MRS. MABEL YEATES

Mrs. Mabel Yeates Seeks Re-Election As Justice of Peace

Mrs. Mabel Yeates announced yesterday that she will again be a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, precinct 1, which she has held for the past term. Her candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic primary of July 25.

Mrs. Yeates feels that the citizens of this precinct want her to continue in the capacity of this office; and she places her name on the ballot on the strength of the requests that have been made that she run again.

A Sanderson citizen since childhood, Mrs. Yeates is familiar with the people and problems of this community; and she states that on her selection she will follow her former procedure of putting her best efforts into the work as Justice.

Navy Recruits Must Apply for Entrance Before Draft Exam

Houston—A change in policy just announced by the War Department wherein all acceptable registrants in the Selective Service System will be inducted into the Army at the time of reporting for the Army physical examination makes necessary a slight change in the policy of the Naval Reserve for the enlistment of men, it was declared here Monday by Lieutenant Commander B. D. Wood, USNR, Officer-in-Charge of the Houston Navy Recruiting District.

"Under the new policy," the commander said, "a selectee may be enlisted in the Naval Reserve even though he has received his orders from the local draft board to report for the Army physical examination, but he must enlist prior to reporting for the Army physical. The mere fact that a man has applied for enlistment in the Naval Reserve but has not taken the Oath of Allegiance does not exempt him from the jurisdiction of the Selective Service System."

In the past, he pointed out, it has been the policy of the local draft boards to allow selectees from ten to thirty days after receiving the Army physical examination before issuing them the induction orders. The new ruling announced by the War Department eliminates this waiting period and automatically inducts an acceptable selectee into the Army at the time he takes his physical examination.

The only exception to this new policy is in the case of a man who has made a formal application for a commission in the Navy or Naval Reserve, Lieutenant Commander Wood stated. In such a case, a selectee may, upon application to his local draft board, be allowed sixty days deferment before induction in order to complete the application for a commission.

It was emphasized that men enlisting in the Naval Reserve must do so before reporting for the Army physical examination.

Nunn-Davis Rites Read in Marfa Friday Morning

A surprise wedding among the younger set of Sanderson took place in Marfa, Friday, February 27th, when Miss Deborah Nunn and Mr. B. F. Davis were united with a single ring ceremony. They were attended by Miss Jane Ord and Holden Murrah. Judge L. F. Hurley performed the ceremony at his home.

Mrs. Davis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Nunn of Sanderson and is one of the most popular of the younger set. Mr. Davis is the son of Mrs. Houston Stokes, graduating from the Sanderson High School in 1941, and was employed for several months with the Vega Aircraft Co. of Burbank, Calif.

Following a short honeymoon trip the couple returned here Thursday where Mr. Davis is awaiting call from the Navy. His experience with the aircraft company has qualified him for a rating in the Aircraft Maintenance of the Naval Aircraft, and he signed up for service March 1. His call will probably come within the next few weeks.

Scofield Gives Last Warning for Filing Income Tax Returns

Collector of Internal Revenue Frank Scofield calls attention to the fact that there are only a few more days in which to file an income tax return. All income tax returns must be in the office of a Collector of Internal Revenue before midnight, March 16, 1942, in order to avoid a penalty.

It is not necessary that you pay the entire amount due on the day you file your income tax return. These payments may be made quarterly, the first being one-fourth of the amount due and being paid on March 16, 1942, or on the day your income tax return is filed. The second will be due June 15, 1942, the third on September 15, 1942, and the fourth on December 15, 1942.

The law not only imposes severe penalties for failing to make a return, or for making a false or fraudulent return, but it imposes penalties for failing to file a return on time. And this return must be in the hands of the collector or his authorized agent on or before midnight, March 16, 1942—or penalties will attach.

This is the last warning which can be issued to the taxpayers of South Texas from Collector Scofield, and he has expressed his sincere hope that all citizens who are liable for income tax will have made a return or will make one before March 16 and avoid the penalties he will have to impose for failure to file.

Friday Club Meets With Mrs. Richard Haley

Mrs. Richard Haley entertained the Friday Bridge Club at her home on Friday of last week.

