Each patrol is to have various interesting things in their rooms concerning nature.—Reporter.

Culture Club Met With Mrs. Savage On Last Friday

The Sanderson Culture Club met last Friday, November 17, at the home of Mrs. Will Savage with Mesdames F. L. Burnside and A. F. Thrift as co-hostesses. The home was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums. Roll call was answered with famous sayings from American History.

Lovely refreshments were served during the social hour.—Reporter.

RELIEF WORKS EMPLOY 50 MEN IN CITY

Clean-Up Drive Now Being Done By Unemployed Of City

Relief work was started again here last Thursday when a crew of 15 men were put to work. By Wednesday of this week there were a total of 50 unemployed men at work on the city wide clean-up campaign.

The men are to work on a 30-hour week basis at a wage of 40 cents an hour.

No one project has been created for the relief men to do in this County as the County is short of funds to help in this work. Judge Henshaw has been in Austin all week conferring with the State Relief Committee and some definite project will be worked out there.

Vacant lots about the city are being cleared of weeds and brush and the streets and drainage ditches in the north part of the city are being cleaned out by the men.

Juvenile Operetta Is Presented At Chapel Tuesday

Miss Alvis Harris, teacher of the first grade, had charge of the chapel program on Tuesday, November 21.

Children of the first grade, assisted by pupils from the second and third grades, presented the following Juvenile Operetta, "The Golden Whistle" by Gertrude Kröb Willis:

Beffo, a little boy, (David Duke) awaking after a nap in the woods on a summer afternoon, sees before him The Little Old Woman, (Maurine Frazier). After talking to him, she gives him, on her departure, the Golden Whistle. He soon finds that whenever he blows it, comes tramping in answer to its summons all the fairy folks of the woods, as well as birds, flowers, even butterflies.

They prove entertaining and delightful companions, and when the Golden Whistle is lost and stolen by the White Rabbit (Sonny Rochet), they summon to Beffo's aid, the Fairy Queen (Frances McRorey). The Little Old Woman returning, the Fairy Queen releases her from her evil enchantment which had been over her, and throwing off the long cloak, she stands revealed, a lovely little girl.

Elves: John Louis Whistler, James Kerr, J. C. Crain, Tommy Caruthers, Glenn Haines and Freddy Talbot.

Cardinals: Aubry Harrell, and Joe Cook.

Robin Red Breast: Harold Surratt.

Wild Roses: Maureen Cox, Mamie Morris, Janice White, Edna Mae McAdams, Margaret Ruth Yeates, girls from the second grade.

Butterflies: Mary Hope Bodkin, Mary Nell Higgins, Marian Blackwelder, Ruth Ann Barber.

Fairy Queen: Frances McRorey.

Attendants to Fairy Queen: Mary Perl Caruthers, Marjory Morris, girls from the third grade.

SERVICES HELD IN DEL RIO FOR T. C. ELLIS

Employee of Bridge Gang At Watkins Found Dead Last Friday

T. C. Ellis, 49, an employee on the bridge gang in charge of J. F. Hunt, now stationed at Watkins, was found dead early last Friday morning, after fellow workers noticed that Ellis had not occupied his bunk the night before.

Ellis was last seen alive last Thursday night about 7:30 p. m. when he left the boarding car presumably for a walk. He had just finished eating a hearty supper and outside of complaining of indigestion several days before, was in good health. The body was found about 400 yards off of the T. & N. O. right of way.

Justice Peace R. L. Henry, from this city, was notified of the finding of the body and went at once to Watkins to hold an inquest. He pronounced death due to acute indigestion.

Doran Undertaking Company of Del Rio was called and came out, taking the body to Del Rio that afternoon to prepare it for burial and to await instructions from the mother, Mrs. Emma A. Ellis of Katy, Texas.

Ellis had been employed on the T. & N. O. Railroad off and on for the past 19 years and had been employed with the present bridge gang for the past three months.

