NEW CLUES IN FROME MYSTERY

Clues Found by 8th Engineers Prove Most Important to Date

To Times
1st Cavalry Div., Toyahvale, Ariz., under the command of Major Henry H. Frome, Jr., while searching for a north of highway 290 fifteen miles west of Balcones, unearthed what may be some of the most important evidence that has been found to date in the murder case. The articles found consisted of rubber surgical gloves, men's hats, a parcel of packed in straw and paper and was dated 20th just ten days before the murder was committed. These articles were found three quarters of a mile from the Old Spanish trail in the area mentioned above and area of about thirty feet square. While some of the party had an automobile accident on highway 290, no suitable examination had been given as to all of these articles were blown to a small area of about 200 feet square located two miles north of the scene of the

Man Taken To Begin Near Sentence

Sanchez, who was arrested August, 1937 term of court, charged with assault with intent to murder, and ten years in the penitentiary Sunday with an official sentence, after the Court of Appeals upheld the lower court. Sanchez was arrested after an appeal with Mike Garcia, in which Sanchez had been free. Sanchez was cut about August pending the appeal. He was in March and had the County jail until

O. E. S. Officer Officially Visits Local Chapter

A called meeting of the Sanderson Chapter No. 136, Order of Eastern Star, was held last Thursday night at the Masonic hall, the occasion being an official visit from Mrs. Emma Leinweber of Hondo, deputy grand matron. The hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

During the business session Mrs. Leinweber addressed the members, and brought to the Chapter greetings from the Worthy Grand Matron. Several candidates received the impressive degree of the order at this time. At the close of the Chapter's business session refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

NEW ENGINEER

Lester J. Evans, Mrs. Evans and their 10-year old daughter arrived from Perryton, Texas, this week to make their home. Mr. Evans will be night engineer at the local light plant of the Community Public Service Co.

COURT MEETS MONDAY

The Terrell county commissioners' court will meet Monday, May 9, for the transaction of all routine business, and to review the rolls of the tax assessor, and any other business that may be brought to its attention.

Governor Allred Declares Texas Bread Week

Undercut of Allred IOFofon Governor James V. Allred by special proclamation calls upon the citizens of Texas to observe the week of May 9th as TEXAS BREAD WEEK by serving bread, toast, sweet rolls, cake and other baked wheat foods. The Governor points out that this program is important to the agricultural and industrial welfare of Texas because the increased consumption of bakery products increases the consumption of wheat flour, milk, butter, cottonseed-oil products. These products all are important to the prosperity of Texas agriculture. Farmers, millers, bakers and grocers are cooperating to put the proclamation into effect. Governor Allred is shown signing the proclamation. Standing back of the governor in the picture are, left to right: Granville W. Moore, Assistant Chairman, Texas Bread Week Campaign; Jake Golman, Director, Texas Bakers Association; Ed Goodman, Chairman, Allied Division; Dr. W. T. Cox, State Director of Public Health.

Large Crowd at Operetta Given Tuesday Night

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Mae T. Wilson presented a most delightful operetta entitled "Crimson Eyebrows," the cast being composed entirely of home talent. Artistic display of flowers in exotic colors and tasteful arrangement made the stage of the high school a beautiful setting for the presentation of this fantastic romance of Old China.

Mrs. Duane Smith, as the leading lady, and D. L. Duke in the role of hero were delightfully convincing in their characterizations. Misses Mary Arrington and Beatrice Nichols added to the attraction of the operetta with their musical solos and bits of dialogue. O. H. McAdams as the usurper emperor, carried his part with pomp and grandeur while Sims Wilkinson, Wesley Lochausen and Jimmy Goodykoontz kept the audience guessing as to what their next wile would be.

The Chorus consisted of Mesdames Sims, Goldwire, McAdam, Ezell, Savage and Kelly; Misses May, Johnson, Underwood and Wade; Messrs. Vaughan, Nichols, and Pickard.

Between acts Mrs. Wilson presented her piano pupils. Those who played were Betty Hurst, Marjorie Jessup, Betty Jo Kerr, Shirley Newman, Charline Holman, Edna Mae McAdams, Doris Cochran and Margaret Gregory. Mrs. McAdams assisted her daughter, Edna Mae, in a piano duet. The operetta, which is an annual affair, was greeted with an audience that filled the auditorium to capacity.

RETURNS HOME

Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Collier returned Tuesday from San Antonio where Dr. Collier had been attending the annual meeting of the State Dental Association. While in San Antonio Dr. Collier took a post graduate course in plate work.

