HAMER WAS RIGHT
"We shot the devil out of them." That was the remark made by ex-ranger Hamer, when he halted the notorious Clyde Barrow and his female companion, Bonnie Parker, who equally notorious. Some may term the remark profane, or irrelevant. But it wasn't. It was trite—true as gospel. While they were alive they were full of the devil who, we were taught in Sunday school, is the author of evil. These two were full of evil, and they didn't hide it, nor let ethics stand in their way. Now they are clear of evil. Hamer shot the devil out of them.

THE GAME IS ON
Samuel Insull is back in this country to stand trial for the wreck of a gigantic enterprise, cause by manipulations in conflict with our laws, and the financial wrecking of thousands of the innocent who trailed with him. He's broke, in body and wealth, says his lawyers, to put him in prison even for a short term will be like pronouncing the death sentence. Jail for him? Already his trial has been postponed and, like sodas of others, will be wore out by "loophole" appeals. Sam is just as free as you and I. If he is ever brought to justice, we believe there is a "New Deal" in vogue.

Recently a new code was sent to publisher, large and small, asking they subscribe, and fix prices on a basis of fair competition. But there should be premiums offered country editors for withholding the truth. If Gen. Johnson will approve of our schedule, we'll all get rich. Here are some suggestions: For telling the public that a man is a successful citizen when everyone knows he's as lazy as a government mule—$2.70. Referring to a deceased citizen as one mourned by the entire community, when we know he is missed only by the poker circle—$10.13. Referring to some galling scandal monger as an estimable old lady, when every business man in town would rather see the devil coming—$1.10. Sending some hypocritical old reprobate to heaven when we know that hell is too good for him—$5.00. Referring to a bride as a charming, dutiful daughter, when she's ugly as a mud-rail fence, and lounges about the house all day while her mother is working her fingers to the bone—$3.75. Referring to merchants as "progressive citizens" when they never advertised in their life to help draw trade to town—$100.

The suggestion of a swimming pool for Sanderson found echo, and Sergt. Richardson stated to day that proceeds from dances at the airport, after paying expenses, would be donated for that purpose. Plans are yet vague, but it's a start toward a movement that will be a boon for our city.

Folks, you're falling down on the job! We need a few more customers at our home baseball games at Legion Park. Last Sunday a game was staged that would do credit to big leaguers. The fans enjoyed it. If you don't think Sanderson has a real club, come out and see the next game and bring the Missus. If she won't come with you, tie her to the Frigidaire and come anyway.

A miss up in Iowa is advertising for a missing dachshund. The ad reads: "He is two dogs long and half a dog high and a bit underslung."

You can live cheaper but not by any means happier when your wife is reducing.

And now comes the sad tale of the NRA enthusiast who took on an extra wife, and received a summons instead of a blue Eagle.

Mrs. Vollen Ross and family have moved to their ranch near Pumpville for the summer.

H. B. James was a San Antonio visitor this week.

LOCATES BANDIT HIDEOUT

Another Rain Falls in This Section Tuesday

Heavy Rains North Of City Fills All Surface Tanks

WIND DOES DAMAGE

WINDMILLS BLOWN DOWN AND GARDENS RUINED BY HAIL; MANY SEEK REFUGE IN THE STORM CELLARS.

Over an inch of rain fell in Sanderson Tuesday afternoon in less than an hour's time, and soon the canyon in the south part of the city was like a ragin river. Reports from points west are that the rain was heavy in some sections while in others it was very light. The rainfall did not extend very far east of Sanderson, while to the south the precipitation was reported heavy from Bullis Gap to within a few miles of town.

On the O. T. Schupbach ranch in the southwestern part of the county a tornado struck, doing considerable damage to a new windmill, and demolishing a tent nearby. Mr. and Mrs. Schupbach and their daughter, who were in the ranch home, hastily left, thinking for a few minutes that the house would be wrecked.

The same high winds struck on the Joe F. Brown ranch, wrecking a small windmill and twisting the larger one until it now rests on but two supports. Bozarth stated that the twister made him lie for the dug-out, where he remained until all was calm and serene outside. Surface tanks were full and draws were running big late Wednesday.

Rains of varied volume were reported north of here, with some hail which did very little damage except to some truck gardens. Downie canyon, about 12 miles north on the Fort Stockton highway, was on a rampage Wednesday night, holding up traffic for several hours.

Heavy clouds hung over in the west Thursday, and good rains were reported in that section. As the Times goes to press, prospects for more rain are exceedingly bright.

Amateur Cyclone Strikes

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Schupbach came in Wednesday from their ranch in the southwestern part of the county and report a good rain falling in that section, and that a small cyclone struck the ranch, damaging a new windmill beyond repair.

