NEW ANGLE IN SIX-YEAR OLD SLAYING

Column Right

Investigators in Los Angeles recently discovered a "divinity" in a woman where, for $10 they demanded ordination papers, entitled her holder to preach. For an annual $5 you could get a D. D. degree, for $15 more you were admitted to the bishopric. Well, it might not be so bad, at that, if the most eloquent and, apparently, most earnest, preachers ever heard was later arrested for horse theft.

List of those contributing to "slush fund" in an effort to "flush" Roosevelt is inspiring, and the dumbest of us can see there's something rotten (but not in Denmark). The Crusaders, Liberty League, the Duponts, a long string of plutocrats interested now and then with discredited Democrats.

A glorious sight to see the birds scampering over lawns, in their hunt for Easter.

But there's always some school clique of sophisticated boys always taking the joy of life. They've disillusioned regarding Santa Claus, Old Stork, Washington's cherry etc. But we're in favor of giving a coat of tar and feathers the first galoot who tries to tell children that rabbits do not lay colored eggs.

All the fool moves is an oration under the euphonious name of "Farmers Holiday." Ever heard of a farmer have a holiday? In the spring he and worries several weeks the crop will grow. If it does, he is to die the weather or insects will ruin it. Getting that hill, he hopes the marshall up. It generally doesn't, he sells at a loss. His winter worry is where can he borrow the money for next year's seed. He gets it, somehow, and it's the same old story. Holiday! call it perpetual motion.

My Rand visited Dallas last week, and said the Centennial would be a flop because there was "sex" shows. Well, Sally and pulchritude failed to land the land, reading accounts of Hauptman case, and other notorious trials declared herself disinterested at our idea of justice. It's one thing on which we'll live with them.

Hearst, who somehow discredited the administration setup, tried to tear it to pieces in his daily monging newspapers. It didn't work. Nothing Hearst could do hurt anyone but himself. Making the Black committee impotent to his mud-slinging he attacked France and England in turn. France, you remember, chased him out of the country.

Some go to church to pray. But my wife, doggone it, just goes to see the neighbors' New silk dress and bonnet.

My poor deplorable radio. Hearing a speech over the radio is for only one round. In the old days (before Herbie became president), a candidate did not need but one speech. In making his campaign he had a new message every day, and the old was a masterpiece before Herbie was the district. Poor Herbie, his melancholy moon-face! too had about radios. They were a little too advanced for his time. He was about all one reasonably expect from a man, who, while in office never heard his voice to head off a national catastrophe everyone knew was coming.

KILLING OUT COCKLEBURS AT WAYSIDE PARK ON HY.

Through the county a workman was furnished to burn cockleburrs on the plot donated the beautification club for a recreation park.

This work is important, but the weed, to date, has not thrived in Terrell county, due to the efforts of ranchers. There is some acreage, however infested, and every effort should be made to control growth of this weed.

Let's declare war on the weed!

EXPECTING IMMIGRATION APPOINTMENTS SOON

El Paso, April 8.—Appointment of about 35 immigration patrol inspectors for the El Paso district is expected soon, according to Grover C. Wilmoth, district director. New inspectors will be assigned to various points in the district but will be assembled in El Paso for two months schooling. Thomas S. Baker, school teacher at Freer, Texas, has been appointed clerk for the Immigration Border Patrol, headquarters in El Paso.

Continued unsettled and varied weather has been on the program for this section of the country for the past several days. High winds over the week end were followed by a blinding dust storm and cold wave that struck this city about dark Sunday evening. The cold weather and wind continued until Tuesday night at which time the weather moderated and a light shower fell in town during the night. West of here and within three miles of town snow fell which in some places amounted to more than two inches. Wednesday afternoon found that the thermometer was climbing to a higher level.

Press reports from various sections of the country are that in some sections tornadoes struck doing considerable damage and many lives were lost. Associated Press reports are to the effect that the week end cold wave and dust storm caused losses to fruit and truck garden crops in north and east Texas.

Savage Re-elected School Trustee

A very light vote was cast in the school trustee election held in this county last Saturday. A total of 132 votes were cast in this city and at Dryden. No election was held in precinct 3, at the Cecil Arvin headquarters ranch, and it was not learned by the Times whether or not an election was held at Independence in precinct 4.

W. H. Savage, whose name was on the ballot for trustee of Common School district, received a total of 80 votes here and 11 at Dryden. An eleventh-hour candidate, brought out by friends without his knowledge, was Ervin Grigsby who received a total of 40 votes in precinct 1.

For county trustee of precinct 2, Dryden, A. F. Buchanan was elected, receiving 10 votes.

An official canvass of the election will be made next Monday at the regular monthly meeting of the county commissioners.

