REALISM
Karl Marx, father of Communism, had a noble aim. He aimed to relieve the oppressed people, to correct injustices and get rid of them. That would be fine. But he is absolutely nothing more than a platform that flatly says what's right and opposite what's wrong. The next thing you know everybody is asking what's right and what's wrong.

Survivors of the profound depression didn't all see eye-to-eye after he left first-base. He was obliged to "run out" on the Internationale and disintegrated because it was being run by a gang of ruffians, more concerned with wrecking what was in than building a new order.

It was ironic. There is a good mayor who came so vigorously to get behind service for his city. His political followers went to the fast train and derided the mail car.

There is probably fictitious illustrations aptly how selections can be mustered under the banner of holy and films. Already this year has carried a story leaders in the Communist movement addressing large audiences of working men and women.

It is up for strikes, strikes and bigger strikes; for panic.

Not that Labor, considered, is destructive in or shot through with mystic ideas. It's not true. However that working men are numerous and three- powerful segment of society. People who overthrow the only system that gives a working chance are very wise.

The workers' help. They it without them.

Communism has failed exactly as it has been tried, and it has been dead more years. This doctrine down in haste and red leisure" has been tried in American soil. Time after experiment, at having its own poison and dies into a dictatorship. Communism is a political is called a Communism but it is far from it. It is set out in that once, broke down prop- degraded the family level, overthrew the rejected God and bog- in abject poverty. Now run by a minority made up of some 3 per the citizens, and nobody even vote. A sorry situa- have.

SHOW STOCK SEEN AT LONGFELLOW

These fine animals were exhibited Saturday at Longfellow by Pecos County 4-H Club members shortly before loading out for Houston. Top left, the baby beeves fed by Bryan Mills, Sonny Warnock and the Hill Brothers. Lower left, the senior calf of Mills, declared by District Agent W. I. Marshall of San Angelo an outstanding animal which should be in the top money at Houston or any show. With the calf are Mills (right), F. B. Pyle, host for the day at the show on his ranch, and County Agent W. T. Posey, who has directed the feeding of many fine animals this year. At the right are two choice lambs selected by Mr. Marshall as outstanding for fatness and size, and for type and blockiness. The lamb on the left, judged the fattest, is held by Lester Jessup, while the smaller and blockier lamb is held by David Mitchell. Lower left is the chunky sire of a number of the better-type club calves—a bull owned by the West-Pyle Cattle Co.

San Antonio OPA Office to Issue All Sugar Stamps

With sugar the only rationing program remaining of the fifteen major programs once in operation, C. T. Giesen, district OPA director, has announced transfer of this remaining rationing activity to a new section known as the Sugar Rationing Office. The move has the double purpose of providing continued rationing of scarce sugar and maximum use of OPA personnel.

The new section is headed by Cal C. Straughan, who has been head of the rationing division in addition to taking over the present sugar rationing branch the new office is responsible for ration currency control, and the institutional user (restaurants, hotels, etc.) and industrial user programs. These operations have been managed by separate branches within the Rationing Division.

As part of the shift in organization, local War Price and Rationing Boards have ceased all rationing functions, except to distribute three rationing forms needed by applicants for further rations, and for original or replacement sugar ration books. Applications for replacement or issuance of sugar ration stamps or books from Terrell County should be mailed to the San Antonio district Office of Price Administration, Transit Tower, San Antonio 6, Texas.

Hereafter, the boards, reduced in number in the San Antonio district from 68 to 14, will be known as "Price Control Boards." Price Control Boards will be the principal instrument through which OPA expects to maintain effective retail price control.

As a result of these and other changes, Mr. Giesen said the number of paid employees had been reduced to 317. This compares with a total of 650 paid employees at the peak of employment.

Clothing Drive Is Extended To February 15

Response to the Victory Clothing Drive, being sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club in Terrell County, has been fair thus far in the drive according to Mrs. Wiley Cox, County Chairman for the drive.

Due to continued bad weather in this section, and the fact the drive in this county got off to a late start, the time has been extended to February 15, in order to collect as much clothing as possible.

Mrs. Cox urges everyone to take another look around their homes to make sure no usable clothing they can spare has been overlooked. According to Mrs. Cox the Red Cross Room in the Court House is being used as a collection place for the county. She also stated that anyone having clothes to donate to this cause, but do not have any way of getting them to the court house, to get in touch with her and she will see that they are picked up.

