During the past semester he has been band director of the Carlsbad High School, New Mexico.

Father of Mrs. McKnight Succumbs To Heart Attack

Word was received Friday afternoon of last week by Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McKnight that F. M. Dunklin, father of Mrs. McKnight, had died suddenly of a heart attack.

Mr. McKnight and Mrs. McKnight, who had returned Thursday from a Del Rio hospital, left immediately for Henderson, but when they reached San Antonio it was necessary to place her in a hospital. Sunday morning Mr. McKnight continued to Henderson to attend the funeral services which were held that afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist Church there.

Upon his return here Tuesday he stated that Mrs. McKnight was getting along fine and that he expected her to be able to return within the next few days.

Ranch Ladies Study 'Flu', Child Health With Mrs. Jessup

The Ranch Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, January 21 in the home of Mrs. Ernest Jessup. The program was opened by the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "Hi, Neighbor!" Mrs. Jack Hardgraves gave a most interesting and instructive talk on "Influenza," giving something on the nature of the disease, its seriousness, the symptoms, daily care of one suffering with the disease, and the importance of care as the patient convalesces.

Mrs. Frank Martz, Pecos County Health Nurse, gave a very educational discussion on Child Management and Parent Education.

Red Cross Garments were distributed to the members to be completed.

The Ranch Club voted to discontinue having two meetings a month and will meet instead on the first Wednesday of each month at 9:30 A. M. for an all day meeting, at the most centrally located home, that of Mrs. C. C. Mitchell.

Following a period of recreation, the hostess served a delicious salad course to the following: Mrs. Joe F. Brown, Mrs. Albert Appel Jr., Mrs. John W. Byrd, Mrs. Sid Harkins, Mrs. Jack Hardgraves, Mrs. N. M. Mitchell, Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Alfred Bendele, Mrs. M. J. Shurley, Mrs. Donald Duncan, Mrs. Fulton and Mrs. Frank Martz of Fort Stockton.

The next meeting will be held February 4.

Suggestions To New Ranch Income Tax Payers

College Station—Ranchers who will be required to make their first income tax return by next March 15, have the choice of two methods in computing the tax on their 1941 incomes. One is the "accrual" and the other "cash."

According to Tyrus R. Timm, economist in farm management of the A. & M. College Extension Service, "accrual" means that beginning and end-of-the-year inventories, as well as cash expenses, cash incomes, accrued incomes and prepaid expenses are used in determining profits. Those who keep no records, or only records of cash receipts and disbursements must use the "cash" method. Timm suggests that farmers and ranchmen who have not paid income taxes prior to this year should study the alternative methods before making their selections as the one chosen is binding for succeeding years unless another method is authorized by the Internal Revenue Bureau. Even in that case certain adjustments of income are necessary.

More than 95 percent of Texas farmers and ranchers who paid income tax in 1940 used the "cash" method.

Examining both methods, Timm first points out that unmarried farmers whose GROSS incomes were $750 or more, and married farmers with gross incomes of $1,500 or over, are required to file returns. A deduction of $400 is allowed for each eligible dependent.

Under the "cash" method, all cash received from sale of livestock, livestock products, crops and other income from similar sources, together with cash received for work and other services outside the farm are subject to tax. All governmental payments received should also be included. Income not subject to tax include increases in inventories still on the farm, farm products used by the family (if production costs not included) and state refund on gas tax, provided the net cost of gasoline is reported.

Cost of livestock, livestock products and crop purchased which are sold within the year are expenses which may be deducted in the tax return, Timm says. If desired, as capital asset, depreciation may be taken on livestock for work breeding, or dairy purposes. Other deductibles permitted include ordinary and necessary expenses on feeding and raising livestock, as well as all other disbursements in crop production, cultivating and processing; depreciation on farm buildings (except residences), permanent improvements and major implements; depreciations on small orchards, usual charges on small tools; death losses of purchased livestock; state, county, school, poll and gasoline taxes; automobile and truck licenses; and gifts to charity, religion and the charitable institutions.

Timm says that county agricultural agents have record books and other forms which will be helpful to farmers in preparing their returns.

