'5,000 Years of Light' Comes to Sanderson

Harry C. White, scientist, will present a lecture-demonstration "5,000 Years of Light," in the high school auditorium Friday night, November 13th, at 8:00 o'clock, according to an announcement made by Supt. Tom Holley.

Mr. White's program emphasizes the accomplishments of today's men of science and also those of the dark ages who helped combat physical darkness. Thousands of dollars worth of equipment will be used and a complete research laboratory will be carried. Mr. White demonstrates, and vividly portrays with word pictures, stirring scientific facts in this cavalcade of events. The program has a unique beginning, for on a darkened stage a fagot, man's first light, brings us out of the darkness of long ago. An unusual collection of lamps, dating back to 600 B. C., will be displayed.

The progress of light is further shown with miracles of today, such as lucite, where light is sent through glass tubes that may be bent or twisted in any manner. The teleflash, made especially for this program, will permit music to be transmitted and to be seen as well as heard as it passes through space on a beam of light. The teletouch, an instrument which transmits electric waves unseen to human eyes, does strange things when its waves are intercepted by hand or body.

The smallest and the second largest bulb lamp ever made will be displayed and explained. The large bulb lamp is of 100,000 candle power, using 30,000 watts.

The smallest broadcasting station ever made by man will be demonstrated. About the size of an average hand, the audience will be permitted to broadcast to a receiving station on the platform and from there the voice will be carried back to the audience.

GRADE III CASINGS ALLOWED FOR PASSENGER CARS

Under the new regulations which are part of the Government's rubber conservation program dealers may now increase their stocks of passenger car tires so as to be ready to make consumer sales when the new mileage rationing program becomes effective November 22, J. M. Hayre, chairman of the Terrell County War Price and Rationing Board has announced.

Dealers may acquire stocks of new tires made of reclaimed rubber as well as recapped and used tires for sale to motorists who receive rationing certificates from the local War Price and Rationing Board.

Rationing of these tires is a part of the government's plan to keep the nation's passenger cars rolling for essential mileage. Forms on which dealers may apply for their allotments are now available at the local War Price and Rationing Board office at the courthouse.

Many dealers do not now have adequate stocks of tires of this kind which are defined as grade III tires in the rationing regulations. Before this change in the regulations, there was no way for them to increase the size of their inventory by purchases from regular suppliers because for every tire they bought they had to turn over the replenishment portion of a rationing certificate which had been taken in from a purchaser.

The new tires, made of reclaimed rubber, are now in production for the rationing program. Under the plan to get these grade III tires into dealers' stocks only establishments which have filed September 30 inventory reports on OPA form R-17 in compliance with the rationing regulations, will be eligible for allotments. The only exceptions are establishments operated by tire manufacturers or mass distributors, who are eligible under a special provision.

The size of the allotment for each establishment will be governed by the dollar amount of a firm's 1941 sales of passenger-type tires and tubes and the number of grade III tires already owned.

Community Joins In Big Drive for Scrap November 10-11; To Hold Memorial Services

305,000 POUNDS MATERIALS ARE GATHERED HERE

Although Terrell County residents had gathered an average of over 100 pounds of scrap iron per person at the end of the scrap drive put on in September, and the salvage heaps have continued to grow, they are being called upon to put forth even greater effort and gather in another 80,000 pounds.

The County Salvage Committee, composed of R. E. Corder, chairman, Hugh Rose and Robert Duncan, has requested the cooperation of all organizations of the county and have chosen Marine Day, November 10, and Armistice Day, November 11, for the concentrated effort in gathering up all available scrap.

Many persons feel that they have gathered all the materials from their premises but careful searching would undoubtedly unearth several pounds that were overlooked in the previous campaigns.

Mr. Corder stated that the schools, American Legion and Legion Auxiliary, Texas Defense Guards, Boy Scouts, Red Cross, Parent-Teacher Association and the Rotary Club are all to take part in the drive and it is understood that all business houses will be closed for Armistice Day. He also stated that persons could turn their scrap on either of the two days and that if anyone found more than they could bring in the zone chairman should be notified.

Three cars, aggregating 225,000 pounds have been shipped from Terrell County to date and there is an estimated 80,000 pounds still in the salvage depots. If expectations are met another 80,000 pounds will be added with this drive, making a total of 385,000 pounds to be gathered from the county. This does not take into account the many pounds of rubber that has been salvaged.

