Sanderson Bank's Assets Now Above Million Dollar Mark

Highest Peak Since Establishment of Local Concern

Total assets shown by the financial statement of condition, issued at the close of business October 18, are above the one million mark for the Sanderson State Bank. This is the first time in the history of the bank assets have reached the million dollar mark according to C. P. Peavy, cashier.

The latest statement shows a gain of $71,886.65 over that shown on the statement at the close of business on the 30th day of June of this year, and an increase of $340,867.82 over the figure at the close of business June 30th of last year.

Deposits as of June 30, 1942, reached a total of $896,215.29. In the latest statement deposits were shown at $961,970.13.

Hand Tooled Leather Articles By Elder Draw Attention

Story Appeared In Harpers Bazaar In Special Column

In a column headed "Shopping Bazaar" in the Harpers Bazaar magazine of the October issue appeared a story praising the merits of Hal Elder, leather artist who has made the most of the handtooled leather belts that are worn by men and women of this section.

The article, as it appeared in the magazine, reads:

"Deep in the heart of the Lone Star State is a young man named Hal Elder who takes the hide right off those Texas steers and transforms them into super-duper belts and wallets. They are natural rawhide, hand-tooled in pairie flower patterns, belt has a more attractive outline than the ordinary dude ranch number. Mr. Elder will tool your name, initials, or sorority seal in the leather, or even make a belt of your own design if you send him a rough sketch. Prices range between $1.50 and $10.00. The narrow, handmade genuine saddle-leather belt, perfectly plain with a metal buckle, comes in black, brown, or natural leather and is only $1.50. The deluxe model about an inch and a quarter wide of tan saddle leather, elaborately hand-tooled in a cut out design, simply snaps at the meeting place of the two ends and it's pretty enough to wear with your dirndl-type wools as well as with your slacks and sports clothes. This belt is $10.00 and worth every red cent of it, when you realize it will stand a lifetime of wear and tear and probably be handed down to your children. There is a similar model with almost the same tooled design plus a sterling buckle at $7.50. Or maybe a leather octagon-shaped snapless coin purse, which opens up like a little flower, might win your heart. It's also hand-tooled and sells for $3, and there's a dude-looking wallet to match for $5, for your man. Send orders or inquiries to Hal Elder, Sanderson, Texas."

Hal gives credit for his success to Tom Shaffer who has trained and coached him in his leatherwork, and to Mrs. D. M. Randall who was instrumental in getting samples of his work in the hands of the columnists for the magazines.

Orders, which have been pouring in daily, are being turned down by Mr. Elder as he goes into the army November 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oberkamp of Ozona were business visitors here Monday and Tuesday.

HOLLIMAN, S. P. OFFICIAL DIES

Blaine S. Holliman, 59, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific Railroad Lines, died in Houston last night after a brief illness. He was the second S. P. official to die within a week, his death following by six hours services for A. D. Mims, vice president and general manager.

Holliman lived in San Antonio from 1935 to 1938, serving as division superintendent, before his promotion.

WEAR A POPPY NOVEMBER 11TH

Poppy Day will be here again next week all residents are urged to wear a poppy on that day. These flowers were made by disabled veterans in the United States Veteran's Hospital at Legion, Texas.

When you wear a poppy you contribute to the comfort and cheer of disabled veterans of both World Wars. Your contribution will further the work of local and national rehabilitation.

A committee from the local chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary will contact the people of the community with an ample supply. Be sure to wear your poppy on Armistice Day.

Thirty Days Notice To Be Given If Shoe Stamp 18 Cancelled

Statement Made By OPA Because of Scare-Buying Rumors

Should it ever become necessary to terminate shoe ration stamp 18, the public will be given 30 days notice, Benard M. Goldberg, miscellaneous products rationing officer, announced today.

Mr. Goldberg statement was made to refute unfounded scare-buying rumors that validity period Stamps 18 might be cancelled with only 24 hours notice to consumers.

Last month OPA announced that stamp 18 would not expire October 31 as originally scheduled but the validity period of this shoe stamp and of Airplane Stamp 1 in War Ration Book Three—which becomes valid on November 1—will overlap. At the time, OPA gave assurance that if it should become necessary to terminate these stamps at some future date, no such action would be taken without adequate notice to consumers and dealers.

