Armistice Day Observed With Parade, Program

The auditorium of the high school held a record crowd last Tuesday as various groups presented an Armistice Day program.

The program followed a parade in which participated the American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Home Defense Guard, the boy and girl scouts, the school band, and students from both the American and Latin-American schools.

The advance of the colors borne by Andy Anderson and Larry Horgan, with guards J. L. Osgood and R. H. Lewellyn opened the program. The invocation was read by the Rev. John W. Byrd and the audience sang "America."

A patriotic play, "We Hold These Truths," with Betty Smith, Maurine Frazier, and Betty Frazor giving the prologue followed. Participating in the play proper were Adeline McConaughy, Carl Lanford, Billy Savage, Aubrey Harrell, Jackie Duke, Lois Bea Osgood, W. T. Frazier, Patty Billings, Dan Murrah, Willie Fay Jeffries, James Blackwelder, Donald Babb. The play was directed by Miss Vashti Mixon.

Following the play taps were sounded to start the one minute of complete silence, and the audience faced west as a token of respect to the World War soldiers.

Popular songs of the World War period were sung by the choral club, and the retiring of the colors ended the program.

Funeral Services For W. M. Tucker Held Saturday

Funeral services for William M. Tucker, 41, were held Saturday at Ovala, who died as a result of an accident in a lake near New Orleans, La. He was a brother of George R. Tucker of Sanderson, owner and operator of the City Drug.

Mr. Tucker was an electrical engineer employed by an oil company to locate oil under the bed of the lake by electrical devices. He was moving location Saturday afternoon, Nov. 1, and started from the barge on which he was traveling back to the houseboat which was being towed. Only one person was with him and said that he did not discover his absence for about an hour after he told him that he was going back to the houseboat to check up.

He stated that Mr. Tucker evidently slipped and was injured when he fell into the water and was drowned. Planes and boats searched for the body from Saturday until Thursday before it was located by a fisherman about 12 miles from the location where he was last seen. It was at the outlet of the lake into the gulf.

Interment was made in the old Tucker burial ground at Ovala. George Tucker attended the funeral services there Saturday, returning to Sanderson Sunday.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. CREIGH IN SAN ANTONIO

Funeral services for Mrs. Alfred E. Creigh Jr. will be held Friday afternoon in San Antonio from the St. Mary's Episcopal Church at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Creigh died in a San Antonio hospital Wednesday evening at 9:35 after a long illness.

Following the funeral services the body will be carried to Greenbrier, Virginia, where interment will be made in the Creigh family plot.

Mrs. Creigh was active in the social and civic life of Sanderson before her illness, belonging to several clubs and always ready and willing to do her part when called upon. She never spoke, other than a word of kindness, of her friends and acquaintances, and always had a word of cheer for those in sorrow or trouble.

Dorothy Neibert was born at Galveston, Texas, January 27, 1895, and was a graduate of C. I. A., Denton, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree. She was assistant Chief Dietician at the United States Veterans Hospital at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, and held that position at the time of her marriage to Alfred E. Creigh Jr. in 1922. From Fort Bayard they moved to Grand Junction, Colorado, where Mr. Creigh practiced law and was assistant city attorney. They moved to Sanderson on March 1, 1926, and have made their home here since that time. Mr. Creigh practicing law and for the past several years holding down the office of county attorney.

Mrs. Creigh became ill on the fifth day of February of this year and has been confined since that time. Mr. Creigh was enroute from Roswell, N. M., at the time of her death. He had returned Alfred III, who is attending New Mexico Military Institute, to Roswell after a week-end visit with mother and was on his way back when the call came that she had passed away. Upon his arrival here he left immediately for San Antonio and Mr. and Mrs. Web Townsend met Alfred III in Pecos and took him to San Antonio upon his arrival in Sanderson.

Besides the husband and son, survivors include her mother, Mrs. John A. Craig, Sanderson; and two brothers, John Neibert of Carrilton, Kentucky, and Ross Neibert, address unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Downum went to Del Rio Saturday where he went for a physical check-up. Mrs. Downum returned Tuesday and Mr. Downum returned Thursday.

Basketballs Replace Footballs As Eagles Enter League Contest

SANDERSON BEGINS CAGE PRACTICE FOR DISTRICT RACE

Sanderson basketball fans will be able to follow the Eagles with more interest this season. An interscholastic league district, formed with seven neighboring schools will include Sanderson, thus giving the Eagles a chance to try for the annual cage meet in Austin. They will be in a 'B' district with Presidio, Valentine, Marfa, Alpine, Marathon, and Fort Davis.

