MAHON FACES TRIAL IN DISTRICT COURT

District Court was resumed this morning with Judge Montague on the bench. Attorney Roger Thurmond and Mrs. Belle Sutherland reporter, of Del Rio, were in attendance. Criminal docket was taken up with the case of C. A. Mahon. A jury was started Monday and was not complete until Wednesday morning. Testimony started immediately afterward. Mahon is charged with murder in the first degree as the result of the death of Radish, who died shortly after jumping from a truck. Mahon was driving the highway east of Dryden, Tex. Testimony was given by witnesses for the state Wednesday and Thursday. It was proved that he had come from the truck by telling Peoples and son, Lee Roy, to get into the truck. He had a pocket in his coat and forcing it into the driver's seat. The Peoples slipped from the truck as the others were climbing and notified the officers that had happened. Radish was in the truck when it was in pursuit started to pass a few minutes later in a place where he had been in the witness stand. Witnesses heard were V. Peoples, Hiram Peoples, Sheriff H. E. Lester, Sheriff Andy Anderson, Mrs. Peoples and Lee Roy Peoples. Witnesses for the defense were Sumner C. Bryant of Los Angeles, California, character witness and Jack Hayre read the opinion of Charles Wiggins, as with McMahon at the time of the accident. Testimony had been completed Friday afternoon but the jury did not receive the charge until Monday morning. Diagnosis Most Important Factor in Treatment of Tuberculosis

Tuberculosis is not inherited but is caused only by a germ known to science as the tubercle bacillus. Persons who have lung tuberculosis, especially those in the advanced stages, cough and spit out tubercle bacilli, sometimes in large quantities. Children and others in contact with such tubercle bacilli are, of course, liable to breathe in or swallow the germs. Dried dust containing the germs of a carrier may be directly inhaled and sputum may be picked up on the fingers. Kissing or holding a child may be the means of passing the germs to the child. Drinking cups, spoons, and other articles may have tubercle bacilli on them, unknowingly placed by one who has tuberculosis. Persons living in homes where a careless person has the disease are in unusual danger because they are almost continually exposed to large "doses" of tubercle bacilli. The early form of tuberculosis does not cause any clear signs or symptoms by which a doctor may detect it. The child may appear healthy and robust. Or he may be underweight, somewhat listless and not very energetic. But the same symptoms may be caused by other causes. Early tuberculosis may be overlooked if the doctor makes a carelessly physical examination. There are now two tests, however, that help. One is the tuberculin test, a simple, harmless, practically painless skin test which shows whether or not a person has tubercle bacilli in his system. It does not tell how many tubercle bacilli are or whether they are active. The other test is the x-ray (Continued to page three)

Sanderson Eagles Win Second At Ozona Tournament

The Sanderson Eagles lost to the McCamey Badgers in the finals of the Ozona Basketball Tournament 29 to 20 last Saturday night. The Eagles played the Iraan Braves at 3 o'clock Friday and defeated them 31 to 11. In the second game Sanderson defeated Eldorado 25 to 21. The second string started the game but they couldn't hold Eldorado, so Coach A. B. Caraway sent in the first string and they finished the game. The third game, with Ozona, ended with the score being 33 to 12 in favor of Sanderson. After winning the game with Ozona, Sanderson was in the finals with McCamey. The finals started at 8 o'clock Saturday night. McCamey took the lead and Sanderson was never able to overtake them. At the half McCamey was ahead 17 to 7. In the last half Sanderson gave McCamey a scare but the Eagles couldn't hit the basket enough times to win. The game ended with McCamey in the lead 29 to 20. Members of the Eagle squad who made the trip were: Lochausen, Haynes, Kerr, Davis, Litton, Ochoa, Burleson, Bassett, Cargile and Coach Caraway. Sanderson received a large silver cup for runner-up place in the Tournament. Lochausen and Haynes received gold basketballs for making the all-tournament team.

