Married Men May Become Navy Officers Under New Order

New Orleans, La.—The Navy has lifted the ban on married men becoming deck and engineer officers, it was announced this week by Eighth Naval District Headquarters. The Navy Department this week authorized the enlistment of married college graduates for the V-7 deck and engineering Naval Reserve Midshipmen courses leading to commissioning as Ensigns in the Reserve. Each married candidate for the V-7 course must furnish a statement signed by himself and his wife attesting that his dependents will be adequately provided for during the period of his training.

Types of Guns 22 Rifles Unfrozen List

College juniors and seniors who are married will not be considered qualified for the courses under the new revision. Unmarried candidates for the Reserve Midshipmen's school must remain unmarried for the duration of their training. Currently the candidate enlists as an apprentice seaman and becomes a midshipman after one month's training. Enlistments for the V-7 courses are being taken at the Navy Recruiting Office, Room 304, Customhouse building, and at the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, 217 Camp Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Harris Jr. of Roscoe, Calif., are in Sanderson visiting with his parents. They will leave Friday to return to California where he will resume his work with the Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

TEXAS U.S.O. DRIVE AHEAD IN STATES

Excepting two states with small quotas, which have completed their contributions, Texas is out in front in the current drive to finance the United States Fair of Texas. State chairman, Harry C. Weiss, announced at the close of last week that $705,000 of a quota of $1,110,000 had been raised. Delaware and New Mexico have completed their quotas. Texas leads all the other states. The thousands of citizens who are active workers in the drive, the good showing of Texas is also an indication of this State's intense interest in war activities and its determination to do everything possible to aid in winning the war.

Transportation Lack Forces Texas Fair To Close for Duration

Dallas—There will be no 1942 State Fair of Texas. Decision to forego the annual exposition, known as the "World's Largest and most beautiful State Fair", was reached by the Board of Directors after Harry L. Seay, president of the institution, made a report on his survey of conditions brought about by the national emergency. Lack of transportation for both exhibits and patrons decided the issue. Tire shortage, possible gasoline rationing and a scarcity of shipping facilities influenced the decision. Many of the leading fairs of both the United States and Canada have been called off for the duration. Grounds and buildings of the $15,000,000 plant of the State Fair of Texas have been tendered for whatever use it may see fit to make of them. Mr. Seay announced.

AGED MEXICAN DIES SATURDAY

Mrs. Rafaela Lozano, 76, died in her home here Saturday. Funeral services, read by Rev. N. Femenia, were held Sunday, and interment was made in the Santa Rita cemetery. Mrs. Lozano came to Sanderson 42 years ago. She was born in old Mexico. Four sons and three daughters survive.

STORE CHANGES MANAGERS

Mr. and Mrs. George Turner have moved from Dryden to Sanderson in order that Mr. Turner may take over the management of Turner's Grocery. Mr. Turner will manage the store in partnership with his mother, Mrs. Alice Turner. Jack Turner, who has been manager, expects to leave soon for Corpus Christi where he will enter defense work.

'42 Cowboy Reunion To Spend Proceeds For U. S. War Bonds

Stamford—The Texas Cowboy Reunion will go "all out" in the war effort in this year's event, to be held here July 2, 3, and 4, according to recent unanimous action by the board of directors. All of the net profits from the show will be used to purchase United States War Bonds, and this, with the addition of the federal admission tax, levied this year for the first time, will contribute a neat sum toward winning the war, if attendance is comparable with Reunions of past years. Full speed ahead was the decision of the directors and all committee chairmen are completing details for their divisions with the aim of giving a bigger show this year than ever before.

THERE'S BEEN SOMETHING MISSING!

(By the Printer's Devil)
Ever since I opened the shop up Monday morning, I've been worried. At first I couldn't decide why I was worried, but after a few minutes of concentrated thought, I figured out that I was worried because something was missing from the shop.
Monday I made my usual rounds, cleaning out last week's paper, washing up the press I forgot Saturday, and lighting the fire under the Linotype about two hours after I'm supposed to. But during all my meanderings I had not found out what wasn't there that ordinarily was.
All the big machines were in place, the saw and its blades were intact, and the broom was still lying on the floor of the front office where it had been left when I swept two weeks before. The tables were at proper positions, and to be sure I tested them. Yes, I could barely squeeze through the crevices between them after I had kicked the waste paper before me.
Tuesday and Wednesday passed and I got down to work to put out the paper, still not satisfied. The inside was written and set up and the front page was all ready for the Linotype. With the type up and the proofs read and corrected, I began assembling the pages. Still that vacantness roamed my mind, but still I couldn't place where the empty spot was.
Today, as I write this, I'm still in a quandary as to what is missing; but I shall go right ahead and do my usual work and perhaps finish up without whatever it is I lack. All I need to do now is change the date lines at the top... ahhh—I know now what is missing. Those date lines must always be changed and there must always be someone to remind me to change them.
Yeah! The boss has been missing!

