There was number of private watch parties, as a feature of the night. A dance was given at the Princess Theater starting at 9:30 o'clock and lasting until the wee hours of the morning of the 1st.

They report having had a wonderful time and that Kirk sailed the 3rd of January for South America where he has accepted a position with the South America Development Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton White returned Tuesday morning from a ten day honeymoon trip to San Antonio, Lytle and Houston. They will make their home at the residence of Jim Nance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newton and children returned from El Paso Thursday morning where they visited friends and relatives.

Misses Ruby Mae Cochran and Sidney Laurence, students of the University of Texas, left Wednesday morning for Austin after spending the holidays with their parents.

Sheriff Will Not Make Arrests Until After January 15th

Tax Collector, F. N. Harrell has granted fifteen days of grace for the payment of automobile licenses, when it became apparent Monday that it was impossible to serve those who are liable for the license fee within the stipulated time.

Special Train Sailors Pass Through Sanderson

A special train of 14 car carrying 300 sailors from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station near Chicago, Ill., en route to San Pedro, California, passed through Sanderson Sunday night, about 8:30. The men, who were under command of Chief Petty Officer G. A. Beauchemin, assisted by four other petty officers, will join the Pacific Fleet.

P-T. A. WILL MEET JANUARY 11th

All mothers, members, teachers and interested parties are urged to be at the school auditorium next Friday, January 11th, at 3:30 p. m., as it will be the first meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association for the year 1924. FROM PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Dr. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my throats have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the change of life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc.—and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial.—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 109 Armistead Street, Phoebus, Virginia. Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale by druggists everywhere.

The Mosquito.
Outside of his fellow man, the mosquito is the most dangerous living creature to man, as more people die each year as a result of its bite than by the ravages of any other animal. The cobra snake of India ranks second in the number of people killed, but this is largely due to the superstitious character of the natives of India, who are afraid to kill the snake.

Texas News

Under instructions received at San Antonio from the war department the number of high school boys to receive military training next summer as citizens military training camp students is estimated at 28,000.

The Rio Grande valley beet and carrot crop is about ready for harvest and reports come in from all sections that the yield will be heavy this season and with prices that are satisfactory.

Construction has begun on a power transmission line to be built by the Valle Electric and Ice Company connecting the important towns of the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

The attorney general has approved the following bonds of the city of Park Place, a suburb of Houston: Permanent road, bridge and street, $20,000; sewer, $25,000; sewer system, $75,000; and public buildings, $5,000, all serial sixes.

At a recent meeting of the commissioners' court of Brazoria County a reduction in the taxable values of stock and land was made. Heretofore property valuations in this county have been higher than other places in the state, it is said.

The twenty-year sentence of Congressman Jesus Salas B, confessed slayer of General Francisco Villa, has been sustained by the supreme court in Chihuahua City, Mexico. Congressman Salas B was tried and sentenced in the court at Parral, where Villa was assassinated.

Cattle shipments from Cherokee County have been much larger this year than heretofore. Inspector Williams reports that 111 cars have been shipped, which is said to be the largest number of any of the East Texas counties. All cattle in the county are in good condition for the winter.

The Fort Worth chamber of commerce has leased 168 acres of land adjacent to and northwest of the United States helium plant for use as a landing field for dirigible balloons that will come to Fort Worth for supplies of the famous non-inflammable gas, Roscoe A. Dy, industrial commissioner of that organization, has announced.

Roger Edes has been named by the state highway commission at Austin as supervisor of state highways in Caldwell County, has assembled road machinery, and will begin work on the Middle Buster at the Travis County line. Caldwell County has more than 100 miles of state highway and also many valuable road-working machines. Edes has built some of the main highways in this section.

Palestine and Anderson County people are rejoicing with the people of Freestone County on the successful voting of a million dollars in bonds for good roads. This insures continuation of the paved highway building across Anderson County, through Freestone County. The type of highway to be built will make it one of the very best in the state, with a good bridge across the Trinity river at a point twelve miles west of Palestine.