Funeral services for Ellis were planned to be held Thursday afternoon from the Doran Funeral Home in Del Rio, the Rev. L. B. Gilbert of the First Baptist Church officiating. Interment was made in West Lawn Cemetery in Del Rio.

Besides the mother, Mrs. Emma A. Ellis, he is survived by a brother, "Cub" Ellis, also of Katy, Texas.

They ask that the public keep this in mind and would appreciate their patronage.

NOTICE!

In order that this office maybe closed at least part of the day next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, the Editor asks that the advertisers and the public please make every effort to get their advertisements and news items in not later than Tuesday noon if possible.

We certainly thank you to bear this in mind and ask your hearty cooperation in this matter.

FEW RESIDENTS MAKING USE OF SPLIT PAYMENT

November 30 Last Day To Take Advantage Of Law

Very few Terrell County taxpayers have so far taken advantage of the privilege given them in paying one half of their taxes.

The law gives taxpayers the privilege of paying State and County taxes in two payments provided the first half is paid on or before next Thursday, November 30th. Those who pay one half of their taxes now are given until next June 30th to pay the balance. With the first payment it is necessary that poll taxes be paid.

Those who do not take advantage of the split tax payment have until January 31, 1934, to pay the whole amount before a penalty and interest is added.

Our citizens are urged to pay their taxes soon as possible as the funds, especially school money, is badly needed. To date very little taxes, or even delinquent taxes have been tax rolls about 40 per cent of last year's taxes to be collected and some of this is due by large tax payers.

As the coming year will be an election year for both State and County offices, our citizens are urged to not forget their poll tax payment.

School Will Have Holiday Next Week

The public schools of this city will have a holiday next week in observance of Thanksgiving. The schools will be closed both Thursday and Friday.

A number of the teachers are planning on attending the State Teachers' meeting which will be held in Austin during the holidays.

SHEEP DISEASE QUARANTINE IS PUT IN EFFECT

Only Four Small Ranches In West Texas Are Placed Under Ban

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 18.—The Livestock Sanitary Commission yesterday posted quarantine notices on four small ranches involving about 20 or 25 sections of land in its investigation and effort at eradication of a disease which has caused the death of several hundred head of sheep. The notices did not state the name of the disease, but it has been generally held to be Ictero Hemoglobinuria, a disease that is almost 100 per cent fatal.

Ranches of W. E. Newton, Barney Wilson, Clyde and Fred Loftin near Mertzon and the lease of Earl Binion 2 1-2 miles south of Barnhart were effected. It was estimated that about 3,200 to 3,500 head of sheep are involved though no livestock will be permitted to leave the ranches during the existence of the ban. Ranchmen accepted the quarantine to abide by its terms as the commission and its experts work on the problem of the disease, which it doubts is contagious. It is not believed that the quarantine will be effective for a long period of time. The United States government has offered its laboratory services in the study of slides, tissue and blood from the infected herds.

Will Newton, one of the men affected, is a breeder of registered rams, but has not sold a ram or any livestock since it became apparent that the infection existed on his ranch.

Dr. L. Lewis, veterinarian of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, posted the notices yesterday.

UNION LEADERS AUTHORIZE CALL AFTER MEN VOTE

Lines In Texas And Louisiana Affected By Vote Of Brotherhoods

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 22. (AP)—A committee of the railroad labor brotherhoods voted unanimously late today to call a general strike on the Southern Pacific Lines in Texas and Louisiana "in the immediate future."

While the officials would not say when the strike would start, a member of the brotherhoods who would not permit the use of his name said it would begin Saturday noon.

The decision to strike was an outgrowth of a controversy involving 108 points. One of the most important was the company's proposal to eliminate a freight crew terminal at Echo and other terminals.

A poll of the Southern Pacific workers was conducted and they voted in favor of the strike. The vote was counted today.

The company management contended that some of the controversial questions were managerial in nature and expressed unwillingness to submit them to arbitration.

F. W. Lewis, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen asserted the brotherhoods had had no contact with Southern Pacific officials since the strike vote was completed.