STORES SUPPORT REGULATION 'W'

A reproduction of Government Regulation "W" as it affects charge accounts and installments is printed this week on page three of the Times. That everyone may know that this is a national and not a local measure, many of Sanderson's Retail merchants have affixed their signatures at the bottom of the page; and these merchants pledge to cooperate to the fullest extent in carrying out the provisions of the regulation which the government has imposed in another step toward lasting victory—victory after, as well as during the war.

Repair Supplies Opened to Public By WPB Amendment

Amendments to Orders M-21-b to permit the sale on unrated orders of fence wire, barbed wire, poultry netting, fence posts, gates, staples and corrugated roofing and siding were issued by the WPB. Mr. Carl Pool, San Antonio district manager of the WPB priorities field service was advised this week. These items are added to nails, bale ties and small pipe on which no priority ratings are necessary for sales from warehouses and dealers. The action was taken as these items are constantly used by ranchers, farmers and householders for maintenance and repair.

Ira Hunter Shely, Four-Year Resident, Buried Saturday

Funeral services were held last Saturday afternoon for Ira Hunter Shely, 67, who died at his home at 3 p. m. Friday. He had lived in Sanderson for the past four years. The Oberkamp Funeral Home directed the burial, and the Rev. Sam Bays conducted the services, interment being held in Oak Hill cemetery. Mr. Shely was born in Bexar County on January 6, 1875. He was a widower, his wife, Nina Whaley, having died several years ago. At one time, Mr. Shely held the distinction of being the world's champion old-time fiddler, having won that name in connection with the Texas State Fair at Dallas.

Charlton of Sanderson, reports that he has been transferred from the pin burrs of East Texas to the pineapples of Hawaii where he is stationed at Pearl Harbor. J. W. Downum and Miss Marijo Horton were visitors in Del Rio this week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner are in Del Rio this week for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lemons were Del Rio visitors Monday.

AMONG THOSE DRAFTED

Among the group of men called by the local draft board for induction in the next draft group are Daniel Boone Heflin, Gilbert Troy Loden, Jack William Hardgrave, Bartolo Villegas Jr., Enrique Lopez Rodriguez, and Jesus Lomas. They will leave along with others from all over the country at midnight Sunday. Mrs. Luella Lemons, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lemons and daughter, Nina Lou, left Thursday afternoon for Lake Walk, Del Rio, where they will spend the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lemons and baby daughter are in Sanderson from their home in Loraline visiting with his mother, Mrs. Luella Lemons and other relatives. Wesley Lochausen and Charles McCammon left last Sunday afternoon to return to Tennessee where McCammon will enter school. They made the trip via New Orleans where they visited and viewed the sights. Elizabeth Brown, student at Baylor University, Waco, is in Sanderson for the summer. Mrs. Mata Wheeler, who ranches near Rocksprings, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Caruthers and family and with Mrs. Grace Wheeler.

LIBRARY BOOKS TO BE AVAILABLE SATURDAY, 4 TO 6

Due to the increased interest manifested in the library by the people of Sanderson, the committee has prepared to open the library for two hours tomorrow afternoon, according to Mrs. R. E. Corder. Books will be issued between 4:00 and 6:00 p. m. Saturday afternoon, and all persons desiring them should call between those hours. The committee reports that it is hoped that a supervisor for the summer can be found in the near future.

