TRUSTEES HEAR CAUTION OF SALES TAX WED.

Members of the Sanderson Club were entertained Tuesday by Malcolm Davis Earl Hurst who discussed points in favor of a sales tax in Texas and Al Creigh who argued against the tax. The students working under the direction of Miss Helen Sweeney was also a guest at the club. Members of the club enjoyed arguments very much concerning a question that has had so much discussion and in Austin.

Lemons arrived here Wednesday night from Texas Tech. Hubcock to spend the Easter days with his mother, Mrs. Lemons.

RANCH TALK—

Sunshine Matthews—Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association

Summing up the sheepman's opinion, the vice-president of the Texas City bank says: Sheep increasing in numbers, the total being 53,762,000 head or an increase of 2% for the United States and the total is three million head above the 1927-36 average. As of January 1, there were 6% less lambs on full feed in 1938 and the movement of lots had been late. Texas California conditions are heavy spring runs of fat lambs or lambs. The condition of mutton in 1938 was an average showing good and wool is in a stronger position than in March, 1938. On hand December 31st, smaller than a year earlier. Exports totaled thirty-one million pounds in 1938 against one hundred fifty million in 1937. There should be unsatisfied demand as consumption of wool in the United States was in 1938 smaller than in 1937. There is an unsatisfied stocker and in the drought area which with a normal crop year in an element of strength. General business could improve near normal degrees of employment and the effect of the unanimous increase in livestock production is delayed, but unquestionably, sheep and hogs carry high prices of all farm products with cattle in the number position. Scarcity by reason of four years followed by increased demand is the reason. Other products show a dangerous surplus overhanging their prices.

There's an early reminder of the Coleman County rodeo in the lobby of the Coleman County National Bank—an elaborate affair, marked as first prize in the sponsors' contest. The saddle work of J. M. Nance of Sanderson and the bank will serve as the rodeo on July 12, 14, and 15.

One of the next things in line are the 4-H and FFA boys of Texas, Pete Gulley of the Gulley & Sons, Angora riders of Uvalde, believes, is a riding stock show to be held during the selling season. Mr.

SNOW—

The weather man plays funny pranks at times but a snow in April is one that is seldom heard of in this section. The Easter spell that everyone was expecting came a little early and snow began falling Thursday evening, reaching a total of six inches or better. According to N. M. Mitchell three inches of snow had fallen at his ranch at 8:30, with the fall just about an inch in Sanderson and still melting as it fell at Dryden.

Ranchmen of this section who had hopes of escaping a freeze which they said would kill all the new brush putting out, feel that the moisture derived from the snow will be a boon to the grass and weeds.

According to tourists who drove into Sanderson Thursday night from the east, the snow reached about 60 miles in that direction and was heavy all the way. No reports were received as to how far west snow fell but it came from that direction.

As shown in the government gauge at the Kerr Mercantile Co. there was 1 1/4 inches of moisture in the total fall of snow and as it melted slowly during the night and this morning very little of the moisture was lost, most of it soaking into the ground.

Mrs. Charlie Strange and little granddaughter of Houston are visiting in Sanderson this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Williams.

Mrs. Mata Wheeler of Rock Springs arrived here Wednesday for several days visit with Mrs. Grace Wheeler.

Gulley feels that such a sale would encourage the young feeders to choose breeding stock as their club projects. His idea is that the youngsters show the stock at the spring shows and then hold them in good condition for a sale when the season is right.

Jess Koy of Eldorado tried out a new method of putting up meat last fall and has recently tried a part of it. The meat was cured and then left immersed in a container of cottonseed oil. The Eldoradoan says the flavor is kept perfectly.

While most of West Texas is worrying over a short lamb crop, Mr. Koy marked up a 90% total. He says there has been some loss in his section through lambs having milk colic.

Martin de Moya, the South American who has been touring the livestock country of the state, purchased a car of registered heifers and bulls at the Brook Hereford Ranch at Brady. Jamie Brook recently sold two lots of stock to two Louisiana men, one of 13 bulls and another 10 bulls and a number of cows.

Production of wool in Coleman County is around two and a quarter million pounds, Theo Griffiths vice-president and cashier of the Coleman County National Bank said. Approximately 10% of the new clip has been sold, he said, most of it going to Eisemann, Inc. Griffiths operates a warehouse at Coleman. All of the county clip of mohair, about 20,000 pounds, was purchased by the Stallings warehouse at Lometa. Griffiths said.

