SCOUTING STRENGTHENS AND INVIGORATES DEMOCRACY

BOY SCOUT WEEK

Boy Scouts throughout the country celebrate the 31st anniversary of the movement in America during the week of Feb. 7-13. While the slogan on the poster above emphasizes the fact that "Scouting strengthens and invigorates democracy" all America agrees that Scout membership is in itself the essence of democracy.

EAGLES DOWN FORT STOCKTON PANTHERS 29-25

By Earl Hurst
The Sanderson High School Eagles proved to be an up-and-coming ball club last Friday night when they won their second straight game at the expense of the Fort Stockton Panthers, 29-25. The Eagles made two points in the first minute of play, and Fort Stockton trailed the rest of the game. This game gave Sanderson four wins to three defeats for the season. The Eagles were at full strength again and held Ferguson to four points. Kerr paced the Eagles with twelve points, and he kept the Panthers in deep water throughout the game. In a certain rouser the two nightshift squads from Sanderson and Stockton battled it out, but the fourteen points made by Sanderson beat Stockton's ten points. This evened the series up since Stockton beat the Eagles 13-12 last January 10.

A thing which won some notice was the spirit of the basketball and volley ball teams. Enthusiastic support throughout all the games kept the Eagles fighting back.

Sanderson is having a little hard luck in scheduling games; but when they do get one, you know that five boys will always be in there playing their best for the S. H. S.

The 63rd District Court opened Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Brian Montague of Del Rio presiding. The Grand Jury was convened with the following members: L. M. Baze, Joe F. Brown, J. D. Harrison, Tom Herring, C. H. Arvin, Fonnle Woodward, W. C. Dunlap, D. L. Duncan, W. J. Ferguson, C. V. McKnight, W. O. Prentiss, and Tip Frazier. Mr. Ferguson was appointed foreman and the following indictments were returned:

Two for child desertion and one for forgery and passing of a forged instrument.

The criminal docket was set for Monday, February 3rd, and court was recessed until that time after the disposal of several divorce cases.

Mrs. Belle Sutherland, court reporter, and Roger Thurmond, district attorney, both of Del Rio were also present.

Announcement has been made to the effect that the Federal Income Tax Collector will be in Sanderson Friday, February 21, to aid persons who need his help in preparing their income tax returns.

He will be at the courthouse in the county court room from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 p. m. on that day.

Mrs. Weldon Cox and son, Darrell Glenn, are in Fort Worth visiting with relatives.

Miss Alma Wilson and C. Stubblefield Married at Alpine

Miss Alma L. Wilson and Clayton Stubblefield were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at Sul Ross College with the Rev. Taft Holloway performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. B. A. Wilson of Mason and a brother of Joe Wilson of this place. Mr. Stubblefield has made Sanderson his home for a number of years, at present engaging in the filling station business at the Loma Alta Service Station.

The couple returned to Sanderson following the ceremony and will make this their home.

63 JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OPENED MONDAY MORNING

The 63rd District Court opened Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Brian Montague of Del Rio presiding. The Grand Jury was convened with the following members: L. M. Baze, Joe F. Brown, J. D. Editor's Note—This column is written by Cal Huffman, your representative, in an effort to keep you informed as to what goes on in Austin and in no way reflects the opinion or policy of this newspaper.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 28.—Went down to Beaumont over the week-end and saw a freighter launched on bananas . . . 7,000 pounds of them cut up and smeared on the runways. The steel hulk slid down over them as easily as I did on half a peel a month ago . . . only the ship had some water to land in, and I didn't.

From where I stood, among a crowd of three thousand, peering through the feathers of a woman's hat, I was unable to read the ship's name . . . but it doesn't matter . . . Old Davey Jones swallows 'em up in a hurry nowadays. Incidentally, this was the first ship launched from a Texas shipyard since 1918.

The Governor's second inaugural was like the return performance of a small-town play . . . only the relatives attended . . . and they were all sober, too. They milled around the capitol grounds during the aerial bombardment of oratory through giant magnifiers. They didn't applaud much . . . and their expressions revealed more than anything: "When do we eat?"

Most of them went home early before the dancing. Quite a difference from two years ago, when 60,000 overran Austin and danced in the streets . . . but in those days, folks didn't have a war to worry about. Also, despite his masterful showmanship, O'Daniel can no longer "pull 'em in" with words . . . the time has come for him to pull something out of the hat.

Wednesday, after all the trash, paper plates and buffalo scraps had been swept off the mansion lawn and adjacent yards, legislators settled down to the serious business of restoring Texans' faith in their government. Speaker Homer Leonard opened the House hopper for bills, and 131 were recorded there in the succeeding two days, and 62 in the Senate during the same interim.

