Know Your School Week By Week

Achieving for themselves an unusual record by winning eight out of twelve scheduled debates, the four debaters who made an 853 mile tour through West Texas under the personal supervision of Miss Margaret Martin, debate coach, ended their week's road trip last Saturday in a flourish of triumph.

Practically all of the teams that our debaters met were county winners that had engaged in a dozen or more practice matches earlier in the season. The boys defeated Colorado, that team being considered the best in its district. The girls won five debates and lost one, and the boys won three and lost three. With such an enviable record behind them, the high school teams go to the district meet this weekend at Alpine with the expectation of winning first honors there.

The students and their sponsor report a delightful trip, stating that the school authorities in the towns they visited were very gracious. In almost every town they were made the guests of some of the high school students for meals and lodging. Every where, they say, they were hospitably treated.

Our students debated these towns: Stanton, Colorado, Big Springs, Midland, Rotan, Lamesa, Sweetwater, and Roscoe.

The debaters who represented Sanderson on the trip are Rosa Lee Harper, Myriam Carpenter, D. C. Thrift and H. D. Johnson. The Rev. K. E. Griffith accompanied the debaters and coach, furnishing the transportation for the trip.

The district meet at Alpine, which started yesterday, is in full swing today, and it will not close until tomorrow afternoon. Sanderson is being represented in a majority of the contests.

Sanderson will meet contestants from these schools: Alpine, Marathon, Fort Stockton, Fort Davis, Iraan, Crane, El Paso, Sierra Blanca, McCamey, Valentine, Van Horn, Toyha, Pecos, and Marfa.

A list of the contestants and the events which they are entering appears in this issue of the paper. The students were accompanied by their parents and coaches.

CONFECTIONERY OPENS

The Sweet Shop, located in the Ferguson building, was opened for business on Monday afternoon of this week under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Henshaw Jr.

The Sweet Shop is specializing in the well known Mary Ann brand of chocolates and bonbons which are made by the Southern Candy Company at Ft. Worth. They are handling Mistletoe ice cream, and are prepared to serve the public in anything in the confectionery line, and state that they will give curb service at all hours.

District Meet Being Held in Alpine

The annual Interscholastic League meeting is being held in Alpine this week. The contests started yesterday (Thursday).

J. C. Coleman of the Sul Ross faculty is the director-general for the district which included all of the Trans-Pecos counties of El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Loving, Reeves, Pecos, Winkler, Ward, Crane, Upton and Terrell.

All of the athletic events will be held at Jackson Field while the literary events will be held at the college auditorium.

The biggest gathering ever to attend a like meeting is expected. The event in which the most interest is usually shown is the field day exercises which will be held on the last day, Saturday.

Following are the Interscholastic League entries from here: Girl's Debate, Myriam Carpenter and Rosa Lee Harper; Boy's Debate, H. D. Johnson and D. C. Thrift; Junior Declamation, girl's, Lillian Halley; boys, Melvin Pollard; Extemporaneous Speaking, Margaret Lattimore; Senior Boy's Declamation, Aylmer Griffith; Music Memory, Mary Arrington and Junior Lemons; Essay (High School) Margaret Lattimore, (Ward School) Mary Arrington. In the track and field events Griffin Lattimore will enter for broad jump, high jump and shot; Leo Daniels will enter high jump, while Mitchell Ross will enter for pole vault, 100, 120 and 440 yard dashes. Frank Jansa will enter for shot, discus and javelin.

SHEARING SHEDS AND GOATS ARE BURNED

A number of mother goats and kids were burned when the shearing sheds and a feed barn were destroyed by fire last Wednesday night on the S. L. Strumberg ranch, 25 miles west of here.

News of the fire was telephoned by George Salmon, ranch foreman.

The fire entirely consumed the shearing shed and barn, which was filled with hay, cake and feed. It is not known how many animals were killed, nor did the foreman estimate the amount of damage done. The fire did not reach the ranch house.

The blaze was caused by careless cigarette smoking in the shearing pens.

AUXILIARY MEETING

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Presbyterian Church met at the church Monday, April 14, for the regular auxiliary meeting with Mrs. D. A. Pollard, the new president, in the chair. Quite an amount of business was taken up as this was the first meeting of the auxiliary year. Mrs. Bodkin gave the devotional.

Those present were: Mrs. D. A. Pollard, Mrs. Joe Nichols, Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson, Mrs. P. J. Holman, Mrs. T. L. des Landes, Mrs. S. C. Bodkin, Mrs. C. F. Haass, Mrs. J. E. Landers, Mrs. N. E. Charlton, Mrs. J. H. Lochhausen, Mrs. H. R. Laurence, Mrs. Earl Pierson and Mrs. W. J. Banner.

Death of Mrs. Lillie Mae Grigsby

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred in recent months was that of Mrs. Lillie Mae Grigsby, who passed away Friday afternoon, April 11, at 4 o'clock. Carried to Del Rio a few days before her death, an emergency operation was performed with the hope of saving her life, but she failed to respond to medical and surgical skill, and on the above date passed to the realms of the Great Beyond after several days of intense suffering. A deep shadow of gloom was cast over our little town which nestles in the hills of West Texas, when the sad news was made known that the end had come. While not altogether unexpected, yet her passing was a source of deep grief to her family and friends.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lea of this town, she was without doubt one of the best known and esteemed women in this section of the state. The proud and happy mother of two beautiful baby boys, Francis Gerald Jr., aged 20 months, and William Lea, aged 4 months, she was known as an ideal mother and wife. For several months her health seemed to be failing, and as if tenderly but compellingly drawn by an irresistible power, she lovingly implanted that motherly kiss upon the innocent lips of her babies and slowly but surely wandered down into the valley of the shadow of death, where the dawning of eternity's morning dispels the darkness and gloom of earthly existence and where the sunlight of Heaven sheds its hallowed rays upon the gates that never swing outward.