To Hold Matched Goat Roping and Dance at Dryden

Dryden, just getting rid of its hangover from a fine rodeo held two weeks ago is staging another event, scheduled for next Saturday, June 2.

The circulars announcing the event, states it will be a matched goat roping contest between crack ropers of this section, the men making their own arrangements and rules. The exhibition will be free for all who care to witness it, and at six o'clock that long promised feed of army mulligan, with all the trimmings will be served. The supper, also, will be free.

At night the Seven Madcaps will unlimber their saxophones and other paraphernalia and furnished good music for a dance at the hangar. Part of the proceeds from this dance will be given to the Boy and Girl Scout troops of Sanderson. Everybody cordially invited.

Sanderson Wins 2nd Game From Ft. Stockton Team

A return game was played yesterday with the Fort Stockton team at Ft. Stockton, most of the Sanderson regulars being available. They left early Thursday morning, and word received here that evening was that Sanderson had again beaten the Pecos county boys, the final score being 7 to 4.

This report, with no particulars was received as the Times went to press, so the details will have to wait until next week's issue.

Woman Is Seriously Injured When Car Overturns

Josefa Perez, young Mexican girl of this city, and Sra. Josefina Bustamante, also of Sanderson, are in a serious condition following an automobile accident which occurred a few miles from Fort Stockton about noon Sunday.

The women, together with Sra. Inocencia Perez, Hortencia Escamilla, Rosa Postes, in a Buick sedan driven by Luis Garza, turned over in trying to avoid the Buick sedan owned by A. Bankhead of this city, which had turned over. In Bankhead's car were Fidencio Chalam-baga, Sabas Florez and Paulo Perez.

On their way to a ball game in Ft. Stockton that afternoon, the cars were following each other closely. In making a sharp curve the Bankhead car turned over; so close was the second car that, in avoiding a crash, it swerved sharply and also turned over. The Bankhead car suffered the most damage, but none of its occupants were injured.

Passing motorists carried the injured to Fort Stockton where they received medical attention. Josefa Perez is still in a hospital at Fort Stockton, and it was stated she may suffer the loss of her right hand, which was almost severed from her arm. The Bustamante woman was returned to her home here. Her injuries were confined to a wrenched back, cuts and bruises. The other occupant of the cars were not seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Adams spent last week end in Alpine and Marfa visiting with relatives and friends.

Charter Members of Church Honored By Congregation

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Savage, pioneer residents of Sanderson, were honor guests at a barbecue dinner given last Sunday at the Masonic hall by the members of the Methodist church.

A large congregation was present at the church for the 11 o'clock service to hear the sermon delivered by the pastor, the Rev. T. M. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Savage were special guests, as they are the only charter members of this congregation that are now living here, and who were instrumental in having the church built here in 1903-04.

At the noon hour a sumptuous barbecue feast was enjoyed, with over one hundred people in attendance. Following the dinner, the assembly lingered into the afternoon and spent the time talking and listening to the many interesting events of the past that were recalled by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Savage.

Sanderson Cops In Close Game Sunday

Dance and Baseball For Boy Scout Fund

Saturday, June 16th will be a big day in Sanderson for at that time the citizens will witness one of the best baseball games when the local Boy Scout troop tangle with members of the American Legion post at Legion Field. Many members of the Legion refuse to be classed in the ranks of the "has-beens," and are sure they can put the younger generation on the shelf. Anyhow, it will be a contest between Youth and Experience, and baseball fans are promised an afternoon of real entertainment.

Other plans include a big dance at the C. A. C. hall the same night, the Comanche Ramblers of Fort Stockton to furnish the music.

Next day, Sunday, the 17th, at 3.30 the Sanderson regulars will take on Fort Stockton at Legion field. The proceeds from both the games will be used by the Sanderson Post to defray the expenses of securing a scoutmaster for the Boy Scout troop, and make possible a trip to the scout encampment at Camp Pawcett on the Nueces.

Our citizens are asked to keep the above dates in mind, and to cooperate whoheartedly in this worthy movement.

Clyde Barrow and Girl Pal Come to End of the Trail

The eight-year trail of murder and robbery of Clyde Barrow came to a sudden end Wednesday in the little town of Gibsland, La. With him was his girl friend and equally as dangerous, Bonnie Parker. Both were killed instantly when a posse from Texas, headed by ex-ranger captain Frank Hamer, waylaid their car, and riddled Barrow and his girl companion with buckshot.

Barrow was dubbed the nation's bad boy, No. 1, and had led officers a merry chase over many states. He was trailed into Louisiana by Capt. Hamer, who struck the trail several times before the final meeting at Gibsland.

