TERRELL COUNTY RAISES QUOTA FOR WAR FUND DRIVE IN 18 DAYS

R. E. Corder, County War Fund chairman, announced Thursday, March 18th, that the American Red Cross War Fund drive was over the top by a little more than $100 eighteen days after it was started March 1.

The drive was started with a number of letters mailed to Terrell County residents asking their support in raising funds needed to aid the Red Cross in their work, both at home and abroad. A special union service was held Sunday, March 7, with all churches of the town taking part, to give impetus to the drive.

In making the announcement Mr. Corder stated that as of March 18th, $1355.75 had been donated by patriotic citizens who wished to do their part in an effort to bring victory. The quota set was $1250.00, or just $105.75 less than was raised on that date.

Another item of interest to most citizens of the county which was brought out was the fact that out of the 496 persons contacted there were only 239 who had responded at the time of the announcement. This likelihood of being exactly fifty percent of those contacted.

Those in charge of the drive called attention to the fact that if the 52 percent who have not answered their letters or responded to the appeal were to do as well as the 48 percent which had answered by Thursday the quota would be more than doubled.

Mr. Corder also stated 44 percent of the total funds raised remain in Terrell County to be used by the local chapter in taking care of occasions which might arise from local misfortunes and for necessary expenses in carrying on the work of the organization.

KERR HOTEL COFFEE SHOP CLOSED FOR INDEFINITE TIME

In last week's issue of the Times appeared an announcement by J. W. Downum, manager of the Kerr Hotel, that the Hotel Coffee Shop would be closed for an indefinite period of time.

Mr. Downum stated that the cafe would be closed until labor and food problems could be worked out so that the customary service could be conducted in the usual manner. The hotel will continue in operation.

Local Churches Observe World Day of Prayer

The annual World Day of Prayer service was held at the Baptist Church Friday afternoon, March 12th. The theme for the program was "Father, I Pray That They May All Be One", and was led by Mrs. Walter Grigsby.

The plan for a World Day of Prayer was created 25 years ago, and is sponsored by the United Council of Church Women. Four pieces of interdenominational work sponsored by the World Day of Prayer offerings are: Christian Literature, Indian Students in U. S. Government Schools, Migrants, and Union Christian Colleges.

Office of War Information

The farmer who sells his surplus butter and an occasional side of beef when he goes into town on market day will collect ration stamps, just like the operator of a super market, after the rationing of meats, fats and oils, cheese and canned fish goes into effect March 29.

By making such sales, he automatically becomes a distributor and must collect either the red stamps in Ration Book 2, ration checks or certificates and surrender the collected points to OPA.

But the forthcoming meat rationing program places no official restrictions on any of the rationed foods raised by farmers if used for their own tables.

Farmers and their families are given a full quota of points, just like the city folks, but the Government doesn't expect them to use all the points. OPA is asking farm families to retain the red stamps from their family books equal to the point value of the rationed foods, including meat, produced on the farm and eaten at home. In other words, farmers are being urged to economize on their consumption of home-produced foods and to limit their purchases of the rationed foods not produced at home. Farm families sharing available supplies with city dwellers, who must buy all of their meats, cheese, butter, etc., from stores, will be making a vital contribution to the national welfare.

For the benefit of ranchers, farmers, and others who ordinarily lay in large supplies of meats, cheese, lard, etc., for use over long periods of time, OPA will allow such purchasers to use stamps in advance of the valid

HOUSTON STOKES SHOT WHEN GUN IS DISCHARGED

A painful injury was sustained by Houston Stokes Sunday afternoon when he started to place his bedroll into his car preparatory to going, on guard duty at the Sanderson canyon railroad bridge. When he lifted the bedroll a pistol, which he had placed on the roll, slid off and struck the ground, discharging it. The bullet entered his right leg just above the knee and followed the bone into the hip where it lodged.

He was taken to a Del Rio hospital where the 45 slug was cut out of his hip, and returned to his home here Thursday. No bone was harmed, the bullet staying in the fleshy part of his limb. He is getting along fine although he will be confined to his bed for some time.

County school trustees will be named in Commissioners' Precincts numbers one, three and four, and the common school district trustee election will be county wide. Both elections will be held in each precinct at the same time and with the same election officers in charge. Citizens in precinct two will vote for common school trustee only, and the following voting places have been named:

Mr. Arrington has served the board during the past term and is placed on the ticket for re-election. Persons must file with the county judge 10 days prior to the election if their name is to be placed on the ballots.

