San Angelo Co. Is Awarded Langtry Road Contract

Road Re-routed to Eliminate Crossings; Cost To Be $104,473

The W. S. Thompson contracting firm of San Angelo was the low bidder and was awarded the construction for 6.3 miles of grading and drainage work on Highway No. 3. The amount of their bid was $104,473. The award was made by the State Highway Commission at Austin on Tuesday of last week.

The work is a continuation of a strip put in last year, and later on contracts will be let for the construction of two bridges along this route. The route has been changed so that it will be on the south side of the Southern Pacific tracks from the Ike Billings property to a point some four miles east of Langtry. This will eliminate many dangerous grades, curves and railroad crossings.

Work on the project will begin shortly and it is understood a 100 working day time limit has been set for the completion of the job.

COUNTY TAXES DELINQUENT AFTER OCTOBER 15TH

Those taxpayers who took advantage of the law giving them until October 15th pay 1930 taxes will find they are delinquent unless they pay up by October 16.

If the taxes are paid prior to October 16 no penalty will be assessed, but 10 per cent interest from February 1, 1931 will be charged until the taxes are paid. After October 16, a 5 per cent penalty will be assessed along with six per cent interest.

Between 15 and 20 thousand dollars remain uncollected on the 1930 tax rolls, according to W. D. Hunter, deputy tax collector. Among the lists are several large ranch owners. Mr. Hunter stated that he hoped to collect at least one half of the amount that remains uncollected before they become delinquent.

ROTARY CLUB MEETS

The regular meeting of the Sanderson Rotary Club was held on Wednesday of this week with a large attendance, including several visitors. An interesting meeting was held.

Following their usual custom, the Rotarians had as their guests, two members of the senior class, Lowery Stradley and H. D. Johnson, Jr., J. E. Yates of Alpine and H. C. Goldwire, ranchmen of this county was also a visitor at the club.

New Marathon Dealer Wants to Get Acquainted

While a comparative stranger in the city, but not in the oil business, E. H. McCreight, new agent of the local Marathon Oil Company oil and gas station, has a most commendable record for fair treatment and quick service in towns he has operated in before coming to Sanderson. Mr. McCreight recently resigned his position as wholesale agent for Marathon products in Del Rio to take over management of the Sanderson branch. Prior to his connection with the Marathon Company, he held similar positions with the Magnolia Petroleum Company, and the Panhandle Refining Company, operating in west Texas towns.

Mr. McCreight states that he is very well pleased with the present outlook for "better business," but better still, he says, is the wonderful climate that Sanderson affords. He cordially invites anyone to investigate his business relations in other cities, as to fairness in dealing and method of handling business.

One of Mr. McCreight's favorite sayings is: "Business goes where it is invited, and stays where it is well treated."

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Buchanan and son of Dryden were shopping visitors in the city last Saturday.

Roy Barksdale who ranches near Dryden was a visitor in the city this week.

Co-Ops Gather In Del Rio To Name Officers

Annual Gathering Is Attended By Many Ranchmen

Special Correspondent.

DEL RIO, Sept. 30.—Election of Roger Gillis as president, T. L. Drisdale as vice president and E. K. Fawcett as treasurer featured the annual membership meeting held here Monday of Southwest Texas Wool and Mohair Marketing Corporation. Directors elected during the session included C. C. Belcher, A. D. Brown, T. L. Drisdale, Roger Gillis, Martin Rose, R. W. Prosser, Clyde Sellers and Aaron Slater.

Early Monday morning large numbers of ranchmen from the Del Rio district were in the city to attend the session. During meeting it was thought representation on the National Wool Marketing Corporation, of which the local organization is a unit, would be explained.

Discussions pertaining to shearing and prospective prices for wool and mohair were expected to have a part on the program.

As ranchmen assembled for the meeting, being held in co-op offices, a general was of enthusiasm seemed to prevail despite natural gloom low mohair and wool prices have generated.

LEE COOK IMPROVING RAPIDLY

W. D. Hunter, deputy sheriff and tax collector, received a letter Thursday from Sheriff Lee A. Cook who is in the Scott & White Sanitarium in Temple where he was operated upon last week for ulcers of the stomach. Mr. Cook writes that he is recovering rapidly and hopes to be able to set up by Saturday.