Prior to the state meet, of course, come district, bi-district, and regional meets. That means that Sanderson must lead the other six schools in this district, win in tournaments combining several districts, and finally submerge some of the top teams of this part of Texas.

The Eagles began practice to attain this goal last Monday and seventeen boys came out with an indication that more would follow. A regular schedule has not been announced, but actual district play will probably not begin before next year.

Those who counted off Monday are Ross Stavley, James McDonald, Earl McDonald, David Duke, Edward Kerr, Charles Rogers, Bill Savage, Charles Daniels, Bill Cochran, Joe Bean, Sidney Surratt, Bill Davis, Frank Stavley, Eldridge Murray, Marshall Cooke, Harold Haynes, Pablo Perez, Curtis Litton, one of the most promising candidates, was injured in the Rankin football game and will probably be out for the duration of the season.

TURKEY SHOOT AND FIREMAN'S BALL SCHEDULED ON 22-23

Advertising matter has been distributed this week announcing the turkey shoot and fireman's ball which is to be held on the 22 and 23 of this month.

The dance will be held Saturday night, Nov. 22, at the Kerr Mercantile building with music furnished by Cuco Garcia and his orchestra of Del Rio, and a good time is assured all who attend.

The following day, Sunday, Nov. 23, the turkey shoot will take place and will begin at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon with participants shooting at live turkeys and also targets. Judging from the interest shown in the turkey shoots held last year just previous to Thanksgiving and Christmas, those in charge of the event feel that more entries will be made this year and have made preparations to have ample turkeys at hand.

One range will be 90 yards with shooting at live turkeys done with high powered rifles. Another will be the shooting at toy balloons at 200 yards, and also pistol shooting at live turkeys at 30 yards. There will also be a shooting range for women and children. They will shoot at balloons at a distance of 40 yards with .22 rifles. Women and children may also shoot at the other ranges if they care to do so.

Two turkeys will be allowed any person on each of the three ranges, making a total of six turkeys the limit to each participant.

LEG BROKEN
Curtis Litton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Litton, who received a broken thigh in the football game Friday with Rankin, is getting along fine according to latest reports. He is in a Del Rio hospital where it will be necessary for him to stay several weeks.

George R. Tucker was a business visitor in San Antonio and Houston the first of this week.

CONSERVATION MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY

A meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at the Terrell County courthouse, with ranchmen and business men in attendance, for the purpose of making producers and others of this area more "conservation conscious" and to inform them of the aid they may be able to give in this phase of the national defense program.

The program, under the direction of G. J. Henshaw, chairman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Defense Board and Chairman of AAA in Terrell County, dealt with the importance of producing more food, both for home consumption and for supplying the United States Armies and aid to Britain.

Following an explanation of the purpose of the meeting and the need for more conservative practices by Mr. Henshaw, Steve Stumberg made a talk on the AAA, when it originated and the progress it had made during the past few years. He also stressed the need of cooperation in the defense cause and gave a short summary of the meeting held in Brewster County Saturday of last week.

Herbert Dodd and Mrs. McBride, both with the Farm Security Administration of the Alpine office, gave discussions. Mr. Dodd explained that more pounds of beef were wanted from the same number of livestock, feed a little more carefully as to a balanced ration, and in general be a little more conservative with what the ranchmen now have on hand. Mrs. McBride discussed gardens and the part they could play in releasing foodstuffs to be shipped to foreign nations and for use by the United States armed forces. She explained that by use of small gardens that families could produce most of their vegetables, etc., for home consumption. She explained the use of the frame garden, the use of the tub garden and the potato barrel. Almost any family whether on their ranch or in town, could use one or all of these type gardens. She also stated that if persons were interested in preparing gardens she would be available for any aid she might be able to give.

The meeting was also for the purpose of getting operators under the Triple A to execute preliminary questionnaires for their part in the 1942 program. These questionnaires will also be used by the U. S. D. A. Board, according to Mr. Henshaw.

Lt. Ernest Williams To New Field At Sherman, Texas

Information from the Air Corps Basic Flying School at Sherman is to the effect that Lieutenant Ernest L. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Williams of Carrizo Springs and formerly county agent for Terrell County, has taken over his duties as provost marshal of the new flight training center to be opened there soon by the United States Army Air Corps.