Mrs. Bill Tisdale was winner of high score prize and Mrs. Conway Pickard won second high score prize.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Nance, served a delectable salad plate to the following: Mesdames Orville Work, Paul Collins, Jack Laughlin, P. P. Courtney, Percy Gray, Bill Tisdale, Conway Pickard and J. D. Weaver.

SON TO MONROE

A baby son, Albert Eugene, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Monroe of Sheffield, Friday, February 27, according to information received here. The young man weighed in at an Iraan hospital at six pounds. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willie Banner.

DENTIST PLANS SANDERSON VISIT EVERY THURSDAY

Dr. Leo Daniel, Fort Stockton dentist, has announced that he will resume his regular itinerary to Sanderson in order to better serve his customers here.

Dr. Daniel has announced that his office will be in the office of Dr. R. E. Lester and that he will be in Sanderson Thursday of each week. He feels that this service will avoid the necessity of a long drive and in this manner save his customers both time and money.

Army Ordnance Department Seeks Enlisted Men

Enlisted men wanted in Ordnance Department. The War Department has advised that they desire a large number of enlisted men from 18 years up for service in this vital and interesting branch of the United States Army.

College men with engineering training, mechanics, automotive men, electricians, welders, and others of this calibre are urgently needed by the Ordnance Department. The procedure to be followed is this, any man who is interested should personally call upon the Ordnance Officer at the nearest Army Post, for example, Fort Sill at Lawton, Camp Wolters at Mineral Wells, Camp Barkley at Abilene, Fort Bliss at El Paso, or at the Corps Area Ordnance Office, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

If the Ordnance Officer at such Post or Station advises the candidate desirable for the Ordnance of the War Department, he will give the candidate a letter addressed "To Whom It May Concern", stating that the man has been interviewed by an Ordnance representative and found desirable for assignment to the Ordnance Department. The man will then take this letter with him when he goes to enlist through United States Army Recruiting Service or when he volunteers for induction through the local Selective Service Board. If accepted for general enlistment this letter, which he will keep until he reaches a Reception Center will be authority for such Reception Center to send him immediately to Ordnance Department Replacement Training Center, if available requisitions permit.

The Ordnance is one of the vital services of the Army, being responsible for all the guns and ammunitions and for distribution to the fighting man. Men who wish excellent training, combined with the chance of active service near the front lines can well consider opportunities available in the Ordnance Department.

Mrs. R. D. Holt Hostess To Wednesday Club

Mrs. R. D. Holt was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge Club at her home Wednesday afternoon when she entertained with three tables of bridge.

Defense stamps were given as prizes when Mrs. W. H. Savage won high score and Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson was winner of second high.

A lovely frozen salad plate was served to Mesdames Roy Bogusch, James Caroline, Toi Murrah, C. P. Peavy, Steve Stumberg, R. S. Wilkinson, W. H. Savage, Johnnie Williams, Peter D. Parker, Bruce Kaufman, Lee McCue, James Kerr and John Reining-er.

DAUGHTER

Minta Jo is the name given the little Miss who made her appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Schwabe February 20. She weighed six pounds and six ounces at the time of her arrival in a hospital in Del Rio where her parents have moved to make their home.

Schools Visited By Deputy State Superintendent

S. M. Melton, deputy state superintendent of this district, visited the Sanderson Schools on February 25. This was the annual visit made by a representative of the State Department of Education to all accredited schools. Mr. Melton checked some of the work being done in all the three schools and commended some of the work highly, especially work being carried on in defense lines and the library work.

The Sanderson High School now has 31 units of affiliation with both the State Department of Education of Texas and with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The number of subjects offered has been gradually increased during the past few years. For example in 1934-35, eighteen subjects or credits of work were being offered. Most of the new subjects added in recent years have been such as woodwork, laboratory of industries, junior business training, chemistry, economics, Texas history, world history, library training, public speaking and several other subjects.

At the present time, in light of the national emergency and war conditions, work is being offered in military training, first aid, nutrition, food conservation, Morse code, model airplane making, sheet metal work, air raid precautions, and radio.

DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lemons Jr. of Lorraine, are the parents of a seven and a half pound baby daughter born March 4 according to announcements received here by relatives and friends. The young lady was born in a hospital at Roscoe and has been named Nina Lou. Her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Luella Lemons, is there with them for a visit and reports that both mother and daughter are getting along fine.

C. E. Clymer Jr. left Thursday for a business trip to San Antonio.

Lesters Injured In Auto-Train Collision

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lester were injured seriously Monday night when the car in which they were riding collided with a freight train at the crossing about two miles east of Sanderson. Dr. Lester was driving and failed to see the train traveling over the crossing in time to avoid a collision.

The train was traveling east and Dr. and Mrs. Lester were returning from making a call near Dryden when the accident occurred. The right front fender struck the train first and the front wheel, fender, and most of the motor on that side were

Home Ec Supervisor Pleased by Work Of Sanderson Schools

Mrs. Oneita Pierce, homemaking supervisor of this district, made her annual visit of inspection in the Sanderson High School recently and gave the school a good report. Commendation was made for some of the work observed such as offering such courses to girls in the upper elementary in both the white school and in the Latin American school. The Sanderson High School has been receiving subsidy in the field of homemaking for thirteen years. At present the amount received is $141 annually for teaching vocational homemaking. Mrs. Pierce reported that the state rally for homemaking girls is definitely cancelled. For the past six years at least two Sanderson girls and their teacher have made trips to the state rally.

BABY SON SUCCUMBS

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mason who died at birth Tuesday. Services were held at the Oberkampff Funeral parlor with the Rev. J. Y. Bowman in charge.

TO OUR READERS—

There are many on our subscription list who are in arrears with their payments and, although it is in great part due to our negligent manner in mailing statements upon expiration dates, the time has come when we must ask that all subscriptions be paid for in advance.

One reason for this is to comply with postal regulations, but the main reason is due to the fact that paper is becoming more difficult to obtain and is going up in price. If we are able to discontinue mailings to those who do not care for the Times then we save paper and help ourselves and help to relieve the paper shortage due to wartime conditions.

We do not want to lose a single one of our readers and we have always continued to mail the Times for we know that the majority want it to continue coming and payment will be made when we request it. There are some few, however, who will not trouble to renew their subscriptions. To find out just who these readers are we must ask that every subscriber pay in advance which will enable us to know those who want to continue their subscription and those who do not.

Appearing with your name on the paper are numbers which will enable you to see whether your subscription has expired. The first number is the month and the second, the year. All expiration dates are marked up to the first of the month to eliminate extra numerals. For example, if you find "12-41" to the right of your name as it is stamped on the Times, you will know that your subscription expired December 1, 1941. If your paper carries the date, "2-42", you will know that your subscription expired February 1, 1942, and so on. Check your expiration date and if it does not correspond with your records notify us at once so that we may correct the matter.

In the future our policy will be to mail statements for subscriptions when they expire. If payment isn't forthcoming, a second notice will be mailed the middle of the month and final notice will be given the next first. If payment is not received the subscription will be discontinued. Not because we are afraid that our readers will not pay sooner or later, but because we feel this is the best policy to follow in the conservation of our newsprint supply.

sheared away. The car was not overturned although the impact drove the instrument board and windshield back into the car in a manner which pinned Mrs. Lester in the car. Trainmen did not know that they had collided with the automobile according to reports.

Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Ross were the first to arrive on the scene and Mr. Ross rushed into town for help, leaving Mrs. Ross with the injured. Deputy Sheriff Andy Anderson called for the ambulance and a doctor and went to the scene. Dr. Lester had gotten out of the wrecked car when help arrived, but it was necessary to prize a door open and then force the seat springs down before Mrs. Lester could be released and taken from the car.

Mrs. Lester was more seriously injured, receiving a broken leg, a fractured vertebra in the neck, serious cuts and bruises about the face and possible internal injuries. Dr. Lester received two broken ribs and cuts and bruises. Both were brought into town as soon as the ambulance arrived on the scene and a doctor from Fort Stockton was called due to the fact that the other local doctor was out of town. Mrs. Lester was later carried to a hospital at Fort Stockton where her condition is reported serious. Dr. Lester remained in Sanderson at his home although he will be confined to his bed for some time.