Ben Cusenbary of Sonora sold a small string of calves at 8 and 9 cents to C. D. McMillan and Sons of Mason. The calves weighed 500 pounds and were delivered the last of the week.

E. B. Ligon has resigned his place with the Predatory Animal Control Board and will return to Fort Stockton to operate his ranch. His place has been taken by James E. Poore, who has been with the board since 1930. Ligon.

HEALTH TRAILER EXHIBIT HERE APRIL 10

The 1939 Health Department mobile Trailer, first in the nation to present health education to high schools in this novel manner, will be on exhibit at the Sanderson high school on April 10 at 10:00 o'clock according to an announcement by R. D. Holt, superintendent of schools.

Students of the Sanderson school are particularly fortunate in having this opportunity to see the educational exhibits as it is impossible for the trailer to contact all high schools in West Texas on its present tour.

The streamlined white trailer, modern as the Twentieth Century, makes use of photographic techniques in presenting desirable information on nutrition and dental health. Particular emphasis has been placed on the development of a well-rounded personality, with photographs showing high school students in every day situations.

As the student groups visit the exhibit a Public Health Nurse will explain pertinent information relative to the exhibits and answer all inquiries the students may have on related health topics.

The physical education classes in high school will attend the exhibit as a part of their health work.

NINETEEN POSTS REPRESENTED AT LEGION MEETING

One hundred eleven delegates from 19 posts registered for the semi-annual conference, District 16, American Legion and Auxiliary, held here last week-end. The meeting was pronounced an outstanding success and a resolution was passed congratulating the Alpine post and unit and extending thanks for the hospitality extended.

A special resolution was passed thanking the Christian church and its pastor for the religious program given Sunday morning, at which State Commander Vincent Chiodo was the Legion speaker. The theme of his address was the scope of the projects endorsed and sponsored by the Legion and Auxiliary. He called to the attention of the listeners the fact that the Legion and Auxiliary, while composed of men and women of every religion in the U. S., the Legion's first word in organization is "for God," and that on this the world's greatest safeguard of liberty and freedom exists.

Appearing on the afternoon program were Jay Johnson, noted Legion speaker; Ed Riedel, Fifth division commander, and George Betts, State Service officer. Riedel stressed particularly the youth movements of the organizations while Betts spoke on the subjects of veterans' claims and the claims of those related to veterans.

Mrs. Moody Elected
Mrs. G. Ward Moody, Odessa, was elected president of the district Auxiliary. Her husband is the district Legion commander.

Resolutions concerning Americanism, peace, preparedness, rehabilitation and education were adopted by the convention.

Moody and Davis Green, assistant commander, were elected delegates to the national convention. Frank Myers of El Paso was nominated and will be sponsored by this district for the office of division commander.

The highlight of the convention was the state commander's address. Mr. Chiodo a U. S. citizen by choice, through naturalization, spoke for an hour on the importance of Americanism and defense of "the world's greatest Constitution"—that of the United States. Local Legionnaires expressed regret that every citizen of the community was not present to hear his masterful address.

The "fun" of the convention was held in the lobby of the Holland hotel and out of doors on 6th street where the famous "Judge Roy Bean" held court, fining various citizens for imaginary offenses. The "court" was held by members of the Odessa 40 and 8 Voltare, fun-making

New Pastor Is Honored With Surprise Shower

Members of the Sanderson Baptist Church enjoyed a social Friday evening of last week when they gathered at the church to meet and welcome their new pastor, the Rev. Taft Holloway.

Games were enjoyed and refreshments served in the basement after which they enjoyed a session of songs. Rev. Mr. Holloway was then asked to show everyone through the parsonage, and upon entering the living room he was surprised to find a large Easter rabbit nest filled and overflowing with food and linens.

end of the Legion.

Sanderson was unanimously chosen as the place for holding the next convention—Alpine Av-alanche.

More newsworthy at this time of the year than at any other is Texas' famed Alamo, "Cradle of Texas Liberty." Centered around it are many of the activities of

WINFIELD BILL WOULD SALVAGE BEAN'S SALOON

Austin—The memory of Judge Roy Bean and his "Law West of the Pecos" would be kept alive under a resolution passed by the Texas Senate and sent to the House today.

Introduced by Senator H. L. Winfield of Fort Stockton, it would prevent the "Jersey Lily" Saloon from being destroyed by the Highway Department. The building has been acquired by the department and it was in the Langtry, Texas saloon that Bean conducted his unorthodox court.