A first lieutenant in the Infantry Reserve, Lt. Williams has been attached to Goodfellow Field, basic flying school in San Angelo, where he was police and prison officer. He received his reserve commission from Texas A. & M. College with a B.S. degree in agriculture in 1933. Lt. Williams was one of the first officers to arrive at the new field from Goodfellow field according to the information, which is furnishing a cadre of officers and personnel for the Sherman school.

OFFENSE STARS AS LOCALS WIN OVER RANKIN, 13-0

The Sanderson Eagles wound up the football season in a whirl last Saturday as they drubbed the Rankin Red Devils, 13-0 on the Sanderson gridiron. The Eagles were held back by an offensive that kept bringing the ball back to the Sanderson end of the field, but the Rankin defense was no match for the running of Stavley, Bell and Cochran, and the pass reception of McDonald and Cochran.

Scores were made in the third and fourth quarter, with neither team gaining the edge in the first two periods. The (Continued to Back Page)

She also asks that every person who desires to do his part in this emergency tend his membership to one of the workers even though they are unable to contact him.

The regular meeting of the Sanderson Parent-Teacher Association was held Thursday Afternoon, November 6, at 3:00 o'clock at the high school auditorium with Mrs. Ervin Grigsby as leader of the program on "Education, the Long Time Defense." Mrs. W. H. Savage acted in the place of the president, Mrs. Tol Murrah, who was out of town.

Mrs. O. H. McAdams led the devotional and Miss Helen Simpson led the assembly singing. Judge R. S. Wilkinson followed with a discussion of "Making Better Citizens of Our Boys and Girls," taking ten points from an article by State Supt. L. A. Woods on which he based his discussion. Mrs. Chester Surratt followed, using five points from the pen of J. Henry Highsmith, State Department of Education, upon which she based a discussion of National Defense. Miss Margaret Kinkler gave a talk on Book Week and extended an invitation to everyone to make more frequent visits to the library. The sixth grade gave a patriotic skit and room attendance was awarded to the first grade.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

FORT DAVIS—The late October flood in Limpia canyon that washed out several hundred feet of pavement put an idea in the minds of the highway people, with the result that a new piece of road is being built to lift the route above flood level.

The worst piece of wash-out was just up-canyon from the stone-pillar entrance to the state park. Men and machinery are at work cutting out a new route several hundred yards long up on the hillside, where it is hoped flood waters will never reach.

Texas-New Mexico Pipeline Co. has completed a 6-inch discharge line 19 miles in length from the pump station north-east to the Crane Station of the Permian Basin to the Gulf. From the gathering station, oil is brought by gravity flow from the Abell Ordovician area through 6 miles of 6-inch gathering line, while from the Conry-Davis area in the Abell Per-tournaments wanted to be able to distinguish their beloveds in the applauding throng. The tall hat, draped floweringly in the knight's color, answered this purpose. Today, however, in a low-topped automobile or at the theatre—

STRAIGHT FROM NEW YORK

PEPLUMS ARE POPULAR
The new "interrupted silhouette" this year is achieved with peplums, tiers and tunics. This New York creation features a perky, pleated peplum that fastens on like a little apron over this featherweight wool dress of rascal red. Slanted pockets are hidden beneath the peplum to complement the high pockets on the bodice. The look is soft and feminine, typical of this season's fashion trend.

Costumes Are Authentic

As for the extreme toward which we are now heading in the way of looking upon jewelry as an essential part of daytime as well as evening dress, Miss DePew reminds us that only when we reach the stage of bedecking ourselves to the fullest extent possible, will we have caught up with our Medieval fore-bears. In "Sleeping Beauty" most of the rubies, sapphires, amethysts, emeralds, and pearls worn by the queen, the princess, and their ladies-in-waiting, are sewn right onto their gowns. This, explains Miss DePew, had to be done to make the costume authentic, and her again the difference between a modern style and a Medieval is simply that of practical detail: clothes of the Middle Ages were worn through an adult lifetime as compared with the scant year or two we allow our clothes. More often than not the clothes outlived their wearers by centuries.

Fireman W. L. Ledbetter has been assigned to a freight run out of Del Rio.

J. G. McCullar, traveling engineer, was here from El Paso Wednesday.

Engineer C. J. McGehee of El Paso reported for the night switch engine here Wednesday.