THEO C. McDONALD LOST IN SOLOMONS, TO BE HONORED

Memorial services will be held Armistice Day, November 11, at 11:00 o'clock on the courthouse lawn for Theo C. McDonald, killed with the sinking of the Astoria off the Solomons. The services will be conducted by members of the Clarence Hallie Mulky Post No. 160 of the American Legion who will be assisted by the Texas Defense Guards under Capt. D. L. Duke.

Legion Commander B. F. Anderson, assisted by Alfred E. Creigh Jr., Service Officer, will have charge of the services which will take place following a parade to begin on the main street at 10:00 o'clock which will proceed so as to be at the courthouse lawn at the appointed hour.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McDonald of San Antonio, have been notified and will be here for the occasion and will be presented with an embroidered United States Flag bearing his name and the name of his ship. The Rev. John W. Byrd, chaplain of the Texas Defense Guards, will render the benediction.

Word was received September fourth by McDonald's family that he had been killed in action with the United States Navy, although at that time it was not known that his ship, the Astoria, had gone down. He volunteered for the Navy October 10, 1940, having entered at El Paso.

It was previously announced that Reuben Brooks Mussey Jr. was the first man from Terrell County to be lost in action, having been in the Pearl Harbor attack. It was later announced that this was in error, however, and since that time he has visited here with his parents. With this error righted, Theo McDonald is the first known casualty from this county. He attended the Sanderson schools and was an outstanding athlete, both in football and basketball as well as in other sports.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

Brackett News-Mail—The Illinois Pipe Line Company has but recently sold its main pipe line, which extends from Yates in West Texas to Lytle, the purchaser thereof being the government. The line is now being taken up by labor crews and will be used by the government in similar work.

The line extends across Kinney County, from west to east, and it will also be eliminated in this present project.

Eagle Pass Guide—The first Quarterhorse Race Meet ever held in Eagle Pass, and possibly the best ever held in the country in many years, was completed Sunday at Fort Duncan Race Track after four days of hot competition among exactly 100 of the finest quarter horses in the nation.

The horses and their owners came here from five states: Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Louisiana, and Texas. From six to eleven races were run off each afternoon on the special track at Fort Duncan Park. The Race Meet was held under the auspices of the Quarter Horse Race Meeting Association of America.

Big Bend Sentinel, Marfa—The mammoth job represented in the creation within a comparatively few weeks of an air force training facility such as the Marfa AAF Advanced Flying School hardly can be realized by an individual unless he is one of the few privileged to see the

That was the privilege of a Big Bend Sentinel representative who recently made a trip through the working area and was permitted to have recorded on photographer's film a bit of what has been developed on a tract that a few months ago was only pasture for Highland Herefords. MURDER, ACTION, ROMANCE
DUE IN "I LIVE ON DANGER"

There's plenty of excitement coming up at the Princess when the murder mystery thriller, "I Live on Danger", opens Tuesday with Chester Morris and Jean Parker as the stars.

Morris, in the swiftest action role of his thrill-filled career, is a radio special events reporter, the fellow who's Johnny-on-the-spot wherever big news breaks. It's all the same to him, floods, murders, big fires, or anything else that'll make radio listeners sit up an dwiggle their ears in excitement.

To start things off right, the picture has a killing within its first furious two minutes of action and Chester Morris is pitched right into the middle of the excitement. How he solves the crime, catches the murderer, saves an innocent man from the electric chair with a coast to coast broadcast confession—and then gets himself a girl—Miss Parker of course—into the bargain is the story of "I Live on Danger." According to advance reports, it's a rip-roaring action film with plenty of suspense and spine-tingling thrills.

Produced by William H. Pine and William C. Thomas, "I Live on Danger" was directed by Sam White, one of Hollywood's ace thrill experts.

From where I sit.

by Joe Marsh

THAD PRINCE'S house got struck by lightning a couple of nights ago. The kitchen chimney was knocked off and the roof set on fire, and Thad found things pretty lively and exciting for a spell.

The fire was soon out though, thanks to the prompt and efficient work of the local fire department, as the paper says... and I never seen a man so grateful as Thad.