Winfield said the Highway Department is considering tearing down the building. Bean, who set himself up as the representative of law and order in frontier days by his own authority, and a notary public seal, once let a cowboy go free after killing a Chinaman because he could find nothing in the statutes which inflicted a penalty for killing a Chinaman. When court was over, Bean always invited spectators to have "one on the house."—El Paso Times.

R. H. Lewellyn, formerly of Sanderson and connected with the S. P. Railway, is here for a few days. He plans to return to San Antonio about the 15th where he will be stationed another year making the run between San Antonio and Del Rio.

RECEIVES SERIOUS INJURIES IN FALL

W. D. (Bill) Ferguson was seriously injured Friday when he fell about 12 feet from the top of a bridge being constructed on highway 90 about eight miles west of Sanderson.

Mr. Ferguson who is superintendent for Cage Bros. and L. A. Turner, contractors, was prizing with a bar and was standing with his back to the edge of the bridge. The bar slipped and caused him to lose his footing and fall to the ground. In the accident he received a badly broken arm just above the wrist, a fractured pelvic bone and fractured knee cap.

Mr. Ferguson was carried to a hospital at Del Rio where he is receiving treatment, and Mrs. Ferguson is with him there. Latest reports were that his condition was as good as could be expected.

Edward Wheeler Improving With Broken Leg

Edward Wheeler, son of Mrs. Grace Wheeler, is improving from a broken thigh received two weeks ago when he fell on a concrete walk while playing in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson.

Circles Are Formed By Baptist Woman's Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary of the Sanderson Baptist Church held its regular meeting at the church Monday. Twelve members were present for the business meeting and Bible study.

At this meeting it was decided that instead of having just the one body of the society that there would be two circles formed. These circles will meet each Monday in the future for carrying on the regular work.

Hereford Journal and the Pol-and China Journal of Kansas City, Mo., and speaks from a business man's viewpoint on "Every Day Religion." His practical talks will be of benefit to all who hear him.

Thursday morning he gave a Bible recital, giving from memory the high lights of the book of Genesis. These memory Bible recitals will be given each morning. The services usually last about an hour and never over an hour and fifteen minutes.

Everyone is invited and urged to hear Mr. Green and to be on time each day at 10:00 a. m. and at 7:45 in the evening.

Y. W. A. TO HAVE SUNRISE EASTER SERVICE SUNDAY

All young people of the town and community, and especially intermediates and seniors are invited, and all who attend will be cordially welcomed. The Y. W. A. will serve a breakfast of coffee and doughnuts after the service.

Those who plan to enjoy the service and breakfast are asked to be at the Baptist Church at 5:45 a. m. for the drive out to the hill. Jesse James—Nation's Most Colorful Figure Lives Again In Drama Of The Old West

The most romantic outlaw in the history of America, the desperado whose daring colored a whole era and endowed it with the title of the "Serious Seventies"—the man who evicted bank holdups and introduced law as his wife and to bear his son alone in the hills. When Zee finally leaves him, Jesse becomes a cold and ruthless desperado, and the film follows his reckless deeds across five states, climaxing in his betrayal and death at the hands of Bob Ford, the "dirty little coward" of song and story, who sold him out to the law. Perhaps the best picture of this good bad man is contained in the words of the mayor of his home town of Sedalia, uttered months after Jesse James had died in the arms of his beloved bride. The occasion was the dedication of an obelisk on the old James farm. "Jesse was an outlaw, a bandit a criminal," said the Mayor, but we aren't ashamed of him. Maybe it's because we understand a little that he wasn't to blame for what his times made him. All I know is, he was the doggedest dad-blamedest buckaroo tha ever rode across the United States of America!"

train robberies—has been brought to the screen at last in Darryl F. Zanuck's production, "Jesse James," 20th Century-Fox Technicolor epic starring Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph Scott. One of the most difficult problems facing producer Darryl F. Zanuck, who had already shown his good judgment by casting Tyrone Power in the title role, was to ascertain a fairly accurate picture of what Jesse James really was like, and then to present that picture with as much authenticity as possible, taking care neither to whitewash nor blacken the character of the man. Two years of research into the life and times of this fascinating character passed before the actual production of the film was begun.