Predatory House Cats Birds' Worst Enemy In Nesting Seasons

Austin—The 800 some odd species and sub-species of birds in Texas—more kinds of birds than any other other State or region, possesses—are busy nest building or raising young these days, and so the bird's worst predator, worse even than the hunter, is having a field day. The predator referred to is the ordinary house cat. The tame little pussy cat slumbering on the doorstep in the sun looks innocent enough. But let a cardinal, a wren, a cedar waxwing, a beautiful male blackbird, a mourning dove, quail or any other bird get within reach of its scratchy paws—and there's one less bird "deep in the heart of Texas". Tame cats are bad enough. When they stray from home and become wild creatures, they live almost exclusively on birds. All persons interested in the rich birdlife heritage of Texas should kill all stray housecats, the Game Department advises. Tame cats desired in the home should be kept there and fed regularly, so they will not prey on birdlife in spare moments. No less than 50 wild housecats were observed recently by a field biologist of the Game Department on a trip from Austin to Mineral Wells. And all along doves were so thick the biologist had to drive well under the standard 40 miles per hour to avoid running over the birds, which were feeding on weed seeds along the road. Many of the doves, as well as many other species of birds observed, undoubtedly were devoured by the cats. Keep your tame cat penned up, especially at this season; and kill all wild housecats if you like birds.

May Bond Sales Well Over Quota In Terrell County

May sales of United States War Savings Bonds and Stamps went well over the Terrell County quota according to figures issued by the Sanderson State Bank and the U. S. Postoffice. In the monthly quota, as calculated by the Treasury Department, Terrell County was given the responsibility for raising $7,200 of the $18,594,500 expected by the Treasury Department from Texas. A total of $8,667.40 sales was reported by the bank and postoffice, with $6,450.00 in bonds issued by the bank, and $1,558.25 issued through the postoffice. In addition, the postoffice reported sales of stamps amounting to $861.15. This total is $1,467.40 over the quota. The June quota for Terrell County is $5,600.

Tin Tube Collection Asked of All Persons To Aid War Effort

Those collapsible tin tubes you have been turning in when you buy toothpaste and shaving cream are finding their way to re-processing centers, and every time you leave one with a merchant you are adding the war effort. Mr. Carl Pool, San Antonio district manager of the WPB priorities field service, said. "It's necessary to turn in an old tube when you buy a new tube of certain toilet preparations, but it's real patriotism when you return old tubes of medicinal preparations when none is required," Mr. Pool said. The Tin Salvage Institute, of Newark, N. J., has been designated by Metals Reserve Co., a Federal agency, as its agent to collect and salvage tin tubes, Mr. Pool said. Retailers may now turn over tubes they have collected to their nearest wholesaler. The tubes may be shipped, collect, in lots of five pounds or more. Wholesalers will be reimbursed by the Tin Salvage Institute for freight charges. Wholesalers, chain stores, warehouses, junk dealers, fraternal or civic organizations, others who have large stocks of used tin tube may ship lots of 100 pounds or more to the Tin Salvage Institute, 411 Wilson Avenue, Newark N. J. Mrs. C. E. Strange, her son, Mike, and her granddaughter, Emma Johnnie, of Houston, visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Williams in Sanderson last week. Mr. and Mrs. Williams returned with them to Houston where they visited with their sons. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barksdale and daughter, Peggy Sue, visited Mrs. Barksdale's mother in San Saba last week.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Army's fighter planes are the finest in the world and develop speeds up to 400 miles an hour. They cost approximately $100,000 each, provide fighter escorts for the huge flying fortresses, and combine speed, range, altitude and blistering fire power.
America's plane production plants are working over-time turning out thousands of these fighter planes. War Savings Bonds will help pay for them and the American people are committed to at least ten percent of their income to finance their cost in War Bonds. Every American, buying his share every pay day, will make it comparatively easy to supply our army and navy air corps with these supreme Eagles of the air.

Brackett News-Mail—The command of Ft. Clark has been taken over by Colonel Frederick W. Whitney, Cavalry, who comes from Santa Fe, N. M. He relieves Colonel John K. Brown, who had been in command for only a few months.

Ozona Stockman—Seeking surcease from war's demands, rationing, tire shortages and the tension under which people labor in war times, Crockett County folk are laying plans for a 1942 observance of a tradition as old as the county—a barbecue dinner, rodeo events in the afternoon and dancing at night, a gathering of Crockett County folk particularly, with visitors from all West Texas welcomed.

Like the barbecue and show staged last July on the occasion of Crockett county's fiftieth anniversary, the 1942 edition is to be a simple affair from a show standpoint, with the probable addition of a patriotic rally, an event aimed primarily as a homecoming for present and former Crockett county folk, with a blanket invitation to friends from all over the area.