Mrs. C. P. Peavy received painful injuries Monday when she turned her ankle and fell from the steps at the back door of her home, landing on her left arm and shoulder in a flower bed.

The impact from the fall caused a fracture of the arm bone in the shoulder and also broke a small chip from the bone where it fits into the socket of the shoulder bone. She is confined to bed at her home after going to Fort Stockton and having x-ray pictures made showing the fracture and break.

COLLEGE TRAINING PROGRAM TO INCLUDE NEEDS FOR U. S. ARMY

Word has been received this week by C. G. Bradford, principal of the Sanderson High School, that the Navy training program which was announced in the Times last week had been extended so as to provide for joint Army-Navy needs instead of just Navy needs.

The new plan provides for the examination of male students who have attained their 17th and have not reached their 22nd birthdays by July 1, 1943, and who have graduated or are expected to graduate from secondary schools prior to that date. It is designed to provide information useful to the Armed Forces in selecting students for college training under the Army Specialized Training Program, and in classifying all others in respect to relative trainability.

The purpose of the Army Specialized Training Program is to train, at the collegiate level, men in technical and professional skills required by the Army. Engineers of all types, doctors, psychologists, linguists, physicists, mathematicians and students of foreign area are needed in large numbers, and the Army has established this program in those colleges and universities where such training can best be given.

The eligibility of an individual for the Army Specialized Training Program is not fully established until he has successfully completed the normal twelve or thirteen weeks of basic military training immediately following his induction into the Army. Success on the proposed test, however, will provide the candidate with a certificate of qualification which upon presentation at the time of voluntary or regular induction, will assure his assignment to a Replacement Training Center as a potential Army Specialized Training Program trainee. If it is then determined that he is potential officer candidate material, he will be assigned to an Army Specialized Training Unit as an enlisted man on active duty, receiving the pay of a private seventh grade, to pursue a curriculum of study for which he has shown himself qualified. Individual choice of curriculum will be given serious consideration, although the Army will assign each candidate to the curriculum for which his aptitudes indicate him best suited.

The purpose of the training, as stated last week, is to select material for officer training. Any high school graduate or senior in high school whose age falls in the above specified limits, is eligible. Forms may be secured at the high school building and the examination is to be held at 9:00 o'clock in the morning, April 2, at the high school building.

MEN LEAVE MON. FOR INDUCTION STATION AT BLISS

Men from Terrell County who left for the induction center at Fort Bliss were:

Aurelio Torrez, Rodolfo Salinas, Ramiro Garza Barrera, Ray Angelo Montesano, Pablo Lopez Pena, Otilio Escudero, Lorenzo Maldonado, Pablo Gutierrez and Ray Phillip Thompson, who was in charge of the group. He was transferred to Terrell County from La Vaca County.

Edman Dewain Morris and Earl R. McDonald were transferred to El Paso for induction.

Junior Woman's Club Is Entertained In J. S. Nance Home

The Junior Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. J. S. Nance Friday, March 12th, with Mrs. Richard Halcy as hostess and Mrs. Bernice Vaughan as co-hostess.

Miss Margaret Kinkler was leader of the program taken from the Reader's Digest. Miss Marion Brieger reviewed "The Life and Love of Ivan the Terrible" and Miss Imogene Knight reviewed "I Am An Army Hostess".

The club voted to donate five dollars to the Sanderson Library, five dollars to the American Red Cross and two dollars to the Sanderson Girl Scouts.

A lovely salad plate, carrying out the St. Patrick motif, with tea was served to Mrs. Conway Pickard, Misses Armenta Ragsdale, Anna Lee Allen, Marion Brieger, Margaret Kinkler, Imogene Knight, Margaret Lattimore, Alma Eldridge and Mrs. Leo Wright.

The next meeting will be held April 8 at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. W. J. Ferguson with Miss Marion Brieger and Miss Imogene Knight as hostesses.

Word has been received here of the birth of Kirby Lee Pugh, nine pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Pugh of Temple. The young man was born Saturday, March 13, and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. White of Sanderson.

Mrs. Luella Lemons, Mrs. Adelle L. Bolling and Edward Wheeler spent the past week-end in Lorraine visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lemons. Mrs. Lemons and daughter, Nina Lou returned with them and will visit here for two weeks.