Eagles Defeat Fort Stockton Panthers Tuesday

One of the most exciting games of the season took place in Fort Stockton Tuesday night when the local Eagles invaded the home of the Panthers and took a game from them at the time of 20-18. At no time during the game was Sanderson more than six points in the lead, and at times Fort Stockton forged ahead by a narrow margin. In the last few minutes of the game the Panthers took the lead, but with accuracy gained through deliberate practice the Eagles shot the ball into the basket to finish the game with the two point lead. Sanderson's team was not at its best. Lochausen, Haynes and Kerr all being out with severe colds. Cargile, Burleson, Litton and Bodkin brought home the victory.

The Sanderson Culture Club held the first meeting of the new year Thursday, January 18, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Creigh, Jr., with Mrs. Joe F. Brown as co-hostess. After a meeting of the Executive Board at 2 p. m., the members and guests assembled in the spacious living room around the fire-place with its glowing fire. Two book reviews were given at this time. Mrs. J. H. Lochausen gave "Famine" by Liam O'Flaherty and Mrs. E. W. Hardgrave gave "The American Dream" by Michael Foster. The business session followed the program after which the dining room doors were opened and the guests were invited to a beautiful refreshment table. Mrs. J. W. McKee and Mrs. Ira Deaton presided at the table which was decorated with sprays of ivy. Dainty sandwiches, salad, brown betty, and mints with hot tea and coffee were served to the following: Mrs. A. D. Brown, Mrs. Ira Deaton, Mrs. J. P. Morrison, Mrs. H. E. Ezelle, Mrs. H. C. Goldwire, Mrs. J. R. Goodykoontz, Mrs. E. W. Hardgrave, Mrs. W. E. Lea, Mrs. J. H. Lochausen, Mrs. W. H. Savage. Guests of the club were Miss Kate Frazier and Mrs. Pat Beard.

Typical of the contour furrowing work as a means of holding soil and rainfall in West Texas is this scene on the John Treadwell ranch, 23 miles northwest of Menard. The work was done by the Menard County Commissioners' Court in cooperation with S. T. Logan, county agent, and the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. A road scarifier was converted into a two-row furrowing machine. In areas of more limited rainfall, the intervals between the furrows are usually increased.

NEW RECORDS SET IN SOIL, WATER CONSERVATION

Thirty-Nine Counties Comprise Dist. 6; 39 Counties Improved

New records were set in soil and water conservation work during 1939 in 39 West Texas counties as 2,470,321 acres were improved by various practices, annual reports of the county agricultural agents show.

In the 39 counties that make up extension district 6—the West Texas area bounded by Gaines, Fisher, Val Verde and El Paso counties—108,476 acres of range land were contour furrowed as compared with 36,599 acres in 1938, according to J. D. Prewitt, district agent of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, who supervises the work of county agents in the district.

In addition, 11,887 acres of range land were terraced and 55,925 ridged, while 62,033 acres of cropland were terraced. Midland County leads the state with 53,826 acres of range land contour furrowed.

Under the AAA range program 328 ranchers practiced deferred grazing on 1,388,000 acres. Andrews County alone had 19 ranchmen who deferred grazing on 209,000 acres.

Cedar was cleared from 709,000 acres, lechugilla from 56,000, and prickly pear from 709,000 acres. Crockett County led the state in prickly pear eradication with 150,000 acres.

Farmers and ranchmen stored 467,000 tons of silage in 2,248 trench silos. The number of trenches showed an increase of 617 over the figure of 1,631 in 1938.

Wild game preserve demonstrations, started only four years ago, now have 1,330 farmers and ranchers enrolled in 97 game management areas involving 8,504,130 acres. The two leading game management areas in the district are Reeves County, with 1,000,000 acres and Andrews, totaling 713,000 acres.

4-H club work showed an enrollment of 1,468 boys with demonstrations in livestock and crops, while 1,900 animals were exhibited at 5 district and 15 county livestock shows.

For the second consecutive year, a West Texas 4-H livestock judging team — the Reagan County group of E. J. Martin, Jr., John H. Holt and J. A. Roach—won the International 4-H livestock judging contest. In 1938 this honor went to Menard County.