Mrs. Grigsby in life, reflected the image of perfect motherhood, and her loving devotion to her husband and children was one of those beautiful characteristics that endeared her to all who knew her. In death, all traces of sorrow, pain and suffering were absent, as if in direct fulfillment of that Scriptural statement, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."—Rev. 21:4.

Attesting the high esteem in which she was held, all the business houses in Sanderson closed for the funeral service which was held at 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening, April 12, in the First Presbyterian Church, and was conducted by the Rev. Herbert G. Markley of Del Rio, Texas, a close friend of the family. There was not seating space available for all those in attendance and many were unable to get inside. Banked high with beautiful floral offerings sent by friends, the casket containing the remains of this sweet young mother reposed in state at the home north of the church during the day and several hundred people paid their last respects to one whom they felt honored to call their friend.

Promptly at the hour set for the service, the cortege moved from the house to the church where the Rev. Markley paid a glowing tribute to the life lived by Mrs. Grigsby, saying in part that it was like a breath from heaven to see a young married woman who loved the responsibility of motherhood and did not shirk that most blessed of all experiences in fulfilling the mission of true womanhood. Several beautiful hymns were sung by a choir composed of neighbors and friends which proved very comforting to the bereaved family.

Besides her husband, F. G. Grigsby, and two little boys, she is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lea, two sisters, Mrs. M. H. Goode, Jr., of Sheffield, Texas, and Miss Nell at home; also two brothers, William and Bobbie, both at home.

The many friends of Mrs. Grigsby extend to the grief stricken family their deepest sympathy in this dark hour.

A FRIEND.

"Lucile is the Happiest Girl"

So many mothers nowadays talk about giving their children fruit juices, as if this were a new discovery. As a matter of fact, for over fifty years, mothers have been accomplishing results far surpassing anything you can secure from home prepared fruit juices, by using pure, wholesome California Fig Syrup, which is prepared under the most exacting laboratory supervision from ripe California Figs, richest of all fruits in laxative and nourishing properties.

It's marvelous to see how bilious, weak, feverish, sallow, constipated, under-nourished children respond to its gentle influence; how their breath clears up, color flames in their cheeks, and they become sturdy, playful, energetic again. A Western mother, Mrs. H. J. Stoll, Valley P. O., Nebraska, says: "My little daughter, Roma Lucile, was constipated from babyhood. I became worried about her and decided to give her some California Fig Syrup. It stopped her constipation quick; and the way it improved her color and made her pick up made me realize how run-down she had been. She is so sturdy and well now, and always in such good humor that neighbors say she's the happiest girl in the West."

Like all good things, California Fig Syrup is imitated, but you can always get the genuine by looking for the name "California" on the carton.

Freak Goose Egg

A goose owned by Mrs. E. T. Behlmer, of Van Nuys, Calif., has not yet succeeded in laying golden eggs, but it has made a radical departure from the ordinary white goose eggs. This bird has laid eggs of a golden brown color. Poultry experts in that region say they have never heard of a goose laying anything but the usual white eggs.

There are two things a man takes with misgivings: Advice and medicine.

Dallas Lady Knows How to Relieve Indigestion

"Ten years ago I started giving mother Nature's Remedy and she has kept away her spells of constipation, indigestion, sick headaches and pains in the back ever since," says Mrs. Arthur Brown of 2903 Reiger St., in Dallas.

That's because those little Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) soothe, sweeten, and stimulate the stomach and bowels. Then the starch and sugar wastes can't remain in your system to form those acids which bind the bowels, sour the stomach and rob the blood of the red corpuscles. It must have plenty of to keep you from suffering pain, biliousness, headaches, indigestion and rheumatism. You can get NR tablets in the 25c box at any drug store. More than three million are used in a day.

MONUMENT TO RAYBARD MILK COW

THE SEA GULL MONUMENT

MONUMENT TO GERMAN WAR DOGS

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

FROM Texas comes the announcement that if present plans are carried out a monument is to be erected on the state capital grounds at Austin as a memorial to the wild mustang which played such an important part in the development of Texas and the whole Southwest. The movement for such a memorial was started by a Fort Worth citizen, and at his suggestion a fund of $50,000 with which to erect the monument is being raised among the ranchmen of the state.

Up in Alaska last year a bronze plaque, bearing a bas-relief of a moose and a horse, was dedicated by the Ladies of the Golden North, an auxiliary of the Alaska-Yukon Pioneers, to perpetuate the memory of the faithful pack animals, both mules and horses, who lost their lives on the White Pass trail during the Klondike gold rush days. With Gov. George A. Parks of Alaska and George Black, member of the Canadian parliament from Yukon territory, officiating, the dedication took place near Inspiration Point above the famous Dead Horse Gulch.

These two memorials are the latest, but by no means the only ones which have been erected to honor members of the equine world. Go down to Lexington, Ky., and drive out along the Winchester pike until you come to Hamburg Place, the farm of J. E. Madden. Nestling in a little grove of trees on this farm is what is thought to be the only cemetery for horse celebrities in the world. Dominating the grassy plot of ground of less than an acre and enclosed by a stone wall stands a statue of a horse. Upon the foundation on which the statue stands is this inscription, "Nancy Hanks 2:04." For this is the last resting place of the world champion trotter from 1892 to 1894.

Nor is Nancy the only great horse honored in this "Resting Place of Celebrities" or "Westminster abbey of the Turf," as this graveyard is called. Another monument marks the grave of Hamburg Belle, whose world's race record of 2:01 1/2 stood for many years and whose victory over the great Uhlán at Cleveland in 1900, when she stepped two heats in 2:01 1/2 and 2:01 1/2, is a classic in American harness racing. Other stones tell the name and fame of Miss Kearney, the mother of Zev, winner of the International race of 1924; Plaudit, winner of a Kentucky derby; Silcon, 2:13 1/2, dam of Silko, trotting champion of Europe; Major Deimar, 1:50, the trotting marvel of his time; Ida Pickwick, known as the "Queen of the West"; Ogden and Plaudit, both famous turf names; Star Shoot, for five consecutive years the running world's leading sire; Imp, "the Black Whirlwind," credited with winning 60 races, thus earning the title of "Queen of the East," and Lady Sterling, famous as the mother of Sir Barton and Sir Martin.