"We are not looking toward any governmental interference or mediation and prefer to settle the matter with the Southern Pacific", Lewis said.

The "Big Four" brotherhoods include firemen, engineers, conductors, enginemen and workers on the line.

The railroad management said it had received numerous applications from persons willing to replace its present workers if they decide to strike.

Union Thanksgiving Day Services Will Be Held In City

We were criticized the past week for not having a writeup of the baseball game that was played on Thursday, November 9th between the ladies of the Culture Club.

The Editor sincerely regrets that she was unable to attend this game and thus be able to write it up. We offer no apology for not attending as Thursday is our busiest day in this office and when one is doing all their own work, especially in a newspaper plant, there is not much time to attend ball games or any other amusements as far as that goes.

But we feel as tho we are not entirely to blame for the write-up not appearing in our columns. The Club has a reporter and the Editor felt as though the reporter should have seen to it that the was reported.

Just the same we are told that a good game was missed and that the ladies proved to be good ball players in both games that were played on Thursday, November 9th and 16th.

Several deer have been killed in this section of the country since the season opened last Thursday. Every day hunters have been returning from points West of here with their deer, while several of our local hunters have been successful in getting their limit.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving and then soon Christmas will be here with everyone looking forward to Santa Claus. Now is the time for our merchants to start their Christmas advertising, get out their toys and gifts and put them on display so that we can keep as much of that money at home as possible. Let's get busy merchants as you know those well known sales catalogues are now out and people are going to buy and you might as well get a little of the business.

Life is worth living, if only for its taking of chances.

One purseful of opportunities

THE opportunities, to which we refer, are the daily bargains to be found in every shopping area. So some people find them quite by chance . . . stumble over them blindly . . . and acquire them with astonishment. Others never seem to be in the right store at the right time: If there's a 25 per cent marked-down sale of shoes at Smith's, they are buying at Brown & Co. . . . If a grocer three blocks away is clearing out his crated goods at half-price, they are at the corner store making routine purchases.

But—there are some people who always find these opportunities. Their money buys them more—and better—merchandise than their neighbors'. Why? Not through good luck, you may be sure, but simply because these people read the advertisements in their daily newspapers.

This advertising is NEWS. It tells WHAT . . . It shows WHERE those who read it every week are informed. They save themselves time, trouble, and DOLLARS. . . . And their homes are always up-to-date, their clothes stylish . . . their meals fresh with seasonal variety . . . all through the opportunities that advertising give them.

'Gold Diggers' Has Striking Cast And Spectacular Chorus

"Gold Diggers of 1933." Warner Brothers' lavishly produced musical film, opens at the Princess Theatre on December 8th and 9th.

Eight players of stellar rank, headed by Warren William, Joan Blondell and Ruby Keeler, take important parts.

Others include Dick Powell, Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Ginger Rogers and Ned Sparks.

All the resources of a great studio were placed at the disposal of Director Mervyn LeRoy when he started work on "Gold Diggers of 1933."

Garnished with spectacular chorus work under direction of Busby Berkeley, whose choruses helped make "42nd Street" memorable, "Gold Diggers of 1933" presents the story of the personalities and problems behind the planning and staging of a Broadway success.

One of the five big musical numbers in this picture revolves around a new song, "We're in the Money".

Fifty-four beautiful girls sing and dance to this tune, with Ginger Rogers as their leader, and their costumes consist of 54,000 silver coins!

Five silver dollars, 28 feet in diameter, form the stage background for this spectacular number, while in the foreground are dozens of gold pieces, 10 feet wide.

Another number equally lavish is a violin number, in which the 54 beauties, led by Ruby Keeler and Dick Powell, tread the stately measures of a waltz as they play 54 solo violins equipped with neon lights.

Our streets and vacant lots are again being cleaned by crews of unemployed people through the Terrell County Rehabilitation and Relief Committee, work which was started this past week end. This will be quite an improvement to our little city and lets all do our part by trying to help keep the streets and vacant lots free of loose rubbish, such as papers, etc.

