All Automobile Owners Are Urged To Check Their Vehicle Titles Before Applying For 1946 License Plates

AUSTIN, Feb. 12.—The Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department today urged all Texas motor vehicle owners to see that the titles for vehicles to be registered in 1946 are in order. The law provides that before a vehicle may be registered, the owner must present to the Tax Collector the prior year's registration receipt and must have a title.

Many people do not understand the importance and value of the Title Act, and do not realize that the Certificate of Title Act was passed to improve the validity of titles on motor vehicles thereby making such title comparable to an abstract on real estate.

Motor vehicle owners who have acquired used vehicles and who have received assigned titles from the previous owners are urged to apply at once for their titles in order that the transactions may be recorded and the new owners shown on the title records of the Department. Motor vehicle owners are also urged to register their equipment by purchasing the 1946 license plates as soon as possible. It is a common practice throughout the State for owners to wait until the last week in March, thereby creating congested conditions and long lines of applicants in the various Tax Collector's offices. The County Tax Collectors are experiencing difficulty in obtaining temporary help, and you will be helping them and yourselves by obtaining 1946 license plates during February or in the first part of March and not waiting until the last day or days.

There are some persons operating motor vehicles with Out-Of-State license plates who may legally operate under 1946 Out-Of-State license plates, and these persons are cautioned to obtain such 1946 plates and apply same on or before the expiration of their present plates. There are others operating motor vehicles with Out-Of-State license plates who must legally re-register in Texas, and these persons are advised to purchase Texas plates immediately to avoid having to pay a penalty in addition to the registration fee.

Particular attention of the owners of trucks, truck-trailers, trailers, semi-trailers and buses was called to the fact that they must be prepared to furnish the Tax Collector with a complete description as to the size, type and serial number, et cetera, of equipment to be registered, and must be prepared to register for the actual weight of the empty vehicle plus the heaviest load of weight which under the law cannot be less than the manufacturer's rated carrying capacity. If in doubt as to the actual weight, the owners of commercial vehicles should have their weight and present the weight certificate at the time of registration.

The men enjoyed games of "42," while the ladies were invited to another room where Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Lee Hardgrave honored Mrs. Jack Hardgrave with a miscellaneous shower, presenting her with a bassinett filled with lovely gifts.

The rest of the evening was spent playing "42" and enjoying music presented by Miss Mary Bess and Lee Hardgrave.

Following the entertainment the guests were invited into the dining room, where a lace-covered table contained heart-shaped sandwiches, cookies, olives, pickles, salted nuts, hot chocolate, and coffee. Before departing everyone joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Jack Hardgrave.

Those enjoying the lovely party were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shurley, Mr. and Mrs. Seth R. Rev. J. W. Hendrix Attends Church Meeting at Pecos

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hendrix were visitors in Pecos, on Monday of this week. Rev. Hendrix attended a meeting of all pastors in the Pecos district, which had been called by Rev. A. C. Douglas, district superintendent.

After routine business had been attended to, plans were laid to carry out the chief project of "The Crusade for Christ," as set part for the second period of this crusade, which is Evangelism.

Rev. Hendrix in speaking of this project said:

"This is evangelism set to an entirely new system, mostly visitation evangelism. In other days we practiced mass evangelism and great crowds of both saint and sinner assembled. Now it is found necessary to bear the gospel to the homes, to the individual.

"Never, at least not in our day has the Methodist Church launched such a strenuous effort to reach people in the highway, the by-paths and the hedge rows as this. Never has the pastors faced such a taxing task.

"Between now and Easter every charge in the church must be reached by this effort. Such an effort will shortly begin in the local Methodist Church."

Local Selective Service Board Members Are Honored at Ceremony Held Thursday Afternoon in High School Auditorium

Members of the local Selective Service Board, who have served for two years or more were honored at a ceremony held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the High School.

Maj. John W. Lipscomb, representing Gov. Coke R. Stevenson made the main address, and also presented the medals and awards to the board members in recognition of their war-time services.