Hidden away in a field near Crown Point, N. Y., stands a simple granite monument, unadorned and unmarked except on one side where is chiseled this inscription:

"PINK"

"Died Sunday, May 25, 1886, age 30 years. This horse carried his master 25 years and was never known to show fatigue while other horses in cavalry and flying artillery were dying from want of food and exhaustion. He was present in 88 skirmishes and 34 battles, notably Winchester, Orange Court-house, Second Bull Run, Hanover, Penn.; Gettysburg, Hanover, Va.; Brandy Plains, Buckland Mills, The Wilderness, Spotsylvania Court House, North Anna, Ashland, White Oak Swamp, Reams Station."

The master was Brig. Gen. John Hammond, who served through the Civil War in Company H of the Fifth New York cavalry and whose name went on the roll of honor for meritorious service. And each Memorial day the grave of this equine "hero" is decorated along with the graves of the human warrior dead.

Even more traditional than love of man for his horse is his love for his dog. So it is not surprising that in various parts of the world may be found monuments erected to the memory of "man's best friend." Most famous of these, perhaps, is Lord Byron's monument to his Newfoundland, Boatswain, in Newstead abbey in Nottingham, England.

In Central park in New York city stands a bronze statue of a dog which commemorates an incident that has become a part of the heroic legend of America. For this is the statue of Balto, an important member of the dog team which Leonard Seppala drove over those 675 snowy miles, from Nenana to Nome, Alaska, carrying his precious load of diphtheria serum to a frozen city in the throes of the epidemic, while the whole world awaited with breathless interest to hear the result of his race against death. And a similar bronze statue is soon to stand either in the Tiergarten or Unter den Linden in Berlin which will perpetuate the memory of the Red Cross dogs who served so heroically in the World war.

It is not especially unusual, perhaps, for man to erect monuments to his two best friends, the horse and the dog, but it is unusual for him to erect a monument to a cow. For that reason the statue of Segis Pietertje Prospect, a Holstein cow, which stands over her grave on the banks of the Snoqualmie river near Seattle, Wash., is unique among memorials. The reason for this honor is explained by the inscription on the bronze tablet at the base of the statue. It reads as follows:

"Here lived and gave her service to mankind Segis Pietertje Prospect, world's champion milk cow. Born 1913, died 1925. Twice she registered production records that set her fame above all dairy cattle of any age. In each of two years she exceeded 16,500 quarts of milk, 1,400 pounds of butter, yielding for the two a total of 33,922 quarts of milk, 2,805.18 pounds of butter.

Sired by a king and of purest Holstein strain, she herself bore sons and daughters of champion achievement. Finest type of the noble, patient animal that is most justly named 'The Foster Mother of the Human Race,' her queenly worth deserved the gratitude in which this tribute is erected by her owner, Carnation Milk Farms, 1928."

In Salt Lake City, Utah, stands a lofty granite column, on top of which is a large granite ball upon which two bronze birds, covered with gold leaf, are gently alighting. On the four sides of the base are bronze tablets, three bearing bas-relief scenes of pioneer days in the Salt Lake valley. One shows the beginning of agriculture in the arid West—a pioneer and his family and a yoke of oxen at work reclaiming the desert soil. The second shows the wheat fields overrun by crickets. The pioneer man sits with bowed head, on his face a look of helplessness and grief. But the pioneer woman is lifting up her face to the skies as she sees a miracle about to take place. Winging over the mountains into the valley come a great flock of gulls. The third bronze shows the harvest days. The gulls have devoured the crickets, the crops are saved and the pioneers in the wilderness will have bread. On the fourth tablet are these words: "Sea Gull Monument. Erected in grateful remembrance of the mercy of God to the Mormon pioneers." Thus this monument is an everlasting story in stone of one of the most beautiful and dramatic incidents in American history—the story of how the gulls saved the wheat fields of Utah in 1848.

While monuments to horses, dogs, cows and gulls are unusual enough, there is one monument which is absolutely unique. There is only one monument in the world to cheese! It stands near the little city of Vimoutiers in the Camembert district of Normandy, France, on the farm of a certain Beau Moncel, where lived during the latter half of the Eighteenth century Marie Harel, who is credited with being the inventor of Camembert cheese. Not only is the fame of this Norman milk maid commemorated by this stone shaft on the farm where she worked, but in Main Place in the city of Vimoutiers itself is a statue of her, back of which is a stone bas-relief showing the farmhouse on the Marcel farm, where she was born in 1761, where she lived until her death in 1817 and where she made the new kind of cheese which is now known the world over.

These monuments were erected through the efforts of a New York doctor, Joseph Krnim. For many years he conducted a sanatorium in New York, where the only medicine he gave his patients for all kinds of stomach ailments was Pilsener beer and Camembert cheese. Because of his gratitude to the inventor of the cheese with which he made so many people well and saved their lives, he made a romantic pilgrimage to Vimoutiers a year or so ago, and the result was this most unusual of all monuments.

Doctor's PRESCRIPTION when system is sluggish; costs nothing to try

When your bowels need help, the mildest thing that will do the work is always the sensible choice. Take a laxative that a family doctor has used for all sorts of cases of constipation. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is so pleasant to the taste, so gentle in its action, it is given children of tender age and yet it is just as thorough and effective as stronger preparations. Pure senna, and harmless laxative herbs; ingredients that soon start a gentle muscular action. Avoid a coated tongue, bad breath, bilious headaches, etc. Every drug store has Dr. Caldwell's famous prescription in big bottles. Or just write Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, Monticello, Ill., for a free trial bottle.

"Electrocuted" Leakage of electric currents from high-power transmission lines often causes serious injury to trees, according to tree specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture. Another common type of injury to trees and shrubs is scorching and burning as a result of the plants being located where white-washed or light-colored walls reflect the heat of the sun. Other types of injury to trees are caused by dense shade or too intense sunlight.