RECIPES AND MENUS

By Department of Home Economics
 Texas State College for Women
 (OIA)

DENTON, Nov. 23—When the savage's unpremeditated diet is compared with our carefully planned scientific menus we wonder how he maintained perfect health with no thought of food except to consume it. His unspoiled appetite for simple foods in their natural, unrefined state is the answer. With civilization and its man-made habits of living come pampered appetites. In the average American family the mother usually does all the buying and preparing of food. To maintain the health of her family and yet have an adequate amount of money for other necessities is her aim. A study of food value together with budgets is necessary. Naturally it is easier to work out such plans on a fairly large allowance, but since the majority of people are living on limited incomes we must have a plan that will function on the small allowance.

Studies of food purchases of families in various parts of the country show that the causes of malnutrition are not always due to lack of income, but more often to wrong ideas about the nutritive value of foods and to preference for "what we like." Our bodies require a wide variety of foods to nourish a variety of tissues. Much of the real value of our foods is lost in the manufacture of our so called "refined foods." They are, therefore, robbed of nature's endowment. Milk, whole grain cereals, green leaves, and fruits we know are protective foods and should be included.

Breakfast: Rolled oats and stewed raisins, sugar and cream, bacon, whole wheat muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon: Macaroni and cheese, creamed onions, deviled eggs, cornbread, butter, chocolate blanc mange

Dinner: Spanish steak, creamed cabbage, mashed potatoes, graham bread and butter, prune salad, tapioca cream.

Breakfast: Cream of wheat, sugar and cream, egg omelet, bacon, children, coffee.

Luncheon: Cottage cheese salad, creamed spinach, candied sweet potatoes, whole wheat bread, butter, baked custard, milk.

Dinner: Stuffed peppers, hominy, buttered carrots, hot biscuits, butter baked apples, milk.

Stuffed Peppers: 1lb of ground meat, 1 egg, peppers, 3-4 c bread crumbs, seasonings. The peppers should be parboiled first then stuffed with remaining ingredients which have been thoroughly mixed. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 to 30 minutes.

Texas Industrial Activities

Texas Beverage Co., Dallas is a new $100,000 industrial corporation chartered at Austin.

Fendley Co., San Antonio, is a new manufacturing charter recently issued at Austin. Capital stock is $6,600.

Erection of a new saw mill is ready to begin at Jefferson, bringing about twenty new families to that town.

Kurth Lumber Manufacturing Co., capital stock $125,000, has recently been incorporated at Lufkin to manufacture lumber.

New industrial incorporations include Pyramid Concrete Products Co., Beaumont, $25,000 capital; Victor Publishing Co., Abilene, $10,000.

The Itasca Cotton Mill has received one large order from the United States government that will keep it operating two shifts until January 1st.

Resumption of work at the Belton yarn mill was accompanied by the replacement of much old machinery. The plant now has 12,000 spindles.

Industrial development was largely the cause of the 24.5 per cent increase in the State's electrical output between 1927 and 1932, as shown by the Census Bureau reports.

Byrd Air Cooler Co., recently incorporated for $150,000 capital, is a new industry at Waxahachie which will manufacture air-cooling apparatus for use in homes and buildings generally.

The first rolled-oats plant in the Southwest is in operation at Sherman. It has an hourly capacity of 6,000 pounds and if operated at capacity would require 7,000 bushels of oats a day. It is being operated on a schedule to meet the sales demand.

Resumption of operations by the Sandusky Cooperage Co., barrel plant at Brownwood, gave employment to fourteen men and made a material addition to the local industrial payroll. Of the 140,000 barrels used in Texas turkey shipments last year, the Brownwood plant furnished 100,000. Operation will continue until Jan. 5, at least.

Rockport wants a shrimp canning plant. It has the strapping, the labor and the transportation facilities, according to a letter from A. L. Bracht secretary of the Business Men's League, and a spirit of cooperation available to whoever will under take to supply the need. Eight carloads of shrimp were shipped out of Rockport in one recent month exclusive of express and truck shipments. Mr. Bracht will be glad to give any further information desired.

