Vegetable Packing Plants In Full Operation

BELL TOOLEY reports that the vegetable packing plants in Floyd County are in full operation. The plants are processing and trucking out to grocery stores all over the nation. Manager Chuck Holmes said most of the onions are going to New York and east of the Mississippi River. "Onion prices are great . . . and I wish we had more to pack in this area . . . supply and demand rules, and the supply is low this year," Holmes told a Hesperian reporter. Holmes said his plant would switch to bell pepper processing in early September. During the onion harvest about 175 people are working in the fields and in the plant.

A TRUE STORY
A conservative farmer entered a bank in Reidsville, N.C., in April to borrow a thousand dollars. The banker requested a financial statement, and the farmer, being truthful, told all the debts he owed. The banker, trying to be helpful, suggested to the farmer that what he needed was a 20-year loan which would help him pay off his liabilities. The farmer looked amazed at the suggestion and replied, "Man, I didn't owe a red cent on Jan. 1. That's just my 1975 operating expenses!" The above story is true. It is funny — but also ridiculous. It makes one wonder: How much longer can the American farmer stand the pace?

College Classes

Still Available

Three college classes met this week in the Floydada High School building under direction of South Plains College Regional Occupational Center. The classes included Business Math, Human Relations, and Accounting I. All are transferrable to other Texas colleges.

The summer education program is under the sponsorship of the Floyd County Historical Museum as a part of their Bicentennial activities. Fall classes will offer a wider variety of academic and vocational subjects for students.

Persons interested in a Museum technology class should meet at the Floydada High School Monday night, July 21, at 7 when an instructor will be there from Levelland to discuss local needs and interests in the course.

Museum Board members voted at their regular quarterly meeting Monday to encourage all Museum members to take the course. This would provide a backlog of trained museum workers whose interests could be used creatively over the years.

LOCKNEY AND FLOYDADA

Receive Sales Tax Checks

Austin — Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling $11.4 million Tuesday to Texas towns and cities for their monthly July city sales tax payments. The total July payments were smaller than the June rebates, Bullock said, because the June payments included "clean-up" allocations of money carried over or coming in late from the last round of quarterly tax payments received from merchants. "We have now refined our system such that not a penny of city sales tax money can stay in this office longer than 45 days before being sent back to the city," Bullock said. "This is a far cry and a grand improvement from the old quarterly system with its 60 and 90-day delays." Bullock said when the monthly system was started that cities could expect two smaller payments followed by a third larger "clean-up" payment in each three month cycle. During the first two months of the cycle — including this month — payments are not made to cities whose allocation is less than $500. Lockney received $921.88 and Floydada received $1,151.57.

FLOYDADA'S IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM goes on as Girl Scouts work in front of the MAC to clean and beautify it. Girl Scouts will use the flag poles at the MAC each morning and afternoon for the opening and closing ceremonies during Day Camp E-HA-WEE, July 21st through 25th. (Staff Photo)

First United Methodist Church in Petersburg was the setting for the July 19th wedding of Gay Ann Miller and Mark Rodney Hall. Rev. Lee Crouch, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Beights, John Weathers Marry Saturday

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. John Ray Weathers will make their home in Dalhart when they return from their wedding trip to points in New Mexico. Weathers and the former Miss Donna Jan Beights pledged double ring wedding vows Saturday night in First United Methodist Church of Loraine.

Mrs. Weathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Beights of Texas City, is a graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in speech pathology. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom R. Weathers of Lockney. He also is a graduate of Texas Tech University and will be employed this fall as vocational agriculture teacher in Dalhart High School.

Dr. J. Edmund Kirby, uncle of the bride, of Lubbock, directed the exchange of wedding promises. The altar area was accented with candelabra tied with yellow bows. The church is the home church of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bond of Loraine.

Mrs. J. L. Taylor of Loraine was organist and she accompanied the church's pastor, Rev. Duane Roever, who was soloist.

