PRE-WAR FATHERS TO BE INDUCTED FROM TERRELL

MUST BE DRAFTED IF ALL CATEGORIES ARE EXHAUSTED

In a telephone conversation Tuesday of this week with State Headquarters officials of the Selective Service System, Terrell County Chairman J. C. Mitchell was advised that it would be necessary to induct pre-war fathers if all other categories of men had been exhausted in the county.

Chairman Mitchell made the telephone call because of the confusion that had been caused from recent newspaper stories and statements of high officials indicating that all pre-war fathers would be deferred for the present. In Terrell County, all other categories have practically been exhausted and if the December call for men was to be filled pre-Pearl Harbor fathers must be included. Mr. Mitchell stated that the local board certainly did not want to induct pre-war fathers from this county unless the government gave specific instructions to do so. These instructions were given by the State Headquarters Tuesday and of the approximately twenty-eight men called for this month, twenty-five will be pre-war fathers. The only other source from which men may be secured in this locality is from those boys who reach the age of eighteen years and register for service.

State Headquarters informed Mr. Mitchell that all localities were being given the same instructions, and in localities where other categories were depleted pre-war fathers were to be called in the order of their numbers.

Applicants must be unmarried and of good moral character.

Application forms may be obtained from Mr. Bradford at the high school building and should be filled out and mailed as per instructions on the application. Secret Service Warns Against Theft of Checks

Rules Cited for Those Who Receive Gov't Allotment Checks

The United States Secret Service at Dallas again warns persons in this vicinity who receive or cash checks to be watchful for mail thieves and forgers, as many allowance and allotment checks are going astray and are being cashed on forged endorsements and the Secret Service urges that the following rules be observed:

Have a good, deep mail box. Have your name clearly printed on it. Keep it locked! Whenever possible, have your mail carrier deliver checks in person rather than to your box. Never endorse a check until you are actually in the presence of the person who will cash it. Cash check at the same place each month. Cash it yourself. Don't send children to cash checks. This encourages juvenile delinquency. If you change your address, notify the Post Office immediately. Do not fold, pin or mutilate allotment or allowance checks.

Know your endorser. Ask for positive identification. Before you cash a check, ask yourself this question — "If this check is returned, can I find the person who gave it to me?" Never cash a check already endorsed. Have it endorsed again in your presence. Require that all employees who cash checks shall endorse them.

The Secret Service has for some years been engaged in a program of Crime Prevention. In 1938 they began a campaign known as "Know Your Money" and since then counterfeiting has dropped 97%. In addition to the great reduction in counterfeiting, the campaign has helped a great deal to keep down juvenile delinquency. Since many offenders in check cases are juveniles, the Secret Service is not only hopeful that their present campaign of "Know Your Endorsers" will save the taxpayers money in reduced investigative time, and expense of keeping prisoners in penitentiaries, but will help keep juveniles out of trouble.

Also, because of the effect on morale of the armed forces, the Government is extremely anxious that no allotment or allowance check be delayed even one day.

SPECIAL TRAINING OFFERED MEN WHO ARE HANDICAPPED

NUMBER OF VOCATIONS ARE MADE AVAILABLE

Inks Lake Technical School, a school with an overall Valuation of between $400,000 and $500,000 ideally located on the shores of picturesque Inks Lake is now open for the training of physically handicapped white males from 16 years old on up, through the cooperation of Texas A. and M. College, the State Board for Vocational Education and the Lower Colorado River Authorities, it was announced here today by James Abernathy, Supervisor, Vocational Rehabilitation.

While vocational training for physically handicapped and physically able has been carried on in Texas for a number of years, the new technical school will mark the establishment of the first centralized training center devoted one hundred percent to this type of training. J. J. Brown, State Director of Rehabilitation, has pointed out.

A wide choice of courses will be offered including typewriter mechanics, radio repair, jewelry repair, shoe repair, auto mechanics, aircraft mechanics, aircraft manufacturing, aircraft instrument, foundry, sheet-metal, welding, and machine shop.

Qualified physically able males may enroll for a three, six, nine, or twelve months course. Board and room is provided at $35.00 per month. On completion of the course selected, each trainee is then qualified for full time employment.

Facilities have been set up for the present only for white males, with no age limits specified. Because of the manpower shortage, farm youths, unless physically handicapped, are not being encouraged to enroll.

