Charlton-Sartwelle Nuptials Held In Yuma, Arizona

Miss Mary Margaret Sartwelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sartwelle, became the bride of Marvin Charlton Jr. Saturday morning about 10:30 o'clock in Yuma, Ariz., having left Del Rio Friday morning to join Mr. Charlton there.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a frock of dusty pink trimmed in gold. She wore a turban in matching tones.

The couple was attended by Harold Crockett, cousin of the groom, and a resident of Eagle Rock, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton will make their home in Burbank, Calif., where Mr. Charlton is affiliated with an aircraft concern.

Mrs. Charlton was reared in Del Rio and was graduated from the Del Rio High School. Later she attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock, Texas.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Charlton of Del Rio. He was graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School and attended the University of Texas in Austin. He came to Del Rio with his parents more than two years ago and recently completed training in the Fletcher Aircraft School in Glendale, Calif.

Many lovely social courtesies were given for Mrs. Charlton following the announcement of her engagement by her parents at a dinner Dec. 12—Val Verde County Herald.

Demonstration Club Met Tuesday With Mrs. Albert Appel Jr.

The Ranch Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, January 7 at the home of Mrs. Albert Appel Jr. The meeting was called to order by the retiring president, at which time it was taken over by the new president. The educational talk was made by Mrs. Ferd Monroe, on the necessity of fruits and vegetables in our winter diet.

The president appointed Mrs. Malone Mitchell to serve as Parliamentarian and she also accepted chairmanship of Financial Committee for council. Mrs. Sam Culbertson, Mrs. Ferd Monroe, and Mrs. Herman Couch were appointed to serve on the January refreshment committee. Mrs. Sam Culbertson was elected alternate reporter for the club and Mrs. Herman Couch was elected delegate to attend the district meeting in the spring.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to Mrs. Sidney Harkins, Mrs. Ferd Monroe, Mrs. Herman Couch, Mrs. Ben Arvin, Mrs. Sam Culbertson, Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, and the hostess, Mrs. Albert Appel Jr. The next meeting will be Wednesday, January 15th, at the home of Mrs. Herman Couch.

John Fisher Charlton and Bobby Lee McCue left Saturday for Glendale, Calif., where they will return to their studies.

Miss Lillie Mae Burdwell and A. Shelton Married

Miss Lillie Mae Burdwell of Del Rio became the bride of Alfred Shelton in a ceremony read by the Rev. Morris pastor of the Del Rio Baptist Church, Sunday, December 29. The wedding was performed at the parsonage with only a few close relatives and friends in attendance.

Mrs. Xena Shaw played the wedding march.

Mrs. Shelton is a member of the school faculty at Del Rio where she has taught for the past several years, and will continue teaching until the close of the present term. Mr. Shelton is a local ranchman and is also doing soil conservation work in Terrell County.

The couple left following the ceremony for San Antonio where they spent a week before coming to Sanderson for a visit with friends.

Following the close of school they will be at home at the ranch home of Mr. Shelton.

PRETTY GOOD

This county of Terrell may have its drawbacks in the opinion of some, but it is a good place in which to live.

And besides being a good place to live it's a good place to grow things. For proof you are directed to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Goode, Sr. They killed one of their hogs a few days ago and after it was dressed it weighed 750 pounds.

And from that hog they got 195 pounds of lard and 125 pounds of sausage. The size of the hog grown by them also reminded Mrs. Goode that during the past gardening season she grew some very nice tomatoes. She weighed four of them just to see how big they were and the four weighed one and a quarter pounds. Not bad for any county.

PURCHASE RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. George Turner moved to the W. O. Prentiss ranch the first of the year, having bought the ranch from Mr. Prentiss. Mr. Turner also has several sections under lease in addition to what he bought.

Bobby Lea left Saturday for Burbank, California, where he will return to his duties at the Lockheed airplane plant.

RED CROSS NEEDS ADDITIONAL HELP IN PRODUCTION

The local production of the Red Cross chapter started with a handicap according to those in charge, and an effort is being made to overcome this delay. Materials and patterns were late in arriving, followed by the holiday activities which claimed most of the time of workers. At present an epidemic of "flu" is keeping many willing workers from aiding in the work.

For these reasons the Chapter is behind with the production of garments and asks that all organizations and individuals make an effort to assist in getting the quota for this chapter ready for shipment by January 31.

The work room is in the Kerr Hotel.

