TSGRA Directors Meeting Held Last Saturday at Alpine

There was a large number of directors present at the quarterly meeting of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association which was held in Alpine last Saturday. Steve Stumberg, president, reported that about 70 directors with their wives were present at the meeting.

Three Day Meeting

Fort Worth was selected as the meeting place for the annual convention with the dates to be December 10, 11 and 12. A special committee designated the Texas Hotel as headquarters for the convention. The opening day, Dec. 10, will be for registration of members and committee meetings, and the second and third day to feature discussions of problems and talks by national leaders of the industry on livestock matters.

Steve Stumberg, president, said officials of the association were planning an interesting program, which would give members three full days of activities.

Asks Wool Program

Stumberg, in reporting on activities since the last meeting, said it was hoped the wool program measure would be adopted by Congress soon after convening the first of the new year. The program as is has been continued until the middle of April and if at that time Congress hasn't enacted some sort of wool legislation he felt certain the percent set-up would be continued for another year.

Stumberg said it was also hoped that wool would be placed under the staple commodity act, this also being in the measure which was reported favorably out of committees of both the House and Senate but did not reach the floor of either before the last Congress adjourned.

He reports that as far as Texas producers were concerned there was no complaint on either the lamb or mohair market.

Asks Dues Increase

Stumberg suggested that members do something toward an increase in dues. He said that some were paying the 10-cent-per-bag dues to the association but not the 10-cent fee for wool and mohair promotion. He suggested a flat fee of 25 cents per bag. This matter is to be discussed further and if any action is taken it will have to be at the regular annual meeting of members. Growers of the northwest pay around 60 cents per bag for association support and promotion activities.

Mr. Gholson was on duty as switchman in the yards and was on top of the car that was being switched to be put on a freight train that was to go out of here west. Due to the foggy weather, visibility was very poor and the switch engine which was coupled to several stock cars loaded with sheep collided with several cars that were loaded with slag. The impact was so great that Gholson was thrown off of the car face down on the slag. The cars of sheep were derailed and about 50 head of stock were killed.

Veterans' News

Veterans enrolling in Texas schools this fall can expect to receive their subsistence checks in about a month, the Veterans Administration San Antonio Regional Office announced, according to Artell P. Donovan, Contact Representative for the VA in Del Rio.

Although the VA Dallas Branch Office expects an increased workload ranging from 25 to 180 per cent higher than last spring, no serious trouble such as was experienced in February and March of this year is expected, Donovan said.

Anticipating the unprecedented rush of students, VA has taken a number of steps to speed up the mechanics for qualifying veterans for subsistence allowances, William T. Murphy, VA's educational director in the tri-state area, revealed.

These include special registration teams at larger schools hiring of part-time employees, overtime work for regular education staffs, temporary shifts in personnel, and even a daily shuttle system between larger schools and local VA offices where this is necessary.

"Veterans enrolling in school for the first time should experience no delay if they have their certificates of eligibility with them, and if the school is prompt in reporting their enrollment to VA," Donovan said.

Donovan emphasized that the schools share a great part of the load in getting subsistence checks to veteran students promptly.

"VA has received excellent cooperation from the schools," he said. "However, any school having difficulty reporting enrollment of veterans (Form 1953) to VA regional offices should let us know, and we will be glad to help them in any way possible."

dents, both a small fraction of the GI student body, may find their subsistence checks slow in coming, Donovan warned.

These are: (1) veterans transferring from one school to another without prior notice to VA; and (2) veterans changing their courses of study.

Veterans changing schools should have first obtained a supplemental certificate from the VA regional office that handled their case before going to a new school, but many have neglected to do so, he explained.

Any change of address must be reported to VA promptly by the veteran over his own signature, Donovan said. If the veteran is not at his old address to claim his check, it may be returned to the treasury department, and he may have to wait some time to receive it.

Donovan attributed the improved situation this fall to more experience on the part of expanded VA personnel, better understanding among veterans and schools of VA procedures, decentralization of VA work to more regional offices than existed last spring, and the improvement of mechanics in handling registration.

Q. Since taking out a guaranteed loan, my business has become so successful, I find I can pay off this loan before it comes due. Will I be permitted to do this?

A. Yes, the regulations give the veteran that privilege.

Q. I am a veteran of World War I. Am I eligible for a loan under the "G. I. Bill"?

A. No. The act's benefits are for World War II veterans only.

Q. If I take out a government guaranteed loan for farming purposes must I live on the farm?

A. No, but the act requires that you actually conduct the farming operations.

Q. May a loan to buy an automobile or truck be guaranteed or insured under the G. I. loan setup?

A. Yes, but only if the automobile or truck is necessary to conduct the veterans own business or farming operations, or conditions of his employment require that he have such a vehicle to carry out his work. He may not obtain a guaranteed loan if the vehicle is merely for transportation.