Those meeting these qualifications throughout the state have been instructed to contact the district vocational rehabilitation office or field agent nearest their home for full details. Persons in this section who are eligible may obtain particulars by writing to Mr. Abernathy at Box 212, El Paso, Texas.

Allocation of Soybean May Aid Feed Situation

Marvin Jones, WFA Head Advises Cong. Thomas of Effort

Hope for an early solution of the shortage of protein feed for livestock in this area is held in information given Congressman R. E. Thomason, representing this district in the House of Representatives in Washington, by Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator.

In a letter to Congressman Thomason, copy of which was sent the Times this week the WFA administrator, answering a query made of Mr. Thomason by a Midland banker, declared that soybeans are being furnished to all oil mills in northern and western Texas to process and that quantity production is now under way in these mills, in addition to that which is currently being released by the CCC from November production.

"The distribution of oilseed meal is in the hands of the regular trade and any purchases must be made through the trade," Mr. Jones wrote Congressman Thomason. "For your information, however, we are now furnishing soybeans to all oil mills in northern and western Texas which have no other oilseeds to process, and quantity production is now under way in these areas. In addition, Commodity Credit Corporation has released all of the soybean meal processed in November from the soybeans furnished mills in northwest Texas for sale and distribution in carloads into the area away from the immediate mill territory."

"We realize the supply of meal is not sufficient to furnish everyone the quantity he would like to have; however, we hope that these operations will relieve the critical feed situation in your area."

Lauretta Dillard Is Honored With Party Saturday Night

One of the first parties of the Yule season was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dillard for their daughter Lauretta and a group of her friends.

Guests arrived at the Masonic Hall for the buffet dance. The lower floor of the hall was gayly decorated in the traditional Christmas theme, with a tiny tree. Santa Claus and his reindeer sailing happily over the arch of the double entrance, and glittering Christmas stars.

Centering the supper table was a mirrored miniature snow scene, complete with trees and reindeer. The selected theme was further carried out in the green and red canapes, and nut cups. Tiny Christmas tree favors were pinned to the napkins. Red bows and Christmas trees cut from crepe paper formed the border on the table linens. Sandwiches, congealed salad, pickles, individual pies, coffee and punch were served.

Dancing and table games entertained the guests. At the close of the evening the group enjoyed cake and coffee.

CALL US MONDAY

The following is an episode from the book, "THAT NONE SHALL DIE," as related in Nation's Business.

"A young doctor has been called late at night to see a patient with lobar pneumonia. The family tells him candidly they have no money. It proves to be a desperate case. He calls the city hospital."

"Is the man a resident?" "No, he's an unemployed worker here on a visit."

"Then, that rules him out. We're not allowed to take out of town cases."

"Next, the doctor calls the director of the socialized welfare service, asks if she can hospitalize his patient."

"Perhaps we can arrange it. If you'll give me the name and address, I'll put an investigator on it Monday!"

"Monday! He'll be dead by Monday!"

"Back at the bedside the doctor decides that pneumonia serum combined with sulfapyridine is the one chance of saving the sick man. But they cost money. He dials the social service director again. 'I've typed this patient and find it's Type I pneumococcus. Can you arrange to finance the purchase of serum for him?'"

"I'm sorry, doctor," the impersonal voice drones, "the Government makes no provision for the purchase of serum by our department. Besides, we cannot consider helping any case without the proper investigation."

Perhaps if you can call us Monday. . .

"The doctor cut the Gordian knot of social medicine by buying the serum himself and administering it."

RIVERS OF OIL?

Everyone has had the fact impressed upon them that rivers of oil are needed to keep our fighting machine running. But beyond general estimates in millions of barrels, figures are seldom published showing just how the oil is consumed. A heavy bomber uses 200 gallons of gasoline an hour at cruising speed, a fighting plane 100 gallons. The tanks alone in one armored division burn 10,000 gallons in an advance of little more than 100 miles while thousands of gallons are also consumed by trucks, self-propelled guns, armored cars, and other wheeled units. AA single destroyer on convoy duty burns something like 214 thousand gallons of fuel oil on a single round trip to North Africa.

Producing and refining petroleum, both for ourselves and our allies, is the responsibility of the American oil industry. No other nation is as well equipped to do the job as we are. That our petroleum industry has been able to measure up to the load imposed on it, is directly traceable to the fact that it was developed and has been maintained by private individuals working under the persistent stimulant of competition.