"Since it has always been the historic policy of the United States to recognize and publicly acknowledge the gratitude of the people and Government of the United States for Patriotic Service; it is very fitting that the 79th Congress passed an Act to authorize an award of merit for the uncompensated personnel of the Selective Service System who have served continuously for two or more years. These citizens have given their services voluntarily, and in many cases this has resulted in great sacrifices on their part. Congress in passing that Act declared that their service was "an example of patriotism."

This ceremony, today, will award the medals and certificates to only eligible Local Board Members, Members of Boards of Appeal, and Government Appeal Agents, who have completed two or more years of continuous service, as of August 31, 1945. The awarding of the medals and certificates to the other selected uncompensated personnel; namely, Examining Physicians, Examining Dentists, Members of Medical Advisory Board, and Reemployment Committeemen and to those who hereafter complete their period of service, will be made in the near future, and from time to time.

"I want to take this opportunity of expressing for the Governor of State of Texas, and for the State Director of Selective Service, their appreciation for the splendid cooperation that the Sanderson Rotary Club has rendered in the past, and especially thank them for making this assembly possible.

"You and I have come a long way since the dark days of 1940 when Selective Service was first created.

"The men we are here to honor today are those men who were willing to accept grave responsibilities in the time of our country's greatest need.

"You men who served for years on the Local Draft Boards, Boards of Appeal and Government Appeal Agents, of your various communities, have performed your task nobly, without pay, without acclaim, without decorations, and with almost no public recognition.

"It has been hard service, trying, tiresome, frequently sorrowful. There was no glory in sending your neighbor's son to the grueling task of war. Often there was sharp criticism when the son of the neighbor on the other side of the street wasn't called to go.

"You had your 'D' Days too. The days when quotas had to be met, for you composed the machinery that put the major part of twelve million men into uniforms without disrupting the Home Front.

"Coming here today as we do to honor you men who have served so faithfully through these trying times, words seem futile in expressing to you the appreciation of a grateful nation. We know that within each of you there is and will always remain the deep and abiding satisfaction of the knowledge of a job well done.

"The work of Selective Service is not yet ended. Indeed, the phase upon which we are now entering may prove to be one of the most difficult and exacting. Indisputably, it is one that calls for the utmost patience, the most meticulous procedure, and the most unselfish effort.

"It is a period when we must make every effort to help maintain our forces of occupation at the strength required to insure the restoration, or institution, of democratic government in many war-torn lands, and at the same time discharge solemn, legal and obligations for the proper rehabilitation in civilian life of the millions of returning veterans who won the glorious victory for democracy.

"We are confident that you gentlemen have the knowledge, the experience and the will to do the job in peace time in such a manner as to win commendation similar to that for which our Nation now honors your services in war."

Awards and certificates were presented to Alfred E. Creigh Jr., W. F. Harrell, J. C. Mitchell and J. D. Nichols, board members; R. S. Wilkinson and G. J. Henshaw (deceased), Government Appeal Agents.

Car Belonging To Buster Cade Stolen Thursday

A 1940 model green Chevrolet sedan belonging to Buster Cade was stolen Thursday sometime between 12 noon and 2 p. m.

Mrs. Cade, who operates Jimmie's Steak House had parked the car in the rear of the cafe at noon, and a few minutes before 2 o'clock she went to get the car and it was missing.

Sheriff Jim Nance was notified, and he got in touch with officers in surrounding towns to be on the lookout for the car, but up until Friday noon no trace had been found of the missing car.

You Should Have No Trouble Finding Nylon Ceiling Prices

Texans shouldn't have a hard time finding the ceiling price of a pair of nylons—because usually the price is "branded" on the hose.

Look for the brand—or, lacking that, a tag, an insert, or some other ceiling price mark or tag, which will show the legal ceiling. Any "maverick" hose—unmarked or unbranded—may be offered at black market prices.

As nylons appear on the market, after a long, lamented absence, this advice was given shoppers by Warren M. Smith, clothing price specialist of the San Antonio district Office of Price Administration.