Freestone County's million-dollar road bond issue, which carried recently by more than two-thirds majority, will open up a new east-west highway from Waco to Palestine, uniting territory which has had no direct connection in the past either by highway or railroad. The project centers in a bridge over the Trinity river between Fairfield and Palestine. The road, known as the Exall highway, will be one of the state's main roads, passing from Waco through Mexia, Teague and Fairfield to Palestine.

Two road bond issues in northern Grimes County, in Brazos County and Bryan trade territory carried by large majorities at elections held the first of the week. The establishment of hard-surfaced roads within these districts, which lie just across the Navasota River, coupled with good roads to be inaugurated from Bryan to the river in this county, will draw much trade to this section that now goes to other points, it is expected.

The recent rains throughout the Laredo district have delayed somewhat the transplanting of the Bermuda onion crop. However, about 95 per cent of the planting has been completed, which takes in perhaps more acreage than did the crop of last season. The sowing of the seed in the seed beds was a little later than that of last season, but that will tend to make a crop of better onions. Very little cultivation is being done at this time due to the soggy condition of the ground. In the upper onion growing section in the counties of Dimmit, La Salle and Frio, the transplanting has been retarded more than in the Laredo district.

The smallest office in the state capitol returns the greatest revenue to the state. It is the department of insurance, occupying a room on the first floor of the building and employing in this room eleven persons. The department turns into the state treasury each year upwards of $2,000,000. This revenue comes for the most part from occupation taxes paid by insurance companies. Every insurance company pays a percentage of its gross receipts on business done in Texas as an occupation tax. There are 63 insurance companies in Texas.

SAYS RICE CROP MORE THAN 8,000,000 BUSHELS SHORT

Lake Charles, La.—The 1923 rice crop is more than 8,000,000 bushels short as compared with the 1922 crop. Nearly 30 per cent of the Arkansas rice this year will remain unthreshed in the fields on account of recent rains, and large demands on the better varieties are grades are being made by farmers for seed for the 1924 crop, according to a statement of H. G. Chalkley of this city, president of the American Rice Growers' Association. President Chalkley in his bulletin sent out to members of the association urged farmers to supply themselves with seed as early as possible, because he expects a shortage.

New Dipping Orders Signed.

Austin, Tex.—Governor Neff signed and filed with the secretary of state Saturday some changes in the rules of the live stock sanitary commission pertaining to the shipment of cattle. These new rules differ from the old rules in that they allow the movement of cattle to market on one dipping, provided they are free of ticks and they do not require the dipping of the entire herd before any part of same can be moved, but only require the dipping of the particular cattle intended for movement. They allow the movement of cattle into the free area on one clean dipping, regardless of the classification of the county and do not require that cattle going into the free area be moved to a public dipping station or stock yards center for final dipping but allow the movement direct from the county in which the animals originate.

Naval Men Sentenced For the Honda Wreck

Washington.—Two naval officers with long records of meritorious service must pay the penalty for the pilling up on the rocks near Point Honda, Cal., in September, of seven destroyers. Captain Edward H. Watson, who was in charge of the squadron, goes to the foot of the list of captains to remain until he has had 150 grade numbers, and Lieutenant Commander Donald T. Hunter of the Delphy, one of the wrecked ships, loses 100 numbers. Captain Watson was sixty-six in the list of captains and had only six years left to serve before his retirement for age, while Commander Hunter had attained a grade number of 149.

The sentences, fixed by the naval court martial which investigated the disaster, were approved by Secretary Denby "subject to the remarks" of Rear Admiral J. L. Latimer, judge advocate general, and Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long, chief of the bureau of navigation, who expressed the opinion that the penalties were inadequate, but added that the court apparently had taken into consideration the service records of the two officers. Eleven officers were tried as a result of the wreck, eight were acquitted and the conviction of another was set aside.