Proceeding the bride down the church aisle were the matron of honor, Mrs. Ray L. Beights, the bride's sister-in-law from Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and bridesmaids Mrs. Ken Albus of Pep, Miss Mona Strange of Lubbock and Miss Bev Stickland of Lubbock. Flower girls were the groom's nieces, Laura Bloys of Lubbock and Melissa McEachern of Plainview. Ring bearers were the groom's gowned identically in apricot jersey jacket style dresses. The semi-halter bodices featured a high sunburst neckline edged with a standup ruffle and the high peaked waistlines were complemented with full circular skirts. Each carried nosegays of flowers identical to the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Scott Miller registered guests at the wedding and reception which followed. A candlelight wedding cake, topped with fresh flowers, was served along with punch from silver appointments. The attendant's nosegays completed the table setting.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Colorado and Wyoming.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hall are graduates of Petersburg High School. She graduated in December, 1974, from West Texas State University and the groom graduated in 1974 from Texas Tech.

The couple will reside at 811 N. 13th Street in Lamesa where both will teach in the Lamesa School system. Mrs. Hall is an elementary teacher and her husband a band director.

The feminine attendants wore dresses of pastel blue knit fashioned with bolero jackets of blue, yellow and green print voile. The jackets had butterfly sleeves and front ties. Their wide-brimmed hats were accented with voile, matching the jackets. Each carried a yellow, long-stemmed rose.

Tom Weathers served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Bill Cathy, cousin of the groom, of Stonewall, Keith Phillips and Tommy Billington of Lockney.

Directing guests to their seats were ushers Ray L. Beights, brother of the bride of Tahlequah, F. L. Curtis, cousin of the bride of Lake Dallas, and the groom's brothers-in-law, David Bloys of Lubbock and Doyle McEachern of Plainview.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her dress of polyester crepe was designed and made by her mother. The gown's scooped neckline and long, slender sleeves were trimmed in lace ruffles. The A-line skirt was edged with a ruffle of the same lace. She wore a wide-brimmed hat, which was also trimmed in lace.

Miss Nancy Weathers of Lubbock, the groom's sister, registered guests at the reception which followed the wedding service. The bride's table was laid with a hand-crocheted cloth, belonging to her grandmother, over pale yellow. The white, tiered cake was trimmed in yellow and blue and was topped with white doves. Attendants were Mrs. B. E. Smith of LaMarque, Mrs. F. L. Curtis, the bride's cousin of Lake Dallas, Mrs. Tom Wright of Big Spring, and Mrs. Johnny Clay Curtis, the bride's cousin of Loraine.

Ann Barton, Bruce McFall Wed June 7th In Matador

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McFall are residing on the Mott Creek Ranch, Route 4, Floydada, where he is employed by Mrs. W. E. Burleson, following the couple's double ring wedding read in Matador June 7th.

ART OF CHILD RAISING

The art of child raising is a challenge to all of us... difficult yet rewarding. When you stop and consider that children will usually do as you do, not as you say, it's easy to understand the importance of setting the youngsters a good example with your own behavior.

Rev. Sid Parsley of Quitaque performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock p.m. in the First United Methodist Church, before an altar of gladiolas, roses and greenery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blake B. Barton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sid McFall all of Route 4, Floydada.

Mrs. Steve Barton, Floydada, sister-in-law of the bride, was maid of honor, and sisters of the newlyweds, Miss Christene Barton and Miss Beth McFall, Floydada, were bridesmaids.

Tim Washington of Flomot, was best man, and Steve Barton, Floydada, brother of the bride, was usher.

Wedding selections were presented by Mrs. H. R. Jameson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white sheer organza over silk. Lace edged the ruffled sleeves and also accented the waist and neckline. The long full skirt swept into a chapel length train bordered in matching lace. Her double veil descended from a pearlized and lace trimmed capulet.

bouquet of white, pink and red roses, touched with baby's breath and clustered in lace with lace streamers.

Carrying out the tradition of something old was a fragrance from her grandmother, Mrs. John Burton; something new were earrings; something borrowed were pearls from the groom's mother, and the touch of blue, her wedding garter.

The maid of honor was gowned in an empire style ensemble of dotted pink swiss with an underlining of pink, fashioned with long cuffed sleeves, touched at the waist with white lace. She carried a bouquet of red, pink and white roses with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were gowned in dotted swiss, red on white with pink underlining and white on red with red underlining. Both gowns were fashioned with lace empire waists, and ruffled at the sleeves and necklines.