Engineer G. T. Rutledge returned Tuesday from an extended visit to Florida and other points.

Engineer Lee Wooten and fireman H. W. Sewell of El Paso have been assigned to a freight run out of here.

Women's Style Urges

Pew assures us, clothes for children and for grown-ups were identical.

"What's more," Miss DePew continues, "in the entire realm of feminine fashion urges, their outward expression is the only real difference between our own and those of well-dressed Medieval women, and this is but an imposed concession to what the times offer in the way of practical requirements and wherewithal." Miss DePew mentions hats as an example. "True," says she, "the Medieval sky-aspiring hat strikes us as quaint, grotesque, or both. And yet it expressed precisely the same womanly impulse as do hats of today—the desire to go to extremes in fashions. Just as we pursue the small hat idea to the point of hats as tiny as the naked eye can see, so did the Medieval woman go to the extreme-hats as tall as the head, proudly upright, could carry. The necessity behind the creation of these maximally high hats was the fact that knights of old, while jousting to mian field, 5 miles of 4-inch line brings the oil, also by gravity flow.

On another page of this issue of the Leader will be found an order from the Real County Judge, calling for an election to determine whether or not the citizens of Leakey wish to incorporate their town. The election was ordered in response to a petition presented to the judge in which the request for the election was made.

This request for election is significant in the history of Leakey, for it represents the first time that such an election has been called.

Bart Moore of San Antonio is using an ultra-violet lamp for prospecting in the Quitman mountains near Sierra Blanca for scheelite. This is a new method of prospecting in this part of the country and must be done at night for the location of tungsten by fluorescence method. The ultra-violet light is being used in California and Nevada.

Mr. Moore has located some scheelite, which is the most important tungsten metal, but does not know yet whether or not he has quantity enough for commercial purposes. He is doing some extensive sampling of the newly located mineral and having it assayed. It must run at least 1 per cent scheelite to make it profitable mining and it requires milling. Tungsten is used for hardening steel and is one of the defense metals.

BOOK CHAT

By Carl Lansford

If you like a book of jungle stories, read "I Married Adventure." This is the true story of Osa Johnson's marriage to a great jungle explorer. Mrs. Johnson tells of her many trips into the jungle to hunt wild animals with a camera.

At the present time there is no greater interest than that of the international situation. "Berlin Diary" is the story of the inside workings of Germany from the time of Hitler's rise to power till the end of 1940. This book was written by William Shirer while he lived in Germany. Mr. Shirer was the news commentator for the Columbia Broadcasting System in Germany for ten years.

Some people like to read stories that are just on the other side of unbelievable. "Pecos Bill" is the story of a baby who falls out of a settler's wagon and is raised by the coyotes. He is discovered by cowboys and is taught ranching. Not liking the ranching methods of that time he invents the modern method of ranching with many adventures.

Misery, hate, love, these are mere words too small to describe such a story as "Wuthering Heights." To really understand these words you would have to read this book, a book of ruined loves, of human nature, of the life of a man who was inhuman to his own sorrow and death.

Surratt and Short Exhibit Best Planes

Twenty-nine airplanes soared into the air Monday, November 3 and from the excited shouts and cries of boys and girls, bystanders knew that the first contest of the Model Airplane club had begun.

Fostered by Duane E. Smith, the club has planned several contests with two classes of winners. One class includes any rubber powered plane and is judged on the basis of general appearance and excellence of construction. The second class winner is determined by the flight performance.

Prizes in last week's contest went in the first class to Billie Joe Short, 1st prize of $1.00; Jack Thomas, 2nd, 75c; and Jack Duke, 3rd, 50c. In the performance class, Sidney Surratt won the first prize of $2.00, and Bill Cochran won the second and third prizes of $1.50 and $1.00 respectively. Judges were Wallace, Mr. Henshaw, Mr. Thornton, and Mr. Lovell.

Another contest is planned soon and although no date has been set, it will be held before the Christmas holidays.

CIVICS CLASS PRESENTS DEFENSE PROGRAM

The Civics Class presented a Defense Program in the High School auditorium Friday, November 7. The program was sponsored by the Civics in order to show the importance of reviving the spirit of '76 and to protect the rights and privileges which have made America a great nation.

