Southern Pacific Buys Bonds To Go Toward Local Quota

Purchase by Southern Pacific Lines of $18,000 in government securities to be made as a part of Terrell County's quota in the Seventh War Loan is announced by the Terrell County War Finance Committee.

Allocation of that amount to Terrell County is made from that railroad's purchase of $3,000,000 worth of government securities in the Seventh War Loan drive. Distribution of the purchases was made to the various counties served by the Southern Pacific Lines in Texas and Louisiana.

In that way, it was explained, Southern Pacific Lines has been of considerable assistance to many counties in reaching their goals in the present campaign. Southern Pacific has made substantial purchases of government securities in all previous drives, the same plan of allocation to the various counties having been followed.

Quota Is In Sight As War Bond Sales Pass $90,000 Mark

Terrell County stood in view of the Seventh War Loan Goal, "over the top", and within two or three thousand dollars of its quota as war bond sales up to Thursday afternoon totaled some $91,162, according to C. P. Peavy, chairman of the drive in this county. Of this amount $57,200 has been sold in Series "E" bonds.

The gap yet to be filled in order for the county's quota of $95,000 to be met will take exactly $8,838 more from the people, but from the looks of things bond sales will pass the $95,000 quota mark over the week-end.

PAYING PARLAMENT
How would you like to be elected to the board of governors of the finest country club you ever saw? Unless you are an exceptionally person, you can't afford such a job. It uses a lot of time and there's no salary connected with it. Helping to boss a lovely palace in the middle of a big playground is fun (I imagine) but it's an expensive pastime.

People who habit such spots to enjoy their spare time are in the financial upper brackets. If they work at all, they do things they enjoy doing, or perhaps they do a few jobs nobody else can do as well. Such wealthy people usually are competent but they engage others to handle their routine work. This leisurely class is growing steadily smaller, but it still exists.

Work Well Done
A rich country club is proverbially well managed. It does not need to economize and cut corners, but that's only part of the story. It is governed by men of singular ability with spare time who like their club and take personal interest in it. They have no better minds than men who hustle for business and use their wives for stenographers, but excellence thrives on calm.

By the way, Mrs. Harry S. Truman used to serve her husband as secretary when he was senior senator from Missouri. The President told it himself to the press when he approved the bill allowing $2,500 a year expense pay to representatives. It would be hard to find stronger testimony that members of the Congress of the United States need better compensation for the work they do.

No Time to Think
In every practical sense, members of Congress have been elected to the board of governors of the world's grandest country—not a country club. They represent important segments of people who have chosen them to help boss (not a playground), the most influential power under the shining sun, and, until early this month, they got $10,000 a year—the pay of a junior executive.

One of America's ugliest habits is criticizing Congress for shortcomings that result directly from being poorly paid. No one man can study all the profound issues congressmen must vote on and no $10,000 man can afford to pay experts to digest them. Often congressmen use precious hours doing chores for people back home because they can't afford enough competent assistants.

A Good Man's Job
Many solons labor intemperately. Rep. Doughton, who is past 81, rises regularly at 5:00 a. m., and starts his 12-hour day at 6:30, this after 34 years in the House and 14 years as chairman of the Ways & Means Committee. What $100,000 official of industry claims to be worth more to his firm than Doughton is to his state and nation? American legislators are top-flight, except in pay.

Must we send rich men to Congress because poor men lack funds to finance the job, or can't afford to maintain an extra home in wealthy Washington? Do we want incompetents on Capitol Hill who stay there because they could never earn so much anywhere else? The answer is "no" of course; America can afford the best. Then congratulate your congressman on this increase and don't let him wait 20 years for the next one.

Miss Laura Oberling left last Thursday for Del Rio where she will receive medical attention.

ACCURATE, JOLO ISLAND, Philippine Islands (Delayed)—Morro guerrillas believe pin-point targets selected for Marine dive-bombers and fighters should be measured—to the inch.

The Japs on Mount Daho were dug in. They fought the guerillas, who were supporting elements of the Army's 41st Division, at every rock and coconut tree. The guerillas called for close air support, reports Sgt. Dave Wilburn, a Marine combat correspondent. Mortar smoke bombs were to mark the target.