Five West Texas 4-H Club boys, Woodrow Mills, Sterling City; David Williams, Eldorado; J. B. McGuire, San Angelo; Harry D. Rotan, Sweetwater; and Garland Moore of Roby were, awarded trips to Chicago for outstanding work.

Poll Tax Receipts And Exemptions Reach Total of 739

Total voting power in Terrell County for 1940 reached 739 voters according to Mrs. Sam Harrell, clerk in the Tax Assessor-Collector office.

Of this number 726 were poll tax and 13 were exemptions. Aside from this number there were 33 alien polls which are not privileged to vote but who must pay the head tax.

This number is about 26 more votes in the county than there were in 1939.

Water Should Not Be Cut Off At Meter When Cold

A warning to householders not to cut off the water supply at the meter during cold weather has been issued by Clyde Morris, local manager for Community Public Service Company. He explained that cutting off the water at the meter does not drain the customer's pipes, thereby making them even more liable to freeze the meter, thus delaying resumption of service.

"The best way is for each customer to have a stop and waste cock of his own, which, when closed, will permit the piping to drain," Mr. Morris said. "The meter will very rarely freeze in this case, and all it is necessary to do to get service restored is to open the customer's stop and waste cock."

"It has been found that most of the reports of frozen lines received in the recent cold spell were those where the water was cut off at the meter."

Mrs. James Kerr Entertains With Luncheon Wednesday

PRES. UNIVERSITY OF SAN ANTONIO SPEAKS AT BANQUET

The Sanderson Rotary Club observed Ladies' Night Friday evening of last week with a banquet in the home economics room of the high school.

Principal speaker at the affair was Will Jackson, president of the University of San Antonio. He discussed Rotary and its many different phases in a very interesting manner. Mr. Jackson is a forceful speaker, able to hold the interest of all who can hear him in his discussions. And the manner in which he delivers and explains his thoughts make them so plain that no one could fail to grasp every point brought out.

Joe Netzer, district governor, was also heard in a short talk as was Willard Simpson, president of the San Antonio Rotary Club, who extended to the local club an invitation to an international meeting to be held in Del Rio the latter part of this month. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Walker and Lee Holder, secretary of the San Antonio Club.

The luncheon was prepared by Miss Pauline McWilliams, home economics instructor, and the members of the class. The luncheon plate was one of the most tasty and delicious that could have been prepared with buttered rolls, cheese and pear salad and coffee, and cake and ice cream for dessert.

Mr. Jackson expressed his appreciation of the manner in which the food had been prepared and served and the unique manner in which the tables were decorated. T.alling ivy and weed stems were silvered and strung along the center with pop corn strewn at intervals underneath. In the center of the speakers table were placed miniature deer standing on a mirror with a background of pifion and cedar which had also been silvered. At intervals along the side tables were placed snow men which were made of pop corn with various colored hats. Place cards were snow men in a silver cup filled with white mints which resembled baskets of snowballs.

The luncheon was opened with a prayer by O. H. McAdams followed by the entire attendance singing "Eyes of Texas." Following the song Rotary Aims and guests were introduced after which the luncheon proceeded.

After the speakers had finished and President Bill Ferguson had expressed the appreciation of the club for the excellent luncheon and service rendered by the home economics departments, the entire group stood and sang the Rotary departing song.

ROAST LOIN OF POR K DRESSED FOR DINNER PARTY

What better way is there to swing into the new year than to demonstrate your culinary ability in top-notch manner with the meal centered on the loin roast of pork pictured above?

The loin roast is the same meat as the loin chops which you like so well. To bring out its very best flavor, the roast should be thoroughly cooked in an oven moderately low, according to Inez S. Wilson, home economist.

Cooking at this temperature will give a roast that is well done but not dry. The crust will be a uniform brown, crisp but not hard. As you carve a perfect roast you should find the meat a grayish white with no tinge of pink, and slices firm juicy and tender.