May 15 Final Date For Filing Range Application

Instructions have been received from the State Agricultural Conservation Committee by E. L. Williams, county agent, to the effect that May 15, 1938, has been set and approved by the Washington office as the final date for all producers in Texas to sign worksheets and to submit application for range inspection, in order for grant payments to be made. All ranches not covered by this application for range inspection, Form SR-151, on or before May 15 will not be eligible to participate in the 1938 program.

Approximately 100 applications have been filed in the county office to date. This represents 95 per cent of the ranches in the county. The County Association consisting of three committeemen and the county agent urge all ranchmen who have not already filed this application to please do so at their convenience. It was pointed out that should a ranchman file this application and later decide not to participate in the program, he is in no way obligated.

WALTER G. DOWNIE
Valedictorian

The valedictorian and salutatorian of the senior class of Texas Military Institute were announced last week by Dr. W. W. Bondant, superintendent. First honors went to Walter G. Downie of Sanderson, and second to Will Chambers Tips of San Antonio. The averages of the two boys for their four years in T. M. I. differed by only .09 of a point, being 90.65 and 90.56, respectively.

Cadet Downie is president of the senior class, is a first lieutenant in the R. O. T. C. cadet corps, and is secretary of the T. M. I. Chapter of the National Honor Society. He was elected co-captain of his football team during the past season. He entered T. M. I. from San Antonio Academy, having spent six years at that school.

Walter is the son of Mrs. Helen Downie, of this place, and the many friends of the family will be glad to know of his success and high rating in school.—(Photo courtesy, San Antonio Express)

SHOOTS SELF IN ARM

P. C. Coates, Jr., is carrying his arm in a sling these days as the result of the accidental discharge of a 22-calibre target pistol. The accident occurred Sunday afternoon when P. C. picked up the gun and was examining it. The bullet entered the fleshy part of his upper left arm, missing the bone. After treatment here he returned to the ranch Monday night.

SOMETHING TO BE PROUD OF

We met a proud father this week. Didn't see the mother, but she's proud too.

The father was W. D. O'Bryant, Sr., and the reason, or reasons, were that they sent three children to the Sanderson schools, and all three graduated with the highest honors of their respective classes.

W. D. Jr., graduated with the class of 1927.

Bertha Mae graduates this year and has been announced highest ranking senior, with an average of 92 plus for her four years in high school.

Column Right

Sunday is Mother's Day. We trust all who are still spared the "best friend a boy ever had" will in some way, large or small, let her know you appreciate her. Mother's are easily pleased, because their is the role of sacrifice from the cradle to the grave. To know that her sacrifices are appreciated is sufficient for her.

Speaking of mothers, some one remarked that the old-fashioned mother is gone. We think not, but we do miss some of the old-fashioned things. In particular, the magic gadgets,—those long hair-pins before the bob became the vogue. Mother could work magic with them. She could fix the oven door, open desk drawers and doors, hang pictures, make it pinch hit for a safety-pin on her own and the baby's clothes, dig a woodtick out of Junior's ear. In fact she could do anything with it except eat soup and spank the baby.

See in the Del Rio News that Dr. J. R. Brinkley just made another farewell speech. He's made more farewell appearances than a temperamental prima donna.

Some wisecracker, once upon a time, said that if the worm did turn, so what? He's the same on both sides. To prove that this was a falsity we point to the lowly Chinese, who kept going for about 600 miles, and arrived sans pantaloons. They turned—now the Japs are minus nether garments.

May 9 to 14 is "Texas Bread Week," whatever the heck that is. Looks like the people would get fed up on these "weeks," because no one pays them any mind. However, we contacted the local baker to see if he wanted to do anything about it. It was the first time we had been in his place of business, and were surprised. First, at the neatness and cleanliness of the place; more so at the cases filled with different kinds of pastries and other good things, and long rows of as fine bread as we've ever seen. Here's a business worthy of local support. Our people should call for bread by name, and they won't go wrong if they say "Sanderson Bakery bread, please."

It's good advice that when you travel in Texas you should take an overcoat, umbrella and an electric fan. The past few days proved that. Saturday evening we had a nice rain. Monday the heat was unbearable, but toward evening we were visited by a duster and a brown norther. Every morning since has made the natives who took down their heaters wish they hadn't. Outside of this we've had an average week. If the dusters keep coming we're going to have to add a gas mask to our list of necessities.

An editorial the other day deplored the tactics of candidates in general, and hoped that the present campaign in Texas would be on a high plane—"dignified," so to speak, and that issues instead of personalities would be discussed. Faint hope that! The air is going to be filled with dead cats, wildcats, tomcats, mud slush, vituperation, and what have you. They can tear each other apart for all we care.

