LOOKING AHEAD

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President, Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Looking my boyhood I knew a typical ante-bellum Negro, a grotesque character born 50 years ago. It was said of him, that, "He was a Congo River ritual, a solemn Congo River ritual, named one of his seldom-used words, 'The World.'" Promptly he had his wife sew up the pocket. After that, when a worker asked him for a bit of tobacco he could truthfully say, "I ain't got a bit 'n' in 'The World.'"

It is not a pointless story. It is an interesting philosophy in general use, notably the Office of Price Administration. When the powers of this world find it impossible to raise a price (as they sometimes do) they promptly sew up the pocket with a so-called "line item," shift the trade to another store with somewhat higher prices and call it a devaluation of quality; not a price boost—never!

Magic Twist
Unusually, people pay more for what they get although they stay the same at all points. Just consider the case of Effie Stone, proprietress of the Store Inc. Nobody has called Effie a modiste. She is a sort of general store at the edge of a farming town and sells some apparel, mostly working garments for families and mill people. Men skirts at $4 and ladies at $20 are for Effie's quality.

Now the store is out of men skirts entirely. Effie can't sell them for $6.50 whole. She could sell them for $6.50 if O.P.A. rules are law. The rule is that Effie sold no more than $4 for several years, during the months that O.P.A. since designated as a "base period." By doing this she automatically fixed her own ceiling. The O.P.A.'s M.R.P. rule caught her.

Brown Hamburg
Effie is fooled. Effie's high-quality price for skirts is $4. She can't get any more $4 skirts to sell. Her customers, in fact they are pay more. They still like the clothes they were during famous "base period." But are buying elsewhere, paying $8.50 for skirts in shops just like that, that have no "base period" or in big stores with "ceilings" upheld by costly lines.

Very same sport skirts Effie used to sell at $4, the very brand, can be sold legally at Smart Shoppe at higher prices than they'd dare name if she was still a competitor. But she is out. She has lost her business and her suit line is ready to die the same. She is not alone either. She shopped around a bit at a merchant's instinct and found dealers in other lines lined up in the same red tape.

Scandal!
A few days ago Effie went to the shoe section of a basement store to buy some cheap oxford shoes; no luck! She found soft shoes at low prices. She asked why and the salesman recommended her own $4-skirt story in words. But later, at a foot-wear salon she paid slipper prices for what used to be called cheap shoes. Even dealers did not get rich on transaction either.

FRED ERISMAN FOR STATE OFFICE

Fred Erisman of Longview, who is serving his third term as District Attorney of Gregg County, has announced his candidacy for Attorney General of Texas. Long prominently identified in Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce activities, Erisman is now serving as president of the District and County Attorney's Association of Texas.

Stamford Rodeo Scheduled for July Third, Fourth

Unique Feature Will Be Cutting Horse Contest

From the Grand Entry, which opens each rodeo performance and which is a colorful show within itself, to the final closing event, the Cowboy Rodeo will be the most outstanding feature of the Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held at Stamford July 3 and 4, according to news releases.

Three performances are scheduled each day. Morning matinees will start at 8 o'clock, afternoon shows at 2 o'clock, and night shows at 8 p. m. Prizes totalling approximately $2,300 will be awarded in rodeo events. Cash awards will be made both days to winners in bronc riding, calf-roping, steer riding, and wild-cow milking.

In addition to daily cash prizes, the Texas Cowboy Reunion will present five special made saddles, these going to the winning cowgirl sponsor, the winner in the cutting horse contest, champion old-time calf-roping, champion calf-roping, and champion cow-milker.

Entry blanks are being mailed this week to approximately 300 rodeo contestants who entered the 1942 show. Judging from the number of inquiries received at this early date, the number of contestants in rodeo events will compare very favorably with the last show, according to A. M. G. Swenson, chairman of the Rodeo Events committee.

One of the most unique features of the Reunion, one that is popular with lovers of good horses, is the cutting horse contest. This event is judged on the performance and ability of the horse, as well as the performance and ability of the rider. This contest, recognized as one of the best exhibitions of cow horses and horsemanship in the Southwest, gives cowboys and ranchmen an opportunity to show the skill of their favorite cow ponies.