Ozona Stockman—Crockett county's May quota for bond purchases was $8,900, set by the United States Treasury Department. Up to the close of business Wednesday, the Ozona National Bank had sold so far in the month of May $40,000 worth of Uncle Sam's war securities and the postoffice had accounted for another $475 worth, nearly five times the month's quota.

Wink Bulletin—Actual construction work on the Wink CAA airport project seemed on the verge this week, with confirmation received here that final papers had been signed and approved and that the project was out of the preparation stage, and in the hands of construction engineers and contractors.

As far as could be learned the construction contract has not yet been released, but is expected to be within a very few days, pending decision of the Army officials in regard to establishment of a flying school on the site.

An election is scheduled for Texas on July 25 that may somewhat be shadowed by the war fever; but the election is as important as though no war existed. The offices that will be filled by the voters are offices that have a direct weight in determining the course of the war; and of more importance, the course of the country after the war has ceased, as it inevitably must do.

Seven weeks remain in which each voter may acquaint himself with the platforms presented by the candidates, and the records presented by the candidates and their opponents. The privilege exists in America that every man shall have the right to vote. But it goes beyond a privilege—it is a duty. Part of that duty is that each shall know for what and for whom he is voting.

In the newspapers and over the radios, the messages of these candidates shall come in varied guises; but in those messages can be found the information that shall steer a voter in his decision. Wipe all prejudices from your mind before you begin to study. Have a clear head. When all you need know has been collected, sample it out and weigh the answers. Vote for the man whose records show that he is best suited—BUT START YOUR STUDY NOW!

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

These huge 60-ton heavy tanks cost $120,000, and America's automotive and locomotive plants are turning them out on a never-ending assembly line. Our army uses light tanks, weighing 14 tons, and medium tanks of 28 tons also, but we favor the medium tank over the other two.

These heavy tanks are needed for certain phases of modern warfare, and with their thick armor and heavy-gauge guns they are almost unstopable. They are considered superior in gun power, in maneuverability and in the power of their huge tractor motors to Axis tanks. Americans everywhere are helping to pay for these monsters of war through their purchase of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. U. S. UNFINISHED BUSINESS (Sunday and Monday)

Irene Dunne, veteran actress and songstress, returns to the screen with some unfinished business in the matter of a love affair some time after she has been married. Preston Foster is the figure in the business, and Robert Montgomery is the husband who must stand back while the business is attended.

Being from a small town, the heroine doesn't know how to cope with the fast-talking romances who run into her consecutively. First Mr. Foster, as Steve Duncan, gets her to fall in love with him after a short ride on a train. Then his brother, Tommy, Robert Montgomery, gets her to marry him after a five minute acquaintance.

After a brief honeymoon, she insists they return to New York that she may attend to her "Unfinished Business."

Eugene Pallette, the butler Dick Foran, home town boyfriend; and Esther Dale, Walter Catlett, and June Clyde are featured supporters.

★ ★ WOMAN OF THE YEAR (Wednesday and Thursday)

A picture that may become the picture of the year, has two of the top actors in a plot as simple as Saturday's Children. It's a case where a bridegroom wants the bride to give up her career and become just a housewife and a mother—until he eats her cooking.

Spencer Tracy with a long list of successes marries the woman of the year, Katharine Hepburn. Because he finds that he can't win the bride to his convictions, Mr. Tracy gets drunk and is unable to attend a fight he is supposed to cover for his paper. The wife takes over the simple duty, but the only thing she knows about boxing is that the boxer wears awful colors. Her story, under his name, is as masculine as a sewing circle.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE CARE OF YOUR Electric Washer

Your electric washer is a friend in need these busy wartime days. It not only saves you time and energy; it helps you conserve clothes and linens and reduces your laundering costs. Here are some timely hints that will make your washer last longer and give you better service.

- Drain washer immediately after washing. Rinse tub thoroughly. Remove agitator or suction cups and rinse.
- Remove any soap curd or lint that may have remained in tub, agitator or suction cups with soft cloth or sponge.
- Rolls and frame of wringer should be wiped dry. Release pressure on rolls when not in use. Saves the spring and the rubber.
- Wipe connecting cord dry, coil and hang up carefully. Do not allow to kink and crack rubber insulation.
- Leave cover off tub until all dampness has evaporated, to prevent mustiness.
- Follow manufacturer's instructions concerning oiling and lubricating requirements. Consult dealer from whom you bought washer if in doubt.
- If washer is stored outdoors, bring inside and let stand an hour before using in very cold weather. This gives grease in gear case a chance to soften and may prevent a burned-out motor.
- Do not overload washer with too many pieces and do not use too much water. Follow manufacturer's directions.
- Remove large buttons, buckles, etc., before running clothes through wringer. Otherwise you may break same or chew up wringer rolls.
- Put a cover over your washer when not in use, if stored where dust can accumulate.

