Appeals Court Dissolve Highway Road Injunction Given Comstock Citizens

SAN ANTONIO.—An injunction obtained by merchants and other property owners of the town of Comstock, against the proposed re-opening of Highway No. 3 which many years has passed through the town, was ordered dissolved Wednesday in an opinion handed down by the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals.

In reversing the lower court's order and dissolving the temporary injunction against the State Highway Commission, the appeal court decided that the highway commission acted arbitrarily in changing the route, as alleged.

The opinion was written by Associate Justice W. O. Murray. The injunction was obtained by G. A. Humphreys and others, who assert that they own property along the highway and are engaged in business there. They alleged that their property was taken and that they were injured "without due process of law."

"We do not believe that the highway commission abused or arbitrarily exercised its discretion in this matter," the opinion states. "It is shown that the relocation of the highway will eliminate a grade crossing over a railroad and some dangerous curves and turns."

Answering the allegation that the merchants will lose their principal customers, those traveling over the highway, and that their property will depreciate 80 per cent in value because of the change, the opinion states: "The highways are primarily for the benefit of the traveling public and not for those engaged in business along its way. The latter will up their businesses knowing that new roads may be built that will largely take away the traveling public. This is a risk they must necessarily assume."

The opinion held also that the highway commission "is not bound to give notice of its intention to change a route."

SHERIFF OF FT. DAVIS SLAIN LAST FRIDAY

Officer Killed In Pursuit Of Trio Suspected In Theft Of Guns

Sheriff Lee Sproul, Fort Davis, was slain last Friday morning at 11 o'clock, 15 miles northwest of that city while pursuing three suspicious characters. The sheriff and one of his deputies were searching for the men at the request of Jim Epsy who reported he saw them near his ranch Thursday night. During the night the men had robbed the R. S. Sproul ranch of three rifles and a pistol.

One of the men was captured in the Lympia canyon shortly before 11 o'clock. He refused to tell just where the other two men could be found.

A short time later, one of the other fugitives opened fire on Sheriff Sproul from behind a boulder. He was struck in the abdomen and soon became unconscious and by the time his deputy had carried him to the car he had died.

A posse from Fort Davis was formed immediately and a thorough search revealed the hiding place of the two fugitives in the mountains. They surrendered that afternoon and were taken to Marfa where they were placed in the Presidio County Jail for safe keeping.

J. T. Farmer, 19 of Brookston, Texas was charged with murder. The two other youths who gave their names as Paul Steinberg, 20, and Elbert Steinberg, 21, and said they were brothers, were charged with robbery and also with complicity in the shooting of Sproul.

Funeral services for the slain sheriff was held Saturday afternoon at Fort Davis. Survivors include the widow, a young son, his father, one brother and three sisters.

Sheriff Sproul was born and reared in the Big Bend country and became a prominent stockman. He had served his county 20 years.

Receives Injuries When Car Overturns Near Ranch Home

Mrs. Russell Menzies was painfully cut and bruised about the body last Saturday night when her Chrysler sedan overturned on the Stockton highway several miles from her ranch home at "41". Mrs. Menzies was returning to the ranch from San Angelo when the accident occurred. Just how the accident occurred she does not know.

Dazed and suffering from shock Mrs. Menzies walked several miles in the opposite direction from where the accident occurred before she finally succeeded in stopping a car which brought her into the ranch.

She is getting along nicely following the accident and it is thought that no serious results will follow.

The car was badly damaged and it was due to the non breakable glass and steel top that Mrs. Menzies life was saved when the car overturned.

ALPINE RANCH HAND KILLED BY RANCHER

Fatal Shooting Occurs Last Thursday Afternoon In Alpine

ALPINE, Tex. Feb. 24.—Ed Cody young ranch hand is dead and Jack Moseley, rancher in the lower part of the county, is being held in the county jail as the result of a shooting here about 8:30 o'clock last night.

