Congressman Burleson Says Interest On National Debt Now $35 Billion

"We have just got to cut down on spending and live within our budget if this nation is to survive" was a major statement by Congressman Omar Burleson as he visited Floyd folk at Lighthouse Electric Tuesday.

Burleson added that the interest on the national debt is now $35 billion per year and the government had to go to private sources for money when the tax rebates were paid this year.

The Congressman discussed energy resources, the undeserving people who get food stamps, the welfare programs that are out of hand, and the current wheat deals with Russia.

He said he was happy about the wheat sales which are being paid for in gold by the Russians and said this helped the U.S.A. obtain a trade surplus.

"This has really helped balance the oil import sales we have been negotiating for some time," the Congressman added.

He said he felt the bread industry took advantage of the psychology of higher wheat prices to raise prices on their products.

Floyd In Top Ten Cotton Counties

AUSTIN — With a total of 83,900 bales, Floyd County cotton farmers ranked in the top ten counties in the production of upland cotton in Texas for 1974, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported.

County farmers harvested some 140,700 acres, compared with 122,100 in 1973. Yield per harvested acres reached only 286 pounds — a reduction of 278 pounds from the previous year.

Statistics for the past year have been compiled by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, which show Texas slipping to Number Two in the nation in cotton production with a total of 2,462,000 bales. California led the nation with 2,595,000 bales.

Short moisture conditions, which reached drought proportions by April and May, delayed planting in many areas of the Texas High and Low Plains, according to White. Numerous farmers dry planted, but mid-June rains came too late for most of the crop. Planting on the Texas Plains was substantially below normal, and many stands were eventually abandoned.

Growth and development of the late maturing crop were delayed by cool weather and rains, and harvest ran behind schedule through October and November. In addition, cool, wet weather in January delayed completion of harvest until February.

Texas farmers averaged 35 cents per pound, bringing the total value of the 1974 crop to $413,688,000. More than one million tons of cottonseed were also produced, adding another $123 million to that total, White reported.

Complete statistics for Texas cotton have been published in the "1974 Texas Cotton Statistics." Copies may be obtained by writing John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

FLOYD IN NEW POPULATION TREND

VERNON — The 19 rural South Plains counties within District 2 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are showing a change in population movement, says William D. Benson, Extension area resource development specialist.

These counties include Bailey, Borden, Briscoe, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Howard, Lamb, Lynn, Mitchell, Scurry, Swisher, Terry, and Yoakum.

While certain counties continue to reflect a declining population, it is at a much slower rate than had been recorded between 1960 and 1970, notes Benson. In addition, a recent U.S. Census Bureau report indicates a growth in the population base of many counties that had lost population during the 10-year period.

He wrote the editorial a few moments with a business manager learn the truth of less local tax money for years.

Floydada. It seems that if you want something done, you must go to a busy man or woman to get the job done.

I look at our church here in Floydada and see that it is a small nucleus of members who bear the work load. No doubt the pastor would like to have more members involved in the program of the church.

Our Chamber of Commerce would be stronger if all committees really got to work and accomplished their goals.

So, we look around and wish more people would enter into responsibility of the necessary projects in our community and churches, but like the parable of the talents, we must depend on the people who produce . . . say "well done thou good and faithful servant" . . . and ask them to take on another project.

Bishop Carleton also had a few remarks to make about the one talent servant, who buries his talent for fear he would lose it. He said, "if you don't use the one talent you have . . . you will lose it."

FLOYDADA has another high school graduate who continues to show success in the sports field. He is Melvin Robertson, assistant coach at Texas A&M. Robertson has eight of his ex-pupils in the pro ranks now. Robertson is the defensive coordinator and is high on a couple of cousins on the Aggie squad; Jackie Williams and Pat Thomas. Williams and Thomas are the returning half of last year's number 2 ranked pass defense in the nation. They say the Aggies will certainly be stronger in 1975 than in 1974.

CONGRESSMAN OMAR BURLESON was in Floydada Tuesday and you would think with so many people who question what is going on in big government they would have taken time to visit the Congressman.

He was most congenial in offering a question and answer period after his introductory remarks and told us what's going on from wheat prices to food stamps.

I just wish we had more people interested in good government.