Senator Bankhead broke his toe the other day on the Capitol grounds. Well, that's news. But if a senator broke his jaw in the Capitol Chambers no one would be surprised.

The administration is now accused of fomenting strife between employers and employees. We wouldn't know about that, but do know that it isn't doing anything to prevent the trouble.

Sanderson Gets Nice Writeup in Magazine "Epic"

In the current issue of the monthly magazine "Epic" Sanderson comes in for quite a bit of publicity. Nearly two and one-half pages, with several illustrations, are devoted to the town, its businesses, and business men. The magazine, which is a work of art, is published by the Naylor Company, San Antonio, and is devoted entirely to Texas.

OFFICIALS VISIT

N. R. Parsons, vice president, and J. G. Harris, merchandise salesman of the Community Public Service Company, of Fort Worth, were visitors at the company's plant the first of the week. They were enroute to New Mexico to visit other holding of the company.

HIGHWAY MACHINE HERE

Sanderson people had a chance this week to inspect the nail removing machine of the highway department, which for the past month has been operating on Highway 90. The operator stated that during April the machine had picked up 4986 pounds of scrap iron, which included everything from a tack to a monkey wrench.

Spears Will Head Candidate's Race In South Texas

Thirty South Texas counties including Terrell are embraced in the territory in which Senator J. Franklin Spears will be active this summer as South Texas campaign manager for District Judge Ralph Yarbrough of Austin, candidate for Attorney General.

Spears, who lives in San Antonio, has a wide acquaintance in this section. He plans to form an organization in each county. Ranked as one of the finest stump speakers in the State, Senator Spears will speak throughout the district. Yarbrough likewise will campaign thoroughly in South Texas.

LONGHORNS WIN

With a revamped lineup the Sanderson Longhorns showed real form last Sunday and trimmed a picked Mexican team 22 to 2.

LEAVES FOR PERRYTON

Tom Waugh, night engineer at the plant of the Community Public Service Co., for the past two months, with his wife and daughter left Monday for Perryton, Texas, where he will hold a similar position with the company.

PECOS
Fishermen from over a wide area gathered at Red Bluff lake last Sunday, opening day of the game fish season. Many good catches were reported. Bath houses have been constructed at the dam, and boat landings have been built. On April 15 a hotel was opened and it is expected that the reservoir will become a mecca for fishermen and picknickers.

ALPINE
According to the Avalanche, black topping was completed last week on U. S. Highway 67 from its junction with the Old Spanish Trail east of Fort Stockton to McCamey and opened to traffic, affording an all-paved route from Fort Stockton to San Angelo.

MARFA
Work is expected to begin soon on a huge swimming pool at this place, according to the Big Bend Sentinel. Funds will be supplied by W. P. A. Dimensions of the pool will be 45 by 90 feet, with a basin graduated from 2 to 9 feet in depth. Construction will be of adobe, concrete and tile.

FLORESVILLE
Onion shipments from Wilson County got underway last week end after a delay caused by rain. Twelve cars were shipped during the first few days. Estimates place the season's total shipment at 500 or more cars.

SIERRA BLANCA
Ten minutes after picking up a message sent by police radio from the Pecos station, Sheriff Massey of this place had an auto theft suspect answering all descriptions under arrest.

ASHERTON
According to the Tribune a petition is being circulated in Dimmit County asking the Commissioners court to order an election to vote on legalizing the sale of beer throughout the County. An election will probably be held the latter part of May, it was stated.

DEL RIO
According to the Herald, a series of wool sales made recently by C. B. Wardlaw will move more than a half million pounds of mohair out of Del Rio. The largest sale was to representatives of E. R. Greenwood, Inc., Boston, of 200,000 pounds at 38 cents for kid, and 27 cents for grown hair.

OZONA
Shearing is in full swing in Crockett County, according to the Stockman. While many buyers have contracted individual ranchers, none of the new clip has been sold, and most of it will be stored awaiting more favorable prices for the staple.

MONAHANS
A special election will be held in Ward County on May 10th, which is thought will definitely settle whether or not the County seat will be moved from Barstow to Monahans. An election on the same question held several months ago was declared null and void in district court.

RATTLE OF THE RAIL

M. L. Turbeville, division car foreman, was here from San Antonio Tuesday.

Engineer N. E. Charlton has been assigned to the Sanderson yard engine.

T. S. Stewart, trainmaster, was here from El Paso Wednesday.

H. C. Rock made a visit to San Antonio Monday.

W. J. Newman has gone to San Antonio to take a position as pump repairer on the east end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Osgood and daughter, Lois Bea, spent Sunday at the Billings ranch near Langtry, where they enjoyed a kid fry celebrating the birthday anniversary of Miss Lillie Burdwell.