The nation is now being told repeatedly by various public authorities that the oil shortage is going to get far, far worse before it gets better. These warnings are nothing new to oil men any more than they are to the public. Oil men themselves warn that a serious shortage is impending and point out that the main cause is an inadequate price for crude.

Gloomy announcements from Washington on oil and gas rationing are getting tiresome. What the public and the oil industry want to know is what plans, if any, are in the making to find and produce more oil. So far the regulators have been silent on this point.

It Happened In Sanderson TEN YEARS AGO This Week - Remember

December 15, 1933

Word has been received at the Dryden Airport that approximately $3,000.00 will be spent in the near future for the improvement of that station. All of this work will be done locally which should offer employment to numerous unemployed in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ogle are the parents of a twelve pound son that was born to them in this city on Wednesday morning, December 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton White were El Paso business visitors Wednesday.

Lynn Harrell spent the weekend in Waelder visiting with relatives.

Miss Kate Frazier left Friday morning for Tyler where she will spend the Christmas holidays with her sister, Mrs. Pat Beard.

M. H. Goode, Jr., has leased the J. H. Felps ranch of 8,000 acres across the Pecos at 50 cents an acre.

Mrs. J. W. McKee returned last Saturday from a visit in San Antonio with her daughter Mrs. T. Maxey Hart and family.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

Fort Stockton Pioneer - The Fort Stockton High School band won second place in a Pearl Harbor Day parade in Monahans Tuesday, and was awarded a prize of $25. First prize of $50 went to the Wink Band.

Alpine Avalanche - Wac Branch No. 7 at Sul Ross College is scheduled to be closed with the graduation of the present class, No. 7, about Feb. 4. Lt.-Col. Alton V. Arnold, commanding officer, has been notified by headquarters of the Eight Service Command.

Plans have been made to continue training Wac enlisted personnel for the administrative work in the facilities that already exist in the basic training centers, it was stated. This program is a part of the army's plan to decrease operating costs by several million dollars it was announced.

Big Bend Sentinel, Marfa - Ranking fourth among 138 counties reporting, Presidio county people's subscribing of 157 percent of their quota allotment in the recent National War Fund (United War Chest of Texas) fund-raising campaign is a tribute to the generosity of the 12,000 or more people who call Texas' fourth largest county their home.

The total contributed by people of the county, civilian and Army people of the Marfa AAF Pilot School and Fort D. A. Russell, was $8,479.76, according to Mrs. L. C. Brite, chairman in the county, in a Wednesday report.

Ozona Stockman - The weekend brought another soaking rain to the West Texas ranch lands, adding to the moisture already in the ground from the slow rains which fell over a wide area of this country the week before.

Like the rain of the previous week, falls which covered this section Saturday night and Sunday was slow and soaking, running little water but soaking deep into the ground, dried out by lack of moisture in the mid-summer months.

Rains in this county the past week-end averaged around three quarters of an inch and will go far toward relieving some of the worry for ranchmen who are facing the winter with little prospect of being able to buy feed for livestock in the face of the present shortage.

Hudspeth County News - Z. Monroe's trucks from Van Horn are hauling ore from the mines in this county to the shipping point. A car is being loaded out of Hot Wells, taken from the Western Fluorite Co. Mine in the Eagles and a car out of Sierra Blanca taken from the Fenley mine in the Quitmans.

Brackett News - Mail Sgt. Joe Louis Barrow, the heavyweight champion of the world, was in Fort Clark Thursday afternoon and night making this station on his present tour of military camps and posts under government sponsorship. His coming was a matter of great interest to the colored troopers here.

One third of all accidents occur in the kitchen, says a safety statistician. And they're placed on the table just as if they had not happened.

AT THE PRINCESS-SONGS, STARS, SHOWGIRLS HIGHLIGHT NEW PICTURE

Frenzied, pop-eyed Eddie Cantor in a story studded with gay detours and padded with breath-taking curves comes to the Princess Theatre Sunday and Monday in the musical "Thank Your Lucky Stars."

