Two Local Clubs Celebrate Golden Jubilee Saturday

The Sanderson Culture Club and the Junior Woman's Club held a joint celebration of the 50th anniversary of Federated Women's Clubs Saturday, April 27, with a Luncheon of the Nations.

Members of the two clubs and their guests, went to Hawaii at the home of Mrs. W. H. Savage at 12:30. Mrs. A. D. Brown gave an interesting paper "Around the World With Our Clubs". Hawaiian music was played at intervals with Billy Savage rendering "Aloha Oe" as a saxophone solo. He was accompanied at the piano by Edna Mae McAdams. Pineapple cocktail was served after which all went to Mexico at the J. M. Bassett residence with Miss Betty Bassett as hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Seth Davenport and Miss Vaunceil Henderson.

"South of the Border" and other Mexican numbers were played by Billy Savage and Edna Mae McAdams. Avacado salad in tomato aspic with fritos was served. The next nation was Italy at the residence of Mrs. J. W. McKee. She was assisted by Mrs. H. E. Ezelle in serving the main course of meat balls in tomato gravy, spaghetti with Italian cheese and iced tea. Maurine Cox and Harvey Rogers sang "Santa Lucia" accompan-

After these interesting programs in the nations visited, the good old U.S.A. was the end of the voyage at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Creigh, where the main program was given.

"Know Your Federation" was the topic discussed by Mrs. H. E. Ezelle and Miss Margaret Lattimore discussed "Achievements of General Federation". The Sanderson Culture Club awarded a medal to Mrs. Van Sickle, who organized the local club in 1927. Four charter members were present. They were: Mrs. A. D. Brown, Mrs. J. W. McKee, Mrs. A. E. Creigh and Mrs. W. H. Savage. Because of the illness of Judge Van Sickle it was not possible for Mrs. Van Sickle to be present which was regretted by all. Mrs. Mattie Justice Withers, Poet Laureate of the 8th District, read two of her poems.

"This, A Home," which was one of the poems accepted for publication in the largest book of poems in the world, which was shown at the New York World's Fair last year. The pages measure 10 feet square. A medal was given for the best poem selected and 10 others received honorable mention "This, A Home" by Mrs. Withers, was one of the ten.

She also read a poem, "The Awareness of Peace", which she dedicated to Mrs. W. H. Moorelock of Alpine, outgoing president of the 8th District of Federated Clubs. In contrast, she read "The Awareness of War". Mrs. Withers gave a book review "For Today Only" by Margaret Lee Runback to the delight of all present. She illustrated the story with a very interesting chart.

At the close of the program all stood and sang "The Star Spangled Banner" after which the beautiful three-tiered birthday cake with 50 red candles was lighted in the dining room. The club colors of red and white were carried out in the brick ice cream with the figure "50" lettered in red on each block. Everyone made a wish for our new club year and the candles were extinguished by Mrs. Savage who served the cake while Mrs. Ira Deaton, president of the Sanderson Culture Club, poured coffee.

The following guests and members were present: Mrs. Mattie Justice Withers, Poet Laureate of the 8th District of the Federated Women's Clubs, Mrs. C. H. Bird and Miss Virginia Parry from Fort Davis, Mrs. A. D. Brown, Mrs. Joe F. Brown, Mrs. A. E. Creigh Jr., Mrs. J. P. Morrison, Mrs. Ira Deaton, Mrs. H. E. Ezelle, Mrs. H. C. Goldwire, Mrs. E. W. CALVIN C. HUFFMAN ANNOUNCES FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Calvin C. Huffman editor-publisher of the News-Guide at Eagle Pass, today announced he would be a candidate for the office of State Representative for the counties of Terrell, Brewster, Val Verde, Kinney and Maverick, subject to the action of voters in the Democratic Primary, July 27th.

Mr. Huffman is well qualified for the office he seeks and is thoroughly acquainted with the district he wishes to serve. He is 32 years old, married, and the father of two children. He was born in Del Rio, educated in the Del Rio and Eagle Pass schools, the University of Texas, and Port Arthur Business College. He has served as president of the Lions Club and various social clubs of Eagle Pass, president of the Eagle Pass Chamber of Commerce (1937), president of the Winter Garden District Chamber of Commerce (1938) at the time it was enlarged to five counties, and director of the Coahuila Highway Commission for three years in promoting the construction of the trans-Coahuila highway now under way from the Texas border to Saltillo, Coahuila.