EDITS PAPER

The Times acknowledges receipt this week of "The Texas Post," a small newspaper that as the editor says "printed every now and then." It is edited and printed by W. Downie, son of Mrs. Helen Downie at their home, 102 Elsmere Place, San Antonio. The paper is well edited and printed and contains lots of news pertaining to our city. We congratulate Walter, as well as his brother, Jack, who has the official title of reporter, and wish them well in their new undertaking. This is the second year that the paper has been established. Walter we believe has the "makings" of a great editor.

Arrest of Former Husband of Slain Woman Latest Development in Case

No Pauper Oath Required to Get Old Age Pension

Austin.—No "pauper's oath" is required to obtain assistance under the new law. Orville S. Carpenter, director of Texas Old Age Assistance commission, said this week.

"It is unfair to consider a man or woman a pauper when he or she has $5000 to $7500 worth of property and has $500 to $1000 in the bank. These are the maximum amounts of property and cash an applicant may have and still qualify for assistance. The larger amounts are for married applicants," he explained.

"Broader qualifications would keep us from receiving federal aid. If our laws were changed to make everyone past the age of 65 eligible we could not obtain funds from Washington. Cooperation of the federal government is limited to only those states giving aid to the needy.

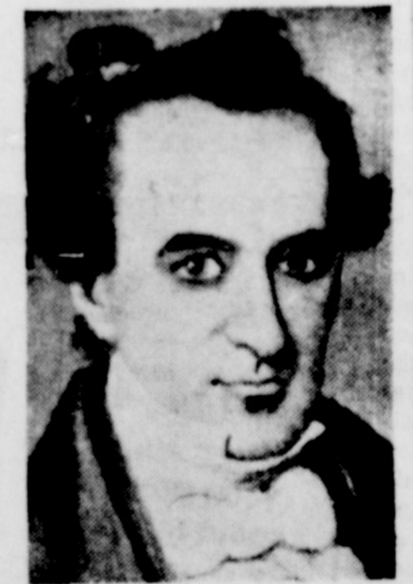

"The National Social Security Act reads that it was passed for the purpose of giving financial assistance to states for helping aged needy individuals," Mr. Carpenter said. "Our old age assistance set-up for administering the new law was created only after I had conferred with the social security board at Washington.

"State legislators passed the present Texas law in such form as to agree with the national one. The Texas Old Age Assistance Commission and our entire plan are based on the State law and upon rules and regulations made by the Federal Government.

"We have formulated our plan in such a way to be acceptable by the social security board, which must pass upon our law and plans before matching our payments dollar for dollar," the director said.

STEER CALVES GAIN WEIGHT

FORT STOCKTON.—The 334 head of steer calves from the Elsinore ranch which were transferred to the Webb Farms for temporary feeding when blizzards in the Midwest prevented their delivery in February to Iowa feeders, were weighed out Tuesday night to be shipped to Des Moines, and showed a gain of almost 100 pounds when loaded in six cars.

CORNERSTONE FOR MUSEUM

ALPINE.—Laying the cornerstone of the new museum building being erected at Sul Ross will be a feature of the eleventh annual meeting of the West Texas Historical and Scientific society which is to be held at the college today and tomorrow.

A six-year-old Pecos river slaying is about to be solved, according to press dispatches from Fort Stockton, which state that the bodies of a woman and girl found in the Pecos river 6 years ago were positively identified as Mrs. Leta Bell Garton, 27, and her daughter, Joyce Lynn Roberts, 10.

Sheriff Will Rooney placed Wilbur Garton, a prominent south Texas liquor dealer and ex-husband of Mrs. Garton, in the Pecos county jail after he was apprehended in Corpus Christi and turned over to Sheriff Rooney.

Deputy C. I. Miller of the Pecos county sheriff's office announced that the bodies were identified by Mrs. Mary Damron of Rising Star, Texas, mother of the slain woman, through clothing and rings found on the victims. The identifications remained secret until officers had made an arrest.

The body of Joyce Lynn Roberts was first discovered in the Pecos river on February 21, 1930, by a Mexican who notified Sheriff Rooney. It was while officers were searching for clues to the girl's death when the body of Mrs. Garton was found.

The girl wore a street dress and appeared to be about 12 years of age. Mrs. Garton's body was clad in night clothes and wrapped in a sheet. Bruises on the child's neck indicated she had been choked to death. Mrs. Garton's head had been crushed and the body bore signs leading officers to believe she had also been beaten.

Both bodies were badly decomposed, and it was believed they had been in the water for ten days or more.

For the past six years officers have followed every tip and clue. For months little would be done in the case, and then a new angle would turn up for investigation by the officers. The Garton complaint has been in the "making" for several months.