Moseley, who has been ranching in the Chisos mountains section for the past five or six years, made no explanation of the cause of the killing. Sheriff Gourley said this morning, other than that he "had to do it."

The two men were seen sitting on the running board of Moseley's car a few minutes before the shooting took place, and a few minutes later were seen riding in the car together in the west part of town.

Moseley came to Sheriff Gourley immediately after the killing and gave up, telling the sheriff that he had trouble with the man and "had to kill him."

The killing took place about four or five blocks north of the Junior High School building on an unfrequented street. A .30 government rifle was used, the bullet striking Cody in the head and killing him instantly. Cody had been working on various ranches in the Chisos country for several years, it was said.

It was said that Moseley and his wife had been separated for some time and that she and the three children had been living in Alpine for the past two or three months.

Cody's body is being held while officers are attempting to locate relatives. It is said that he has a sister living in Dallas. Cody was well known in this county having at various times attended Rodeos here.

BASKETBALL MEET HELD IN ALPINE PAST WEEK END

The annual Interscholastic League basketball meet was held this past week end in Alpine with ten teams from as many high schools in the District, (17) being there. The teams that entered into the tournament were winners of the championships in the various counties in the district.

Our high school quintet met defeat when on Friday they drew the McCamey boys and lost the game by a score of 44 to 21. One of the most interesting games and a hard fought one was the game played Friday afternoon between the Ysleta Indians and the Iraan quintet. This was a feature game and the final score was 28 to 26 in the Indians favor.

The final game was played Saturday night with the championship of the district going to El Paso High School. A bi-district contest with the winner in the San Angelo district will be held to decide which team will go to the state meet in Austin next month.

Times Readers Are Offered New News Service

The Times is glad to announce to its many readers that it now has two new news features to offer them commencing with this issue. Both of these new services the Editor feels is of vital importance to every citizen of this county and we are glad to be able to give our citizens this service.

The service, "Tip on Taxes" which right now is the most vital and essential problem facing our people is furnished us through the Legislative News Bureau of the Texas Press Association. This bureau has been established for the purpose of providing an unbiased reporting service on pending tax measures and matters pertaining to governmental costs. These reports will be free from propaganda or editorial comment. Only facts will be given in order that the people may have definite information, leaving the people to form their own opinions and take such actions as seems wise to them.

Our other new column is The Livestock Situation as furnished by J. A. McNaughton of Los Angeles, California, who is connected with the Union Stock Yards in that city. These releases will give constructive livestock ideas on production and marketing along with news of general interest. We hope that our ranchmen will find this column of special help to them.

Recently we started another column in our paper Economic Highlight that is put out by the Industrial News Review at Portland Oregon. It, too, is given for the valuable information that it contains.

We hope that our citizens enjoy these new features that the Times is now offering and remember we are here to serve you and may we hear from our readers as to what they think of these articles.

J. R. Black returned Sunday night from Mexia, where he spent several days of last week with Mrs. Black who is ill there. She is some better, the news of which will be gratifying to her many friends in this city.

WHERE'S THE BOY?

Where does your boy "hang out"? Know all about his friends, and how he spends his time? Is he out of a job? Does he seem to have some money?

This is a shoe—don't wear it if it's the wrong size.

Boys can get into plenty of trouble these days. And, my, how long it will take to get out of that trouble is serious.

Take the three young fellows who worked out of Woodbury. They got away with the bandit business for ten weeks before being caught, but during that time they were working for less than $15 a week, each. Not much for the chances they took. Then there is the jail sentence to anticipate.

Plenty of reasons here to offer a boy, to prove how foolish he would be to turn bandit or sneak thief. Reasons never have stopped them. But watchful parents could stop many of them.—Community News, Merchantville, N. J.

A CHALLENGE

Present unrest and disturbed conditions have brought us face to face with the problems of our own progress.

We have advanced far in science and invention, most of all in the manufacture of machines. We find that we have advanced beyond the mentality and ability of the average person to properly use to best advantage that what we have made.