Martineau Grieves at Loss of "Brown Jug"

The "little brown jug," emblematic of football rivalry between Michigan and Minnesota, never was transferred from vanquished to victor with more pathos than after the 1923 game at Ferry field, according to a story going the rounds of the Big Ten coaches here in schedule making. Earl Martineau, who led Minnesota through a series of victories prior to the Michigan game, earned six citations for valor in battle in France. When a possible tie for the championship honors of the Big Ten football season of 1923 had slipped from the Gophers' grasp after a desperate struggle, Martineau, as the defeated captain, with tears in his eyes, carried the "little brown jug" across to the Kipke of Michigan, the victor, but was too near a breakdown to speak.

M'COY WAS TRICKIEST OF LARGER FIGHTERS

Adept at Getting Other Fellow's Nerve in Ring.

Kid McCoy was one of the trickiest of the larger fighting men. Wasn't anything in the art of getting the other fellow's nerve that McCoy failed to employ when a fight was on. Those who remember his "comeback"—the night he met big Jim Stewart in Philadelphia—will never forget how the bout began. In the first place, McCoy made certain that he would be the first to enter the ring. Once in there he went into the first corner that came to hand and sat huddled in his bathrobe talking to imaginary friends around the ring. When Stewart entered he noticed that McCoy had not turned to greet him, so he stalked across the canvas and held out his hand. McCoy kept on talking to the mythical cronies. Finally Stewart reached down and touched McCoy on the shoulder with the meek remark: "Here I am, Mister McCoy." Mister McCoy looked over one shoulder, ignored the hand and said, "Oh, hello, boy!" and then turned away. He figured that the action would either enrage or intimidate Stewart. While waiting in the center for instructions, McCoy deliberately stepped on Stewart's corns. The referee gave his version of one-hand free hitting. McCoy reached up like a flash and jerking Stewart's head down with a grip about the neck, remarked: "Does this constitute one-hand holding?" By this time poor Stewart's nerves were so badly shattered that McCoy had no difficulty in whipping him in a limited bout.

Speaker Isn't Counting on Stanley Coveleskie

Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians, declared it his belief that the Cleveland club would be stronger next year than it was this, basing his prediction upon the opinion the pitching staff would be stronger. And he is not counting on Stanley Coveleskie, either, for he says no reliance can be placed on the phenomenal spittball pitcher until he has had a chance to get into shape and show. Speaker sent his veteran pitchers to Hot Springs on February 1 last year for an extra month of training. Next February he will send all the pitchers he is counting on for work in the campaign to Hot Springs, being satisfied with his experiment of last year.

Sheely Is Kept Out of Limelight by Bad Ankle

Only a bad ankle keeps Earl Sheely of the White Sox from being one of the most-talked-about first-sackers in the history of the game. Eddie Collins says he is one of the greatest first basemen he ever played with or against. Some compliment, since so great a player as Stuffy McInnes was once a side-kick of Eddie's. Aside from being a great fielder, Sheely is noted for his ability to hit in a pinch.

A PRINTERS' WEEK

There are so many "weeks" being started that it looks as if the fifty-two weeks allotted us will hardly prove sufficient for the world's needs. Before the entire list is spoken for, we would advocate a Be Fair With Your Printer-Week. We are sure it is badly needed in every community. In consideration of such a week we would advocate the following principles:

Your printer—make him your partner, not a victim.

Don't get prices from one printer and then submit same to another, hoping for a cut in prices, unless you would like to have the printers do the same with you when they are in the market for some article of merchandise which you carry in stock.

Give your home printer a chance before you buy your printing out of town.

In general, treat him with the same respect that characterizes your other business dealings and keep in mind the golden rule of business, to do unto others as you would be done by. Having properly observed this week, the spirit of it may stay with you during the remaining fifty-one. Such, we believe, is the big idea in all these special weeks.

WYANDOTTE CAVE

The demand for gunpowder during the war of 1812 was so pressing that large quantities of the nitrous earth in the caverns of the bluffs along the Ohio river in Indiana and Ohio were used for manufacturing saltpeter.