"Fast spreading rumors about the sudden termination of Stamps 18 make necessary a definite statement of what is meant by 'adequate notice'." Mr. Goldberg said. "Adequate notice in this case means 30 days notice. (And I might add, we have no intention of giving that notice now.)"

"Our only reason for ever terminating the validity period of shoe stamps would be the problem of counterfeiting. We have found counterfeits of Stamp 18 in a few isolated instances and are tracing them to their source for proper action. However, if any quantity of counterfeit stamps ever got into circulation, it might be necessary to invalidate all stamps 18 before shoe stocks are depleted. The new shoe stamps on safety paper should preclude any such possibility."

HAS OPERATION

R. N. Allen went to Alpine Wednesday of last week where he underwent an operation in a hospital there. He was returned to Sanderson Monday by Oberkamp ambulance and is reported to be getting along fine although he will be confined to his bed for about two weeks.

CHRISTMAS CARDS SHOULD BE MAILED IN NOVEMBER

Shortage of Shipping Facilities Makes Early Date Necessary

The war has dislocated the Christmas mailing season. This year NOVEMBER is the time for mailing Christmas gifts and cards. Gifts should be marked "Do not open until Christmas." This week the Postmaster General in Washington announced and emphasized this message. If the public wants to be sure their gifts and cards arrive before Christmas, they must be mailed in November. Clyde Griffith, local postmaster, pointed out this week.

There can be no assurance, in view of the unavoidable handicaps of war, that gifts and cards mailed in the weeks immediately preceding Christmas will be delivered on time. Such matter must not impede movement of war materials and personnel and military mail.

Transportation facilities are heavily burdened. The number of railway cars and airplanes available for handling mail is far below that of former years. Facilities simply are not available to transport and deliver, in the last 3 weeks before Christmas, the tremendous quantities of mail that heretofore has been moved in that period.

Postal employees have gone into the armed forces by the thousands and replacing them are less experienced personnel such as women and high school boys and girls, who cannot work long hours or at the high speed of experienced personnel.

Public cooperation must be complete if these Christmas mails are to be delivered on time.

THOMAS DAVIS RITES TUESDAY

Veterans of the Spanish-American war officiated at graveside services in Tucson, Ariz. Tuesday at 2 P. M. for Thomas Davis, retired Southern Pacific brakeman, who died early Saturday.

Prior to the graveside services in Evergreen cemetery there rites were conducted in the Reilly Undertaking company chapel, with Rev. Leroy Kinzer of the First Christian church officiating.

Farm Cash Income Shows Substantial Gain Over August

Fewer Cattle Sold But Higher Prices Bring More Revenue

Texas farmers put "money in the bank" in September, as farm cash income for the state rose to $144,000,000, a 20 per cent increase over income received by farmers in August, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has reported.

Cumulative farm cash income in Texas from January through September was $728,000,000 against $555,000,000 during the corresponding period a year ago—again of 31 per cent.

The number of cattle marketed during September was a little below that for the same month of 1942, but higher prices brought revenue from cattle to $15,000,000 as compared with less than fourteen million the year before.

IN DEL RIO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Pearl Babb took Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jeffers to Del Rio Thursday of last week where he entered a hospital and underwent an operation Monday. Latest reports were that he was getting along as well as could be expected.

SOME KIND OF RECORD IS SET

It is not known just what kind but the editor feels that some kind of a record has been set by the E. W. Hardgrave family, engaged in ranching in Terrell County.

The Hardgraves have four sons, all of whom are in the service of Uncle Sam. Sgt. R. L. and Pvt. Allen W. Hardgrave are both stationed at the Lubbock Army Air Field, Lubbock, Texas, and Corporal Jack W. Hardgrave is stationed at Moscow, Idaho; while Aviation Cadet John Hardgrave is receiving his training, and right now is enjoying a visit by his parents, at Hemet, California. One daughter, Miss Mary Bess, is attending Abilene Christian College, Abilene.

The fact that they have four sons serving the colors is worthy of mention but the record is set, we believe, by the fact that every member of that family is a subscriber to the hometown newspaper. Five children taking the Times and one to the homefolk—a total of six for one family.