Farabee Praises Rural School Organization

Wichita Falls . . . State Senator Ray Farabee said today that he was glad to see recent efforts to organize rural school districts. Several large meetings of school officials have been held across the state recently in an effort to organize school districts in non-metropolitan areas to more effectively represent their interests at the state level.

Senator Farabee told nearly 400 West Texas school officials at a recent meeting in Munday, Texas that an organization of rural school districts would give non-metropolitan legislators increased support when representing the interests of those districts in the Legislature. Farabee stressed that school finance is still the state's number one problem. "We can't afford to leave politics to those who go out and run for office," Farabee said. "We have to organize to make better legislation."

During the meeting the inequities of the present ad valorem tax structure were pointed out. Organizers of the rural school effort pointed out that real property accounts for only 25% of the total amount of property in urban areas.

black eyed peas and other vegetables which are in the process of being canned and frozen all over this part of the country.

Since ad valorem taxes are based on real property, as opposed to other forms of wealth such as stocks and bonds, a disproportionate tax burden is placed on rural areas.

Various state and local officials were in attendance at the meeting. State officials included House Speaker Bill Clayton of Springlake, Senator Farabee, Senator Kent Hance of Lubbock, Representative Bill Heatly of Paducah, Representative Mike Ezzell of Snyder, and Representative Elmer Martin of Colorado City.

If table linens crease during storage, try putting them away unironed. Then iron them on the pad covering the table. Some people prefer to set the ironing board alongside the table, then just slip the cloth onto the table after ironing. Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Quebe-King Vows Pledged Saturday

After their marriage Saturday evening in Trinity Lutheran Church of Providence, Glea H. Quebe and her bride, the former Miss Tommie Sue King, left for a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N.M., and other points of interest in that state. They will return to make their home at 113 SE 9th, Plainview.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Maurine Powell, 707 Beech, Plainview, and the late Tommy King, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Quebe, Route 1, Lockney.

Five greenery covered Gothic arches centered on the altar, flanked by candelabras with white tapers provided the focal point of the nuptial setting. Completing the appointments were white Grecian columns holding potted palms, tropical foliage surrounding low votive candle trees, and the Unity Candle. Side candles were lit by mothers of the bride and groom at the beginning of the service.

Dr. J. Ivyloy Bishop, professor of religion at Wayland Baptist College, directed the couple in their pledge of vows. The bride was presented for marriage by her brother-in-law, Charles M. Bruce, of Long Beach, Calif.

The bride chose a formal gown of candlelight silk organza over delustered satin. The Queen Anne collar swept into a bib and dicky effect. The bodice and Royal sleeves of the gown were designed of Nottingham lace heavily embroidered with seed pearls.

Her Juliet cap, originally designed for her gown, was covered with beaded Nottingham lace to match that of the dress. The cap held her veil of illusion which extended the length of the train. She completed her ensemble with a string of antique pearls belonging to her maternal grandmother and earrings given to her by the bridegroom. She added the traditional touch of blue made for her by her aunt, Mrs. E. W. Eastridge. In her shoe she wore a sixpence minted in the year of her birth which she secured on her tour of Europe last summer. She carried a Nuptial music was presented by Don Ramsey, organist, who accompanied the vocalists, Miss Cathy Crossland and Richard Gonzales, both of Dallas.

Mr. And Mrs. Jake W. Smith Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jake W. Smith of 218 SW Fourth Street, Lockney, will observe their 65th wedding anniversary August 10th with members of their immediate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married August 4, 1910 at the old Mayshaw School house and church, between Floydada and Lockney about 9 p.m. Rain was falling and they waited for the close of a "revival service" so that the late R. E. L. Muncy could perform the ceremony in their buggy.

Smith was born in Breckenridge, Texas. His parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, who moved to Lockney in 1905. Mr. Smith was employed in the gin and elevator business, farmed several years and was employed in the lumber business before Center.

Potted palms atop white Grecian columns decorated the reception hall. The bride's table was covered with floor length satin. A three-foot tiered wedding cake balanced a massive three-foot arrangement of white roses accented by blue daisies and cafe-au-lait Fiji mums, around a 10-branched crystal candelabrum.

The groom's table was covered with a handmade ecru lace cloth purchased by the bride in Florence, Italy. A silver service and appointments flanked a basket arrangement of blue and brown daisies and mums.