In order to gauge the target properly for the mortar battery a daredevil guerilla lad, aged 16 crawled more than 350 yards to the Jap lines, measuring the distance with a piece of string.

MEET THE GUMBATSU

YOU'LL LEARN SOMETHING!

If you think Germany's Nazis tough, take a good look at Japan's Gumbatsu. They are the SS, the Gestapo all over again. But the acceptance of their fanatical rule has been far more deeply ingrained in their 70-odd million slaves. The Gumbatsu is an unholy alliance of high-ranking soldiers, industrialists, wealthy land holders and the members of the Imperial Household. It controls Japan absolutely. Diabolically clever and ruthless, it has managed to get control of 400 million others—nearly a quarter of the earth's population. The Gumbatsu has taught its slaves well. The Japanese soldier would far rather die than submit to capture. Death is, in his own mind, his passport to Heaven. If he were lying on the battlefield badly wounded, and a soldier in strange uniform offered him water, he would use his last ounce of strength to kill the stranger. He would then be dying for an allegiance the Gumbatsu had taught him. The American soldier would likewise have died. Because of the Gumbatsu. Read the statistics. A hundred thousand Japs killed. A handful of prisoners. The civilians on a captured Japanese island committing suicide en masse. All right. If you can neither capture a Jap nor succor him, you must kill him. But that costs many more American lives. And many, many times more American bullets, guns and planes. And more ships to transport more ammunition over more miles. It's a gigantic job to lick the Gumbatsu. If it is to be done in any reasonable time, it will take all of us to do it. We must stick by our war jobs. We must keep buying Bonds and giving blood. We must get to realize, every one of us, what we're up against in the Gumbatsu. That's the quickest way of getting the Gumbatsu to realize what they're up against in us.

How you can help 1 Keep that war job! 2 Keep buying Bonds! 3 Keep doing all your country asks!

NEW CANNING SUGAR QUOTAS ARE ALLOCATED

New canning sugar quotas have been allocated each War Price and Rationing Board in the 60 counties of the San Antonio OPA district, and re-issuance of extra sugar has begun after a week's suspension of such issuance, Carl B. Cochran, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board, was advised by J. Kenneth Black, district OPA rationing executive.

The canning sugar quotas have been allocated by counties based upon the amount of sugar left to ration in the San Antonio district after considering the issuance by all boards through the month of May, Cochran explained.

DYSENTERY HITS IN SUMMER, WARNS HEALTH OFFICER

AUSTIN, Texas, June 22—This is the season when dysentery, diarrhea and "summer complaint" are most prevalent throughout the State, and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a warning to parents of young children regarding the prevention of these diseases.

"The chief causes of these intestinal diseases are impure milk, water and food; allowing a child to become overheated; using too much sugar and cream in the diet; and under- or over-feeding," Dr. Cox said. "For the young infant, mother's milk is usually the safest food; however if other milk must be used, the supply should be clean and pure. Water should be free of impurities, and is safest when boiled and cooled before drinking. All foods should be fresh and clean and left-overs should be properly refrigerated to prevent spoilage."

Dr. Cox said definitely that when a feeding formula for infants is used, it should be prescribed by a physician and then prepared with extreme care, especially in regard to cleanliness and refrigeration. Babies should be fed at regular intervals and on a definite schedule. Their stomach and bowels can easily become upset if they are fed haphazardly whenever they happen to be fretful or restless.

"If diarrhea develops, consult a physician at once," Dr. Cox advised. "This so-called 'summer complaint' can become a very serious menace to your baby's health, if not an actual threat to his life."

The State Health Officer declared that with dysentery, as with many other diseases the fly is an agent of transmission and every home should be well screened and free of flies.

AT THE PRINCESS-

"MEET ME IN ST. LOUIS" COMES TO PRINCESS SUNDAY, MONDAY

With Judy Garland and Margaret O'Brien at their very best, "Meet Me in St. Louis," the new Technicolor musical, playing Sunday and Monday at the Princess Theatre, hits a new high in this season's entertainment thermometer.