STORES TO CLOSE NOVEMBER 11TH

Practically all business firms of Sanderson have indicated their intentions of remaining closed Armistice Day, and residents are advised to make necessary purchases with this in mind.

Filling stations and other businesses, which do not generally observe holidays or Sunday hours will probably remain open.

Many Fine Herefords To Show At Dallas November 15 To 20

Fifty-Five National Breeders Register More Than 460 Head

More than 460 animals (232 bulls and 230 females) are entered by 55 of the nation's top breeders for the 1943 National Hereford Show to be held in Dallas Nov. 15-20. Seventeen breeders are from eight states other than Texas.

Prof. E. A. Trowbridge, head of Missouri University's animal husbandry department, will award ribbons with firsts carrying a top of $100 in all major classes of a $20,000 premium list.

"It is impossible to estimate how much rubber will be saved by this big concentration of fine cattle," declared Jack Frost, president of the sponsoring Texas Hereford Association. "Buyers will not have to drive from ranch to ranch seeking herd needs. Here they can compare desirable cattle side by side. Also we have 60 fine animals, consigned by 23 breeders, for the sale on Nov. 17, date on which judging will be completed. If breeders endure today's difficulties of fitting herds and transporting them to Dallas, then it's a cinch they have some fine cattle to exhibit," he said.

Association Secretary Tom G. Patterson has seen many of the cattle and declares it would be a fine show under normal conditions. He is enthusiastic over loyalty shown by breeders this year. "They realize that expansion and improvement of the breed is bettered served by a show than by anything else," he said.

W. E. Grigsby took Mrs. Grigsby to Fort Stockton Saturday morning where she took a bus to San Angelo to be with her father, J. L. Glass, who is seriously ill in a hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Newton and children spent the weekend in Uvalde visiting with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Caverder.

To Make Juvenile Delinquency Main Study of FBI Meet

Officers From Five Counties to Gather For All-Day Program

Steps to prevent increase in Juvenile Delinquency through education outlined by FRED ERISMAN, President of the District and County Attorney's Association of Texas, will be one of the problems studied at the F. B. I. Law Enforcement Conference by over 76 Law enforcement officers from Zavala, Maverick, Kinney, Edwards, Val Verde, and Terrell counties at Brackettville, Texas, on Monday, November 15, 1943. Lt. GEORGE H. OGBURN, Jr., Assistant Base Operations Officer, Laughlin Flying Field, Del Rio, Texas, will talk on "The Spirit of the American Fighting Men."

The all-day conference will open at 10:30 A. M. at the Palace Theatre in Brackettville, according to R. C. SURAN, special agent in charge of the San Antonio F. B. I. office. The conference will be open to all interested persons, beginning at 10:30 A. M., and there will be a showing of an interesting and instructive sound motion picture.

Marfa Army Air Field Holds First Open House Tuesday

Over 2,000 Visitors On Hand for Airpower Demonstration

Marfa—Over 2000 residents of Marfa, Alpine and surrounding Big Bend communities Tuesday witnessed a demonstration of this country's air power when Marfa Army Air Field's Advanced Two-Engine Pilot School played host to the community at its first "Open House" celebration.

Suspending business activities and school session for half a day, men, women, and children of neighboring cities responded heavily to the invitation of Col. Donald B. Phillips, commanding officer, to visit the field which scarcely a year ago was grazing land for Hereford cattle.

The exhibitions served also as partial ceremonies for the graduation of the cadet class of 43-J, which later assembled in the base theatre to receive wings and base officials and a guest speaker.

Flying low over the landing strip, a B-17 Flying Fortress and a P-38 Lightning gave visitors a close-up of the speed, agility, and accuracy of America's fighting planes. At full speed, the latter did full rolls, and steep climbs and then returned with only one motor in operation to repeat the stunts. Two-engine AT-17's, manned by graduating cadets flew by the reviewing stand in precision formation flight.

After the aerial and ground reviews, spectators inspected the planes that flew in the review and then were taken on tours of the base. They saw the Link Trainer department, War Room, Sub-Depot and other interesting points.