Mrs. Grace Wheeler is visiting in El Paso this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Herbert visited in Marfa Friday with their son, Aviation Cadet Bert Herbert, who is stationed there for advanced training.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Adams went to Del Rio Wednesday. Mrs. Adams remained for a longer visit with friends.

"More to come." This was the warning to Hitler and Hirohito that employees of the Dallas Division of North American Aviation, Inc., painted on the first B-24 Liberator bomber which rolled this week from the assembly lines of the company's second plant at Dallas. The term was borrowed from the jargon of newspaper men who use it at the bottom of a page of copy when a story is unfinished. Lucille Kelly is holding the paint jar in the picture and C. H. Williams is putting the finishing touches on the sign. North American has been manufacturing TEXAN also in the preliminary stages of turning out the famous P-51 Mustang fighter. The company is included in the B-24 program along with Consolidated, designer of the ship, Ford and Douglas.

William R. Boyd, Chairman of the Petroleum Industry War Council, recently pointed out that: "Because the United States had maintained a historic policy of allowing full opportunity for petroleum's development by men of business vision, investors, technologists, and scientists; because such men had had free opportunity to operate the competitive system, when war did come our industry became at once a tower of strength to the war program..."

"We are engaged in all-out war, testing whether this nation with all its rights and privileges for the individual, can survive so, while we are exposed to dangers from without, we must submit to the application of many drastic rules and regulations that in time of peace we abhor, and against which we would rebel in righteous indignation."

The rules and regulations of which Mr. Boyd speaks have for the duration eliminated our "historic policy of allowing full opportunity." Other natural resources and manufacturing industries are in the same position. The men who operate them know at what great price we are fighting the war, in terms of restricted liberties and opportunities. But a majority of the people have yet to learn of that price. Unless they realize its grim significance, there is little hope of redeeming individual opportunity after the war.

Built on past opportunities, American industry has the power to achieve great military production which, linked with determined armed forces, must win the war. And then unless we return opportunity to the individual, again encourage him to take risks, invest savings the incentive of profit, we are through as a progressive nation.

We will not sustain greatness by glorifying government as a provider and producer. It is neither. Many are coasting on such a delusion. They will coast only so long as the impetus of more than a century of individual achievement is there to push them.

"Glad we ran into you, Judge. I was just tryin' to set Helen straight on this business about sugar. I wish you'd tell her what you told me last night down at lodge." "Glad to, Jim. I told him, Helen, that there's not a single bit of truth to the rumor that the distillers use sugar in making whiskey. They make it exclusively from grain. Only bootleggers use sugar to make whiskey. I read an article in the paper just last week that goes to prove it. It told how a confessed bootlegger in a Federal court testified to the fact that another bootlegger, also on trial, had bought a million pounds of sugar a few years ago. "As a matter of fact, Helen, no distiller is making whiskey today and hasn't for many months. All distillers are working night and day producing war alcohol for the government. And they make every drop of it exclusively from grain, too."

Assembly Program

This week in assembly Rev. John Klassen, of the Methodist Church spoke to the grammar school and high school. He talked on the four freedoms—freedom of fear, freedom of speech, religion and want. Mr. Lovell has framed pictures of these four freedoms for the library. The pictures came from the "Saturday Evening Post." Everyone should take time to read them in the library.

CAN-U-IMAGINE?

John Lewis playing "Pardon My Sarong". Betty Lou in glasses. Seniors being bashful in class. W. T. walking on his dates. What the senior play will be about. Who writes Frank all those notes. Marshall wanting to go fishing. Juniors still enjoying their play practices. Clara Alice not peeping in at play practice. Miss Nixon without a secret to flutter about. Someone not owing a library fine. So many failures among the so called smart students.

"MARY"

Mary is a very unusual character. She has many peculiar habits. Most of them are good. She is one of the best cooks in the country. And like most women likes to have someone brag about it. She would rather set a good table than sleep and she would rather sleep than eat. She likes to boss, but no one pays any attention to her. The only one she tells what to do is her husband. Mary never throws anything away. She saves everything, but money. Therefore she doesn't see why others don't save. Mary likes to be building or tearing down something all the time. She has been building on her house for four or five years and hasn't finished yet. She takes a big delight in bawling out the Mexicans that work for her. Mary gets a big kick out of "our gang", three or four boys who go out and work each weekend. She is always laughing and joking. She knows all the dope on us and sometimes she gets us in embarrassing situations. With all her eagerness for out of doors, she likes to read. Mary takes three magazines and gets gether quite often. Nice going kids. All the books-of-the-month. All in all Mary is a very likable character. If you haven't had the pleasure of meeting her, you don't know what you are missing.

