Sanderson Schools Are Making Special Efforts To Increase Sales of War Bonds

TO SPONSOR HUNT FOR UNFILLED STAMP ALBUMS

A treasure hunt, sponsored by the Sanderson high school, is to be conducted Monday afternoon, February 14, according to announcement by Principal C. G. locating all unfilled stamp albums and requesting the owners to fill them and then convert them into bonds, or to turn them in with the additional cash needed for the purchase of a bond.

This move is a part of the effort being put forth by the local schools to see that the Fourth War Loan drive in Terrell County is a success. Mr. Bradford stated that a special booth would be erected in the main hall of the high school building where stamp owners might turn their stamps in and make application for bonds.

The classes in the high school will be suspended for the afternoon although all students will report as usual, and will be assigned to certain districts of the town to see that owners of partly filled albums are given the opportunity to fill them or

FREE SHOW TICKETS OFFERED AT CONCERT

It has also been announced that free show tickets will be given to every purchaser of a bond at the Victory Concert tonight at the high school auditorium, starting at 8:00 o'clock. The free tickets are good for the Bond Premier which shows at the Princess Theatre Saturday night only.

C. I. White announced in connection with the giving of these tickets that the regular show would be run on time Saturday night, beginning at 7:00 o'clock. The Bond Premier show, "Destination Tokyo," with Cary Grant, starts at 9:00 and will be shown one time only. The only persons who will be admitted to this premier showing will be those who have obtained tickets by the purchase of War Bonds at the concert, the post-office, the Sanderson State Bank or at the theatre. Absolutely no tickets to be sold, according to Mr. White.

to add the additional cash necessary and turn them in.

The drive is to be under the supervision of the high school faculty members, and a special page of advertising has been prepared to publicize the event. The advertisement was planned, laid out, and will be sold by the students, with all proceeds above the cost of the advertisement going toward the payment of the seniors part of the cost of the new automatic clock and bell system which has recently been installed in the high school building, and for other incidental expenses.

It was pointed out that the treasure hunt was for high school students only and that other classes of the school would continue as usual.

It isn't strange that the Iran journey was Stalin's first trip outside Russia since 1917. Any women will tell you it takes close supervision to keep a home running in and out.

The remains were shipped to San Antonio where services were held under the direction of Akers Funeral Directors.

MARCH OF DIMES RECEIVES GOOD SUPPORT HERE

According to the report of James Caroline, treasurer for the Terrell County March of Dimes movement, good response has been received from appeals made to the public for contributions in the fight against infantile paralysis.

Mr. Caroline stated that to Thursday noon a total of $476.53 had been received and contributions were still coming in response to letters of appeal mailed to the public. From this amount $91.37 in expenses went to paying for federal taxes on the dance revenue, rent for the hall, printing of letters, postage, music, etc., which left a total net of $385.16. One half of the amount, $192.58, will remain in Terrell County to be used in case of infantile paralysis within the county, and the other one-half goes to the National Foundation and will be used to continue the fight against the disease.

Of the gross amount $65 was collected at the Princess Theatre, $173.25 was taken in at the President's ball Saturday night and $238.28 has come in as contributions.

Mr. Caroline stated that the above figures showed a substantial increase over last year when a total net of $76.40 was collected in this county. He also stated that those who had not made their contributions please do so by Monday so that the report could be mailed in to headquarters.

SALES REDUCE BALANCE BOND QUOTA TO $32,000

Terrell County Bond Chairman C. P. Peavy announced Thursday that $55,000 worth of bonds had been sold leaving a total of $32,000 to be sold by the end of the month.

He stated that the railroad company had purchased $20,000 and had allocated it to this county, there by helping with the local bond quota. This left a balance of $35,000 which has been purchased by individuals, and it was felt that the additional $32,000 would be sold by the end of the month, thereby putting this county over the top again.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldie Murr and family of Junction visited here last week with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thorn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Maddux and daughter, Mary Ann, returned Tuesday from several days visit in El Paso with relatives.

RAIN BRIGHTENS OUTLOOK FOR LOCAL RANCHMEN

Because the approximately one-half inch of rain received the first of the week fell very slowly and in a heavy fog, the prospect of a large feed bill was lessened considerably. The fog started settling Sunday afternoon and continued until Wednesday morning, and at times was so heavy that the hills surrounding Sanderson were not visible.