Response To Sale of Christmas Seals Generous

The response received by those in charge of Christmas seals was very gratifying, according to Mrs. John D. Harrison, chairman of the committee.

She reported this week that $281.00 had been collected from the sale of the seals and that of that amount sixty per cent, or $168.60, would remain in the local Parent-Teacher Association Health Fund. The balance has been sent to the national organization working in an effort to reduce the death rate from tuberculosis.

Mrs. Harrison also stated that she wishes to express sincere thanks to all who had a part in so generously supporting this worthy cause, both for herself and committee and for the Parent-Teacher organization.

Eagles Win Big Lake Tourney; Cochran Named Best Player

The Sanderson High School trophy case has a new bulge in it that wasn't present before last week end, and several of the boys are wearing shining emblems of victory in the form of basketballs.

The new bulge is caused by a cup earned by the Eagles in Big Lake last Friday and Saturday when they triumphed over three other teams to win the Reagan County Invitational Basketball Tournament, the fourteenth such meet to be held.

The final game, deciding the winner, was played between Sanderson and Imperial, and although managing three field goals the first half, resting between periods 8-6, the Imperial squad got the ball through the basket only on free tosses all through the second half.

A game of district significance will be played tonight in the Sanderson gym when the Eagles meet the Fort Davis quintet. Game time has been set for 7:30 and regular admissions will be charged.

Coach Bodie Hunter had these remarks to make concerning the game. "Good attendance at the games will insure continued Eagle appearance in the tournaments held in various West Texas schools. A state championship is in the offing for a successful team, and good backing will help provide that success."

The Eagles, on the other hand, made only 8 point in the first period, but came back to make thirteen more before the game ended with a score of 21-12.

Bill Cochran, Eagle center, stood out over the rest of the tournament eligibles and was declared best all-round player of the tournament. For this he was awarded a gold, diamond-studded basketball. On the all-tournament team, Sanderson placed Ross Stavley, but the Eagle play showed that it stars not as individuals, but as a team. In the Imperial game, Joe Bean and Bill Davis made 6 points each, Stavley made 4, Whistler gained 3 and Cochran counted for 2.

(See Box Score, back page) Prior to the final game, the Eagles defeated the Ozona and Lakeview teams in the preliminaries. The Lakeview five went under fighting, 23-18, trailing at the half, 12-3. Ozona fared worse, getting trounced 41-26. In this game, Coach Hunter played his second team nearly half the game.

Monday night, the Eagles stopped over in Fort Stockton, and fresh from their tournament victory, walloped the Panthers in both A and B divisions. The main squad cut up 38-27, and the B team walked off 27-14.

Place of Residence As Given By Registrant Final

A Selective Service registrant, at the forthcoming February 16 registration of men in the military service age bracket of 20 to 45 years old, who has more than one place of residence may choose which one he wants recorded as his place of residence to designate the Local Board that will always have jurisdiction over him, General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, said today.

General Page emphasized, however, that no transient address may be recorded and that Selective Service Regulations prohibit any interference or dictation by a registrant when a registrant who has more than one place of residence is making his choice as to which he desires recorded as his home address.

"It is the intent of the law and the purpose of Selective Service Regulations," General Page pointed out, "that each man be registered at his home address and be subject to call to fill quotas from that Local Board. That is basic principle of democratic procedure and I expect every Selective Service registrar in the State of Texas to adhere to it."

Registration cards to be used February 16th will contain a space for the registrant to list his place of residence. In the event that he has more than one place, he is required to list his own choice as his place of residence. In addition, the registration card will have space for recording a mail address. This may be the same as the place of residence or it may be another address where the registrant will receive his mail more readily.

Selective Service Regulations also require each registrant to describe the place of his residence so that its location may be determined from its description. A registrant who lives on an R. F. D. route will be required to supplement his mailing address by a description of the location of his residence. For this reason, and because some registrants may be able to receive their mail more readily at an address other than their place of residence, the regulation card has spaces for both addresses.