Chief Ed Carey was sort of embarrassed, I guess, by the thanks that was bein' heaped on him.

"That's all right, Mr. Phibbs," he says. "That's all right, sir—that's what you pay taxes for."

From where I sit, I'd say Chief Ed's remark seems to have a lesson in it... a lesson on the way that taxes come back in mighty real benefits to the people.

Take the taxes on beer, for instance—more than 2 1/2 billion dollars, I hear, figure federal, state and local, in the nine years since beer's been back.

There was a time—remember—when a lot of that money went into the pockets of bootleggers and blind pigs. But today it's right back to the treasury nation, the states and communities... for the everybody.

Some goes, for example, for the things Uncle Sam fight the war with... and ships and bombers.

Quite a lot goes for public health, and other good roads and the like.

And some of it, I'm gone to support the fire that gave Thad each good the other night.

To moderate folks, a friendly glass of beer there's a sort of safety knowing that right now the age of moderation is from public treasuries will on lion dollars every single

SIX WAYS

TO GET MORE LIGHT FOR YOUR MONEY

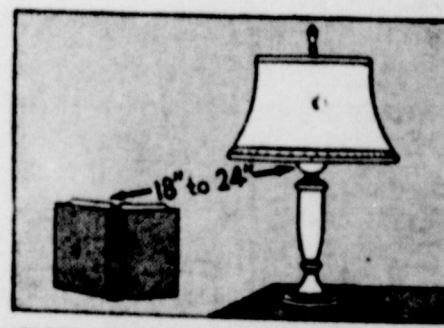

Good light is cheap but that's no reason for wasting it. Get all the light you're paying for by following these suggestions for making the most of your present equipment.

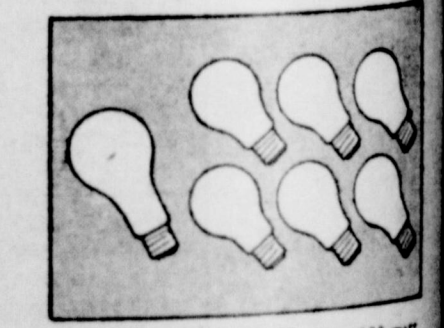

KEEP EQUIPMENT CLEAN. Washing bulbs and bowls will give you 30% to 50% more light. Use damp cloth and be careful not to get moisture into sockets or connections.

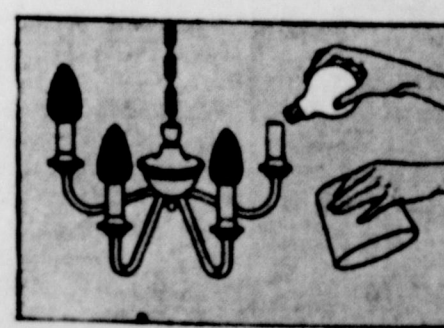

REPLACE DARK SHADES. Shades with dark or yellowed linings soak up light like a sponge. Replace with clean, white-lined shades and get up to 50% more light. Dust shades often.

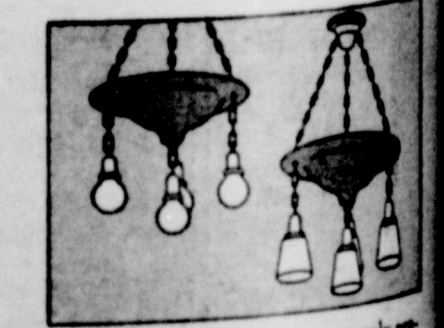

PLACE LAMPS PROPERLY. Stem of lamp should be within 18 to 24 inches of seeing task. A difference of 12 inches the wrong way can reduce the light you get by as much as 50%.

USE RIGHT-SIZED BULBS. One 100-watt bulb gives as much light as six 25-watt bulbs and uses one-third less current. Use one large instead of several smaller bulbs whenever possible.

ELIMINATE COLORED BULBS. Flame-tint and amber-orange bulbs give a soft effect but waste light. Use inside frosted white bulbs of same wattage for more light.

SHADE BARE BULBS. They not only produce harmful glare but are wasteful where downward light is desired. Shades control and direct the light where it is needed.

