Many Prizes By Kelvinator Co. In Novel Contest

As "headquarters for better living," the Community Public Service Company is playing a big part in the great national Kelvinator contest being sponsored by Kelvinator, Division of the Nash-Kelvinator corporation, according to Clyde Morris, local manager of the company.

Distribution of entry blanks and the Kelvin Home Book which gives the key to the "missing word" contest, is being made at the company's office here. Keen interest already is being aroused in the nation wide contest, in which more than 1,000 valuable prizes will be awarded, including a six-room, completely air conditioned Kelvin home, together with the lot it is erected on: Nash automobiles, and Kelvinator products, including electric refrigerators, electric or gas ranges, washers and ironers. From present indications there will be thousands of entries from this area.

According to Mr. Morris the Kelvin Home contest is built around the idea that electric refrigerators, ranges, water heaters, washers and ironers, air conditioning and automatic heating will provide better living at lower cost and that the Kelvin Home demonstrates that these conveniences can be provided in the home today at a cost no higher than old fashioned equipment. Mr. Morris urges those wishing to enter the Kelvin Home contest to visit the office of the Community Public Service company at once to secure a Kelvin Home book and official entry blank.

Mrs. Hutchinson, 86, Dies at Home In Brackettville

Funeral services were held in Brackettville last Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Lillie Hutchinson, who passed away in that city about noon Friday. Death was due to a heart attack.

Mrs. Hutchinson was the mother of Mrs. John Whistler and the maternal grandmother of Fred Yeates, both of this city. She was born in the state of New York on December 22, 1850, and came to Texas with her parents when she was very young. She was married to W. S. Hutchinson in 1866, who was then engaged in the ranching business where the town of Hondo now stands. The couple moved to near Brackettville in 1880 and there engaged in the ranching business. Mr. Hutchinson passed away in Arkansas in 1927, soon after they moved to that state to engage in farming. Mr. Hutchinson returned to Brackettville in 1927 and had made her home there since that time, living with a daughter, Mrs. Fritz Mussman.

Of the fourteen children born to Mrs. Hutchinson, she is survived by nine, as follows: Willie Hutchinson, Santa Rita, N. Mex.; Jim Hutchinson, Bisbee, Ariz.; Sam Hutchinson, Junction; Jeff Hutchinson of Grainola, Oklahoma; Mrs. Susie Yeates of San Antonio; Mrs. Lewis Samora, of Houston; Mrs. Frank Clamp and Mrs. Fritz Mussman of Brackettville, and Mrs. John Whistler of this city. Also surviving are a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The funeral services were held from the Methodist church, Mrs. Hutchinson being a lifelong member of that church, and interment was at the Brackettville cemetery. All the children were at the services with the exception of the sons living in New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma, illness preventing them from attending.

Motorists Urged To Register Cars And Mail Blanks

With approximately 850 vehicles affected by the registration law, car owners of Terrell county have returned to the Highway Planning Survey only 68 of the post cards that were handed them at the time they paid their 1937 automobile license fees at the office of Lee A. Cook, tax assessor and collector. Car owners of Terrell county have failed to respond to pleas of the Highway Planning survey to provide information on which the highways of the future will be based. A tabulation of returns received on last Wednesday disclosed. The number of car owners sending in information on the cards received when they registered their vehicles is insufficient to provide an accurate picture of the road needs of this county. The information which is being collected will be used by the Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in planning the future construction and maintenance of roads and highways in this county and this section of the state. Local motorists should be sufficiently interested in improving the road system of this county to ask for these cards, and should fill them in and mail them, because information collected by the Highway Planning Survey will be used in designating federal funds which soon will be spent on improving the secondary road system of Texas. No postage is necessary to mail these cards.

Here in Interest Improved Roads To Big Bend Area

Jack De Lysle, president of the International Highway Association, was a visitor in Sanderson for several hours Wednesday afternoon, meeting with a group of citizens at the office of Joe Kerr. The main object of Mr. De Lysle's visit was to boost for highways leading into the Big Bend area, of which Sanderson is the gateway on the east end. In his talk he placed special stress on Highway 67, via Fort Stockton, through Alpine and thence to the border town of Presidio. However, he also emphasized the importance of paving Highway 82—Sanderson to Fort Stockton, and spoke of the many advantages of Highway 90, the Border Route.