A description of the place of residence of the registrant, General Page stressed, will once and for all time determine the local board that will have jurisdiction over the registrant. The mailing address, however, can be changed when necessary and local boards will send their notices to the mailing addresses without regard to the place of residence. While the mailing address is subject to change whenever the registrant moves, General Page pointed out, registrants are instructed that once he designates his place of residence he irrevocably designates the local board which will have continuous jurisdiction over him.

BALLET LENGTH FOR DANCING
So-called "ballet-length," or mid-calf length, skirts are seen at all the winter resorts and at home town dances. Girls put velvet ribbons on their toesless dancing slippers, when wearing the new ballet-length evening dresses, winding the ribbon about their ankles for a true ballerina effect. This New York creation has a "ballet-length" skirt of lustrous black taffeta over a pink satin petticoat, and a simple jersey bodice.

★ AT THE PRINCESS ★

INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON (Sunday and Monday)

Josef, the Pole, avenging his homeland in the skies; Nick, the Greek, fighting for his native land; Jan, the Czech, settling a score aloft; these men, and their counterparts from France, Holland, Belgium, Norway and other countries, make up the most colorful of all the R.A.F.'s many squadrons.

Men without countries, they have joined forces with the British in the hope of striking a death blow at the enemy that destroyed their homelands. To this squadron is dedicated the new motion picture, "International Squadron."

It is the tale of a reckless Yankee, played by Ronald Reagan, born independent, who finds the hard way that he is only a small part of a huge war. He learns that the International Squadron is a band of followers and not a group of leaders, each with his own method of doing things, and that they consent, not request that a fighter join them. If you can't place Reagan, perhaps you remember him as George Gyp in "Knut Rockne, All American."

Olympe Bradna, a French girl who drives a taxi for the squadron; William Lundigan, Joan Perry, and Reginald Denny lend assistance in the cast.

TARZAN'S SECRET TREASURE (Wednesday and Thursday)

The King of the jungle, and not Leo, the lion, is back on the screen with more he-man adventures; this time with his mate and their adopted son, Johnny Weismuller, Maureen O'Sullivan and John Sheffield play the roles respectively.

Their jungle home disturbed by gold-seeking white men and blood-seeking natives, the trio are forced into more desperate action, and with the aid of their jungle stooges, restore peace.

The story stays in the jungle, and Maureen is the only female appearing, so love scenes are few, and sirens nil. There's the usual menagerie, with Cheeta the monkey, and Bull the baby elephant starring in the animal cast.

Reginald Owen, professor-explorer, Barry Fitzgerald Tom Conway and Philip Dorn complete the major cast.

SMALL TOWN DEB (Tuesday)

Jane Withers, still growing up giving growing pains to the family, stars in Tuesday's picture. Her family is poor and getting poorer, so sister, Cobina Wright Jr., begins casting flies toward the town's rich son, Bruce Edwards. Brother, Jack Searl, has girl troubles, and they aren't soothed by the help of little sister. Dad has book troubles, and Jane assists him to further tangle them.

But the swoose-age lassie, with ingenious devices, manages to bring about reconciliation to all needing it, and this culmination makes the picture complete.

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE (Friday and Saturday)

George Montgomery, man-sized Montana cowboy, portrays another of Zane Grey's famous characters in one of Grey's own stories in the show next week end.

Lassiter, roving gunman, seeking law breakers, finds time to stop at a small Arizona town to break up a gang of killers who are creating a reign of terror for the local ranchmen and their daughters.

Mary Howard plays the feminine lead, and the leader of the gang will be found among Kane Richmond, Robert Barrat, Lynn Roberts.

Facts About Your Income Tax Return

To make it easier for taxpayers to meet the increased taxes required by the National Defense Program, the Treasury Department is offering for sale two series of notes, both dated August 1, 1941, and maturing August 1, 1943.

In January of each year two new series will be provided so that a taxpayer can always purchase notes during the entire year in which he is receiving his income for use in payment of taxes due the following year. The reason for the two-year note is to permit a taxpayer, if he so desires, to begin saving in January of one year and continue through that year to save for his taxes due the following year.