This bit of good news will be gladly received by the many friends of Mr. Cook.

MAJOR JIMMY DOOLITTLE IS TO VISIT SAN ANGELO

Major Jimmy Doolittle, America's speediest aviator, will visit San Angelo the last part of November, according to announcement of Culbertson Deal, manager of the Board of City Development of that city.

Major Doolittle is well known in this city, having been here a number of times during the war when he was stationed at Del Rio. His many friends will be glad to know of his coming to Texas and several are planning on going to San Angelo to meet the famous flyer.

Major Doolittle is coming to San Angelo as the representative of the Shell Petroleum Company and the day of his arrival in San Angelo will be observed as "Aviation Day," according to Mr. Deal.

Marfa Completes Plans for Annual Highland Fair

Feeder Sale, Exhibits and Football Games Scheduled On Program

MARFA, Tex., Sept. 30.—Committees are hard at work this week working out the final details for the opening of the Fourth Annual Highland Fair, which will be held three days, October 8th, 9th and 10th. Plans are complete for barbecues on both Thursday and Friday, October 8th and 9th, preparations have been made to feed several thousand people during these two days. Ranchmen from Brewster, Jeff Davis and Presidio counties have donated the fattest of their calves for the occasion, while the business men of Marfa have donated the trimmings—coffee, bread, pickles, and all the things that go with a real chuck wagon feed. The barbecues will be entirely free to those within the grounds.

Perhaps the outstanding event, at least from the cattleman's point of view, will be the Feeder Sale to be staged during the Fair. 2000 of the choice Feeder cattle of the Big Bend section will be judged and sold at auction on the second day, buyers from all over the Corn Belt and parts of Texas having signified their intention of being present at this event, the second sale of this nature ever attempted in this part of the state. Committees who have been touring the Corn Belt and agricultural sections of Texas, report enthusiastic interest in the event where ever they visited.

A monster parade will be staged the first morning of the Fair, October 8th, the First Cavalry, stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, being featured. The Cavalry Band, mounted, an unusual appearance, will head the parade.

Exhibits at the grounds will perhaps surpass all previous efforts and evening entertainments will be provided. In addition there will be dances every night. In fact the amusement committee promises three whole days of pleasure in addition to the events to be staged on the race track. The First Cavalry will stage a number of thrilling events, such as Roman races, Cossack races, machine gun competition, horse racing, hurdling, jumping, etc.

However, the outstanding event will be the annual football game between the Lobos of Sul Ross Normal at Alpine and the Miners from the College of Mines at El Paso. Plans are now being made to run a special train out of El Paso for the game. This event will be staged Saturday, October 10th, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Hundreds of football fans from this entire section will be present to witness this game. Coaches of both teams state that they have a really "big town" football game is the best line-up for many years, and promised. This event alone is worth the price of admission to the whole Fair.

The directors, realizing the financial condition of the country, has reduced the price of admission from last year, so that everyone may attend. The gate admission price admits one to every event during the day, except on Saturday when there will be an extra charge for the football game, however, not in excess of prices charged at regular games of these same teams at either Alpine or El Paso.

This is the only fair to be staged in this section this season and a cordial invitation is extended by Marfa and the Highland Fair Association to everyone to visit the Fair during the three days.

FOOD SALE HELD

The pie and cake sale which was held last Saturday morning at the office of the Texas-Louisiana Power Company by the members of the Sanderson Culture Club was a success financially. The sum of $23 was realized by the club, which goes into the scholarship fund that the club has.

Mrs. H. R. Laurence, president of the club, and members of the club extend their sincere thanks to the citizens of Sanderson who have in any way donated to the scholarship fund and appreciate the co-operation and help that they have received in maintaining this fund.

TERRELL COUNTY TO BEGIN COLLECTION SPLIT PAYMENT TAXES NOV. 30; REMAINDER DUE JUNE 1, '32

MEXICO LIFTS HUNTING BAN AGAINST U. S.

Season To Open on October 15th With Low Rates On Permits

Mexico is once more open to American sportsmen, both for hunting and fishing. Mexican authorities at Del Rio have stated.