Their complexity was exceeded only by their variety, but in the main they proposed to raise tax money, readjust certain phases of the government as ordered by O'Daniel, tighten control on highway traffic, and put the State in order for National Defense.

The first tax barrage was fired at natural resources. A flurry of bills on this subject increased present levies from 20 percent to as much as 300 percent. One by Rep. Ben Sharpe of Paris upped the tax on oil to 10 percent of value, on sulphur to $4 per long ton, and natural gas to 4 percent of value.

Another bill proposed to abolish the 4c per gallon retail levy on gasoline and substitute a 1c per gallon tax on all gasoline refined in this State.

The Governor's Transaction Tax did not get a sponsor until Monday of this week when Rep. Clinton Kersey tossed the measure in with the fearful bravado of a naughty youngster flinging a firecracker into the kitchen stove. There was no explosion, however. The route for this bill has already been carefully charted into the Revenue and Taxation committee where it will be carefully dissected, microscopically examined . . . and may die on the operating table.

Several Defense measures were entered. They include: Penalty of 10 years' imprisonment for un-American activities; creation of a Woman's Home Guard as a non-combatant defense unit; establishment of military training at the University of Texas as in the last war; registration of all photographers, creation of a Texas Defense Guard to take

Yearbook Ready for Distribution by R. E. Thomason

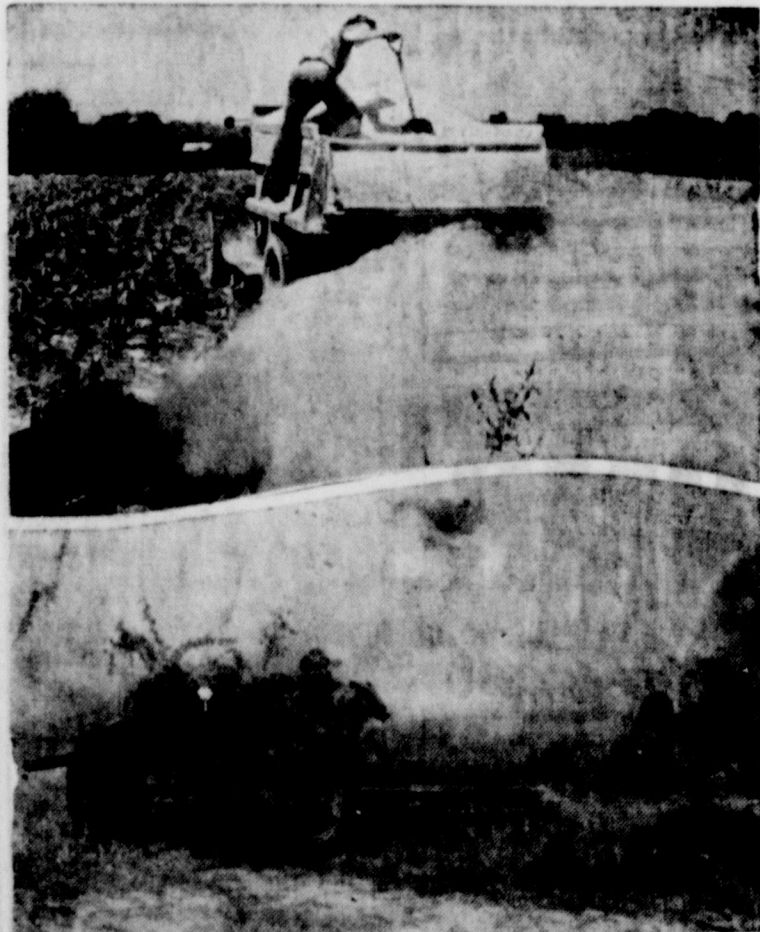

Congressman R. E. Thomason advises that the 1940 issue of the Yearbook of Agriculture is off the press and that he has a limited number of copies for distribution in this district.

The book, a handsome 1215 page volume is entitled "Farmers In A Changing World." It contains much information of interest to all who are engaged in any phase of ranching or farming.

Rep. Thomason stated that he would be glad to send books to all who requests them as long as his supply lasts. Requests should be addressed to him at Room 1730, House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Whistler and little daughter, Jerry, left last Thursday for Rocksprings and Mr. Whistler continued on to Houston on business. They returned home Sunday.