Pasture Grass Seed May Be Bought At Reduced Prices

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 1—Pasture grass seed may be purchased under the conservation materials program of the Production and Marketing Administration, B. F. Vance, State Director, PMA's Field Service Branch has announced. Through this program eligible farmers can obtain a seed purchase order from the county ACA office where the purchase order plan is in operation. When he buys his seed, the farmer pays the difference between the cost of the seed and the conservation practice payment and turns the purchase order over to the merchant for the balance. For example, the practice payment rate for the use of bermuda grass seed is 68 cents per pound. With an approved fair price of 75 cents per pound under the purchase order plan, the merchant must look to the farmer for 7 cents per pound and PMA will pay the merchant 68 cents per pound. The merchant selling the seed can then present the purchase order to the county ACA office, and he will receive a check for the PMA's part of the seed within approximately two weeks.

Generally speaking, the conservation practice payment amounts to about 80 per cent of the cost of the seed, Vance said. Perennial pasture grass seed qualifying for payment under the program include bermuda, rhodes, weeping lovegrass, crested wheatgrass, blue panic and buffalo. Of these seed, purchase orders can be issued for bermuda, rhodes and blue panic. The other varieties must be paid for in full by the farmer, who will receive the amount of the conservation practice payment when his application for payment is approved.

Record Claimed By Reeves County For Beef Production

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 2—Their cattle units and grazing acreage being equal to each other, farmers of the Palmorhea irrigated valley of Reeves County are disposed to claim a record for low-cost beef production. County Agricultural Agent Ted Johnston reports that about 7,000 acres planted to alfalfa and small grain last fall are supporting a population of about one cow or steer calf to each acre of this crop land this winter. Feeding a supplement of a small amount of cottonseed meal and cake, Balmorhea farmers are obtaining gains of two pounds daily at a cost of about three cents a pound. This, Johnston observes, "gives these farmers a claim to record cheap beef production." Ten years ago only one farmer in the valley was growing out calves. But with development of irrigation permanent pastures seeded to mixtures of rye, dallis bro meand fescue grasses have given a boost to this type of livestock feeding. Sweet sudan grass grown on summer irrigated pastures is used when small grain is not available.

DDT JITTERS

"Jitterbugging" is no longer a term applied only to bobby soxers. It has invaded the realm of insects—and bugs really "cut a rug." The reason? DDT. This famous compound is the first kind to bring drastic changes in the lives of pests. The complete name (if you can say it) "dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane." Thanks to the scientist for giving us a three-letter abbreviation, and to American industry for commercializing the long-forgotten drug. DDT is reported to be a crop saver in most agricultural work, and a boon to the housewife in combating one of her worst enemies, the fly. In case of the common housefly, the insect has but to step gingerly on the surface coated with DDT and it will go into a dance—its last dance. Acting as a contact poison, DDT penetrates the pads of the fly's legs, and works primarily on the nervous system. The result is a typical jerking reaction. John T. Creighton, head of the Department of Entomology, University of Florida, has referred to it as the "DDT jitters." Strangely enough, the effective qualities of DDT as an insecticide were apparently overlooked for a period of about 65 years. First discovered in 1874 by a German chemistry student as part of his routine work, it was not until 1939 that Paul Muller of Switzerland showed the value of DDT.

ALL STATES ORGANIZED NOW FOR AID TO VETS WASHINGTON, D. C.—An American Legion legislative survey shows that all 48 states now have an office, department, bureau or agency to administer veterans' affairs. State aid organization became 100 per cent when legislatures of 15 states created new state veterans' offices or reorganized existing bureaus during 1945. American Legion legislative committees supported such legislation in all states.

Victims of broken bones will no longer have to lie abed for weeks weighted down with heavy plaster casts. Two doctors in the state of Washington have come to their rescue. They have invented a cast made of glass cloth, soaked with plastic "dope" and wrapped on like a bandage. The new cast weighs less than a fourth as much as the plaster type, and allows the wearer to move around with ease.