They carried long stemmed roses, one white, one red and one pink, with baby's breath and ribbon streamers.

A reception following the wedding was held in the church parlor given by Mrs. Charlie Scoff. The table was covered with a red net cloth over white, touched with white bows and streamers. Mrs. Steve Barton and Christene Barton served the three tiered cake decorated with cascades of red and pink roses, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Beth McFall served the red fruit punch with red ice hearts. Mrs. Scoff also assisted.

Among out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. S. C. Burleson and Dusty, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald the groom's brother, served as best man, and James Burns of Texline was groomsmen.

A reception following the wedding was held in the church's fellowship hall. Serving refreshments were Miss Patsy Burt of Lockney and Miss Suzanne Peek of Lockney. Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Carl Lee Jr., Marjorie Martin, Paul Teuton, M. E. Cooper and David Jackson.

The bride's bouquet arranged on a three-branch candelabra holding blue tapers centered the serving table. The triple-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed in blue and white and topped with wedding bells.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Plainview until late August, and then move to Canyon where he will continue his education at West Texas State University.

Mrs. Baker was graduated from Lockney High School and attended West Texas State University for one year. Her husband is a graduate of Texline High School. He is employed this summer with the Texas Highway Department.

Monday Deadline On Sales Tax

AUSTIN — Comptroller Bob Bullock reminded 225,000 retail businesses Monday that July 31 is the deadline for sending in quarterly sales tax reports. "Late reports are nothing but headaches for the taxpayer and for the Comptroller's Office," Bullock said. "I'd like to see every quarterly report filed on the deadline."

Reports due July 31 cover the April-May-June quarter. Forms for the reports were sent to all sales tax permit holders by Bullock's office in June.

"Most of the delinquent or tardy reports are just oversights and simple mistakes, but the consequences under the law are just the same," Bullock said.

Awards To Train College

Graduates As Museum Directors

The Texas Historical Commission will train four young college graduates for positions as directors of small museums, in a unique one year program combining extensive practical experience and theoretical learning in all phases of museum operation.

The program is funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Interns will be based in Austin but will spend varying lengths of time at museums throughout Texas.

Training will emphasize the role of the small museum as a force in interpreting community cultural heritage to various segments of the public. Experience with history, science and art collections; with ethnic minority, school, elderly, urban and rural audiences; and with many types of exhibits, audiovisual techniques, guided tours, and publications will be com-

Food Stamp Fraud

WASHINGTON—Scandalously loose federal regulations are taking food from the mouths of the needy and giving it, at taxpayers' expense, to the undeserving.

The federal food stamp program has degenerated into a gigantic boondoggle. What began 10 years ago as a modest federal project funded at $40 million has mushroomed into a fiscal monster that will devour $5 billion of the taxpayers' money this year.

Use of food stamps has increased from one of every 439 Americans in 1965 to one of every 13 Americans today, and the growth of the program is likely to be even more astronomical in the future. Under present regulations, one of every four Americans is eligible for food stamps, and that could easily grow to one of every three Americans.

Under present regulations:

- Some able-bodied persons who do not want to work can get food stamps;
- Owners of jewelry, furs and luxury appliances can get food stamps;
- Minor children can get food stamps without parental consent or control.

Enough is enough. It is time to put a halt to the flagrant abuses of the food stamp program. I have joined with Sen. James Buckley and nearly 70 other members of the Senate in sponsoring the National Food Stamp Reform Act while at the same time increasing benefits to needy food stamp recipients by as much as 20 percent. The National Food Stamp Reform Act contains provisions to reduce the overall cost of the program by eliminating fraud and abuse and by tightening requirements.

Administration of the food stamp program transferred from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare will eliminate costly administrative duplication in the system.

Among the reforms the bill would make: —Use of federal government indices to determine food stamp eligibility;

—Elimination of the present complicated and costly deductions which make it possible for a family to receive as much as $20,000 a year to be eligible for food stamps;

—Denial of food stamp eligibility to persons without small children who are not working and —Establishment of accurate monthly means testing to determine whether a food stamp recipient is eligible.