As there is no active chamber of commerce or similar organization here, no action was taken by the group at this time, although Mr. De Lysle was assured that Sanderson and its citizens had been active in support of the Big Bend section and the proposed International Park. Mr. Lyle came here from Fort Stockton where he had met with the Lions Club Wednesday at noon. From here he went to Alpine.

Francisco Noted Magician Coming Princess Theatre

Almost anything may happen at the Princess Theatre tomorrow, Saturday, March 27, when "Francisco" brings his mystery and illusion show to this city. Said to be a most unusual performer, "Francisco" brings to this city a number of illusions and magical feats never seen here before. Many magicians have been known to saw a woman in half, but "Francisco" goes them one better by cutting off the head of some person from the audience, and then replacing it again, right before their eyes.

He presents one startling illusion after another, including a most astonishing trunk trick that has baffled audiences in many countries. Borrowed articles vanish and reappear in the most unexpected places; pigeons vanish before the eyes of the audience, and "Spirit" demonstrations take place with all the stage lights burning, and all the while "Francisco" keeps his audience laughing while he fools them. Remember the date Saturday, March 27, matinee and night.

Know Texas

Denton—Many Texas streams seldom run dry because of the abundance of artesian springs. Besides the east Texas rivers, which are entirely in the coastal belt, and the rivers with their upper basins in the plains and prairies, there is a whole group of streams with their headwaters in the great springs of the Edwards plateau.

Although these streams have small channels and small drainage areas, they are characterized by a large and constant flow. Arising along the eastern and southern edge of the plateau, they spring from one of the greatest natural water reservoirs in the United States.

Principal springs from this reservoir are Barton Springs near Austin, San Marcos Springs at the head of that river; Comal Springs near New Braunfels, San Antonio and San Pedro Springs in San Antonio; the Los Moras Springs near Brackettville, San Felipe Springs near Del Rio, and Goodenough Springs, Comstock. The Comal Springs have by far the largest average flow of water, which is 196,000,000 gallons daily, but the Goodenough, on certain occasions reach a maximum flow of 452,000,000 gallons daily. During the dry periods these streams often flow into the larger rivers and keep them from drying up.—(TSCW.)

Selling at Auction
THE auction sale seems to be as old as mankind. We know that it was used at least 4,000 years ago by the Babylonians as a means of securing wives for eligible young men.

According to an account handed down to us by Herodotus, the girls of a marriageable age were directed to go each year to the auction mart, where the young men also congregated. There they were sold by the public officer. The pretty girls were put up first and sold to the highest bidder.

This system was really not quite as bad as it sounds. Many a young man who could not afford to purchase a pretty girl was bribed to marry an ugly one, and the purchase money obtained for the beauties was distributed among the homely ones, according to their degree of homeliness. So many an ambitious young man picked up a small fortune with which he could establish his own business as well as a home.

Another feature of these primitive auctions was that the father could not choose the man who was to buy his daughter. It was strictly an open market. The girls in their turn were also safeguarded by requiring the purchasers to marry them on the spot. But after the sale, if the young lady did not turn out to his liking, the law provided that the customer could return her and get his money back.

Glittering Array of Film Stars Featured in "Labeled Lady"

Four outstanding stars will glitter in the film firmament at the Princess Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, March 31 and April 1 when the new M-G-M hit "Labeled Lady," will open for a two-day showing. Jean Harlow, William Powell, Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy unite their exceptional acting ability in one of the most entertaining films of recent years, a drama with a newspaper angle that is as eye-catching and modern as the current headlines of the Front Page.

The action of the play center about a society girl who considers that a newspaper has treated her with irreverence and files a damage suit for five million dollars. Needless to say the sued newspaper is thrown into an uproar and the managing editor solicits the aid of a former star reporter to extricate the paper from its difficulties. In his scheme to make the heiress drop the suit the reporter succeeds in making her fall in love with him. It is when he, in turn, falls in love with her that complications begin and the story takes an unexpected and hilarious turn.