READING & WRITING BY Edwin Seaver and Robin McKown

During the 1930's, the Federal Writers Project collected reminiscences of Negro men and women who had once been slaves. Interviewers talked with these former slaves and gathered material on their days of servitude. From their reports some 10,000 manuscripts of narratives were assembled and deposited in the Library of Congress.

B. A. BOTKIN

"Does I 'member much 'bout slavery times?" parried one of the narrators. "Well, there is no way for me to dismember unless I die." And another commented, "I recollects just as bright as the stars be shining."

In the first section are folk tales and tall talk, stories and legends. In "Long Remembrance" the editor presents a dozen full-length slave narratives; and the day-to-day life under slavery is further revealed in another long section made up of excerpts from other narratives. "A War Among the White Folks" gives the viewpoint of the Civil War, and the final part of the book has to do with what the slaves expected of freedom and what they got.

In "Can You Top This?" by the trio of gagsters, "Senator" Ed Ford, Harry Hershfield and Joe Laurie, Jr., is this one to add to the occupation stories. It is about the loyal native who was talking to a local Quilting in a Norwegian village. "What are you going to do when the Allies win the war?" he asked. "I'll put on my hat and leave," informed the Quilting. "But what are you going to put your hat on?" inquired the other.

Marguerite Lyon, in "Fresh From the Hills," the story of her life on an Ozark farm, tells of a young man who introduced a practice that should interest farmers who like fishing better than digging. The young man planted earthworms right along with his seeds—and let them do the cultivating.

THE EAGLE NEWS

KATZ KLAW

Hi ya!
How is all you chilluns today? Well, I haven't done much snoopin' lately, but I'll tell you what I know.

Here's some news for you. Seems that Birdie and Melvin broke up last week and believe it or not, she is now going with our old friend, "Tubby" (Aubrey to you). Tough luck, Melvin.

Wonder where Cookie was a short time ago—saw Wilma with Dudley at the show. You had better watch your man, Cookie.

What a surprise and not at all unpleasant—saw none other than Carolyn and Pity together last Friday night. So they finally got together.

SSSH! Don't tell anyone yet but I think it is a whispered rumor that Betty Pearl and our old friend of last year, Sammy Tinnny of Comstock have made up. So it seemed last Saturday at the Comstock dance.

And Teatnus! Who is the boy from Comstock that still wanted to go steady with you? Could it be Buster Deaton? Well, could be.

Will J. didn't have a date last Friday nite. Say in my opinion you girls had better get to work. Now if I wasn't a cross-eyed ugly cat that I am, well—it seems that every one had a swell time coming back on the bus from Marathon. How about the two couples in front and the two blonds at the back?

The dance Friday nite seemed to be quite a success. Cooke and Dud were seen together as usual and also Jaker and Wilma.

Joan had a dance Sat. nite which was also a success. Especially with the Marfa boys present. How about it Ora Mae? Doris and Johnny were also seen there with big smiles on their faces as they always do when they're together.

Hazel we sure wish you would stay in Sanderson once in a while! Don't tell me J. R. is all that important.

Well so-long ye ole' suckers. Love, the Kat.

LETTERS TO CUPID

Dear Cupid,
I go with a certain Senior boy, but I'm afraid that he doesn't like me any more. He always looks at other girls and when I'm not around he even takes them riding, what shall I do?

A Senior girl

Dear Quip,
Hello! Sucker! Why don't you take advantage? You know that there are plenty of boys who would take you riding if you really begged them.

SPORTS

The first and second teams of the Ft. Stockton volleyball girls came to Sanderson Thursday night, January 25, for two games of volleyball with the Sanderson Eaglets. At about six-thirty in the afternoon, the second strings of both teams were on the court playing a fast game. Although the girls played a hard game they were defeated by a narrow margin of fifteen to thirteen.

Immediately after the second string game there followed the main game of the evening. The girls had practiced hard during the week, but it seems that Stockton had had just a little more luck, for the first string was also beaten by the score of fifteen to thirteen. Although they were defeated, we are proud to say that they played a good game. Very tough, girls better luck next time.

The Sanderson Eagles will play a game of basketball with Sul Ross College Thursday. One game will be at 3:30 and the other at 8:00. We want everyone to be seen in the High School Gym at these given times.

LIBRARY NEWS

We received four new books this week. They are "The Call of the Wild" by Jack London; "Inside Out", by Gertrude E. Mallette; "Gold", by Stewart Edward White; and "Arundel", by Kenneth Roberts. These books are all fiction. We are always glad to receive new books to enlarge our knowledge.