NOTES ABOUT HOMEMAKING

Shopping days until Christmas are getting fewer and fewer but the homemaking girls are ready. Making inexpensive gifts was chosen as home projects by several girls. Animal toys for children and aprons can be made from scraps already on hand. Attractive but economical wrapping is part of the project. Decorating the mantel or living room for the holiday season is another project.

Desserts made by substituting syrup or honey for all or part of the sugar is a popular project. Some of the other home projects are: Redecorating a bedroom, cooking supper, planning and preparing Sunday dinner, and improving the yard.

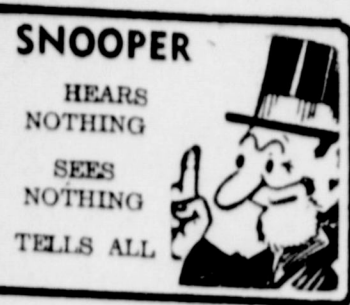

The Future Homemakers Club will meet Tuesday, November 10, at four o'clock.

Miss Kinkler, what was Harry playing with in Spanish that you wouldn't tell anyone about? Come, come, now Miss Kinkler. According to Margaret's report the dress rehearsal should have been good.

Ora May, you had better watch your big sister. She may be beating your time.

M. G. is getting to be quite a man about town. Eh! Earline? Marilyn, who was waiting for you the other night after practice? That's all right, we think Sonny Allen is cute too.

Where does Jack T. get all his information about Bonnie's private life. Tell us Jack. We want to know about someone too.

Miss Kinkler, why had you rather go to the dress rehearsal than the coronation? Tut! Tut! We didn't think it of you.

We wonder why that bunch that went with "Duck" Saturday night couldn't make up their minds as to who was taking who?

Jubber, next time you had better get a double quilt with no holes, and durable. That bunch like to have frozen.

Is there anyone who went to the midnight show whose toes are still whole. Boy! was that a crowd!

Joe Ross couldn't you do enough shoving without having to make a run and hit long side.

Why didn't we see Butch R. out on the streets Sunday? Butch, was the night before too much for you or was it Mama?

What happened between Bill Calk and Billy Babb during the show? From all reports Billy surely can slap hard. Curtis has she been practicing on you?

Marshall sure does make a good nurse maid to little sister while big sister is in the parade.

Doris Lee, who were you riding around with last Thursday afternoon? He does have a good looking car. You know, two-tone blue.

We could hear Dan's beautiful and soothing voice above all in the singing the other night.

Is it that Frank is just not a good shot or that it is hard to hit Bonnie's dancing legs with a "niger-shooter". Anyway, why didn't he pay off his end of the bet Bonnie and Butch had up? That isn't nice, Frank.

Since when did the school become the city dump ground? My! My! such manners.

Boy, were there a lot of girls sighing when they saw all the sentries all over town after the coronation.

At whom or at what was Butch so mad when she ran up on Doris Lee and that bunch? I do believe you could have fried an egg on her.

What has happened to Mr. Holley's hand? In the crazy house you never would have thought that it was him.

Why was Tom so stingy about letting anyone else ride in the front seat of Duck's pickup? It couldn't have been because it was about 20 degrees below outside. At least it seemed like it was.

Hazel said that it was a "gip". That Butch R. got two bags of sugar for her coffee. That's all right Hazel, it was given to her by someone that didn't use sugar in coffee.

We wonder what happened to Don Frazier's flower after he went to get tickets for the midnight show?

Monts ear was nearly frozen off the other night. Could he have forgotten his mufflers.

Floyd, why did you try to sleep in class? Late hours? Marilyn, who was the blonde last Tuesday?

Why was Bonny sitting on the floor last Wednesday. Don't forget what Mrs. Holley said about "calf-like looks" in her study hall.

Douglas Smith of Marfa High School enrolled in S. H. S. this week. He is a senior and has been welcomed into the senior class. His father is the new agent at the depot.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY

LIBRARY NEWS

The Terrell County Community Library has received a number of new books this past week. Among those received are:

Nevil Shute's "Pied Piper," which is the story of a seventy-year old Englishman who brought two English children from war torn France to England.

Philip Van Doren Stern's "The Drums of Morning," which is an historical novel dealing with slavery and the Civil War.

In "The Days of Ofelia," Gertrude Diamant has given us a very vivid description of the customs and language of Mexico.

MacKinlay Kantor's "Gentle Annie" is a frontier novel which should keep anyone entertained for an hour or two.