Official opening will be made October 15, it was understood. Permits for fishing and hunting will be issued at the valuation of 8.8 pesos for 30 days in one district; 11 pesos for 30 days in the State; 16.5 pesos for 60 days in the State; 22 pesos for the Republic for six months and 30 pesos for an annual permit for the Republic as a whole. —Del Rio Evening News.

Eagles Suffer Loss of 7-6 to Alpine In Battle Last Sat.

Playing within an ace of emerging victor in their hard-fought battle Saturday with the Alpine Bucks, Coach Duane Smith's fighting high school Eagles ended up the game to the tune of 7-6. Local statistics reveal that never in history has Sanderson High School gentlemen of the pig skin done so well with Alpine, and as we understand it, the results accomplished Saturday came as a result of Coach Smith's persistent daily workouts and through his able coaching.

Most of Saturday's game was played with Alpine on the defensive, while Charles Robertson's skillful piloting kept the Sanderson team in the fight to the last minute of the game. The Eagles were first to score, when, in the last quarter, Charles Robertson broke loose for a touchdown. The extra point was lost as the ball went low. Alpine likewise scored in the last quarter and that in the last three minutes of the game. The total number of first downs for both teams were: Sanderson, 10; Alpine 3.

Robertson averaged 35 yards on his punting which was considered excellent. James Daniels, Jack Laughlin, and in fact, all of the boys, played a commendable game, as well as a strictly honest and fair one.

Tomorrow the local eleven goes to Iraan, up on the Pecos, to tangle claws with a hard fighting team of that city. All business men and others who are able to attend are urged to make the trip Saturday with the boys. They're working hard to defend the honor of Sanderson High School and merit the support of all citizens by their attendance at as many of their games as possible.

If you don't believe Coach Smith has the makings of a real football team, then drive out to the practice field, near Casner-McKnight Motor Company almost any afternoon and watch them practice.

FINISHING TAX ROLLS

County Tax Assessor Jim Nance started on Monday of this week to complete his tax rolls and get them ready to turn over to the proper officers so that 1931 taxes can be collected. Mr. Nance has had part of the rolls completed for some time and has been waiting on the State tax rate to be set. This was set this past week, being 74 cents on the $100 valuation.

Mrs. Ethel Harrell is helping Mr. Nance and they hope to have the rolls completed by the 15th of October and maybe sooner.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Moore and children, who formerly ranched near Hondo and who are now living on the Ben H. Brown ranch, near Longfellow, moved into their new home this week.

Jimmie Mills of Del Rio was a visitor in the city this week.

Mrs. Jennie Freeman left last Friday for Bolivar, Mo., where she will visit relatives.

Building of Davis Mountain Highway To Begin Soon

Commission Orders Work After Jeff Davis Citizens Obey Legislative Act

According to announcement reaching Fort Davis from Austin, the building of the Davis Mountain State Park Highway will go forward "with the least possible delay" and without convict labor.

The right-of-way for the 75-mile loop, and small park sites adjacent thereto, have been donated by the citizens of Jeff Davis county. The necessary donations have just been completed, 31 deeds with scores of signatures, deeding to the State 1000 acres of right-of-way and 2500 acres in five camp sites. Warren Bloys, secretary of the Fort Davis Chamber of Commerce, assisted by former Senator Thomas B. Love, representing Governor Sterling, and B. E. Colp, chairman of the State Park Board secured the signatures to the deeds and got them in readiness for legal presentation to the State Highway Commission.

Construction of the road, it is understood, will be started within the environs of Fort Davis, actually on the square mile of land embracing the old frontier fort, now owned by the James estate of San Antonio. The road will then enter Limpia Canyon, go up it for miles, then will swing across the famous Fowlkes ranch, which it is hoped the State will buy for a great State park, then onward to the famous Nunn hill, the X ranch county, Rockpile ranch, marvelous Sawtooth mountain and around a mile or more above sea level air the way back through the famous Skillman Grove to Fort Davis a distance of 75 miles, destined it is declared, to become the summer playground of Texas.

At first it was reported that this work would be done by convict labor, but announcements from the State states that this labor will not be used.

ROTARIANS HOSTS TO FACULTY

The Sanderson Rotary Club was host to members of the school faculty, school board and Rotary Anns at a banquet given at the Kerr Hotel last Friday evening. This is an annual affair, given each year by the club for the purpose of creating a more friendly feeling and spirit between the members of the faculty and the townspeople.