ATTENDS FUNERAL

Mrs. Jesse McKee of Pecos attended funeral services held Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Dolly Dyer. Mrs. McKee was an old friend of the family, her late husband being at one time owner and editor of the Times.

Frank Stavley spent last week visiting in Del Rio with friends.

Mrs. Steve Stumberg and Dudley Harrison left Friday of last week for Roswell, N. M., to return her son, Temple, her for the summer months. He has been attending New Mexico Military Institute.

TUBERCULIN TESTS GIVEN STUDENTS ARE 17% POSITIVE

Forty-seven out of 276 students, or 17 per cent, who were given the tuberculin test showed a positive reaction, according to Dr. D. M. Randall, county health officer, who was in charge of the program. He was assisted by Mrs. Clara Bell Anderson, nurse, and Mrs. C. P. Peavy.

The tests given under the sponsorship of the Terrell County Parent-Teacher Association, were given students in both the American and Latin-American schools. Of those tested who showed a positive reaction, forty were from the Lamar Ward School and seven from the American schools.

In making the announcement, Dr. Randall stated that a positive reaction was not proof that the student was suffering from tuberculosis, but it was a strong indication and that all such persons should have further examination without delay. He also stated that overeating, improper diet, and general unsanitary conditions, were some of the conditions which would lead to such a percentage of positive cases.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES ARE HELD TUESDAY

Sponsored by the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary, and in cooperation with the churches of the town, Memorial Day Services were held in the Baptist church Tuesday at 11:00 o'clock.

Colors were advanced by the Legion members after which the invocation was given by Elvin Tost, Miss Maurine Frazier, attended by Misses Mary Nell Higgins and Joan Anderson, presented the wreath. After the wreath was placed those present faced west for 30 seconds of silent prayer. The Memorial address was made by the Rev. James O. Todd, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. John W. Byrd. The colors were then retired.

OLLIE STEVENS MAKES LAST RUN AS R.R. EMPLOYEE

With a lusty "all aboard," O. A. Stevens herded the passengers on the 4:10 p. m. Southern Pacific bound for the west coast Monday and hopped on the train for his last trip as an S. P. employee.

Stevens, in spite of his 70 years, is retiring as a brakeman only because regulations state he has reached the age when retirement is mandatory. He is a native of San Antonio and resides at 235 Dashiell street.

For 40 years he has served as brakeman for the line. An additional 14 years have been spent by Stevens as an S. P. employee.

He didn't have much time to answer questions about what he was going to do and how it was in the old days, but he did state: "I like the trains now. They don't have oil lamps and the air conditioning doesn't bother me a bit. I can still remember those first trains. The engines of those trains were like tea kettles and their coaches like street cars. Besides the bride's parents, her grandmother, Mrs. Elvora Frazor of San Antonio, attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Frazor returned to Sanderson Tuesday.

As for train robberies, yes, he admitted he had seen one. It happened back in 1898. Thieves cracked the express safe on the train and escaped with $50,000. That was all he had time to tell. The big watch that he drew from his pocket revealed that it was time to leave and he wasn't going to pull out late on his last run—San Antonio Light.

Old timers here will probably remember the robbery spoken of by Mr. Stevens, and Fred Savage says that his father, the late J. W. Savage, was on the train when it was robbed. He also stated that no passengers were molested.

blouse. Her gloves were of pink and other accessories were white, the hat being adorned with orange blossoms and a short white veil. Her bouquet was white sweetheart roses and baby's breath, tied with a white ribbon. The matron of honor wore a white jersey dress with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a dinner was given for the bridal party in the dining room of the Sir Walter Hotel by the bride's parents. Mixed rose buds of pastel shades were used in decorations for the table and the bride wore a corsage of orchids at the dinner. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom.

Mrs. McIver graduated from the Sanderson high school with the class of 1943 after which she entered the Cadet Nurses Corps, training at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo. Lt. McIver is a graduate of the Corpus Christi high school and attended Texas University, Austin, two years before volunteering for service with the Air Corps. He received his training in California and was presented his wings at Salt Lake City, Utah. At present he is a flight leader stationed at Durham Field, N. C.

The couple will make their home in Raleigh for the next two months after which Mrs. McIver will resume her studies at Washington University.

