Already the War Information has a summary of total casualties on all fighting fronts for the twelve months of World War I. The same day that these accounts of human suffering and sacrifice were being national press service they also told of urgent appeals by Harold L. "I've been over here two months now and so far have had a swell time, considering everything. One sure learns to appreciate the U. S. after seeing this side. Honest, this country is 50 years behind the states. I finally learned to navigate in a blackout. Have lots of fun in a blackout tho—the other night my buddy and I followed some skirts two blocks before we discovered they were Scottish soldiers wearing kilts. Very confusing."

BOOSTERS NEEDED

Attention has been directed by different persons at different times to the lack of interest displayed by Sanderson citizens in the support of athletics in the local schools.

It has been pointed out, that although a handicap is realized in the small number of students, those students and coaches who put forth every effort to keep the athletic end of the schools going should have all the support possible.

This basketball season has seen developed one of the best cage teams here in several years. They stand a good chance of coming out winners but they need the support of every person in the community. They need both moral support and financial support. With efforts being made to make the department pay its way without added expense to the schools, it can easily be realized that all supporters must do their part at all times. Watch for the dates of the games to be played at home and be on hand to help the boys along. There'll be fewer games due to conservation of rubber and gasoline so don't miss any of them.

Better attendance was on hand for the games than has been present heretofore, and ticket sales netted $42. The entire group of spectators joined with the pep squad, led by Miss Betty Frazor and Miss Janice White, in rendering school yells and songs.

The team goes to Marfa Friday for the return game.

He accompanied one of the bodies to Los Angeles, Calif., and following the burial services, continued to Sanderson for the few days visit here. He left Tuesday night to return to his post.

SECOND IN SERIES VICTORY CONCERTS TO BE HELD FEB. 5

Announcement is made this week by Supt. Tom Holley that the second in a series of Victory Concerts will be held at the high school auditorium Friday night, February 5. Starting time is set at 8 o'clock.

These concerts are given in an effort to encourage and increase the sale of war bonds and stamps and admission to the concert is gained by the purchase of a stamp or bond at the door. No certain amount of stamps are required to be purchased. Music for the concert Friday night of next week is to be furnished by the Choral Club and by the Sanderson High School Band, both under the direction of Miss Marion Brieger.

The first Victory Concert, held several weeks ago, brought a total of $1,862.35 in both bonds and stamps, and it is hoped that the second concert will bring an even larger sale.

All time and effort in putting on these concerts is freely given by the schools and members of the band with its director, Miss Brieger. Citizens should do what they can to encourage such patriotic efforts by being in attendance at every concert if possible.

Social Security Returns Must Be Made By January 31

Employers of one or more individuals of the First Texas District are reminded by Collector Frank Scofield that the time within which they may file their Social Security tax returns without payment of penalties for the quarter ended December 31, 1942 will soon expire. Also, employers of eight or more employees must file their annual unemployment tax return for 1942 within the same period of time. The final date is January 31st. However, no penalties will be assessed on a return that reaches the Collectors' office by February 1st.

"The deadline for filing Social Security tax returns reporting wage payments to one or more employees for the quarter ended December 31, 1942 is close at hand," Mr. Scofield stated. "The final date is actually January 31st, but since this date falls on Sunday, tax returns received on Monday February 1st, will be accepted without penalty payments."

"Employers of eight or more employees are likewise reminded that their annual excise tax returns required under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act for the calendar year 1942 are due in January, and that the same penalty provisions apply for late filing."

Mr. Scofield explained that an employer who had eight or more employees in his service for twenty or more days during the year, each of such days being in a different calendar week, must not only file quarterly returns with in the month following the close of each quarter of the year, but also must file the Federal Unemployment excise tax return after the close of the year and within the month of January. Employers of less than eight individuals are required to file the quarterly tax returns only.