Mother of Bride-Elect Entertains With Tea at Woman's Club

The engagement of Miss Emme Lou Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brown, of Dallas, and Hubert Dee Johnson, son of Mrs. Onah J. Garrison of Lytle, Atascosa County, was announced at a large tea Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Brown at the Dallas Woman's Club.

The table was ornamented with a bouquet of calla lilies arranged about cupid figures and other groupings of the lilies were used in a profusion in the lounge. Miss Anette Walsh played during the party.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Brown, the bride-elect and Mrs. Onah J. Garrison. Miss Brown wore an original model of white tulle with a black bodice. Fans of lace were an interesting detail of its full skirt. Her flowers were gardenias. Mrs. Brown chose a black dinner gown and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Garrison also wore a black crepe gown and orchids.

Miss Brown and her fiancé are well known in Dallas young social set. Miss Brown attended Hockaday School, Highland Park High School and Stephens College, where she was a Theta Tau Omega. Mr. Johnson was graduated at the University of Texas and was a member of Phi Delta and a Chancellor. He is a graduate of the Sanderson High School.

Receive Burns From Explosion

T. O. Moore, brakeman and Fireman Stewart received first degree burns when starting a fire in an engine fire box Wednesday.

It seems that gas had accumulated in the box and when the fire started it caused an explosion, burning both men about the face. They were given medical attention here and the burns were believed to not be serious enough to make it necessary for them to be confined.

Texas Ranks Sixth Among States In Big Game

Austin — Texas is the sixth leading state in big game, a report to the executive secretary of the State Game, Fish and Oyster commission from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service reveals and leads in one species, the javelina. Thus the Lone Star state retains the rank it held last year, with Michigan, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, California and Minnesota, heading the list in the order named.

Surveys reveal that Texas has a total of 35,100 javelinas or peccaries and is well out in front in this game animal, which is attracting more attention annually, especially from out of state nimrods. Arizona is second in javelinas with 14,300 and New Mexico is listed as having 400 of the animals.

The grand total of big game animals in Texas, the survey reveals is 301,822, but figures for the antelope, of which it is believed Texas has more than 7,000 are not included. The Lone Star state has a total of 238,565 white-tailed deer and 17,533 mule or black-tailed deer.

That big game is still well scattered throughout the United States is shown by the facts that white-tailed deer are found in 44 of the 48 states; mule deer in 17 states; antelope in 76, black bear in 33 and elk in 28 states.

Elk are found in Texas but are few in number. They are not native to the state and those which inhabit the mountains of West Texas were imported a number of years ago. They are using practically all of the suitable habitat available and are not expected to greatly exceed their present number, which is approximately 400.

AMERICAN RED CROSS NURSE HERE FOR THREE MONTHS

As this is the time of year for flu and colds it is the individual's responsibility, states Miss Edna Peterman, local Itinerant Nurse, American Red Cross, to keep those two diseases from spreading. Children should remain at home. Adults should be cautious. So frequently colds are the forerunners among children of the communicable diseases such as measles, whooping cough, pneumonia and others.

The following poem submitted by Miss Peterman, taken from the Arkansas Democrat and written by Lucy Thibault, tells a complete story:

Mary had a little cold but wouldn't stay at home. And everywhere that Mary went, the cold was sure to roam; It wandered into Molly's eyes and filled them full of tears. It jumped from there to Bobby's nose, and thence to Jimmy's ears.

It painted Anna's throat bright red, and swelled poor Jennie's head.

Dora had a fever, and a cough put Jack to bed. The moral of this little tale is very quickly said—

She could have saved a lot of pain with just one day in bed. Miss Peterman arrived here the first of the week and will be stationed here for three months working with the local chapter of the Red Cross.

"Tin Pan Alley" Brings Best In Entertainment

The best in musical entertainment is promised patrons of the Princess Theatre when "Tin Pan Alley," widely heralded picture from the 20th Century-Fox studios opens there Wednesday of next week. With Alice Faye and Betty Grable starring at the head of a spectacular cast of entertainment-makers, "Tin Pan Alley" has won round after

Double Feature Program Offers Comedy, Romance

"Cherokee Strip", the Paramount picture which will be the attraction Friday and Saturday at the Princess Theatre, starring Richard Dix is a historic romance of the settling of the west. The story concerns the feud between two clans of Texas cattle ranchers, the Lovells, headed by Dix and the Barretts, headed by Victor Jory. After signing a truce the Barretts move to a border town on the Cherokee Strip where they continue their outlawry, one opening a bank, another a saloon and a third runs a gambling house in the Strip. Dix is appointed United States Marshal for the town to restore law and order. He cleans it up after many exciting experiences ending in a fierce battle between the two clans. Featured with Dix are Florence Rice, William Henry Andy Clyde, George E. Stone and Morris Ankrum, as well as Victor Jory. The picture was produced by Harry Sherman and directed by Lesley Selander.