Addressing the graduates, the guest speaker, Lt. Leonard L. Cox, veteran of 25 bombing missions over France and Germany, who flew the B-17 during the review, said, "The British were skeptical of American bombing when we arrived, for they did not think we would have enough ships or men to render much aid. However, the speed with which we made our presence felt by the enemy changed their minds. We are supplying men and equipment beyond the fondest hopes of our allies, and now you men will be a part of that."

FROM TEXAS TO TOKIO

Sgt. Troy Druse, stationed at Army Air Base, Lincoln, Nebraska, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Druse, that he has been made flight leader and is in charge of three barracks. He is studying airplanes mechanics there and it will take him until after the first of the year to complete the entire course if he finishes the studies.

Donald Babb, Seaman second class, U. S. Navy, is now stationed at San Diego California, and is attending school so that he might become a first class electrician. He is the son of Mrs. Pearl Babb.

Bill Cochran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cochran, left Sunday for Lafayette, La., where he was ordered to report for service with the Naval Air Corps. He volunteered several months ago and has been awaiting call.

James L. Blackweider, seaman first class, Seabees, recently received a promotion to that rank from seaman second class. James is stationed somewhere in the Hawaiian Islands.

P. E. Dishman Jr. pharmacist first class, U. S. Navy, arrived Monday on leave for a visit with his parents and other relatives. Prince came here from San Francisco, Calif. where he landed in the states after foreign service of two years and two days in the South Pacific. He says that he is certainly glad to get back and see all his friends again which makes him feel that it is worth going over for.

B. F. Davis has recently been promoted to Aerial Radioman, second class, according to information received here by Mrs. Davis and his mother, Mrs. Houston Stokes. B. F. is stationed somewhere in England and says that he has seen R. W. Hill of Sonora, a brother of Dick Hill of Sanderson. He also says he is on the lookout for Clifton Roark and other boys from home who might be in that section.

Pvt. Gene Litton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Litton, writes his mother that it is getting pretty cold in Sicily, and that he could use another sweater. One is on its way to him.

John Fisher Charlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Charlton, writes from the U. S. Naval Training Station at San Diego, Calif., that he is getting along o. k. "but a lot faster than I have since I was home." We understand that the boys have to get around in a hurry to get their shower, shave, get dressed and their bed made in fifteen minutes, John. We are sure you will make the grade, though.

An interesting letter from Sgt. Jack D. Miller, stationed in North Africa, comes to Jean Thompson, and tells of the way railroading is done in that far country. The letter in part, follows:

"Dear Jean and Family: I've been intending to write to you for a long time but just haven't had time. "I am running, and have been ever since I have been here, and boy is that a headache for a hog head. We have all coal burning engines on my division, and hand bombers at that. I've handled everything from a sheep train to a hospital train and the only jam I've been in is doubling hills, but I've got my fingers crossed and am knocking on wood. This is a very mountainous division and run-aways are very common, but so far I've been lucky on that. The grades are two and three percent and are anywhere from two to ten miles long. At places we use a helper engine with 550 tons, and at times just barely scratch out with that."

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CURBS PROPOSED

As our public debt moves rapidly toward 300 billion dollars with no ceiling in sight, taxation becomes a number one family problem along with food, clothing and shelter. There is no use to merely kick about taxes. Everyone has got to pay taxes, more taxes than they ever dreamed of paying, more taxes than they thought they could pay.

lowed to retain enough of their earnings so there will be incentive for expansion, which means the building up of greater taxable assets and more jobs. That the needs for such a long-range program is recognized, is evidenced by a growing movement for a constitutional amendment providing that the power of Congress to impose taxes on incomes, inheritances and gifts, shall be limited to a maximum of 25 per cent, except that in the case of war, the limitation may be temporarily vote of each House. To date, 15 states have passed a resolution favoring such an amendment—Wyoming, Rhode Island, Mississippi, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Indiana, Arkansas, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Texas, Illinois, Wisconsin, Alabama. If a sufficient number of states show there is a substantial demand for the amendment, Congress, without waiting for its adoption by 32 states, could pass a resolution proposing the amendment and submit it to the state for ratification in the usual way.