An interesting evening's entertainment is in store for you if you read Bellamy Partridge's "Big Family", for the fun, experiences, and happiness in that family are certainly similar to those of your own family.

Antoine de Saint-Exupery, in his up-to-date book of war-torn France, "Flight to Arras," gives us a very realistic picture of the war in action.

And last but not least is that little book every one is talking about, "See Here, Private Hargrove," by Private Hargrove. Every mother, father, sister and sweetheart who has some one in the army should read this delightful little book, and get some idea of army life.

Bill Savage is back in school. It is good to see him in regular place in his classes.

"Chookie" McAdams, who is attending school at San Marcos, has been elected to the staff of the school paper. She publishes a column under the caption, "Chookie's Chats."

When you're looking for type-writer ribbons, carbon paper, letter files, inks, in fact, almost anything for the business office, call the Times, telephone 39.

Or maybe you don't care! We think you do. We feel that our whole community is ready to rise up and bring in the scrap as soon as you get a chance. So you're going to get that chance!

JOIN IN THIS SCRAP DRIVE TO GET IN THIS PRECIOUS MATERIAL BECAUSE THE SITUATION IS SERIOUS AND THE NATION'S STEEL MILLS NEED EVERY POUND OF SCRAP THAT'S AVAILABLE.

Start looking around your place for scrap today. If you've got a son in the service, do it for him. Do it for the neighbor's boy - for those fine young chaps you just passed, out on the street.

Above all do it for your country... and do it now!

THINK about it as revenge - a way to get back at the scum who have attacked us. Or think about it as a little more protection for our fighting men - something you, yourself, can do to bring as many as possible home alive.

Maybe you don't know what it means to have production fall off. Maybe you can't imagine how it feels to be hunkered down in a foxhole wishing for just one more clip of cartridges. Or to see the enemy rolling through your lines because you didn't have just a few more tanks.

But think about it now - for the scrap in homes, farms and factories has got to be moving to stockpiles within the in stock at the time of application for an allotment. This will apply to wholesale as well as retail where a firm does both types of business.

In the case of an establishment here there is no inventory for grade III tires and there are no replenishment certificates authorizing their purchase, the allotment may be made in the ratio of one tire for each $1,000 of 1941 sales. However, there is a limit of 200 tires of this grade for any one establishment regardless of the 1941 sales total. On the other hand an allotment of 12 grade III tires may be authorized for any establishment regardless of whether the 1941 sales total would warrant that.

Where an applicant already has an inventory of grade III tires, these must be deducted from the amount of the allotment that would be made if the establishment had no such inventory or certificates.

If the Board determines that an applicant is eligible it will compute his allotment and issue him a certificate authorizing the necessary purchase of tires. The certificate must be presented to the supplier from whom the applicant makes his purchase. Only one allotment may be made for each establishment after purchase of the number of tires allotted. All subsequent purchases from suppliers will have to be accompanied by the transfer of replacement portions of rationing certificates which represent sales to costumers.

LOOKING AHEAD—

know all the rice in China will not buy a tire if the tire does not exist.

America's wide-spread understanding of economics is one of the most valuable by-products of her system of free competition. Whereas in Europe grown men go about looking to some overlord for good times or bad, an American boy with a paper-route works out his own money problems. Moreover this popular understanding is reflected in American laws. Razing congressmen is a national pastime but they still represent us approximately at our best.

As The Voters Think

The latest federal revenue act, as it stands, leaves a great deal to be desired, but in process of passage some encouraging things happened which I believe are in harmony with popular thinking. As originally written, the bill sought to raise 23 billion dollars, of which eight were to come from personal incomes and ten from corporations, besides five from miscellaneous sources. But, as finally passed, the estimated total was 26 billion, 12 from personal incomes and nine from corporations.

"What's encouraging about that?" Just this: Congress might have been cowardly and selfish, just before election, and pulled three billion dollars more out of corporations. But congress did not do this. Congress built up the tax burden on the consumer, where it is certain to fall sooner or later anyhow.

Congress Was Wise

It was a sensible move. Not only is each new corporation tax a pump for inflation; it's a knife to hamstringing the home team. Each such levy jacks-up living costs to whatever extent the tax can be added to the price of finished products, or it depletes reserves for post-war employment, which is far worse. Congress deserves commendation for repudiating the musty old fable about corporations being wolves that devour farmers and working people.