Besides the bride's parents, her grandmother, Mrs. Elvora Frazor of San Antonio, attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Frazor returned to Sanderson Tuesday.

NEPHEW OF LOCAL MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Rites for James Warren Cox, 19, were held in El Paso Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Barry Hagedon Chapel.

Cox, a nephew of W. O. Cox, railroad engineer of Sanderson, was killed in a freak accident when the truck in which he and a companion were riding skidded on wet pavement one mile west of Clint and crashed into trees at the side of the road.

Bodies of the two boys were not discovered until approximately four hours after the accident, as the truck had come to rest upright and passers-by evidently thought the occupants had already been removed.

SALVATION ARMY TO MAKE ANNUAL APPEAL HERE SOON

W. D. Pedigo, veteran campaigner from state headquarters of the Salvation Army will be in Sanderson soon making his annual canvass for funds for this organization, according to information received from him this week.

This canvass affords the citizenry an opportunity to assist this organization in their state activities and general program, and to enable them to continue the aid and comfort being given on war fronts.

Mr. Pedigo stated that his canvass is for the entire year unless an emergency arises, and he hoped that the response would be generous.

Mrs. A. L. Fawcett left Friday of last week for Bryan for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Wilson, and family.

Says he does two hours of drilling daily, manual of arms, one hour; instructive movies, three hours; two hours of lectures, and 30 minutes for cleaning rifle. Detail means either guard duty, kitchen police or barracks orderly. He arises at five in the morning and goes until five in the afternoon. His first k. p. duty netted him 17 gallons of peeled spuds.

Leonard Miller, gunner in the U. S. Navy, who has been in a hospital in California for the past three months, has been released and is assigned to shore duty, according to his mother, Mrs. Lottie Miller. She returned last week from a visit with him. Leonard has seen thirteen months of foreign service.

A V-mail letter received by his parents from Cpl. B. A. Kerr, stationed in New Caledonia, says he had the greatest surprise of his life the night of May 24 when his brother Robert J. Kerr, Lt. He also informed them that "He (Bob) will be seeing you soon. Was glad to see Bob looking so well and feeling fine". Lt. Kerr has been stationed in the South Central Pacific, and his parents have been expecting him home on leave for several days. May 24 was Cpl. AT THE PRINCESS-

IRVING BERLIN'S "THIS IS THE ARMY" IN TECHNICOLOR

The motion picture version of the all-soldier musical, Irving Berlin's "This Is The Army," produced by Warner Bros. for Army Emergency Relief, will show at the Princess Theatre Sunday and Monday.

The film, recently completed in Hollywood, was produced by Jack L. Warner and Hal B. Wallis. Michael Curtiz directed the entire company of 350 soldiers, who appeared in the musical on Broadway and during its cross-country tour, appears here with the soldiers in their original roles in the picture, which includes the entire stage production of "This Is The Army" as well as additional material from Irving Berlin's World War I soldier show, "Yip, Yip Yaphank."

Irving Berlin makes his picture debut in "This Is The Army," singing his famed lament, "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning," as he did in the stage version.

Also included in the cast, for purposes of a slight story content, are George Murphy, Joan Leslie, Lieutenant Ronald Reagan, Alan Hale, George Tobias, Charles Butterworth, Una Merkel, and Sgt. Joe Louis. In addition, it is in "This Is The Army" that Kate Smith makes her first screen appearance in ten years and new Berlin songs are sung by Frances Langford and Gertrude Niesen.

SIX SWING BANDS GIVE RHYTHMS TO "JAM SESSION"

If Columbia's new musical jamboree, "Jam Session," announced to show at the Princess Theatre on Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10, does nothing else, it should certainly please the band fans and cause lots of discussion about the respective merits of swing, sweet and low, and rumba music when they get together in a session of jive. There are six name bands in "Jam Session" including: Charlie Barnef, Louis Armstrong, Alvino Rey, Jan Garber, Glen Gray and Teddy Powell. Advance reports

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Because he sealed the walls of the fortification at Kasba-Mehdia, French Morocco, and from that hazardous position diverted the attention of the enemy with his rifle fire, enabling our troops to enter through the main gates of the fort, Pfc. C. L. Mohler was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. He risked his life for you. How many more Bonds and Stamps can you afford, to help him? Figure it out yourself.