The program opened with the song "America", led by D. L. Duke. Then, the play, "The Minute Man" was presented by ten members of the civics class. Adeline McConaughy gave a talk on defense savings. "Keep 'em Flying" was sung by the fifth, sixth, and seventh grades of ward school. Immediately following, Theron Horton gave a talk on defense savings, and leaflets on defense bonds were distributed. The program closed with the song, "God Bless America", led by D. L. Duke.

Adding machine rolls, typewriter ribbons, carbon paper, letter files, inks, in fact, almost anything for the business office. Times, phone 39.

BUSINESS? DON'T ASK ME! SIX APARTMENTS AND THESE COES MY YEAR'S PROFIT

HOW COME GAS REFRIGERATORS CAN DO ALL THAT FOR ME?

THEY'RE DIFFERENT FROM ALL OTHER AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATORS. SERVEL ELECTROLUX HAS NO MOVING PARTS IN ITS FREEZING SYSTEM TO WEAR OR MAKE A NOISE... BECAUSE A TINY FLAME DOES ALL THE WORK.

WHY DON'T YOU REPLACE YOUR NOISY OLD AUTOMATICS WITH GAS REFRIGERATORS? YOU'D SAVE ON YOUR PRESENT OPERATING COST AND REPAIRS... AND GIVE YOURSELF A STRONG SELLING POINT OVER COMPETING APARTMENTS.

MEAN ITS PERMANENTLY SILENT?

YES AND IT'S THE MOST BEAUTIFUL, MOST CONVENIENT REFRIGERATOR I'VE EVER USED. TOO, WE HAD ONE IN THE LAST PLACE WHERE WE LIVED. WHY DON'T YOU INVESTIGATE?

A MONTH LATER

I TOOK YOUR TIP, MR. JOHNSON, AND HERE THEY ARE—EIGHTEEN OF THEM. I'M GOING TO ADD "GAS REFRIGERATION" TO MY "APARTMENTS FOR RENT" SIGN. I CHECKED WITH OTHER LANDLORDS WHO HAVE SERVELS, AND THEY AGREE IT HELPS RENTALS.

THAT'S RIGHT, NOT A SINGLE MOVING PART AND LOOK AT THE CONVENIENCES. 3-POSITION SLIDING SHELF... AUTOMATIC CUBE RELEASE... GLASS COVERED VEGETABLE FRESHENERS... MANY OTHERS

EVERY YEAR, more and more people we've had experience with other makes changing to Servel Electrolux. They say the Gas Refrigerator "stays silent longer"—because its freezing system has no moving parts to wear or make a noise.

Different from all others

- NO MOVING PARTS TO WEAR
- PERMANENT SILENCE
- CONTINUED LOW OPERATING COST

M. G. who did you have with you at the show last Friday night?

W. T. was having a good time the other night. Could it have been because he was with Clara Alice?

Don Allen was seen with W. T.'s girl the other day. These two boys have still more competition. Marshall was overheard saying he could get a date with Clara Alice.

James House was asked why he didn't ever take a girl to the show with him. He replied that he could not make up his mind as to who he liked best out of all his girl admirers.

Seems like Dan, Lee and James Albert were kind of late with their Sadie Hawkins day. But just ask them have they celebrated it and see what they say. Maurine and Margaret Ruth might be able to answer it for you.

We wonder if Sadie Hawkins got Dan Saturday night or if he got Sadie Hawkins.

Carl and Wilmer Lois seem to make eyes at each other all of the time. We wonder sometimes if he isn't going blind from winking at her.

Betty Frazier changes boy friends about as often as Maurine Frazier.

It seems that Maurine Frazier was quite glad to see Roy back.

Ouch! That was all you could get out of a certain bunch of girls on Tues. night. The boys were certainly rough with their shoes.

The girls sure did enjoy their trip to Alpine, but they all wanted to make sure they got back in time for their dates that night.

Where was everybody when James Albert and Sty were looking for them Tues. afternoon?

Which did you enjoy the most, Maurine, the show or — — — ?

Marshall is already missing Virginia, but then who isn't?

"Five mornings a week, nine months a year, we mothers of Texas get our children ready for school. In our home and a million other Texas homes, that's one of the first and most important duties of a mother's day. Sometimes Dad finds out what a job it is when he has to do it by himself."

All of us want our children to have the best education possible. Most of us look to the public schools for this.

Fortunately, Texas has the best public schools in the South. Helping to build and operate them is the Texas petroleum industry which pays 24 million dollars a year in taxes for school purposes.