Hamer, in a statement to Associated Press, said he ordered the car to stop, but the warning was not heeded, whereupon he and his deputies opened fire, which they continued even after the car careened off the road and struck an embankment. Both occupants were riddled by the officers' fire. Both were heavily armed, a machine gun being in the girl's lap, ready for use.

Sustains Fractured Leg Bone at Dryden

While unloading oil at the A. F. Buchanan in Dryden, James Daniels employe of the Magnolia Petroleum company, in this city, suffered a broken bone in his right leg.

Mr. Daniels had stepped down off the truck onto the ground with a can of oil when the accident occurred. Finishing his work at this station he drove back to Sanderson and went to a physician for treatment.

The injury will keep him away from his work about a week or ten days, and while the injury is very painful, James is up and about with the aid of crutches.

Three Run Lead In First Give Locals Advantage

'T WAS A CLOSE SHAVE

SMITH OF SANDERSON, AND RODGERS OF FORT STOCKTON FEATURE WITH HEAVY HITTING.

The formal opening of the baseball season at Legion Park was featured last Sunday with a game between the Sanderson regulars and the fast Fort Stockton team. The exhibition was one that the fans can hardly hope to see duplicated again during the entire season. Both teams were on their toes from the start and the game, which evolved itself into a fielders' battle, kept the fans from complaining about the heat. Not until the last out in the ninth would player or customer concede victory to one side or the other.

Bennett, portside flinger for the Pecos county boys, allowed but 7 safeties and fanned nine, but the hits were opportune and, coupled with costly errors robbed him of a win.

Anderson started for Sanderson, and when the locals secured a three-run lead in the initial stanza, he turned the job of holding them over to Buchanan, who was hit pretty freely. Fielding of a gilt edged variety in the danger spots pulled him out of several holes. In the ninth with one down the tying run on third base, and the winning run on second, Anderson saved the day by making the next two batters roll to the infield for easy out.

First Inning

James struck out. Dyche out, fly to third. Jernigan foul fly dropped by McDonald, but he went out on strikes.

White's fly dropped by right field, Duke singled to right, White scored and Duke rested on third thru bad throw-in. Smith doubled down the third base line, Duke tallied; Robertson fanned. Andy's hit to third was handled ok, but bad throw to first scored Smith. Buchanan out, third to first, and Nance made it the third down, short to first.

Second Inning

Puckett out fly to Nance. Rodgers hit a hard one to second that went for a hit, he stole second and perched on third on passed ball. Rooney

Infant Has Narrow Escape

David, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Halbert, caused his parents an anxious hour Wednesday evening when he drank a small quantity of kerosene. Dr. Halbert had been pouring the oil on ant beds in the yard and street, and had one of the older children place the can in the house. Little David came along and picking up the can drank a small quantity, which had the effect of strangling him, alarming his parents, who rushed him to the office of Dr. Sharpe, where a stomach pump was used. So far the little fellow has shown no ill effects from the dose.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Downum spent last Sunday at the Banner ranch where they enjoyed the day fishing. They reported that evidently the signs were not right, as they did not have much luck with the finney tribe, but enjoyed the trip just the same.

Saddle and Blanket Found in Cave May Lead to Treasure

LOOTED SO. PAC. TRAIN

MAY REVIVE SEARCH FOR THE LOOT SECURED FROM MAIL CAR AND PASSENGERS 35 YEARS AGO.

While riding the range at the Chandler ranch on the Independence this past week, Joe Chandler and Arnold Ellis chanced to ride up on a cave in which they found a saddle which evidently had been placed there many years ago.

In exploring the cave many bones were found, but the two boys do not know whether or not they were human bones. The saddle was in fairly good condition, most of the leather being well preserved. It was a large saddle and the imprint on the leather, still readable, showed it had been made by W. T. Frazier, of Pueblo, Colo. It is of a stock of saddles that is no longer being made.

Marks on the saddle led to the theory that it had been used as a pack-saddle, being what is known among ranchers considerably reprobated.

The brand U K was stamped in several places on the saddle. Under the saddle they found the remnant of the saddle blanket, just a small piece of what was once a fine Navajo blanket of brilliant red. This had decayed from contact with the floor of the cavern.

The finding of the saddle and blanket gives rise to many surmises in regard to events that occurred some thirty-five years ago. Old timers in that section of the country recall that it was near this cave that a horse belonging to a noted outlaw was found shot to death shortly after he had participated in the hold-up and robbery of a Southern Pacific passenger train near Lozier canyon. Passengers and baggage coach were robbed, and the outlaws, though hotly pursued, made a getaway.

So hot was the chase that, up to the present day, many are of the opinion that the plunder was hidden in the vicinity of where the saddle was found last week. Of late years several have made intensive search for the supposedly buried treasure, but with no luck.