At the same time, the National Food Stamp Act would significantly expand nutritional assistance for poor people who would benefit directly. The amount of each recipient would be increased by 29 percent, and the elderly, who are often their pocketbooks from the ravages of age, would be given special consideration.

The Floyd Philosopher

Feels Sorry For Benjamin Franklin's

Short-Sightedness 200 Years Ago

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses economic theory this week, sort of.

Dear editor:

You take a man like Benjamin Franklin, how was he to know 200 years ago that his notions about thrift would eventually be bad for the economy? That "a penny saved is a penny earned" is a theory that produces a nose-dive on the Gross National Product?

You see, according to an article I read last night, economists have been cheered because consumers, after holding back for three months, have now gone forward to buying more on credit. The Federal Reserve Board reported that consumer debt rose for the first time in three months, reaching 185 billion dollars, a gain of over 3 billion.

"Economists have pegged hopes for a significant recovery from the recession to a revival of consumer confidence and spending," the article said, and this jump, or plunge as backward Ben Franklin might put it, in total indebtedness, is highly encouraging.

This theory shows why farmers for instance every time they go to the store to buy a crop that loses money are the backbone of the economy.

It shows that the Federal Reserve is in deeper all the time, is light toward economic recovery, and with flashlights of their own city and county governments. York City for example. Clear the lead in pushing for a head-on recovery.

I feel sorry for Benjamin Franklin you've got to remember looking 200 years down the road those primitive spectacles by which a solvent man is a roadblock to recovery, that refusing to sabotage the economic machine.

But he was a smart man, he change and new ideas, and if today no doubt would be saved is a monkey wrench in the machine.

By the way, do you sell a monkey wrench? The Hesperian on credit? Are you whipping the recession?

Lt. Governor of Texas, William P. Hobby (right) discusses with Rear Admiral C. H. Taylor, USNR (Ret.), Chairman of the Battleship Texas Commission The Battleship Texas new Talk Tours. Lt. Governor Hobby is one of 12 of Texas leaders of government, television and radio industry whose voices will be heard in the new electronic Talk Tours aboard The Battleship Texas. Moored in Houston in the shadow of the San Jacinto Monument in San Jacinto State Park, Houston, the famed Texas is open to visitors every day of the year from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

(HOUSTON) The final completion of the three-month installation of a completely new self-guided electronic "Talk Tour" of the Battleship Texas was announced today by Rear Admiral C. H. Taylor, USNR (Ret.), Chairman of the nine member Battleship

Texas Commission. For the first time in her 27-year history, the Flagship of the Texas Navy enables a visitor to proceed at his own speed through 12 clearly marked electronic broadcast stations and hear a recorded message at each one describing the life aboard the battleship as it was in that area of the ship. As a visitor tours the 11 decks of the Texas—a veteran of two world wars—he and his family enjoy the salty flavor contained in the electronic messages along with some important facts about the daily events on a real United States battleship that help make the ship come alive.

The Battleship Texas, moored at San Jacinto State Park in the shadow of the San Jacinto Monument, on the Houston ship channel, is the only floating museum of its kind in the world. Her history covers 63 years embracing the AGE of the BATTLESHIP, an era in naval warfare now only in memory in our nation's history. As each visitor comes aboard this historic naval museum they are greeted at station #1 by Texas' Governor Dolph Briscoe. The warmth of the governor's voice makes every visitor feel welcome and comfortable as he begins his tour of the famous battleship.

A Farmer's Creed

I believe a man's greatest possession is his dignity and that no calling bestows this more abundantly than farming.

I believe hard work and honest sweat are the building blocks of a person's character.

I believe that farming, despite its hardships and disappointments, is the most honest and honorable way a man can spend his days on this earth.

I believe farming nurtures the close family ties that make life rich in ways money can't buy.

I believe my children are learning values that will last a lifetime and can be learned in no other way.

I believe farming provides education for life and that no other occupation teaches so much about birth, growth and maturity in such a variety of ways.