SENIORS LEAD IN HONOR ROLL

The Senior Class has the honor of leading the entire high school in number of class members on the honor roll this six weeks. This is as it should be and the seniors are duly proud. Seniors: Bill Cochran, Mary Corder, Bill Davis, Betty Frazier, Harold Haynes, James House, Kathryn Nell Nance, Imogene Woodruff, Margaret Ruth Yeates, Douglas Smith. Sophomores: Billie Babb, Hazel Bergman, Mrs. Alberta Courtney, Yvonne Oberling, Bill Savage. Freshmen: Don Frazier, Betty Jo Kerr, Mary Jean Ogle. 8th Grade: Weldon Chamberlain, Charles Hill.

OFFICE NEWS

New Students: There are two new students this week. One is Gloria Watkins of Warren, Texas. She is a freshman and is taking general math, P. E., English I, H. E. I, and junior business training. Folley Holland comes from Lone Grove School in Llano County. He is in the eighth grade, section 1.

SEEING THE SENIORS

At this time we are revealing to you the interesting life of that "curvaceous" and energetic blonde of the Senior class, Margaret Ruth Yeates. She has (as I said before) blonde hair and green eyes as well as very sweet personality. She has gone to school in Sanderson all of her life and we are very lucky to have her. Margaret Ruth's ambition is to be a Secretary and I know she would be a very efficient one. She has no definite plans after graduation though. Mart's hobby is collecting post cards and keeping a scrapbook, and her favorite pastime is dancing at which judging from the rush she gets at dances, she is very good.

Now for some of her favorites. Her favorite food is pecan pie and her favorite color which is different from some of the senior girls' is red. Margaret Ruth's favorite movie star is Dennis Morgan and her favorite book is "All that Glitters". In music Margaret Ruth prefers "You Made Me Love You"—Hm! In line with her ambition her favorite subject is Shorthand. This blonde's energy is apparent in her school record which is as follows: President of the Freshman and Senior Classes (and she knows how to do it too), Vice-president of the Sophomore class, and Secretary-Treasurer of the Junior Class. Margaret Ruth has also been in the band a number of years. Last and proudest, she was the Queen in the Coronation this year. Her pet peeve logical one at that, is unpleasant people.

By Mickie Corder

This week we present the dignified but quiet senior, Margaret Pierson. Margaret was born in El Paso, May 31, 1926 possessing green eyes and brown hair. She has attended both grammar and high school in Sanderson. Her ambition is to be an English teacher and her hobby is collecting matchfolders and postcards. Margaret's favorites are: past-time, singing; food, Angel food cake; color, blue; movie star, Greer Garson; book, "Gone With the Wind"; song, "My Devotion"; subject, English. Her pet peeves are the strange odors in chemistry lab. During Margaret's high school days she has been in the Choral club, Pep Squad, and has worked in the Library. After graduation she plans to attend the University of Texas.

The Eighth Grade Reading Class, Section II, is making a biography of famous people. Those whose writings are going to be used are: Ruth Bendele, Helen Kinman, Rita Silvas, Jimmy Merritt, Cecelia Goode, Mona Ogle, Luisa Silvas, Avis McDonald, Eliciam Gonzales, Malloy Winston, William Shelton, Violet

Billings, and Hazel Babb

This boy is a senior. He's very unusual in several ways. First he seldom goes with the girls. Secondly he makes A's consistently. Thirdly, he has a weakness for giving a certain girl candy. This senior played football one year and took all the bumps that were given him. This year he was elected as "loudest mouth" boy in school. Now, can you guess who he is?

She's a sophomore. She's very popular with a certain senior boy or rather she was the last time I heard. She's played volleyball two years, has very pretty eyes and hair, likes these "strip-downs" and has a grand sense of humor. She was nominated as best sport in high school in the election here at the beginning of school and came out second in the contest. Every one knows her and likes her very much. Can you guess who she is?