It Happened In Sanderson TEN YEARS AGO This Week - Remember

A cold norther hit this city early Thursday morning causing the temperature to take a considerable drop. The norther followed a light shower of rain that had fallen before daylight.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Secrest are the proud parents of a nine pound daughter born to them last Saturday at their home in this city. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

Fourteen cars of lambs were shipped out of Dryden this week, eight cars going to Indianapolis and six cars to Comstock.

Steve Stumberg returned Monday from a business trip to San Antonio and San Angelo.

M. H. Goode was in town Wednesday from his ranch north of Dryden.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Thorn and baby were visitors in town Wednesday from their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cochran have returned from Amarillo where they attended the Grand Chapter of Eastern Star. They also visited in El Paso.

Wartime Lighting Suggestions HOW TO GET MORE LIGHT FROM YOUR PRESENT EQUIPMENT

Rearrange Furniture to "Double Up" on Lamps

By arranging furniture and lamps carefully, you can often make one lamp do the work of two. An I.E.S. Lamp at the end of the divan, for example, can be moved to the center in back of the divan. Or two chairs or a chair and a divan can be grouped with a lamp to serve two persons with good light, as illustrated above. Be sure the lamp is close enough to both pieces of furniture, though. A difference of 12 inches can reduce the light you get by as much as 50 per cent.

OTHER WAYS TO CONSERVE LIGHT

- 1. Remove and clean lamp bowls and lamp bulbs regularly. Dry thoroughly before using again. 2. Keep shade linings light. Clean or brush regularly. Repaint or reline dark-colored paper or parchment shades. 3. Sit close enough to the lamp to get all the help it can give your eyes. 4. Avoid direct glare from lamp bulbs by using shades deep enough and wide enough. 5. Eliminate orange or fluorescent bulbs except for decorative use. Inside frosted white bulbs give more useful light. 6. Turn off lamps not in use. Lamp bulbs use critical materials... Make them last longer.

Sees Nothing—
Hears Nothing—
..... Tells All

Barbara seems to like her new place in study hall.

Betty Ann, why was Edgar the only boy you promised a cookie to?

Joan, keep on trying. He's bound to notice you one of these days?

Well! well! Look who's here. Our old friend Donald Smith. "Duck" to all of us with curls too.

Doris Mc, what freshman girl gave you a mean look while dancing with a certain senior. Isn't it fun to make someone jealous.

Harvey, how do you rate two girls at once! Nice going.

Betty is up to her old tricks again. Giving us a swell dance on Halloween.

Mary K please don't be blue. You will get together again.

Glynn and Alonzo take notice. Two sophomore girls were on the loose Saturday night and there were plenty of boys to take your places too.

Jay Tom is still on the beam. Lauretta is cute.

Maurine C is going pretty fast now. First Bill, then J. D., and now Dan. Say girl, slow down. Give us a chance.

We wonder why Al left so often the other night. Could it have been because it happened to be Halloween.

Say, Hazel, who were you with the other night. Now it couldn't have been an ex-senior, or could it?

Maurine and Bill left the dance early Saturday night. Oh well, I don't blame them. It was his last night home.

Say Billie, where was W. T. Halloween night? We thought you had a date with him.

We wonder who the two certain girls are that wait so patiently for the "trucks" to come home?

Snooper found out that these boys are mighty fine help when there are dishes to wash: William S., Jimmy D., Edward W., Willie G., and Ben M.

JUNIORS CHOOSE RINGS

The juniors met Monday to choose their rings for next year. The shortage that are now a great factor in the manufacture of jewelry makes this early choice necessary. The rings will be ordered early and delivery requested by the close of this school year.

PRESS CLUB SPONSORS CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR SERVICE BOYS AND GIRLS

The press club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Holley are making plans to send Christmas cards from the High School to every boy and girl who has attended Sanderson High. These cards will have a picture of the school as well as a greeting from the students. A complete list of those who will receive the cards is now being made.

BOOK CHAT

The two books of which this column this week treats are two which have been recommended for every American to read by Walter Winchell. Especially has Winchell repeatedly recommended John Roy Carlson's UNDER COVER. After four years spent in the Nazi underworld of America, Carlson is able to tell us how Axis agents and our enemies within are now plotting to destroy our country.