Suggest Change In Old-Age, Survivors Insurance Program

Eleven specific recommendations for the expansion and improvement of the old-age and survivors insurance program have been made to Congress in the Tenth Annual Report of the Social Security Board, Elliott W. Adams, manager of the San Angelo office of the Board, reported Monday.

Heading the list is a recommendation, made repeatedly by the Board, that coverage of the program be expanded to include "all gainful workers, including agricultural and domestic employees, public employees and employees of nonprofit organizations, and self-employed persons, including farmers."

Mr. Adams said that "the social and economic welfare of the area served by the San Angelo office of the Board will be strengthened whenever action is taken to extend the benefits of the system to the millions that are not covered now."

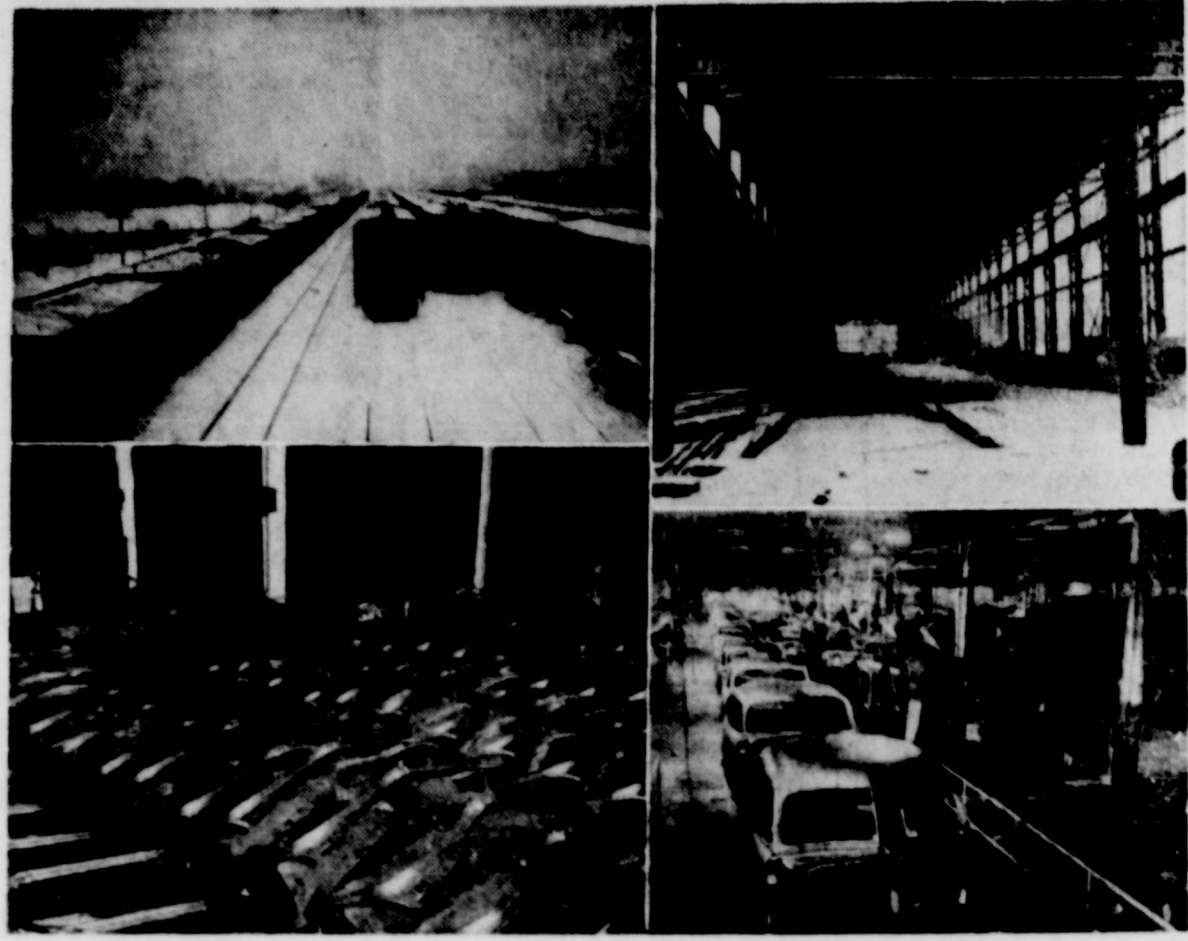

"The Board has urged this action in the past, and now, in a period of increased job turnover we are impressed more than ever by its urgency," Mr. Adams continued. "Aside from the fact that the Board has had appeals from many persons and groups now in noncovered employment for inclusion in the system, we have seen how periods in noncovered employment, such as those spent by millions of our men in the armed service of the country, can affect qualifications for benefits."