The program was very humorous and entertaining. The high spot of the meeting came when Dr. A. P. Utterback gave his address on "Why School Teachers Go Wrong."

Following is the program rendered during the meeting: song, "The Eyes of Texas"; song, "My Wild Irish Rose"; introduction of faculty members, Rotary Anns, and Rotarians, B. J. Brannan; a sincere welcome, Lynn Harrell; response to the welcome, Miss Corrine Fox; solo, "Many Happy Returns of the Day"; Miss Louise Noble; a warning, Dr. Utterback; duet, McAdams vs. Duke; topics to be selected, Judge Henshaw; Reading, Mrs. Kendrick Harrell; duet, Miss Noble and Mr. Stump Duke; secret ambitions, Al E. Creigh, Jr.; song, "There's A Long, Long Trail."

At a meeting which was held in San Angelo last Monday by the members of the Texas Wool and Mohair Warehouses Association 86.2 per cent of the fall Texas mohair clip was consigned to the National Wool Marketing Corporation, a Federal Farm Board unit. An advance price of 15 cents or grown hair and 35 cents for kid hair was obtained. These advances will be paid to the account of the grower with no warehouse charges deducted and no further sum that may accrue from the sale of mohair by the corporation will be deducted to meet any over advances made in previous years on mohair.

In addition the contract signed provides that the spring of 1932 clip shall also be consigned to the co-operative, giving thus a tonnage of 15,000,000 pounds of mohair from the clips of this fall and next spring to the National Wool Marketing Corporation. The co-operative has agreed that the advance to be made next spring shall not be lower than the advance made at this time.

The primary class of Christ Bible school had a picnic at Mrs. Chester Surratt's home. The party was served to t

Sarah had never known anything but hard work all her life. Hard work may sometimes be not at all unpleasant and may give one joy and exhilaration in the doing, but Sarah's was not of that sort. Her father and mother had come from Europe when Sarah was a little girl, and had settled in New York. They were without education; they were used to toil, and they had no ambition for their daughter to know or to be more than they, themselves, knew or were.

And so Sarah, when she was old enough, went out to service, and being awkward and unskillful, drifted finally into the work of a scrub woman.

But the unexpected does sometimes happen. When Sarah was fifty, perhaps, a relative across the ocean left her a modest legacy which, if properly invested, would have made a living more comfortable for her, and might have provided a little competence for her old age, when scrubbing would not be so easy nor so possible as it now was.

"It's good luck for Sarah," her thrifty friends were heard to say. "She can put this money by for a rainy day."

But Sarah thought otherwise. During all her fifty years she had had no cessation of toil.

"I'm getting old," Sarah said. "I'd like a few happy memories before I die."

And so, foolishly maybe and maybe not, it is not for us to say, Sarah quit her job. She got herself ready, and she went off for a holiday as long as her money lasted to the country from which her father and mother had come. For a time she was a lady, so far as her limited knowledge gave her to understand what that might mean, and when her legacy had been spent she came back again to the old life of toil. If she ever regretted her foolish action, as it was termed by her practical friends, she never said so. She had the memories for which all her life evidently she had longed, and she was content.

Large Shipment of Wool Received by Marketing Corp.

Orderly Selling Continues In Effort to Stabilize Wool Price

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 30.—Nearly one and one-half million pounds of western wool were sold during the week ended September 19 by the National Wool Marketing Corporation for its western grower associations, it is announced by J. B. Wilson, secretary.

Movement of wool from huge Boston storage warehouses of the National continued steadily during the week in face of rather quiet trading and a somewhat unsettled market, apparently brought on by fluctuations of the British pound in foreign markets.

During the period the National spurned underbidding and announced its permanent policy of orderly marketing would continue in efforts to stabilize wool prices.

California, Idaho, Texas, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado and other western wools were among those sold to New England mills by Draper & Co., selling agents for the National at Boston, where corporation headquarters are located.

The National Wool Marketing Corporation has received approximately 106 million pounds of wool from the 1931 clip and more than two and one-half million pounds of 1931 mohair clip to date from the 32 co-operative member-owned associations with which it is affiliated.