Restless Children

Children will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always one sure way to comfort a restless, fretful child. Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as its tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than some powerful medicine that is meant for the stronger systems of adults.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is any need. In cases of colic, diarrhea, or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. But it has everyday uses all mothers should understand. A coated tongue calls for a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed to set everything to rights. Genuine Castoria has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Doctors prescribe it.

Says Men Want Pals, Not Patients!

SHE was engaged! She was the happiest girl in the world. A round of teas and parties, a whirl of pleasure, and she began to wonder what was the matter. Too tired to go out—and he was becoming tired of her? It was at this point that Miss Margaret Belden of Los Angeles woke up to the fact that something had to be done about it. "Men want pals, not patients," she writes. "I went right to my doctor. Do you know what he said? Rest—and Nujol!"

"With a prayer in my heart and Nujol in my medicine cabinet I began to fight back to being the healthy, robust, happy girl I had been before. Two months passed. No more tears—no more worrying, no more bad dreams. Today I beat him on the tennis court, and although he can out-swim me, I make him work doing it. It's good to be happy. It's good to be free, physically, and be able to share, any time, in sports or dancing or anything else with the one you love!"

Here's another one who has learned that the simplest and surest way to be well and full of good spirits is to clear the bodily poisons out of your system regularly. Not with powerful drugs, but normally, naturally, easily. Doctors and nurses recommend such a natural treatment as Nujol, because this crystal-clear liquid isn't a medicine at all! It contains absolutely no drugs. It is simply internal lubrication that your body needs like any other machine. Good looks and good spirits—do they spell popularity? You know they do! Get a bottle of Nujol tonight in any drug store. Sold in sealed packages only—trademarked "Nujol." Insist on Nujol by name. It costs but a few cents—and it will make you feel like a million dollars.

"When they come, I won't be here!" Brock rasped through his teeth. Straight back into the thick spruce he forced the raging and bewildered dogs.

With a sob, Brock muttered: "If they've shot 'em! They'll pay for it—pay for it!"

His wrists were raw with the plunging of the maddened huskies fast getting out of hand, when he caught a fleeting glimpse of a dark patch moving through the scrub.

Where was Gaspard? Had he heard the firing? Was he coming? Where was Gaspard?

Free of his dogs, Brock started a counter stalk of the men hunting him. Eyes strained, nerves taut, with cocked rifle he followed the trail.

With his rifle covering his advance, Brock approached to where the great dog lay stretched in the snow, head on forefeet.

Dropping on a knee, Brock lined his sights as a knife flashed from the Cree's sash and the killer of the king-dog leaned over the motionless shape.

Dauntless in death, as in life, Yel low-Eye had joined his fathers. "They'll pay for this, ooy—pay!" sobbed the lad as he hurried on in search of Flash.

"They'll pay for this, ooy—pay!" sobbed the lad as he hurried on in search of Flash. Somewhere, beating through the bush, Brock heard the voice of his dog.

Dodging from clump to clump of young growth, he followed. Suddenly a rifle cracked, and, swaying for an instant on his feet as his consciousness faded, Brock slowly crumpled in the snow.

From a thicket twenty yards on his flank rose a low grunt of satisfaction. A hooded shape pushed aside the spruce seedlings and approached the huddled mass on the snow.

The Cree swiftly advanced. As he moved, the hammer of his rifle clicked as his thumb cocked it. He raised the gun, to shoot again the one already stricken, when a movement in the scrub behind him drew his eyes.

Then through the air catapulted one hundred and forty pounds of gray dynamite to strike the surprised Indian and hurl him to the snow, as the wind tosses a leaf.

Frenzied with battle-lust, the great beast leaped and tore at the throat of the helpless man. Then, leaving the stiffening body, crawled, whimpering, to the silent master he loved.

Nuzzling the hood back from Brock's forehead, Flash licked at the red fur row across a temple, his black nostrils quivering in a low whine.

After a space, the dog repeated his attempt to arouse the man he worshipped. Then, as if he knew that Brock had left him, lay close to the still shape, his head on the chest, slant eyes closed to slits, as he breathed his sorrow in low, quivering whimpers.

Later, the guardian of the dead suddenly rose, baring his great fangs in a warning snarl. Wide-eyed with fear, Gaspard found them.

"Brock! He ees hurt, Flash?" With a side glance at the body of the Indian in the snow, Gaspard hurried to his stricken friend, his gray face set with anxiety.

"What de trouble, Flash? You tink Gaspard hurt Brock?" And the half-breed stared apprehensively over the barrier of Flash's intervening bulk at the furrow in the forehead of the body in the snow.

Sitting down on the snow, Gaspard began to talk and croon to the dog whose heart lay with the still figure he guarded. For a long space the dog ignored him, but, in the end, with rumbling protest, suffered the friend of Brock to touch the still shape.

Then the eager ears of the half-breed listened at Brock's chest. Yes, Brock had been shot in the head—how badly he could not tell. There was the path of the bullet across the temple. He must lift it to his heart!

With a muffled snarl the mighty Ungava bore the Indian to the snow beneath him.

With a Muffled Snarl the Mighty Ungava Bore the Indian to the Snow Beneath Him.

The heart was beating! The gouge in the temple had not fractured the skull.

Swiftly building a fire, Gaspard returned from the river with a young Cree, his prisoner, whose hands were bound behind him with thong.

Leaving the Cree at the fire, Gaspard found the loaded sled on the shore, and brought it to the fire with the aid of the two dogs, while Flash stood guard beside his master.

Shortly Brock was wrapped in blankets on a tough bed, beside the roaring fire fed by the Cree, whom Gaspard had released from his thong.

"Brock, you know me, Brock? Gaspard fix you all right, old partner! It ees all right now! He shoot close—dat Cree, but old Flash get 'em!"