Their daughter, Mrs. James Daniel of El Paso, arrived shortly before the accident for a visit with them and is remaining here to care for Dr. Lester.

Black-Out Plans Can Be Made Simple in Homes

Homemakers who plan carefully and use materials they have on hand can blackout their homes with practically no expense.

That's the news from Mrs. Bernice Clayton, Extension Service specialist in home improvement, who says its a good idea to be prepared, even if blackouts are never necessary. The first pointer is: Make use of materials already on hand. Such things as blankets, quilts, bedspreads, rugs, carpets, slip covers, or dark oil cloth may be adequate. Test the material selected by holding it before an electric bulb; make certain it admits no light. Then when the material is hung, send someone outside to see if any cracks of light shine through.

Cloth used in blackout curtaining need not be black, Mrs. Clayton says, but dark materials screen the light best. Dark blue, dark green, very dark brown, or dark red, is acceptable. Materials of other colors—unless they're too heavy—may be dyed.

It's not necessary to blackout the entire house, so one or two rooms safest should be selected. In hanging the blackout curtains try to take care of your need for ventilation. British families have learned that often it's necessary to leave windows open, particularly on warm nights. This means curtains must be heavy enough not to blow and expose light or they should be securely fastened above and below the windows.

All effective blackout curtains, whether they're new or made over—must come four to six inches above the glass and hang at least six inches below the sill. Allow one and one-half times the width of the window for fullness, the specialist advises. A lightweight frame fitting into each window offers one solution. It can be covered with heavy dark paper, oil cloth, or several layers of old sheeting dyed black. These can be slipped into windows in a hurry.

DON ALLEN LAMBS PLACE IN FORT STOCKTON SHOW

Fort Stockton Pioneer — The third annual Pecos County 4-H livestock show, held Friday and Saturday for the first time as a two-day event, was outstandingly successful in the number of fine sheep it attracted and in the financial response accorded it by Pecos County organization and individuals.

Iraan club boys dominated the winnings in the club divisions, while in the open classes entries from the flocks of Lloyd White and Claude Owens of Fort Stockton, Leo Richardson of Iraan, and Dempster Jones of Ozona, were dominant.

When fat lambs were judged Friday, Ellis Owens, copped first place honors with the highest ranking animal. Other boys in the ranking were Jimmy Moody, Fort Stockton, 2nd; George Lee, Iraan, 3rd; Junior Franks, Imperial, 4th; Lee Burnett, Imperial, 5th; Don Allen, Sanderson, 6th.

BREWSTER COUNTY PLANTS MAY CONTAIN VITAL FIBRE

Alpine Avalanche — Brewster County may come to play a part of vital importance in the national defense program if plans now under consideration materialize. Inquiries concerning the fibre-producing plants of this area may lead to production on a large scale, it was stated.

The most common is the lechuguilla (Agave Lechuguilla Torr.) This is a small plant belonging to the same family as the Century plant. Its blades or leaves average six or eight inches in length and have a very tough and pliable fibre. In many large areas it grows so thickly that a person can go through it only with extreme difficulty.

Jap U-Boat Challenge Met by Canadian Navy

WITH the grim war brought to Canada's Atlantic doorway by the operation of enemy U-boats, the staunch men of her Navy have to shoulder a new burden. Looking for trouble, a speedy little corvette (5) races seaward. These waspy ships are doing a superb job in clearing Jap U-boats from coastal waters. Despite the bitterness of cold the officers and men manning these small boats are meeting the test of endurance. An officer (1), speckled with frozen spray, is shown as he shouts above the gale through his megaphone. Below deck are keen men (3) stationed at delicate hearing devices which spot enemy prowlers. A welcome break from the cold vigils on wind-swept decks of the patrol vessels comes when the cook (4) dishes up steaming bowls of hot soup. Back from the dangers of the sea (2), one of the fighting little corvettes lies moored at port, its deck and superstructure heavily laden with ice from the wind-lashed spray which freezes where it lands. Navy officials are frankly puzzled as to how subs are able to operate in northern latitudes at this season. They suspect development of a new "detecting" apparatus to clear their periscopes and hatches.