Coming Attractions At Princess Next Week

Princess Theatre, announces for Friday First National's latest production, "Woman Hungry," featuring beautiful Lila Lee.

"Woman Hungry" is an exciting romance of sophisticated Boston and wild and woolly Arizona. The picturesque Navajo country is presented in natural colors—the scenes being as rarely beautiful as a Remington painting, or gorgeous canvases by Maxfield Parrish.

Lila Lee plays the part of an Eastern girl who tiring of the humdrum of society decides to go West for adventure. That she finds more than she bargained for, goes without saying. We first see her as she is bidding goodbye to her brother and his wife who are going back East after a visit. Three fuffians ride in, take command, and at once begin throwing dice for possession of her. In terror, she pleads with Brand, the handsome leader of the trio, to save her from the others, promising to do as he wishes. He promptly bribes and beats his comrades out of the picture, rides away with the girl to a justice of the peace, and in spite of her protests, marries her.

Situations startling, amusing, semi-tragic, follow each other in rapid succession, leading to a climax which is delightfully different, from any twist given to a screen denouement.

With Lila Lee in the cast are Sidney Blackmer, Raymond Hatton, Fred Kohler, Kenneth Thompson, Olive Tell, David Newell, J. Farrell MacDonald, Tam Dugan and Blanche Frederici. The thrilling romance is based on a play by William Vaughn Moody. It is all photographed by the technicolor process. Clarence Badger directed.

"I Take This Woman," to be shown at the Princess on Saturday, October 2, is the story of a likeable, easy-going Westerner, and a wealthy girl, beautiful, spoiled, impetuous, caught up in a sudden whirlwind of love, who marry, struggle to make a go of it, repeat, separate and find they can't stay apart.

Gary Cooper, after a brief absence from the Western plains in "City Streets" returns to the spurs and chaps for this action story whose setting whirls from gay-time New York to the range-country of Wyoming, and back again. Carole Lombard, blonde, charming, talented, is the girl. Together they make a vivid and vital thing of this tense story from the pen of Mary Roberts Rinehart, one of America's foremost women novelists.

"I Take his Woman" is the love story of a carefree, selfish, petted girl, used to luxury and the glitter of smart New York, who flirts with and marries, a rugged, devil-may-care ranger. Disinherited because of her mad act, she tastes bitterness of hopeless struggle on a barren Western ranch. Discouraged, she throws it all away and returns to her father's home. There she renews her life of gaiety and luxury, but without zest. She discovers that she has tied herself to her plainsman husband with bonds more lasting than those of law.

You will enjoy this picture. Its varying backgrounds are fascinating, from the rowdy night club to the vast Wyoming ranch, to the luxurious Park Avenue home. And it is one picture with a wallop as big as its title.

New York's shadowy, mysterious East Side at the time the notorious Car Barn Gang ruled both the upper and underworld of Manhattan, is graphically brought to the screen in Radio Pictures' "Young Donovan's Kid," to be shown at the Princess next Monday and Tuesday, October 5 and 6.

Roofs have been jerked from the crowded filthy tenements, pool halls, pastime clubs and gang rendezvous, to enable the prying eye of the camera to enter and the microphone to hear.

In this setting transpires one of the most amazing stories ever conceived by an author—the tale of a Robin Hood gang leader who could kill and kiss at the same time, who loved as deeply as he could hate, the most hated and most loved man in New York's underworld.

Interpreting this role is Richard Dix, the star who contributed one of the most remarkable characterizations of the year—that of Yancey Cravat in "Cimarron." In "Young Donovan's Kid," he is said to reach new and greater heights.

Jackie Cooper, brilliant little star of "Skippy," and Marion Shilling are among the members of the supporting cast.

If you can remember the picture "Children of Divorce," the forgotten "girl next door" of "Wings," the beautiful gangster's moll of "Ladies of the Mob" or the effective scene in the detective's office in "No Limit," the Clara Bow who makes her dramatic debut on the talking screen in "Kick In" at the Princess Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, October 7 and 8, will be less of a surprise, and more of a revelation.