DENTON, Texas—The North State Teachers College Stage Band shown above is the official musical organization for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention held in Wichita Falls this week.

It is the seventh year that the N. T. S. T. C. stage band has been so honored and the eleventh that a group of musicians from North

Smooth college swingers, the versatile North Texans turn from popular music to the classical with a flick of the baton, and are familiar to WFAA radio audiences as "The Aces of College Land."

The stage band is one of several musical organizations which travel thousands of miles every year as ambassadors of good will for the North Texas State Teachers College and play for every sort of gathering from funerals and weddings to stage shows and on church programs.

BACK ON JOB

Lee Grigsby, who received severe injuries last June when he was struck by a car, was able to resume his duties as pump repair foreman of the T. & N. O. on the first of the month. Mr. Grigsby's many friends are glad to know that he is able to work after the 10-month lay off.

Dryden News

Mrs. H. Chandler, Reporter
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Beecroft of Uvalde and Miss Lillie Burdwell of Del Rio were week end guests in the homes of Ernest Miller and Buster Winn.

Mrs. Jennie Schwalbe and daughter, Jennie V. and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Schwalbe of Ozona spent the week end with A. Billings and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Carruthers and daughter, Carolyn, left Tuesday for San Angelo. Carolyn will start back to school there after being absent several weeks on account of whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schwalbe and baby, of El Paso, came in Thursday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Billings. Mr. Schwalbe left Sunday for Jal. N. Mex., but Mrs. Schwalbe will remain here for a longer visit.

A birthday picnic was given in honor of Miss Lillie Burdwell of Del Rio by her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. Beecroft of Uvalde, at the ranch home of Ike Billings of Langtry. A table loaded with good things to eat was enjoyed by thirty guests. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Winn and baby, A. Billings and family.

Mrs. A. Locke happened to a painful accident Tuesday when she fell and broke her arm at the elbow.

Mrs. A. Billings left Tuesday for San Angelo where she will visit her sister.

Right Beauty; Wrong College

Chosen as "the only beautiful girl" at the University of Chicago, Miss Joy Hawley, graduate and former beauty of Texas State College for Women, turned out to be enrolled in Northwestern University, where she has already been named a 1938 beauty.

The mix-up began when a Chicago U magazine stated, "There hasn't been a really beautiful woman around here since Little Egypt reared her skirts on the World's Fair midway in 1893." To debunk the article, Chicago U boys went down to the photographers and with the help of three prominent judges selected what they thought was the picture of a Chicago co-ed.

Great was the chagrin of the C. U. student body when their triumphant choice turned out to be a Northwestern girl. Miss Hawley is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hawley of Denton, Texas.

WIN STATE CERTIFICATE

Wilma Peoples, seventh grade pupil, is the only student in the Sanderson schools thus far this year who has read enough books to qualify for the certificate in reading which is given by the State Department of Education. The books are to be selected from a list furnished by the state. Wilma has only recently finished reading and reporting upon the last of her list. The certificate will be received at an early date. The purpose in awarding certificates of this kind is to encourage students to read good books. Miss Marjorie Thornton is the seventh grade teacher who has had charge of the reports of books read.

MAY 9 TO MAY 14 IS TEXAS BREAD WEEK
By Proclamation of Gov. James V. Allred

YOUR children who are in school today will be Texas' leaders of tomorrow. Now is the time to help them build for the future.

Boys and girls who want to be leaders in school should eat plenty of bread. It helps to build up energy for school work and for play. A 4 o'clock lunch helps—bread and milk, bread and meat, bread and cheese, or just plain bread and butter.

Bread is our outstanding energy food. It sustains youth and old age. Observe TEXAS BREAD WEEK. Serve bread and other baked wheat foods at every meal.

The German Iliad
The Nibelungenlied, historic poem, is known as the German Iliad. It is the only great national epic that European writers have produced since antiquity. The poem is divided into two parts and 32 lieds, or cantos. The first part ends with the death of Siegfried, and the second part with the death of Kriemhild. The death of Siegfried and the revenge of Kriemhild have been celebrated in popular songs dating back to the lyric chants now a thousand years old.

"Born to West" Has Romance Action and Thrills

Action, romance and comedy ride the range with John Wayne in the latest of the popular Zane Grey outdoor stories, "Born to the West", which opens at the Princess Theatre tonight, May 6, for a two night showing.