The New Government CREDIT RESTRICTIONS Are an Essential Part of Our United War Effort, BUT . . .

YOU CAN STILL BUY ON CREDIT!

Regulation 'W', issued under authority of the President's Executive Order of August 9, 1941 has been revised, effective May 6, 1942, in compliance with that part of the President's Special Message to Congress on April 27, 1942, which reads:

"To keep the cost of living from spiraling upward we must discourage credit and installment buying, and encourage the payment of debts, mortgages, and other obligations, for this promotes savings, retards excessive buying and adds to the amount available to the creditors for the purchase of war bonds."

"INSTALLMENT CREDIT" means an extension of credit which the obligor undertakes to repay in two or more scheduled payments or as to which the obligor undertakes to make two or more scheduled payments or deposits usable to liquidate the credit, or which has a similar purpose or effect.

"CHARGE SALE" means an extension of credit (other than installment credit) which is made, as principal, agent or broker, by any seller and which arises out of a sale of any article, whether listed or unlisted.

"CHARGE ACCOUNT" means the indebtedness arising from charge sales between the same seller and purchaser.

CHARGE ACCOUNTS

Except as otherwise permitted by this regulation, each charge sale and charge account shall comply with the following requirements:

MAXIMUM MATURITY—Except as permitted by section 9, no listed article shall be sold in a charge account with any agreement that payment therefor may be deferred beyond the 10th day of the second calendar month following the calendar month during which such article was sold.

RESTRICTION—When a charge is in default, the Registrant shall not extend credit to the obligor for any charge sale or installment sale of any listed article until the default has been cured by one of the methods described below.

DEFAULT—A charge account shall be deemed to be in default if any article (whether listed or unlisted) for which credit was extended in such account has not been paid in full on or before the 10th day of the second calendar month following the calendar month during which such article was sold, except that:

(1) A charge account shall not be deemed to be in default because of a failure to make payment for any article purchased therein prior to May 1, 1942, unless such article shall not have been paid for in full by July 10, 1942.

(2) If an article was sold in a charge account prior to May 1, 1942, under a definite agreement between the seller and purchaser (evidenced in writing) that such article need not be paid for until a specified date, the account shall not be deemed to be in default with respect to such article unless such article shall not have been paid for in full by the date so agreed upon; and

(3) For persons with seasonal incomes, adjustments are permitted in accordance with section 9.

CURING DEFAULTS—When a charge account is in default, the default may be cured either:

(1) By payment in full of the amount in default;

(2) By the purchaser entering into a written agreement in good faith to pay the amount in default within a period of 6 months or less from the date of such agreement by substantially equal installment payments of not less than $5.00 per month or $1.25 per week at substantially equal intervals not exceeding one month; or

(3) By the purchaser filing with the creditor a Statement of Necessity in accordance with section 10(d) and entering into a written agreement in good faith to pay the amount in default within a period of 12 months from the date of such agreement by substantially equal installment payments at substantially equal intervals not exceeding one month.

Regulation 'W' as it affects Charge Accounts

All charge accounts on the books of any Retail Merchant on May 31, 1942, must be paid on or before July 10, 1942; if not so paid the account is in default. When the account is in default, the merchant may not extend credit for either a charge or installment sale.

The default may be removed by payment of the bill in full; by the purchaser entering into an agreement with the merchant to pay the bill within 6 months by equal installments of not less than $5.00 a month or $1.25 per week; or by the purchaser signing a statement of Necessity and entering into a written agreement with the merchant to pay the bill within one year, making monthly payments of about the same amount.

As I Was Saying . . .

By Aynah Nemus

A crowd of travelers had stopped at a Sanderson cafe and were jibing as to one another's especial position back home. There were bankers, post-pup 'suapsaid-ada' 'sxpae' 'oajjo mayors; in fact, almost every civic position appeared in the list except low-form jobs.

Aside from, but a part of, the group sat a fellow with a sad look on his face; he was, to be exact, the ultimate of moroseness. And to him was addressed at intervals the question, "What do you do in your home town?" Always he answered, "Oh, nothing much."