I believe many of the best things in life are indeed free: the splendor of a sunrise, the rapture of wide open spaces, the exhilarating sight of your land greening each spring.

I believe true happiness comes from watching your crops ripen in the field, your children grow tall in the sun, your whole family feel the pride that springs from their shared experience.

I believe that by my toil I am giving more to the world than I am taking from it, an honor that does not come to all men.

I believe my life will be measured ultimately by what I have done for my fellowman, and by this standard I fear no judgment.

I believe when a man grows old and sums up his days, he should be able to stand tall and feel pride in the life he's lived.

I believe in farming because it makes all this possible.

All-Texas Air Tour To Stop In Crosbyton

CROSBYTON—The 27th Annual All-Texas Air Tour will touch down at Crosbyton's new municipal airport for the first time ever.

A. E. Guthrie. She wrote "Making The Drag" for the Hesperian while in high school.

About 75 planes piloted by persons from Texas and states as far away as Michigan, Ohio and Illinois will land here Oct. 10.

The annual eight-day air tour was started in 1948 to promote aviation in Texas. In recent years attention has been focused on the value of smaller airports in Texas.

The group is scheduled to fly here from Andrews. Their destination after leaving here is Dumas.

All craft will be landed in about a 20 minute period. The Crosbyton Chamber of Commerce is planning a reception to greet the pilots.

A Weekly Report Of Agri Business News

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

More Questions . . . Keep Those Samples Coming . . .
Deadline Nearing . . . Good Eating.

It's crop questionnaire time again from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

A total of 24,700 farmers in Texas have received a questionnaire relating primarily to small grain acres. If you are one of those who have received it, you are requested to fill it out as accurately as possible and return it promptly.

Interest continues to increase in all areas of agricultural production in the state and throughout the nation. During the era of the so-called "burdensome surpluses" there was very little interest evoked when a crop survey was made. But now the questionnaire becomes important.

Another form Texas agricultural producers need to note is the census. Although the majority of the census forms have been returned, the Census Bureau says it still needs those not yet returned.

You need to fill out only those questions applicable to your operation. And the Census Bureau says you can be assured no one will see your answers except the census enumerator.

Figures will be compiled into county, state and national totals.

SCREWORM CASES continue to be reported in parts of Texas, and screwworm eradication officials urge livestock producers to adhere to its four-point program for eradication:

Check your livestock regularly, treat wounds on livestock with approved screwworm-control remedies, delay surgery on livestock as long as possible and submit suspected screwworm samples to the fly lab at Mission. Your county agent has vials which you can use to send the samples.

AUG. 15 may seem to be a long way off since this is still mid-July. But it will be here shortly, and the main thing to remember about Aug. 15 is that it is the deadline date for submitting your entry to the Family Land Heritage Program.

That Program honors those farm families and their descendants in Texas who have owned and continuously farmed the same piece of land for 100 years or more. If you believe you can qualify for this award, you can get an application from your county judge or by writing to the Texas Department of Agriculture, Austin, Texas 78711.

Last year, more than 560 farm families in the state were so honored. The Program, recognized to be of great historical significance, is sponsored by the Texas Department of Agriculture to honor agriculture and agricultural producers.

IF YOU LIKE ICE CREAM (and who doesn't) you'll be happy to know that ice cream production increased in 1974. Perhaps the same trend is continuing this year.

In Texas during 1974, there was enough ice cream produced to provide every person in the state just under three gallons each. If you like mellorine, and apparently most Texans do, Texas is the number one state in production of that dessert.

All this related to the fact that manufactured dairy products utilized 22 per cent of the 1974 Texas milk production.

Portions Of Two Counties Under Hog Cholera Quarantine

A federal quarantine was placed July 10 on portions of Deaf Smith and Castro Counties in the Texas Panhandle to help contain an outbreak of hog cholera diagnosed July 4 near Hereford. Officials of the U.S.

Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) said the federal action supplements a state quarantine placed on the same 100-square-mile area by the Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC).

The federal quarantine halts interstate movement of feeder and breeder swine and requires prior inspection and permit to move swine to slaughter; the state quarantine puts similar restrictions on swine movements within the state.