"All nylons hose must be marked with the OPA ceiling price for each quality and grade," Smith explained. "This price should be stamped or 'branded' on each pair of hose. However, due to a shortage of marking appliances, the ceiling price may be shown temporarily by means of a tag or inserted price ticket, or similar device.

"Remember, though, that every pair of nylons must show the OPA ceiling price." Smith urged shoppers to look for that price tag or "brand," as it is placed there for protection against illegal prices.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Babb have received word that their daughter, Billie, is one of five students in a class of thirty-seven, to make the honor roll for the past semester. She is in Cadet Nurse training at the M. & S. Hospital in San Antonio.

Farmers Vole To Stop Food-If Strikes Don't

Farmers all over the country are annoyed because they aren't getting things they need from the manufacturers, who would produce the stuff if they could.

But out in Nebraska they're so annoyed that they're threatening to go on strike themselves unless industrial walkouts cease.

"Why, you can't even buy a pair of overalls out here!" said V. H. Johnson, Edgar, Neb., after helping organize a meeting at which 271 farmers voted to withhold their products from market until the strikes end.

"Not to mention the farm tools, machinery, bathtubs and refrigerators we need," "We've got our Irish up!"

Farmers from neighboring States have been phoning and telegraphing their support, Johnson said. Started in Clay County, the movement may become State-wide, then national, the leader remarked.

"We're not taking sides," he commented, "but I believe most farmers here blame labor rather than management for industrial disputes. Our sons, coming back from service, feel pretty strongly about it.

"Anyway, if we shut off sources of food strikers will work—or go hungry." Farmers at Chickasha, Okla.

Bewildered, Asks 'Please Let Me Make Zippers!'

Apparently driven to distraction, a man who wants to make the millions of lowly but important zippers that millions of people want, bought a full-page ad in an Eastern paper last week to state his case.

Heading it "A Plea from a 'Bewildered Small Business Man'" David Silberman, the zipper manufacturer, addressed himself to "the U. S. Government—MY Government," and to labor and management and said:

"I cannot get enough tape. I cannot get enough metal. I cannot get enough labor. I cannot get enough of anything except customers.

"If I could get enough material and enough labor, and my competitors could, too, very soon between us we would make so many zippers, the competition would be so keen—that there would be no possibility of increased prices and no danger of inflation, at

"What is true of my business of button and dresses and and fabrics and steel and autos and locomotives and fingerbowl and toothpicks and applesauce Production, competition, the ingenuity of management, the co-operation of labor, is what will prevent inflation—not Government regulation.

Prepare your cows for a Big Letdown

IN recent tests on a large dairy herd, a two-man team machine-milked 54 cows in an hour. That's just about a cow a minute. They were using the new correct milking method which often cuts milking time in half. Time and labor are saved, more milk is obtained, herd profits are increased, and the danger of mastitis is lessened. The new method can be used on herds of any size, whether machine or hand-milked.

To prepare your cows for a quick letdown of milk, first massage the udder vigorously for 20 seconds with a very warm cloth (130° F.), wrung out of a chlorine (250 parts per million) solution. Second, draw two or three streams from each quarter into a strip cup—which removes milk of high bacterial count and permits inspection for abnormal milk indicating mastitis. These two steps stimulate the cow's milk glands and cause her to let down in about 40 seconds. Milking should be started within a minute after udder massage and finished within four minutes, including brief stripping either by hand or machine. It is good practice to sterilize teat cups in a chlorine solution after each cow is milked.

Most cows respond to this correct milking method. Giving heifers an occasional udder massage before they freshen helps develop them into fast milkers. In the case of cows not previously trained for fast milking, most of them will respond to faster milking if milking time is shortened gradually to from three to four minutes.

An excellent illustrated circular which gives full details on this method of milking may be obtained from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin. Or inquiries may be made to your County agent or nearest Agricultural Experiment Station.