"Meet Me in St. Louis" is one of those rare pictures which is everyone's dish, from grandpa to little sister, because that's exactly whom it's about. The Smiths, living in St. Louis in 1903 and waiting expectantly for the famous Fair to open, are as wonderful an American family as you'll ever come across.

There's Ester (Miss Garland), who's in love with the new next door neighbor; little Tootie (Margaret O'Brien), who "helps" the ice-man, ministers to her dolls and gets into scrapes. Each member of the family, up to sly old Grandpa (Harvey Davenport), has his or her own ideas and puts them to work.

Judy is at her best, a fine actress as well as superb songstress, and she puts over a number of songs of Hit Parade caliber, notably "Clang Went The Trolley." Little Margaret outdoes her characterization of "Lost Angel" and the "Catherine Ghost."

"HANGOVER SQUARE" HORROR FILM AT PRINCESS FRI., SAT.

"Hangover Square", at the Princess Friday and Saturday June 29 and 30, which stars Laird Cregar, Linda Darnell and George Sanders, tells the fascinating drama of a man whose mind periodically and without warning plunges into the murky depths of the subconscious world, forcing him to hate the things he loves, and driving him to unspeakable crimes of murder and violence. It is, too, the story of a dazzlingly voluptuous beauty a music hall entertainer, who made of love a dangerous game with herself the only winner. And it is the story of a brilliant psychiatrist-detective who probed the unknown regions of the mind to get at the horrible secret that hung over "Hangover Square."

JUST DESERTS OKINAWA (Delayed)

OKINAWA (Delayed) — Jap troops who lined up for chow near the pivot town of Shuri got something that wasn't on the menu—a generous helping of American artillery shells.

Staff Sgt. John Worth, Marine Corps combat correspondent, reports that Marine Lt. Gordon C. Peterson of Long Beach, Cal spotted the Japs lining up for a meal near Shuri. Peterson, an artillery observer, radioed at once for a fire mission.

Within minutes, Marine guns poured shells into the chow lines. There was no charge for the extra course.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS . . .

FRED: "Is it true, Judge, that a war can't be won without the use of war-alcohol . . . the kind the beverage distillers have been producing for the government for over two years?"

OLD JUDGE: "That's right, Fred. It is a basic ingredient in the smokeless powder used in virtually every firearm from a pistol to a 16-inch gun. And, in addition, it plays a more human role. The medical supplies which our military doctors use to alleviate pain, combat infection, save lives are prepared with war-alcohol."

FRED: "No wonder, then, more and more people are recognizing the great contribution our beverage distillers have made to the winning of the war with their double-duty product."

TEXAS RANGES SUFFER SEVERE DRY PERIOD

College Station, June 22—The average condition of Texas range feeds and pastures on June 1 was reported at 81 per cent by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Austin. This compared with 88 per cent a month earlier and the 20-year average for June of 86 per cent. The decline was attributed to droughty conditions during May which assumed serious proportions in many counties in the western half of the state, according to the BAE survey.

Rainfall in May was below normal in all districts, the BAE report said. Ranges were particularly dry and range feeds short in the north-western and western parts where earlier deficiencies had developed. But pastures and range feed conditions continued good in central and eastern districts, although rains were needed rather generally to insure summer grazing and to replenish depleted surface moisture.

Meanwhile, cattle showed some loss in the dry western areas, but still were in fair to good flesh. Cattle in other areas continued in very good condition. Good calf crops were reported generally and losses have been light, the BAE report said. The condition of cattle on June 1 was reported at 84 per cent, a two point loss from a month earlier and also two points below the 20-year average for June.

According to the BAE survey sheep and lamb continued in good shape, although showing a significant decline from "the splendid condition" of May 1 with the drying feed affecting the progress of lambs. Condition on June 1 was reported at 85 per cent, compared with 90 per cent on May 1 and the 20-year average June 1 condition of 87 per cent. The May and June movement of sheep and lamb was heavy.