MAKING AMERICA STRONG
AUTO-TRAIN!
ON RAIL OR HIGHWAY THIS AMAZING TRUCK, TRAVELING UP TO 60 MILES AN HOUR, CUSHIONS THE SHOCKS THAT HAVE RENDERED THE TRANSPORTATION OF HIGH EXPLOSIVES A DIFFICULT AND DANGEROUS JOB!

Developed by industry and used by Uncle Sam to eliminate some of the hazards of moving explosives at arsenals and powder depots, the Auto-train represents a brand-new transportation idea.

This amazing vehicle, truck and train in one, combines the leading advantages of both. Equipped with specially designed rubber tires, the Auto-train is able to roll up 60 miles per hour, forward or reverse, on either the highway or railroad track.

Transition from highway to rail is accomplished in a few seconds. The rail assembly is operated by a hydraulic ram controlled from the drivers' seat, which lowers or raises the flanged steel guide wheels. Tests have shown that rubber tires, with non-skid tread, provide six times greater tractive power than the rail wheels alone, and lessen the hazard of jolt and jar in the movement of explosives. It can be stopped as quickly on rail as a modern automobile.

The Auto-train weighs 8,750 pounds, is capable of carrying 3,000 pounds of explosives, and is completely spark-proofed with exterior wiring throughout. Several are already in use at one of the Ordnance Department's bomb and shell loading plants and other units are in manufacture for use in arsenals throughout the country.

In addition to transporting all-important explosives, the Auto-train can be used as a passenger-carrying vehicle or ambulance. Its combination of pneumatic rubber tires and steel guide wheels can also be used on locomotives hauling other cars of passengers or freight.

BEHIND THE LINES

The most far-reaching speech of the past generation from the standpoint of preserving individual liberty under our American form of government, was made by United States Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Democrat, on December 8, 1942.

Without rancor or partisanship, he shows that we face a danger at home, not so much from our enemies "as from the ideology which made enemies prepare and precipitate the war, the ideology of the authoritarian state."

We are rapidly drifting toward the totalitarian idea that the state is the master and that the individual has no rights which the state must respect. The Senator traces the growth of bureaucracy in our country up to the moment, and shows that it is but a short step from the point at which we now are to the European theory of the authoritarian state.

"If we believe, as the founders of this nation did, in a separation of the powers of government into the legislative, the executive and the judicial, and if we look for the restoration of that balance after the war, then it is imperative that we should at least make ourselves acquainted with the recent trends of government," said Senator O'Mahoney.

He then cites from the record to demonstrate how executive orders and acts of bureaus have developed a new executive legislative function. He shows how "a new manifestation of the expansion of executive power became evident, namely the tendency, by interpretation, to expand the power and authority given by statute. The recent remarkable salary limitation by the Director of Economic Stabilization is a case in point. Again the rewriting by regulation of the provisions of the recent price control amendments to encourage agricultural production, by which the intent of Congress was defeated to make effective the intent of the bureaus, is another illustration.

"To say that Congress intended to surrender its legislative function would, of course, be the sheerest nonsense.

"Advocates of a new order opposed to democracy have reached their conclusions because they believe that the modern world has become so complex that people can no longer govern themselves as they did in the handicraft era, but must be governed by experts who will tell them what they ought to do and also what they must do."

Senator O'Mahoney then points that government by executive order and bureaucratic pronouncements which sidetrack Congress, is dangerous because a pattern can be set "whereby weak executives surrounded by tremendous concentrated power, will become the instruments of a permanent bureaucracy."

Ranchmen throughout the country are not in much of a selling mood when it comes to lambs just now. Nearly every one you see says, "I have been offered four cents for my lambs but am holding. I will shear them soon." There are many efforts being made to contract lambs out of the wool at three cents a pound.

SNOOPER

HEARS NOTHING SEES NOTHING TELLS ALL

What's this we hear about Harold and Connie?—Or is it Betty?

Seems as though Donald Smith and Doris Lee were having a good time on the School bus Friday evening.

This romance between Bill Davis and Billie Babb is getting quite serious—Come on and tell ole' Snooper what happened to Curtis.