According to reports Garton's preliminary trial was scheduled for yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Garton, at one time, were residents of Wink, where Mrs. Garton was in business. She disappeared, according to reports, in 1930, and Garton remarried, his second wife dying in south Texas last year.

Plan District and State Meetings For Mexicans

Jesse Blackwell, principal of the Marfa Mexican school, originated the idea of establishing an independent interscholastic meet for the Mexican schools. At the Trans-Pecos State Teachers' meeting in Alpine, April, 1935, he called a meeting of the representatives from each Mexican school in this district to establish an executive committee. He was chosen chairman of this committee and was instrumental in drawing up the new rules. The first district meet was held in Ft. Stockton, April 4th of this year.

As Prof. Blackwell pointed out, this new organization is of great advantage to Mexican speaking children because previously it was necessary for them to compete in the literary events with the American speaking children.

If the interest in this new organization grows, as it seems evident it will, in the near future representatives will be sent from the district meets to regional meets and hence to a state meet exclusively for Mexicans.

Everyone can't owe 32 billions like our Uncle Sam can.

Austin.—Utilizing the existing party machinery, built around the state Democratic executive committee and the county Democratic chairman, the national Democratic campaign organization recently named in Washington, has opened headquarters in the Austin Hotel, and begun a vigorous drive to get voters out to precinct convention on May 2.

Headed by Roy Miller of Corpus Christi the campaign organization will concentrate on turning out a record vote for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket after the national convention is held at Philadelphia in June.

"Meanwhile, we are working through the organized party machinery," said Miller, "to turn out an impressive attendance of Texas Democrats at the precinct and county conventions. We will also seek to raise sufficient funds to finance a suitable campaign headquarters in Philadelphia for the vice president, Mr. Garner, feeling that Texas will want to do the honors suitably for its only vice president in history. We anticipate a tremendous Democratic majority in Texas, and a strong Roosevelt-Garner delegation to the Philadelphia convention."

After the national convention, Miller's organization will begin its real job of raising funds in Texas for the Democratic war chest.

GAS RATE CASE—

A sweeping victory for the Texas railroad commission and the gas consumers of Wichita Falls marked the decision of Judge Ralph W. Yarborough of the 53rd district court here in the celebrated Wichita Falls gas rate case, but prolongation of the litigation was indicated when the Community Natural Gas Co., a Lone Star subsidiary, filed a motion for new trial, and indicated it will appeal. Despite the finding of a jury, favorable to the company, after 8 weeks of testimony, the court ordered refunds amounting to $4 per year to Wichita consumers from Dec. 1, 1933, and reduction of the gas rate from 67½ cents to 61 cents per 1000 cu. ft., the rates ordered by the railroad commission. Attorney General Bill McCraw promised to expedite the appeal, in order to hasten the effectiveness of the reduction, if it is sustained. The Wichita Falls rate case, when finally decided, probably will set a legal precedent for many other Texas cities seeking lower gas rates.

PENSION FACTS—

Posturing office seekers, who glibly promise "30 a month pension for all the old folks" and carp at the restrictions set up under the state law which requires applicants to show need for a pension, might well examine the constitutional amendment, the state law itself, and the regulations of the federal social security board, which puts up half of the pension money. Under the terms of the federal social security act, states qualifying for the federal constitution must meet the regulations of the board, which limits its aid to "aged, needy individuals." Any blanket pensioning of all persons over 65 by Texas or any other state would immediately deprive the pensioners of $15 per month each, the federal contribution. Investigation of applicants, required by Texas law, is also a requirement of the social security board. The existing setup for pension administration in Texas was submitted by Director Orville Carpenter to the board in Washington, and its approval obtained, before it was organized, fulfilling another requirement for federal funds. The total applications for pensions have reached 145,000. Federal census figures indicate fewer per-

Myrna Loy Gives Fine Portrayal in Film 'Whipsaw'; Tracy is Co-Star

Adventure and romance, drama and comedy are deftly blended in 'Whipsaw,' which brings Myrna Loy to the screen in a new hit with Spencer Tracy as co-star. It is the attraction at the Princess Theatre tonight and Saturday.

'Whipsaw' is a story of 'angles.' Not only does the locale shift with lightning rapidity from London to New York and thence throughout many mid-western cities, but the mood and the direction of the story shifts almost as rapidly.

The plot is of smuggled jewels, which Miss Loy, as a member of an international ring of jewel thieves, is presumed to have in her possession.

Tracy is a secret service man who attempts to trap her through romantic intrigue. He manoeuvres her into a situation in which she must pose as his wife, and the story moves swiftly through a chain of events which keeps excitement and suspense at fever height.

