Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm examines the economists again this week. Dear editor:

Most of the economists, who didn't know the recession was coming, are now saying it's ending, at least if not this quarter then the next quarter or the next one after that, I'll take half what they're getting and somewhat like the football coach who said he consider my salary inflationary. could have won if there'd been five or maybe six quarters in the game.

So now the problem, they say, is inflation which, as one of them said, "everybody knows is caused by too much money chasing too few goods." This of course leaves out one other factor: the greed that cases bigger and bigger mark-ups. With us and the Arabs for example, it's less and less money chasing more and more oil at higher and higher prices. And sometimes I get the feeling some outfits in this country are using the Arab things are getting worse; Part C will say they're going to stay about the same. Whichever way things go, you can look back six months from now, pick out one prediction and ignore the other two, and say, you know, he was right about that.

I don't know what economists get paid, but

Changing the subject, I see that our friend New York, the city with lots of brains but not enough sense to manage its money, has re-financed with a big loan and is now able to pay its bills for the next few months at least, for which the mayor has heaved a sigh of

It reminds me of the man who had a note coming due at the bank and couldn't meet it. After spending three sleepless nights before the due date worrying about it he went in and confessed to the banker he simply couldn't pay off. The banker let him sweat a while and then agreed to renew the note.

The man signed quickly, came out of the bank, wiped his brow, and said, "Man, am I glad to get that debt settled."

Yours faithfully,

What One Person Can Do

Jeremiah was a born loser. A "small-town boy" who did not like the prospect of going to Jerusalem to be God's prophet, he went because he would not say 'no" to the God who called him. But Jeremiah was not naive in assessing the difficulties he would have to face in the chaotic days preceding the carrying off of the Jews into exile at Babylon.

Jeremiah was mocked, his honesty was questioned, his effectiveness was nil. He was thrown into a muddy dungeon, scorned by the very people he was trying to save. From the brink of despair, he complained to the Lord for getting him into such a mess: "I am a daily laughingstock, everybody's butt... The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long. . . A curse on the day when I was born...Why ever did I come out of the womb to live in toil and sorrow to end my days in shame!" But he never lost hope. He predicted that God would not abandon His people, but would lead them through harsh circumstances to a new covenant of Jeremiah knew that faith and hope enable a loser to turn even defeat into success in the long run. More than any other single biblical person, he demonstrates that "failure of nerve" may be the only real failure; that adversity does not ruin us, because it is our own reaction to adversity that ultimately determines whether we succeed of whether we fail.

By Congressman Omar Burleson

WASHINGTON, D.C. Congressman Omar Burleson (D-Texas), author of a comprehensive welfare reform measure introduced in the House of Representatives on March 18, 1975, described the need for welfare reform legislation in this session of Congress as 'more urgent than ever" in light of recent statistics released by HEW on growth in the AFDC program

"In its most recent release of caseload statistics", Congressman Burleson noted, "HEW cites an AFDC caseload of 11,239,611 - the highest in history. This translates into the fact that one out of every eight children in this country i on welfare - when it was one out of twenty just eight years ago. In some of the nation's largest metropolitan centers, the ratio has reached an incredible one in

Congressman Burleson joined with 74 co-sponsors in the House and 19 in the Senate to introduce the National Welfare Reform Act, which is designed to save $1.7 billion in tax funds by closing loopholes and curbing abuses, enabling additional resources to be needy. The provisions of the legislation include a gross income limit on those who may qualify for welfare, photo-identification and other fraud control measures, requirements on more effec tive use of recipient resources, more stringent family support require-

THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD TEXT: 1 Kings 10:7

I. THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD ABOUT HIS BIRTH Two thousand years ago there was born in a little obscure town, in a little obscure province, of a little obscure country, called Palestine, an unusual child. The Birth Of JESUS was no ordinary birth, but the most wonderful, the most miraculous birth that ever took place from the beginning of the world, for it was the incarnation of the God of the universe in a little babe. Yes JESUS was the Virgin Born son of God, I'd like to write it in lumnious letters across the face of the world!

II. THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD ABOUT HIS DEATH I wish I were an artist so I could paint you a picture of Calvary so that you would never forget it.

The Lord of Glory is dying! No wonder the sin refused to shine - the Son of Righteousness was rising with healing in His wings. No wonder the rocks left their ancient choesions - the Rock of Ages was being rifted. Then and there in the presence of Heaven and earth, and hell — yea all worlds witnessing — the awful price was paid to set us free.

III. THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD ABOUT HIS RESURRECTION

Up from the grave He arose and a mighty triumph o'er His foes! He reached down and took the wheels off the chariots of Death and walked out on the other side and dangled the keys to His side and said, "I'm HE that was dead and am alive, and behold I'm alive forevermore; and because I live you shall live also!"

IV. THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD ABOUT HIS ASCENSION

After spending forty days on the earth following His resurrection Jesus led His disciples out to the Mount of Ohizes. And while they stood in a little semi-circle about Him, He gave His valedictory address. "Lift up your heads Oh ye gates, and be ye lifted up oh ye éverlasting doors, and let the King of Glory

V. THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD ABOUT HIS PRESENT

If God created the heavens and the earth in just six days, what must that city be like - Jesus has been working on it for two thousand years! Oh what will it be like in that day when I mount up along the glittering circle of the stars and my eyes behold for the first time the marvels of that city — the mansions, the angels, the trees of life, the hills of glory. What will it be like to enter through those gates of pearl, and walk down those boulevards of gold, and heir to a mansion, a throne and a crown.

No the half has not been told! 1 Kings 10:7 - Howbeit I believed not the word, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: Thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

But I haven't read anything about the plight of the people who have to listen in to all that telephone talk.

I have never talked to a Congressman on the telephone, but if they don't say any more on the phone than they do in a letter when you ask them something they don't want to answer or take sides on, the wire-tappers are in for some dreary listening. Imagine having to listen a tape recording of everything a Congressman says on the telephone 24 hours a day for 30 days. You'd have to pan a mighty long time before you got any gold out of that undertaking, particularly with a Congress that didn't know any more than you and me about what the CIA has been up to; in fact, a Congress that went a year without knowing we had a war going in Cambodia.

Of course the answer to all that wire-tapping, like the answer to most problems, is simple; put everybody in Washington on an 8-party line. Best way I know to keep secret, juicy information from getting around. In three weeks time every telephone conversation in Washington would be painstakingly guarded.

Yours faithfully,

Fresh Peach Season N

COLLEGE STATION Fresh peaches — a sure sign of summer - are in season now. That means consumers ean find highest quality and lowest prices now, Marilyn Haggard, foods and nutrition specialist said this week.

She advised selecting peaches that are bright in color, plump, fresh looking, fairly firm and free from bruises.

"Shy away from peaches that are close to overripe, be cause a small bruised or overripe spot quickly takes over the entire peach," the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

Ripening can be delayed temporarily by refrigerator storage. Peaches can be kept refrigerated for three to five