Facts About Your Income Tax Return

Have you filed your Federal income tax return? If you come within the group from whom returns are required, you have only until midnight, March 16, in which to file a return. Single persons who earned as much as $14.43 a week for the 52 weeks of 1941; or married persons living together who had aggregate earnings of as much as $28.85 a week for the year, are required to file returns. The instructions attached to the forms describe the method of preparing returns, but if further information is necessary it may be obtained at the offices of the collector of internal revenue, deputy collector, or an internal revenue agent in charge. They make no charge for their services.

If income tax returns are placed in the mail, they should be posted in ample time to reach the collector's office on or before the due date—that is, midnight on March 16 for calendar year to file returns on time.

On a postcard to wife from vacationing husband: "Having a wonderful time. Wish you were her."

As I Was Saying . . .

By Aynah Nemus

An engineer (name on request) told this one in this manner, and though it has its angles, this is the first time I've heard it this way.

"My run was fine" he says, "and though I had a string of sixty cars loaded, I was right on time. I was about halfway from Dryden to Sanderson, having passed No. 6 in Dryden, when the engine gave a jump and started screamin' along at twice its usual speed. I shut down the steam and looked back and saw that I had left my load back the road."

"I stopped the engine and backed up, and when I got out I discovered that the connection between the cars and the engine had broken and come loose. For a minute I was at a loss just what to do. I didn't mind coming into Sanderson late, but the wife had promised to have red beans and asparagus (my favorite dish) for breakfast, and I didn't want to miss that. So I sat down and thought and finally solved the problem."

"I took off my pair of leather suspenders (I bought them ten years ago) and tied the engine to the front car. Well, just as I figured, they held. So I started off for Sanderson again."

"It was a cloudy morning, and it began to rain hard. It rained so that the suspenders began to soak water, and when I had come to the next hill, the suspenders started stretching. I let the engine pull and it went up the hill, but when I looked back, I saw that the suspenders had ed all the way and was left at the bottom

"I was disgusted, had quit raining, and was up bright and went out and lay in a ditch to get over my sleep there. I don't long, but I woke up hearing a loud noise another train was jumped up and looked track."

"Can you imagine, suspenders were drying pulling that string to the hill to the engine."

ELECTRIC POWER
helps build America's
FIGHTING POWER

Electric power on the production line helps put fighting power on the battle front.

It takes power—and plenty of it—to produce the planes, tanks, ships and guns we need, but America has a lot more than Germany, Italy and Japan combined. Enough to insure an arms output that will eventually engulf our enemies.

America has this power because America's privately owned, business-managed electric companies looked ahead. They were ready at the start of our armament program with a reserve power capacity averaging 35% above normal requirements. And they have continued to provide new capacity as new demands have been foreseen. In 1941 over 2 1/2 million horsepower of new generating equipment was added. Another 3 1/2 million is scheduled for completion this year.

We are proud to be part of an industry that has been able to make such a valuable contribution to the nation's war effort. America's business-managed power companies are exerting every effort to meet the urgent demands of defense and at the same time take care of civilian needs.

Snooper hereby apologizes to James O'Connor for quoting his name in connection with a certain incident regarding his riding around with a GIRL and Edward and Marshall. James declares that the third boy was Curtis.

Earline, why don't you want anyone to look in your notebook? Joan Anderson, what is this we hear about you and Harold Surratt?

What has happened to Doris Lea and Jubber lately? Clara, did you and Roy have fun Wednesday night?

Clara, you should be more careful who gets your notes. Someone said that Donald Smith was going to be a hostess at a dance Saturday night. Snooper wonders if he planned to wear an evening dress.

Marianne looked too solemn sitting between David and Ross Staley.

Oh! Why don't people tend to their own business? Especially Joe Ross. So says a certain young lady.

S. H. S. students want to know why it is that Mr. Hunter knows so much snooper.

Was it just a coincidence that Doyce called to talk to Ruth Ann and Mary Nell was there?