The story is about Wayne and his saddle-mate, Sid Saylor, a happy-go-lucky pair in search of excitement. They find it in super-abundance when fortune directs them to a little cowtown where Wayne's cousin, played by John Mack Brown, is boss. First they get into the wrong end of a battle between a rustlers band and a sheriff's posse and then Wayne falls in love with Brown's girl played by Marsha Hunt. To make matters worse, Miss Hunt, who is engaged to Brown, falls in love with Wayne.

Wayne is put in charge of a cattle drive by Brown. Crooked riders and rustlers make life difficult for a while, and then there's a crooked card game in which Wayne tries to outsmart the sharpest dealer West of the Mississippi by his own admission. Brown gets out of this scrape but it's then up to Wayne to get Brown, himself and Saylor out of a gun battle in which they are hopelessly outnumbered.

The story ends with Miss Hunt going to Wayne with the blessings of Brown who has come to realize the lay of the land.

INSPIRED BY DANCE... From French "Cancan" came this amusing hat and shirred bag by Marjorie Dunton of Paris. They're of violet antelope, trimmed with lingerie ruffles like Tabarin dancers' panties.

Stars of Screen and Radio Hear Sensational "Big Broadcast of 1938"

A brilliant cast of top radio and film stars, scintillating music and dancing, high comedy and gorgeous settings make "The Big Broadcast" which comes to the Princess Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, May 11 and 12, one of the most amusing and most thoroughly delightful bits of movie fare to hit the screen in a long time.

Headed by W. C. Fields and directed by Mitchell Leisen, the cast includes Martha Raye, Dorothy Lamour, Shirley Ross, Ben Blue, Bob Hope, Lynne Overman, Leif Erickson, Grace Bradley and Tito Guizar, with specialties by Mme. Kirsten Flagstad of the Metropolitan Opera and Shep Fields and Rippling Rhythm Orchestra.

Bob Hope, a radio announcer and master-of-ceremonies, has trouble abroad the S. S. Gigantic, out to set a new transatlantic record. Not only has W. C. Fields, owner of the ship, come aboard to try to slow it down, thinking that he's aboard a rival ship, but all three of Hope's ex-wives have booked passage, to supervise his love-making with Dorothy Lamour, the girl he hopes to make Number Four.

Enroute, the ship slows down to pick up Martha Raye, Field's daughter, and her boy friend, Lynne Overman, who are afloat on a raft after being wrecked in mid-ocean.

Miss Raye's reputation as a jinx terrifies the sailors, and when a series of accidents occurs, they are certain that her "hoodoo" is responsible. They insist that the only safe thing to do is to throw her overboard.

REPRESENTED SCHOOL AT HOMEMAKERS RALLY

(From Eagle News)

By Earline Stirman The first year and second year Home Economics classes had their dresses judged Monday.

Miss May of Sanderson, Miss Grace Bedell and Mrs. Ratliff of Alpine were the judges.

The winners of the second year were Mary Bess Hardgrave, first place, Margaret Jane Higgins second, and Ethel Laure Nance third.

Only the first places from each class goes to the state Homemakers' Rally which is held in San Antonio this week.

Mrs. Tom Bond, of Sonora, is visiting her nephews, Robert and Donald Duncan and families.

Mr. and Mrs. Tip Frazier and children were visitors in Balmorhea Sunday going over for the rodeo and Horse show.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Vincent and son, J. D. attended the dance at Langtry Saturday night.

Mrs. Odis Wickliffe and daughter, Rose Nell and Mrs. T. A. Harnes were visitors in Fort Stockton last Saturday morning.

The seven new songs featured are: "You Took the Words Out of My Heart," "Mamma, That Moon Is Here Again," "Thanks for the Memory," "The Waltz Lives On," "This Little Ripple Had Rhythm," "Don't Tell a Secret to a Rose," and "Sawing a Woman in Half."

A Doctor's Love Redeems Woman Is Told in Film

Based on a young doctor's redemption of a girl convict at a women's prison, "Condemned Women" comes to the Princess Theatre Monday and Tuesday, May 9 and 10, as what has been acclaimed one of the strongest and most dramatic film offerings in recent months.

Sally Eilers, Louis Hayward and Anne Shirley head the cast of the picture, which discloses much of the plotting and "politics" that take place in such institutions. Hayward, as the doctor who is pursuing his psychiatric studies among the inmates, is attracted to Miss Eilers, a sullen and embittered girl who has lost all ambition.

How his interest in her awakens her to a new life, and in turn leads to her gripping sacrifice to keep from wrecking his professional career, make up the action theme of this unusual film, which reaches tense dramatic heights in its thrilling prison break and in the girl's subsequent trial.