STOMACH WORMS SYMPTOMS IN CATTLE NAMED

COLLEGE STATION, June 22 In view of the losses from common stomach worms in cattle which are being reported over many parts of Texas, the A. and M. College Extension Service has published a new circular, "Control of Stomach Worms in Cattle", by George W. Barnes and A. L. Smith, Extension Animal Husbandmen, and R. D. Turk, Head of the Department of Veterinary Parasitology.

"An understanding of the life cycle and treatment of stomach worms is of dollars and cents value to cattle producers", A. L. Smith, co-author of the circular remarked, "and since the trouble is wide-spread at this time, a few pointers on symptoms and treatment of the trouble might now be of interest".

The common stomach worm lays an enormous number of eggs, microscopic in size, which hatch and develop into infective larvae within a few days. These are picked up by grazing cattle and develop to maturity within 15 to 21 days. Animals most seriously affected are calves and yearlings, and symptoms include loss of weight, general weakness and anemia. The skin and mucous membranes are pale, and the hair coat often becomes rough. In later stages swelling often may appear under the jaw.

While it is reasonable to suspect poor, unthrifty calves and yearlings of parasitism, poor feed or other conditions may also be responsible; for that reason, it is advisable to obtain veterinary diagnosis before resorting to treatment. Caution should be used in the various treatments, as all drugs which will kill internal parasites are dangerous and should be given in doses based on the age and condition of the animal. Directions are included in the circular for administering the three treatments commonly used in the control of parasites, phenothiazine, copper sulphate and tetrachlorethylene.

Mrs. Jim Nance, accompanied by her grandson, Richard Haley Jr., returned Saturday from Monroe, Louisiana, where she had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Haley.

Jim Musselman, an American army officer who was captured on Bataan and spent years in a Japanese prisoner-of-war camp, is the son of Charles A. Musselman, veteran field representative of the United War Chest of Texas. He has recently returned home, and with him he has brought a tragic story of suffering by Americans forced to become victims of the Nips.

But he has brought home something else—a philosophy developed in those long months of captivity.

Recently in the midst of a discussion of Jap prison life, his father asked Jim: "In all those long months, didn't you ever lose hope?"

Jim smiled wanly. Then he replied simply: "No. Those who lost hope died."

Those who lose hope DO die. That is the reason for the National War Fund.

The 22 agencies of the National War Fund are designed to provide both morale and physical services to our fighting men and their allies the world over, and to aid suffering war victims in liberated countries. But their real job is to prevent loss of hope . . . loss of confidence . . . among those who are fighting the war and those who are suffering from ravages of battle.

Without hope, people die. So if we want a better world . . . if we want peace to follow victory . . . we must keep alive the hope that alone can give the world confidence to carry on.

This year, more than ever before, the National War Fund has a great job to do.

Texans continue to win honors wherever they fight, and that is on every battle front.

Pfc. Claude Pool of Austin and Sgt. Boyd Middleton of Rockdale have been awarded Silver Star Medals for battle bravery.

Pool distinguished himself by running through heavy fire during the battle of the Cabaruan Hills to reach a disabled tank and turn its 75 millimeter gun against the Japs. Middleton won the medal by crawling through bullet-whipped grass to reach a wounded companion, then rejoining his unit and neutralizing a Jap machine gun displacement.

Lt. Carlisle Plattner of Bastrop was cited for "heroic achievement" against the Germans just before V-E Day.

Don't Worry About Us!

Well do it!

THEY tell us that the fat salvage problem has got to be licked in the small cities, the towns and on the farms.

Our country has to have one hundred million more pounds of used fats this year over last. And we're the people who must save it.

We've rolled up our sleeves! We'll save every drop and bit it is possible to scrape—and keep on doing it till the last Jap is licked.

HOW TO DO IT: Save all used fats in a tin can. Keep it handy to the stove. Scrape your broilers and roasting pans, skim soups and gravies, for every drop counts. Keep solid pieces of fat, such as meat trimmings and table scraps, in a bowl. Melt down when your oven's going, add the liquid fat to the salvage can. Take the can to your butchery as soon as it's full. He will give you four cents and two red points for every pound. Your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent can give you full particulars.

100,000,000 More Pounds of Used Fats Are Needed This Year!

Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.