Corporations are tools of the working man, and his wife's servants. They produce nineteenth of America's manufactured products. Where are the old spinning wheel and loom? Gone because corporations dress us better at less cost. Where is the bone-barrel that held grandmother's soap scraps? Forgotten, since corporations sell more and better soap for a nickel than she could make for a dime. The list is endless. Corporations improve our safety in war and our comfort in peace time. We must keep them alive in self defense.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holley and son, Jay Tom, and Miss Vashti Mixon left Thursday for Dallas. The Holleys will meet their daughter, Miss Joan, who is attending school at Denton, there and Miss Mixon will continue to Denton for a visit with her mother.

Miss Armenta Ragsdale left today, Friday, for Pecos accompanied by Mrs. James Caroline and son, Jimmy. They will visit with relatives over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bradford and son and Miss Margaret Kinkler left Thursday for Carlsbad, N. M., where they will visit this week-end.

FORMS MUST BE—

motorist should sell all over five passenger tires to the government through the nearest Railway Express Agency office.

If any applicant has more than five passenger tires for his car, gasoline rations will have to be denied. On one of the three days an applicant should present the executed form to a registrar who will determine that it is properly executed. The passenger car owner whose form is properly filled out will receive the basic "A" book and the motorcycle a "D" book. Under the mileage rationing plan each passenger car owner who receives the basic "A" book can count on a maximum mileage of 240 miles per month or 2,880 miles per year, figuring mileage obtained to be fifteen miles per gallon of gasoline.

Supplemental or necessary additional gasoline rations may be allotted by the Board for certain purposes, upon proof of need. Should an applicant believe he is entitled to more than the basic "A" book, he should ask the registrar at the time he receives his basic "A" book for the supplemental ration application form, but this should not be executed at the schoolhouse. This supplemental application must be mailed or delivered to the local Board.

"After this program goes into effect on November 22, we will be rationing tires and gas as a unit of mileage," Mr. Hayre explained, "and for that reason the Board will have to continue the applicant's necessary or essential mileage and then give him a gasoline book for exactly that essential mileage and the kind of a tire to meet his essential needs as set forth in the regulations."

Application blanks for those who need gasoline rations for trucks and commercial vehicles may be obtained soon at the local Board office or the authorized tire inspection stations. This blank, known as form R-536, is for the "T" ration book. Truck or commercial vehicle owners should not try to register, but instead, should apply directly at the office of the Terrell County War Price and Rationing Board and present also a certificate of War Necessity executed by the Office of Defense Transportation.

Applicants for gasoline rations for non-highway purposes such as tractors, gasoline engines used with machinery or motor lawn mowers may obtain their application forms at the local Board office or tire inspection stations, but these executed forms also must be presented directly to the local Board office and not at one of the school-house registration places. This non-highway purpose registration blank is known as form R-537 and it calls for an "E" or an "R" gasoline ration.

Corporal Troy Druse, who is stationed at Carlsbad Army Air Base, Carlsbad, N. M., arrived Thursday and will visit until Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Druse.

moving human interest episodes mingled with comedy. The destruction of the village by bombers is climaxed by the villagers, in their wrecked church, inspired by their vicar, resolving to "carry on" with the same cool courage and with an abiding faith.

Miss Garson's role is touchingly human, and Pidgeon typifies the valor of the British under fire. The love angle is in the hands of pretty Teresa Wright and Richard Ney, and Dame May Whitty is dominant as the noblewoman to whom the trials of war bring a new conception of democracy.

"SWEATER GIRL" ABOUNDS IN GAGS, GALS, MUSIC
Mystery, murder and music—plenty of the latter—are mingled merrily in "Sweater Girl," the frolicsome college movie coming to the local screen Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13-14, with Eddie Bracken and June Preisser.

Advertised as a mystery musical of campus life, "Sweater Girl" has been hailed by preview critics as one of the season's brightest picture offerings, laden with hit tunes, laughs and beautiful girls. Directed by William Clemens and produced by Sol C. Siegel, the film's cast includes Betty Jane Rhodes, Phillip Terry, Nils Asther, Frieda Inescort and Ella Neal. The
