employment in non-metropolitan areas increased at an annual rate of 2.6 per cent compared with a rise of only 1.2 per cent in metropolitan centers.

Unlike the runaway textile industry which moved south in the Fifties in search of non-union labor and lower overhead, many companies are opening second plants and new branches in rural areas rather than fleeing the cities, according to Erwin. "It's simply a choice of where do you expand."

The USDA, empowered under the Rural Development Act of 1972 to assist rural lenders in financing business, industrial and community development, is prohibited from guaranteeing "piracy type" loans to entice companies away from the cities, Erwin explained.

"Cultural reasons play a major role in the industrial expansion in rural areas," according to Erwin, a former Indiana farmer who has served as assistant secretary for rural development since 1971.

Many employers believe productivity is higher in rural areas, the lower crime rate minimizes theft in storage facilities and plants, and the rural value system is attractive to young people anxious to relocate, he said.

PIONEER NATURAL GAS COMPANY
(A Division of PIONEER CORPORATION)

Major companies also are opening branches in non-metro areas because of better highways, closer proximity to natural resources, cheaper labor and the problems plaguing the cities, according to Motes.

Despite the rebirth of the nation's rural areas, the massive migration to the cities in past decades has left a legacy of poverty, substandard housing, a substantial salary lag, and lower educational achievement. "The human needs of rural areas have been neglected," Erwin said.

In 1973, the average non-metropolitan family earned $10,366, or 20 per cent less than the $12,961 median annual income of the metropolitan family.

"The incidence of occupied substandard housing is twice as high in rural areas as in the cities," the assistant secretary said. The educational level attained by rural residents is half a year lower than average schooling completed by urbanites.

Although pollution has become synonymous with city life, emphysema is 70 per cent higher in rural areas, according to Erwin. The coal mining regions account for only part of the unexplained outbreak. Dust-related diseases also occur with much greater frequency in non-metro regions.

The USDA Farmers Home Administration has mounted a broad assistance program to help rural America eradicate these inequities. For fiscal 1975 the FHA has guaranteed $2.2 billion in incentive loans for rural housing, half of which are subsidized loans to low-income people unable to obtain credit elsewhere, according to Erwin. The FHA also has backed $1.03 billion in loans for improved water and sewage facilities in rural communities.

The Department's Rural Development Service is completing a preventive medicine program for rural areas, which suffer from a shortage of doctors and medical services.

The population shift to non-urban communities and the

BURT REYNOLDS (Number 22) is injured during an explosive football game inside prison walls in Paramount Pictures' "The Longest Yard." The Albert S. It was filmed on location inside a maximum security prison from a screenplay by Tracy Keenan Wynn based on a story by Albert S. Ruddy. Also co-starring Ed Lauter, the film was produced by Albert S. ELECTRIC AIR Conditioning does more than cool!

Electric air conditioning is more than a way of keeping cool during the summer weather. Cool it does, but more, too. Besides cooling, electric conditioning filters out dust and dirt, removes excess moisture and keeps out noise. An electric air conditioner circulates air. It de-humidifies, moving the excess moisture through the discomfort and creates mildew.

With electric air conditioning you get quiet, clean and comfortably cool air conditioning is one of the best improvement bargains available. Many features that make a home a place to live.

Choose your air conditioner carefully. A unit with a capacity that is too small will not keep you cool when you want it. A unit too large will cool too fast and provide insufficient dehumidification. The result—a cold clammy feeling. Be sure you select the proper size. Let your dealer estimate your cooling load before you buy.

The Floyd Philosopher

Way To End Unemployment ,
Almost, With One Item Missing

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm struggles with an idea this week, you might say.

Dear editor:

As Calvin Coolidge used to say, the cure for unemployment is more jobs, but of course the rub is, how can you create more jobs? I have given this some thought and I believe what we need is a sensational new invention that'll take the country by storm. We just can't rely on the old ones anymore. I mean, take cars. Sure, making cars provides a lot of jobs but there's a limit to it, as Detroit is beginning to see. Or take clothes. Changing women's styles every year helps employment in the garment industry, just as convincing men that wide-flared trousers are in right now but narrow ones will be back before the wide ones are worn out. Same thing goes for ties. Also, I've always thought that the plumbers let the economy down when they didn't try to persuade homeowners that styles in bathtubs and other bathroom items should change every spring. Bring out a new model tub every year in different colors and hood design and have people embarrassed to be using last year's model. The piano people made the same mistake. I know people who've had the same piano for 50 years. With violins it's even worse.

But even so, all that wouldn't have been enough. What we need to create more jobs is some brand-new invention people simply can't live without, like television. You know, when television first appeared 90 per cent of the people already had all the time-payments they could handle. They were up to their necks and nobody could imagine how they could take on one more major gadget, yet, as everybody knows, 90 per cent of the homes in the country now have television sets, and some have two, especially homes where children are unmanageable and two sets are required if the grown-ups get to watch what they want.

Clearly, the answer to 9 per cent unemployment is some new invention I haven't been able to think up. Oh, I thought of a few, like air-conditioned lawnmowers or TV screens as big as one side of a room so you can see the entire football field instead of the rear end of the quarterback, but those are stop-gap half-measures. Not enough universal appeal.

In the mind of some lonely inventor or abstract-minded scientist working late in some laboratory there must be lurking un-born some un-heard-of idea which, once sprung on us, none of us can live without, and the production of which will create thousands and thousands of jobs. Don't worry, we'll find the money to buy it with somehow, and full employment will be at hand.

Has President Ford thought of offering a big prize for such an idea? The election is only about a year away.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.