U. S. Treasury Department

anyone in distress and doesn't hesitate to risk his life in order to right a wrong. With him again, taking most of the chances he does, are California (Andy Clyde), an old-time Western cowboy with a roistering sense of humor, and Jimmy (Jimmy Rogers), who has an eye for every pretty lass.

The film tells the story of beautiful Virginia Curtis (Mady Correll), who has sent for her Eastern lawyer to discover why her Lazy W Ranch is losing money and why so many cattle have been stolen. The stage-coach in which Corwin the lawyer, is traveling is held up and he is injured. Hoppy learns Corwin's purpose and decides to impersonate him while he recuperates.

Self-consciously he dons the effete Easterner's clothes, and, shipping his two pals ahead of him to get jobs on the Lazy W Ranch, he sets out to do his own sleuthing. During a daring night battle, with the townspeople lined up with him, Hoppy rounds up the culprits in a series of rip-roaring action scenes that will have the audience holding tight to their seats.

"Texas Masquerade," is a film not to be missed by all lovers of stirring westerns, with plenty of fast-riding, gunplay and high adventure.

O'CONNOR, PEGGY RYAN IN "CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK"

"Chip Off the Old Block," latest Donald O'Connor-Peggy Ryan feature, which comes Wednesday and Thursday, to the screen of the Princess Theatre, is by all odds the best of the lively comedy musicals which have teamed these engaging young personalities. The film is a superior example of movie fare suited for all the family, and was received enthusiastically wherever shown.

The sensational young O'Connor's star will continue to soar on the strength of performances such as he delivers in "Chip Off the Old Block." He is again the irrepressible American youth, with a great capacity for fun and laughter, yet withal possessed of a maturity beyond his years.

For the mos part, however, Donald is the clowning, quipping, spirited boy that won him such rapid popularity with the film-goers.

Universal continues to demonstrate shrewd judgment in pairing O'Connor with pert Peggy Ryan, whose rare talents for fast comedy are rivalled only by her nimbleness as an eccentric dancer. Miss Ryan is good entertainment by herself; with O'Connor as a complement she is sure-fire.

Sharing top honors with this pair in "Chip Off the Old Block" is a fetching, 17-year-old newcomer to films, Ann Blyth. Miss Blyth, who provides romantic interest for O'Connor in the film story, makes a notable debut, suffering not at all from the accomplished company in which she finds herself.

Meriting special mention is the initial screen effort of yet another, Joel Kupperman, radio's already-famous "Quiz Kid." The seven-year-old mathematical marvel is a bundle of uninhibited boy, and was allowed to play himself in the cameras.

Featured supporting players are unusually well cast, including such able-cinema troupe as Helen Vinson, Helen Broderick, Arthur Treacher, Patricia Leslie, J. Edward Bromberg, J. Truex, Minna Gombell, S. S. Hinds and Irving Bacon.

At last a way to end all let the whole world agree to have another one until one is paid for.

THINGS TO CHECK --before calling a refrigerator serviceman

Sometimes a service call can be avoided if a few simple checks are made first. With servicemen extra busy these days, each owner can be of extreme help, under present wartime conditions, by avoiding unnecessary calls which use up precious time, tires and gasoline. If trouble develops, check these things:

IF REFRIGERATOR UNIT DOES NOT RUN:

- 1 Check to see if plug is making contact in wall outlet.
2 If plug is in outlet, check outlet with light cord and bulb to see if current is on.
3 If current is not on at outlet, check for blown fuse in house-fuse panel or block.

IF MECHANISM RUNS TOO MUCH:

- 1 Make sure door seal is tight.
2 Clean the condenser.
3 Temperature control may be set for too cold a temperature.

IF MECHANISM RUNS . . . but there is little or no refrigeration:

- 1 Stop mechanism by turning off switch or removing wall plug.
2 Allow all frost to be melted off cooling unit.
3 Start once more and see if cooling unit gets cold.

IF IT TAKES TOO LONG TO MAKE ICE:

- 1 Check temperature control. It may be set on warm position.
2 If in wintertime and refrigerator is in cold location, it may not operate long enough to make ice.