What is this we hear about the Home Economics girls having a backward party?—Snooper better be on the look-out.

We wonder who Betty Jo Kerr is planning on taking to the party, it seems to be quite a secret. We wonder why Miss Lattimore likes to talk to Bill Cochran so much?

Ora Mae seems undecided as to whether it's going to be F. A. or Charles.

A new romance—Glenn Babb and that ever-popular Earline Cox.

The girls are all wondering what Ann Bell has that they don't have—John Lewis for one thing.

Butch Raney seemed awfully happy when she found out that Douglas Smith's brother was home.

We know that several girls are going to be very sad when two ex-seniors start working for Uncle Sam.

Mickie Corder's house was the stopping place for everyone Saturday.

Mid term exams are all over now, so boys start asking for those dates again.

I'll bet that Ruth and Malloy had a good time over the weekend.

LIBRARY NEWS

Biographies of more than 1850 writers who have, in a literary sense flourished since 1900, are now available to local readers in Twentieth Century Authors, the 1577-page biographical dictionary of modern world literature just received at the High School Library, Miss Kinkler, Librarian, announced today.

In preparation for over four years, Twentieth Century Authors presents narrative sketches of more than 1850 world literary figures who have published in English since the turn of the century. Included with the American and British authors are the better known Russians, Frenchmen, Poles, Finns, etc., whose works have been translated into English. More than 1700 portraits accompany the biographies. Information about hundreds of authors is nowhere else available.

Twentieth Century takes the place of many much-used volumes, Lattimore and Authors Today. Yesterday, both of which have gone out of print. The book does not merely revise the earlier volumes—every page has been completely rewritten and there are 1050 more biographies in Twentieth Century Authors than in Living Authors Today and Yesterday.

Every living author in Twentieth Century Authors has been reached by invitation to his own sketch. Many do not contribute autobiographical data. In addition, the biographies and each sketch contains the author's principal original dates of publication. A list of biographical critical sources about each author is given.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Had any news from George and his family since they moved away, Judge?"

"Yes, I had a letter from him day before yesterday. He's in Kentucky... the family's fine and they all like it there. George says he has a fine job in a beverage distillery. He brought out an interesting point in his letter I hadn't thought of before. He said that while the beverage distillers are working 24 hours a day, 7 days a week turning out war alcohol for the government for ammunition, tires, medical supplies and chemicals, they still are able to account for nearly a billion and a half dollars in taxes each year. That's on account of the fact the beverage distillers, though working 100% for the government, are still able to supply the public with beverages from the reserve stocks made during peacetime.

U. S. Marines Set Sail 167 Years Ago On First Overseas "Commando" Raid

Tun Tavern in Philadelphia, first recruiting place of Continental Marines.

ONE hundred and sixty-seven years ago the United States Marines began their first overseas expedition and under command of their leader, Captain Samuel Nicholas, promptly brought it to a successful finish. It was the 1776 version of a commando raid but ended with the bloodless surrender by a small British garrison in the Bahama Islands of a great store of supplies including 71 cannons, 15 mortars and a quantity of gun powder.

The Continental Congress authorized the recruiting of a force of Marines on November 10, 1775 after it became apparent that defensive warfare by the revolting American colonies was not enough. It was decided to form a small well-trained fighting force for foreign landing operations.

The Marines were recruited at the famous Tun Tavern in Philadelphia during November and December 1775, and Robert Mullin, the doughty innkeeper, was commissioned a Captain and served as Recruiting Officer and as Commander of one of the companies. He was both a famous host and an outstanding patriot and the foaming mugs of beer and ale which he dispensed to wash down the bounteous rations of the recruits quickly filled the ranks of the first force of 250 men who were organized and trained so rapidly that they were "arin" to go by New Year's Day, 1776.