WHISPERING GHOSTS IS HILARIOUS MYSTERY FILM

Milton Berle was a very funny fellow in his previous pictures, but in 20th Century-Fox's "Whispering Ghosts" which opens at the Princess Theatre Tuesday he's twice as funny. Probably because it's his first starring picture. A "scare-ewy" spine-chilling comedy with a ghost ship background, the movie offers a grand opportunity for Berle to show his stuff. And he has plenty on the ball! Abetted by lovely Brenda Joyce, John Shelton, John Caradine and Willie Best, Berle plays the role of a radio detective who solves a crime on the air each week. He gets involved in a mystery ship which Brenda's grand-uncle one owned, and Milton puts on his shooting cap and takes his magnifying glass to solve the disappearance of the jewels. The solution of the crime makes for hilarious entertainment, as Milton tries his best to thwart the villains. Gagged, the film plots its merry way through some of the most laugh-provoking episodes of the season.

SMALL TOWNS IMPORTANT IN SCREEN NOTABLES

Every day's newspaper proves that small towns can often be important milestones in military history. Small towns can also be important milestones in personal history. Teresa Wright and McDonald Carey are romantically paired in Alfred Hitchcock's new Universal suspense drama, "Shadow of a Doubt," which comes Wednesday and Thursday to the Princess Theatre. Both players can date their success stories from the same small town in which neither was born and in which only one of them lived. This small town, so important in the careers of Miss Wright and Carey, is Maplewood, New Jersey, in a township of 23,000 population. Both players were born in New York City. Miss Wright went to live in Maplewood as a child and adopted the community as her home town. She attended high school there. It was from Maplewood that Teresa set out with her father to see the performance of Helen Hayes in "Victoria Regina," which made her want to be an actress. It was in Maplewood that young Teresa got her first chance to prove he could play a role. While only a freshman at Columbia high school, in that town the girl won the leading part in the senior class play. This role determined her to act professionally. MacDonald Carey was a young player with the Actors' Theatre in New York when Cheryl Crawford and John Wildberg, stage producers, placed him in repertory in Maplewood, where he appeared in "No Time For Comedy," "Margin For Error" and other plays. When "The Royal Family" troupe reached Maplewood, Kurt Weill, noted composer, asked Miss Crawford if she could recommend a young actor to fill the advertising man role. She recommended Corey. It was his lucky break. These two players, Miss Wright and Carey, enact their most significant screen parts in another small town, Santa Rosa, California, population 15,000. It was in this town that Hitchcock decided to film most of "Shadow of a Doubt," in order to achieve absolute realism for his story which has a small town setting. Carey is a criminal investigator in "Shadow of a Doubt," which deals with a killer who takes refuge at his sister's home in a small town. Joseph Cotten, starred with Miss Wright, is the romantic murderer. Patricia Collinge is the sister. Henry Travers, Wallace Ford and Hume Cronyn have important roles.

Eufemia Martinez was born in Sanderson, Texas, September 3, 1928. She has brown eyes and brown hair. She entered Lamar Ward School six years ago. Eufemia is in the Seventh Grade now, and hopes to attend Sanderson High School next term. She is one of the officers in the Art Club and in News Paper Club of the Seventh Grade. Arithmetic and history are her favorite subjects in school. By Ernestina Ochoa periods. In these cases, the purchaser goes to the local board and surrenders as many red stamps as his purchase will require, even though some of the stamps were scheduled for use weeks or months ahead. The board official, then, will give him a bulk point certificate which will permit him to make his quantity purchase.

Beginning April 1, farmers who slaughter livestock for sale will become subject to the recent order of the Secretary of Agriculture which requires them to get "farm slaughterer's" permits from their County War Boards. To make it easier for them to dispose of their meat when selling direct to a consumer, OPA will allow them to collect all of the red stamps required for the purchase, even though some series may not have become valid for ordinary use.

For many farmers, the shoe will be on the other foot when they go to the nearest meat market for a Sunday roast, or a bucket of shortening. He'll have to use the stamps in his Ration Book. Just like his friend who goes to the corner drug store

But, in patronizing the retailer, he'll have access to an official list of products which he can use to buy his ration. He must surrender for each purchase. The store can give him back "change" in ration stamps, too, and if he doesn't want to buy meat, he can use the red stamps for eggs, butter, margarine, lard, cooking oil, cooking oil, or canned fish. Any of these can be bought with the basic allotment of 16 points per person.

The point values of the 150-odd items will be announced during the week of March 22. These points will tell the real story of how much all of us will be able to buy under meat rationing, but whatever it turns out to be, consumers will know that everyone will be getting his fair share of the available civilian supply.

OPA officials give assurance that meat rationing, as well as other phases of the over-all program, will be flexible and subject to changes made necessary by changing supply and market conditions. Their food specialists from this region have gone to Washington to gather detailed information about the meat program and to present the views of Southwesterners to OPA heads at the capital.