"What dey do dat for?" queried Gaspard, standing near the breakfast fire. "Stop, Flash! You bodder Brock!" ordered the youth, but with nose pointed at the dim stars overhead, the great husky added his lamentations to those of his comrades.

"Once two out dere; where ees Yel low-Eye?" muttered the half-breed, tilted head listening to the familiar voices of Silt-Ear and Kona. "Hey you, Yel low-Eye!" he called.

"Our lead-dog, I cannot hear him!" said Gaspard, in Cree, to the boy whom he was treating as a friend rather than an enemy.

"I saw but three dogs here last night," replied the Cree. "Shall I go to the liver and stop my team howling?"

LIGHTS of NEW YORK

By GRANT DIXON

Worried A certain theatrical producer who is the proprietor of one of Broadway's more intelligent plays is worried these nights.

Some Don'ts If you are an out-of-towner in New York for a short visit, and have a limited amount of time to devote to showing, here's a tip: Don't buy tickets to the final performance of a big success.

One Family Bible Passe. The only two groups which exceeded religious publications were fiction, which totaled 2,142, and children's books, totaling 931.

Famous Men In the electric lights over a playhouse featuring a musical comedy are usually to be found, in addition to the name of the show and the names of its stars, the names of those who wrote it.

Such Is Fame To settle the dispute they agreed to interview the staff on the subject of Gershwin. Reporters, of course, were left out—for these gentlemen are pretty well informed.

Judge's Charge to Jury Sets a Brevity Record Valdosta, Ga.—Judge Bascom S. Deaver of the United States court made a record for these parts in the brevity of a charge to a federal grand jury.

Will Bars Drinking by Heirs to Fortune Los Angeles.—Abstinence from liquor and tobacco is the price the heirs of the late Francis J. Struck, of Los Angeles, must pay if they desire their share of his $100,000 estate.

Advocate Color in Soccer London.—A plea for brighter soccer is made by a group of London fans, who note that no team has selected dark brown as its color because it is not easily picked out, and therefore suggest that the football itself should be painted green, yellow or red.

Hen Works Overtime Woburn, Mass.—A Rhode Island Red hen owned by Mrs. Frank L. Hawkes recently laid an egg nine inches long and seven and one-half inches in circumference.

It's Illegal to Wear Sweetie's Frat Pin Madison, Wis.—Scores of co-eds at the University of Wisconsin face fines and jail sentences for wearing the boy friend's fraternity pin.

Students Build House Yankton, S. D.—Practical knowledge is being taught the students in the building and trades classes of the Yankton high school by undertaking the construction of a house.

He's a G. A. R. Regular! Cleveland.—Clay Osborne, ninety, of Clark county, Ohio, has attended every national reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic.

BIBLE CONTINUES BEST SELLING BOOK

Fourteen Million Purchased in U. S. Last Year.

New York.—Fourteen million Bibles and Testaments were sold in the United States last year, according to statistics of the American Bible society and leading Bible publishers.

Commenting on these statistics of Bible and Prayer book sales, Edward S. Mills, president of the National Association of Book Publishers, said: "The fact that the Bible is still the world's best selling book seems to disprove the contention of many that general interest in religion is on the wane."

Of the 10,187 new books and new editions issued in the United States during 1929, 806 were religious books.

Children's books, totaling 931, Biography, which is recognized as one of the most popular classes of literature at the moment, totaled 738 in 1929, 68 less than the religious book total.

Another striking change is brought about by the use of bold face type in some editions, which is considered more readable than the lighter types.

Bibles as Gifts. "Books on the relation of religion and science have had large sales recently and books giving a spiritual interpretation of the universe are eagerly sought by the reading public."

Everybody was prepared to hear a charge dealing with the affairs of the district, with particular reference to the prohibition law. But Judge Deaver surprised all hands when his charge consisted of these 27 words:

"Gentlemen, you will investigate violations of the laws of the United States. You will fix your own hours. The district attorney will assist you. You may retire."

Childhood Sweethearts Reunited in Old Age Columbus, Ohio.—Childhood sweethearts were reunited after a half-century here when John Fischer, seventy-four, and Mary Knifer, seventy-one, got a marriage license at the courthouse.

Gothenburg, Sweden.—A cow twenty-eight years old, believed to be the oldest in Sweden, is living contentedly on a farm in the western province of Halland.

Students Build House Yankton, S. D.—Practical knowledge is being taught the students in the building and trades classes of the Yankton high school by undertaking the construction of a house.

He's a G. A. R. Regular! Cleveland.—Clay Osborne, ninety, of Clark county, Ohio, has attended every national reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic.

TRADE AT HOME

There was once a time when local merchants depended upon its sentimental side to draw home trade—and true that phase in itself is a worthy one, but Boerne Merchants are making a far bigger appeal than that to keep home dollars at home. They are each week and every day in the year offering quality goods at prices that will not allow home trade to go elsewhere—and those who do go away from home looking for greener pastures are, as a rule, badly fooled. There might be some excuse for trading elsewhere if you can save a whole lot of money—but if you can actually save money—which you can—there is no reason, certainly, for going out of town to buy merchandise. So stick that mail order catalogue under the washpot and trade in Boerne. You'll find money saving prices quoted by enterprising home merchants each week in the Boerne Star.

The above clipping was taken from the Boerne Star, and is exceptionally good. The Times sentiments exactly. Trade at home.

CARD OF THANKS.

Words are few when we try to express in our heartbroken way to acknowledge the many kind words, deeds, and beautiful flowers of our dear friends, in the imparable loss of our darling daughter, wife, mother, and sister—A light from us is gone—A star to heaven given. Every loving service rendered has helped to give us strength. Especially do we thank those and "they are many" that tried to lighten our burden by their individual acts of love. Our daily prayers are for God's richest blessings to be yours.

CHEVROLET HAS NEW STYLE CAR

Detroit, April 10.—A further indication of the advantages which accrue to the motorist through the economies of great volume production is seen in the announcement by the Chevrolet Motor Company today of a stylish new closed model—the Chevrolet Special Sedan, with body by Fisher.