The detours are taken by a glittering selection of top-flight stars and featured players such as Humphrey Bogart, Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, John Garfield, Joan Leslie, Ida Lupino, Dennis Morgan, Ann Sheridan, Dinah Shore, Alexis Smith and many others. They go off on tangents of song and dance entirely new to their film audiences. But anything for a good gag, and so you have Olivia de Havilland and Ida Lupino doing a boogie-woogie number with George Tobias. That, too, is how it comes about that Bette Davis blossoms forth as a hot songstress and a jitterbug dancer in a spicy number called "They're Either Too Young or Too Old." Errol Flynn adorns his classic features with a wide-spreading handlebar mustache and does a Cockney specialty.

The curves are displayed by 148 packages of delectable pulchritude, headed by lovely Ann Sheridan and the equally decorative Alexis Smith. Ann musically expounds the art of love to the ten "Dormitory Dolls" in the revealing intimacy of a girl's dormitory while Alexis does her first dance routine for the screen. A blond eyeful is Helen O'Hara, one of the ten "lucky stars"—all six feet three inches of her—and in that way at least, the biggest beauty in the picture. "Ten Lucky Stars" are a picked team of specialty dancers. "Las Estrellitas" are another group of ten Latin-American beauties featured in a "Good Night, Good Neighbor" number. And there are more sepia-tinted lovelies than Hattie McDaniel's jolly bulk can black out in the "Ice Cold Katie" number.

ANSWER FROM CHRISTMAS CARDS

United States Navy
Dec. 2, 1943

H. S. I call today I was pleased to find a Christmas card in my mail. I was glad to get it. It makes a good to know that he had not been totally forgotten.

Christmas time. I will make two Christmas cards. I have not been home. I don't complain though. I have some boys from Sanderson that probably have missed that. I am getting home on leave in a few days. I hope, and will I see Sanderson again.

Boy, of all the letters going and coming from Rankin. We wonder why!

Doris Lee, what happened to Duck's and your idea about Marthon?

Doris give the Eight Grade girls a break once in a while.

Margie Lou, don't the Sanderson boys look as good as those in San Antonio?

Snooper misses a lot of cheery faces lately. Take your medicine and hurry back, kids.

These little sisters are getting kinda hard to manage, eh, Maurine?

These ex-seniors get around we notice.

Alice reports a swell week-end in Del Rio—that is, aside from one misfortune.

Billie seemed really glad to have her sailor boy home.

Blonde had a bout of hard luck trying to get Christmas decorations. Too bad about the flat.

Holley and J. D. were having a good time Saturday night.

Doyce wasn't the only one who was glad to see his cousin—huh, Hazel?

Didja see the good-looking gal James had Friday night? We mean the one in the movie magazine.

You should have seen Gladys play volleyball. A sight for these ole eyes.

Who was it Jay Tom wanted to see over the week-end. Dudley, what did you do about it?

Seems there was a slight mix-up on the return trip from Marthon.

Alonzo was not exactly a lady-like lady, was he?

BLUE MONDAY

Thirty-two absentees,

SANDERSON WINS TWO AND LOSES ONE

Thursday night of last week the boys and girls of Sanderson high school journeyed to Marthon to play the Marathon high school boys and girls in Basketball and Volleyball. We were fortunate enough to win two Basketball games and lose out in Volleyball by just a few points. The girls were playing their first game and did a real job of it considering that they had never played together before. Our junior boys won by a score 21-19 and our senior boys won by a score of 31-19. All three games were hard fought throughout, the girls losing two games by scores of 15-13 and 17-15. John Lewis Whistler was high point man for our senior game but all members of the team are to be commended for their fighting spirit that they exhibited in the game.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Once again the seniors had charge of the assembly program. A one-act play was given by the senior boys. The play being "Dress Reversal" was the story of boys in a boys school trying to make the play a hit at dress rehearsal. The girls played by Eugene Thompson and Alonzo Cash were a scream. Their dresses were too tight or too long or their shoes didn't fit right but all in all the play was a success even though things did go wrong at dress rehearsal. The coach was played by David Duke and now I think he knows how annoying it is for the kids to cut up at play practice.

Others in the play were Eugene Thompson as Mrs. Van de Vander, James Kerr as Dr. Middlebury, Freddie Talbot as stage manager and prompter, Bland Gates as the butler, Alonzo Cash as Miss Van Porter, Billy Joe Short as Mr. Peterkins, Harvey Rogers as Detective Munro, and a very good stooge he was, and Glynn Babb as the professor.