The finding of this saddle, it is thought will again revive the hopes of many who have given up finding what is alleged to have been quite a sum of money and valuables.

Last week the boys searched in the cave, dug in many places, with the hope that they had at last solved the mystery of where the plunder from the S. P. train was cached, but without success.

H. D. Williams III

Reports Thursday from the bedside of H. D. Williams, who has been confined to his home since Monday, were that he was somewhat improved. Mr. Williams has been suffering from a cold and other complications and on Wednesday his condition was such that it was feared he was contracting bronchial pneumonia. His many friends regret to learn of his sudden illness and trust he will soon be up and able to resume his duties as brakeman on the T. & N. O. Ry.

Game Warden Here

O. Z. Finley was in Sanderson on Wednesday of this week, attending to business matters. Mr. Finley is a state game warden, and from what the Times can hear is working at the job and enforcing the law. He informs us that his place on the Pecos is now open to fishermen, a place where they can fish to their heart's content. A charge of two dollars is made, which includes meals and bed.

MEMORIAL DAY

Next Wednesday, May 30th, is the one day of the year sanctified to the memory of the heroes of every crisis that has visited this great country. From the stormy days of '76, when our forefathers arose in righteous indignation against oppressive government, until the last shot was fired in the Argonne, there has never been a dearth of heroes—heroes in the full meaning of the word—ready to do and die to keep inviolate the tenet evolved by our Revolutionary forefathers, and incorporated in that greatest of human documents, the Declaration of Independence, that all were created equal, entitled, without molestation, to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.

VINDICATION OF GEN. MITCHELL

General Wm. Mitchell, rightly dubbed "The Flying General," because as head of U. S. aviation during the world war, choose to get experience first hand, rather than from white collared "experts" lolling in swivel chairs, is about to be vindicated, for criticism of the wretched condition of our air forces as an arm of the national defense. The doddering generals and admirals of the strategy board, whose hobby seems to be the banning of any modern idea, accused Mitchell of crying "Wolf," and, sad to say, made it stick. The general was asked to apologize; he refused, and was promptly court martialed out of service. But he never quit fighting for an air defense adequate to cope with any other nation on the face of the earth.

The recent attempt of the army to carry the mail let the light in and the people and the President both became aroused. The boys were brave enough, willing enough, but their equipment was woefully inadequate to the task. The toll of life for a short space of time proved that a peacetime task was more than they could tackle. The natural question was: "What will happen to them in war-time?" Mitchell's complaints were set aside, but the evidence of events during the army's trial of air mail transportation could not be shunted aside. Now comes news that President Roosevelt is planning a new government agency under which all aeronautical activities, both government and private will be operated. A startling bit of news, but overshadowed by the announcement that Gen. Mitchell may head this department.

YOUR HOME PAPER

On page four, this issue, you will find a special Economy Offer to those who would like to subscribe or renew their subscriptions to the Sanderson Times—$1.00 a year—good until August 31st. An opportunity for those who are backward about writing relatives and friends in other parts of the country. The home paper should have your whole-hearted support. It's often small, but no country editor need be overawed by the difference in size of his paper and that of papers published in the larger cities. The local paper has a place in the life of its community that the great dailies will never usurp. Now, as always, it is expressive of the temperament of its local people, fair and just in its news columns, oftentimes, through sympathy and an aversion to embarrassing friends and relatives, omit what is otherwise "startling news." It is the best and the cleanest exponent of constructive journalism.

Remember Wednesday, May 30th, is Memorial Day. The flag should fly from every public building in Sanderson, and in front of every business house in the city.

An American youth will quit the farm to keep from getting up at 5 a. m. After he goes in business in the city he gets up at 4 a. m. to play a round or two of golf.

The Blue Eagle of NRA, and the principles involved are coming in for a major share of discussion at present. Well, here's hoping that soon there will be nothing blue but the Eagle.

In last week's issue of the Times in the writeup of Commencement, and in mentioning the list of students who completed the seventh grade work, the name of Troy Druse was unintentionally omitted. We are sorry for the error and glad to make this correction.

LEST WE FORGET

Memorial Day, May 30, 1934

In this great country of ours there never was a time when it lacked defenders, ready to make the supreme sacrifice when the established sovereignty or peace of home was threatened. It is fitting that one day should be set aside to hallow the memory of those who have heard and answered the call through the years—especially the many who never returned. This day is sanctified to unselfish patriotism: a day on which we should rededicate our lives to the principles for which they gave their lives—that their dying will not have been in vain.

"Greater Love Hath No Man: That He Lay Down His Life For His Friends."