A state-federal task force is in the area working to eliminate the disease and investigate the source of the outbreak and any possible spread.

Dr. R. E. Omohundro, director of APHIS Veterinary Services' Emergency Programs, asks all farmers in the quarantined area, and elsewhere, to watch their herds carefully and to report sick animals immediately to local authorities. He also urged farmers to not feed uncooked garbage to swine.

Hog cholera is a highly infectious, often fatal virus disease, but it does not affect other farm animals, and it is not transmitted to humans. Man can, however, carry the virus from affected farms to other areas on shoes, clothing and vehicles.

Hog cholera was a very costly disease to American hog producers until a cooperative state-federal eradication program drastically reduced the industry losses. The Hereford case is the first hog cholera outbreak in over 16 months.

The 100-square-mile under state and federal quarantine is described as follows: From the intersection of Road 809 and U.S. highway 60 in Deaf Smith, 10 miles southwesterly to Road 2397 in Castro County, then 10 miles west to Road 1057, then 10 miles northerly to junction of Road 1062 and U.S. 385 in Deaf Smith County, then 10 miles easterly on roads 1062 and 809 to the junction with U.S. 60.

Tractor Pull In Crosbyton Scheduled

A-J Correspondent
CROSBYTON—A tractor pull is scheduled July 26, pitting farmers from throughout Texas in a battle of their farm machines to pull a sled down a track.

The Lamesa Chapter of the Texas Tractor Pullers Association is producing the event. Sponsors are the Crosbyton Junior Rodeo Association.

The CJRA is preparing for a crowd of 3,000 at the Crosbyton Rodeo Arena, which is being renovated especially for the tractor pull.

Proceeds from the tractor pull will be utilized for improvements of the rodeo grounds.

Entries will be accepted until 3 p.m. the day of the tractor pull. Entrants may contact Gary Cash, Thomas Davis, W.F. Wheeler, Dub Griffin and Lloyd Martin for information. Entry fee is $25 per tractor.

There will be categories for most tractors in use throughout West Texas. Six classes are provided.

Family Land Registrations Arrive Slowly

AUSTIN--Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced that registrations for the Family Land Heritage Program are trickling in to the Texas Department of Agriculture

Grain Sorghum Producers Board Members To Be Elected

LUBBOCK, TEX.— Four board members will be named when the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board holds its third biennial election Sept. 15. The terms of Larry Witten of Olton, K. B. Parish of Springlake, Ralph Mabry of Petersburg and C. P. Smith of Hale Center expire. All four are eligible for re-election.

Eligible to vote in the election and to serve on the board are persons living in the 29-county TGSPP area who produce grain sorghum and pay the board assessment.

Any person wishing to be nominated for membership on the board should make application to the board at (TDA) with less than a month to go before the Aug. 15 deadline.

"Fewer than 50 farmers and ranchers have qualified for this year's program," he said. "Last year we honored

4-H'ers Off To Electric Camp

Six 4-H Club members from Floyd County leave Monday (July 21) on a five-day trip to New Mexico's Camp Scott Able near Clouderoft for training in leadership and electrical projects, according to Assistant County Extension Agent Steve Herber.

Each year three boys and three girls, accompanied by an adult, are selected from each of the 20 counties in Texas Agricultural Extension Service District 2 to attend electric camp.

This year's delegation from Floyd County include Kenny Willis, Kevin Turner, Dean Hinton, Rise Taylor, Stephanie Turner, Darla Assiter, and Asst. County Ext. Agent Steve Herber.

They'll leave Monday by bus, returning Friday, July 25. In all, some 120 youths and 20 adults are going.

The event, Herber says, provides leadership training and teaches 4-H members, leaders and county Extension agents how to conduct 4-H electrical projects and method demonstrations, and how to prepare 4-H records. Recreational and citizenship training also is an important part of the camp, Herber adds.

"It has been an abnormal season for watermelon," said Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. "Harvest was late in the Lower Rio Grande Valley because of the drought there."

He added that melons in the Dilly-Pearsall area were hurt by hail.

White said the watermelon season had peaked and supplies were declining. He said prices probably would fluctuate between now and mid-August when the commercial season in Texas ends.