We are met by a challenge.

Are we going to be controlled and dominated by the inventions of genius and swept off our balance by material advancement, or are we going to use these things for the betterment of man's condition?

I have no doubt of our ability to control our inventions and harness our material advancement to the best advantage—but we must go back to the foundation of successful living so that our social life may develop along with our scientific advancement.

Whatever may be the progress of the world there are certain fundamental principals of life that must always be observed to keep civilization from its own ruin.

We must cease to some extent, the worship of the god of pleasure, and curb our money-mad dispositions. Love must rule in the home for that fundamental institution to maintain its proper position. Honest dealings between all peoples must be the basis of trade and fellowship to restore confidence now lacking. Collapse follows greed and selfishness. All the virtues of clean

Even though the business statistics show no definite change, there is much encouragement in the fact that a relative degree of stability has been reached and maintained in the past two months.

Readjustments are taking place which will have a healthful influence on industry in general. Weaker units are being eliminated—a necessary prelude to general recovery. The efficiency of industrial operations is steadily increasing.

One of the most interesting signs is that a virtual mortgage moratorium is gradually taking effect. The center of this is in the midwestern states, where officials and courts have shown a tendency to aid the farmer in his fight against foreclosures.

The largest mortgage holders—insurance companies and banks—are showing an extremely lenient attitude. A short time ago a group of the largest insurance companies announced a policy which in brief, means that there will be no foreclosures that can be avoided, so long as the mortgagee shows a disposition to do his best to work out his problem.

living must be honored to prevent degeneration.

We are learning anew these things, I believe, but we had lapsed in our regard for them because of too much material prosperity. Our inventions and scientific progress for a time almost overwhelmed us, but with the exercise of common sense we can keep in balance our social, spiritual and economic factors.—Reveille, Port Gibson, Miss.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. DARROW Extension Service Editor

Years ago above-ground silos were tried extensively in Texas and for the most part failed, or at least, ceased to be used. In the last two years county agents have been showing farmers how to dig and fill trench silos with feed at a ridiculously low cost. Now they are spreading rapidly all over the state. Last year 393 new ones were dug, and a total of 523 filed.

To extend the spring garden season into summer, and to advance the fall garden season by at least one month, concrete tile sub-irrigation systems were installed in 383 farm gardens last year with the help of farm and home demonstration agents. The cost for home-made tile was about 1 cent per foot.

American cheese totaling 118,813 pounds was made on Texas farms last year by home demonstration club women and girls. It takes about one gallon of milk to make one pound of cheese.

In 34 Texas counties last year 2854 farmers were helped by county agents to grade products to secure premium prices on the market. Among the products graded were fruits and vegetables, corn, turkeys and eggs.

To aid in getting a supply of sorghum syrup for home use and for sale, 36 Texas county agents last season assisted 673 farmers in making high grade syrup. An average of 80 gallons of syrup was made from one acre of cane.

An average return of $1.22 per tree of which three-fourths was listed as profit, was made by the 1658 Texas farmers last year who had previously budded native pecan trees to improve varieties with the help of county agents. The report is compiled from 66 counties. The average tree yielded 20 pounds.

The long awaited report of the National Transportation Committee was recently issued after months of investigation and study.

Among its suggestions were that parallel lines be abandoned—that top-heavy capital structures be cut down—that regulation be less severe and more flexible.

Meanwhile, a good sign is that railroad traffic and earnings, on the whole, are now ahead of last year.

Efforts to stabilize the oil industry took concrete form with the adoption by the American Petroleum Institute of a new and aggressive policy to eliminate evils. Main result sought is balancing of production with consumption.

The Institute will fight diversion of gas tax funds to other purposes than roads, tax increases, gas bootlegging and tax evasion, and will maintain that gas should rightfully be taxed by the states only.

In the midcontinent field, crude is still selling at ruinous prices, with the California division of the industry in better condition.