The play was such a success that several requests have been made to Mrs. B. that the play be given again. Our thanks to Mrs. B. for the splendid program.

DISTRICT 69-B ORGANIZED

Sup't. Tom Holley and H. S. Prin. C. G. Bradford journeyed to Alpine Wednesday night and met with other representatives from Marthon, Marfa, Fort Davis and Alpine and organized Basketball District 69-B. Sup't. Holley was reelected Chairman for the coming year. A round robin schedule of games was worked out where each team will play the other team once at home and once away. This will give local people a chance to see all the teams of the district play. There will be no tournament to decide the district championship, as was held last year, but the championship will be decided on a percentage basis of games won and lost in the regular schedule.

BOOK CHAT

This week the "Book Chat" Colum greets you with "Merry Christmas from the reviews of books on Christmas.

THE HOME BOOK OF CHRISTMAS, edited by May Lambertson Becker, is crammed full of Christmas. It includes stories by Dickens, Irving, and Van Dyke. There are stories about Christmas rituals, the Wise men, Christmas stockings, carols and traditional recipes, poems, something about Christmas decorations and Christmas cards.

John Haynes Holmes tells three stories in his book THE SECOND CHRISTMAS.

In the book A LOVELY FIND, by William Allen Knight, the author describes how he happened to make a "find in the Bethlehem of our time, which adds a touch of beauty long overlooked in the story of the Christ Child's birth.

Last but not least is Dicken's beloved A CHRISTMAS CAROL, which can be read and reread every Christmas.

James Albert Mansfield reports that he is at present stationed on Long Island.

Carried over snow-topped mountain ranges, dropped in parachutes to isolated jungle fighters, packed across desert sands, floated ashore on faraway beaches, good American food reaches our fighting men in prime condition.

Often in places where harbor facilities are inadequate, these newly developed water resistant boxes containing the famous 5-1 ration of meats and other foods for five men for one day, are released from ships and carried ashore by the tide. The crescent on the boxes is the international symbol for food.

It is industry's job in cooperation with the Army Quartermaster Corps to deliver the maximum available quantity of Mrs. Bogusch's Fourth and Fifth grade art classes are making posters to advertise our Christmas program on Dec. 17.

Alejandro Marquez Jr. of the Sixth Grade is visiting friends in El Paso.

Jose Benavides withdrew from the Sixth Grade this week. He has entered school in Del Rio.

Frank Lopez of the Third Grade is visiting in El Paso.

The Third Grade has been practicing very hard the last two weeks on their play, "Santa's Troubles", which was the play given at P. T. A. Dec. 13.

Sunday afternoon Gloria Escamilla entertained a group of friends at her home. After playing games she served cake and chocolate.

The Two sections of the First Grade, with a joint membership of 113, have been made into three classes: High First, Mrs. Mamie S. Weaver, teacher; Low First, Miss Rosalie Mitchell, teacher; and Beginners, Mrs. Berta Lassiter, teacher. This change necessitated the use of another room. This room is being rented from the Catholic Church, and is the hall just west of the main building at Lamar. Mrs. S. J. Lovell is teaching the social studies in the grammar grades since Mrs. Lassiter has taken over a part of the First Grade.

"Army Strikes Again" says a headline. But that's different from a strike here at home.

CHINESE HAIL CAIRO DECLARATION

"The Cairo Declaration is the first happy fulfillment of what China has been fighting and shedding blood for all these 12 years," Dr. C. L. Hsia, director of Chinese News Service, said recently. "The promised return of Manchuria, Formosa, and the Pescadores to China will be regarded by the Chinese people as the greatest news of this war. China rejoices with the people of Korea in their promised independence."

LITTLE MEAT IN HOLLAND

Meat consumption of the people of Holland has been reduced from an average of a pound and three quarters a week before the war to two and a quarter ounces and, at times, even nothing, under the German occupation. This was reported to Aneta, official Netherlands news agency, by a former employee of the Netherlands meat rationing service who recently escaped to England. Not only are quantities small, but quality is much poorer, and pork is no longer available at all.

BREAD IN SLOVAKIA LOW

Slovakia has the third lowest ration of bread in Europe, according to a newspaper issued and edited by the Czechoslovak army in Great Britain. Only Greece and Finland have lower bread rations, the paper said.