These Clouds Mean Defense

Clouds arise as American farmers increase the fertility of their fields by sprinkling them with lime. Clouds arise as American soldiers increase their skill through artillery practice. Both fertile soil and skilled gunners are vital to the nation's defense. American farmers last year, cooperating with the AAA Farm Program, applied nearly six million tons of lime to their soil, enough to have powdered the face, at the rate of a ton per acre, of every acre of cropland in Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nichols spent Thursday of last week visiting in Del Rio.

Mrs. Luella Lemons and son, Junior were Marathon visitors Sunday.

Brian Montague, attorney of Del Rio, was in Sanderson Tuesday attending court.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Williams were Del Rio visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Frank Robertson entertained her club with a bridge party Thursday afternoon at her home. At the close of the games Mrs. J. C. Green held high score and Miss Louise White second.

Capt. W. L. Barrier and Lieutenant Foster, a government flier from San Antonio, left the Dryden airport and after flying around for a short time located a gang of trappers 10 miles below Regan Canyon. There were three men and three boats, and they had 27 beaver hides in their possession, also a doe deer that they had killed. They plead guilty to each charge.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

Ozona Stockman—C. S. Denham, who is serving his seventh year as superintendent of Ozona Public Schools, was re-elected for his eighth term at a meeting of members of the board of school trustees at the Ozona National Bank Monday afternoon.

Fort Stockton Pioneer—Bruce McKenzie and Dick Minear, teen-age youngsters with a fondness for the out-of-doors, got more air and exercise than they bargained for Wednesday afternoon and night when they lost their way on a hike to Twelve-mile Mesa southwest of Fort Stockton, and wandered for several hours in the dark, finally arriving home at 1 o'clock Thursday morning.

Big Bend Sentinel—Ninety-three Selective Service trainees who arrived here Thursday from Thomas, Ky., and Fort Hayes, Ohio, were directed by Sgt. Clyde A. Boyles of Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, and by Sgt. John C. Waddell of Battery F.

Alpine Avalanche—A. F. Robinson of Alpine has recently taken over the operation of a resort on the Rio Grande, in southern Brewster county near the mouth of the Santa Helena canyon. The property is owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dorgan, who have made their home at the location for the past several years but who recently returned to their home in Michigan.

Monahans News—Ft. Stockton, competing in Class B for the past two years, stepped back into the Class A bracket and joined up with Wink, Crane, Pecos, Kermit, McCamey and Monahans.

Monahans American—W. F. (Fred) Hendricks, superintendent for the Cabot Company in their carbon black department at Wickett, was presented a gold key, given by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and awarded by the Monahans Jaycee organization, for distinguished civic service during 1940. Almost a hundred Jaycees and their guests were present.

Mrs. Jessie Keever of Dallas is here visiting in the home of her niece, Mrs. D. L. Duke and Mr. Duke.

Brenda and Cobina In Film Bow With 100 Lovely Girls

Feminine beauty, bright gaggles and hit tunes, are the satisfying staples in the mixture of music, comedy, and exciting melodrama called "A Night at Earl Carroll's," which plays Wednesday and Thursday at the Princess Theatre. Pooling their efforts to make this production gay and enjoyable entertainment are such experts of comedy as Rose Hobart, Ken Murray and Brenda and Cobina, radio comedy duo, who've lost none of their funniness in the transition from radio to screen. This marks their film debut.

Cracking with wit, lighted up with the luminous beauty of the 100 gorgeous creatures specially selected by Earl Carroll, who plays himself in the film, the story revolves at pin-wheel pace about the adventures of Carroll as a night club and beauty impresario; his hostess, Rose Hobart, and press-agent, Ken Murray as they are menaced by a hoodlum gang. It might be added that the story also concerns the misadventures of Brenda and Cobina as they go man-hunting in Carroll's club.

John Long of Del Rio was a business visitor here Thursday. He also visited in the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Harrison.

Mrs. J. A. Russell, Miss Mariam Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Waddell of Del Rio visited last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferral Roark and children returned home Friday after spending several days in San Angelo. They also visited relatives in Rankin.

Paul Patterson of Crane visited here Sunday with friends.

VARIETY OF WORK FOR SPEECH CLASS

By Joyte Yeates
During the 2nd semester of the year the speech class will study and present various types of one-act plays. At the present, students are reading and studying some interesting plays before selecting one for the annual bi-county meet which will be held in Sanderson in March. In addition to the play to be given at the meet, there will be other plays given during the remainder of the year at assembly and on other occasions. Students enjoy this phase of speech work and this is one of the most popular courses offered this year.