Anne Shirley and Richard Bond provide a secondary romance in the story, and such favorites as George Irving, Lee Patrick, Leona Roberts, Frank M. Thomas, Edythe Elliott and Rita LaRoy have important supporting roles. Robert Sisk produced "Condemned Women" for RKO Radio and Lew Landers directed.

Mrs. Maude Sullivan and daughter, Miss Dorothy, spent the week end in Eagle Pass as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Southall and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Creigh and son Al, Jimmy Wilkinson, and John Hardgarve spent Sunday in Balmorhea where they witnessed the rodeo and horse show.

WEEKLY Health Letter

AUSTIN.—May is the month when most Texans take a look at the thermometer, make a dive for their bathing suits and hunt the nearest swimming pool. Swimming is a fine sport but it does involve certain hazards. It is tragedy enough to have a drowning accident but far greater tragedy if no one present knows how to save life by artificial respiration.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises that the "Prone Pressure Method" is the accepted one for restoring life from drowning. The method involves the following steps:

Rescue measures should begin at once and continue rhythmically until natural breathing is established. This may take four or more hours. The procedure is:

1. Kneel, and straddle the patient below the hips, placing hand on small of the back with fingers over the lowest ribs, tips of fingers just out of sight.

2. With arms straight, while counting one, two, swing forward bearing weight on body firmly but not violently.

3. Swing backwards while counting one, straightening up and thus relieving pressure. This allows air to be drawn into the lungs.

4. Rest in this position for two counts.

5. Repeat those movements rhythmically, forward and backwards, without interruption about twelve to fifteen minutes, until natural breathing is restored.

6. Meanwhile, if assistance is at hand, a physician should be sent for, patient's tight clothing should be loosened at neck, chest, or waist, and patient should be kept warm.

Patient should not be moved from this spot until he is breathing naturally and then should be carried in a lying position to a place where he can be kept warm and receive expert medical attention.

Current Comment

A few of the Seniors seem to have the spring fever so bad that they can't write one-act plays.

Did you see the picture of a few of the seniors in the trophy case? This was when they were in kindergarten. A few of them have not changed much.

Snooper

If you want to hear some gossip you should just hear the fifth period bookkeeping class.

The editor of "Brain Teasers", Jimmy Goodykoontz, was all in an uproar because his column did not make the paper last week. Oh! If we could only have a few more weeks of rest.

SEVENTH GRADE ASSEMBLY

The regular high school assembly Tuesday morning, April 26, was in charge of the seventh grade class who presented the entire room in an appropriate program called "The Last Day of School." Miss Thornton sponsored the program.

A feature of the program was a tap dance by Adeline Bosworth, Billy Jo Corder and Lois Bea Osgood.

Sam Bell and Dewain Hill were the little bad boys who received a whipping the last day of school for drawing naughty pictures.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

Jackie Talbot visited the room Monday.
Betty Ann Peavy, Nancy Holt and Georgia May Hill brought flowers for the room.
Betty Jo Beckett's big tadpole has turned to a frog. She says it is a spring frog.
Ruth Ann Kelly went to Alpine Saturday.
Patty Jo Robertson went to Balmorhea Sunday.
Jerry Noel went to Quemado last Thursday.
Vivian McKnight had bad luck Sunday. She broke her arm.
Sammy Jo Burleson visited the room last Thursday.

Interest Keen In Football; Prospect Good For Team

By Johnny Glenn

The football squad for next year has been working for the past two weeks and have shown considerable improvement in their blocking and tackling. A tackling dummy has been constructed and has been in use daily.

Coach Duane Smith believes that he will have a fair squad to place on the field next fall. The boys seem to want to play football, Coach Smith states, and with a little backing and support they will go places.

A spring game is planned between the squad for next year and those who have played before.

Two of the Seniors Are Just Sixteen

Only two of the fifteen members of the senior class of S. H. S. are as young as 16, according to records on file in the principal's office. The two are Troy Druse and Bert Herbert. There are nine boys and six girls in the class. On the average the boys are younger than the girls. Five of the seniors are 17 years of age, seven are 18, and one is 19. This compares favorably with the general averages for the seniors over the state as to age. These ages are all based upon estimate of the report of age of seniors. Bertha Mae O'Bryant, who is to be class valedictorian is only 17 years of age as is Jimmy Goodykoontz, the salutatorian.