We all like to know the easiest way of doing things, especially when that method might be the best way too, so here it is in one, two, three, four: Rub roast with salt and pepper; place in open roasting pan with fat side up; insert meat thermometer so that bulb reaches center of thickest muscle; place in oven preheated to 350 degrees F. and cook at the temperature until the meat thermometer registers 185 degrees F. If you have no thermometer, figure from thirty to thirty-five minutes per pound for the roasting time. Simple isn't it?

A loin roast does not need to be put on a rack in the roasting pan, for the natural arc of the ribs makes its own rack. Here's a hint that will make you the lifelong friend of the person who does the carving. Have the meat retailer separate the back bone from the ribs by sawing lengthwise parallel to the chine bone. He will not completely remove the back-bone but after the meat is cooked the back-bone becomes loosened and can easily be cut away from the ribs before the roast is brought to the table. Then your lifelong friend, the carver, merely has to cut between the ribs in cutting close against both sides of each rib, alternately making one slice with a bone and one without.

Roast pork is more tempting when sliced fairly thin, two slices usually making one serving. If it is a small loin, each slice may contain a rib while with a larger roast it may be possible to cut two boneless slices between the ribs.

Those nine little olives standing in a row were stuck on the ends of the rib bones, just for fun, but it does make a right perky way to serve the tempters, doesn't it?

"Isn't there a piece missing in the chess set?"

"Why, no. Here's the king, the queen, bishops, knights, castles and pawns."

"Well, where's the dictator?"

"Little boy, do you know what happens to little boys who use bad language when they play marbles?"

"Yes, sir, they grow up and play golf."

Navy Report

The annual report of the Secretary of the Navy just released, contains data in which there is wide public interest. The Secretary states that the battle of efficiency and morale of Navy personnel is held high and the education and mental caliber of the enlisted men superior. Upon these qualities the Navy's efficiency is based.

During the year, work was started on four battleships, one aircraft carrier, four cruisers and eight destroyers to replace over-age vessels. The 1940 Appropriation Act contained funds for two battleships, eight destroyers, eight submarines and two cruisers and for modernization of two of the oldest carriers and three submarines. The status of Naval auxiliaries was reported unsatisfactory, and the

Gar Scales As Arrow Heads

The fact that Indians formerly made good use of the scales of garfish as arrowheads was recalled recently when two scales, shaped like arrowheads, were received by the Game Department's chief aquatic biologist from a Texan who had found fifteen of them in the stomach of a three-pound catfish. He believed them to be arrowheads. However, they were gar scales which had been worn down to the extent that they were shaped like arrowheads. Gar scales are composed of chitin, a substance similar to that composing humans' finger toenails. The Indians formerly used the scales to tip arrows with which they hunted small game.

Turkeys Drift Long Ways

Wild turkeys generally locate themselves in one area but the lack of proper food and cover will often force them to travel long distances in search of new range. During the past season a Texas hunter killed a banded turkey in the Center Point country that had been banded at the Medina River more than 100 miles away, a check of the Game Department records revealed.

Veteran game observer member a large flock of which drifted out of Kerr County in the Hill Country to San City, a distance of nearly 100 miles. The birds remained for two years before starting to native range.

East Texas Eagles Battle

Bald Eagles are rare birds in East Texas, but a state warden captain recently saw an old one fight with two younger ones over a duck which the older one had caught near College Texas. The young attempted to tear the duck from the older one's beak, but he fought off the young antagonists and flew high tree where he leisurely finished his meal.

The Sanderson High School girls' volleyball team has several games scheduled for the near future.

Saturday the team goes to Marathon to participate in a tournament. Tuesday, February 13, the Fort Stockton girls' team comes here to return a game. On March 15, the Sanderson girls play in the bi-county meet at Marathon and expect to go on to the district meet which follows.