One fellow from Dallas was apparently the whole show of the Texas metropolis; and from his spiel, one gathered that the city was now stagnant that the really important citizen was absent.

Do you want the same thing to happen
To your innocent daughter so fair?

You can thank God that the stars in Old Glory
Are not blurred with that kind of stains.
Because there are ten millions of roughnecks,
Who have red blood in their veins.

They go to drill in bad weather,
And come in with a grin on their face.
While your darling sits in the parlor
And lets another man fight in his place.

Maybe we do smoke and gamble,
But we fight as our fore fathers did;
So go warm the milk for his bottle;
Thank God we don't need your KID.

—By Sgt. Rex Newby, Co. F, 109th Engineers, Camp Cody, N. M.

And Fort Worth and San Antonio and Houston and Austin all had their jingoes who rated tops in their respective municipalities. The East Texas magnate who ruled the piney woods empire was from the collegiate town of Nacogdoches, and it was he who finally got an answer from the pickle puss.

"Where you from?" he asked him. "Corpus Christi" a cryptic answer came.

"Well, whatcha do there?"
"If you all must know, I'm a dipper."
And in a chorus, "What's a dipper?"

"I work as a warden. I go around during the blackouts and dip the tails of lightning bugs."

S. D. Thompson and family left Sunday for a week's visit to San Antonio and Yoakum.

Bill and Bud Bell were here last week for a visit with Mrs. Gerald Grigsby, their aunt, and Mrs. Jack Laughlin, their cousin. Bill was enroute to school at A. & M. and Bud to Schreiner.

Mrs. Maude Sullivan, Rev. and Mrs. Sam Bays, Mrs. R. D. Craig and Miss Ella Savage were in Marfa Thursday of last week where they attended the Baptist Workers' Conference.

As I Was Saying . . .

By Aynah Nemus

A crowd of travelers had stopped at a Sanderson cafe and were jibing as to one another's special position back home. There were bankers, post-office clerks, vice-presidents, mayors; in fact, almost every civic position appeared in the list except low-form jobs.

Aside from, but a part of, the group sat a fellow with a sad look on his face; he was to be exact, the ultimate of moroseness. And to him was addressed at intervals the question, "What do you do in your home town?" Always he answered, "Oh, nothing much."

One fellow from Dallas was apparently the whole show of the Texas metropolis; and from his spiel, one gathered that the city was now stagnant that the really important citizen was absent.

Do you want the same thing to happen To your innocent daughter so fair?

You can thank God that the stars in Old Glory Are not blurred with that kind of stains. Because there are ten millions of roughnecks, Who have red blood in their veins.

They go to drill in bad weather, And come in with a grin on their face. While your darling sits in the parlor And lets another man fight in his place.

Maybe we do smoke and gamble, But we fight as our fore fathers did; So go warm the milk for his bottle; Thank God we don't need your KID.

—By Sgt. Rex Newby, Co. F, 109th Engineers, Camp Cody, N. M.

And Fort Worth and San Antonio and Houston and Austin all had their jingoes who rated tops in their respective municipalities. The East Texas magnate who ruled the piney woods empire was from the collegiate town of Nacogdoches, and it was he who finally got an answer from the pickle pass.

"Where you from?" he asked him. "Corpus Christi" a cryptic answer came.

"Well, whatcha do there?" "If you all must know, I'm a dipper"

And in a chorus, "What's a dipper?"

"I work as a warden. I go around during the blackouts and dip the tails of lightning bugs."

S. D. Thompson and family left Sunday for a week's visit to San Antonio and Yoakum.

Bill and Bud Bell were here last week for a visit with Mrs. Gerald Grigby, their aunt, and Mrs. Jack Laughlin, their cousin. Bill was enroute to school at A. & M. and Bud to Schreiner.

Mrs. Maude Sullivan, Rev and Mrs. Sam Bays, Mrs. R. D. Craig and Miss Ella Savage were in Marfa Thursday of last week where they attended the Baptist Workers' Conference.

(To the Stay at Home, the Volunteers at Camp Cody send the following verses:)

You say he can't stand the Army,
The life is too rough for him.
Do you think he is any better
Than some other mother's Tom or Jim?

You raised him up like a girl
He doesn't smoke or drink is your brag
If all the boys were like him,
What would become of our Flag?

You say, let the roughnecks do the fighting,
They are used to the beans and the stew.
I'm glad I am classed with the