SIXTH GRADE PROGRAM

By Carolyn Bodkin
The sixth grade presented a play, "How Boots fooled the King," on Wednesday, May 4, 1938. The characters were: King, Bill Davis; Queen, Margaret Ruth Yeates; Jester, Harold Haynes; First Suitor, Bill Cochran; Second Suitor, James Blackwelder; Herold, James O'Conner; Father, Curtis Litton; Peter, Donald Smith; Paul, James House; Boots, Weldon Blackwelder; Old Crockery Vender, Elouise Stidham; Her Daughter, Wilma Lois Moorefield; Lord Councillor, Joe Bean; His Daughter, Kathryn Nell Nance; His first Maid Servant, Janice White; His second Maid, Charleen Holland; First Lady in Waiting, Margaret Pierson; Second Lady in Waiting, Mary Corder; Princess's nurse, Betty Hurst; Princess, Lois Burleson.

Boots married the Princess by fooling the king. There were several ladies with the princess. Boots had to guess which one was the Princess. He let a mouse go. The Princess fainted. That is how he guessed.

TO RALLY AT SAN ANTONIO

Miss Mauryne Lindley, home economics teacher in high school, accompanied by the two high school girls who won first places in the clothing contests, Mary Bess Hardgarve and Pauline Bell, left early Wednesday morning for San Antonio to attend the annual State Homemakers' Rally. The meeting is held on May 5, 6, and 7.

Seniors Shaping Plays for May 13

The Senior class is working on its plays to be presented on Friday May 13. This year instead of just having one play as has been presented in the past the Seniors are putting on three one-act plays in order that each person may have a leading role. In the three act plays only one or two characters have a leading role but the one act plays takes care of this.

These three plays are: "Grandma Pulls the String," a story of an old lady who tries to get a boy to propose to her granddaughter and she does in a big way. The characters in this play are Helen Turner, Bennie Mussey, Mildred Fawcett, Wesley Loehausen, Rosa Mas Clark and Bertha Mae O'Bryant.

The next is "Crime Conscious," a story about a mystery. The characters in this play are Albert Weigand, Bert Herbert, Troy Druse, Houston Chandler and Jimmy Goodykoontz.

And last but not least "Longhorn," a story of a western romance and there is also a murder mystery in it which is aided by the stealing of the murder gun by killer Dawes and Pecos. The characters in this play are Allen Hardgrave, Vaunceil Henderson, Prince Dishman, Houston Chandler, Holden Murrah and Helen Turner.

I am sure that you will enjoy the plays very much and your seeing them will help the Senior class that much more.

The admission will be fifteen and twenty-five cents.

The Sanderson high school has two N. Y. A. students who do clerical work for one hour each day under this program.

Traditional Junior-Senior Banquet Held at High School Last Saturday

On the night of Saturday, April 30, the annual Junior-Senior banquet was presented with great success. The banquet was held in the high school building which was decorated as around-the-world cruise. The whole banquet was carried off in the manner of a traditional Junior-Senior banquet. The banquet was held in the high school building which was decorated as around-the-world cruise. The whole banquet was carried off in the manner of a traditional Junior-Senior banquet.

Upon arriving at the dining hall you were met at the door by another steward and an usher who took you to your right seat. When everyone was seated you were then greeted by your master of ceremonies Captain John Glenn.

The first on the program was the invocation by Hazel Owen. Next came the welcome address by Hicks Canon, president of the Junior class, and the response by the Senior president, Prince Dishman.

Immediately following this, Captain Glenn gave orders to "shove off" and after a few minutes sailing you reached Hawaii where you were greeted by a typical Hawaiian girl, grass skirts and all, Mary Cook, who did a native dance. The next stop was India, where you could hear the faint strains of the snake charmer's clarinet. When in seeing distance, there stood Bert Herbert, (I don't know what that is in Indian), swinging out on the snake charmer.

Where Seniors Intend to Study

Vivian Earwood Wins In Contest

A pronunciation Bee and Description contest was given to the Sophomores in English class Wednesday. There were 71 of the most commonly mispronounced words in the English language given out for them to pronounce. Vivian Earwood, with a total of 67 correctly pronounced words carried off the winning prize. She lost out on the word "deficit." Mary Bess Hardgarves was second with a total of 51 correctly pronounced words. She missed out on "docile." Reba Burleson was third with 17 correctly pronounced words.

This bee and contest was given by radio with Ethel Laure Nance as announcer. The judges were Bertha Mae O'Bryant and Rosa Mae Clark. There was also a prize given to the winner who wrote the best description. The class were to write a letter to a friend, and tell about a trip he had recently taken, describing the scenery, buildings, and the trip in general. There were many very interesting descriptions read. Margaret Jane Higgins won the first prize in this. She wrote about a trip to Muir Woods, California. Muir Woods was described as a beautiful country by the winner. David Allen was second with a description of an "around the world flight." He described India as a place of many wild animals, and snakes. He also visited China, and while taking off, he said he caught several bombs. David invites you to come up and see them sometimes. Hilarrio Carrasco wrote a description on "An Expedition to Africa." He got third place.