Late reports on major industries show:

COPPER—Higher prices are expected. Great interest shown in withdrawal of American Smelting and Refining Company from Copper Exports, Inc., the world association formed in 1929 to sell copper outside this country.

LUMBER—New business fairly good, with demand exceeding production. Further slow improvement in next 60 days is expected.

SHIPPING—Apprehension is expressed that the coming World Economic Conference will attempt to stop federal subsidies of U. S. shipping. These subsidies, in the form of mail contracts, have made it possible to meet low-wage scale, foreign competition.

STEEL—Seasonal buying recently caused improvement. Scrap prices have been firm, and finished steel prices weak.

CANNERS—Outlook extremely uncertain for food canners, with prices low. However, shipments have been larger than last year. Eighty per cent of 1932 asparagus pack is sold, and more than 66 per cent of peach pack. A limited pack is expected this year, in attempt to eliminate carryover.

Of late, farm prices have been on the downgrade, but losses have been small. Cattle was one of the exceptions, showing a rise. Cotton, grain, hay, hogs, and sheep took losses.

The price of grain futures rose temporarily with extremely bad weather. Caution was evident, however, and there has been little pronounced change.

The visible supply of wheat is decreasing steadily—a good sign for future price and market improvement.

Business conditions in the Philippines show no improvement, with credits and collections difficult. Industrial activity is at a high level in Japan. Little change in England. Italy showed a heavy unfavorable trade balance in 1932. Conditions in Austrian industries are unfavorable. In Finland, the low exchange value of the mark during 1932 enabled export industries to increase sales abroad, and marked gains were shown in textile, foodstuffs, metal and other industries.

Spending to save through Advertising

Not many of us, these days, are troubled with so much money that we cannot spend it. But we ARE interested in spending the money we have, to get the most out of it.

One way—and not a new way, either—is to make a budget and put down, week by week, the money that comes in. Put down beside it, week by week, the money that goes out. So much for food, so much for clothing, so much for rent. So much for giving, and for luxuries.

It won't always be easy, of course, to stay within the budget. That's where advertising helps you. Advertisements in this newspaper tell you how much butter, foods, meats, clothing drugs will cost, BEFORE you go shopping! They point out ways to save money. They show you how to cut a little here, a little there. And they tell about new products, new ways of doing things, that help make this life of ours very much worth living!

W. M. S. MEETS

Mrs. A. P. Utterback was hostess to the literary and social meeting of the Methodist Woman's Missionary Society on Tuesday afternoon February 28. The meeting was opened by singing, "Jesus Calls Us." Mrs. Landon Rose led the group in prayer.

The topic of the program was, "Life at Scarritt College." Mrs. B. M. Stradley, leader for the day, gave the scripture reading which was Philippians 3:7-14. This passage of scripture is the school's motto. Mrs. Stradley told the story of how Miss Maria Layng Gibson, for thirty years principal of Scarritt Bible and Training School happened to choose this as the school's motto. For the worship service at the opening of the new Scarritt college in Nashville's she was asked to select an appropriate passage from the Bible that would type all its future aspirations and inspire to ever enlarging achievement. Miss Gibson selected the passage from the third chapter of Philippians. On high and holy days, on Thanksgiving and other occasions these verses are always read.

Mrs. Landon Rose read a letter from Mr. J. L. Cunningham, the present president of the college. She told in a very interesting way of the life at Scarritt College. She paid beautiful tribute to Miss Belle Bennett, founder of the college, whom she had the honor of knowing.

Mrs. F. S. Garrison gave a prayer for Scarritt College, for its faculty its students and the missionaries who have graduated from it and are now in foreign fields. The society sang next the song, "Lead On, O King Eternal," which is a great favorite at Scarritt. Mrs. Reginald Johnson gave in a pleasing manner Scarritt's Alma Mater Song, "Alma Mater Gloria."