All notes are sold at par and accrued interest. When presented in payment of income taxes they will be received at par and accrued interest up to and including the month in which such taxes are paid. Interest will not accrue beyond the maturity of the notes. If not presented in payment of income taxes, they will be redeemed for cash under certain specified conditions at the purchase price paid for the notes. In other words, the taxpayer, if he redeems the notes for cash, gets back just the amount he paid.

Complete information about these Treasury notes will be found in a Treasury Department Circular available at local banks, Federal Reserve Banks and branches, or Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

ARSENALS OF INFORMATION

America's libraries are to become arsenals of defense information.

Swamped with requests for information on all phases of the war and national defense, from how to meet a paratrooper to how to knit, the nation's librarians are responding eagerly with available material.

"I hope that the librarians of the country will feel that they have a great obligation to help in civilian defense," said Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Director of the Office of Civilian Defense, in charge of volunteer participation. "First by making available to the general public official literature on civilian defense obtained from State and local defense councils; and, second, by supplying defense councils on request the specific information on problems as they arise."

VICTORY BICYCLES

Plans to produce this year approximately 750,000 "Victory Model" bicycles, designed to meet adult civilian requirements, have been made by the national bicycle industry.

The bicycles, stripped almost completely of critical materials, gadgets and bright work, weigh only 34 pounds, compared with an average weight of 40 pounds for bicycles made in 1941. About 10,000,000 are now in operation in the United States. Of these about 10,000,000 are used by children. Model" is designed for use by adults.

PORTABLE HOUSING

Erection of 100,000 portable housing units at Marfa, Texas, has been authorized. Units are included in the construction of 42,000 units recently was authorized by President Roosevelt.

Designed for rapid removal and rapid removal of portable housing is considered the best method of meeting the housing shortage in communities, where it is expected to be most acute in the post-war period. Much permanent housing might result in the interim.

HOW MUCH

Is a Bank Worth to its Community?

You may know how much a week you should pay a bookkeeper or ranchhand, but how much a week is a good bank worth to you?

A good bank's services should be worth what you pay for them. A bank to handle your account, including a fair return on your invested capital. By maintaining a balance in proportion to your account's activity, or by paying a small, or highly active account, otherwise would cause the bank to "do your part."

Sound banking requires support from the public as well as from bankers.

LIFE OF A SENIOR

By Lois Bea Osgood

Seventeen years ago this coming August 25, the old stork left a precious little baby boy in the Deaton home in Del Rio. Mr. and Mrs. Deaton named this little fellow Loyd Jr. He had brown hair and blue eyes and he still has them. You should see those eyes some time!

Loyd came to Sanderson last year as a junior. This year in school he is taking typing, plane geometry, physics, American history, English 4—of which his favorite is physics. The clubs that he participates in are military training, Morse code and radio, and radio is his favorite of his clubs.

Among his likes are books written by James Grey, "Suwannee River", "Elmer's Tune", Gene Autry, Lana Turner, Mickey Rooney, Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, the movie "Great Guns", chicken, steak, avocado salad, and brunettes. His dislikes are few but to give you an idea he dislikes the food asparagus, and blonds?

Loyd has a variety of hobbies but his main ones are radio, taxidermy, and model airplane. His favorite sport is basketball and he takes part in it and also in baseball and track. Red and black are his favorite colors so you can see why he likes brunettes the best.

Mr. Deaton has been a good student in school and also likes it very much, and after he finishes this year he plans to continue school at Texas Tech.

SNOOPER HEARS NOTHING SEES NOTHING TELLS ALL

Seen sneaking around watching the Choral Club girls after school—Sam Bell, Lee McSparan, and Dick Hill. We wonder why.

What on earth do Jacky Duke and Clara Alice find to talk about all the time? It doesn't look like the shortage of rubber or gasoline will effect the boys' courting.

Some of the girls, especially one, were certainly glad to see Curtis back in school. Donald Smith was seen at the show one night last week with a very attractive blond—not one of our high school blonds either.

It's good for Snooper's eyes to see Ross Stavley and Marybelle walking down the hall together. We like to see Joe Ross and Polly smiling at each other.

Billie Babb, where did you get your football? We wonder if Ross gets his wisecracks out of a blue book.