An able speaker and active civic worker he has had prominent part in the development of his section of District 87 and proposes to continue the same energetic course for the entire District if elected on July 27th. He foresees the great benefit to be derived from proper development of the Big Bend Park and highways throughout this section, and will work actively for improvement of school and college facilities.

Realizing that failure of the Legislature to provide for payment of the Old Age Assistance as provided by law has forced the State to borrow money for even the small payments that have been made, he declares that his record in office will be one of definite action to give the aged needy people of our State a sufficient monthly payment for decent food, clothing and shelter. Failure to do this in the past has not only saddled the State with a big deficit and been of little help to the needy aged, but has also exaggerated the issue in politics.

Before voting any new tax, he proposes that the State government be streamlined for economy, testing the worth of every bureau, removing those whose purpose has been fulfilled, and combining others for better service at less expense.

He believes that any new tax plan enacted should be submitted to the people for approval before becoming a law.

In this connection, Cal Huffman advocates abolition of the State Poll Tax. This tax, he declares, raises little revenue in comparison to other taxes, disfranchises all who forget or cannot pay it, cripples the State in national politics, and leads to corruption in local politics through block vote-buying. The new ruling that the State poll tax is void unless the local city poll tax has been paid, acts as another obstruction to the constitutional right of every citizen.

Finally Mr. Huffman takes a pledge of active support for all those measures of a county nature requiring State approval, and all District proposals which would benefit the people of this section. If you believe in his program and in his ability to serve forcefully and sincerely, he will appreciate your support in his campaign and your vote in his favor on July 27th. His conclusion is: "Yours for better government—Calvin C. Huffman".

OGLESBY'S OGLES

By Whitfield Oglesby

Hitler has struck again! The foreign dispatches are very conflicting as to the true situation. However, it is certain German troops have occupied Denmark and filtered through to Norway. The occupation of Norway will not be as swift as that of Poland because of the long line of communication with a sea to be bridged which must be established and maintained. It is believed the German High Command is using 25 to 30 seasoned divisions from the Western Front in the venture. Many of these troops have had service in Poland; therefore, they are well fitted for the expedition into Norway.

If Hitler can control Norway he will have an economical and tactical advantage over the Allies. Norway will supply Germany with much needed iron ore and a small amount of food stuff. Denmark has in the past supplied Great Britain with food stuff; however, this will be diverted to Germany for consumption.

It is reasonable to believe that Hitler and Mussolini conversed on the Scandinavian expedition. Italy has called up five additional classes numbering 650,000, to the colors for possible spring developments as Mussolini puts it. Could it be that coming events casts their shadows? It is my belief that Italy will soon cast their lot in the war and with Germany.

The prospects of the situation logically concern Italy. Her interests in the Balkans are direct and important. She has seen Germany and Russia expand, and she has received nothing in exchange for her policy of non-belligerency. It is altogether probable that at their celebrated meeting at Brenner Pass Hitler informed Mussolini of his plan relative to Scandinavia, since it was immediately after that conference that German troops were trained in landing exercises. Sharp trader as he is, Mussolini must have demanded compensation, and this reasoning leads to the expectation that his plans include a step which will enable him to extend "protection" to his neighbor.

The interests of the United States necessarily are involved in all this maneuvering. We are more greatly concerned over Greenland than was the case before the airplane became a safe and swift mode of transportation. (Continued to page four)

The flavor of sausage is so appetizing that it is welcome at any meal—breakfast, luncheon or dinner. In fact, many a home-maker relies upon it frequently to solve her menu problems for it is easily prepared and combines well with many other foods.

Sausage and waffles or sausage and pancakes are two of the favorite combinations of foods for breakfast. Sausage and fried apple slices, as pictured above, make a perfect pair for luncheon. Sausage may be served for dinner in a casserole combination with macaroni, escalloped potatoes, or any number of vegetables.

It is a good idea to know a variety of ways of serving sausage so that it may be used as often as convenient with no danger of monotony. Cooking it with other foods is a way of extending the spicy, tempting flavor.

Here are two ways, somewhat out of the ordinary, to use little link sausage. They are suggested by Inez S. Willson, home economist.

Sausage Meat Loaf
10 or 12 link sausage
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 med onion, finely chopped
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup milk

Combine ground beef with bread crumbs, finely chopped onion and salt and pepper. Moisten with slightly beaten eggs and milk. Mix well. Arrange sausage links in loaf pan in diagonal design. Pack loaf mixture tightly around the sausage links.