Future Homemakers Club Makes Studies of Hobbies

By Ivy Lou Phillips The Future Homemakers of Sanderson, Texas met Wednesday afternoon, January 8 in the living room of the Homemaking department. The meeting was called to order by the president and the roll call was answered by favorite hobbies. The club members discussed ways of making money and decided to sell candy at the basket ball games. Hobbies were discussed by Margaret Pierson, Ivy Lou Phillips, and Mary Nell Higgins. The president, Betty Hurst, showed the "Creed and Purpose" of the Future Homemakers of Texas. It was decided to buy frames for the "Creed and Purposes" to hang in the living room of the H. E. department.

Future Homemakers Study Manners for the H. S. Girls

The subject of the meeting Jan. 22 was "What is wrong with our High School Girls?" Reports on this topic were made by Ivy Lou Phillips and Margaret Pierson. Plans were made to sponsor a show and sell candy in order to earn money to send three of the members to the state rally in San Antonio in the Spring. The club decided to give a Valentine party conducted by the social committee. Plans were also made to sell food at the county meet. The members of the club enjoyed this meeting especially because this was the first meeting since the living room furniture has been recovered.

Homemaking I Girls Re-cover Furniture Cushions

By Maurine Frazier The girls of the Homemaking IA have re-covered the cushions of the living room furniture in the high school homemaking department. Each girl covered one chair cushion.

Before we re-covered the cushions, they were covered with thin fragile printed cretonne which was dark, faded, unpleasant, and also torn. The colors now are gold rust, and green of heavy cotton material costing 59 and 79 cents a yard. The total cost for covering the nine cushions was $4.95 making it 55 cents per chair. This furniture is also used on the stage for plays.

While attempting to cover the furniture we studied color combinations in the home and the arrangement of furniture. We also studied warm and cold colors and in which rooms the colors were best suited. Tidy bedrooms was one of our subjects. We also studied how to arrange them and how closets should be built so as to have more room and be more convenient.

The H. E. girls are always doing something interesting.

Jane and Billie humming "I Hear a Rhapsody"?

The wind and the rain in Coach's hair?

Joe Ross not being fickle about all new girls?

B. F. not flirting with all the girls, and not liking cough drops?

Hollis not going around looking gloomy when Jane has to work?

Some of the girls not having secret loves?

All of the girls not knowing about all of the other girls' dates?

Patty and Ray not going together?

Lois Mae and Marzee missing anything?

Lois Bassett's nickname not being "Algie"?

The Dryden gang not going on penes—and especially at night.

SNOOPER

HEARS NOTHING SEES NOTHING TELLS ALL

The Snooper has certainly been picking up news lately—Kat and Sam—well, well. Dan and Maurine seem to have a crush on each other.

Betty Hurst thinks that the sop. girls are going to have competition—could it be the new girl in school.

Joyce has been on pins and needles because Campbell is learning to flirt.

Johnny and Eernice take a trip to the show.

Joe Ross seems to have his eyes on a little new brunette.

Some of the senior girls have been tagging it. What's the matter Billie can't you rate a date with the high school boys?

I always heard that men like red—and oh! boy, its the fad now.

Just since when did Adeline stop drinking colts at the Best? Could a blonde have anything to do with that?

What is this game of tag between a Chevrolet and an Oldsmobile, and then a Dodge turns up and ruins the game. Girls must like these out of school boys.

How did it happen that Sambo and Joyce L. were both late to school Tuesday. Sounds fishy.

Dan Murrar is gaining popularity and Mary Nell is running him a close second.

Who Knows the Origin of Name of Sanderson?

The Texas History class of the Sanderson Schools recently bogged down on one of those apparent mysteries which sometimes confront those who delve into the past. This puzzle was none other than the naming of the town of Sanderson. The members of the class found some five stories or theories concerning the origin of the name of the county-seat of Terrell County, and thus far the attempt at tracing the theories to earth has borne little or no results.

Who knows the facts of the naming of Sanderson? Some older residents of the town state that the name Sanderson was applied to the new station on the railroad in the early eighties in honor of a civil engineer by the name of Sanderson who of 1940-41. Two other holidays are to be observed in the spring, probably one in March and the other in April.

helped to survey and build the railroad through this section. Still another version states that the stop on the railroad was first called Strowbridge. If there is fact to this latter theory, when and for what reason was the name changed to Sanderson? A third story is currently told that a ranchman by the name Sanderson was in this section when the railroad built its line through this area and the town was named for this ranchman. The fourth story relates that a work train locomotive stalled during the period of construction of the railroad through Sanderson Canyon and when a bystander yelled to the engineer, "Sand 'er, son! Sand 'er son!" by way of advice, the name of the town came into being. The fifth story states that the town was named in honor of John Sanderson, American writer, and the name was applied by the surveying and engineering crew of the railroad along with the names of Dryden, Emerson and Longfellow.