When the Going is Tough We Turn to Fundamentals

by Professor A. E. DARLOW, Oklahoma A. & M. Professor Darlow is at present at Shrinham American University in England, helping to rehabilitate the agriculture of war-torn Europe.

The importance of agriculture and agricultural production was certainly impressed on the average Briton during the war. Food and food production for fighting men and working women were items of first importance. The English farmer did a marvelous job of increasing and maintaining production.

Many have thought that all the effort was on crop production. This is not the fact. Despite the need for all the human food it was possible to produce, the farmers and breeders of Britain have maintained their herds and flocks. There were some shifts and changes in livestock production, but the importance of livestock to agriculture and the importance of livestock production to human welfare were never more fully realized.

Here is a lesson for us all. It isn't theory, but fact brought into sharp focus in a people's fight for existence—that nothing is more important to a nation's economy than her agriculture, and nothing is more necessary to good agriculture than a balanced livestock program.

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

Profits Mean Progress

If someone offered you a deal which gave you a chance to make about 1% of the price your steers, hogs, or lambs sell for, we doubt if you'd get very enthused about it. The profit margin would be too small—about 35¢ on a $35 hog, or only $35 profit on 100 hogs.

Swift & Company makes thousands of such very low-profit deals every day in the year. At the end of the year 1945, for instance, we came out with a profit of only 9/10 of a cent per dollar of sales on our total volume.

The meat packing industry is highly competitive, and many of its products are very perishable. But like you, or any other able businessman, we want to make more profit than that 9/10 of 1% on our business. Profits mean progress, and in order to progress, everyone—producers and meat packers alike—must receive more than barely enough to meet expenses.

Producers of livestock and other farm products got 75¢ of each dollar we received from the sale of all our products, including hides, wool and all by-products. You may well ask, "Where did the remaining 25¢ of that dollar go?" The answer is: 12.3¢ went to all plant and office employees who prepare and market these farm and ranch products; transportation took another 2¢; supplies (fuel, barrels, boxes, salt, sugar, etc.) cost 5.1¢; taxes, 1.4¢; other necessary expenses 3.3¢. And that left just 9/10 of a cent out of the average sales dollar for the development and protection of the business and as a return to the people who have invested their savings in Swift & Company.

MINERAL SUPPLEMENT FOR WINTER FEEDING CATTLE

It has long been known that minerals are necessary for the health of animals and even for life itself. Those minerals most likely to be lacking in winter feeds are calcium or lime, phosphorus, and common salt. Many of the roughages fed to cattle may be short in minerals or grown on soils of low fertility. When cattle are fed such feeds, they must be supplied with a mineral supplement containing salt, lime and phosphorus. Also valuable in this mineral supplement are small quantities of other so-called "trace elements" such as cobalt, iron, manganese, copper and iodine. Although only small amounts of these latter minerals are needed, each plays a part in building a strong, healthy animal.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT

The successful farmer is a businessman who works his land to produce a fair return on invested capital. The capital which he uses comes from accumulated savings of his own, or the savings of others that he has borrowed from a bank or elsewhere.

He invests those savings in land, buildings, machinery, seed, livestock and in other things necessary for himself and his family to produce crops and to raise livestock. When he figures out his results at the end of the year, he, like all other businessmen, measures his success by the returns he makes on his savings and on the borrowed savings. Failures in farming, like failures in other businesses, are due to operations that, over a period of years, fail to average a fair return on the money invested—with the result that the savings are either withdrawn or lost.

Temple, Ora, Clyde, Betty Ann, Bado, Mary, Jeanette, Jack and Betty Jo, were seen going from party to party last Saturday must have been fun going to three parties in one night.

Carrie Marie seemed to be busy at the basketball game Tuesday getting the names of all the Alpine boys.

Hazel, Lizzie, Mary Agnes, Ora and Cecelia, were all in a hurry to get a cup of coffee in the Hi Way after the game with Alpine.

Aggie, is it Pete Cowell from Alpine or "Bosco"? Or still Doyce?