Bert Childers and the Melon Patch

Bert Childers put an ad in the Clarion the other day. Here's what it said:

"Planted more melons than I can eat this year. Stop by and pick as many as you want. All free."

As you can guess, plenty of folks sent their kids over and plenty of the parents came too. Stripped Bert's melon patch in no time. And as they went away, Bert treated the kids to lemonade, and offered the grownups a glass of ice-cold sparkling beer.

Naturally it puzzled some... but Bert explains: "It gives a kick to share things when afford to—whether it's the melon or the lemonade, or beer. I just like to indulge my whims."

From where I sit, if we had "self-indulgent" people like —who believe in share and alike, live and let live, this world would be a whole lot better off!

HEALTH NOTES—

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 3. Young children may suffer as much from winter illnesses as they do from those commonly known as "summer complaints," in the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, and his advice to parents as the winter approaches is to guard babies and young children against these winter health hazards.

Influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, and asthma are included among those disease which may be dangerous winter illnesses among young children since they affect the respiratory or breathing system. Such disease as pneumonia may develop from a neglected cold they may follow as an after-effect of measles or whooping cough, or they may occur suddenly and with very little warning. These diseases of the respiratory system are more prevalent in winter than in summer and are much more difficult to combat than digestive ailments such as summer complaint.

"These winter diseases are particularly dangerous to babies and young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread through the secretions from the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints and the first line of defense," Dr. Cox cautioned, "is to strengthen the powers of resistance against disease; the second is to keep them under medical supervision and the third is to make sure they avoid contact with others who have coughs, colds, or fevers."

Pete Thompson who spent the past week here visiting his mother, Mrs. George Gann and his sister, Mrs. Horace Shelton left last Friday for his home in Corpus Christi.

This EMPTY TRUCK tells a story

It should be full of pole hardware, wire, transformers, insulators and other material needed to build line extensions and enlarge our facilities to meet today's unprecedented demand for electric service.

Construction involving many thousands of dollars for new lines and services and additional transformer and line capacity is being held up by shortages and other post-war complications in the plants of our suppliers.

We want those who have applied for service to know that we, too, are on a waiting list... while manufacturers, in turn, struggle to fill orders from reduced stockpiles of copper, lead, steel and other materials.

Meanwhile, we are stretching our limited supplies as far as they will go. We'll bring you electric service and push ahead our improvement program just as fast as the supply situation will permit. Your understanding and cooperation are sincerely appreciated.

World Emergency Relief Fund Is Raised by Baptist

The Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Florida during May of this year, launched a campaign to raise $3,500,000 to be used in rehabilitating their mission work and in relieving the suffering in war-torn and famine ravished countries in Europe and Asia. The 920,952 members of Texas Baptist churches were asked to accept a goal of $458,200 toward this amount. To date $650,000.00 or 120 per cent of the goal has been received and offerings continue to come in to the state office.

Dr. Williams, who served as director of the campaign in Texas, expects to report an even larger response to the annual meeting of the Convention at Mineral Wells, November 11-15. It is anticipated that 7,500 messengers from the 3,301 churches affiliated with the convention will attend this annual meeting.

A striking fact about this offering is that none of the gifts will be used to administer the distribution of assistance. This aid will be dispensed by the missionaries and other employees of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board who are already in residence in the needy areas. Wherever aid is extended to countries in which Baptists do not operate missions, such aid will be proffered through already existing relief agencies. Some aid has already been sent through the Friends Society.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, a native Texan and Baptist Mission Secretary to the Orient, will supervise the distribution of aid for China and Japan through the over 200 Baptist missionaries in those areas.

The Pecos Valley Association, of which the Sanderson Baptist church is a member, gave $3,901.42 toward this fund.

Junior College Opens in Uvalde First of Week

Southwest Texas Junior College, the most recent addition to the ranks of Texas public junior colleges, has announced through the president of its board of trustees, Dr. Hershall LaForge of Uvalde, the election of Loy W. Hartsfield, for the past sixteen years president of Hillsboro Junior College, to be the administrative head of this tri-county institution which was voted by the citizenship of Uvalde, Real, and Zavala counties at an election held in May.

This new junior college board has acquired the former Garner flying school property which cost $750,000.00 and which has been declared by experts to be a perfect college campus with splendid airport in connection. The new year began with registration September 30, October 1 and 2.