Who was the handsome Romeo who brought Maurine and Betty the pears?

The snooper has been trying for the longest but can't seem to find a thing on those two love birds Dick and Margaret Ruth.

Wilma Lois, that boy you are seen with quite often is quite an eye-fall.

The Snooper has heard that a certain little girl is quite troubled over the flip-flops of her heart since she found that a certain little boy hasn't left for the Navy yet.

The Snooper while snooping learned that that cute blond from Chicago doesn't have time for girls, so you might as well stop trying, all you ravishing females.

A happy look was seen on Maurine Cox's face and it's still there. Could it be because Ross is back in town?

You boys are still out of luck. Billie Babb's heart belongs to Curtis.

Why doesn't some one bring them together? They would make the cutest couple and are often seen making moon eyes at each other. In case you wonder, we mean Theron and Janice, of course.

No one seemed to be angry when a whole bunch crashed Donald Smith's party Saturday night and a gay time was had by everyone.

Bob Nichols, Chicago Transfer, Has no Time For Books or Girls

Robert Nichols, called Bob for short, was born in Chicago, Ill., sixteen years ago on April 30. He's about five feet seven inches tall and has blond hair and laughing gray eyes.

When asked how he liked Texas, Bob said some parts of it were all right. He came to Texas from Chicago about six weeks ago and lived in Houston first. He has been in Sanderson for three weeks and likes it better than Houston.

Bob thought for a long time and then said he didn't have a hobby. His favorite food is milkshake. He hasn't any favorite movie star and doesn't go to the show very often. He doesn't read much so he hasn't any favorite book. Bob said he works and didn't have time for girls and he doesn't know much about them.

Bob is working at the Interstate when not in school. He takes world history, American history, general math, and English IV. He is a senior and plans to finish at midterm of next year.

AT THE PRINCESS

H. M. PULHAM, ESQ. (Sunday and Monday)

One of the country's best sellers has been turned into a motion picture with Robert Young in the title role. And if you let yourself go with whatever a picture does, you will probably find tears in your eyes at several points in the play. This means if you are old enough to have thought you've loved and been loved, or wished you had loved and been loved or even if you've been married for twenty years, there's something about the picture that will affect you.

Hedy Lamarr is in the role of a girl who refused to give up her New York life for the staid traditions of Boston. Ruth Hussey likes Boston and Mr. Pulham, Esq., and apparently fares better for it. Charles Coburn is the father of Esq., and the death of this father is the thing that turns the situation topsy turvy; not because of any will or such, but the effect that it had upon Mr. Pulham, Esq. in regard to his manner of living.

Van Heflin of "The Feminine Touch", Bonita Granville, Fay Holden complete the major cast.

Sweet Potatoes STUFFED FOR STYLE

SWEET potatoes are one of the useful root vegetables that seem to have everything to offer but style. Here, then, is an easy, yet delicious way to "glid the lily" and to prepare a brand-new dish at the same time.

The first step in preparing this dish is concerned with the sweet potatoes. Now the skins of sweet potatoes are apt to be a bit tough, while yams have thin skins which tear easily. Therefore if some shortening or oil is used to grease the skins of either one before baking, this procedure will make it easier to turn the trim pointed flaps of skin back without tearing, when the stuffing is ready. Such greasing gives the potatoes an appetizing glossy look, too, so please do not overlook that part of the recipe in preparing this dish. Then, as a short-cut, kitchen scissors will be helpful in slashing the neat openings where the potatoes are to be stuffed, if a good sharp paring knife is not readily at hand.

Choose sweet potatoes for baking which are thick and "chunky," and as near the same size as possible. Avoid using potatoes with wrinkled ends, since that indicates old potatoes. But now with these preliminary suggestions out of the way, let me really give you the recipe.

PINEAPPLE STUFFED SWEET POTATOES
(Serves 6)

4 medium-sized sweet potatoes or yams
1 cup Hawaiian Crushed Pineapple, well drained (No. 2 or 20-ounce can)

1/2 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
Wash sweet potatoes, dry, and grease skins. Preheat oven to 400° F. and bake potatoes about 1 hour. Remove from oven, make two cuts on top at right angles to each other. Turn back the flaps of skin and scoop out a spoonful of potato pulp. Combine Crushed Pineapple and brown sugar and heap about 2 1/2 tablespoons of this mixture within the opening. Return to heated oven for 5 minutes. Serve immediately.