The principal roles are cast to perfection: Jean Harlow as the reporter's saucy sweetheart; Wm. Powell as the romantic reporter; Miss Loy, delightful as the libeled lady, and Spencer Tracy completes the stellar foursome as the harassed managing editor. Not to be overlooked is the fine work of Walter Connolly as Miss Loy's millionaire father, who has a penchant for trout fishing.

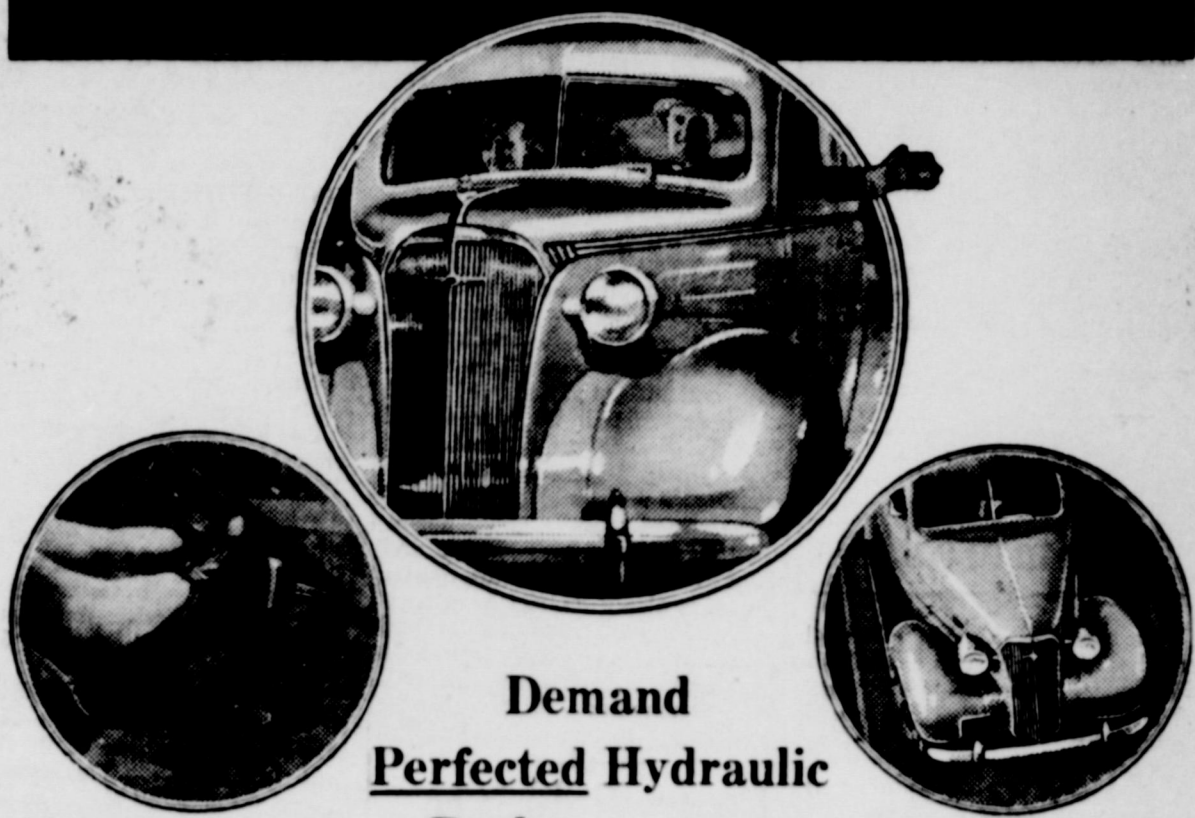

"Labeled Lady" is a picture you don't want to miss.

The CITY DRUG wishes one all a Happy Easter.

Current Comment

We are right at Alpine's heels in the bi-county meet, and the final score depends entirely upon the tennis players. Come on, do your best!

We hear that some of the little high school children got in pretty late from Marathon the other night (or maybe I had better say morning). Oh, well, we'll let their mothers take care of that.

We would have done better at bi-county if more students had entered the contests: IF typing had counted; IF—but that doesn't change the score, and we should be proud of our showing so far.