IF YOU LIKE ICE CREAM (and who doesn't) you'll be happy to know that ice cream production increased in 1974. Perhaps the same trend is continuing this year.

The Board of Directors of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. July 9 adopted a budget of $221,400 to finance the 25-county organization's 1975-76 research, market development and service activities on behalf of High Plains cotton producers.

The new budget, covering the PCG fiscal year July 1, 1975, through June 30, 1976, is less than 4 per cent above the $213,100 budget for last year, "which doesn't even cover the cost increases caused by inflation," pointed out Finance Committee Co-Chairman Lloyd Cline of Lamesa. "However," he added, "it is a budget under which we believe the organization can operate effectively."

In other action, the board elected six members to the PCG Executive Committee, and adopted a resolution favoring increased funding for the cotton producers' national research and marketing company, Cotton Incorporated.

The group also voted to support and work for passage of two bills now pending in Washington which it believes would be beneficial to High Plains farmers. One, introduced by Rep. Omar Burleson (D-Tex.) would raise the farm estate inheritance tax exemption from $60,000 to $200,000. The other, by Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D-Tex.), would permit foreign purchasers to store U.S.-produced agricultural commodities in U.S. warehouses after purchase.

A number of energy related measures were discussed at the meeting, but the board declined to give immediate support to any one bill, voting instead to "work in all areas for adequate supplies of farm fuel, including natural gas, at the most reasonable prices possible." Discussion centered on a natural gas deregulation bill by Senator James Pearson (R-Kan.), which is co-sponsored by both Texas senators, Democrat Bentsen and Republican John Tower. Most comment on the bill was favorable, but a formal endorsement was withheld pending further study.

Additional funds for the research and marketing work of Cotton Incorporated "in my opinion would be a very wise investment," PCG President W.B. Criswell of Idalou told the board. Cotton Incorporated is now supported by beltwide producer contributions of $1.00 per bale, and an increase in that amount first will require passage of enabling legislation and then approval of a higher rate by producers in a referendum. The PCG board voted to support passage of an enabling act and also to work for passage of the referendum when scheduled.

The PCG Executive Committee is made up of current officers, all past presidents and six members elected by and from the board. The organization's 25 counties are divided into six districts with comparable production volumes, and one member of the board is elected from each district.

W.L. "Preach" Edelman of Friona was elected to represent Parmer, Deaf Smith, Castro, Swisher and Briscoe counties; Lloyd Miller of Morton was elected from Bailey, Cochran and Hockley counties; Paul Bennett of Littlefield was chosen to serve from Lamb, Hale, Floyd and Motley counties; Gary Ivey of Ralls was named to the committee from Crosby, Dickens and Lubbock counties; Truett F. Jones of Tokio was elected to the committee from Lynn, Yoakum, Terry and Garza counties; and Marion Bowers will serve from Dawson, Borden, Martin, Howard and Midland counties.

White urged Texans whose families have worked the same land continuously for 100 years or more to apply.

Applications are available at the county judge's office in each county settled by 1875. Judges in parts of the state settled after that date did not receive forms. However, if a family in one of these areas thinks they qualify, they may write directly to TDA for an application.

Families last year were honored at ceremonies at the state fairgrounds in Dallas where they received a certificate recognizing their contribution. Historical information on their land was printed in the first edition of TDA's Family Land Heritage Registry.

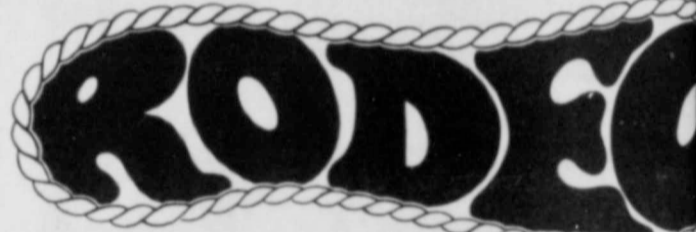

To qualify, land must have been agriculturally productive and owned by family members for 100 years or more. If all the land was ever rented out, it will not qualify.

Persons must live on and work the land or, if they live off it, actively manage it.