Bake in a slow oven (350 degrees) about one and a half hours.

Sausage With Sweet Potato Blankets
1 pound link pork sausage
4 medium sweet potatoes or yams
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 cup milk
Buttered bread crumbs
Salt and Pepper

Place sausage in skillet and brown it. Cook sweet potatoes in boiling water until tender. Drain mash and season them with butter, salt and pepper. Add hot milk. Lay two browned links of sausage side by side and cover with a tablespoon of mashed potatoes. Sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs and place in a moderately hot oven long enough to brown them, about fifteen minutes.

Power, Lamour Are Co-Stars of "Johnny Apollo"

Not since "Jesse James" has Tyrone Power had a role like that of "Johnny Apollo" in the 20th Century Fox drama of that title which co-stars him with Dorothy Lamour at the Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday May 8-9.

"Johnny Apollo" is the alias of a young college man, a banker's son, who turns mobster when the father he idolized is sent to prison and his wealthy friends turn against him.

Dorothy Lamour is more alluring than ever as "Lucky" Dabarry, the hard-boiled night club entertainer who understands and loves the boy, no matter what he does.

Production Chief Darryl F. Zanuck carefully selected the imposing supporting cast. Edward Arnold is seen as the banker father; Lloyd Nolan plays Mickey Dwyer, the gangster whose mob Johnny Apollo joins. Charley Grapewin is cast as a tipping ex-judge turned underworld lawyer, and Lionel Atwill is seen as the banker's lawyer, to whom Johnny appeals in vain for aid for his father.

"Johnny Apollo" is climaxed by one of the most thrilling jail-breaks ever screened, featuring one of the most amazing hand-to-hand battles—between Tyrone Power and Lloyd Nolan—in film history.

Highlighting the story are two special new song hits, sung by Dorothy Lamour, "Dancing for Nickles and Dimes" by Lionel Newman and Frank Loesser and "This is the Beginning of the End" by Mack Gordon.

Leasing of 144,757 acres of land in six blocks in a half dozen sections of the state to be used for the restoration of deer and turkey and other species of game was announced here today by the executive secretary of the Texas Game Fish and Oyster Commission. Federal Pittman-Robertson funds are being used to obtain use of the land and to make the improvements necessary on them to increase game. The areas have already been stocked with 195 deer and 107 wild turkeys. The project is the largest of its kind ever undertaken by the Game Department.

While 144,757 acres of land have been leased and will be given intensive scientific game management, it is believed by the director of game restoration for the Department that the overflow from these projects will re-stock more than half million acres of land with deer and turkey.

The largest of the areas is in Red River County, where 40,000 acres have been leased. A tract of 25,000 acres has been obtained in Robertson County. The project in Calhoun County covers 22,000 acres, one in Polk and Tyler County 30,000 acres, another in Colorado County has 15,000 acres and one in Goliad County covers a total of 12,757 acres.

Cagney, O'Brien and Brent Head Cast of "The Fighting 69th"

"The Fighting 69th" is a masterpiece!

It is more than just the story of a famous regiment, though it tells that story faithfully and well. In a large sense "The Fighting 69th" is symbolic of all the regiments which have served under the American flag. In terms of vigorous drama it presents the soul of the regiment, the serious, determined side, and in so doing brushes aside the usual furberlows.

In the making of this picture something indescribable has been captured which, in today's cataclysm-fearing world, leaves profound confidence in the invincibility of human faith and in divine omnipotence. And everyone who plays a part in its production is worthy of all praise.

The drama larded with much brusque comedy, focuses on James Cagney as an arrogant and incorrigible young recruit who doesn't give a hoot for the traditions of the Fighting 69th during training, and can't stand up to the hard codes of his own, simple soldier's duties. He becomes the anxious concern of the commanding officer, "Wild Bill" Donovan (George Brent) and Father Duffy (Pat O'Brien) the regimental chaplain, through whose spiritual example he finally conquers his cowardice and makes the supreme sacrifice.

Cagney plays the character of Private Jerry Plunkett with unwavering spirit, feeling and conviction. Pat O'Brien is splendid in the priestly role, playing it heroically and yet with tenderness and humor. George Brent, ably portrays the commanding officer, hard because he must harden his men for the task that lies before them.

Standing out from amongst the others in the carefully selected support are Jeffrey Lynn, as the soldier-poet, Joyce Kilmer; Alan Hale as a grizzled top sergeant; Frank McHugh as a kill-joy, "the crepe hanger" his buddies dub him; William Lundigan, Sammy Cohen, Dick Foran, John Litel, Dennis Morgan, Guin Williams, Henry O'Neill, Tom Dugan, and Harvey Stephens. A score of others do their bits well.