Question: What junior girl proved she wasn't a gold-digger?

There has been considerable discussion about how Mr. Dawson acquired his black eye.

Two cute Alpine girls were seen sporting two S. H. S. sweaters at Marathon. Girls, can this be so? Let's look into it, and punish the culprits.

Shorthand Team For District Meet Selected

Mildred Hurst had the highest score in the shorthand contest held here Tuesday morning. Her competitor was Mildred Underwood, but both of these contestants will form the shorthand team at the district meet.

The dictation was given at 60 words a minute for five minutes and was transcribed on the typewriter.

Mildred Hurst made 14 errors and a total score of 155.34; and Mildred Underwood made 40 errors for a total score of 146.67.

Both girls will participate in District and must be able to take dictation at 70 and 80 words.

SANDERSON TEACHERS ATTEND ANGELO MEETING

Mrs. Ulbricht, Miss Lee and Miss Owen attended the Delta Kappa Gamma luncheon at the Cactus Hotel in San Angelo last Saturday. It was the fifth anniversary of the chapter. An interesting program was held, the Rev. Spellman being the speaker for the occasion.

Dates for District Meet April 9-10

SanderSON public schools will be represented in 11 events at the district Interscholastic League meet which will be held in Fort Stockton April 9 and 10. Because the bi-county tennis games cannot be played until tomorrow this event cannot be added to the list until winners of first and second places are determined. Seventeen students will represent the local schools and this number does not include members of the track and field teams, or volleyball team.

While April 9 and 10 were set as dates for the annual district meet, provision was made that if weather was not favorable the dates would be moved up to the 15th and 16th of April.

SanderSON will be represented in boys' debate, girls' debate, in typewriting, shorthand, ready writing (2 divisions), junior boys' declamation, junior girls' declamation, one-act play, track and field events and volleyball. Senior tennis is also a district event.

Winners of first and second places at the bi-county meet held in Marathon last week end, will be represented at the district contests.

Easter Rabbit to Visit Senior Class

At a senior class meeting Tuesday afternoon, the president, Joe Kerr, announced that the Easter bunny, who comes to all good children's homes each Easter morning, had left a notice at his house.

The bunny stated that he would leave some eggs at the home of Mrs. Joe Kerr for the seniors on Wednesday afternoon, but they must not be over the age of five, in dress. All the bachelor boys would be required to wear short trousers, and all were to turn back the wheel of time and have a good time as little children, hunting eggs the Easter bunny had left for them. The Easter bunny especially wanted all the members of the class present.

The class duly attended the egg hunt Wednesday, dressed in "kid" clothes.

FIRST GRADE NOTES

The class drew pictures of bunnies for Easter decorations, and made portfolios for written work and art last week.

Clyde Frost enjoyed a nice picnic at Bullis Gap Monday.

The class is enjoying baseball games now.

Willis Grigsby is back in school again after having been out all of last week with mumps.

The Snooper

The bi-county meet at Marathon is over, and SanderSON is no better off, or worse off, so far. The tennis meet at Alpine this week will tell who wins the loving cup. All right, let's hope the participants plenty of luck, if that's all they need.

Pat Sullivan and Albert Appel seemed to have a hard time trying to hold on to their SanderSON sweaters, but in stead of it being a strong wind, it was a couple of little Alpine girls. If Essary had worn his, the verdict might have been the same. Just the same, the important thing is that the boys finally wound up with their sweaters.

Nelle now has a senior ring; that is, it is new to those of SanderSON. Instead of having an "S" on it like our others, it has an "M". I wonder what that stands for? Wonder what it stands for?

Sammie Carter was nowhere to be seen just before the volleyball game played with Alpine last Friday. We wonder where she was all the time between games? Don't guess.

Marjorie Canon must be a good athlete, from all appearances, anyway, because the other day she had a ribbon on for running 100 yards or something. Maybe she just helped the other fellow she helped the other fellow run.

We are glad to welcome back Albert Weigand and Hicks Canon, the two boys who have just emerged from a siege of the mumps. I bet they didn't have their pictures taken any time last week!