ATTEND MEETING OF WOOL GROWERS IN COLORADO

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stumberg and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Williams attended the National Wool Growers Convention held in Denver, Colorado, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

They returned home Friday and Mr. Stumberg stated that they had a very nice trip and a good meeting. He also stated that the outlook for sheepmen for next year was good as the CCC would continue to take the wool and that base prices were somewhat up. Base price for long wool was set this year at $1.16 as compared to $1.13 for last year; 8-months wool at $1.10 as compared against $1.08 last year. Short wool was lowered from $1.08 last year to $1.00 this year. This was because of many clips which had very short wool according to government officials.

FROM TEXAS TO TOKIO

Word from Lee McSparran, fireman third class, U. S. Navy tells his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McSparran, that he has been in the Gilbert Islands in the jungles. Says that he has been assigned to a ship and that he is certainly glad to get out of the jungles and on that ship. Lee also states that he is getting along fine.

Another son of the McSparrans, Corporal Eugene, has just recently been transferred from Ft. Lewis, Washington, to San Diego, Calif. He is in the cavalry.

The following article was received by the Times from the U. S. Marine Corps with the notation that the article had been written by Marine Sergeant Jack A. Gertz of Denver, Colo. "Somewhere in the Pacific—(delayed)— Marine Corporal Robert H. Mason of Sanderson, Texas, was wounded on Tarawa shortly after he had directed the emplacement of a machine gun. The corporal, now recovering at a hospital here, said he was unconscious for quite a spell, because I woke up on a hospital ship."

Lt. Joe Kerr, Jr., who is stationed at Pecos Air Field, was here Sunday for a visit with his mother and family.

Sgt. Troy Druse, U. S. Army Air Corps, has just been transferred from Lincoln, Nebraska, to a new post at Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill., according to a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Druse.

An interesting letter arrived on the editor's desk this week from M. G. Northcut, Jr., who is stationed at a U. S. Naval training station in San Diego, Calif. He says: "I've been doing pretty good here. I've been lucky because I met a cousin of mine that I hadn't seen since I was two years old. He is stationed at Balboa Park, and when I came in from a swimming detail yesterday he was waiting for me. When I first arrived here also saw W. T. Frazier and Lewis Lemons. I found W. T. just two days before he left so you see we didn't get to stay together very long. Donald is still with me so we're lucky again. We went on a liberty the other day but spent most of it saluting officers. They're thick as fleas on a cat's back." He goes ahead to say that he is kinda short on time and has to cut his letter short, we are certainly glad to hear from the boys in the service and hope that we will always hear they are doing as well as M. G. seems to be doing. Write us again sometime.

BILL CASEY HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE TUESDAY NIGHT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Casey was damaged by fire Tuesday night which was discovered about nine o'clock. No one was at home at the time. Mrs. Casey having been in Uvalde since Thursday of last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. August Wolf, and Mr. Casey having left on No. 2 to go for her.

The origin of the fire was unknown and could not be determined by Mr. Casey when they returned Wednesday. It caught in one corner of the kitchen and all dishes, canned stuff, and silverware were ruined. An electric cooking stove was still usable and it was thought that the refrigerator was still in working order although it had not been tested.

Mr. Casey stated that the entire kitchen was practically destroyed, and everything in it other than the items mentioned above was badly damaged or completely ruined. Furniture in the rest of the home received water and smoke damage, but was not damaged by the heat. He said that he could not estimate the damage, and that no insurance was carried.

Mrs. Wolf returned here with them and will visit for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Raney and son, Sam, left Thursday of last week for San Antonio and San Marcos. They returned Thursday of this week.

Lawton Parker, brother of Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. R. B. Mussey, left last week after a visit here with them. He was enroute to Sonora for a (Continued on page 4)

The children played with the dolls and the other toys the girls had brought for them to play with. The girls started to sing and Diana Duke sang too. The smallest child was Mary Elaine Duncan. She played with the little toys which were for her age level. Carol Deane played with the larger dolls and she played with a little tea set. Terry Derl was the only boy who came, but he played very much and listened attentively to the stories which his sister told him. When the time was up, all the children went home except two who stayed with their sisters. Ernestina Ochoa

STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFeaters

"I realize, Snark, that the war made it necessary for us to employ girl boardmarkers—but our customers' wives are beginning to complain!"

Their sad tale is acted on the screen as they tell it and it turns out to be hilariously funny to the audience.