SABOTAGE by Michael Sayers & Albert E. Kahn also contains information that you as an American citizen should know. Would you like to know something about the devices and techniques of the Nazi saboteurs in America; how ships are sabotaged; who is behind all the Nazi saboteurs in America; how saboteurs get paid; and how Americans can fight against sabotage? Then read Sayers and Kahn's book SABOTAGE.

SENIOR NEWS

Monday afternoon the seniors meet to decide on the graduation invitations. There was a large number to choose from and it could not be decided as to which one was wanted. Another meeting will be held shortly to decide which one will be used.

At this meeting the class motto was also decided. It is, "Knowledge crowns those who seek it."

The Senior Class would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the citizens of Sanderson who took part in helping us win the contest.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADE NEWS

Our Junior Safety Club met on October 28, 1943. At the next meeting we will have a program. There wasn't any old business and just a little new business.

The 4th and 5th grades wish to thank Mrs. Harrison for the Halloween sacks of candy and whistles. We had a nice time with them at our party on Thursday, October 28.

HALLOWEEN FUN

The young fry of Sanderson enjoyed a rather eventful Halloween. While there was a lack of destructiveness, the fun score was a high one. The carnival started things off on Saturday night with dates, parties, and fun. Sunday night the majority of the gals and their beaux were home early. Somehow it didn't seem right to destroy or damage property this year—what with shortage and the like. Who says the younger generation is going to the bow-wows. Nice going I say!

THIRD GRADE

The Third Grade is making a circus parade. They are writing interesting stories about the animals and people in the parade.

SIXTH GRADE

The Sixth Grade is having a great deal of fun out of their baseball games at noon and recess.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The seventh grade is made up of 21 pupils, eleven boys and 10 girls. There are two sets of sisters and two sets of brothers being twins. The sisters are: Josie and Margaret Klassen, and Joyce and Peggy McCluney. The brothers are Dick and Robert Glasgow, and the twins are Jack and Frank Harrell.

Mrs. Holley is back on the job, having returned from Houston over the weekend. Joan came home Monday night.

Any student who wishes to may subscribe to the "Reader's Digest" beginning with the December issue if he will turn his name to Mrs. Holley. This magazine will cost only 15 cents per copy and you pay when you get the magazine. Don't delay as the list must go this week.

Lamar School Notes

Juanita Valles is in Langtry visiting her mother, Mrs. Juana Valles. Juanita stays with her aunt, Mrs. Dionis Ochoa, while she attends school here.

Augustina Calzada has re-entered the Fourth Grade after being out for several weeks on account of illness.

Sotero Perez of the Fifth Grade went to San Antonio this week to consult an oculist.

Raul C. Flores of the Fifth Grade accompanied his mother, Mrs. Josefa C. Flores to Del Rio this week for a visit there.

Sergio Marquez returned Sunday from a three-day visit in Del Rio with his aunt, Mrs. Exaltacion Barrera.

Jose Benavides is in Del Rio visiting his mother who is ill in the hospital there.

Ladislado Gonzales and Antonio Sanchez are new pupils in the Sixth Grade.

Halloween was enjoyed at our school in this way:

Miss Ragsdale's Third Grade had a party with games and the children bobbed for apples.

Miss Mitchell's First Grade, with the help of the room mother, Mrs. Refugio Perez, played games and had apples and candy for refreshments.

The Fourth and Fifth Grades with their teachers, Mrs. Roy Bogusch, and Mrs. Dorothy Lindley, went on a hike up North Hill and ate cookies.

Mrs. Lassiter served candy bars to her Sixth and Seventh Grades and the study period was used to read anything that the children liked, and most of them read the "funnies."

Cook plenty of beets. Pickle those you don't use at the first serving, or try them in salads. Dice them for tossed vegetable salads, or combine chopped beets with chopped hard-boiled eggs.

bardment causes a landslide that closes the only entrance to the hospital. How the girl chooses between her two admirers provides a clever ending to this absorbing film drama.

Ellison gives a splendid convincing portrayal of the resolute young surgeon who puts his duty above everything, and Miss Wyatt is charming as his nurse and assistant who faces the dangers with him.