Hartsfield has been a leader in the junior college movement in Texas for a number of years having served as Legislative Representative for the Texas Junior College Association for the past two sessions of the legislature. He is given credit for having secured the appropriation of $60,000 per student per year now being paid from state funds for this education service.

The new executive of Southwest Texas Junior College is immediate past president of the Texas Junior College Association, and for ten years served as its secretary-treasurer. He is widely recognized as an outstanding college administrator and general collegiate technician at Hillsboro he served the first public junior college organized in Texas and built it from an enrollment of 125 to its present enrollment of over 400 students. In addition to his duties as president of the Hillsboro Junior College, he served as superintendent of schools and business manager of both systems.

Hartsfield is credited with having originated the idea of transporting college students from neighboring communities to the campus each day. Plans are being matured to get such a system set up at Southwest Texas Junior College. By next September it is planned to have a complete network in operation as far as the demand extends.

The board has provided a beautiful home on the campus for the new executive and housing facilities are available on the campus for between 200 to 300 veterans. Applications for these air-conditioned living quarters with private bath should be made before registration. While the opening date has been delayed, it is expected that a satisfactory enrollment will be secured for full and complete operation this year. Veterans will find this home section institution especially advantageous.

Address all correspondence to The Registrar, Southwest Texas Junior College, Uvalde. Dr. LaForge, Board PPresident, will direct those seeking information in person to those helping with registration applications pending arrival of the administrative staff during the next few days.

Eagles Battle Alpine Bucks to 14-14 Tie Friday Afternoon

Playing their first conference game of the season, the Sanderson Eagles last Friday held the Alpine Bucks to a tie. Even though out-playing the Bucks throughout the entire game, the Eagles were able to come off only with a 14-14 tie.

With a large crowd turning out to witness the game, it was the best that the Eagles have done this year, making up for the big land slide that has overtaken them in the two previous games. Everyone that saw the game said it was the best yet and that the Eagles were a far better team than the Bucks.

The Eagles displayed a flashing passing attack that has not been seen on the local gridiron in many a season. J. Harrell did the tossing, Grigsby, Davis, F. Harrell and Dishman were on the receiving line.

The first quarter ended in a tie, 7-7, the Eagles having tallied on a pass from Harrell to Davis converting the point after a touchdown, Alpine made a touchdown, thus tying the score. In the second quarter, Dishman carrying the ball through the line on an off tackle play scored the second touchdown. Point was converted. The half ended with Sanderson in the lead 14-7.

In the third quarter the fans witnessed another touchdown made by the Bucks. From then on, during the remainder of the game both teams used passes in a desperate effort to score, but the only serious threat was made by the Eagles who carried the ball to the 8yd line in the final quarter.

Outstanding on the defense were Davis and Sanchez, guard. Co-captains for the game were W. Chamberlain and D. Thompson.

This Friday the Eagles will journey to Pecos, where they will meet the strong Pecos Hi in their first game of the season.

Davis and F. Harrell will be acting captains.

The Hollywood movie stars can well afford to honeymoon in Europe. After all, to them a honeymoon is something that only happens once in every three or four years.

It is well to remember that the man of few words has just that many less to take back.

Farm Bureau Meeting Will Be Held in San Angelo

A series of 13 district Farm Bureau meetings will be conducted throughout the state of Texas during the month of October, it has been announced by J. Walter Hammond, state Farm Bureau president.

One of the meetings will be held in the Cactus Hotel at San Angelo on Thursday, October 10. C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, state director, will preside. The meeting, which will begin at 10:00 A. M., will be attended by Hammond and State Organization Director Marvin Carter.

"The chief job of organized is to maintain farm prices at a fair exchange level," Hammond said. This was not done following World War I and the result was depression. After the other war farm prices dropped 53 per cent. My 1935 two million farmers were foreclosed. Industrial goods dropped only 14 per cent, which brought about disparity between agriculture and other groups.

Principal topic for discussion at the forthcoming farm meeting, will be the proposals of officials of government and other groups with reference to the future of agriculture. "A careful study of agriculture's program as proposed by these people," Hammond said, "will reveal that they are the same plans offered and adopted following the first World War which led the nation into depression not only wrecked, agriculture, but brought ruin to business, finance, and industry. The sent-day trend is toward cheaper prices for farm products."

"If the right plans are adopted now," Hammond continued, "we cannot hope for anything but a recurrence of disaster following World War I. An agricultural program be maintained that will stabilize the prices of farm products which will in turn stabilize business and industry. It is the responsibility of the farm people of Texas to attend these meetings and discuss the plans for agriculture."
