VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL ENROLLS FIFTY PUPILS

The Vacation Bible School sponsored by the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches was off to a fine start Monday morning with an enrollment of about fifty pupils. Worship service for the entire school is conducted each morning by Rev. Lawrence by Rev. John H. Byrd, the assistant superintendent. The classes for the junior and intermediate groups are at the Presbyterian Church. Teachers and workers in the school are delighted with the attendance and the interest shown.

The older boys and girls are showing much interest in the classes in hand-tooled leather where they are making coin purses and bill folds. There are also classes in textile painting. A complete program including worship, study, handcraft and recreation is being carried out. The school will continue for another week, through June 20.

'Casear' Costliest Film Ever Made

"Caesar and Cleopatra", the G. C. F. Technicloor screen presentation of Bernard Shaw's celebrated drama of the same name, co-starring Vivien Leigh and Claude Rains, has proved to be one of the costliest picture productions in all cinema history, more than $6 million having been expended by the time it was completed.

Much of the excess production cost was due to the large number of elaborate sets and scenes which were needed to re-create the atmosphere called for by