Sanderson Girls Defeat Alpine In Volleyball

Saturday, January 27, Sanderson's first string, consisting of Pauline Bell, Marzee Haynes, Reba Burleson, Elouise Stidham, Helen Harrell and Bernice Harris played Alpine's first string at 3:30. The girls played the best 2 out of 3. Sanderson won the first 2 games played. The scores of the first two games were 15-5 and 15-9 in Sanderson's favor. Reba was elected captain of the first two games.

After the first string defeated Alpine's first string, the girls decided to let Mary Bess Hardgrave, Lois Mae Bassett, Janice White, Alma Gutierrez, Bernice Harris, Reba Burleson, and Marzee Haynes play as second string against Alpine's first string. Marzee Haynes was elected as captain for the second string. The score of the first game was 15-11 in favor of Alpine. The score of the second game was 15-13 in favor of the Sanderson girls. The volleyball girls plan to go to Marathon this week-end. They plan to defeat both Marathon and Fort Stockton as bad as they did Alpine. They plan to carry off honors at the Marathon tournament. The girls wish to express their appreciation to Mr. Walters and Mr. Hardgrave for providing transportation to Alpine.

Readers' Digests Are Purchased

Glimpses of compact yellow magazines are being seen here and there. These are the proud possessions of the senior class. They plan to get these magazines for the rest of the school year. They are proving to be very helpful in the school work.

"When the law is on your side and the facts are against you, bear down in your argument to the jury that justice must be done though the heavens fall," the veteran barrister said.

"If the facts are on your side but the law is against you, ask what the world would be if it were not for mercy, for pity, for the sympathetic feeling of man for his fellow man."

The young lawyer said, "But suppose the law and the facts are against me?"

To which the old-timer answered, "Then give the other side a h—"

The Russian papers say that three thousand Russians have already had medals of valor pinned on them for their brave stands against the Finns— musta been the three thousand whose feet froze to the snow!

Joe Stalin told a honest lie when he said the Finns were a warlike, bloodthirsty people—he didn't know it was SO so!

South Texas reports that the snow done slight damage to its oranges and grapefruits but Sanderson citizens report heavy damages to their coconuts. It seems that the weatherman and the school kids fired both barrels. A country wont remain neutral long when its kids are as dangerous with snowballs as a Finn is with a rifle, or a submarine is with a bomb. Give us half of Sanderson's schoolkids and a 3-inch snow and we can whip Russia ourselves.

TUBERCULOSIS

ray examination or picture, which shows what damage, if any, has been done.

Why bother to look for the early signs of tuberculosis in the child? Because they are a kind of warning signal. It is a warning that at some time the child has been exposed to tuberculosis. There may be some adult in the home who may not have been suspected who has tuberculosis. If a child continues to live in the household where he will be repeatedly infected there is constant danger that he may develop the serious chronic form of the disease.

The second reason for examination of a child with the tuberculin test and the x-ray is that there is always the possibility that the apparently harmless and healed early form of tuberculosis may develop into the serious form when the youth begins to take on the responsibilities of adulthood. Much can be done to strengthen the child's resistance so that he will not develop this serious disease. A periodic check-up on his health will help to safeguard him against the tragedy of learning some day that he has a lung disease already well established even before the symptoms appear.

No parent should be alarmed by the signals given by the tuberculin test and the x-ray any more than he is frightened by a "caution" traffic light. If your child shows any of the warning signs, care and forethought will help to protect him.

1. Make sure that no one in the family or the child's immediate circle of friends has tuberculosis.

2. If a case of tuberculosis is discovered in the family, make arrangements at once for treatment of such person in a sanatorium.

3. If the sick person cannot go to a sanatorium, every precaution must be taken to prevent the passage of tuberculosis germs to the child.

4. Have the child examined by your family doctor at least once a year. He will see that the child's general health is built up and the defects such as bad teeth and tonsils are corrected. He will advise that health habits be cultivated and that the child be given the benefit of good food, sunshine and fresh air.

Such tests are being offered free in the Sanderson schools and the parents of every child should take advantage of the opportunity to see that their son or daughter is protected. The tests are being made by the cooperation of local doctors and the Red Cross.