Completing the double feature at the Princess for the two day run is "Calling All Husbands" a down to earth comedy of family life. The film stars George Tobias, Lucile Fairbanks and Ernest Truex. It is a laugh hit of fun, romance and thrills about a hen-pecked husband who discovers that he can say "No" to his wife without having to duck. "Calling All Husbands" was written for the screen by Robert E. Kent, from a play by Martin Flavin.

round of applause at previews. Stirring with the romance, laughter, memories and melodies of the unbleached street that makes the nation sing "Tin Pan Alley" has been hailed by critics as one of the finest musicals ever produced. Its nostalgic story, great star power and magnificent assembly of old and new hit songs are just some of the elements which make "Tin Pan Alley" a picture which should appeal to everyone.

Jack Oakie and John Payne head the brilliant featured cast of "Tin Pan Alley" which also includes Allen Jenkins, Esther Ralston, the Nicholas Brothers, dusky dancing stars, and Ben Carter. Walter Lang directed the film.

Drama, Song, Gags Blended Smartly In Lamour Picture

Take a good-looking gal from Brooklyn and put her to singing in a cafe in Rangoon, and a couple of likely American lads who are in the teak logging business up in the Burmese hills, and let 'em meet at the cafe. Mix well with good dialogue, snappy situations, new songs, fine direction and you have: "Moon Over Burma", the Paramount comedy-romance coming Monday and Tuesday to the Princess Theatre with Dorothy Lamour as the girl, and Robert Preston and Preston Foster as the lads.

The lads (don't confuse them because both have Preston in their names) start things moving nicely at the cafe when they both fall in love with Miss Lamour, new short hair-do and all after hearing her sing. Eventually she winds up at the compound where they operate their teak business.

Further development of the story hinges on the fact that the boys went down to Rangoon to borrow enough money to keep their business going. The man from whom they borrowed the money wants their business, too, and he sets an operative to work to slow down the teak. But the real comes in because lender's daughter Doris Nolan, who loves Lamour and Miss Nolan, who Preston who she That makes for fore it is determined who. On there are a big fire for excitement. Albert Basson form in a Louis King feeling for the ed.

Miss Featherstone New English and Spanish Teacher

Last December 19 Miss Rachel Sweeney announced that she would teach her last class in Sanderson the next day. From that time on everybody had been wondering what the new teacher would be like. The suspense was broken Monday morning when our new teacher walked into the schoolroom. She is Miss Mae Featherstone of Goldthwaite, Texas. She graduated from the University of Texas in 1939 and has taught since then in Texas schools. She majored in English, has minors in history and speech, and also holds a certificate in expression and dramatics. Miss Featherstone has a hobby of collecting things (take notice, people with gum and candy in class) such as books, rattlesnake rattles and skins. Her favorite sport is swimming but she is afraid that she will have to give up this for some other because of the climate here. For the past seven years she has seen Texas A and M play her favorite team, the University of Texas Longhorns. She was not a bit surprised when Pete Layden plunged over for the only touchdown against the Aggies which won the game. The present international crisis frightens her but she has faith in our national leaders' ability to bring our country out of the trouble.

Her favorite color is blue and she likes anything anyone will give to her to eat. When Miss Featherstone woke up Sunday morning she thought she was aboard a steamship in the Pacific Ocean because all she saw was fog. Where she came from fog is rare. She says that she will be very strict with discipline in classes. In the junior class, her first class she taught, she was very much surprised at their brilliance. She did not even become frightened. She thinks she will like the town fine. We hope so.

START OFF THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

Judging by the number of New Years resolutions that students of S. H. S. have made they are starting off the New Year right. There are some people who say that New Years resolutions are made to be broken, but surely all of us can gain much by trying to make 1941 better than 1939 even if we do not accomplish all that we want to.

There are many things that we can all do this year to make it a good year and a memorable one if we try. Let's start off by cooperating with our fellow classmates and teachers, showing good sportsmanship in our work and play, helping others as much as possible with their problems.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is a true saying but all play and no work makes you "flunk", so start this brand new year off by studying and trying to make the best grades possible. There are still 4 1/2 more months to make up some of those grades that were not so good in 1939. Let us remember that we not our parents or teachers are the ones who lose out now and in later years because we neglect our studies while in school.