One cave was so productive that it fell heir to the name Indiana Saltpeter Cave. Later this was changed to Wyandotte Cave. After the war the manufacture of saltpeter became unprofitable. Little attention was paid to this cave until it was noted that cattle were fond of licking the walls and floor. Investigation showed that a frosting of natural epsom salts covered extensive areas in this underground wonderland. Also, that when removed, this frosting rapidly reappeared. Sulphate of lime plaster of paris, and later also were found here. Subsequent explorations brought to light the astonishing fact that in size this cave all but rivaled the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky.

The outstanding characteristics of Wyandotte Cave, in which it is said to excel all other American caves, are the unusual bigness of its corridors and vaulted chambers, unbelievable quantities of fallen rock, and the massiveness of its stone columns.

The "pillar" upwards of a mile from the entrance, a magnificent column 25 feet tall and 15 feet through, is one of the show places. Another spectacular formation, Columbian Arch, is an almost perfect tunnel, half circle in shape, and 75 feet long. Near one end is a "chunk" of limestone, estimated to weigh more than 500 tons, which loosened and dropped from overhead no one knows how long ago.

The Senate Chamber measures 150 by 600 feet, its terraced sides of limestone culminating in a great dome. From the center of this room there rises a great pile of rock. From the top of this rock pile an enormous fluted column of satin spar extends to the roof above. Almost a perfect circle in shape, 71 feet around, this mastodontic pillar is said to exceed in size any like formation in any cave in the world.

Certain sightless animals make their home in this cave. Thousands of bats which may be observed hanging head down from the roof, make their winter homes in Old Fellows Hall. This great chamber is 90 feet wide, 210 feet long, and 65 feet high.

Wyandotte Cave, formed among the rugged hills in Crawford county, is near the point where the Blue River flows into the Ohio.

THE BELLS OF RIVERSIDE

It has been said that our everyday life is largely fixed by the sound of bells of one kind or another, but it remained for Mr. Frank Miller of Riverside, Cal., who had a hobby of collecting bells, to assemble the largest collection of bells on earth.

Each bell has a history of interest and romance. Among the noteworthy in this collection of approximately 450 bells are:

A bronze bell of graceful lines, dated 1792, which long hung in the tower of the New Orleans cathedral and later, by a peculiar turn of fate, served on the jail in the same city. A goat bell of pleasing tone, the only one of its kind, found in the Swiss, Italian or French Alps, thought to be more than one hundred years old. A church bell dated 1770, which, no one knows how long, served the man-of-war castle in Scotland. A five-pound "Big Ben," the largest clock-tower bell in the world, which hangs in the tower of the house of parliament in London. An iron horse bell from Norway—thought to have been made about 1750. A bronze gong, said to be more than eighteen hundred years old, which came from a temple in China. A bronze bell which belonged to a ship that sailed from Boston in 1755. The ship was wrecked, but, after lying at the bottom of the ocean for almost 100 years, the bell was recovered. The town crier's bell which awakened the good people of Bedford, Mass., the night on which the patriot, Paul Revere, made his famous ride. An ancient, horn-shaped dog bell from China. A gong from Borneo, used in native war dances. An old-fashioned Roman bell which was unearthed in the ruins of Herculaneum at Herculaneum, in Arabia. An ornamented brass Roman cow bell inscribed, in Latin, "Paul, Third, Most Holy Supreme Pontiff," indicating ownership by a pope who died in 1549. A bell, cracked and clapperless, carrying an inscription showing the date of manufacture to have been the year 1247, said to be the oldest dated or used in Spain. This bell was in existence 245 years before Columbus discovered America.

And last, but by no means the least, the forefather of the bell family, a "elink stone," which, suspended from a rope and struck with a mallet, gives off a ringing sound. The "elink stone" was the earliest form of bell known. It was used, it is thought, as early as 600 B. C.