William Keighley directed with vigor and with fine appreciation of the dramatic and entertainment values involved. His inspirational influence is seen in every performance and his excellent craftsmanship evident in the sweep and march of the narrative through the colorful, comic and tragic episodes richly written into the original script by Norman Reilly Raine, Fred Niblo, Jr. and Dean Franklin.

Trip Proves Successful

About 1:30 p. m., the group embarked on a two-day excursion. About 4:30 o'clock they were at Balmorhea and went to the State Park.

Next day just after noon the group left for McDonald. After an interesting trip through the observatory, continued on their way to the Ledge, located in the Davis Mountains. The remainder of the afternoon was spent eating, playing table and having fun in general. About 6:30 everyone left for where some of the crowd saw "Gone With the Wind."

Some had barrels of fun and probably still sleepy. Those who went on the trip were: David Allen, Roger Basphur, Reba Burleson, Marjorie Canon, Malcolm Edgar, Follis, Mary Bess, Lillian Harrell, Marjorie Higgins, Len Haynes, Wilton Murray, Lee McCue, Ethel Laura, Ruth Murrain, Jane Ord, Lechhausen, and Miss the class sponsor. Those who acted as chaperones were: Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Kerr.

—E-N—
Kerr and Robert Kerr went on a trip to San Antonio where they took T. R. Hall for medical treatment. It will probably be several days before he is sufficiently well to return home.

SHS On Southern Association List for 1939-40 Term

The Sanderson high school was again retained on the list of Southern Association schools by a unanimous vote by that group in its annual meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, on April 8th to 12th, according to a notice recently received by Superintendent R. D. Holt. Membership is determined annually, a school being required to meet certain standards in order to hold membership. J. W. O'Banion, chairman of the Commission of Secondary Schools of the Southern Association, in the notice concerning the Sanderson high school also wrote, "Am sure that you will be delighted to know that membership is granted your high school without reservation."

SIXTH GRADERS WILL RECEIVE CERTIFICATES

Promotions for the sixth grade into high school will be made at the close of school as usual. A separate ward school night program will not be presented this year due to the fact that the ward school fair and visitors' day will be held on May 15 and this is expected to take the place of the formal night program. Certificates of promotion will be awarded to sixth grade pupils likely on the night of May 17 after the band program, according to Paul Patterson, principal of the Sanderson American ward school.

Pupils in the sixth grade this year are: Joan Anderson, Clara Alice Bell, Marilyn Blackwelder, Harry Brown, Tommy Carruthers, Susie Caldwell, Charles Daniels, Wanda Follis, Francis Grigsby, Tom Hill, Milton McDonald, Yvonne Oberling, Earl Pierson, Billy Savage, Martin Schafer, Joyce Stidham, Marie Wilson and Joyce Meyers.

SUL ROSS MALE QUARTET IN ASSEMBLY HERE MAY 7

The Sul Ross College Male Quartet and the college soprano soloist will present an assembly program at the Sanderson high school auditorium at 1 o'clock on May 7.

Arrangements have been made for the program through Miss Irma Lee Batey, music teacher in the college. The program is free and the general public is invited to attend.

LEN HAYNES GOES TO STATE MEET

Len Haynes left for the State meet Thursday and will enter in the pole vault contests. Len is the only student from the Sanderson high school that is going to the meet.

So far this year Len has not been defeated in any meet in pole vault that he has attended. He has won firsts at bi-county at 9 feet; Highland relays at 10 feet and 10 inches; district meet at 11 feet 5 1/2 inches, and regional meet at 11 feet and 5 inches.

The track and field contestants have to be at Texas Memorial Stadium Field at 9 o'clock Friday morning for preliminaries. The finals will be held Saturday at Texas Memorial Stadium.

SNOOPER—

What's this we hear about Len Haynes and Marjorie Canon? Where does heartbreaker Doris come in?

The senior trip paired out a lot of couples. Hum hum.

The Old Snooper snooped out a Snooper full of snoops and found out that Jane quite frequently takes a little ride with Jo Ross and a few other boys.

Ethel Laura and Ralph didn't do so bad themselves over the week-end.

Roger never forgets, especially about his date with Lillian to the banquet.

What's this about Edith? She says that she's not disappointed in love, but one never knows.