Introduction of the new model, with its many expensive car features, brings the Chevrolet passenger car line up to nine body styles, three open and six closed. The Special Sedan has been in production for several days and shipments are now going out to dealers.

A leading feature of the new model is its equipment of six wire wheels, with large chrome-plated hub caps. The two spare wheels are mounted in special fender wells. The exterior color scheme combines smart Boulevard maroon on the body with a harmonizing shade of red on the wheels.

Rich appointments found in the interior include arm rests, silk assist cords, combination vanity case and smoking set, rich upholstery fabrics and wide, deep seats with form-fitting cushions.

Like other passenger models of the 1930 Chevrolet, the car is powered by the 50 horsepower, six cylinder valve-in-head motor; it has fully enclosed, internal expanding four wheel brakes, four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers and a bigger rear axle. The price of the Special Sedan has been set at $725, f. o. b., factory, Flint, Mich.

HOME MAKING CLASS

The adult class in home making for ladies under the direction of Miss Bonnie Cox, home economics instructor, will open at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and extend through Saturday, May 10th.

Nutrition, household finances, and child behavior are the three chief courses for study, as outlined by Miss Cox. However, the courses prescribed by Miss Cox are flexible, and may be changed at the suggestion of any of the ladies to include topics relative to their interests.

All ladies are invited to become members of the classes, which will be conducted regularly at 3:30 every afternoon at the school building.

There are no fees attached to the taking of the course.

RESOLUTION.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to remove from our midst, our friend and co-worker Mrs. Lillie Mae Grigsby.

We, the members of the Culture Club wish to express our sorrow and regret.

Be it therefore resolved, that in the death of Mrs. Grigsby the club has lost one of its most faithful and loyal members, and that we extend our sympathy to her loved ones.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be published in the Sanderson Times and copies be sent to her bereaved loved ones.

 Mrs. S. S. Daggett,
 Mrs. O. H. McAdams.

Mrs. J. E. Landers and sons Roy and "Pinkie" left Wednesday for El Paso where Pinkie will have his tonsils removed.

OIL NEWS FROM TERRELL COUNTY

This county is still rocking along in the limelight toward the path of oil and gas development with several test wells drilling in the district. Quite an interest is being taken by both residents and non-residents in purchasing mineral rights, royalties, oil and gas leases and assignments of same. The records at the courthouse in this city reveals the fact that the following parties have purchased under mineral deeds:

Roy E. Knight and Lloyd J. Sampson, both of Worcester, Mass.; A. R. Compton and A. N. Tielan, both of Minneapolis, Minn.; C. E. Poehel, Wichita, Kan.; Viola Franks and Hal A. Hamilton, both of Del Rio, Tex.; Mabelle C. Hayner, of Tulsa, Okla.; Caleb C. Randall of Ashland, Kan.; Geo. A. Kroenlien of San Angelo, Tex.; H. M. Wilson of Alpine, Tex.; L. Curtis Bell of Bellingham, Wash.; Maie Toland of San Francisco, Calif.; Hal Franks of Terrell County, Tex.; Frank M. Vert of Hollywood, Calif.; A. N. Tielan of Minneapolis, Minn.; Archie Pascoe of Hollywood, Calif.; Nathaniel A. Davis of 830 N. Van Ness Ave., Hollywood, Calif.; Monarch Oil & Royalty Corp., Hunt, Bldg., Tulsa, Okla.; Karl Struss, Hollywood, Calif.; Hagan and Emch, geologists, San Angelo, Tex.; H. D. Kimmel, Tulsa, Okla.; North Texas Farms, Inc., Fort Worth, Tex.; George Ritter, Oklahoma City, Okla.; C. H. Rivers, Riverside, Calif.

Those who have recently purchased assignments of oil and gas leases are as follows: Ramond Nicholl, George A. Kroenlien, geologist, of San Angelo, Texas; Robert S. Pitt, Jr., Los Angeles, Calif.; Indian Territory Co., Palmetto Oil Co., Barnsdall Oil Company, Independent Oil and Gas Company, Skelly Oil Company, Black Arrow Oil Company, Transcontinental Oil Co., Ricker & Dodson, geologists; Lion Oil and Refining Company, Mid-Sun Oil Company, and H. F. Wilcox Oil and Gas Company, and others.

Mr. Fred S. Franks of Roosevelt, Texas, is reported staying sixty miles out in the country in this county due to the fact that he has had so many inquiries regarding his Terrell County royalties in the vicinity of the well now being drilled by the Transcontinental Oil Company. It is reported that W. J. Banner is progressing nicely with his test on his river bed lease on the Pecos River a few miles east of the Transcontinental test.

J. Calvin Stansell of this city has been doing some development work on his ranch eleven miles south of this city toward the path of mining and has recently uncovered quite a large deposit of gypsum of high grade quality. Mr. Stansell has reported the fact to G. E. Cornelius of the Natural Products Company of Pittsburg, Penn., who in all probability will assist Mr. Stansell in further developments. A few samples have already been mailed in to the Bureau of Economic Geology at Austin, Tex. Gypsum is used to make Plaster of Paris. It is also used for ordinary plastering, and it is also extensively employed in the manufacture of ornamental stucco work, as a filler in paper, in making imitations of marble, and sometimes for calcining. It is also used as a basis for paints, glue, hair, lime, etc. In some countries it is used for increasing the fertility of soils.

Freeze Kills Early Fruit

"You can change your type," said J. F. Miles, owner of the Sunny Glen ranch near Alpine, this week—"the last cold snap got all of the early fruit." Mr. Miles had previously estimated that there would be a 75 percent crop left after earlier freezes but he believes now that all of the peaches, plums, apricots and pears are killed and also that apples are badly damaged.

Mr. Miles says that the temperature went to 26 degrees at his place during the freeze the latter part of last week. Reports from Alpine citizens indicate that the mercury went at least four points lower than here in town.—Alpine Avalanche.