To Refreeze Or Not To Refreeze

COLLEGE STATION — Whether or not to refreeze defrosted food is a problem plaguing many homemakers — especially during hot summer months, Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist, noted this week.

"Under certain conditions, frozen foods thawed before they're needed may be safely refrozen to prevent loss," the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

"Fruits, vegetables and meats may be refrozen if they have not completely thawed, or if they were thawed for a short time and remained in a household refrigerator.

However, thawing and refreezing usually results in loss of quality and flavor."

Refrozen vegetables may toughen and refrozen fruits become soft and mushy. Such fruits still may be satisfactory for cooking, although they've lost their raw fruit appeal.

"The process of thawing and refreezing in itself does not make fruit, vegetables or meats unsafe — but thawed foods spoil more rapidly than fresh foods and may become unsafe to eat.

"Foods probably not worth refreezing are those that reached temperatures of 40-45 degrees F. after passing through the slow temperature changes that occur in a home freezer when operation has stopped."

She explained that because low-acid foods, such as vegetables and meats, spoil rapidly after they have thawed and reached a temperature above 45 degrees F.

However, while slight fermentation of acid foods may change or spoil flavor, it does not make them unsafe to eat, she noted.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE was created as a full cabinet post during the Eisenhower Administration with Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby as the first Secretary. Since that time in 1953 a succession of Secretaries has come and gone. The turn-over has been more often than in any other Cabinet position. Since the Department was created there have been 11 Secretaries, including a new one coming in. Maybe there is good reason for it. The comments of some Secretaries on their departure indicate a feeling of frustration of being unable to make function this colossal agency. It is a gigantic job to preside over a network of 130,000 employees and a $118 billion budget.

THE CONGRESS AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE would do well to heed the concerns of those who have headed this agency with all its far-flung activities.

MR. ELLIOT RICHARDSON when resigning as Secretary in 1972 warned of the growing gap between promises and performance in the multitude of programs under H.E.W. and there is evidence all around us to prove his point. Utopia was seemingly the goal of the Great Society concept. Who could be against Utopia as a goal — the best of all things for everybody? But perfection is not yet and never can be on this earth.

THIS, IN ESSENCE, IS WHAT MR. WEINBERGER, now exiting from the Secretary position, is saying. The other day in his farewell speech he lamented a "faceless, gray egalitarianism that will ensure an equally mediocre existence for everyone, achieved at the cost of personal liberty." He sees ruin in the readiness of Congress to expand the more than a thousand Federal grant programs already on the books and enacting new ones. The Secretary says that if the Congress does not learn to say no and practice restraint, the Nation will wind up as broke as New York City.

THE OMINOUS FACT IS THAT SECRETARIES OF H.E.W. have come and gone without making real progress on basic dilemmas. It seems some of them have had a real intent of bringing H.E.W. under reasonable control but with its vast and entrenched bureaucracy, we have to wonder if it is possible.

IT IS NOT MUCH WONDER THAT RESISTANCE comes to reforming some of the expansive and questionable programs now in operation. Those which obviously have failed are more often given more money to expand, and by becoming bigger, hope to succeed. Too often, the failures also become bigger. Everybody wants his particular program continued and contends that if reductions are to be made, they should be made in other places.

SO IT SEEMS THAT NO

ONE REALLY KNOWS how to slice off the pieces of these vast operations which have proved failures but there is an awareness in the Country that Government is too big, too expensive and trying to do too much. It could be the beginning of needed changes. This awareness focuses on the fact that a welfare state spends beyond its means, leaving the day of reckoning to another generation. Action may come when enough people believe that we are that other generation.

The world's most expensive sugar bowl is probably the one on display in New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art. Made in 1786 by the Parisian master-smith Marc Etienne Janety, it's 7 inches long, 5 1/4 inches high and, except for a glass liner, made entirely of the purest platinum.

THE merchant in the very small town ordered some goods but when they showed up, they were not as represented, so he stopped payment on his check. In due time, there came a letter from the company, addressed to the "leading lawyer of the town" asking that the attorney bring suit against the merchant.

A few days later, the company received this reply:

"Gentlemen: It is true that I ordered some merchandise from you but when the goods arrived and were not up to representations, I instructed myself, as president of the bank, to stop payment on my check — which I did.