Remember this old saying and I think it will help. "C(See) sharp and B(Be) natural—two notes on the scale that will help you along your way with happiness for the new year and long afterwards, too.

Vitamins Are In Vogue; Let's Get the Facts

In recent years, the term "vitamin" has become a household word. To nearly everyone it means vim, vigor, vitality, and all that goes with good health. What are these vitamins anyhow? What is the story back of them?
The existence of certain unidentified substances having superior nutritive properties was suspected long ago. As early as 1500 B.C., Egyptians and Chinese hit on the discovery that eating livers would improve one's vision in dim light. Today we know that the liver supplied vitamin A, recognized as a protective food factor for night vision. About 1720, Kramer, an Austrian physician, found that when certain fresh foods, such as vegetables and fruits, were added to the diet of persons suffering from scurvy, this disease was cured. Today we know that these foods supplied vitamin C. These and other instances of earlier times afford an interesting background to our present knowledge of vitamins.

Word Coined 28 Years Ago
It was only 28 years ago that the word "vitamin" was coined. And since that time, the nation has become "vitamin-conscious." Scores of scientists are engaged in vitamin research. New discoveries are being made, and the subject has aroused such interest, that the public last year spent about $75,000,000 for vitamin products in drug stores.
For a long while, vitamins were looked upon as something quite mysterious. Today, although there is still considerable mystery, a great deal is known about them.

Several Kinds of Vitamins
We know there are several kinds of vitamins, and that each has its own specific function in the body. They help children to grow, give endurance and stamina, stimulate appetite, build body resistance, and have other values. Taken into the human body, they act somewhat like the ignition spark in an automobile.
Outstanding among recent discoveries are those of Dr. C. A. Elvehjem of the University of Wisconsin. He found, in studying the B vitamins, that meat is the richest source of these important factors. The three on which the most information is available are thiamine (B₁), riboflavin (B₂), and nicotinic acid. The findings of Dr. Elvehjem and others have revolutionized the whole vitamin picture. The accompanying chart, carrying the seal of the American Medical Association, is a brand new one. The figures show the vitamin content of many of our common foods.

Wool Producers Important In U. S. Defense Program

There is hardly an American today who doesn't know that the United States is building the biggest peacetime Army and Navy in her history—expected within the next two years to total nearly 2,225,000 men. A great part of the nation, however, does not realize that for each man in uniform, it takes at least five men working in industry to maintain him.

For example, in the United States today there are nearly 600,000 wool growers, each of whom is as vital to the national defense as the soldier or sailor. In Texas alone, there are 24,000 wool growers, producing 52,000,000 pounds of wool per year, each a precious link in the most essential of all the supply tasks: the production of adequate clothing and bedding.

As one of the first 10 states in the nation in wool production, it is well to bear in mind that Texas has 24,000 growers, although not in training, are as much enrolled in America's Army of Defense as those actually in the armed services.

Chiefly because of its intimate relation to the maintenance of health in the ranks, the job of keeping the army equipped with clothing and bedding material is acknowledged to be fully as important as furnishing bullets for guns and food for hungry stomachs.

In America today, we stand unequalled by any power on earth in our ability to produce quantities of 100-per cent "all-wool" and a yard wide quality goods to our troops. With the single exception of Great Britain, other nations are forced to equip their fighting men with uniforms and bedding in which "ersatz" or inferior substitutes are used.

During the next few months, requirements of recruits in the Army alone will include nearly 700,000 woolen overcoats, 500,000 woolen service coats, upwards of 2,500,000 woolen undershirts and the same number of woolen underpants, and more than 3,400,000 woolen blankets. Already ordered, as an initial step, are 20,000,000 yards of woolens and worsteds, 17,000,000 yards of worsted fabrics and 4,000,000 woolen blankets. This material is now being delivered at the rate of about 1,000,000 yards a week.

Altogether, by the time the U. S. defense machine gets into high gear, it is estimated that 12,000,000 men and women di-

Vitamins Have Many Functions
The vitamins featured in this chart are all necessary for growth and health. In addition, vitamin A increases general body resistance and protects against night blindness and a severe eye inflammation. Thiamine stimulates the appetite, aids in the utilization of starches and sugars, and prevents beriberi. Riboflavin is necessary for normal functioning of body cells, protects against certain nervous disorders, and a type of eye inflammation. Nicotinic acid prevents and cures pellagra. Vitamin C prevents and cures scurvy, and protects gum tissues. Vitamin D, sometimes known as the "sunshine" vitamin, is essential in preventing rickets.