Henry King, the distinguished director of such Zanuck hits as "Lloyds of London," "In Old Chicago" and "Alexander's Ragtime Band," was entrusted with the megaphone, and made the trip into the Ozark region to select actual locales. The little town of Pineville, Missouri, was finally chosen, and it was here that a vast company, including, besides Power, Fonda, Miss Kelly and Scott, Henry Hull, Slim Sumner, J. Edward Bromberg, Brian Donlevy, John Carradine, Donald Meek, John Russell and Jane Darwell, traveled to shoot this gripping photoplay.

Nunnally Johnson, the author of some of the screen's greatest successes, was selected to weld this colorful mass of story material into a screen play that thrived with life. Johnson also acted as associate producer on the production. "Jesse James" shows Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Princess Theatre and opens with the introduction of the "Iron Horse" in its journey through the old West, cutting ruthlessly across the farms of the simple hardy pioneers. It shows how Jesse James and his equally notorious brother Frank (Henry Fonda), began their career of crime as a direct result of the murder of their mother by an unscrupulous hireling of the St. Louis Midland railroad, in the person of one Barshee, played by Brian Donlevy.

Jesse shoots Barshee and swears to avenge his mother's death. A murderer with an ever-increasing price on his head he goes from raid to raid. Love comes to Jesse in the person of Zerelda, better known as Zee, played by Nancy Kelly, a gently nurtured girl who gave up a life of ease to share the wild, reckless life of this hunted outlaw.

Goodyear LifeGuards, a new safety device that consists of a reserve tire inside a conventional tube. The organization is modeled somewhat along the lines of the famous Caterpillar Club, in which only aviators who have been forced to save lives by parachute are eligible for membership.

As a memento of becoming a member of The LifeGuard Legion, Mr. Ferguson was presented with a handsome bronze plaque pictured above. Presentation of the plaque was made by Bob Jeffers, Goodyear salesman.

The front of the plaque shows in bas-relief the heads of an old man, a young man, a woman and a child, signifying that LifeGuards provide safety for persons of all ages. On the reverse side are these words: "This is an emblem of membership in The LifeGuard Legion, a select group of safetywise motorists, each of whom has been saved from accident by Goodyear LifeGuards. Presented by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Inc., Akron, Ohio. For Safety's Sake." Mr. Ferguson was saved from accident by LifeGuards on February 12, 1938 when a tire failed while driving between Marathon and Sanderson.

The two ranches were operated for years under the name Ligon Brothers, but the interests have been divided for some time. Sam Gray, vice-president of the First Coleman National at Coleman, estimates that there were between 10,000 and 15,000 head of sheep in Coleman County ten years ago as compared with the 200,000 to 275,000 head there at present. Organization of the Southwest Rodeo Association will be completed at a meeting of 20 or more rodeo associations at Colorado on April 9. The fact that cancer ranks second as a cause of death in Texas that 4370 Texans died of cancer last year and that the death rate has increased 172 per cent in the last fifteen years makes cancer one of our greatest medical and public health problems," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "Cancer is not a hopeless, incurable disease. It is not contagious or in itself hereditary. There are thousands of men and women in this country who have been successfully treated for cancer. Yet the death rate continues to rise year after year. The important thing in curing cancer is to discover the disease early and begin treatment during its early stages. Cancer announces itself by symptoms that are frequently painless and apparently trivial, thus giving the disease an unseemly advantage. Early diagnosis is the one powerful antagonist." Doctor Cox lists cancer danger signals as: any lump in the breast or other part of the body; any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth; any unusual discharge or bleeding from any part of the body, such as vomiting of blood, passage of blood from the bowels, or unusual bleeding of any bodily passages, especially after middle-age. These symptoms may be from some other cause but should be diagnosed by a physician. "Two fundamental rules should be followed in cancer treatment. First, have an annual physical examination by a reputable physician. In this way incipient cancerous conditions can be discovered and by proper treatment the disease can be conquered. The second rule is to steer clear of 'cancer quacks' and 'amazing cures!'" The month of April has been proclaimed Cancer Control Month by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel in a proclamation issued at Austin. While the nation's business has been experiencing wide swings, Texas has remained on an even keel for more than a year, Dr. F. A. Buechel, University of Texas economist, pointed out today. A change of only a fraction of one per cent occurred in the University Bureau of Business Research index for February, he said, dropping to 94.1 from 94.3 in February of last year. In comparison with January, the composite index declined from 96.8. "It still is expected that this year the normal seasonal rise in business will occur," he said. "Among the factors giving rise to this expectation of further business improvement are increasing residential construction, automobile production, railroad purchases, and government spending"