The juicy topping of Crushed Pineapple and the melting brown sugar both complement the meelness of the sweet potatoes or yams—as I am sure you will agree. As a complete menu suggestion, however, remember that ham, in any form, blends perfectly with the flavor of Pineapple. Add to this a salad of fresh vegetable greens blended with French Dressing, hot baking powder biscuits and fresh warm gingerbread topped if you like with whipped cream. The result? Slights of content as the meal disappears!

Serving a simple yet successful dish like these "Sweet Potatoes Stuffed for Style" is a wonderful antidote for the feeling that all homemakers get at one time or another—that life consists merely of one meal after another. For when the family likes the food and does not hesitate to say so, that is payment, indeed, for all the planning that must be done and the hours that must be spent in getting meals.

So try these Pineapple Stuffed Sweet Potatoes—soon.

REMODELING

The Haley Drug has been undergoing a light remodeling job on the interior the past few days with the old prescription room and storage room being completely torn out and rebuilt. The change provides about ten or twelve feet more space in the front part of the store and a new coat of paint has brightened that portion of the store considerably.

RECEIVING NEW ROOF

The Bohlman building is receiving a new roof this week according to E. P. Halley. Mr. and Mrs. Halley recently rented the hotel part of the building from Mrs. W. F. Bohlman and have redecorated many of the rooms and halls with a new coat of paint and other repairs.

Mrs. W. E. Stavley returned to her home in Del Rio Sunday after spending a week here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Schupbach Sr., and visiting with other friends. She was accompanied that far by Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mullins who continued to San Antonio for a visit.

Mrs. Sam Underwood and son, Ross, returned Saturday from several weeks in Rochester, Minn., where Ross went for Medical attention. Mrs. Underwood states that it feels good to be back in Texas after experiencing 20 to 25 below zero weather and seeing snow fall at some time during each day she was there.

Lt. and Mrs. Seth Davenport spent the week-end here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nichols and with Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Brown. Lt. Davenport has been stationed at Camp Wolters, Mineral Wells, but has been transferred to Camp Barkley, Abilene, where he is now stationed.

Justification
Mother, who had always taught her family that Sunday was not a play day, was shocked to find Sonny, age 5, sailing his toy boat in the bathtub Sunday morning.

"Don't you know it is wicked to do that today, Sonny?" she demanded.

"Yes, but mother," protested Sonny, "this is a missionary boat going to Africa."

THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—HOW TO RESPECT AND DISPLAY IT

- When flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States of America, the latter should always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs the flag of the United States should be hoisted first and lowered last.
- When displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, the Flag of the United States should be on the right (the flag's own right), and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.
- When used on a speaker's platform, whether indoors or out, the flag should never be reduced to the role of a mere decoration by being tied into knots or draped over the stand. For this purpose bunting should be used. The flag, if displayed, should be either on a staff or secured to the wall or back curtain behind the speaker with the union to the flag's right.
- When flags of two or more nations are displayed together they should be flown from separate staffs of the same height and the flags should be of approximately equal size.
- When the flag is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flag's own right, that is, to the observer's left.
- Whenever a number of flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are to be arranged in a group and displayed from staffs with the flag of the United States the latter should be placed at the center of that group and on a staff slightly higher than any of the others.
- When the flag is displayed in the body of the church, it should be from a stand in the position of honor on the clergyman's right as the state flag or other flag should be at the left of the altar. If in the chancel platform, the flag of the United States should be placed on the clergyman's right as the congregation and the altar are at his left.
- When the flag is displayed from a staff projecting vertically or at an angle from a window sill, balcony or other part of a building, the union should go to the peak of the staff (unless the flag is to be at half-staff).
- Whenever the flag of the United States is carried in company with other flags, it should occupy the position of honor in the center of the group of flags or on the right of the group if the group is marching.