Which brings us to the point of hastening to assure the reader that the problem radio hour is not treated seriously in "Swing Out the Blues," even though it is a serious idea as arranged for the air. However, it is only human to find other people's problems funny.

This human equation is no doubt, the reason for the great popularity of these "bring your problems to me" programs. In between the tears of the genuine tragedies, there are many amusing moments even though the creator of them is unaware of the fact that he is being funny.

"PRINCESS O'ROURKE," ROMANTIC COMEDY AT LOCAL THEATRE

Moviewgoers should have no difficulty in warming up to the new picture "Princess O'Rourke," which comes to the Princess Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

The film starring Olivia de Haviland and Robert Cummings is a storehouse of fun-jammed with all the ingredients that make for outstanding entertainment.

The lovely Olivia is cast as Maria, a royal Princess in exile. Cooped up in her luxurious suite in a swank New York hotel, she suffers from ennui. Under the constant surveillance of her guardian uncle, the Princess doesn't have too much fun until she's sent on a plane trip to California. The plane, however never reaches the West Coast. After only a few hours a heavy fog turns it back to New York harbor.

By this time the beautiful Princess is sound asleep, having plied herself with enough sleeping pills to put her out for two days. Lucky for her, young Eddie O'Rourke, the co-pilot, was there to take her under his wing. For Eddie was a good boy, reared right, so he sent the sleeping beauty to his apartment in the care of his friend's wife.

Imagine Maria's surprise when she awakened amidst thoroughly masculine surroundings! And, to complete her mystification, a series of placards hung about the room pleading for a date that afternoon. The Princess was intrigued, so she went home with some cock-and-bull story about where she spent the night—then set out to meet Eddie.

To nobody's surprise, of course, Maria and Eddie fall in love. The complications that ensue in Eddie's courtship and his state of prolonged shock when he discovers she is a real Princess make for hilarious laughter. But boy gets girl in the end, and

SKELTON'S COMEDY FLARE OUTSTANDING IN FILM

"The Fox" is on the prowl again! Once again irrepressible sleuth, Red Skelton, is in hot water in the third of the rib-tickling comedy series, "Whistling in Brooklyn," showing at the Princess Theatre, Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12.

All the old reliable players are back too, turning in gilded performances. Red Skelton plays Wally Benton, radio's crime expert—"The Fox," who is still trying vainly to slip a wedding ring on petite Ann Rutherford's finger. Not that Ann isn't willing, mind you, but circumstances dictate otherwise. "Rags" Ragland is on hand again to tickle your ribs with his dim-witted shenanigans as Red's self-appointed press agent, who manages to get his boss in and out of more trouble than even Red can handle without aid.

Adding to Red's troubles are pretty Jean Rogers, fresh from her "meanie" role in "Swing Shift Maisie," playing the beautiful but dumb reporter—out to cover Red's wedding and stumbling in on the biggest murder story of the year and not even realizing it!

"The Fox" becomes involved with the police when "Rags" tips them off that he is "The Constant Reader," a dangerous murderer. To "Rags" it's a publicity stunt. To Red it's a headache that nearly loses him his scalp. But once Red becomes involved he sets out to solve the mystery and clear his name and get off on a honey-

GEORGE R. TUCKER

Let's each of us do our full part!

If OUR BOYS . . . our sons, husbands, fathers, can bravely, unselfishly GIVE their all, their lives if need be . . . SURELY we, safe and comfortable at home, can LEND our money to our own country!

We are not buying these Bonds to help any individual in our country, and certainly not the bureaucrats in Washington, but to help the more than 300 brave boys from our country, and our great leaders like General Douglas MacArthur, General Eisenhower, Admiral Nimitz and Admiral Halsey, in preserving our Flag and our Country

If they can fight and die, if need be, as four have done, surely we can lend our dollars to provide the weapons they must have for victory. REMEMBER—a lot of us have the good paying jobs those boys had to leave to go and fight for us, so let's at least show our appreciation.

Theo C. McDonald, Hugh S. Stapp, Wilton W. Murrah and Frank Cavender have given their lives, Jack Smith is missing in action, and Edward R. Downie, has been lost since Wednesday of last week with his flying fortress in the mountains of Utah. Let's solemnly pledge our faith that—THESE HONORED DEAD SHALL NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN—that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

LET'S ALL BACK THE ATTACK AND BUY MORE WAR BONDS—NOW!