Mrs. Utterback served a delicious plate lunch to the following: Mesdames Leslie Osgood, B. M. Stradley, F. S. Garrison, Lee Grigsby, J. E. Landers, Reginald Johnson, C. H. White, Ross Blackwelder, Landon Rose, M. R. Lattimore, H. C. Goldwire, E. McSparren, A. Bricker and P. A. Wyatt and A. M. Buck of Dryden.—Reporter.

RECIPES AND MENUS

DENTON, March 2.—Eggs are a very important part of our dietary. They are valuable not only as a source of protein, fat and minerals, such as phosphorus, sulphur and iron, but also because of their vitamin content. They are richer than milk in iron but not so rich in calcium. The yolk of egg is as rich a source of fat soluble A as butter fat, and it also contains water soluble B and C in considerable amounts.

Because raw or soft cooked eggs are easily digested they are valuable food for the adult who needs to be "built up," and therefore are usually prominent in well arranged dietaries for undernourished, anemic people and especially tuberculosis patients. When all the factors of food value are taken into consideration eggs are apt to be more economical than meat, though not so economical as milk.

It is generally recognized that eggs require less time for cooking than most common foods with a consequent saving of gas or other fuel and an important saving in time. Without question, a reason for the popularity of eggs in most households is that they may be easily and quickly prepared for the table in appetizing ways for almost any course in the menu.

RECIPES

Vegetable Soufflé: 2 c strained or mashed vegetable (spinach), 3 eggs, beaten separately, 1-2 t salt, dash of pepper, 1-2 to 2-3 c medium white sauce. If vegetable is not well seasoned, add salt before mixing. Fold in stiff whites last. Grease baking dish, or individual ramekins. Set in pan containing 1 inch hot water. Bake in moderate oven until brown, serve at once or it will fall.

Fruit Soufflé: 3 egg whites, few grains salt, sugar as needed, 3-4 c fruit pulp drained and passed through sieve. Heat fruit pulp and sweetener. Beat egg whites until stiff; add fruit pulp, sugar and salt. Turn mixture into buttered molds, filling 3-4 full; set molds in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven until soufflé is firm. Serve with or without sauce or whipped cream.

Egg Balls: 2 hard-cooked egg yolks, 1-4 t salt, 1 egg white, dash of white pepper, 2 T melted butter. Press egg yolk through a strainer; add salt, pepper and enough egg white to make a paste. Shape in small balls, roll in flour pan, fry until brown in butter. Add to bouillon just before serving.

Trade among Friends

No matter what some folks say to the contrary, there certainly is a lot of sentiment in business. Friendship, for instance, makes more satisfactory sales than all the cleverness and argument in the world.

You like to trade at a certain store—not because its counters are arranged in a scientific way, but because the folks who serve you are always friendly and helpful.

Just that very thing—FRIENDLY SERVICE—is the power that draws people together into communities like this, where everybody can enjoy the many benefits of neighborly cooperation.

And FRIENDLY SERVICE is the sentimental reason why you find it very much to your advantage to trade with our advertisers—to buy where you feel at home, where your friends will see that you are well satisfied.

TIPS ON TAXES

Legislative News Service Of The Texas Press Association, Austin

AUSTIN—Many measures are pending in the Legislature designed to reduce the cost of government. They range all the way from simple resolutions to constitutional amendments. Legislators are giving attention to the problem of local taxation, as it is affected by State law, and bills are pending whereby local governing bodies will not be hampered in economy efforts by State law and constitutional provisions. The major share of the tax burden is for local purposes, cities, counties and school districts.

Senator Purl of Dallas has introduced a resolution providing for a constitutional amendment abolishing the fee system, except as to public weighers, notaries public and county surveyors. It is believed that vesting in Commissioners Courts the right to fix salaries for officials who are now compensated by fees would result in great savings to the taxpayers. Other legislation, similar in purpose, is being considered.