The Clara Bow of "Kick In" is really a new Clara Bow, a dramatic emotionally fiery star, but those who recall those brief glimpses of the real Bow talent in other dramatic moments will find it only the realization of something they knew the "It" girl possessed all along. "Kick In" is something new for Clara Bow, entirely divorced from the "flapper" dramas with which her fame is chiefly associated.

OF COURSE YOU WANT YOUR BOY TO WIN

If any one told you that you were making it needlessly hard for your boy or your little daughter to get on in school you wouldn't believe it could be true.

But are you giving your child, or your children, the good light they need for their home studying?

In many of the schools light is still poor, so it is especially important to provide good light where children's home work is done.

See that the lamps they use are of sufficient wattage to give plenty of light and that there can be no glare in their eyes, either direct or reflected.

Poor light makes concentration difficult, brings on fatigue and drowsiness quickly, is damaging to young eyes, and is often responsible for faulty posture, which is a danger to be guarded against.

Let our home lighting consultant tell you how to light your home for your children's benefit and for your own comfort. This is a free service. You have only to write or phone us to obtain it.

We shall be glad also to send you a free copy of our interesting booklet, "How to Light Your Home."

Some Day We Will Count The Cost

THE TEMPLE TELEGRAM says that some day the people of Texas will grow sober enough to sit down and calculate how much a lot of unconstitutional legislation has cost the taxpayers of this state.

No bill should be passed by the legislature unless it has been submitted to the attorney general to pass on its constitutionality. However, if this were done we might need a man in the high office who wouldn't need 30 days to make a decision, like Mr. Allred says he needs to decide whether cotton acreage reduction conforms to the state and national constitutions.

Another $50,000

A SMALL ITEM in last week's daily newspapers reported the introduction of a bill appropriating "another $50,000" for the expense of the present special of the legislature.

Texas is a billion dollar agricultural state; it is a billion industrial state; and now it promises to break another record by becoming a million dollar legislative state.

At a time when every faction of the state's citizenship is clamoring for retrenchment in governmental spending and official extravagance, Texas steps out and spends a record sum for legislation, an alarming proportion of which already has been declared unconstitutional.

"Another $50,000" does not mean so much when it is distributed among nearly six million people, but, added to the first $50,000, it assumes more formidable proportions. Then add the expense of the long regular session, and there develops an onerous burden on the shoulders of a distressed people.

When it is recalled that the state is operating on a deficiency basis, that the general property levy has been increased to within three pennies of the constitutional limit, and that four new and many increased forms of taxation have been imposed upon the people within a year, citizens well may wonder whether all this spending leads.

This is a time when officials elected to serve the interests of Texas people should begin to count the cost.

Advertising Has A Role

ECONOMISTS AGREE THAT the depression has touched bottom. Conditions will get no worse, but they could be greatly improved.

Much has been written upon the psychological aspects of present-day conditions. Were the people not afraid—if cautious men and women dared to buy the things they want, and wanted the things they really need—much of the ill-effects of the depression would be dissipated.

The truth of the matter is, fear and lack of confidence are the forces that delay the return of normalcy by protracting the period of economic convalescence.

No remedial agency can do so much to restore confidence and allay fear as judiciously planned and competently executed advertising. Almost two years of reluctant, fearful buying have depleted wardrobes and deteriorated property to an unprecedented extent.

Fill the newspapers of Texas with advertising of a constructive, confidence-building character, and the way will be smoothed for economic recovery. There is money to be spent, there is merchandise to be sold. Advertising must prepare a ground where the two may meet.

Our Transient Situation

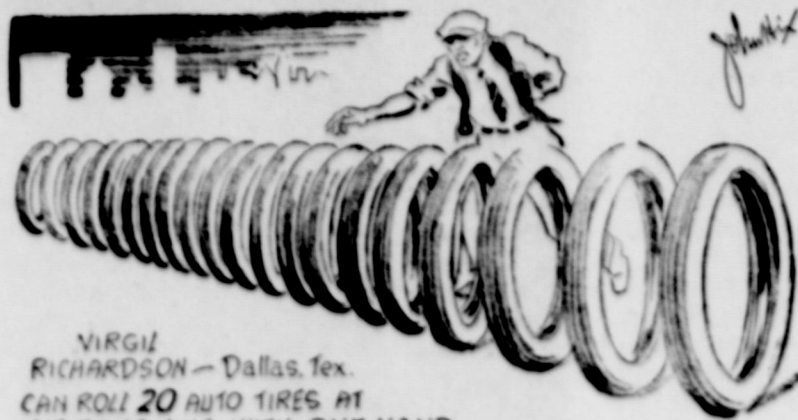

EVERY DAY THE papers speak of the increasing unemployment situation and predict that by winter conditions will be worse. Every day, in this city alone, if one happens to be at the depot when a freight train arrives, there will be from 25 to 30 men, and sometimes more, who get off. Railroad men say that not a train leaves here without a large number of transients on the trains just going.