They Were in the Attack—Are You Backing Them Up With War Bonds?

Walter Feirtag, 29, of New York, was also wounded during the invasion of Sicily. He was in seven hospitals in Africa before being returned to the hospital at St. Albans. A brother, his mother and himself buy War Bonds regularly. Do you?

A strafing German pilot wounded by Lt. (jg) Hinton E. Kinney, 31, of Carrollton, Ga., during the Sicilian invasion, one bullet going through his right knee. He has just bought a $1,000 War Bond. Are you buying your share of War Bonds?

Voight W. Baker, 30, of Detroit, Mich., is a Scabee. His ship was on was torpedoed. His wife, brother and dad all work in the same defense plant in Detroit and buy War Bonds regularly. Baker owns $1,600 worth. Are you buying your share of War Bonds?

Fire Controlman 3rd Class William C. Wenzel, 18, of Massillon, Ohio, a member of a destroyer's crew, was wounded at Bizerte in the Tunisian campaign. He received shrapnel wounds in both legs. The War Bonds you buy assure him the best hospital care.

Preparation Is Key Saving Food Now Discarded In Homes

WFA Tells Housewives Use Caution In Handling Vegetables. Some big savings in food may be made in the methods of preparation used by the housewife. The War Food Administration points out. A few examples will show some of these savings. Beet tops represent 22 per cent of the beet as purchased and commonly thrown away when they could be served up in any dish. Turnip tops and parings are gently thrown out. They amount to 35 per cent of the entire turnip. The tops could be used to good use as a separate dish and the parings held to all the scraps by scraping the tops instead of paring them. Water leaves of lettuce, too, go into the garbage pail.

And those very green leaves, nutritionists say, contain more food value than the pallid inner ones. The nutritionists recommend cutting out the bruised spots and chopping the leaves up in salads or serving them wilted with a bit of bacon fat and crumbled bacon.

Potato waste comes in the peeling. Even if only one-sixth of the potato is lost during careful peeling in the average American kitchen, it piles up into a national waste of more than 24,600,000 bushels a year.

Garbage cans far too often are crammed with food a European cook would use with relish. Bones, WFA nutritionists say, make soup stock and gelatin. Just boil them slowly from two to three hours in plenty of water. Remove the bones and flavor the stock with lemon juice. Cook vegetables, add them to the stock and let the whole set in the ice-box from 12 to 14 hours. That gives jellied vegetables, but fruits can be added instead.

Pear and apple peelings can be made into a spread for bread. Just boil them slowly and strain. Add sugar and molasses and boil a little longer. The mixture jells as it cools and there's the spread.

Sour milk can go into griddle cakes and other cakes. Sour cream can go into potato soup and can be used in cooking squash, goulash, sauerkraut, etc.

Stale bread makes good puddings and stuffings. Stale bread crumbs, combined with eggs, milk, margarine and fruit, make a fine Viennese dessert.

Vegetables should be cooked quickly in a small amount of boiling water only until they're tender.

Vegetable cooking water is excellent for use in soups, and the syrup in which canned fruits are packed is good for fruitades.

Low temperatures are better for meat than high temperatures, which shrink it unnecessarily and mean fewer servings.

Fruits and vegetables for salads should not be chopped until just before serving, to conserve their vitamins.

There are other ways to save, too. Scrape butter or dough thoroughly out of mixing bowls. Learn the art of camouflage cookery and serve leftovers appetizingly. Above all, never, never allow food to scorch or burn in pans.

And, clever serving helps, too. Put only medium servings on each person's plate. It's far better to have members of the family ask for seconds than to serve them too much and have to throw out what they don't eat. Set only the amount of food on the table that the family can eat, and urge more food on guests than they really want. A clean-plate campaign in your own home is one way of doing the trick.

Housewives who follow all these rules will find food bills dropping, food savings mounting.

Holy Stone

Cleanliness is the first order of every American soldier and sailor and the United States Government spends millions upon millions of dollars to keep our fighting men as clean and as healthy as circumstances will permit.