These petroleum taxes pay an average of one-fourth the cost of educating our children. Altogether, they meet the entire expense of schooling nearly 400,000 Texas boys and girls.

In addition, oil has contributed substantially to the 70 million dollar permanent school fund. Oil is also responsible for much of the 30 million dollar permanent university fund, which has made possible the expansion of the University of Texas and A. & M. College.

Furthermore, taxes on petroleum products add another 11 1/2 million dollars a year for the schools of our State.

Our children get a better education today because of the Texas petroleum industry.

ADOLF SI SAYS—

Adolf a little bit of resistance. Now, this Adolf's old mother don't know it yet but we seen a picture where this Adolf had treed the bear, all right, but couldn't come home because he is farther out on the limb than the bear is. In other words, the treed bear has got him cut off from the trunk.

THE END (of the story, and we hope, of this Adolf.)

BEAR STORY NO. 2

Once upon another time there lived in Austin, Texas the greatest football team that ever sniffed the fragrant breeze wafted off a Rose Bowl. This team was so powerful, according to sports writers, fans and statisticians, that no man, beast or machine could stand up against it. Its aggregate score, up to a certain date, read like Uncle Sam's appropriations.

Once upon a time this same time there lived in Waco, Texas a humble little bear—so mild in mien and manner that he was thought to be of the harmless honey specie of bruin. He had been boxed, kicked, and cuffed roughly about by all the upstarts of that neighborhood and was considered the most domestic of all domestic animals.

However, on a certain sad Saturday this great football team, to whom we shall refer from hereout as a big Texas longhorn steer, horned into this little bear's den. What happened?? This little brown bear, seen' red for the first time, "ris" upon his hind legs and literally fair-grounded, hog tied and dehorned the snakiest cow brute that ever jerked the riggin' out of a saddle or sent a cowboy up a tree.

MORAL: Remember the Russian Bear and the Baylor Bear and bear in mind that the feller who thinks he can't lose stands a bare chance of always winnin'.

THE END
 Uncle Yulleck says that America is geared, but not exactly for total defense. "The army is in high gear; production is in low gear; some religions in neutral; and the Wheelers, Lindberghs and labor in reverse."

RED CROSS—

Roll Call of the American Red Cross, says:

"Once every year, at Roll Call, the American Red Cross asks our support through membership. Annual enrollment of fees provide the funds for all of those activities at home which we associate with the Red Cross, such as disaster relief, first aid and water safety teaching, public health work, and, of paramount importance today, the welfare service to our men in the armed forces and their dependents.

"In keeping with its charter relief agency has already expended its work in all these fields. It faces an even greater expansion of all those services which means so much to the maintenance of the health and morale of our people. At no time in the past twenty years has our generous support of the Red Cross been so essential. I urge all our citizens to join their local Red Cross Chapters as members during the Roll Call, November 11-30."

The Sanderson Boy Scouts recently entered an order for 17 new shirts and other equipment in their drive to outfit the entire troop in uniform. Scoutmaster Smith indicated that they expect to appear in full uniform soon.

Application has been made by the troop for the Concho Valley Council President Cox award. This is a banner given to a troop when it has invested four new boys over a given period. This requirement has already been met by the local troop. Emmett D. Cox, president of the council, extends the award in an effort to maintain a large enrollment in the B. S. A. of this part of Texas.

was set for the first counter after Stavley slung a pass from his 16-yard line to Cochran on the Rankin 45 from where he carried on to the Rankin 23. On the next play, Stavley charged over his right end, cut back behind the line of scrimmage and dodging tacklers went over on a spot in front of the left end. The conversion was not gained, and the score was 6-0.

The second score was made at the tail end of the game, but it took half the quarter, playing around the goal line to get the ball over. Rankin's kick was caught by Cochran on the Sanderson 33 and he got back to the 36. Stavley went over left tackle to the 42, then a pass was incomplete, and again Stavley ran, this time to the Rankin 43. Bell broke over right tackle for nine yards to the 34, and Joe Bean, pulled to the backfield for injured Litton, made six more over center. Stavley reached the 21 over right tackle and added four more yards over left tackle. Bell got a yard at right end and then Stavley added eight yards the next two plays. Cochran picked up two yards at center and Bell darted in at left end and plunged to the 1-foot line.

A fumble on the next play was recovered by a Rankin player. On a fake punt play, McDonald of Rankin ran out to the 8, and Van Zandt got through a hole in the middle of the line to the 15. Three consecutive passes