Our experience has been with two different men who came into our shop within the past week, both instances being that they wanted financial aid, yet they were not willing to work on account of a fast freight leaving town and they want to catch it in order to get to such and such a place for one reason or other. Housewives tell us it is the same way, that they are approached by transients for something to eat, yet are not willing to work as they are anxious to be on their way.

Of course there are perhaps a few men on the "bum" today who are actually looking for work and who would work at anything they could and stay with a job when they get one; but the majority are simply drifting along, taking advantage of the so called "hard times."

As we see it, local officers should keep these men traveling and, once it is learned that nothing to eat can be secured without an output of work, "bums" will give this place the high sign.

THIS AND THAT By JIMMINY

Henry Ford's ukase that every married man at one of the Ford plants must have a garden next year or lose his job failed to receive the plaudits of the Magazine of Wall Street, which remarked that, "We do not look for any loud outburst of applause of this idea from the farmers."

"Industrialism," continues this magazine, "has given us an abundance that was undreamed of two hundred years ago. We still have to work out a method for dividing up the pie. In former times the problem was to have a pie to divide."

Ford, it will be recalled, was the "good Samaritan" during the early days of the World War, who chartered a ship and sailed for Europe to "get the boys out of the trenches before Christmas."

His success, or rather lack of it, in that venture is well known. But now his slogan seems to be to get the boys into the garden before next Fourth of July.

Much can be said in favor of cultivating gardens—and much can be said against cultivating them. But there is nothing to be said for the employer who attempts to force his workers to carry out his fool ideas on their own time.

Of course, Mr. Ford's idea is to make unemployment insurance unnecessary by having his subjects raise their own vegetables, thereby "guaranteeing an abundant life" for every Ford employee. His idea is about as sound as his ideas on most subjects.

Mr. Ford, it will be remembered, is the man, who after many years in manufacturing automobiles, finally succeeding in turning out a car that could be started without breaking one's back and all the commandments. That is his greatest achievement.

It will also be remembered that Mr. Ford grabbed the headlines last fall when President Hoover held his so-called depression-stopping conference in Washington, by announcing that he was "going back to Detroit and raise wages."

But instead of that he has laid off thousands of men, and hired them back at reduced rates of pay.

Now Henry is going to make unemployment "safe," by simply making his workers raise their own garlic and so forth—on their own time.

When I owned a Model T Ford I got a pain every time I rode in it. I got the same pain now when I read Henry's announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harrell and son who have been making their home in Pecos City, came in the latter part of last week to make their home in the city. Mr. Harrell is a brother to F. N. Harrell, and the late J. B. Harrell.

SAMBO'S PHILOSOPHY

"A heap o' dem 'LET'S GO' fellows heads de hull works for de po'house."

Do you ever stop to think

In my early days in the army, I remembered I was told that it is correct to CALL the attention of a subordinate, DRAW the attention of an equal, and INVITE the attention of superiors.

So I would like to invite attention to the well known fact that certain matters such as markets for farm products and manufactured merchandise need more and better markets and that more attention should be given to marketing and less to politics.

The object of the farmer, like the object of the manufacturer, is to produce. His plant is the soil for which he pays rent and he must sell what he makes at a price that pays his wage bills, his taxes and rent and gives something for the wear and tear of his machinery and a weeny bit of profit for money invested. If he doesn't, he is in a bad way indeed.

Both the farmer and the manufacturer are interested in the same thing—markets. The farmer must sell his grains, hogs, cattle, dairy products, etc. The manufacturer, his products.

Today the farmer and manufacturer are suffering the same disability. In fact, the only businesses, both retail and manufacturing, that are prospering, are those business concerns who have advertised and are advertising their wares continuously in the newspapers.