Curtis was overheard challenging Miss Nixon to a race the other day. It seems that the boys have organized a bachelor's club with this motto: "See a girl, fall for her, get two-timed and join the Bachelor's Club." Maybe it's your own fault, boys.

Lois Bea, who was it that you were with Thursday night? Come, come, Lois. Betty F., who was it that you were with Monday night, "kinda cute."

Wilma Lois M. seems to have the heart of a blond haired young man. The Snooper has heard that there is quite a little disturbance since he came to town.

Lois Bea and — had to walk home the other night, what happened to the car, Lois? Adeline, Betty F. and two unknown persons seemed to have a good time Saturday. Come, come, girls. What did you do, and where did you go?

What made Billie Babb so quick to move back by Curtis in Newspaper club? W. T., if you would only hurry a little bit you might get a date with Janice sometimes. It seems you are always just a little late.

The Snooper has just seen the happiest girl in school—Maurine Frazier since Sty returned. Why does Betty Frazier like to get letters from San Antonio? It couldn't be because of a certain little boy could it?

Adeline is quite lonesome since one nice young man went away. Uncle Sam first, Adeline. Speaking of being lonesome, J. D. looks like a lost sheep. I can't blame him, however. She was really one sweet girl.

Well, we still have those same two swell couples but nothing to write about them—Pauline and Joe Ross, and Margaret Ruth and Dick.

Awards Presented To Eagles Playing In Big Lake Meet

On Monday morning awards from the Big Lake Invitation Basketball Tournament were presented at a high school assembly program. The Sanderson Eagles were winners of first place at the tournament and were given a beautiful gold trophy. Each of the following eight boys received small gold basketballs: Ross Stavley, Joe Bean, John Lewis Whistler, Bill Davis, Bill Cochran, Harold Haynes, Edward Kerr and Frank Stavley.

Furrows Bring Back Grass

E. A. Keathley, Glasscock County ranchman, right, tells Howard Kingsbery, ranchman-member of the State AAA Committee, that contour furrowing done under the AAA's range conservation program has put more grass on his ranch than he ever had before.

As I Was Saying

By Aynah Nemus

A gentleman with a worried countenance lounged from the store into our little mixed group on the sidewalk, and rather unceremoniously, in the middle of one of my sentences, queried:

"Which of you men here are married? I'm looking for the perfect husband."

Affirmation of different proportions came from three of the four men.

No. 1 man said, "Besides Dagwood, I'm the most married man on earth, so you can count me out. The perfect husband is he who never feels married." His wife was absent.

No. 2 man: "And I have a wife—and what a wife! She's one of those who share all the trouble you wouldn't have had if you hadn't married in the first place. At noon when you come home famished, she's spent the morning cleaning house, and didn't have time to cook anything but a pot of beans. And in the evening when you come in with stomach trouble and feel only like being in bed, she's prepared a banquet and raves cause you won't eat." His wife also was conspicuously missing from the group.

Said the third man, "Nope, I'm a bachelor. One of them guys who has never made the same mistake once."

And No. 4: "Oh, I'm perfectly and happily married, ain't I wife, darling?" The stranger shook his head.

"Well," he said, rather sadly, "I see I won't find him here."

And with a very blue air, he strolled off. As he left, I noticed two young ladies standing nearby, and when the stranger had passed, one of them said,

"There's the man I'd like to marry. He's perfect."

Although most people don't realize it, glare can be as harmful to eyes as not enough light. Direct rays of light shining into the eyes cause constant blinking, which results in nervous fatigue and eyestrain. If you have a bare bulb hanging from a drop cord or a single unit ceiling fixture in which the bulb is not shielded from the eyes, try one of these smart new plastic adapter units which have been designed to correct this condition at low cost.

TIN, LEAD SCRAP CONTROL

Priorities control over tin and lead scrap has been announced. Under the order, a scrap dealer may not accept deliveries of tin and lead scrap unless during the preceding sixty days he has disposed of scrap in an amount equal to inventory on the delivery date. Monthly reports by scrap dealers and consumers on all transactions also are required.

To assure a steady flow of copper scrap into war industries, the OPM recently has decreed that no deliveries of copper or brass scrap may be made except to a scrap dealer, or, if brass scrap, to a brass mill.