There seems to be a well-defined purpose to reduce the cost of the State government an average of 25 per cent. The House has already passed the judiciary supply bill, providing for that amount of reduction in salaries of district judges, appellate courts judges and district attorneys. The Senate has not acted. Vigorous protests against the reductions have been made before the Senate committee, considering the bill.

Presidents and regents of teachers colleges are reported to be agreeable to a 25 per cent reduction in their budgets.

The House has before it a bill reducing automobile license fees one third. Passage of this or some similar measure is regarded as certain.

A constitutional amendment, introduced by Senator Walter Woodward, would limit the total cost of the State government to $10 per capita per year. This proposal is unique in that it would compel economy by placing an arbitrary limit on expenditures. Approval of the amendment would place expenditures on the same per capita basis as 1927. In 1925 the per capita cost of State government was $8.50. The peak was reached in 1930 when the figures were $14. Last year the per capita was $12.50.

It is claimed for this amendment that it would provide an automatic check on taxation, which is now virtually without limit. Another claim is that it would compel the discontinuance of bureaus, commissions and departments once their

Mr. Clarence A. Haynes of this city and Miss Bernice Kimball of Marathon were married Thursday evening, February 23rd, by Rev. Jno. V. McCall at the minister's residence.

The bride is a popular member of the younger set in Marathon while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haynes of this city and is employed by the State Highway Department.

The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carter of this city and Mr. Murray McCain and Miss Barcy Brown of Marathon.

We regret very much that the new feature, "Livestock Situation", which was scheduled to reach here for this week's paper failed to arrive. We hope to have this news feature here by the coming week and will try to publish it regularly in the future.

usefulness had passed. Instances of government bureaus and services being discontinued are rare. It is argued that this amendment would require the abolishment of less needed services when necessity for new ones arises.

The general trend is for tax reduction measures, but several bills have been introduced seeking to tap new sources of revenue. The most far-reaching is the proposal to levy a three per cent tax on gross receipts from sales and professional services. Estimates of the amount that would be derived from this levy vary from fifty millions to 100 millions. It is certain that many businesses would be compelled to stand an increase in their State taxes from eight-to ten-fold, and many lines who now pay no State ad valorem taxes would be heavily taxed.

Another new source of revenue is suggested in the bill providing for an income tax. The tax on individuals would begin on the first $1,000 of net income with a rate of one per cent and graduate up to seven per cent on net incomes above $11,000. The corporation rate would begin at two per cent on the first $1,000 and graduate upward to six per cent on incomes above $6,000. Deductions, similar to those of the Federal income tax, would apply.

The belief, however, is that the two bills will be combined and modified to carry some of the features of both. Few will predict, however, what the final fate of these new tax measures will be. There is determined opposition to both, based chiefly on the theory that there should be no new taxes levied but that the State budget should be balanced by economies in expenditures.

A constitutional amendment has been introduced for increases in salaries of a few State officials. The Governor's pay would be increased from $4,000 to $12,000; Attorney General from $4,000 to $10,000; Treasurer and Land Commissioner from $2,500 to $6,000. Many other State officials now receive much higher pay than these.

ELECTRICITY - - - YOUR CHEAPEST SERVANT

Soft drinks are cheap and so is electric service!

YOU think nothing of ordering a soda, a sundae or a malted milk. The nickels and dimes you pay for such indulgences are so trivial that you never miss them. Yet, if you have the average sweet tooth, you spend more for soft drinks, ice cream and the like than you do for household electric service.

For considerably less than the cost of a single malted milk, electricity lights the home, furnishes radio entertainment, operates the vacuum cleaner, makes the breakfast toast, percolates the coffee and performs numerous other household duties for a period of twenty-four hours. So cheap is electricity that the average customer of this company pays only 11 cents for a full day's service.*

Sodas and sundaes are worth the price, but when it comes to real, honest-to-goodness value, what do you buy that offers you more for your money than residential electric service?

*This figure was computed by dividing the total residential electric revenue by the total number of residential customers. Some customers pay considerably less than 11c per day and some pay more, but the average is 11c.