Hazel knew quite a few of the Alpine boys and did she go to town.

Hazel seemed to have had a good time Thursday night. Say! You should invite a few more to such a party next time, kids!

Cookie, it seems that everyone is rubbing it in about Dud's girl friends. Oh well! I wouldn't worry too much; you know two can play the game as well as one.

Jaker, you had better start coming to town more often. After all Wilma can't stay at home Tootle didn't you know that the Sub-Deb Club is for girls only?? Well, it was a dirty trick to leave you there alone! Better luck next time!

We have all expected Gene to pop out with the measles: A tip Doris Duke has had them.

Mrs. B. seems to have a better technique than us girls. She sprouted out with two beautiful carnations Friday morning. The mystery is, if it was Mr. B. or otherwise?

Melvin has a hard time trying to keep Mary Nell to himself. Do the boys go for her? Just watch Jimmy M., Weldon, Bado, Duck, Bill Magill, and possibly Noel, Tootle, and Edgar, not forgetting a certain ex-senior named Johnny. Don't be stingy, Melvin.

Cookie, Mary, and Mary Nell cooked up quite a little picnic

PEOPLE YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW

Marjorie May is a 15-year-old Freshman. She has golden blonde hair, blue eyes and is 5 foot and 4 inches tall. Marjorie has one brother, Buddy. She moved to Sanderson in the year 1943. She was the dutchess in the 7th grade and was elected the favorite girl in her class this year. Everyone likes her and I am sure you will too.

Fitchey Magill is a 16-year-old boy of that famous Junior class that everyone knows and is crazy about. He has gone to three schools in his life; Bracketville Del Rio, and Sanderson. Fitchey is 5 foot and 10 inches tall and weighs 135. He has a brother and a sister. The Magill family live about 40 miles from Sanderson on the Circle Dot Ranch. Fitchey is very popular not only in the Junior Class, but also in the entire high school. You had better meet him if you haven't already done so, because Fitchey is really one swell person.

The Junior play sponsor, Mrs. Bogusch, has decided to begin play practice Monday Feb. 11. The class is to start practicing the first act. The play is to be presented March 15.

Tuesday, Feb. 5, Alpine came down to play our basketball boys. Our "A" team was beat by a score of 39 to 31 and our "B" team was beaten by 10-9.

Also Tuesday nite the girls played the town team. This was just for practice but the town team won even though the girls put up a good fight.

The boys are now practicing for the District meet in Marfa. We all hope the boys will bring home one of those cups.

The wife talks to herself a awful lot. But she doesn't know it. She thinks we are listening.

Thurs. Melvin and Dudley thought so too.

Marjorie and Arthur sure seem to have smoothe going. I believe "Together" could be their theme song.

Has anybody seen that beautiful opal ring Betty Pearl is wearing? The B. F. lives in Bisbee, Arizona.

Has anyone seen that "large" and I do mean large, safety pin Doris Mc is wearing on her coat? Me, the number on it wouldn't mean a number that connects Johnny and Wyoming, could it?

Bosco and Monte seem to always be around somewhere. Sub-Deb Club meeting, then they turned up at the picnic mentioned before—so I hear. Who's your romantic interest now, boys? It's hard to tell by watching alone.

Bob, we never see you around much anymore.

Anybody prefer blondes? Budget, for one seems to. No doubt—a senior.

I know some Junior girls who think Jack Lester is cute. Take a hint, Jack. And Clyde, you don't seem to be dating much lately, either.

Seems like the Tadpoles were doing fine dancing with the upper classmen at Nancy Peavy's dance and party Saturday night.

SEEING THE SENIORS

There's a tall dark senior with pretty brown eyes who's known around here as Melvin Kennedy Melvin was born in Bay City Texas, on March 16, 1928. He started to school in Bay City and before coming to Sanderson this year, he also went to school in Uvalde.