MY NEIGHBOR'S BOY
I've known my Neighbor's Boy for years
Through laughs and shouts and young lad's tears.
I've seen him playing cowboy, soldier, cop.
Sometimes I thought I'd like to stop
And really slap him down,
But he'd grin and clown
And yell "Let's go to town!"
I've seen him wear his last short pants,
I've seen him off to his first dance,
I've seen him get his Eagle Scout,
I've answered back his whistling shout,
But now he's gone away.
Gone, too, his yell and play

"FEMALE STEER"
The House of Representatives Banking and Currency Committee members were surprised recently to learn that an official of OPA's Cattle Division asked a citizen: "Do you still have male and female steers in Texas?" Representative Wright Patman, high New Dealer who tries to defend everything the New Deal does, told the committee the OPA official had been discharged. He didn't explain how such ignorant persons could get a Government job paying $5,000 a year and up.
Success is more often achieved through observance of simple obvious rules than through uncanny shrewdness and deep cunning.

EFFICIENCY IN HIGH GEAR
The OPA, it is said, is now "efficient." Here's what that means: OPA's price office decided several weeks before Easter to prepare a pamphlet on rules for selling Easter dyes to insure the trade full information on the subject. The completed work was said to be clear and concise. The trouble was that the printed pamphlets, neatly baled, were not mailed from Washington until the day after Easter.
Paradox of the bowling alley, it seems, that it is not so quiet because you can hear the pins drop.

Program To Be Advanced for Aid To War Veterans

Idea Advanced By A. and M. College Extension Service

Local advisory committees to assist returning war veterans with the purchase or lease of farms soon will be set up throughout Texas under a program advanced by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

There is no need to wait until the post war era to help discharged men with this or other problems, J. D. Prewitt, acting Extension director has notified county Extension workers. He cited reports that 100,000 men are being released each month from the armed forces.

County agricultural Victory Councils, reorganized for war work in 1942, will form the nucleus for these committees, and other agencies in the counties will be asked to assist, Mr. Prewitt said. The advisory groups can render invaluable assistance in seeing that these men are adequately informed on productive values, rental agreements, credit, and other factors involved in the purchase or leasing of a farm or ranch.

Sample surveys made among certain units in the armed forces indicate that many fighting men hope to buy farms with their mustering out pay. And they will need protection from land prices which are above cost of production, Prewitt believes. He expects local farm and ranch people will welcome the opportunity to give this type of volunteer service since practically every family has contributed some member to the armed forces. Gaining some experience in helping the small number of veterans returning now will enable these local committees to be prepared for large scale demobilization later.

Prewitt points out that this type of assistance does not differ in character from that which the Extension Service customarily provides.

forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 10th day of July, A. D. 1944, then and there to answer plaintiffs' petition filed in said court on the 16th day of July, 1942, in this cause, numbered 1991 on the docket of said court and styled Pansy Yount, individually and as independent executrix of the estate of M. F. Yount, deceased, Mildred Yount Manion, joined by her husband, E. D. Manion, Plaintiffs, vs. Mrs. Katherine M. Gibson, individually and as independent executrix of the estate of Dr. J. A. Gibson, deceased, Joe A. Gibson, Leonard Isaacs, and the unknown heirs of Leonard Isaacs, deceased, Sarah M. Ellison, and the unknown heirs of Sarah M. Ellison, deceased, T. N. Sloan and the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, a corporation, of which A. M. McCorkle is a Vice-President, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows to wit:

Plaintiffs allege that they and defendants, except T. N. Sloan and the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, are the owners in fee simple of a tract of land situated in Terrell County, Texas, and being Survey 7, Abstract 23, Certificate 327, Block 162, and patented to Lem Barton original grantee, by patent 207, Vol. 34, containing 1,231.9 acres of land; that plaintiffs are the owners of an undivided 308 acres of said land and said defendants jointly are the owners of the balance of said survey, amounting to 923.9 acres of land; that said plaintiffs and said defendants are the sole owners of said premises and that the estimated value thereof is $6,000.00; that defendants, T. N. Sloan and the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, of which A. M. McCorkle is a Vice-President, are claiming an interest in said land by virtue of a certain oil and gas lease dated November 3, 1941, covering the entire survey, which lease was executed by the defendant, Katherine M. Gibson; that said lease, in so far as it purports to cover the interest of plaintiffs is void, and the claim of said defendants by virtue of said lease constitutes a cloud upon plaintiffs' title, and plaintiffs pray that they have judgement for the partition and division of the land and premises above described; that commissioners be appointed and a writ of partition issue, and for possession of that portion of the lands described in the suit which may be ascertained and declared to be the property of plaintiffs; that the cloud upon plaintiffs' title to such land ascertained and declared to be their property created by virtue of said oil and gas lease be quieted, and said lease declared of no further force and effect in so far as it covers the lands of the plaintiffs, as is more fully shown by plaintiffs' petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Sanderson, Texas, this the 22nd day of May A. D. 1944.