"Picturesque Southwest" Now On Newstand

The story of the Southwest is vividly told in pictures in the fourth annual edition of "Picturesque Southwest" which has just been issued by the Southwestern Publishing Co. of El Paso, Texas. The magazine is a southwestern production from front to back; contains 219 pictures showing the recreational, historical, industrial and agricultural life of this part of the United States. It is now being sold at the newstands in eight states in the west.

The magazine has a tourist appeal as it serves as a record of the places which they visit in this area. The idea of a picture magazine for the Southwest was first conceived about five years ago, and almost an entire year was spent in producing the first issue.

At that time everyone thought but none knew for sure, that it might go over big with the thousands of visitors to the Southwest. Sale of the first issue was surprisingly good. The second and third issues went even better and justified the belief that it served a valuable place in the magazine field, both as a medium of advertising to draw tourists to various parts of New Mexico, West Texas and Arizona, and as means of southwesterners telling their friends in other parts of the country just what this section is like.

The magazine is being advertised not only in newspapers in the southwest, but in some of the national magazines. Many orders have been received by the publishers, not only for the current issue, but also for the first three issues, an indication that American tourists are becoming more "southwest-minded" than ever.

President To Make Nation-wide Speech to Scouts

The nation's 1,350,000 Cubs, Boy Scouts and their leaders will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America in a week's observance beginning Thursday, February 8.

Boy Scout week is the most important week in the Boy Scout calendar and nine million present and former Scouts and leaders will join the celebration which this year has as its theme "Scouting—The American Way."

The Scout program with its Patrol method and other group action features is a "school for citizenship." Since Scouting provides for democratic group decisions and group action, the celebrations throughout the nation will be greatly varied. Each troop will celebrate the birthday anniversary in accordance with its own plans.

Radio will play an important role in the Boy Scout Week celebrations linking together, if only for a short time, the Scouts in the great rural areas with those in the cities and towns.

The high point of the week's observance will be a nation-wide broadcast from the White House, Thursday evening, February 8 in which President Roosevelt, as honorary president of the movement and himself an active scout leader, will talk to his "fellow Scouts and Scouters" as well as the millions of friends of Scouting.

Speaking also during the President broadcast will be Walter W. Head, of St. Louis, President of the Boy Scouts of America, who will speak from Detroit, Mich., where he will be attending a dinner of Scout leaders. Mr. Head will speak briefly and then introduce the President of the United States and at that point the broadcast will switch to the Nation's capital.

A feature of the White House broadcast will be the annual re-dedication by the nation's Scouts to the Scout oath which is guiding the principal of Scouting.

At the conclusion of his address, President Roosevelt will ask the Scouts listening in every part of the nation as well as in all of its possessions, to take the Scout Oath or Promise led by Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive and editor of "Boy's Life" who will be cut into the broadcast from Miami, Fla.

Sunday, February 11 will be Scout Reverence Day and in thousands of churches of every denomination there will be Scouts attending special services. More than half the nation's 43,386 Cub Packs, Boy Scout troops and Senior Scout groups are sponsored by churches and synagogues of America. Scouts of Jewish faith will hold their special services Friday evening, February 9, and Saturday.

Special emphasis will be placed upon the twelfth point of the Scout Law which reads, "A Scout is Reverent. He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties, and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion."

In many communities Scouts, by Patrols and Troops, will take an "Old Scout Census," systematically calling at all residences according to pre-arranged plans, to record the names and addresses of those who were once Scouts or Scout leaders. Many of these "Scout Alumni" will be invited to participate in Scout activities during Boy Scout Week.

Engineer F. L. Cochran was on the sick list this week.

The tenth engine crew has been placed in service on the Sanderson-Valentine district.

Engineer H. C. Crabtree was placed on the extra board here this week.