School began with a bang after all the hard work at the bi-county meet. Every teacher must be trying to make up for lost time. The assignments seem to lead to that conclusion.

The next few weeks of school will be busy ones, everyone will be preparing for the district meet. This probably will mean more to us than county meet, so everyone should really work.

The ribbons were given out Tuesday to those who won or placed at the bi-county meet, and there were several smiling faces.

Seniors Meet to Discuss Class Play

More discussion on the senior play was the object of the class meeting held by the seniors on Tuesday afternoon. The play—which the seniors are having a hard time selecting—was discussed from every angle.

The committee to select a play, composed of Mildred Hurst, Nelle Lea and James Allen had decided upon a play, but when the play was read to the class members, some of the unromantic boys argued it was a bit too "lovey-dovey," and the discussion started all over again. It was finally decided to order three plays and read them before definitely deciding on the play to be presented in May.

Junior Declaimers In Charge of Assembly

Assembly was held in the auditorium Thursday morning, March 18, for the benefit of the contestants in junior declamation.

Those who declaimed were Billy Jo Corder, Roberta Lochausen, Earl Hurst, Bill Cochran, from grammar school; Vivian Earwood, Mary Bess Hardgrave, Nelle Lea, Dorothy Lewellen and Malcolm Davis from high school.

There was one pupil in story-telling, Bob Ingram.

Immediately after the declamations and story-telling the choral club, consisting of the fifth and sixth grades, sang the following songs: "Soldier Boy," "Oh, Susanna," "America," and "The Froggie Went a-Courting."

Tennis Finals at Alpine Tomorrow

Finals in tennis will be played at the college courts in Alpine tomorrow, beginning at 7:30 a. m. Eliminations were held Monday and Tuesday of this week and the winners will represent SanderSON tomorrow. The tennis games will conclude all bi-county Interscholastic League events. A loving cup will be presented the school making the most points after the tennis games are finished.

SanderSON's girls' tennis teams include Mildred Underwood and Sammie Carter in senior doubles; Laverne Halley in junior singles, and Adair Edmiston and Mary

SCHOOL STATISTICS

In 1934, out of every 1,000 persons 21 years old or over, 29 had college degrees, and 109 had high school diplomas only.

The figures, which the United States Office of Education cited last week to show a trend upward in higher education, represented an increase of 4 per 1,000 over total of those with college or high school degrees in 1932.

Cook in Junior Doubles

Boys' team are W. Lochausen, senior singles; Pat arris and Bob Lea, senior doubles; Bert Herbert in junior singles, and Troy Druse and K. Litton, junior doubles. Senior girls singles eliminations were not played in time to announce winners at this time.

OF COURSE
You Wouldn't Put Them Away DIRTY

To a "particular" housewife the mere thought of storing away dirty winter garments is almost unthinkable. It's so much nicer to know they're immaculately clean and ready put on next Fall. Furthermore, pre-storage cleaning is really better for the garments, because imbedded dirt can harm some fabrics if permitted to remain for long periods.

PUBLIC INTEREST DEMANDS FAIR PLAY!

Texas now has good state laws for the regulation—in the public interest—of all transportation. These laws are helping to stabilize transportation, and all business and industry that has to use transportation. These laws are helping to reduce the terrible accident toll on your highways. They are helping to conserve your investment in your highways.

without any resulting benefit to the people of Texas.

Texas railroads obey the rules of the game,—those imposed by the agencies of government and those taken on voluntarily in the interest of public safety.

Texas railroads are spending this year, large sums of money for new and modern equipment—locomotives, freight and passenger cars, improved rail and roadbed facilities, and are expediting freight and passenger schedules to meet growing public demands. All of this is being done in the interest of improved service to the public and at the lowest rates in twenty years.

All the railroads of Texas are asking—have ever asked—is a FAIR DEAL in a fair field.

Regulation of transportation in the United States has been developed over a period of fifty years. Reasonable regulation is admitted to be both advisable and necessary in the public interest.

Strict regulation of one form of transportation and the lessening of regulation of any other form is unfair and un-American, and can only result in crippling that part of your transportation facilities which is handicapped—