TWO TICKETS TO LONDON STARS MICHELE MORGAN

Winning new cinematic laurels, the superlative Michele Morgan is coming Wednesday and Thursday to the screen of the Princess Theatre in the latest romantic melodrama, "Two Tickets to London." The star has one of the season's prize dramatic roles and it is certainly one of the most impressive in her career. Appearing with her is Alan Curtis who has his initial chance in a heroic leading man characterization.

"Two Tickets to London," primarily a mystery-thriller, deals realistically with a super man hunt. Curtis portrays the hunted man, a ship's officer accused of having enemy connections. Caught by circumstances, he is being held by the authorities after a destructive U-boat raid on an Atlantic convoy.

Escaping accidentally, he is befriended by a girl who, unaware of his identity, helps him elude his pursuers. Miss Morgan portrays the girl with startling effect. Scenes in which she betrays his whereabouts are highly exciting and the romantic aftermath is enacted with unusual depth.

Special credit for an appealing juvenile performance must go to young Tarquin Olivier, who, incidentally, is the son of screen star Laurence Olivier.

Musical highlight of the picture is Miss Morgan's singing of the popular hit, "You Don't Know What Love Is."

FILM STARS DEAD END KIDS WITH LITTLE TOUGH GUYS

Tingling melodramatic action, the kind originated by the famous Dead End Kids and Little Tough Guys, is said to dominate their newest picture, "Keep 'Em Slugging," coming Friday and Saturday November 12-13 to the Princess Theatre.

The popular movie kids, including Huntz Hall, Bobby Jordan, Gabriel Dell and Norman Abbott, have the leading roles in the exciting film, which features Evelyn Ankers, Don Porter and Elyse Knox. Others in the cast are Samuel S. Hinds, Shemp Howard and Frank Albertson.

The original story, by Edward Handler and Robert Gordon, deals with a hi-jacking enterprise in which the lads become involved. A great metropolitan department store is the background for much of the thrilling entertainment. As employees of this institution, the boys have brand new opportunities to reveal their resourcefulness in coping with the criminals.

Miss Ankers and Don Porter have romantic roles. Shemp Howard, one of Universal's leading comedians, supplies many laughable scenes and the villain of the film portrayed by Frank Albertson. Highlight of the story, a free-for-all fight in a warehouse, is declared to be one of the season's most furious cinema events.

Among the jurors summoned was a woman who wished to be excused.

"Well, madam, why don't you want to serve on this jury," asked the Judge.

"I'm opposed to capital punishment."

"But this is merely a case in which a wife is suing her husband for an account. It seems she gave him $400 to pay for a fur coat and he is alleged to have lost the money at poker."

The woman juror spoke up promptly.

"I'll serve. Maybe I'm wrong about capital punishment."

Some time we handle all air, but most of the time your whistle cord is your brake valve, and very delicate at that. The cars are equipped with hand brakes and you have Arab brakeman. In going down grade or stopping you merely whistle for brakes and if they are not asleep they wind them up. Very simple, but bud, if they happen to be asleep you might as well screw down and get ready for a nice long and fast ride. I've had some near runaways, but so far I've always managed to get them stopped.

THE CORRAL

By Bill Gray

Still with us: Bulk of the 1943 West Texas lamb crop is still on the range, sheep buyers say. Clint Ramsey, Kansas buyer, estimates at least 60 per cent of the lambs now remain—these, of course, being the light-end of the crop mostly. Trading now is at an 8-to-10-cent spread, blackfaced and cross-breeds and the heavier Rambouillet bringing the better marks. Ramsey, just returning from Kansas, said that rains covered the Wichita-Garden City sector a week ago.
Roy Hudspeth of Sonora delivered 2,350 lambs to Reuben Ashley and Charlie Randolph of San Saba Monday (Nov. 1), sold earlier at 10 1/2 cents; Stokes Williams of Mertzon delivered 3,500 mixed lambs to Coke Westbrook of San Angelo Monday (Nov. 1), sold earlier at 10 cents; C. C. Sanders of Big Lake delivered Saturday two carloads of Corriedale-Rambouillet lambs to Fred Ball of San Angelo at 9 1/2 cents, later to go to Missouri. O. K. Harkey of San Angelo handling the deal.