Graduate of High School is Winner Of $15 Monday

Coming on the heels of his graduation from the Sanderson high school, the $15 won by Benoit Carpenter, holder of the lucky number in the drawing at the Princess Monday night, it seemed like an additional gift from some good fairy. Benoit, outstanding athlete, as well as student, was heard to exclaim how it would help in his future school plans. The Times is glad he was the winner, and admire his ambition to continue his studies.

Next Monday night another $15 prize will be given away. On the screen will be shown an outstanding picture of the year, "Man's Castle," featuring Spencer Tracy and Loretta Young. Be on hand, bring all your coupons and be sure your name is written on the stub placed in the box.

Chevrolet Sets New High in Units Built

Detroit, Mich.—For the first time in three years, sales of an automobile manufacturer for a single month topped the one hundred thousand mark. This was brought out this week in a statement issued by Wm. E. Holler, general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor company, announcing retail sales of Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks during April of 100,046 units. This figure includes Canadian, export of domestic deliveries.

This compares with 59,193 units in April 1933, and 96,893 units during March this year, according to the statement.

Retail sales the first four months of this year totaled 281,033 as compared to 184,138 in the same period a year ago, an increase of 52 per cent.

Chevrolet's April retail sales record is considered significant in view of the fact that this company has suffered an acute car shortage, practically since the new 1934 models were introduced and only now is catching up in a small measure with the thousands of unfilled orders on its books. Retail sales were higher than for any similar period in 35 months, since April, 1931, to be exact, and this tremendous retail volume, according to Mr. Holler, is the direct result of modern features and many unusual improvements incorporated in the new 1934 knee-action models.

Broadcastings

Edited by Rev. J. V. McCall

The Farmers Federation is a co-operative marketing agency operating in Western North Carolina. It is one of the most successful organizations of its kind, due largely to the Christian character and unselfish service of some of its leaders. Among them may be mentioned Mr. J. G. K. McClure, who is the son of the former president of the McCormick Theological seminary in Chicago.

The Lord's acre plan for the support of country churches as fostered by this federation is now entering upon its third year. Seven denominations and a total number of about seventy-five country churches are in cooperation.

Mr. S. O. Ingram of Avery's Creek Baptist church, bears this testimony: "The Lord's acre movement will be a great blessing to any rural church which adopts it. It will not only greatly improve the financial condition of the country church, but it will cause a tremendous spiritual growth of the individual members. As each member works his plan day by day, he will think of the Lord, of His goodness and love. Divine thoughts will cause the member to grow in grace. 'As a man thinketh, so is he.'"

Rev. Moir W. Edwards, pastor of Avery's Creek Methodist church, says: "The Lord's acre plan is the best plan of which I have heard for a rural church. It not only makes financing a church easy, but also makes it easy for folks to consider God as their co-worker. Mr. Geo. Evans lived here, and worked up a wide interest in the plan last year. This year Rev. Dumont Clarke delivered an illustrated sermon to my folk. The result is, we are receiving wide interest and fine cooperation. I look for good results from our work."

Rev. Dumont Clarke, Farmers Federation, Asheville, N. C., is in a position to give information about the Lord's acre movement as operated in cooperation with the Farmers Federation. He has prepared a service of dedication for use in churches at the beginning of the planting season. He has published a hymn which will be given next week.

Mrs. Bertha Mansfield and children returned Monday night from a week end trip to Uvalde.

Dead Wool About Cleaned Up; Many Will Not Buy It

From Sam Ashburn's "Top o' the Windmill" column in the San Angelo Standard, we learn that there is very little "dead wool" left, and that many warehouses will buy no more of this wool. "Dead wool is about cleaned up in the country," says Sam, "and some warehouses want no more of it as it gives a bad odor to other wools. When this wool is shipped north it stays on the docks until the scouring plant gets ready for it, and then is rushed to the scouring works, and handled immediately. It leaves a dark stain when scoured and goes into dark colored goods."

Commenting on the wool situation Mr. Ashburn continues: "It looked as if something were to break loose in the wool business, and predictions of the boys who are usually right were that some important trades were in the course of consummation. It was the belief of the people in the country, too, that the growers were, for once, wearing down the buyers and forcing them to ask their houses for higher limits. There is nothing difficult to understand about buying wool; it's like any other business: Both sides use all the arguments they have to get the advantage. It looks like the growers have the buyers looking at their hole cards. The only thing this country is scared of is lack of rain. If the boys down here can make the cost of purchase here high enough it will raise the market in the East."

Pontiac Head Sees Business Uptrend

Pontiac, Mich., May 15.—Continued improvement throughout the nation with business definitely on the upgrade and widespread benefits for all resulting, is the way H. J. Klingler, president and general manager of Pontiac Motor company characterized the economic situation today as he compared the present with the determining factors of the previous months and years.