Esek Hopkins, commissioned as the Naval commander, had meanwhile outfitted a squadron of two ships, two brigs, two sloops and two

SENIORS

This week we have the revelation of Curtis Litton before us. Curtis is an old Sanderson of long standing, being here April 26, 1926. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Litton.

is quite an eye-full with eyes and light brown hair wavy at that.

education was started and finished in Sanderson Junior and High Schools. He leaves the scenes of childhood, his ambition is to plain old sailor. At present has no hobby other than sitting.

favorites line up with pool as his favorite. The American food-hamburger comes next. His favorite is a little unusual for boys. Must be the Irish in ye, my lad. Again cunning from he prefers Betty Graham (which is seldom) he likes "Brazos". His favorite song is "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere".

ing. His favorite subject is Physical Education.

After Curtis graduates he plans to join the navy and see the world. On that excursion, however, he only hopes he does not meet any stubborn girls, as they are his pet peeve.

During his high school days he has participated in many activities, mostly sports. They are basketball in '40 and '42, football in '40-'41. Tennis in '40 and '41, track '40, and baseball in '41.

At last has come the time for the "Life" of that distinguished member of the senior class, Edward Hudson Kerr.

He was born in El Paso, Texas on September 7, 1926. This good-looking guy has gray eyes and brown hair and, luckily for us, has gone to both, grammar and high school in Sanderson.

Edward has been a member of the basketball team for three years and so not surprisingly his favorite pastime is playing basketball. Though this is not usual among the senior boys, Edwards' favorite color is red. Betty Grable is his favorite movie star too. She really has captured the fancy of the senior boys.

He apparently likes to eat hot food for his favorite is tortillas and beans. When Edward actually does settle down he likes to read "Northwest Passage" and his favorite song is "There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere". Because of this and the fact that his brother is a pilot it is not surprising that Edwards' ambition is to be an aviator.

In school he has been quite prominent with a record of being in football two years band four years, and vice-president of the Sophomore class. His favorite subject is History and after graduation Edward plans to go to college. His pet peeve is castor oil and I imagine everyone agrees with him, though if Miss Kinkler knew this she would probably give him some in her study hall.

There isn't much happening in the old town these days. Those four swingsters—Ross Underwood, W. T. Frazier, Harvey Rogers, and David Duke are sounding better every day. 'Tis rumored they will be heard at the forthcoming President's Ball.

Mickie Corder honored Lee McSparran and J. D. Vincent with a farewell party Saturday night. Everyone really enjoyed it although it was rather impromptu.

It was heard that Margaret Ruth Yeates was almost wishing Kenneth Litton wasn't her uncle. And we don't blame her after a glimpse of him in that uniform.

A new club has been started with Curtis, Betty, and John Louis as character members. The name is the Lonely Hearts Club. The club is open for membership.

CLASS NEWS

Miss Nixon The typing classes have been taking 15 minute speed tests. Jay Tom Holley and John Louis Whistler have been leading with the highest score of 23 words a minute with a 97% accuracy, which makes them a team of 120. This is plenty good for students who have only been typing 4 1/2 months. The requirement for the whole term is just 30 words a minute.

The Jr. Business Training class has just completed a study of transportation. They made very interesting travel booklets telling of a trip they personally would like to take. They planned the whole trip and figured up the cost of everything they did.

Mrs. Holley The English classes I and III begin a study of Literature this new term while Classes II and IV begin composition and grammar.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

Perry Calk has returned to the first grade. He went to school in Comstock while his mother was sick.

Mrs. C. C. Mitchell has given the first grade two lovely gifts. She gave them some paints, nails, and six library books.

The first, second, and third grades are showing a great interest in library books. They will thoroughly enjoy the new books.

GOSSIP

It's quite cozy in the show whenever Butch Murray and Clara Alice are there.

It's really good to see a new boy in the school, but only for the benefit of those lucky Sophomores.

Maurine Frazier is on the loose now, so don't you boys hold back. Mary Nell Higgins' heart skips a beat whenever Doyce's name is mentioned. He is nice.