"Then when your letter came, I as postmaster, referred it to myself as I am the only lawyer here as well. And I certainly am not going to sue myself.

"In fact, I would tell you where to go, if I were not also pastor of the only church here."

DPS Needs Applicants For School

The Texas Department of Public Safety is in need of qualified applicants of both sexes and from all racial backgrounds. "The next class for Department of Public Safety Recruits will begin on October 28, 1975, with what we hope will be a full compliment of 110 persons," Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander announced today. "The qualifications an applicant must meet are to be between 20 and 35 years of age, of good moral character, excellent physical condition, weight proportional to height, visual acuity of 20/40 correctable to 20/20, a citizen of the United States and have a minimum of sixty college hours." Major Bell continued, "Among the benefits that a Department of Public Safety Trooper enjoys are: two weeks annual vacation, all holidays provided for by the Legislature, modern liberal retirement system, group hospitalization and life insurance plan, traveling expenses, longevity pay, and uniforms with all necessary equipment to perform their duties."

A Department of Public Safety Recruits training consists of eighteen weeks of comprehensive programs in all aspects of modern law enforcement at the Homer Garrison Law Enforcement Academy in Austin. During training the October School Recruit will receive pay of $768 dollars a month. Upon graduation the new trooper will be assigned to one of the uniformed services of the Department. The Texas Department of Public Safety has been increasingly successful in its search for recruits from minority racial groups of both sexes and encourages persons who think that they would qualify to contact the nearest Department of Public Safety Trooper or Department of Public Safety office to receive complete information regarding the application and employment procedures.

"Region 5 is most interested in being well represented by the best qualified persons available from the Northwest Texas area in the upcoming school," Major Bell stated, "but to do this, we must have the persons apply."

Educational Opportunity Grants Available

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program is a Federal aid program designed to provide financial assistance to those who need it to attend post-high school educational institutions. Basic Grants are intended to be the "floor" of a financial aid package and may be combined with other forms of aid in order to meet the full costs of education. The amount of your Basic Grant is determined on the basis of your own and your family's financial resources.

You will be eligible for a grant if you meet several important criteria:

1. You have established your financial need by means of the Basic Grant application.
2. You began or will begin your post-high school education after April 1, 1973. There are exceptions to this requirement however. These exceptions are: (a) if you were enrolled prior to April 1, 1973, in a course of study (whether or not for credit) which was remedial in nature; (b) if you were enrolled, prior to April 1, 1973, in a course of study (whether or not for credit) which was designed to prepare you for regular enrollment in an institution of postsecondary education; (c) if you were enrolled prior to April 1, 1973, in an institution of postsecondary education while still enrolled in high school; or, (d) if you were enrolled, prior to April 1, 1974, in an institution of postsecondary education which was not eligible for participation in the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program prior to April 1, 1973.

If you need assistance in determining your status with regard to these exceptions, your high school counselor or the financial aid officer at your school may be able to help you.

3. You will be enrolled in an eligible program at one of the over 5,000 colleges, universities, vocational, technical, or career training schools which have been determined eligible for the Basic Grant Program. If you have any questions regarding the eligibility status of the school in which you are interested please contact the financial aid officer at the school you are planning to attend.

4. You are a U.S. Citizen or are in the United States for other than a temporary purpose and intend to become a permanent resident or are a permanent resident of the Trust Territories of Pacific Islands.

The Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Award is a grant and, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid. It is estimated that during the 1975-76 academic year the awards will range between $50 and $800.

HOW TO APPLY

First, you should complete the application for determination of eligibility and send it in the envelope you received with these materials. Do not send money; your application will be processed free of charge.

Within four weeks you should receive a Student Eligibility Report (SER) which will indicate the results of your application.

The SER should be submitted to the Student Financial Aid Office at the institution in which you plan to enroll, where the amount of your Basic Grant will be calculated.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

If you need assistance in completing this form, contact the guidance counselor at your local high school or your student financial aid officer. If you do not receive a response to your application within six weeks, you can write: BEOG, Box C, Iowa City, Iowa 52240. Be sure to include your name, address, and social security number.

Complete brochure on this grant is available at the Floyd County Museum.