The announcement on meat rationing followed shortly after a change in ration point values for several important food items. Point values of dried and dehydrated prunes and raisins was reduced from 20 to 12 points. Dried beans and peas were dropped from eight to four points. Dates and figs were removed from the list of rationed foods.

Down in the Solomons and on the African coast the Crocodile Boat or the lighter played a most important role in landing our invasion troops. These self-propelled, light, fast boats haul tanks, artillery and other equipment from the big ships offshore to the beach heads.

We need more and more of them, for they are essential to the successful operation of the war. They are made in several sizes from small 60-footers, costing about $2,400 to the big 100-footers costing around $57,000. Your purchase of War Bonds every payday will help pay for them. U. S. Look! Listen! Live!

Every month an average of 702 freight trains, most of them carrying vital war goods, are delayed an average of 460 hours because of carelessness by the men and women who drive automobiles.

The grade crossing accident illustrated here is an example: At 1:32 a. m. (more than 1,900 grade crossing accidents occurred at night last year) a freight train passed through a city in accordance with the speed limit. The locomotive's headlight gleamed through the darkness and the regulation whistle warnings were sounded.

The engineman saw a gasoline tank truck crossing immediately in front of the engine and, realizing the imminence of the accident, applied the air brakes, but was unable to stop in time. The impact tore the gasoline tank open. Gasoline ignited and exploded, killing the engineman, fireman and a brakeman, as well as the oil truck driver.

The locomotive and 27 freight cars and their contents were damaged by flames. Three homes nearby caught fire and burned, as well as two parked automobiles and one express truck.

The National Safety Council is conducting a special campaign to stop these grade crossing accidents, which every day delay an average of 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a serious drain on the nation's war transportation effort. Driver carelessness is the cause of almost all grade crossing accidents, according to the Council. To help win the war, to save yourself and others needless suffering, the Council asks you to be sure the track is clear before you start across.

WOMEN AT WAR

Mom "Sausages for breakfast! I can smell 'em!" Small Joe came tumbling downstairs fastening the belt of his shorts as he came. He made a bee-line for the kitchen. Pop was already sitting at the table reading the paper, while Mom held the handle of the frying-pan over the stove. Small Joe came close and sniffed the delicious smoke, wriggling all over with early-morning joy. "Better be thankful for them while you can still get them." One glance at Mom's face told small Joe this was one of her tight-lipped days. "Not a drop of coffee in the house, and no sugar left to put in it if there was. Some war!" Small Joe kept still.

"Letter for you, son," Pop said in his quiet voice. Small Joe made a leap for his place at table. There it was, a private personal letter for him alone, propped against his milk glass.

"Hey, Pop! It's from brother!" Small Joe was pulling the envelope apart and diving into the contents. "Hey, look what he sent me." He passed over an oblong of thick, crinkly paper while he leaned over the sheet of writing paper.

"A twenty-five dollar War Bond," Pop said slowly. Mom turned and looked at it over Pop's shoulder, with the frying-pan in her hand. "Listen what he says. 'How are you doing, kid? Hurry and grow up so you can help me slap the Japs. Aren't you most big enough to get into the Army? Here's something for you in your name. Let's the whole family gang up and help to win this war.'"

Pop and Mom were silent. But small Joe didn't notice that. He was full of his letter and his War Bond. "Gee, Pop, in six years I could get into the Army, couldn't I, Pop? Gee, Pop, I want to be a soldier like brother and fight in this war. Gee, isn't that bond nifty? Look, it was issued in Honolulu. It's mine." But Pop was looking at Mom and Mom was looking at Pop. There were tears in Mom's eyes. She shook her head sharply. Pop reached out and patted her hand gently.

"Well, can't let our soldier boy beat us to buying War Bonds, can we, old lady?" was all he said. "She shook her head again. 'I guess if he can give up his job and go off to war I can do some fighting back at home,' she said in a queer voice. Small Joe looked up at her in surprise. She saw him looking at her and spoke sharply. 'Well, Joe, we're about ready to eat. Say grace.' Small Joe folded his hands and bent his head as he had been taught. 'Oh Lord, we thank thee for this food and all thy bountiful gifts. Amen,' Pop said. 'Amen,' Mom said. 'Now eat your good sausages.' (Story from an actual report in the files of the Treasury Department.)