"And, I am glad to say, the Board has recommended—incidentally, for the fifth consecutive year—that credit be given to servicemen for their period of service in the armed forces."

Limitation of coverage is recognized by the Board as the most serious continuing shortcoming of old-age and survivors insurance, Mr. Adams added. It is pointed out in the Annual Report of the Board that in an average week of 1944 only about three-fifths of all gainfully employed civilians were in jobs covered by the system, and more than 21,000,000 civilians and between 11,000,000 and 12,000,000 servicemen were excluded from it.

Experiments Made To Find Best Method Of Meat Freezing

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 1—Meat may be frozen at temperatures as low as 40 to 124 degrees F below zero in the future should the resulting tenderness prove worth the extra cost of such very low temperatures, Roy W. Snyder, meat specialist of the ready covered by the Act include one for an increase in benefit amounts, particularly for low-paid workers, and one for an increase from $3,000 to $3,600 a year in the amount of earnings subject to contribution and counted in computation of benefits, Mr. Adams pointed out.

"At the present levels, benefit payments amounting to approximately $17,000 each month went to 1,100 men, women and children in this area last year," Mr. Adams said. Three recommendations by the Social Security Board are for changes in provisions of the Act that experience has shown cause hardships to beneficiaries and potential recipients, Mr. Adams said.

They are for a reduction of the qualifying age for all women beneficiaries to 60 years, from the present 65; deletion of the requirement of school attendance as a condition of receipt of benefits by children aged 16 and 17, and increase in the amount of earnings permitted a beneficiary without suspension of benefits.

Benefit payments now are suspended for any month in which the person on whose wages the benefits are based earns more than $14.99 in covered employment, and a sum equal to a month's benefit is assessed as a penalty for knowingly failing to report any such earnings.

Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, has predicted.

Beef frozen at 18 degrees and then thawed is about 9 per cent more tender than comparable unfrozen beef, he said. The usual freezing temperatures now in use are from zero to 10 degrees.

Snyder explained recent findings of the U. S. Department of Agriculture research workers which showed that beef frozen at 114 degrees below zero was 29 per cent more tender than unfrozen beef by pointing out that the increased tenderness was due to action of ice crystals.

In slow freezing at 18 degrees large ice crystals form between the muscle fibers. These draw water from the fibers as they form and push the fibers out of shape without breaking them.

In fact freezing at 19 degrees smaller crystals form within the crystals because there is not time for the water to be drawn out. As they form, the crystals break the fibers.

The lower the temperature and the faster the freezing, the more small crystals form within the fibers and the more the fibers break, Snyder said.

At 114 degrees below zero the freezing is so rapid that nearly every fiber in the meat splits.

When the teacher asked son to spell weather the other day, he laboriously turned out "wethir." She maintained that it was the worst spell of weather they had had around there in years.

Search Being Made For Relatives Of Eldridge T. Peery

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 1—Eldridge T. Peery, who would be in his eighties if still living, or his children and grandchildren are being hunted throughout Texas to claim a $15,000 estate left by a relative of whom they may have never heard or have long forgotten.

This was revealed here today when Walter C. Cox, probate genealogist, 208 S. La Salle St., took over the search for the Peery family who appears, he said to have "disappeared into the present."

Mr. Cox, who specializes in trees and missing relatives to settle estates, said that Eldridge T. Peery was born in about 1865 and is known to have "settled somewhere in Texas" before or after he married.

"The maiden name of his wife "Mr. Cox added, is not available, but it is known that the couple had a son, named Oscar, and a daughter, Lucinda, in Texas and reportedly other children. There is reason to believe that Peery, if still alive, or if not, his descendants are still located in the state."