Vivian Earwood and Margaret Jane Higgins won the prizes of gilt edged correspondence cards and envelopes. The radio program was enjoyed by all.

A sample of the words to be pronounced were: mischievous, formidable, disputable, askance, inexplicable, gratis, facade, exemplary espionage, discrepancy.

Brain Teasers

My right front tire which carries thirty five pounds of air has a slow leak and one morning I find it down to eleven pounds. Everyday I fill it up to thirty five, but I find that the leakage increases at the rate of two pounds a day. At this rate, how many days after the original discovery before it is entirely flat?

WHY GRADUATE

A high school diploma is: necessary for a profession; desirable in business; helpful in a trade; college demands it; the shop respects it.
With it: you get a job more easily; advance more rapidly; climb much higher.
MY DOG BEAN

My dog, Bean,
Is a good breed.
His eyes are very kind,
So I call him Bean.
The Book of Job
The author of the Book of Job is unknown. It has been judged that either Jehoiachin or Heman, writer of many of the Psalms, wrote the book, probably during the period of the captivity, although the scenes of the book are laid in early times when "God talked with man." By many people, says the Washington Star, it is held to be an allegory showing God's providential care over Israel, although He may design a trying purpose for them.

Essentials For A Good School Band

Many people have ask the question, "What is wrong with the Sanderson high school band?"

The first thing that comes to a person's mind is the proper instruments. How many of each kind should a band have, for instance, a 40 piece band? The following is the standard instrumentation for the national contest for all high schools: Six cornets, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd parts; 10 clarinets, 8 Bb clarinets, 1 alto and 1 bass; 5 saxophones, 2 Eb altos, 1 tenor, 1 baritone 1 bass; 2 flutes; 1 oboe; 1 bassoon; 4 French horns; 4 trombones; 2 baritones; 3 bass horns; 2 drums.

The instruments that Sanderson lacks are 1 bass and 1 alto clarinet; 1 baritone and 1 bass saxophone; 1 flute; 1 oboe; 1 bassoon; 3 trombones; 1 baritone; 1 bass horn and 3 French horns. When a person hears a choir they listen for the four parts, the bass, baritone, tenor and soprano if these are heard equally they have heard a good choir. The same thing applies to a band. The Sanderson high school does not have the bass reeds or the bass brass for the band to sound as it should.

Each player, whether playing solo or 2nd or 3rd part, has just as important position in the band as the other. All parts must be heard in order to have harmony and the proper balance.

There are quite a few students failing to take advantage of an opportunity that is within their reach. The school hires an instructor who is willing to give his time after school hours for any interested student. Then, too, the school has several instruments that they are willing to loan to any well deserving student.

DEAR PUBLIC

Do you like to laugh? If you do, read further, my friend. All we ask you to do is to pay for a ticket to the Senior plays. You have our guarantee of a whole evening of fun.
This year the Seniors are giving three one-act plays instead of the usual three-act play. Every one in the Senior class has an important part in a play and they're all good actors. The seats in the auditorium are very comfortable; we really don't think you should miss this entertainment on May 13 at eight o'clock.
Comedy! Love! Thrills! All these we give you for entertainment in one night. We will be looking for you in our audience the night of May 13.
Yours for a good time,
The Seniors

SCIENCE CLUB IN ASSEMBLY

Tuesday afternoon at 1:00 the science club under the direction of Mr. Smith and Mr. Caraway, gave demonstrations of modern science through the use of experiments.

The most difficult experiments were performed by the members of the physics class while the lesser ones were given by the biology class.

Many interesting things were shown. The general science class extracted certain elements from different foodstuffs. They also made tests to see if these foods contained certain nutrients. The physics class main subject was the use of compressed air or the vacuum.

A larger proportion of the pupils who enter the eighth grade in Texas public schools finish high school than those who enter the first grade finish the seventh. "It is the function of the school to make it possible for each child to become more and more effective in meeting situations with which he is and will be confronted.

THE BENEFITS OF A SCHOOL EDUCATION
By Pauline B...
Graduating from high school is very important for many reasons. I expect to graduate from high school so I can make a living after I graduate. The future, more than ever before, should have an education to earn a living. If I don't graduate from high school I not hope to make a very good living but if I do I think I will be able to earn a good living.
The courses you take in high school are just as important as your graduating from school. While in high school should take subjects which help you find a job in any business or profession. Some subjects which help you are typing, business arithmetic and