Pedestrian Deaths Increase in 1939 Over Year Before

State police today closed their 1939 traffic death book after 1,583 fatalities were recorded, a saving of 27 lives as compared with 1938. This reduction fell far short of the hopes traffic experts held early last year when they estimated a possible ten per cent decrease.

There were slight reductions in 1939 in most classes of fatal traffic crashes. Drivers' license violation statisticians said, but the pedestrian problem remained far from solution. This was apparent in the four per cent increase in pedestrian deaths. The totals were 371 in 1938 and 385 last year, which means that one out of every four traffic victims were pedestrians.

On open highways and county roads the total 1939 toll reached 1,148 compared to 1,155 the previous year, while cities and towns showed a reduction from 455 in 1938 to 435 in 1939.

Numerous multiple - death crashes last year smashed hopes for sharp reductions, the heaviest loss being recorded near Texon in Upton County last August when 8 lives were lost in a car-truck wreck. Seven of the victims were in the car.

Collisions involving motor vehicles claimed 600 lives. 57 were killed at grade crossings, one in an electric car. 26 were riding bicycles when killed, 142 died when motor vehicles collided with fixed objects, seven in horse drawn vehicles and 356 in non-collision crashes. Collisions of motor vehicles with animals brought death to nine persons, one in a car which overturned after striking an armadillo.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., State Police Director, said in the economic loss resulting from traffic accidents last year amounted to $45,861,175, a reduction of 2.5 per cent under 1938.

"A close analysis of the 1939 traffic situation reveals a loss in life and property that is almost unbelievable," Col. Garrison said. "Every means, although limited, was adopted to curtail reckless driving and walking, but the results were highly disappointing, particularly in the pedestrian class of accidents."

Pedestrian fatalities in the 40-64 age group were heaviest with a listing of 127 deaths. Thirty-one under five years of age were killed, 44 in the 6-17 age group, 38 in the 18-25 age class and 82 of the dead pedestrians were over 65, State Police said.

Mrs. Mary Lou Kellar left for San Antonio Friday where she expects to spend about a month with relatives in San Antonio and San Marcos.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Austin, Texas—Game restoration was given added impetus this week with the announcement that a fourth Pittman-Robertson project has been approved by the U. S. Bureau of Geological survey and the State Game Department will proceed immediately with the leasing of five large areas upon which turkey and deer will be raised. Acreage in the new project totals 115,000.

Five game areas are to be set up in as many localities in the state, the executive secretary pointed out, and under the supervision of the director of wildlife restoration turkey and deer will be planted where necessary. Caretakers will patrol at least 3 of the areas. Two are being set up for turkey restoration, a pair for turkey and deer and one for deer only.

The areas: 20,000 acres in Angelina and Polk counties for turkey restoration only; 35,000 acres in Robertson County for deer and turkey; 14,000 acres in Colorado County for turkey only; 20,000 acres in Calhoun County for deer and turkey and 25,000 acres in Red River County for deer only.

The various areas are to be leased by the Game Department. From 60 to 70 turkey will be released on each of the areas set up for them and from 40 to 50 deer will be placed on each of the sections set aside for the restoration of white tails.

The caretakers on each of the areas will not only patrol them to prevent hunting of the seed stock but will also improve the cover and food supply for both the deer and turkey.

Hunting will not be allowed on any of the areas for several years while the seed stock is populating them. It is believed that not only will areas under lease be restocked, but that as much as 100,000 acres surrounding each of them will receive the overflow of game making more than a half million acres to be benefited by the program.

The Angelina-Polk project is intended to save the few pure strain of easter turkey left in the state. No other birds will be planted there. Colorado County has plenty of deer, but needs turkey. Deer are needed in all the other areas for restocking purposes. Deer and turkey will be trapped by the game department in areas where they are more plentiful.

The project is being financed with the aid of federal funds, which the Game Department matches one-fourth as much money as is allotted under the terms of the Pittman-Robertson act. Other Pittman-Robertson projects being conducted by the Game Department are state-wide quail restoration, antelope trapping, and a project under which state-wide research as to the needs of wildlife in the state is being carried on.