"Without much doubt almost every line of business is far ahead of last year, with the direction pointing upward. As far as I can see there is nothing in the picture to prevent a continuation of this welcome development.

"Basic factors which govern commerce and industry are sound. That bugaboo of fear has gone from the thinking of the mass of the people. Eighteen months ago, if a man had a job he was afraid he would lose it. If he didn't have one he was afraid he would not get one. That feeling is disappearing rapidly with the result that money is circulating faster and the volume of all trade is mounting steadily. Business men have regained their courage and are again displaying their old-time American fight and daring that have been the forerunners of every advance this country has made."

Commenting on the new buying spirit evidenced on every side, Mr. Klingler stated: "Thousands of men, no doubt, have read the economic weather vane accurately and have been on the point of taking advantage of the rock-bottom prices that have governed all commodities from bread to houses and lots during the last few years. But that old bogey, fear, walked in, or a friend has talked them out of it. No doubt, a few people with a knowledge of the normal, basic values of all things, have been laying the foundations for the huge fortunes of tomorrow. They have taken advantage of the marvelous opportunities that have existed and that to a large degree exist still."

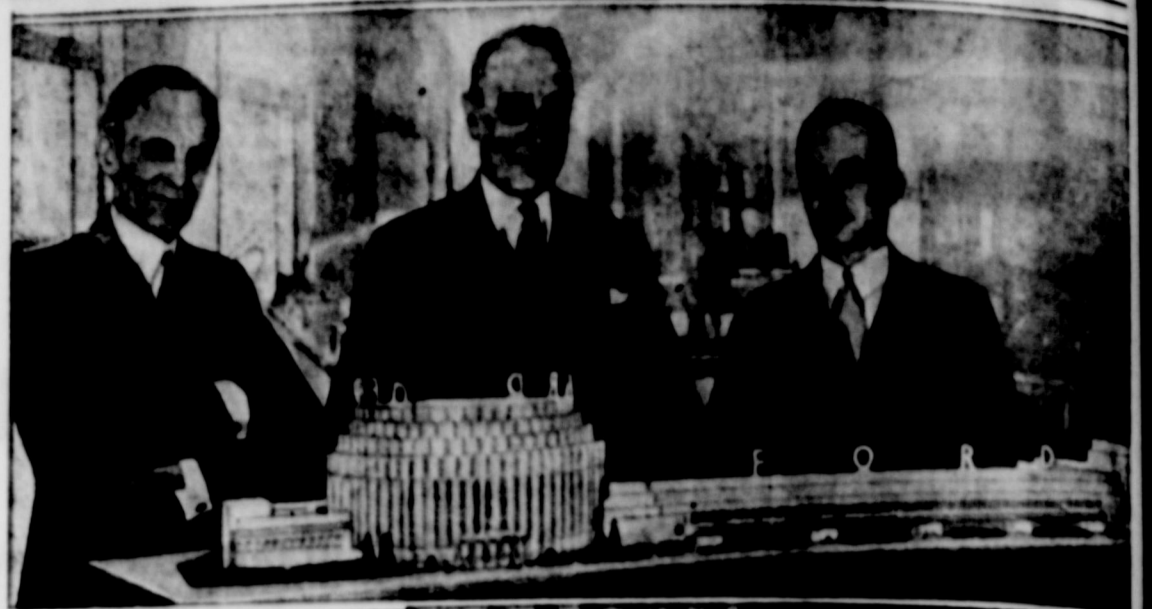

In concluding Mr. Klingler called attention to how world wide the upturn in business has become by pointing out that Pontiac's export business has been much better this year than last. That more Pontiacs have been shipped overseas so far this year than during all of 1933.

FORD TO BUILD HUGE EXPOSITION AT THE 1934 CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR

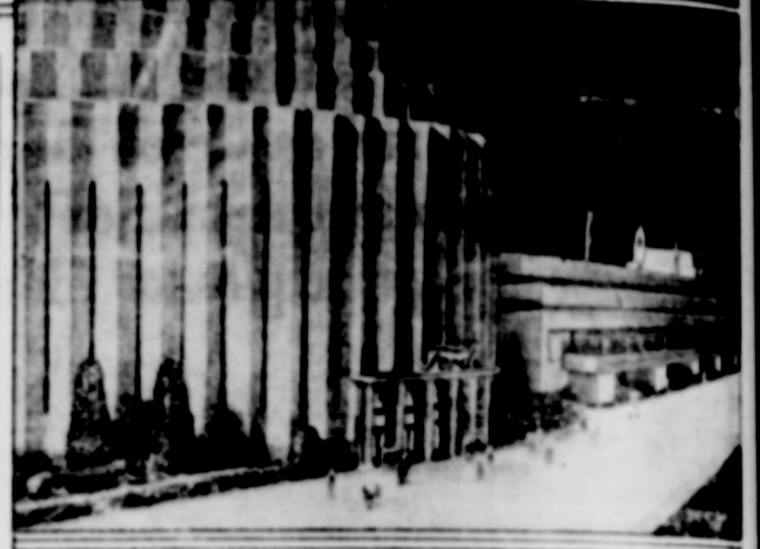

A GREAT Ford Exposition, portraying the tremendous part the arts, sciences and virtually every other industry plays in the manufacture of today's motor cars, is planned by the Ford Motor Company for the 1934 World's Fair.

The Ford Exposition will be housed in a giant building 360 feet long to be built in the heart of the fair grounds on an 11-acre plot bordering Lake Michigan and flanking the main fair boulevard. Construction of the building will start Mar. 1. In the 100,000 sq. ft. central building will be housed Henry Ford's "Drama of Transportation," depicting the development of wheeled vehicles from the chariots of ancient Egyptian kings to modern motor cars. Every model of Ford car made since 1903 will be included.

In the smaller building to the left will be housed some of the priceless historic exhibits from the Edison Institute at Dearborn, Mich., including the one-story brick workshop, complete with the original tools, where Mr. Ford in 1893 built with his own hands his first motor car. This first car will be displayed inside the shop.

The main exposition building will

Henry Ford and Edsel B. Ford show to Rufus C. Dawes (center, president of the World's Fair), the scale model of the giant Ford Exposition building to be built at the 1934 Fair. (Lower) The Ford building will be seen from Leif Erikson drive. Opposite the building will be a huge park bordering Lake Michigan.

display an imposing array of exhibits, most of them in action, show steel, aluminum and other metals, soy beans, corn, wool, cotton and other farm products and the products of myriad industries are converted into car parts. The building also will house displays of cars and a big movie theater. Also the east side will be an open-air colony equipped with clubs and lounges where hundreds may relax. Across the drive fronting the building will be a big Ford Park, beautifully landscaped and also fitted with all other comforts for fair ones.

20 Featured Stars 300 Indians Played Roles in 'Massacre'

Seidom has there been so large and impressive a cast of players in a screen production as that listed in "Massacre," the First National picture which comes to the Princess theatre today and Saturday, May 25 and 26. Besides three hundred Indians there are an even twenty popular Hollywood players in important character roles.

The cast is headed by Richard Barthelmess, who stars in the picture, his 50 starring role. He represents Joe Thunder Horse, a young and educated brave in "Massacre."

Ann Dvorak, who has but recently returned to pictures after a year abroad, plays opposite him in the role of a beautiful Indian girl, and Claire Dodd has the part of a wealthy society girl, who vies with the Indian maiden for his love.

There are three villainous roles, white men who live on the Sioux reservation to exploit the Indians. These roles are enacted by Dudley Digges, Arthur Hohl, and Sidney Toler.

Two real Indian chiefs also have roles in the picture, Chief Standing Bear of the Sioux, and Chief Thunder Bird, of the Osage tribe. These two chiefs also had charge of the members of the various tribes who had extra roles. Both are Carlisle graduates.

The story deals with today's Indian in his struggle to conform with the white man's civilization. There is also the emotional conflict of Thunder Horse, who is torn between his desire for a white girl and his love for the Indian maid.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson were in town the first part of the week from Tesnus.

Mrs. Tip Frazier and children left last Friday for the Mansfield ranch where they will spend the summer.

New Law Seares Gas Bootleggers

Austin, May 17.—The new gasoline tax enforcement law rounded out its first full year of operation with a smashing 20 per cent increase in revenue to the state during the first part of 1934, the Texas Good Roads association announced today from quarterly figures of the State Comptroller, George H. Sheppard.

Combined gasoline tax collections for the months of January, February and March exceeded the total for the same period last year by $1,269,872, the comptroller reported. This brought the full 12 months, recoveries to more than $4,250,000 above the previous period.

It was on March 21, 1933, that the potent new law was written onto the statute books as an emergency measure. Scores of remote refineries were humming day and night, turning out motor fuel of which the taxing authorities had no knowledge. Thousand of tank trucks were radiating out on the very highways whose income they were stealing, carrying bootleg, tax-free gasoline to every corner of Texas.

Every gallon of it which was sold deprived the common school fund of one cent, the bond-refunding fund of one cent and the highway fund of two cents.