Since we're on the Mary Nells we'll stick to the subject. The little Gates gal has quite a lot to say—and good, too—about Jimmy Merritt.

Sambo really makes a darling haprone, Butch. You and Douglas should take him out more often.

Connie was in Seventh Heaven this week-end. It simply couldn't have been because Charles was in town.

We hear that H. H. is carrying the torch for some gal Wonder who she is?

Joan Anderson and Frank you-know—who are up to bat again.

W. T. and Margaret are still hitting it off steadily. Nice going, kids, we think you're swell too.

Amusing Musing Bill Cochran is the "love 'em and leave 'em" type so don't fall too hard, Jan.

Miss Nixon, it is now known publicly that your room mate call you "Vash" when she thinks no one is listening.

Suppose that after these mid-term grades, the chillun will buckle down and study a little next time.

Wait a minute, you lugs, why have Miss Kinkler, Miss Brieger, and Mrs. Holley in the WAACS before they even know anything about it.

We hear that after an uninteresting escapade one Friday afternoon a couple of Senior girls have learned their lesson. But you're only young once and their's a first time for everything.

Jay Tom Holley is growing kinkical. When he can get a date, he can't get the car; when he can get the car, he can't get a date.

LOOKING BACK TO THE YEAR OF 1935

Looking back to 1935 we find: Bobbie Allen a freshman at 14, Hicks Cannon a freshman at 13, Mary Beth Banner a freshman at 14.

Holden Murrah is a junior and his favorite food is bananas. His pastime is taking seventh grade girls riding. "It can't be done" is his favorite saying.

Mildred Stavley is a junior and frozen fruit salad is her favorite food. "Oh, fizzle!" is her favorite saying and telling jokes her pastime.

HOME MADE BLACKOUTS

-and how to avoid them

If your lights go out suddenly and your neighbors' lights remain on, the chances are that a short circuit or overload somewhere in your home has caused a fuse to blow. This is really for your protection for if the fuse did not blow and cut off the current, damage to your housewiring might result. Here are some suggestions that will help you avoid blown fuses and prevent needless interruptions in your electric service:

Repair faulty appliance and portable lamp cords. Cords with worn insulation or loose connections that permit bare wires to come together are a common cause of blown fuses. Inspect your cords regularly and repair them or have them repaired if they show signs of wear. Protect them from fraying, cracking, breaking or kinking.

Keep fabric-covered cords away from water. If moisture soaks into a cord it may cause a short circuit as water is an excellent conductor of electricity. Washers and other appliances used around water are equipped with rubber cords for this reason.

Do not overload your washer. Filling tub too full of clothes or feeding too many pieces into wringer at one time may cause an overload on the motor that will result in a blown fuse. Stiff grease in the gear case, caused by storing washer outdoors in cold weather, may do the same thing.

Do not connect too many appliances on one circuit. The average household branch circuit is wired to carry 15 amperes or 1725 watts. Connecting lamps and appliances totaling more than this wattage on one such circuit at one time may cause a fuse to blow.

Do not use defective appliances. Have them repaired by a competent electrician or appliance dealer at the first sign of trouble.

Blown fuses may also result from defective wall switches, outlets and other parts of your wiring system, although more often the causes are those mentioned above. In the event of trouble with your housewiring, it is best to call a qualified electrician to deal with it.

Always Keep Spare Fuses of Right Size on Hand!

CREDIT FOR DEPENDENTS

A taxpayer is entitled to a credit for each person other than husband or wife, whether related to him or not, and whether living with him or not, who during the taxable year was dependent upon and received his chief support from the taxpayer provided the dependent is either (a) under 18 years of age or (b) incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective.

The credit for dependents is based upon Actual Financial Dependency and not mere legal dependency. It is not necessary that the dependent be related to the taxpayer, but the taxpayer must have provided more than one-half of the support, or there is no dependency.