1. What is meant by the term heart? It means inner-life thoughts, feelings, will.

2. What is meant by pure? It means to be rid of things that ought not be in the heart, feelings, thoughts, will. A mighty factor is given in the following recipe: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things."—Phil. 3:8, 9. Now Jesus says, "They shall see God," Mt. 5:8. Such characters shall see God.

3. What is meant by "they shall see God?" It means to realize His presence in this world, and to see Him over on the other side of death's river.

The inspired writer, John, had this to say: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is, and every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure."—Jn. 3:2, 3. There is a beginning place for this process-like good confession.

NATIONALLY KNOWN
CONCERT ARTIST AT CHAUTAUQUA

Margot Hayes, noted concert and operatic mezzo soprano, will appear in person with her company at Chautauqua. Miss Hayes has made several transcontinental tours in concert and in opera in the United States and Canada. The press and the public everywhere accord her enthusiastic and unstinted praise. She recently returned from an extended opera tour of the Festival Opera Company as co-artist with Henri Scott of the Metropolitan Opera of New York. She is the pupil of M. Bi-galli, conductor of the Chicago Civic Opera, Herman DeVries internationally famous coach and Madam Anna Janzer. Miss Hayes is possessed of voice of wide range, powerfully rich and resonant, delightful stage presence and a personality which lends enchantment to her renditions. The Margot Hayes Symphony Ensemble give a program full of life and enthusiasm covering a wide range from dashing Spanish airs to lilted light opera and concert numbers.

Mrs. Bessie Darling returned Wednesday of this week from Buena Vista, Texas and Manchester, Okla., where she was in attendance at the bedside, death and burial of her father, J. M. Simmons.

STOCK NEWS

Frank Harrell has been busy this week marking lambs. He states that he has about a 75 percent lamb crop.

Clyde Deaton has purchased about 665 head of goats from Riley Blalack and will place them on the Asa Jones ranch which he recently bought.

The Buffalo, Wyo., pool of 65,000 fleeces, sold recently to Boston wool firms at prices reported to be 23 1/4 to 22 3/4 cents. The wool is part fine and part medium.

Due to the prolonged drouth here and in other counties near here, most of the ranchmen are feeding large numbers of sheep and goats and cattle. In some parts the lamb crop will be a small percentage.

Will Moser, who is ranching between here and Sheffield, has an 85 per cent lamb crop from about 8,000 ewes. He is pasturing about 35,000 other sheep at 15 cents a head monthly. He has 72 sections.

It is likely that the stockmen's associations of the Southwest will ask for a rehearing before the Railroad Commission on its ruling which exempted livestock, wool, mohair, feed, salt, etc., from the rates to become effective May 1. Further exemptions covering all commodities likely will be asked.

Notice of Reward Offered.

A reward of $250 is hereby offered for information leading to the arrest, conviction and sentencing of any person found stealing sheep or goats from the ranch properties of the undersigned. A suspended sentence of a court will not entitle any informant of the benefits of this reward.

for Economical Transportation

to choose a SIX!

There is one sure way to get greater value in a low-priced car today—choose a Six!

This greater value is instantly obvious when you drive a Chevrolet Six. You notice first of all its greater smoothness. There is no tremor in the steering wheel—no rattle in the floor boards—no rumble or drumming in the body.

In addition to the finer performance of its six-cylinder motor, the new Chevrolet gives you truly remarkable economy.

Its six-cylinder smoothness saves the entire car from the strain and wear of vibration. This, of course, lowers the cost of maintenance and assures a longer-lasting, longer-satisfying automobile.

From the standpoint of operating expense, Chevrolet is equally economical. No other automobile consumes less gasoline and oil. No other shows a lower expense for tires. And no other car costs less for service.

Because of its modern engineering, Chevrolet also assures a high resale value.

Chevrolet gives you fully-enclosed, weather-proof, 4-wheel brakes; a modern fuel system—with the gasoline tank mounted in the rear; four long semi-elliptic springs, mounted lengthwise in the direction of car travel. It gives you beautiful Fisher bodies built of combination hardwood-and-steel. It gives you a heavy, rigidly-braced channel-steel frame. And it gives you a full ball bearing steering mechanism.

Before you decide on any car in the low-price field, see and drive the Chevrolet Six. The more thoroughly you investigate, the more certain you are to conclude that it's wise to choose a Six—for value, for performance . . . and for economical transportation!

WALTER RALEIGH had a hunch that pipe-lovers would welcome some practical hints on how to take care of a pipe. It was a good hunch. Thousands of pipe-smokers have sent for this free booklet.

It tells you how to break in a new pipe—how to make a good pipe smoke smoother and sweeter—the proper way to clean a pipe—and many worth-while hints on pipe hygiene.

If you haven't sent for this booklet, write for a copy today and find out that pipe makers and pipe-lovers suggest doing to keep your pipe sweet and clean. Just drop a line to the Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, Louisville, Kentucky, Dept. 99.

The DAIRY

SOUR MILK COSTS FARMERS DOLLARS

Usually Result of Carelessness, Says Expert.

Sour milk costs producers thousands of dollars a year, and usually is caused by using unclean utensils or failing to cool the milk properly, says Prof. L. H. Burgwald of the department of dairy technology of the Ohio State university. "A little care on the part of the farmer would avoid this loss," says Professor Burgwald.

"Milk is an ideal medium for the growth of bacteria. All that the bacteria require when introduced into the milk, is the proper temperature, and they will multiply very rapidly. In growing they break down the milk sugar in the milk and convert it into lactic acid which in turn sours the milk. But the bacteria will grow very slowly, if at all, at a temperature below 50 degrees Fahrenheit.

"Milk coming from the normally healthy cow is practically free from bacteria, so when large numbers of bacteria are found it means either that they have been introduced after milking, through the use of unclean utensils, or that the milk has not been promptly and properly cooled, and the bacteria have multiplied very rapidly.