TIRE RATIONING VITAL

Relaxation of tire rationing at the present time because production of synthetic rubber is being expanded would be "dangerous and foolhardy", U. S. Price Administrator Leon Henderson has warned.

"It will be at least 18 months, and possibly longer, before any substantial quantity of synthetic rubber becomes available," Mr. Henderson explained. "According to reports today from the Far East, rubber plantations are being laid waste and processing plants destroyed to prevent their falling into Japanese hands. Under these circumstances, it is entirely possible that every pound of synthetic rubber that can be produced in the future may be needed for direct military use."

Hunters Asked To Refrain From Shooting Pigeons

Austin—Even birds are joining Uncle Sam's army, and believe it or not, they'll play a big part in winning the war, the Game Department revealed today.

There's no joke about this. The species referred to is the Antwerp Messenger Pigeon, commonly called the carrier pigeon. In the Army Signal Corps they have what is known as Pigeon Service, and one of the eight base lofts in the United States is located in Texas to serve the army Eighth Corps Area.

The Legislature last year passed a law making it illegal to kill or maim or molest any of these carrier pigeons in Texas. Game Wardens months ago were instructed to enforce this law diligently and all other peace officers have the right to enforce it. To date the Game Department has no record of a single violation, but the Department today warned sportsmen to be on the alert and never take a shot at one of these birds. It may be bearing an important army message.

The question then bobs up, "How can I identify a carrier pigeon?" That's about as tough as the identification of ducks by inexperienced (or experienced) waterfowl hunters who are supposed to leave some species alone.

The carrier pigeon closely resembles the common domestic pigeon you see every day around town. Their coloration varies, just as does the coloration of the domestic pigeon. So you won't get any help at all there. But they are a little smaller than the domestic pigeon, and more streamlined-built, ay, like mourning doves. The carrier pigeons are larger than mourning doves, however.

Since carrier pigeons are thus virtually indistinguishable from domestic pigeons, the best thing to do in order to stay within the law and help out the army would seem to be just to let all pigeons alone. Don't kill any of them.

Of Importance To Truck Owners Of Texas

Austin—Texas is about to be branded a slacker in one phase of its National Defense effort, State Police Director Homer Garrison declared today.

The War Department has set Jan. 31 as the deadline for completion of its nationwide inventory of trucks and busses. Thus far only 60 per cent of Texas truck and bus owners have returned their questionnaires Garrison said. This means that the owners of 100,000 commercial vehicles in Texas have failed or refused to cooperate with the War Department.

"This inventory is essential to intelligent planning for emergency transportation needs," Garrison said. "The press, the radio and state and local officers have given it wide publicity. Inventory forms have been sent to the owners of all vehicles, and duplicate forms have been sent to those whose reports have not yet been received. It is inconceivable that anyone concerned has not been informed of the survey and of its purpose and significance. The inevitable conclusion is that a very large number of supposedly patriotic people in Texas have refused to cooperate in the survey because they are afraid that by doing so they might subject their vehicles to requisition by the Army. As a matter of fact, however, the Army has registration lists of all commercial vehicles, and if forced to do so could requisition vehicles indiscriminately. Therefore, the person who holds out is accomplishing nothing but confusion.

"Every County Judge in Texas has a supply of blank inventory cards. Any truck or bus owner who has failed to receive his card, or who has lost it, should exercise his patriotic duty immediately by obtaining one of these cards and mailing it to the War Department, 1222 West Commerce, San Antonio.

"Persuasion and appeals to patriotic duty having failed, I know of but one remaining method short of legal force by which this task can be accomplished. That is to call upon every peace officer, every service station and garage man, every truck or bus owner and driver and the citizenship at large to take upon himself the duty of helping to save our State from being branded a slacker by the War Department. I urge all these people to ask every truck and bus driver and owner they come in contact with if he has returned his inventory card; and, if he has not, to tell him that he can get one from his County Judge, and urge him to send it in immediately."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pruett of Marfa spent last week end here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Peavy. They are parents of Mrs. Peavy.