Some Texas towns have queer names and received them in odd ways. Who knows the origin of the naming of Sanderson? The members of the Texas History class need information.

Same Name and P.O. Box—No Mixups

"It's safer, quicker, and surer this way," say the Misses Adele Barnes, Texas State College for Women students by the same name who got tired of receiving each other's mail last year and rented a post office box together this fall. Now every time the mail comes in at the TSCW Post Office, Miss Adele Barnes from San Antonio, left, meets Miss Adele Barnes from Brownwood at Box 2403, and the letters are sorted right then and there—no delays, no mixups, and everybody's happy.

Debby Nunn Is Hostess to Sigma Sigma Gamma Club

The Sigma Sigma Gamma held their second business meeting Wednesday afternoon at eight o'clock at the home of Miss Debby Nunn.

The constitution and by-laws were drawn up and accepted and a committee was appointed to start work on the year books which are to be of white leather with red lettering. Each girl received her badge made of red and white ribbon which she is to wear for one week.

As there was no program the business meeting adjourned and a lovely plate of salad and sandwiches with cold drinks was served by the hostess to Jane Ord, Maxine Claffelter, Billy Rae Bowden, Roberta Lochausen and Emma Fay Harris. Marybelle Hollebeck was absent due to illness.

Tuesday Bridge Club Entertained By Mrs. E. L. Williams

Mrs. E. L. Williams entertained members and guests of the Tuesday Bridge Club at her home Tuesday afternoon with three tables of bridge.

After a delightful afternoon spent playing progressive bridge high score was held by Mrs. C. P. Peavy and second high score prize went to Mrs. Walter Grigsby.

A "raggedy Ann" salad plate was served by Mrs. Williams to the following: Mesdames D. M. Wells, C. P. Peavy, John Harrison, Mary Lou Kellar, Lee McCue, Austin Nance, Jim Nance, Walter Grigsby, Hugh Rose, members; Tol Murrah, John Reiminger of Valentine, and D. Pelton of Del Rio, guests. Miss Mary Arrington and Mrs. Ruth Smith were tea guests.

Mrs. George Newsom returned home Wednesday from a visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Beasley II of Beeville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Convey of Pettus, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boon of Hondo. She was accompanied home by her father for a visit here with her and Mr. Newsom.

Mrs. Ruth Smith and daughter, Betty, arrived here Monday from Athens. Mrs. Smith has accepted a position with the Terrell County A. C. A. formerly held by Mrs. Seth Davenport before her resignation in December.

Miss Winnie Jo Hoosier accompanied Miss Marjorie Canon here for a visit with Miss Canon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bustin Canon from Friday until Tuesday, when Mr. and Mrs. Canon took them to Odessa on their return to Lubbock where the young ladies are enrolled in Texas Tech.

over while the National Guard is on active duty with the Army.

For Highway regulation, bills would increase the speed limit to 60 miles per hour for autos, 45 miles per hour for trucks; increase the truck load limit to 14,000 pounds; tighten the driver's license enforcement, subject drunken drivers to a blood test.

Other bills would restrict the State legislative districts according to 1940 census; appropriate $3,500,000 yearly to match teachers' retirement contributions; release interest and penalties on State and county taxes delinquent on or before last July 1; reduce Unemployment Compensation taxes to save employers $10,000,000 annually, etc.

Last but not least... listed as No. 63 on the House calendar... is a bill by your Representative appropriating $1,500,000 to buy land for the Big Bend National Park in Brewster County.

In the midst of the stir and bustle over the war news, taxes, and regulatory measures, this bill seems out of place... a complacent, cheerful note in a worried symphony. It does not excite much attention or much opposition. It may die an easy death under the economy axe, or it may pass with only a slight nod of approval.

But if it emerges successfully, it will be the only act of this Legislature that will outlast the throes of time. When this war has passed on into another era of troubled peace; and after other wars have come and gone, and this generation has been dispersed into dust, those glistening peaks, those majestic canyons, and forested slopes will stand as a lasting tribute to a group of men who created it in a moment of forgetfulness, when their minds were occupied with what they thought were more important problems.

It will be called the Big Bend International Peace Park... and so it will forever remain... because no army of destruction could ever pass through or exist there. The lofty tranquility of those peaks stands impregnable against all the Hitlers of all time.