The term "mentally or physically defective" includes not only those who are mentally afflicted and physically crippled, but also persons who, by reason of old age or impaired health, are incapable of self-support. The state of mental or physical defect need not be of a permanent nature, but if it existed for only a portion of the year, then the credit for dependent can be claimed only for that portion of the year during which the dependent was supported by the taxpayer.

A person may not acquire a credit for dependent by reason of support of a person qualifying as a dependent if, as a result of such support, he acquires a head of family exemption, but may acquire a credit or dependent by reason of additional persons qualifying as dependents, whom he supports. Thus, if a person claims head of a family exemption on account of support of an aged mother or father, incapable of self-support or a child, he would not be entitled to a credit for such dependent; but if he supported more than one such person he could claim credit for such additional persons provided they were under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support.

Credit for dependents may not be divided between two persons filing separate returns, but must be taken by the one contributing the chief support. A credit for dependents may be claimed by a father who provides the support for his children living with his divorced wife, if the support is provided as a result of a court decree or as the result of an agreement between husband and wife. The credit for dependent, allowable to a taxpayer filing on Form 1040, is $350 and is proportionate with the number of months of dependency. Thus, for a child born on July 1, the credit allowable would be $175 (for six months), and if a child became 18 years of age on July 1 the credit allowable would be $175. One-half a month or less is not counted as a month; more than one-half a month is counted as a month in calculating the credit.

A credit of $385 for each dependent on July 1 of the year is allowable to a taxpayer using Simplified Form 1040A.

BOGART, ASTOR STARRED IN "ACROSS THE PACIFIC"

Following the lead set in "All Through The Night" in which he battled the Gestapo, Humphrey Bogart now turns his active attention to would-be Jap saboteurs in his latest success, "Across The Pacific," coming to the Princess Theatre on Friday and Saturday February 5 and 6.

"Across The Pacific" features Bogart, Mary Astor, and Sydney Greenstreet.

Bogart is cast as Rick Weland, once a captain in the United States Army, now dishonorably discharged. Rejected because of his record for Canadian Army service, Rick boards the Japanese vessel, "Genoa Maru," headed for Yokohama. On ship, he meets Alberta Marlow (Mary Astor) and Dr. Lorenz (Sydney Greenstreet).

Lorenz who admits his great admiration for the Japanese slyly prods Rick into talking about his discharge and also revealing his great knowledge of military installations guarding the Panama Canal. In New York, Rick leaves the boat long enough to report to his superior. It becomes evident he is in the Army Secret Service and Lorenz is the man he's after.

Carrying along the game, Rick "sells out" to Lorenz and reveals certain information in Form 1040, is $350 and is proportionate with the number of months of dependency. Thus, for a child born on July 1, the credit allowable would be $175 (for six months), and if a child became 18 years of age on July 1 the credit allowable would be $175. One-half a month or less is not counted as a month; more than one-half a month is counted as a month in calculating the credit.

Once in Panama, events develop swiftly. Suspicious of Rick, Lorenz's men cane him severely. Alberta disappears. Rick is told to go to the Bountiful Plantation by loyal Chinese. He is captured at the plantation by Jap agents. There he finds Lorenz, Alberta and her father, Dan Morton (Monte Blue), held captive. Rick then learns of Lorenz's plans to blow up the Gatun Locks of the Panama Canal.

Whirl wind action, thrilling episodes, skillful comedy and heart-warming romance, in a story of the exciting battle for America's much needed oil make Paramount's "Wildcat" outstanding movie entertainment.

The new film, which stars Richard Arlen and pretty Arline Judge and features William Frawley, Larry "Buster" Crabbe, Arthur Hunnicutt and Elisha Cook, Jr., opens at the Princess Theatre Tuesday.

Richard Arlen, the hero of the new piece, is a wildcatter who finds oil, buys the property itself, and with his young, tenderfoot partner, Elisha Cook, Jr., starts drilling to beat out a rival outfit in bringing in the first gusher, for which a big cash money prize is offered. Sabotage by rivals causes Cook's death. Posing as Arlen's dead partner's sister, Arline Judge turns