A new law was proposed making bootlegging a felony and giving the comptroller adequate funds for enforcement. The Texas Good Roads association and the Texas Gasoline Tax committee, which backed it, voiced the opinion that this lawless traffic was robbing the taxpayers of at least $4,000,000 yearly. Actual recoveries have exceeded this figure. During the nine months is operated in 1933, the law "picked up" more than $3,000,000.

Why Doctors Favor a Liquid Laxative

A doctor will tell you that the careless use of strong laxatives may do more harm than good.

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit, you needn't take a "double dose" a day or two later.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is little "convenience" in any cathartic which is taken so frequently, you must carry it with you, wherever you go!

Its very taste tells you Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action.

Safe for expectant mothers, and children. All druggists, ready for use, in big bottles. Member N. R. A.

EVENTS OF SOCIETY

Popular Members Sanderson Faculty Wedded At Alpine

On Sunday evening, May 20, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Carnes, occurred the marriage of Mrs. Carnes' sister, Miss Louise Noble, to Mr. Duane E. Smith, the Rev. R. F. Davis, pastor of the First Methodist church, reading the service.

The beautiful lawn at the Carnes' home was the scene of the wedding, which occurred at the vesper hour. Promptly at seven o'clock Rev. Davis took his place at the rose trellis. Huge urns filled with pink roses and larkspur gave lovely touches of color which, with a background of carefully trimmed shrubbery, made an ideal setting for the wedding.

Wedding attendants were young friends of the bride and groom, Mary and Billy Ferguson of Sanderson. They took their places following Rev. Davis' entrance, little Miss Mary very charming in a frock of blue organdie with short train. Billy was handsome in a suit of grey. The bride and groom then entered, Miss Louise wearing a handsome frock of butterscotch crepe, with brown hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom wore a dark business suit.

After the impressive ceremony congratulations were offered and a refreshment course was served. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left at once for a wedding trip in the North which will include a visit with the groom's parents at Bellflower, Illinois.

Mrs. Smith has many friends in Alpine, where she attended Sul Ross college, receiving her degree there. She was especially prominent in musical circles in town and college. She has been a member of the faculty of Sanderson high school for several years, where Mr. Smith is popular as athletic coach. They expect to return to Sanderson in July and will continue their work in the Sanderson school.

Guests at the wedding included only relatives and close friends. Those in attendance from out of town were Mrs. W. C. Noble, mother of the bride, and E. P. Noble, her brother, both from Port Lavaca; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ferguson, Billy Ferguson, Mary Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Grigsby, Mr. O. H. McAdams, Mr. C. C. Cammack, all of Sanderson, and Miss Kathleen Moore, of Sul Ross college.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pink Sherod, who, for several years, ranched in the Dryden country. She is a graduate of our high school, and is well and favorably known here, and was a popular member of the younger set during her residence in Sanderson. For several years she has been making her home in Del Rio.

Airdome Chatter

(By The Old Man)

Those who might be interested in what we are doing out this way during these hot days, should drop in some time. Today we are completing the hangar floor—that part of it that was covered with lumber. This now makes one-third of the floor space finished. As not many airplanes spend the night here, we are now able to care for six on that part of the floor now cemented. Two men can now care for an airplane where it formerly took the entire crew to push one around on the old dirt floor.

In announcing the dance here on the night of June 2, we were not aware that there was a rodeo being held at Sheffield on that date. However it is not believed this will interfere with our party, as there are lots of local talent. And as we are more interested in our own folks, they are the ones we like to see doing their stuff.

We regret we will not be able to give all the profits from this dance to the boy and girl scouts as advertised—that is if we are luck enough to show a profit. Part of this cement floor was built "jawbone," the writer standing good for the material, and as it is the only way by which this obligation can be met, it is planned to take part of the dance money, after music has been paid for, and apply it on this debt. After this item is cleared what is made at our dances will go to the community and be used in building a swimming pool. This pool will be located in Sanderson, and many are of the opinion that the necessary funds for this project can be raised before another summer rolls around. If anyone is interested in this we would be glad to hear from them, as two in favor of one object is better than one. We had a comeback on the 12-month school term, so maybe some one will side in with the writer on this suggestion of a swimming pool.

Some one who understands the working parts of these windmills we have in this country should pay the airport a visit. Something is wrong with this one, and there is not a drop of water on the field. If we had received part of the water that fell Tuesday night around Sanderson we wouldn't have to haul water to drink. The sad part about hauling it is we have no place near where it can be had. An SOS went out to San Antonio this afternoon for a service man. Guess he'll arrive tonight and relieve our worries.

What is needed out here is rubber hammers; it is believed this invention would save lots of good finger-nails.

There is no reason why any one can't have a new car or a Superperx providing you can find a man that will sell you one on time.