HISTORY WASN'T MUCH BEFORE THE NEW DEAL

Because we think the people at home should know what is being done by the Office of War Information to bring the history of the United States to all soldiers overseas, we are herewith reprinting an article written by Samuel B. Pettengill, which we think will show clearly the things stressed most. It is easy to see, from the facts set forth, that little importance is placed upon the real history of our nation, and stress is upon events of the past eleven years. The article follows:

INFORMATION ABOUT O. W. I.

This is the history of a history. It is entitled a "Handbook of the United States." It is gotten up by the Office of War Information. But you will not have a chance to read it. Only soldiers may read it—overseas soldiers. A British publishing house will also make it available there.

So why bother you with it? Brother, if you will finish reading this you will understand better why Mr. Roosevelt made such a drive for his bobtail federal ballot a few weeks ago.

This book of 178 pages purports to be a history of the United States. You are paying for it—but won't be allowed to read it.

Under the title "Chronology of American History," it devotes EIGHT columns to the 933 years from the time when Lief Ericsson discovered America in the year 1000, down to 1933 when the New Deal took charge. For the eleven years since then, it devotes TWENTY-TWO columns, with hosanna, garland and song for our mighty deeds and the brave men who rescued us from everything but debt.

Before speaking further of the men, the book mentions two women only as worthy of our Hall of Fame. One is Jane Addams, and the other, ah, you would never guess. So I must tell you. It is Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. Frances Willard, Julia Ward Howe, Betsy Ross, Sacajewa, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Clara Barton, Molly Stark, Pocahontas, Lucretia Mott, Martha Washington and Susan B. Anthony are put in the lesser galaxies. These modern "meteors fight the fixed stars."

George Washington is not mentioned until 1787, six years after Yorktown. That he had anything to do with a war is not disclosed. However, Cornwallis is remembered. There is, of course, a good reason for not mentioning his namesake, "Corn Wallace." He is on his way to China and may be Chiangkaied.

Thomas Jefferson is omitted by the New Deal historians. So also is Andrew Jackson. They rest in peace. The principles of government they fought for are no more. They wrote their names in dust by making strong remarks about STATES RIGHTS, TAXES and DEBT.

The Constitution—the document that made this the United States—is left out, except the Preamble. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address is included but nothing from Washington's Farewell. Nor the Mayflower Compact. Nor Jefferson's Inaugural. Nor the Monroe Doctrine.

It is proper of course that recent events should be given prominence and so they are. Wilson's Fourteen Points, the Atlantic Charter, the Four Freedoms, the Moscow Declaration, the Declaration of the United Nations, and various Rooseveltian utterances on the Philippines, North Africa, etc.

Under the heading of Belles Lettres, or beautiful writings, we find honorable mention given to two plays by Robert Sherwood. Mr. Sherwood is the head of the OWI's overseas propaganda bureau which puts out the book. Maxwell Anderson, another darling of the OWI has three of his plays boosted. I am told that some or all are being shown in London. With the American taxpayer footing the bill, it is a grand way to advertise.

The Handbook issued by "the overseas branch of the Office of War Information" bears the official OWI seal and announces that it contains "pertinent information about the United States of America and the war, for use overseas."

So there you have it. Meantime, if America is to be presented to foreign countries, now, more than at any time, we should give the essence of its institutions and not a calendar of alphabeticals with a partisan slant.

In the foreign field O. W. I. is doing an important job in counteracting the propaganda of the totalitarians. Many of its other publications are fine examples of America at its best, competently presented.