The supporting cast is excellent and includes John Qualen a new personality who scores a personal triumph as a bewildered Missouri farmer. William Ingersoll turns in an excellent performance as a country doctor.

Miss Pattie Billings of Langtry is spending this week here with her sister, Mrs. Elmer Schwalbe.

Mrs. W. D. Chandler and son, 'Coon,' were visitors in Fort Stockton Monday where they had dental work done.

Mrs. Harry Newton is visiting relatives in El Paso. Her daughter, Miss Mattierue, returned home Monday from that city where she spent the past week.

Current Comment

Those who missed seeing "Elmer," really missed something, and I am sure that those who did see it will agree that it was very entertaining. It didn't seem to matter how important a part was, it was well played. We all wish the cast a world of luck at the district meet.

Have you heard the latest? Nelle wants the girls to go out for track! That's the spirit, Nell.

We are glad that there wasn't any blurring when Elmer said there was, because they do not allow real firearms at the district meet. And that leads us up to the fact that Eugene McSparran has finally done something while playing with ink. He made the gun that is used in "Elmer." It is made of wood and colored with ink.

I was looking at a senior's scrap book a few days ago, and what do you think I saw? All the strips of "Can U Imagine?" were pasted in to help her remember the Good Of Days. We are glad someone likes our paper and hope to make every issue better.

Mr. Wilson Parker was ill last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Holt took his place while he was away. Mr. Parker was back in school Monday.

The bookkeeping class made a field trip during class period last Friday to the bookkeeping department at Kerr Mercantile Co. Mr. Grigby, the bookkeeper for the company, showed the students the various bookkeeping aids and devices used in his department. The students compared the method of keeping books on a large scale with the work they do in the school projects, on a small scale. Mr. Grigby showed the students a bookkeeping machine which posts and makes monthly statements, showing purchases, remittances and balances for the month.

The students reported they enjoyed the trip. Those visiting the store were Lillian Halley, Florence Hurst, Bernard Kerr, Mildred Hurst, and the instructor, Miss Childers.

5TH GRADE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. R. E. Corder, room mother for the fifth grade, entertained that grade with an Easter party yesterday afternoon after school in the home room. Mrs. Corder furnished an Easter cake for refreshments. Miss Healy, home room teacher, served ice cream. The cake had a candy Easter bunny on top, and this was given to the student cutting the slice of cake with a piece of money in it.

Shopping on a Rainy Day

By Sammie Carter
Gayly and thoughtlessly I started on a shopping trip on the first day of April.

Mother had told me, "Hilda, you had better take an umbrella today, because it might rain." "Oh, mother, you always say that, and it never has rained. I would feel foolish carrying an umbrella on a sunshiny day," I answered.

I tripped down the street and quickly went toward the business district of our city. As I walked sedately along I looked into all the show windows to see the beautiful Easter clothes.

In one window I saw a pretty pink bonnet. I ran into the store and bought it. As I came out, I noticed that the sun had gone behind the clouds, but my heart was still undaunted.

I held my precious package in my hand and started to the Joske Bros. Store. Looking at the clouds I felt a splash on the end of my nose. Directly following that it seemed as though the heavens had burst into a weeping down-pour.

I ran swiftly into a doorway and watched the rain as it gushed forth from my dress in streams. My feet were soaking wet, and my hair was hanging around my face in long wet strings.

The package in my hand had become a sodden heap of paper, and my heart was sad because of my poor Easter bonnet.

Finds Umbrella
A kind saleslady helped me find some rubbers and an umbrella. I donned the rubbers and I carried my umbrella high above my head to keep the rain off.

As I stepped off the sidewalk to cross the street a car came speeding around the corner and mud was splashed on me from my head to my toes.

I was a sorry looking sight when I reached home. Mother did not say anything, but smiled wisely and knowingly to herself.

My shopping tour turned out to be a wet one, and my packages were for rainy days and not Easter ones.

BIOLOGY CLASS TAKES TRIP
The biology class of Sanderson high school went on a field trip in the Dryden bus to get different varieties of flowers.

The reason they did this was because they had to study all the kinds of flowers and the different parts of them.

Tomahawk For School Museum

Bill Laughlin of Kerrville sent a brass tomahawk found on the Big Canyon in October, 1932. The relic is made of brass and is 10 inches high. The relic is a hawk and a peace pipe combined. Only one other has ever been seen in Texas that we know of. This type of relic was used by the Indians for furs and land in 1600, by the Spaniards. Charlie Laughlin has presented a flint tomahawk that has been in the Laughlin family for one hundred and fifty years. These are now in the high school museum.