SPECIAL THANKSGIVING DINNER

A special Thanksgiving dinner will be served next Thursday at the Loma Alta Cafe from 11 a. m., until 4 p. m. There will be no extra charge for the dinner. Adv.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. DARROW
 Extension Service Editor

"We used to eat dry stuff all winter and were sick a lot. I weighed 116 pounds and was taking medicine all the time. Now I weigh 136 and haven't taken medicine in months. I think it's all due to the better diet we have now," declares Mrs. W. O. Fish, 4-H pantry demonstrator of the Vivian Home Demonstration Club in Foard county. She has canned 1250 quarts of food for her family of five.

State certified cotton seed made 3.1 bales of cotton on 7 acres for Richard Weischwill of Garfield, DeWitt county, reports the county agent. He stored the seed separately until after ginning season and then ginned it clean for next year's seed.

Canned products and eggs, butter and fresh vegetables are paying the board of Edith Simmons, Huffman 4-H club girl in Harris county, while going to school this winter in Humble. Her schooling is due to her 4-H demonstration, she says.

Pecans grown on cultivated land produce from 10 to 15 per cent more than trees in pasture, J. M. Blackburn, of Navarro county tells the county agent. Twenty-five acres of pecans in a cotton field plowed up during the plow-up campaign are bearing a much heavier crop than trees on uncultivated land, he states.

Minerals fed sows by 4-H club boys in Wheeler county are proving wonders to the dads according to the county agent who reports 179 farm boys raising club pigs.

Because she made and sold 250 cakes this year in the Home Demonstration Club Market in Sulphur Springs, Mrs. Roy Matthews has been able to purchase a new oil range.

Tax Adds Little To Cotton Goods Cost

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 23—The processing tax of 4.2 cents per pound of the net weight of raw cotton going into manufactured commodities accounts for only a small percentage of the cost of finished cotton goods.

Investigations in 10 major cities throughout the country, made under the direction of Dr. Fred C. Howe, Consumer's Counsel of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, indicate that clerks in some retail stores are still explaining price increases on cotton goods by citing the processing tax as the only, or at least as an important cause.

"That the processing tax is a negligible factor in the price mark-ups on cotton goods has been proved beyond quibble," said Dr. Howe in discussing the question. "Those who attribute an undue share of price increase to the tax are badly informed."

On a sheet, which usually contains a little less than two pounds of cotton, the tax amounts to just 8 cents. On ordinary work shirts, the tax is about 3 1-2 cents. The same proportion holds for other cotton goods, depending upon the weight of raw cotton used in manufacturing.

Other costs than the processing tax contribute to price increases. Where operating and other costs have increased, they are adding to the selling price. The processing tax itself, however, remains a minor factor.

Tornado Is Most Frequent Disaster; Causes Heavy Loss of Lives

What type of disaster occurs most frequently in the United States?

This question is answered from the relief annals of the American Red Cross which show over a period of years that the tornado, or cyclone as it is called in some sections, is the most frequent and claims a heavy toll of life. It swoops almost without warning, and in the terrific whirlpool of its fierce winds it destroys all in its path.

The Red Cross gave relief in 44 tornadoes in eighteen states last year. The tornadoes killed 326 persons, injured 2,755 and the Red Cross gave aid to 21,738 who were homeless, injured or otherwise victims of the storms.

Toll of the Earthquake

When a severe earthquake killed 95 persons, injured 4,911 and destroyed several thousand homes in Southern California last March, the Red Cross was first upon the ground with emergency relief. It required more than three months for the Red Cross to restore the needy to a self-sustaining basis. The organization expended a relief fund of $111,000.

Serves Under Five Presidents

John Barton Payne, a retired judge and lawyer of international reputation, is serving his twelfth year as chairman of the American Red Cross. His service is without pay, and his appointment is by the President of the United States. He has served by appointment in high public office under five presidents—Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, Hoover and Roosevelt.