We hear that young love soon cools, but by the looks of Billie Raye and Kenneth you'd better not believe it.

The Dryden boys had quite a time in Langtry Saturday night. That accounts for their apparent sleepiness, I guess.

The Snooper saw none other than J.D. Vincent driving around in a swanky blue Chevrolet, and with none other than Katherine O'Connor!

The bowling alley is an ideal past-time for those couples in love! Marzee's doing okay too, we see.

UPON LEAVING SCHOOL—

"School days, school days, dear old golden rule days, hummm..." sang some blissful senior girl lolling down a shaded path in the late evening.

We all get tired of hearing, "Well, it'll soon be over". As if we won't be glad.

One senior has said that he is going to whoop for joy when he gets that long sought sheep skin. Maybe he won't be so glad after all. It has been said that high school days are the happiest days of all. Sometimes this is hard to believe, especially around the end of school when one gets the spring fever and gets terribly bored with it all. But when that night comes and we all proceed down the aisle in slow step of time, it will probably seem like a great Amen which marks the last of the best part of life that we have known.

Attendance Records Good For This Year

The attendance for this school year has been very good as a whole. The seventh grade had a percentage of 96 1/2. Maurine Frazier, Harvey Agullar and Glynn Babb had perfect attendance records. Aubrey Harrell only missed one day.

The eighth grade had the best attendance, making a percentage of 96.73. Donald Babb, James Blackwelder, Weldon Blackwelder, Bill Davis, James House, Margaret Pierson, Curtis Litton, and Eldridge Murray have a perfect attendance record.

The attendance record of the ninth grade is 94 percent. Up until the time he withdrew, George O'Neill had a perfect attendance. Bill Schafer has missed one and a half days and Patty Billings, three days.

Doris Cochran, Helen Harrell and Simon Shaw have a perfect attendance for the tenth grade, making a percentage of 95.5 percent.

The attendance record of the eleventh grade is 96.26 percent. Reba Burleson has missed one-half a day, Lynn Haynes two days, Malcolm Davis two days, Mary Bess Hardgrave two and one-half days, and Kenneth Litton three days.

1940 SENIORS ARE SWEET SIXTEEN AND OVER

We usually think of the average high school graduates being sixteen or seventeen, and often eighteen. It is almost compulsory for a graduate student to be at least sixteen, unless he is blessed with that super something called "an awful lot of brains".

In Sanderson high school at the present time two boys are sixteen years of age and eight girls sixteen years of age. The youngest member in the class is Marjorie Canon, who was sixteen in March. There are nine seventeen year old boys, and five girls seventeen years of age. There is one boy eighteen and one girl nineteen. This shows that the senior girls are graduating at a younger age than the boys.

GUESS WHO?

I am a freshman, just another one of those live wires. I am a dashing blonde and have blue eyes that a certain little red-headed boy had rather look at than anything. Who am I?

I am a blonde and a "dignified" senior. I have eyes of a striking blue and am anything but a man hater. I am fond of athletics. I am rather short in height. Can you guess?

I am tall and noted for my imaginative power. I am a sophomore and have light brown hair. I am a member of the Archery Club. Who am I?

I am a senior boy with blonde hair and blue eyes. I like girls with curly blonde hair and with plenty of pep. Who am I?

"CONGO MAISIE" TO PRINCESS SCREEN

ANN SOTHERN and J. M. KERRIGAN IN "CONGO MAISIE"

The new Africa of modern improvements comes to the screen for the first time in "Congo Maisie" which shows Friday and Saturday, May 3-4, at the Princess Theatre.

"Maisie," already known to the public thanks to Ann Sothern, gets stranded in an African coast town. There she encounters a bitter young man, played by John Carroll, who is a renegade doctor. He's pretty fed up with white visitors, especially feminine.

But when Maisie, not at all in love with him, stands by as he performs an emergency operation, he gets a new respect for her. Then again, when the country is suffering from drought and the natives blame the little white colony, he learns more.

Maisie plays shabby card tricks and dances and the savage natives are temporarily halted by her charm. The rains come and they are convinced that her magic is responsible. The doctor is charmed on his own account and there you have the story.

But that is not a fair account of the picture. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has assembled an excellent supporting cast, with Rita Johnson, Sheppard Strudwick, from the New York stage, J. M. Kerrigan, E. E. Clive and others human nature before he is an actor. "Congo Maisie" is excellent entertainment. It will give you an American stranded in Africa, who meets an irresistible man. You can figure it yourself.