Stalled: The OPA last week saddled the ranchman with ceiling prices on his cattle and threw further chill into an already ailing market. The scattered sales of the last few days have been on the 11-12 cent keel.
West of the Pecos: Wid Burchard of Toyah has just got a short-term lease on the Dagget ranch near Toyah and has placed 2,000 steers on it to go to California after short wintering. Burchard has sold his lease on 208 sections near Toyah to the Reynolds Cattle Co., which is to stock with cattle. W. A. Halamicek now has 250 steers on his ranch near Pecos for wintering. Two hundred are left over from last year and he has bought 320 in recent purchases at San Angelo (he doesn't raise cattle). His foreman reports grass at Pecos is better than last year (and they didn't have to feed last winter). In contrast, Halamicek is having to use last year's feedstuffs at the Robert Lee place.

Faced with protein feed shortage: Ebb Dickson, Stanton Hereford breeder, plans to sell his long-established herd; George Glass, Midland, sold his registered herd Saturday. Here and there: The Bledsoe Company of San Angelo is paying 19 cents for the regular orchard run of pecans in West Texas. Louis Farr, Jr., manager of the Bar S Ranch (Mertzon) suffered a broken wrist in a fall from a horse. West Texas Hereford sales: Mason Breeders, today (Thursday); West Texas Breeders, at Abilene, Friday.

J. A. Oberling returned Tuesday from Houston where he has been the past month receiving medical treatment, and underwent an operation. He is getting along fine.
Mrs. Charles Murray and Mrs. W. L. Miller went to San Antonio Wednesday of last week where they attended the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Miller returned home Friday while Mrs. Murray continued to Houston for a visit and also stopped over in Del Rio for a short time before returning home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jessup and Mrs. E. M. Jessup visited in San Angelo Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Leader of Moral Forces for Speaker

Representative Dallas Blankenship of Dallas is receiving wide support for Speaker of the next Texas House of Representatives, where he has served eight years and is recognized as leader of the moral forces. He wrote the Blankenship drug store liquor bill which curbed the liquor prescription racket in dry territory and recently was endorsed by Dallas County ministers when a vacancy occurred on the district court bench.
As a leader of the "Immortal 56," Blankenship helped prevent a general sales tax being placed in the constitution. He is a native of Bell County, a graduate of S. M. U., and served overseas in World War I.

Social Security Board Recommends Security For All

More Than 20 Million Workers Excluded By Present Regulations

Thousands of men and women in the United States who held jobs covered by the Social Security Act and who are 65 or older, have stopped work and are receiving monthly old-age insurance payments. The payments aren't high—the average, where only the worker himself gets benefits, is about $23 a month. The wives of many of these retired workers also get monthly payments, if they are 65; and any children under 18 are entitled to benefits. Additional thousands—widows, children or dependent parents of workers who have died—also receive monthly payments.
Many men and their families do not have this protection because they are farmers and farm work is not covered by the Federal insurance program. Only jobs in business and industry come under this insurance system.

Since the war began, many farm workers have taken jobs in factories, while others work part of the year on farms and part on construction work or other industrial jobs. "In many cases, they do not work long enough on jobs that come under the law to secure rights to insurance benefits, although they pay social security contributions during the time they do work on those jobs," according to Elliot W. Adams, manager of the San Angelo Social Security Board office.
It was pointed out that a girl who serves a private family as cook, laundress, housemaid, or seamstress pays no social security contribution and is not insured under the Social Security Act. A girl who does the same kind of work for a hotel, restaurant, or boarding house,

"Keeping store," Sam Abernethy says, "can teach a person plenty about human nature."
"Now coffee rationing's lifted, folks ain't a-breakin' their necks tryin' to buy all they can. Knowin' they can have it if they want it, they ain't so all-fired anxious to get it."
Sam's right, as usual. I don't crave that second cup half as much as when I couldn't get it.
But that's human nature . . . Like allowing moderate beer in the Army's post exchanges. Instead of leading to more drinking, the OWI report says it works out just the opposite—often as not the men choose soda-pop or milk, with beer right there and no restrictions on it.
But if it wasn't there, like in the last War, the story might be altogether different.
From where I sit, that's how it is with Americans. Tell 'em they can't have a thing and by golly, they'll find ways to get it. But admit their right to have it, and their own good sense will lead to moderation.