SERIAL SERMONS AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

The First Methodist Church was packed at the 11 a.m. service last Sunday where Rev. B. M. Stradley, pastor, preached the initial sermon of the serial sermons on the subject, "The Constitution of the Universal Christian Church."

In his quiet earnest, and lovable manner, the pastor spoke on "Poverty of Spirit," and the reality of the Heavenly Kingdom proven in human experience.

His message was deep and logical going home to the hearts and minds of his hearers.

This series of sermons will cover 16 messages from the 5th, 6th, and 7th chapters of the gospel of St. Matthew.

An "Ace" ... on every count, is this fine open coil type. It might be termed the modern coil spring for it was developed from that popular kind ... yet it has been so vastly improved that you would hardly recognize it ... More coils than in most springs, and each of just the right resiliency. Small governor springs prevent all side-sway. No rocking or tilting. Angle-iron top binding prevents tearing of sheets. Finished in a beautiful robin's-egg blue and priced no higher than ordinary springs.

Russell Menzies purchased about 6,000 head of mixed lambs this week from the Smith-Woodward Cattle Company of Emerson. It is understood that all the mutton lambs that were purchased by Mr. Menzies were sold to Clay Kitchen of Fort Worth who shipped them out Tuesday. The ewe lambs were placed on the "41" ranch of Mr. Menzies. The price paid for these lambs was not given out.

Fred Montgomery who has been ranching near Watkins, passed thru here Sunday with a bunch of sheep and goats that he will pasture on a ranch near Fort Davis.

J. Taylor, who ranches near Comstock, is moving several thousand head of sheep to this county. He will pasture 1,000 head on the G. J. Henshaw ranch and the balance will be placed on the ranch of his son, Elmo Taylor, who ranches near Dryden.

Judge G. J. Henshaw who owns a good sized ranch in the southern part of the county, is busy making many improvements on the place. He is now putting up several miles of fence in one of the north pastures.

Range conditions throughout the county are not as good as they were even a month ago. The several hot days experienced the first of September, together with the fact that there has been no rain since the early part of August, is causing the range to become dry and water to be scarce. It is to be hoped that soon Terrell County and surrounding territory will be blessed with a good rain.

Last Friday, September 25th, Russell Menzies shipped out of here 8 cars of sheep to R. H. Grimmett at Pauls Valley, Okla.

Russell Menzies purchased from Woodward-Smith Cattle Company and is shipping today 12 cars of sheep to Earl Haass at Van Orin, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison who are ranching near Dryden, were visitors in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Cravey who are ranching on the San Francisco, visited with friends in town several days this week.

Tax Moratorium Bill Is Signed By the Governor

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 30.—Governor Ross S. Sterling today signed the so-called "moratorium" bill which provides that interest and penalties on all delinquent State, county and district taxes up to Oct. 20, 1931, shall be relinquished if the taxes are paid on or before Jan. 31, 1932.

One of the other bills signed by the Governor at this time was: Providing relief for the Valentine independent school district in Jeff Davis county, the school building there having been damaged by an earthquake several weeks ago.

Secretary of Labor William N. Doak recently said: "Our country will be free and our people united so long as the principles and precepts of the pioneers are remembered and their ideals of justice are preserved."

Dr. T. B. Sowell Preached In Sanderson Last Sunday

Dr. T. B. Sowell, conference-wide evangelist of the New Mexico Annual Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, who was in Sanderson last Sunday afternoon in conference with Rev. B. M. Stradley on conference-enlarged activities, preached at the 8 p.m. hour at the First Methodist Church to a filled house.

Dr. Sowell using the text the words of the Judean Roman governor, "What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?" drove home truth after truth to his congregation, reaching his climax in his picture of Christianity being Life, Action, concentrated energy for God.

Dr. Sowell said you and I do not meet Jesus to at one time to settle for Eternity our destiny—Judgment is a judgment of life we meet Him face to face every day to settle every day of our lives the supreme question, "What will I do with Jesus? I can't hide from Him, I can't dodge Him, I can not be neutral—I must reject Him or accept Him."

By special request the young people's choir of 40 voices rendered, "Jesus Lover of My Soul."