Melvin prefers fried chicken for his hungry moments. When he reads he had rather read war narratives than anything else. Melvin is usually at the show when comedies are showing. His favorite sports are football, basketball, and swimming. (Believe you me, he's a whiz at diving too.) Melvin prefers to spend his spare time loafing.

He's really a nice person to know, and there's generally fun when he's around. I'm sure he will have the best of luck.

A popular blonde senior with a wonderful physique is known around S. H. S. as Bosco Yeates. This engaging fellow with the friendly smile was born here in Sanderson on May 17, 1929.

If you ever have an opportunity to feed Bosco, give him hamburgers. His favorite sports are football and basketball. He's really a whiz at both of them. He was football captain last year. His favorite pastime is practicing basketball and his favorite show was, "A Bell For Adano."

Bosco was voted the most athletic boy in high school last year and this year also. He was also Junior favorite last year and Senior Vice-president.

Bosco has gone to school here in Sanderson ever since he started to school except for half of his sophomore year. You're a swell guy, Bosco, and the best of luck to you!

All the way from their ranch to Abilene, Kansas, the herd was protected from the trail jumpers by a sheriff from Gonzales, Texas. Tassie Lockhart later married the young sheriff, who was Dan McMasters.

One novel which should interest Texans is "North of 36" by Hough. This book tells how Tassie Lockhart, the owner of the Del Sol Ranch, and her man drove the first herd of cattle north from Texas. North of the 36 line was the goal.

WANT THE CAMPUS?
Do you want your picture taken in a dressy way are quite popular to the students of dear H. S. All the kids have been taking pictures a lot. Not only snap shots, but pictures for the annual have been made too. Boy! What fun getting out the drums and pep outfits, volleyball uniforms, football uniforms (or is it the word?) Say, who do you like to take pictures of? The volleyball girls are still working out. There are rumors of a game at Balmorhea the girls are getting ready for what? Yes! By next week you will find out the name of the play the seniors have to show the public this year. Believe me, it will be a real show. You noticed how much the atmosphere is around campus? It seems to me that things are being more cheerful and more full of life these days than at the first year. Keep up your blithe kids—don't let anybody—and that means you—and course. Reasons Offered For Obtaining "Prior Approval"

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 15—Reasons why ranchmen must obtain "prior approval" of conservation practices in order to qualify for payment under the Agricultural Conservation Program have been set forth by Production and Marketing Administration officials here.

In the 1946 conservation program, each county has received an allotment of a limited amount of money to be used in paying for conservation work done. B. F. Vance, State Director of PMA's Field Service Branch, said. Since the amount of work for which payment can be made is limited by the size of the county budget, if the payments are to be apportioned fairly throughout the county, ranchmen must inform the county ACA committee just what conservation work they expect to carry out in earning payments. The committee will authorize the practice if funds are available.

If such a system of obtaining "prior approval" was not followed, some ACA cooperators probably would do conservation work expecting to earn payments and then find the county had exhausted its funds. In such an event, no payment could be made, Vance explained.

Another purpose of the "prior approval" system is to make certain that practices which are to qualify for payment will contribute to conservation on the ranch and fit into the over-all conservation program of the county, Vance declared.

Crime in Texas Climbs 18 Per Cent During Past Year

AUSTIN, Feb. 15—Texas is definitely in the grip of a crime wave. Director Homer Garrison of the State Department of Public Safety declared today.

The crime rate in Texas cities and towns, Garrison said, jumped 18 per cent in 1945—and this increase was superimposed upon a substantial increase in the previous year.

Forty-six police departments representing 1,873,000 inhabitants, last year reported a total of 46,898 major offenses to the Department of Public Safety.

That total included 284 murders, a gain of 9.65 per cent; 115 homicides, up 6.48 per cent; 234 rape cases, a gain of 23.16 per cent; 972 robberies, up 20.30 per cent; 10,826 burglaries, a gain of 22.54 per cent; 28,154 thefts, a 15.93 per cent increase; and 3,313 automobile thefts, up 20.11 per cent.

The increase in rural crime will be even greater than that in cities, Garrison said.