"The public judges the quality of the milk by the length of time which it will keep sweet. The milk plant has to use some test which will determine in advance how long the milk will keep sweet. This test takes the form of a bacteria count under a compound microscope, an alcohol test, or a methylene blue test. The blue color of the milk caused by the addition of methylene blue dye, disappears more or less quickly, according to the number of bacteria present. The microscopic test, however, an actual count of the bacteria present, is the one most commonly used."

Feeding Calves Three Times a Day Is Favored

Best results can be obtained by feeding calves three times a day, with the periods between feedings as nearly equal as possible. When calves are fed but twice a day the feedings should be 12 hours apart. A calf weighing 50 pounds at birth should be given eight pounds of whole milk a day, while a 100-pound calf should have about twelve pounds. The amount of milk should be gradually increased until at the end of the second week the calf should get from 14 to 16 pounds per day. At the beginning of the third week either skim or separated milk may be given for whole milk, at the rate of one pound per day, and the daily ration increased from two to four pounds, depending on the vigor of the calf. If the calf does not drink eagerly when milk is offered, the quantity should be cut down. At the end of the third week the ration should approximate one-half skim milk. At the end of the fourth week only separated milk is fed, unless the calf is very delicate. The quantity fed can be increased gradually to 18 or 20 pounds per day. Six months is a good average age at which to wean calves from the milk. When good pasturage is available, the calf can be weaned earlier. If skim or separated milk is available, however, calves, especially if they are available, may be fed on it with profit until they are eight or ten months old.

Dairy Notes

A cheap bull is about the most expensive investment a live stock man can make.

Sanitation in the management and blood testing are the methods of controlling abortion.

Immediate and adequate cooling of milk is necessary to prevent souring. A temperature of less than 50° F. is unfavorable to the growth and reproduction of the injurious bacteria.

With feeding of dairy cows, the question of minerals in the ration receives additional prominence. A cow may produce milk for some time without having sufficient minerals in her ration by drawing on her reserves.

Cleanliness is important in preparing milk for exhibition just the same as in producing milk for sale. Clean cows, clean milkers, and clean utensils and containers keep down bacterial content and prevent spoiling.

Provide now for a better milk-producing inheritance in your future herd. Get a sire from a line of breeding better than your own.

The calves will begin to eat grain after they are a few weeks old, and it is usually profitable to provide a creep where grain can be supplied.

During the cold months the question of water for the producing herd is one that is often given little attention. A cow milking heavily requires from 70 to 150 pounds of water daily.

Improved Uniform International Sunday School Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Lesson for April 20
JESUS TEACHING FORGIVENESS

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 18:15-25, or Easter Lesson, John 20:1-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Forgiveness.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Forgiveness.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Practice Forgiveness?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Is True Forgiveness?

This lesson touches a most vital subject for our everyday lives. We are always surrounded by wicked men. If treatment we shall most surely receive, for all who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution (II Tim. 3:12).

In this lesson we have divine instructions as to our behavior in case of such ill treatment.

I. How to Gain an Erring Brother (vv. 15-20).

A sinning brother is lost. To bring him to a knowledge of his sin and restore him to fellowship in the church is to gain him. One soul is of greater value than the whole world. The method to be used is:

1. Personal (v. 15).
Go alone and tell him his fault. Personal effort is most vital in winning an erring brother. It is usually an effective method.
2. The help of a comrade (v. 16).
"Take with thee one or two more." The presence of one or two comrades helps in making known his fault.
3. Tell it to the church (v. 17).
Sometimes the church can accomplish that which the individual and the comrades fail to do.
4. The binding authority of the church's decision (vv. 18-20).
When the church follows the instruction of the Lord, gathers in the name of Jesus Christ, and is actuated by the Holy Spirit, its decisions are final.

II. Peter's Question (v. 21).

This question was probably occasioned by the ill treatment which Peter was then experiencing at the hands of his fellow disciples. Christ's confession of Peter brought him into the limelight. The question of the disciples, "Who is greatest in the kingdom?" shows that there was some jealousy of Peter among the disciples. This envy and jealousy was known to Peter. His patience being thus tested, he came to Jesus with a question regarding forgiveness. From the Lord's teaching as to the efforts to bring about reconciliation in case of offenses between brother and brother, he knew that the spirit of forgiveness would be required. Peter, disposed to be gracious, inquired, "Will seven times?" showing his readiness to forgive his brother not three times, but twice three times, and a little over.

III. Jesus's Answer (v. 22).

This answer was an astonishing revelation to Peter. Jesus said, not until seven times, but until seventy times seven, showing that willingness to forgive should be practically limitless.

IV. The Two Creditors (vv. 23-35).

These two creditors illustrate Christ's principle of forgiveness.

1. The gracious creditor (vv. 23-27).
The king in this parable represents God. The servant who is greatly in debt represents the sinner, any sinner, every sinner—you and me. We were hopelessly in debt to God. Ten thousand talents are equal to some twelve millions of dollars. To meet this obligation would be an utter impossibility. This man's plea for time, promising to pay all, resembles man's vain imagining that he can pay his debt to God, that by his future good works he can atone for past sins.

2. The cruel creditor (vv. 28-35).
The man who was forgiven so much found a man who owed him a small sum—perhaps seventeen dollars. He shut his ears to this man's entreaty to have patience with him, flew at his throat, and cruelly put him into jail. The great mercy shown the one whose debt had been forgiven did not touch his heart, so he refused to be merciful. Being set free from so great a debt as our sins against God, we should not take up some slight consideration against our brothers, but should make God's act of unlimited forgiveness toward us a standard of unlimited forgiveness toward others.

(1) We, every one, continue to need every day the forgiveness of God. When we pray, "Forgive us our debt as we forgive our debtors," let us be sure that we have put away all thought of sin held against others. No mercy will be shown to those who have not shown mercy.

The New Life

The new life will have the reality of religion that comes through putting belief into action, actualizing goodness and brotherliness and all the noble virtues that enrich and beautify life and make it Christlike.—H. B. Grose.