OWNERS NOTE LICENSE

Car owners themselves rather than ration boards or automobile registration officials must note new license numbers on their ration books and tire inspection records, under a recent OPA ruling. The action also provides that "T" coupons issued for use in 1944 by commercial vehicles and taxis will be in strips (similar to strips of motion picture tickets) rather than in book form and each coupon will be serially numbered.

"We Are Buying War Bonds—Are You?"

Sgt. Carl Funk, 26, Cincinnati, lost his right eye and sustained a fractured left knee in Sicily. He has been buying War Bonds regularly. He will return to civil life as soon as he is discharged from Halloran Hospital, N. Y.

Pvt. Irwin Levinson, Baltimore, was struck by shrapnel in the left shoulder at Palermo. The fingers of his left hand are paralyzed. When his father asked if he needed anything, his son replied: "Buy War Bonds." His father bought $1,500 worth.

Pvt. Thomas Dellarossa, Trenton, N. J., 18th Infantry Patrol, was wounded by shrapnel at El Guitar, Africa, and now must wear a special brace for his left knee. He won the Purple Heart. He buys War Bonds regularly and urges you to.

Pvt. Donat Cartier, Derry, N. H., suffered a fracture of the leg above the knee in Sicily when struck by an 88 mm. shell. He was held prisoner for two days by the Germans, traveling in a tank. He is a regular purchaser of War Bonds.

Pvt. William E. Morris, Beach, Cal., is above but has been three years of service in Tunisia. He wears Purple Heart and Good Conduct Ribbon and continues his Bond purchases.

ODT ASKS HELP FOR SANTA CLAUS

Christmas shoppers have been asked by ODT to lend Santa Claus a helping hand by observing the following: (1) Shop now. Mail now. Do not wait until the "eleventh hour." (2) Carry your packages whenever possible. (3) Remember, War Bonds and Stamps make the best Christmas gifts. They are a good buy and they take minimum transportation space, ODT pointed out.

REDUCE MEAT POINT VALUE

The entire list of rationed beef items has been cut two or three ration points, making the most meat available to civilians since rationing began late last March. Many pork cuts remain at the reduced value set by OPA in mid-November, and point values of lamb, mutton, and all veal remain unchanged. This means an increase of approximately 30 per cent in the housewife's meat ration for December as compared with the ration set at the beginning of November.

DESTROY THRESHING MACHINES

Saboteurs in France destroy, not crops, but threshing machines, because the Germans can only take grain to Germany, they cannot take sheaves. Peasants thus keep their grain and can thresh it by other methods.

QUEZON PRAISES CONGRESS

President Manuel L. Quezon of the Philippines recently expressed his gratification over the action of the United States Congress in repealing the Chinese Exclusion laws. "I hope," he said, "that the right to acquire American citizenship . . . will also be granted my countrymen."

FROZEN FRUITS, BERRIES

Consumers will pay from 3-4 cent a pound to 3 cents a pound more for frozen California freestone peaches, Concord grapes, apples and blackberries. According to OPA, these increases will allow the processors to pass increased raw material costs on to the ultimate consumer.

SEES EXCHANGE WITH RUSSIANS

Commenting upon post-war possibilities of trade with Russia, William L. Batt, vice-chairman of the War Production Board, said that Russia could furnish platinum and iridium, of which the United States has "virtually none . . . manganese which a fully operative steel industry may need . . . hides to supplement the world's supply," certain grades of wood, and Russian furs. He cited mining machinery as an example of American-made goods which the Russians need and for which he said he expected an increased demand at the end of the war.

CHANGE GASOLINE COUPONS

Motorists are reminded by OPA that their old "B" and "C" gasoline coupons continue to have a value of two gallons each in the east and mid-west and three gallons in the far west. On December 1, however, all new "B" and "C" coupons issued to motorist whose supplementary gasoline rations expired became good for five gallons each throughout the country. Although each new coupon will be good for more gallons than before, motorists will not receive any additional gasoline because ration books will have correspondingly fewer coupons.

Mrs. Roger Bassett left today, Friday, for Yuma, Arizona, where she will join Lt. Bassett who is stationed there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leatherwood and Miss Iva Leatherwood spent the week-end in Ozona visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leatherwood, and family. They returned Wednesday.

Mrs. M. H. Goode Sr. was taken to Del Rio Saturday where she is receiving medical treatment.
